subordination as to require the Application of the Provisions of this Act; and such County, County of a City, or County of a Town, or any Person thereof respectively, shall, from the Publication of such Proclamation as herein after mentioned, be deemed and taken to be a proclaimed District within the Meaning of this Act: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland to apply the Provisions of this Act to any County or District merely because Tithes shall not have been paid in such County or District.

V. And be it enacted, That every such Proclamation shall warn the Inhabitants of every such County, County of a City, County of a Town, or Part thereof, as shall be so proclaimed, to abstain from all seditious and other unlawful Assemblies, Processions, Conferences, Meetings, and Associations, and to be and remain within their respective Habitations at all Hours between Sunset and Sunrise from and after such Day as shall be named therein for that Purpose.

VI. And be it enacted, That every County, County of a City, County of a Town, or Part thereof respectively, so proclaimed, shall be considered to all Intents and Purposes as a proclaimed District within this Act from the Day after that on which such Proclamation shall be published within such proclaimed District, by affixing a Copy thereof on some conspicuous Place in each Barony within the District, if the same be a County at large or Part of such County, or on some conspicuous Place within a County of a City or County of a Town within such District, if the same be a County of a City or County of a Town, or any Part thereof, as the Case may be.

VII. And be it enacted, That when any such Proclamation shall have been issued, all Justices, Constables, Peace Officers, and others to whom the Execution of the Process of Law may properly belong, and also all Commissioned Officers commanding His Majesty's Regular Forces in Ireland or any Part thereof, shall and each of them is hereby required and enjoined to take the most effectual Measures according to Law for suppressing insurrectionary and other Disturbances and Outrages in any Part of Ireland which may be specified in such Proclamations respectively, and to search for, arrest, and detain for Trial under this Act every Person who shall be charged upon Oath with any Offence which by the Provisions of this Act may be cognizable by or before any Court herein after empowered and authorized to try such Offence.

VIII. And be it enacted, That the Production of the Dublin Gazette, containing the Publication of any Proclamation or Order under this Act, shall in all Proceedings, Civil and Criminal, be received and deemed conclusive Evidence of the issuing and of the Contents of the Proclamation or Order so published.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the Tenants and Possessors of all Houses and other Buildings within any such proclaimed District shall, within a reasonable Time after Application to them respectively made, and so often as such Application shall be so made, by any Chief Constable, or any Constable by such Chief Constable for that Purpose authorized by Writing under his Hand and Seal, sign and deliver to such Chief or other Constable Two true and correct Lists of all the Male Inhabitants or Inmates of each such House or Building, with their Names and Surnames in full, distinguishing those who are of the Age of Fourteen Years or upwards from those who are under that Age, such Lists to be dated and signed, and to be filed up according to the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed prescribed, or as near thereto as may be; and one of such Lists, counter-signed by such Chief or other Constable, shall be delivered to the Person signing the same, to be by him posted on his Door, or inside his House, or to be kept by him; and another of said Lists shall be truly copied into a Book to be for that Purpose kept by such Chief or other Constable, and shall, together with such Book, remain in the Care and Custody of such Chief Constable, and shall be kept at the nearest Police Station, or elsewhere, as to such Chief Constable shall seem fit; and every such Tenant refusing or neglecting to make and sign such Lists within a reasonable Time after being so required to make and sign the same as aforesaid, shall, upon the Complaint of such Chief or other Constable, be fined in any Sum not exceeding One Shilling a Day for each Day that he shall, after such Request so made as aforesaid, refuse or neglect to make and sign such Lists, or shall be imprisoned until he shall have made and signed such Lists; and such Fine or Imprisonment shall, after due Notice and Opportunity of Defence, according to the course of the Court, be awarded by and at the Discretion of the Justices of Petty Sessions of the District in which such Tenants and Possessors shall respectively be resident: Provided always, that any false Statement or Suppression of the Truth in any such List shall be deemed to be a Misdemeanor, and the Person or Persons guilty of wilfully making the same shall be punishable accordingly.

X. And in order to facilitate the making such Lists, be it further enacted, That the Chief Constables of Police within such District shall provide and keep at their several Police Stations, for the Use of such Tenants and Possessors of Houses as aforesaid, printed Forms of Lists according to the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed, and shall furnish the same to such Tenants and Possessors free of Expence; and that such Chief or other Constables shall also assist the said Persons in the filling and making and signing of such Lists, if by them so required; and that to defray the Expences of such printed Forms and of such Books, the Grand Jury of the County, County of a City, or County of a Town, within which such District or any Part thereof is situate, shall and may and is hereby required at the Assizes next after the making of such Proclamation, and of making such Lists as aforesaid, to present such Sums or Sums as shall be sufficient to defray the Expence of that Partion of the District locally situate within the Jurisdiction of such Grand Jury, and which Sums shall be levied of such Counties respectively, and paid over to such Chief Constable as aforesaid.

and be deemed to be a Judge Advocate at and for the Purpose of each Court Martial, and shall have all the Powers and Authorities, and perform all the Duties and Functions, which any Judge Advocate may or ought, in case of any Courts Martial, to possess, execute, and discharge.

XVII. And be it enacted, That the Persons so constituted and appointed Members of such Courts Martial shall, in case of any Oath or Oaths now usually taken by Members of Courts Martial, take the Oath following; (that is to say,)

I, A.B. do swear, That I will well and truly try and determine the Matter before me according to the Evidence; that I will faithfully, impartially, and justly exercise all Powers and Authorities conferred upon me by an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of King William the Fourth, intituled [love at first the Title of this Act]; that I will not divulge the Secrets of the Court and it shall be approved by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, or by some Person duly authorized by him or them; and that I will not upon any account at any Time whatsoever disclose or discover the Vote or Opinion of any particular Member of the Court Martial, unless required to give Evidence thereof as a Witness by a Court of Justice or a Court Martial in a due Course of Law.

And so soon as the said Oath shall have been administered to the respective Members of the said Court by the Person by this Act authorized to act as Judge Advocate, and which Oath the said Person so authorized is hereby empowered to administer, then the President of the said Court is hereby authorized and required to administer to the Person so appointed to act as Judge Advocate an Oath as the following Words: (that is to say,)

I do swear, That I will faithfully, impartially, and justly exercise all Powers and Authorities conferred upon me by an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of King William the Fourth, intituled [love at first the Title of this Act]; and that I will not upon any account, at any Time whatsoever, disclose or discover the Vote or Opinion of any particular Member of the Court Martial, unless required to give Evidence thereof as a Witness by a Court of Justice or a Court Martial in a due Course of Law.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, or any Officer duly authorized by him or them as aforesaid, is and are hereby empowered to order that every Person charged with any of the Offences by this Act made cognizable by such Court Martial may be, and such Persons shall be, summarily tried by and before such Court Martial; and the Sentence of such Court Martial, when duly confirmed by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, or by any Officer by him or them authorized to convoke such Court Martial and to enforce the Sentences of such Court Martial, shall be carried into execution, and shall have the like Effect as if the Trial of such Offences had been had before and the Sentence had been passed by any Court of Oyer and Tenor or General Goal Delivery, or Sessions of the Peace: Provided always, that no Forfeiture of Goods or Chattels shall cause upon any Conviction had before any such Court Martial as aforesaid under this Act, nor shall any Sentence of Transportation by such Court Martial be carried into effect, unless confirmed by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland under his or their Hand or Hands.

XIX. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, or such Person as shall be duly authorized by him or them for that Purpose, from Time to Time to issue such Orders as to him or them shall seem fit for bringing before such Court any Person charged with any Offence by this Act made cognizable by such Court, or for executing and carrying into effect any Sentence, so confirmed as aforesaid, of any such Court respectively; which Orders all Sheriffs, Justices of the Peace, Coroners, Constables, Officers, and Ministers of Justice, and other Persons to whom the same shall be directed, and to whom the Execution thereof shall rightfully and properly appertain, shall and are hereby required to execute, enforce, and obey.

XX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any such Court Martial, or any Member thereof, and they or he be hereby required, to summon, as well on the Part of the Defence as the Prosecution, any Person, whose Evidence may be required, to appear before such Court to give Evidence upon any Trial touching any Offence, Matter, or Thing cognizable by such Court; and if the Person so summoned shall refuse or neglect to attend in obedience to such Summons, it shall be lawful for such Court, after Proof upon Oath of the due Service of such Summons, to issue a Warrant to apprehend and bring before such Court the Party so refusing or neglecting; and in case of the Refusal of any Party to be examined or to give Evidence touching any Matter to which he or she shall be interrogated by such Court (there being no lawful Objection thereto), then it shall be lawful for such Court to commit the Person so refusing to Custody for any Period not exceeding Three Months, or until such Person shall sooner submit to be examined and answer touching the Matters before the said Court.

XXI. And be it enacted, That any Person liable to be prosecuted for any Offence constituted within any District proclaimed as aforesaid, contrary to the Provisions of an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled An Act to prevent tumultuous Meetings and Assemblies, and for the more effectual Punishment of Persons guilty of Outrage, Riot, and illegal Combination, and of administering and taking unlawful Oaths, or contrary to the Provisions of an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the same Reign, intituled An Act for the more effectually preventing the administering and taking of unlawful Oaths in Ireland, and for the Protection of Magistrates and Witnesses in Criminal Cases, or contrary to the Provisions of a certain other Act passed in the passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intitled 'An Act to prevent and punish tumultuous Routings of Persons within this Kingdom, and for other Purposes therein mentioned,' or contrary to the Provisions of the said Act of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of King George the Third therein referred to, or contrary to the Provisions of a certain other Act passed in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled 'An Act to extend for Five Years, in certain Cases, Party Promotions in Ireland; or contrary to the Provisions of any Act or Acts to continue the said Acts or any of them, and also every Person charged with any Offence contrary to the Provisions of this Act, except any Offence created by this Act, and directed to be tried and prosecuted according to the Course of the Common Law, shall and may be tried by and before a Court Martial to be appointed as aforesaid, and whether the Offence so charged shall or shall not have been committed before the passing of any Proclamation under this Act: Provided always, that in case the Lord Lieutenant should direct that any Person charged with any Offence contrary to any of the Acts aforesaid, which by Law now is or may be punishable with Death, shall be tried before any Court Martial appointed under this Act, such Court, in case of Conviction, shall, instead of the Punishment of Death, sentence such Convict to Transportation for Life or for any Period not less than Seven Years; and provided also, that such Courts shall in no Case impose the Penalty of whipping on any Person convicted by or before such Courts: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful for any such Court Martial to convict or try any Person for any Offence whatsoever committed at any Time before the passing of this Act: Provided also, that nothing in this Act shall be deemed or taken to give to such Court Martial any Power or Jurisdiction to try any Person or Persons charged or to be charged with the printing, publishing, or circulating of any Libel, or with any Combination or Conspiracy contrary to the Provisions of the said recited Statute of the Twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, or with any Prevention or Obstruction of any Person, or any Act to defraud any Person in the Assertion or Enforcement of any Civil Right or Claim contrary to the Provisions of the said last-mentioned Statute, unless such Combination or Prevention, Obstruction or Act, shall be accompanied by Force or by Threats; but that all such Offences, unaccompanied by Force or Threats as aforesaid, shall remain triable according to the Course of the Common Law.

XXII. And be it enacted, That any Magistrate, Peace Officer, or other Person for that Purpose authorized by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, shall and may cause to be apprehended and committed any Person who, within any such proclaimed District as aforesaid, and under suspicious Circumstances, shall be in the Fields, Roads, Highways, or elsewhere out of his or her Dwelling or Place of Abode, at any Time from One Hour after Sunset until Sunrise; and such Person shall and may be detained until Trial, unless previously discharged or held in Bail by some Person thereto authorized; and the Court before whom such Person shall be tried shall inquire into the said Charge, and unless the Person accused shall make it appear, to the Satisfaction of such Court, that he or she was out of his or her House upon his or her lawful Occasions, such Person shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Justice of the Peace within any County, County of a City, County of a Town, or other District proclaimed under this Act, and for any Person thereto authorized by the Warrant of any such Justice of the Peace, if the Person so authorized be accompanied by a Commissioned Officer of His Majesty's Army or a Chief Constable of Police, at any Time from One Hour after Sunset until Sunrise, to demand and require that the Male Inhabitants or inmates, by Name, of any House or other Building within any such proclaimed District, shall come forth and show themselves to such Justice or authorized Person; and if any of such Male Inhabitants or inmates (being above the Age of Fourteen Years, and being so demanded and required,) shall not, within a reasonable Time after such Demand, come forth and show himself or themselves as aforesaid, such Person or Persons shall be deemed and taken to have been absent from their Houses at the Time of such Demand, save as herein-after provided; and any Magistrate or Peace Officer may cause to be apprehended and committed any Person or Persons who shall have been absent from their Houses at the Time of such Demand; and such Person or Persons shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor, and shall be convicted and punished accordingly, unless such Person or Persons can make it appear, to the Satisfaction of the Court before which he or they shall be tried for the said Offence, that he or they was or were absent on his or their lawful and proper Occasions: Provided always, that if any Excuse be made or offered for the Nonappearance of any Person so demanded or required as aforesaid, such Justice or authorized Person, being satisfied with the Truth thereof, may accept such Excuse; but if such Justice or authorized Person shall have Reason to suspect such Excuse to be untrue, he may thereupon demand Admission for himself and One other Person in his Aid, for the sole Purpose of seeing the Person for whose such Excuse was so offered; and in case Admission for such Purpose shall be refused, or shall not be obtained within a reasonable Time after such Demand, then such Person so demanded and required shall be deemed and taken to have been absent from his House at the Time of such Demand.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That if any Justice of the Peace, or other Person authorized by the Warrant of such Justice, shall in any such proclaimed District find any Arms or Ammunition, or any Pike, Pike Head, Spear, Dirk, or any other offensive Weapon, in the Dwelling House or Possession of any Person or Persons not duly authorized to keep the same, every such Person shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor, and may be convicted and punished accordingly by a Court Martial under this Act, unless unless such Person shall make it appear to the Satisfaction of the Court before which he, she, or they shall be tried, that such Arms, Ammunition, or offensive Weapons as aforesaid were in his, her, or their House or Possession without his, her, or their Knowledge, Privity, or Consent.

XXV. And he it enacted, That every Person who shall wilfully or maliciously injure either the Person or the Property, Real or Personal, of any Person who has appeared or shall appear as a Juror, Witness, Prosecutor, or otherwise, for the Purpose of any Prosecution, or any Civil Action or Proceeding, for or by reason of any thing done thereupon by such Person, or who shall, by Menaces or otherwise lawless, deter or intimidate, or endeavor to deter or intimidate, any Person from appearing or acting in any such Prosecutions or Civil Action or Proceeding, as a Juror, Witness, Prosecutor, or otherwise, for the Purposes of such Prosecutions, Action, or Proceeding, or from discharging his or her Duty in that Behalf, shall upon Conviction be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor, and may be sentenced to be transported for any Term not less than Seven nor more than Fourteen Years; and every such Offence, if committed within any such proclaimed District as aforesaid, shall be cognizable by a Court Martial appointed under the Authority of this Act.

XXVI. Provided always, That in all Cases in which by any Law now in force any such Offence would amount to Felony, and the Party convicted thereof would be subject to be punished with Death, any such Offence shall still be deemed a Felony, and the Person convicted thereof by any competent Court other than a Court Martial under the Provisions of this Act shall be subject to be punished with Death, any thing herein to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXVII. And he it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act no Person shall make, aid or assist in making, or be present for the Purpose of aiding or assisting in the making of any Beacons, Bonfires, Light, Fire, Flash, Blaze, or any Signal by Smoke, or by any Rocket, Firework, Flag, firing of any Gun or other Fire-arms, or by blowing of Horns, or by ringing of any Church, Chapel, or other Bell, or by any other Contrivance or Device, for the Purpose of giving any Notice or Intimation to any Person or Persons engaged in any illegal Combination, or in any Association or Assembly against the Provisions of this Act; and that no Person shall make or give, or assist in the making or giving, or be present for the Purpose of assisting in the making or giving of any such Signal, or of any other Signal, Notice, or Call, or to upon any Person or Persons whatsoever to assemble together, or to act in concert together, for any Purpose not warranted by Law, or which is prohibited by this Act, or to assemble in Arms, or in unusual Numbers, and at unusual Times and Places, to the endangering of the Public Peace; and if any Person, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall make or cause to be made, or aid or assist in the making, or be present for the Purpose of assisting at the making of any such Signal, Notice, or Call to or upon any such Person or Persons as aforesaid, or for any such Purpose as aforesaid, such Person so offending shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor; and every such Offence committed within any District proclaimed in pursuance of the Provisions of this Act shall be cognizable by any Court Martial appointed under this Act, and, if committed within any other District, shall be tried and punished according to the Course of the Common Law, and not otherwise.

XXVIII. And he it enacted, That no Act, Matter, or Thing done in any such proclaimed District as aforesaid, in pursuance or execution of any Power or Authority hereby conferred, shall be questioned in any Court of the United Kingdom having Jurisdiction, Civil or Criminal, except as herein-after mentioned; that is to say, that all Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Soldiers who shall act under any such Power or Authority shall, for and in respect of any thing done under such Power or Authority, in any such proclaimed District as aforesaid, be responsible to Courts Martial to be holden under any Statute in Force for holding Courts Martial, by which Courts Martial respectively they shall be liable to be tried and punished for any Offence against the Articles of War under any Law then in force for such Purpose; and such Courts Martial respectively shall have full and exclusive Cognizance of all such Matters and Things which shall be objected against such Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Soldiers respectively, and Proceedings shall be had thereon in the same Manner as for Offences against the Articles of War, and not otherwise; and no other Court in any Part of the United Kingdom, whether Civil or Criminal, shall have Cognizance or Jurisdiction with respect to any Act, Matter, or Thing which shall be done by any such Officer, Non-commissioned Officer, or Soldier, in pursuance of this Act, in any such proclaimed District as aforesaid; and any Proceeding instituted, had, or commenced in any such Court as last mentioned, against any Officer, Non-commissioned Officer, or Soldier, for or by reason of any such Act, Matter, or Thing, whether by Indictment, Action, or otherwise, shall be stayed by summary Application to the Court in which the same shall have been instituted, had, or commenced; and that all Justices of the Peace, Constables, Policemen, and all other Persons besides Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Soldiers, who shall act under any such Power or Authority, for and in respect of any thing done under such Power or Authority in any such proclaimed District as aforesaid, shall be liable to be prosecuted in any Court of Criminal Jurisdiction under the Warrant of His Majesty's Attorney General for England, and not otherwise, and being so prosecuted shall be proceeded against and punished for such Offence according to the Course of the Common Law.

XXIX. And he it enacted, That in Cases where any Person or Persons shall during the Continuance of this Act be arrested, committed, or detained in Custody by force of any Warrant issued under the Authority of this Act, or by any Person hereby empowered in that Behalf, it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons so authorized or empowered to detain such Person or Persons so arrested or committed in his or their Custody in any Place whatever within England: Provided always, that no

XXX. And be it enacted, That every Person who shall knowingly and corruptly swear falsely in any Evidence given by such Person before any Court constituted or arising under the Authority of this Act shall be deemed and adjudged to be guilty of the Crime of wilful and corrupt Perjury, and shall upon Conviction thereof be liable to all the Penalties and Punishments now by Law incident to the Crime of wilful and corrupt Perjury.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That if any Person who shall be detained in Custody under the Powers created by this Act, charged with any Offence committed in any proclaimed District as aforesaid, shall sue forth a Writ of Habeas Corpus within Three Calendar Months from the Time of his first Arrest, it shall be a good and sufficient Return to such Writ that the Party suing forth the same is detained by virtue of the Powers in that Behalf hereby conferred, and when such Return shall be made it shall not be necessary to bring up the Body of the Person so detained.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That no Justice or Justices of the Peace, save as herein-before provided, shall have any Power or Authority to admit to Bail any Person charged with any Offence hereby made cognizable by any Court Martial appointed under the Provisions of this Act: Provided always, that no Person shall be detained in Custody by virtue of the Powers contained in this Act for a longer Time than Three Calendar Months from the Time of his first Arrest, without being brought to Trial for the Offence or Offences for which he is so detained in Custody.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That in all Cases where any Offence committed within such District proclaimed as aforesaid shall be punished with Imprisonment under this Act, or by any Court authorized under the Provisions thereof, other than and except any Offence created by this Act for being present at any unlawful Assembly, it shall and may be lawful for such Court to order and award, if they shall so think fit, that, in addition to the Imprisonment thereby directed, the Person convicted shall be kept to hard Labour during the Whole or any Part of the Period to which such Imprisonment shall extend.

XXXIV. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Magistrates of the next adjacent Counties, at large respectively to execute this Act within the several Counties of Cities or Counties of Towns in England, except the County of the City of Dublin.

XXXV. And be it enacted, That all the Powers and Authorities given to and all Duties required from Magistrates of Counties at large, under and by virtue of this Act, shall be and are hereby given to and required from all Magistrates of Counties of Towns or Counties of Cities in England, within their respective Counties of Towns or Counties of Cities.

XXXVI. And be it enacted, That if any Action, Suit, Plein, or Information shall be commenced or prosecuted against any Person or Persons for what he or they shall do in pursuance and execution of this Act, in any Part of England, not being in any such proclaimed District as aforesaid, the same shall be commenced within Six Months after the Act complained of was committed, and shall be brought or laid within the County where the Act was committed, and such Person so sued may plead the General Issue of Not Guilty, or any other General Issue which the Nature of the Case may admit, and upon Issue joined may give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff or Prosecutor shall become Non-suit, or suffer Discontinuance, or suffer Judgment, or if a Verdict or Judgment on Demurrer shall pass against him, the Defendant shall recover Treble Costs.

XXXVII. And whereas Doubts may arise whether any such Action, Suit, Plein, or Information was so commenced or prosecuted against the Defendant or Defendants therein for what he or they did in pursuance or execution of this Act; be it enacted, That in all Cases where there shall be a Verdict for the Defendant, if it shall appear to the Judge or Court before whom the Cause shall have been tried that the same was prosecuted or instituted for or by means of any Act done in pursuance or execution of this Act, such Judge or Court shall certify the same on the Record, and thereupon such Treble Costs shall be adjudged as aforesaid; and if the Plaintiff or Prosecutor shall become Non-suit, or suffer Discontinuance, or suffer a Discontinuance, or if Judgment shall pass against him on Demurrer, it shall and may be lawful for the Defendant or Defendants, or any of them, to suggest on the Record that such Action, Suit, Plein, or Information was brought against such Defendant or Defendants for what he or they did in pursuance or execution of this Act, which Suggestion may be traversed by the Plaintiff if he shall think proper so to do, and Issue being joined thereupon, the same shall be tried by the Jury according to the usual Course of such Court on Issues joined therein; and if such Suggestion shall not be traversed, or being traversed the Issue thereon shall be found for such Defendant or Defendants, he or they shall thereupon be entitled to his or their Treble Costs as aforesaid, together with the Treble Costs of the said Suggestion, and of the Proceedings thereon (if any), and if such Issue shall be found for the said Plaintiff, he shall be entitled to the Costs of the said Suggestion and the Proceedings thereon, and the same shall be set off against the Costs to be adjudged to the Defendant or Defendants making such Suggestion, and the Judgment shall be for the Balance of the said Costs, if any.

XXXVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That when a Verdict shall be given for the Plaintiff in any such Action to be brought against any Justice of the Peace, Police Officer, or other Person for taking or imprisoning or detaining any Person, or entering Houses, under colour of any Authority given by this Act, and it shall appear to the Judge or Judges before whom the same shall be tried that there was a probable Cause for doing the Act complained of in such Action, and the Judge or Court shall certify the same on Record, then and in that Case the Plaintiff shall not be entitled to more than Simple Damages, nor to any Costs of Suit: Provided also, that where a Verdict shall be given for the Plaintiff in any such Action as aforesaid, and the Judge or Court before whom the Cause shall be tried shall certify on the Record that the Injury for which such Action was brought was wilfully and maliciously committed, the Plaintiff shall be entitled to Treble the Costs of Suit.

XXXIX. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, by a new Proclamation to be made by and with the Advice of the Privy Council of Ireland, to revoke any Proclamation issued in pursuance of this Act as to the Whole or any Part of the District thereby proclaimed, which new Proclamation shall be forthwith transmitted by the Clerk of the Privy Council to the Lord Lieutenant of the County, County of a City, or County of a Town, who shall forthwith notify the same to each Court Martial, if actually sitting, and if not, then at the next Sitting of such Court, and such Court shall thereupon cause the same to be read in open Court; and on such new Proclamation being read, the original Proclamation mentioned therein shall forthwith stand and be revoked so far as the said new Proclamation shall purport to revoke the same; and if no Part of such County, County of a City, or County of a Town shall then remain proclaimed, the Authorities and Powers of each Court shall forthwith cease and determine.

XL. Provided always, and be it declared and enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to take away, abridge, or diminish the acknowledged Prerogative of His Majesty, in respect of appointing and commissioning Courts Martial according to the Provisions of the Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion, or the undoubted Prerogative of His Majesty, for the Public Safety, to resort to the Exercise of Martial Law against open Enemies or Traitors, or any Powers by Law vested in the said Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, with or without the Advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, or in any other Person or Persons whatsoever, to suppress Insurrection and Disturbances or Tumults and Rebellion, and to do any Act warranted by Law for that Purpose, in the same Manner as if this Act had never been made, or in any Manner to call in question any Acts heretofore done for the like Purposes.

XLI. And be it enacted, That this Act shall continue and be in force until the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, and no longer; and that it shall and may be lawful to repeal, amend, or alter this Act during the present Session of Parliament.

XLII. Provided always, That neither the Revocation of any Proclamation by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, nor the Expiration of this Act, shall annul or suspend any Sentence passed against any Person or Persons for Offences of which such Persons shall have been or shall be convicted by any Court Martial under this Act.

Power of
martial.

VII. And be it enacted, That a General Court-martial may sentence any Soldier to Imprisonment, solitary or otherwise, and with or without hard Labour, in any public Prison, or other Place which the Court, or the Authority confirming the Sentence, may appoint, or to Corporal Punishment, not extending to Life or Limb, for Immorality, Misbehaviour, and Neglect of Duty; and a General Court-martial may, in addition to any such Punishment as aforesaid, sentence any Offender to Forfeiture of all Advantage as to additional Pay, and Pardon on Discharge; and whosoever any General Court-martial by which any Soldier shall have been tried and convicted of any Offence punishable with Death shall not think the Offender deserving of Capital Punishment, such Court-martial may, instead of awarding a Corporal Punishment or Imprisonment, adjudge the Offender, according to the Degree of the Offence, to be transported as a Felon for Life or for a certain Term of Years, or may sentence him to general Service as a Soldier in any Corps and in any Country or Place which His Majesty shall thereupon direct, or may, if such Offender shall have retained for a limited Term of Years, sentence him to serve for Life as a Soldier in any Corps which His Majesty shall please to direct; and the Court may, in addition to any other Punishment, sentence such Offender to forfeit all Advantage as to Increase of Pay, or as to Pardon on Discharge, which might otherwise have accrued to such Offender; provided that in all Cases where a Capital Punishment shall have been awarded by a General Court-martial, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, or, if in the East Indies, for the Officer commanding in Chief the Forces at the Presidency to which the Offender shall belong, instead of causing such Sentence to be carried into execution, to order the Offender to be transported as a Felon, either for Life or for a certain Term of Years, as shall seem meet to His Majesty, or, if in the East Indies, to the Officer commanding as aforesaid; and if any Person transported as a Felon, whether in pursuance of the original Sentence of the Court-martial, or in pursuance of such Order from His Majesty, or from such Officer commanding in the East Indies as aforesaid, shall afterwards return or be sent at large, without Leave from His Majesty or other lawful Authority, within any Part of His Majesty's Dominions Abroad or at Home, other than the Place to which he shall have been transported, before the Expiration of the Term limited by such Sentence or Order, and shall be duly convicted thereof, shall suffer Death as a Felon.

Power of District or Garrison
Courts-martial.

IX. And be it enacted, That a District or Garrison Court-martial shall consist of not less than seven Commissioned Officers, except in Bahama's, the Bahamas, Africa, and New South Wales, where it may consist of not less than five Commissioned Officers, and may sentence any Soldier to any Imprisonment, solitary or otherwise, and with or without hard Labour, in any public Prison or other Place which such Court, or the Authority confirming the Sentence, may appoint, or to Corporal Punishment, not extending to Life or Limb, for Immorality, Misbehaviour, or Neglect of Duty; and such Court may, in addition to either of the said Punishments, sentence a Soldier to Forfeiture of all Advantage as to additional Pay, and to Pardon on Discharge, for the following Offences,

In wilfully maiming or injuring himself, or any other Soldier, at the Instance of such Soldier, with Intent to render himself or such Soldier unfit for the Service;

In tampering with his Eyes;

In maiming, forging Disease, absconding himself from Hospital whilst under Medical Care, or other great Violation of the Rules of any Hospital, thereby wilfully producing or aggravating Disease or Infirmity, or wilfully delaying his Care;

In purchasing or selling Government Stores;

In striking any Money or Goods, the Property of a Comrade, of a Military Officer, or of any Military or Regimental Mess;

In producing false or fraudulent Accounts or Receipts;

In embezzling or fraudulently misapplying Public Money entrusted to him, or in committing any petty Offence of a felonious or fraudulent Nature, to the Injury of or with Intent to injure any Person, Civil or Military;

Or for any other disgraceful Conduct, being of a cruel, indecent, or unmanly Kind;

And such Offender may be further put under Stoppages, not exceeding Two Thirds of his daily Pay, and the Arrest be made good of any Loss or Damage arising out of his Misconduct; and if any Soldier shall be convicted of any such disgraceful Conduct, and shall be sentenced to Forfeiture of his Claim to Pension, the Court may further recommend him to be discharged with Ignominy from His Majesty's Service; and any such Court shall deprive a Soldier, if convicted of a Charge of habitual Drunkenness, of his Allowance in lieu of Beer or Liqueur, or of such Proportions thereof, or of such Portion of his additional or regular Pay, for such Period, not exceeding Two Years, as may accord with His Majesty's Articles of War, subject to Restoration on subsequent good Conduct; and in addition to any such Punishment, the Court may, if it shall think fit, sentence such Offender to Imprisonment or to Corporal Punishment; provided that in all the foregoing Cases the Sentences of a District or Garrison Court-martial shall be confirmed by the General Officer, Governor, or Senior Officer in command of the District, Garrison, Island, or Colony; and the President of every Court-martial, other than a General Court-martial, not being under the Rank of Captain, shall be appointed by the Officer commanding such Court-martial; provided that such Court-martial shall not have Power to pass any Sentence of Death or Transportation.

XL. And be it enacted, That every Soldier convicted of Desertion by a General, or District, or Garrison Court-martial, or of Felony in any Court of Civil Judicature, shall thereupon forfeit all Advantage as to additional Pay, and to Pardon on Discharge, in addition to any Punishment which such Court may award; and it shall be lawful for any Court-martial empowered to try the Crime of Desertion, in addition to any other Punishments, to direct that the Offender be marked on the Left Side, Two Inches below the Arm-yug, with the Letter (D.), such Letter not to be less than an Inch long, and to be marked upon the Skin with some Ink or Gaspewder, or other Preparation, so as to be visible and conspicuous, and not liable to be obliterated.

Deserter.

XXI. And be it enacted, That every Soldier shall be liable to be tried and punished for Desertion from any Corps into which he may have enlisted, or from His Majesty's Service, although he may of right belong to the Corps from which he shall have originally deserted; and if such Person shall be classed as a Deserter by the Corps to which he originally belonged, and be tried as a Deserter therefrom, or shall be tried as a Deserter from any other Corps into which he may have enlisted, or if he shall be tried while actually serving in some Corps for Desertion from any other Corps, every Desertion previous or subsequent to that for which he shall be under Trial, as well as every previous Conviction for any other Offence, may be given in Evidence against him; and in like Manner, upon the Trial of any Soldier for any Offence whatever, any previous Convictions may be given in Evidence against him, provided that no such Evidence shall in any Case be received until after the Prisoner shall have been found guilty of the Offence for which he shall be under Trial, and then only for the Purpose of affecting Punishment; and provided also, that after he shall so have been found guilty, and before such Evidence shall be received, it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Court that he had previously to his Trial received Notice of the Intention to produce such Evidence on the same; and provided further, that the Court shall in no Case award to him any greater or other Pardonment or Pardonments than may by this Act and by the Articles of War be awarded for the Offence for which he shall be under Trial.

Subsequent
Enlistment as Protection from
Desertion.

XXII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commandeers of any Place where any Person reasonably suspected to be a Deserter shall be found, or of any adjoining Place, and if no such Constable can conveniently met with, then for any Officer or Soldier in His Majesty's Service, to apprehend or cause such suspected Person to be apprehended, and to cause him to be brought before any Justice living in or near such Place, and acting for the same or any adjoining County, who hath hereby Power to examine such suspected Person; and if by his Confession, or the Testimony of One or more Witnesses upon Oath, or by the Knowledge of such Justice, it shall appear that such suspected Person is a Soldier, and ought to be with the Corps to which he belongs, such Justice shall forthwith cause him to be conveyed to some public Prison in such Place, or if there be no public Prison in such Place, then, at the Discretion of such Justice of the Peace, to the nearest or most convenient public Prison in the same or any next adjoining County, or in the Provost Marshal, in case such Deserter shall be apprehended within the City or Liberties of Dublin or Places adjacent, or if such Deserter shall be apprehended by any Party of Soldiers of his own Regiment, or shall be apprehended in the Vicinity of the Head Quarters or of any Depot of the Regiment to which he shall belong, then such Justice may deliver such Deserter to the Party of his Regiment, or may order such Deserter to be taken to the Head Quarters or Depot of the Regiment to which he shall belong, instead of committing him to Prison; and such Justice shall transmit on Account thereof, in the Form prescribed in the Schedule annexed to this Act, to the Secretary at War, or, if the Deserter be apprehended in Ireland, to the Chief Secretary, specifying at the Foot thereof the Commitment to Prison, or Delivery of such Deserter to the Party of his Regiment in order for his being taken to the Head Quarters or Depot of his Regiment, as the Case may be, to the end that such Person may be removed by an Order from the Officer of the said Secretary at War, or Chief Secretary in Ireland, and proceeded against according to Law; and such Justice shall also send to the Secretary at War a Report, stating the Names of the Persons by whom the Deserter was apprehended and secured, and the Secretary at War shall transmit to such Justice an Order for the Payment to such Persons of such Sums, not exceeding Forty Shillings, as the Secretary at War shall be satisfied they are entitled to, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act: Provided also, that the Fee or Reward taken by any Justice, or his Clerk, in respect of any Information, Commitment, or Report as aforesaid, shall in no Case exceed the Sum of Two Shillings.

Apprehension of Deserters.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That any Recruit who shall desert prior to joining the Regiment for which he has enlisted, and who shall, on being apprehended, and committed for such Desertion by any Justice of the Peace upon the Testimony of One or more Witnesses upon Oath, or upon his own Confession, shall be liable to be transferred to any Regiment or Depot nearest to the Place where such Recruit shall have been apprehended, or to any other Regiment to which His Majesty may deem it more desirable that he should be transferred: Provided always, that all Cavalry Recruits so convicted of Desertion shall be transferred to Cavalry Regiments, and Infantry Recruits to Infantry Regiments; and that such Deserters thus transferred shall not be liable to other Punishment for the Offence, nor to any other Penalty, except the Forfeiture of their personal Bounty, reserving only for them that Part of the Bounty which is applicable to and required for the Provision of Necessaries.

ing liable to be transferred to the nearest
Depot.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That every Person who shall receive Bribing Money from any Person employed in the Recruiting Service, he being an Officer, Non-commissioned Officer, or an attached Soldier, shall be deemed to be enlisted as a Soldier in His Majesty's Service, and while he shall remain with the Recruiting Party shall be entitled to be enlisted, and every Person who shall receive any

Bribing and
Recruits.

Recruit shall first ask the Person offering to enlist whether he does or does not belong to the Militia, and shall cause to be taken down, in Writing, the Name and Place of Abode of such Recruit; and when any Person shall be enlisted as a Soldier in His Majesty's Land Service, he shall within Four Days, but not sooner than Twenty-four Hours after such Enlisting, appear, together with some Person employed in the Recruiting Service of the Party with which he shall have enlisted, before a Justice, or, in Scotland, before any Justice of a Royal Burgh, residing in the Vicinity of the Place, and acting for the Division or District where such Recruit shall have been enlisted, and not being an Officer in the Army; and if such Recruit shall declare his having voluntarily enlisted, the said Justice shall put to him the several Questions contained in the Schedule to this Act annexed, and shall record or cause to be recorded, in Writing, his Answers therunto; and the said Justice is hereby required forthwith to cause the Answers so recorded in Writing, and the First and Second Articles of the Second Section of the Articles of War against Mutiny and Desertion, to be read over in his own Presence to such Recruit, and to administer to such Recruit the Oath in the Schedule to this Act annexed for limited or unlimited Service, or for Service in the Forces of the East India Company, as may be applicable to the Case of the Recruit, and as other Oaths, any thing in any Acts to the contrary notwithstanding; and the said Justice is hereby required to give, under his Hand, the Certificate in the Schedule to this Act annexed; and if any such Recruit so to be certified shall refuse to take the Oath in the Schedule to this Act annexed before the said Justice, it shall be lawful for the Officer or Non-commissioned Officer with whom he enlisted to detain and confine such Person until he shall take the said Oath of Fidelity.

Forfeiture of Pay.

XLV. And be it enacted, That any Soldier who shall absent himself without Leave, or who shall desert, shall, on Conviction by a General or other Court-martial, in addition to any Punishment awarded by such Court, forfeit his Pay for the Days on which he has so absented himself without Leave, or on which he has been absent by such Desertion, and that no Soldier shall be entitled to Pay or to reckon Service towards Pay or Penance while in Confinement under any Sentence of any Court, or during any Absence from Duty by Conviction under the Civil Power on a Charge of any Offence cognizable by a Civil or Criminal Court, or by reason of any Arrest for Debt, or as a Prisoner of War; provided that any Soldier, acquitted of the Offence for which he was committed, shall upon Return to his Duty in his Corps, be entitled to receive all Arrears of Pay growing due, and to reckon Service during his Absence or Confinement; and upon rejecting His Majesty's Service from being a Prisoner of War, due Inquiry shall be made by a Court-martial, and if it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of such Court that the said Soldier was taken Prisoner without wilful Neglect of Duty on his Part, and that he hath not served with or under or in any Manner aided the Enemy, and that he hath returned as soon as possible to His Majesty's Service, he may thereupon be recommended by such Court to receive either the Whole of such Arrears of Pay, or a Proportion thereof, or to reckon Service during his Absence; provided that it shall be lawful for His Majesty's Secretary at War in order or withhold the Payment of the Whole or any Part of the Pay of any Officer or Soldier during the Period of Absence by any of the Causes aforesaid.

Marching Money on Discharge.

XLVII. And be it enacted, That every Soldier entitled to his Discharge shall, if then serving Abroad, be sent, if he shall so require it, to Great Britain or Ireland free of Expence, and shall be entitled to receive Marching Money from the Place of his being landed (or, if discharged at Home, shall receive Marching Money from the Place of his Discharge,) to the Parish or Place to which he shall have been originally enlisted, or to which he shall at the Time of his Discharge decide to take up his Residence, such Place not being at a greater Distance from the Place of Discharge than the Place of his original Enlistment.

Tolls.

XLIX. And be it enacted, That all His Majesty's Officers and Soldiers, being in proper Staff or Regimental or Military Uniform, Dress or Uniform, and their Horses, (but not when passing in any livery or private Vehicle,) and all Carriages and Horses belonging to His Majesty, or employed in His Service, when conveying Persons or Baggage, under the Provisions of this Act, or returning therefrom, shall be exempted from Payment of any Duties and Tolls on embarking or disembarking from or upon any Pier, Wharf, Quay, or Landing Place, or passing through Roads or Bridges, otherwise demandable by virtue of any Act already made or hereafter to be made; and any Toll Collector who shall demand and receive Toll from any of His Majesty's Officers or Soldiers, they being in proper Staff or Regimental or Military Uniform, Dress or Uniform, or for their Horses, every such Toll Collector shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds for every such Offence, for which Forfeiture and Penalty he shall be prosecuted before a Justice of the Peace, and in no other Way; provided that nothing herein contained shall exempt any Boats, Barges, or other Vessels employed in conveying the said Persons, Horses, Baggage, or Sticks along any Canal, from Payment of Tolls, in like Manner as other Boats, Barges, and Vessels are liable thereto.

Penalty on purchasing Soldiers' necessaries, Shoes, &c.

LXX. And be it enacted, That any Person who shall unlawfully have in his or her Possession or Keeping, or who shall knowingly detain, buy, exchange, or receive from any Soldier or Deserter, or any other Person, on any Pretence whatsoever, or shall solicit or entice any Soldier, or shall be employed by any Soldier knowing him to be such, to sell any Arms, Ammunition, Clothes, or Military Furniture, or any Provisions, or any Stocks or other Articles used in Barracks, provided under Barrack Regulations, or Regimental Necessaries, or any Article of Passage provided for any Horses belonging to His Majesty's Service, or shall change the Colour of any Clothes as aforesaid, shall forfeit for every such Offence any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds nor less than Five Pounds, together with Treble Value of all or any of the several Articles of which such Offender shall so become possessed; and if any credible Person shall prove on Oath before a Justice of the Peace a reasonable Cause to suggest that any Person has in his or her Possession, or on his or her Premises, any Property of the Description herein before described, on or with respect to which any such Offence shall have been committed, the Justice may grant a Warrant to search for such Property, as in the Case of stolen Goods.

LXXXVII. And be it enacted, That one Mutey of every Penalty, not including any Treble Value of any Articles, adjudged or recovered under the Provisions of this Act, shall go to the Person who shall inform or sue for the same, and the Remainder of the Penalty, together with the Treble Value of any Articles, or, where the Offence shall be proved by the Person who shall inform, the Whole of the Penalty, shall be paid to the General Agent for the Recruiting Service in London or Dublin in the Case may be, to be at the Disposal of the Secretary at War; and every Justice who shall adjudge any Penalty under this Act shall, within Four Days at the farthest, report the same to the Secretary at War.

Appropriation of Penalties.

[20th April 1833.]

[This Act is the same, except as to Dates and the Sections here inserted, as 2 & 3 W. 4. c. 25.]

WHEREAS it is judged necessary for the Safety of the United Kingdom, and the Defence of His Majesty's Fleet and Naval Service, under the Direction of the Lord High Admiral of the said United Kingdom, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid: And whereas the said Forces may frequently be quartered, or be on Shore, or sent to do Duty or be on board Transport Ships, or Merchant Ships or Vessels, or Ships or Vessels of His Majesty, or other Ships or Vessels, or they may be under other Circumstances in which they will not be subject to the Laws relating to the Government of His Majesty's Forces by Sea: And whereas no Man can be adjudged of Life or Limb, or subjected in Time of Peace to any Kind of Punishment within the Realm, by Martial Law, or in any other Manner than by the Judgment of his Peers, and according to the known and established Laws of this Realm; yet nevertheless, it being requisite for the retaining of such Forces in their Duty, that an exact Discipline be observed, and that Marines who shall mutiny or stir up Sedition, or shall desert His Majesty's Service, or be guilty of any other Crime in breach of good Order and Discipline, be brought to a more exemplary and speedy Punishment than the usual Form of the Law will allow: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Twenty-fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, if any Person who is or shall be commissioned, or is Pay as an Officer of Royal Marines, or who is or shall be listed or is Pay as a Non-commissioned Officer, Drummer, or Private Man in His Majesty's Royal Marine Forces, shall at any Time during the Continuance of this Act, while on Shore in any Place within the said Kingdom, or in any other of His Majesty's Dominions, or in Foreign Parts out of such Dominions, or on board any Transport Ship, or Merchant Ship or Vessel, or any Ship or Vessel of His Majesty, or on board any Convict Hulk or Ship, or any other Ship or Vessel, or in any other Place, or while being in any Circumstances in which he shall not be subject to the Laws relating to the Government of His Majesty's Forces by Sea, begin, execute, attempt, or join in any Mutiny or Sedition in His Majesty's Marine or other Forces, or shall act in any manner whatsoever to suppress any such Mutiny or Sedition, or coming to the Knowledge of any Mutiny or intended Mutiny shall not without Delay give Information thereof to his Commanding Officer; or shall misbehave himself before the Enemy; or shall shamefully abandon or deliver up any Garrison, Fortress, Post, or Guard committed to his Charge or which he shall be commanded to defend; or shall compel the Governor or Commanding Officer of any Garrison, Fortress, or Post to deliver up to the Enemy or to abandon the same; or shall speak Words or use any other Means to induce such Governor or Commanding Officer or any other to misbehave before the Enemy, or shamefully to abandon or deliver up any Garrison, Fortress, Post, or Guard committed to their respective Charge, or which he or they shall be commanded to defend; or shall leave his Post before relieved, or shall be found sleeping on his Post; or shall hold Correspondence with or give Advice or Intelligence to any Rebel, Private, or Enemy of His Majesty, either by Letters, Messages, Signs, Tokens, or any other Ways or Means whatever; or shall treat or enter into any Terms with any such Rebel, Private, or Enemy, without the Licence of the Lord High Admiral of the said United Kingdom, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid, for the Time being; or shall strike or use any Violence against his Superior Officer, being in the Execution of his Office, or shall disobey any lawful Command of his Superior Officer; or shall desert His Majesty's Service; every Person so offending in any of the Matters before mentioned shall suffer Death, or such other Punishment as by a Court-martial shall be awarded.

Offence punishable by Death.

IV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid, to make, ordain, and establish Rules and Articles of War under the Hand of the said Lord High Admiral, or under the Hand of any Two or more of the said Commissioners, for the better Government of His Majesty's Royal Marine Forces,

Lord High Admiral, or any make Articles for the Punishment of Marsh's Death.

and for the Parishment of Mutiny, Desertion, Irregularity, Breach of Discipline, Misbehaviour, Neglect of Duty, and any other Offence or Misconduct of which they shall be guilty, in any Place on shore or afloat in or out of His Majesty's Dominions, or at any Time when or under any Circumstances in which they shall not be amenable to the Laws for the Government of His Majesty's Ships, Vessels, and Forces by Sea, or to the Discipline of the Royal Navy, which Rules and Articles shall be judicially taken notice of by all Judges and in all Courts whatsoever; and Copies of the same shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the same shall have been made, be transmitted by the Secretary of the Admiralty for the Year being (certified under his Hand) to the Judges of His Majesty's Superior Courts at Westminster, Dublin, and Edinburgh respectively, and also to the Governors of His Majesty's Dominions Abroad: Provided always, that no Person shall be subject by such Rules and Articles to any Punishment extending to Life or Limb for any Crime which is not expressed to be so punishable by this Act, nor in any Manner nor under any Regulations which shall not accord with the Provisions of this Act.

Made of record by a Master's Witness.

L.V. And be it enacted, That any Justice in the United Kingdom, within whose Jurisdiction any Marine shall be quartered, may summon such Marine before him, which Summons, such Marine is hereby required to obey, and take his Examination in Writing, upon Oath, touching the Place of his last legal Settlement in England, and such Justice shall give an attested Copy of such Examination to the Person so examined, to be by him delivered to his Commanding Officer, to be produced when required; which said Examination and such attested Copy shall be at any Time admitted in Evidence as to such last legal Settlement before any Justice or at any General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, although such Marine be dead or absent from the Kingdom: Provided always, that in case any Marine shall be again summoned to make Oath as aforesaid, then, on such Examination or such attested Copy being produced, such Marine shall not be obliged to make any other or further Oath with regard to his legal Settlement, but shall leave with such Justice a Copy of such Examination, or a Copy of such attested Copy of Examination, if required.

C A P. VIII.

An Act to amend an Act for the Conveyance of certain Premises situate between London Bridge and the Tower of London. [6th May 1833.]

1833, 1834.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled An Act to provide for the Conveyance of Premises, the Property of the Crown, situate between the Tower of London and London Bridge, it is enacted, that from and after the passing of that Act, if any Person or Persons should contract and agree, or if any Person or Persons should have contracted and agreed, for the Purchase, Sale, or Disposal of any of the Quayes, Warehouses, Buildings, and other Hereditaments mentioned in the said Act, or any Part thereof, it should and might be lawful to and for the Lord High Treasurer or Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, who, for the Purposes of the said Act, were thereby deemed to be a Corporate Body, or any Three or more of them, by Indenture or Indentures under their Hands and Seals, to convey and assure any or all of the said Quayes, Warehouses, Buildings, and other Hereditaments, or any Part thereof, situate as aforesaid, to any Person or Persons who might agree or should have agreed to and for the Purchase, Sale, and Disposal thereof, and that such Conveyance and Assurance should be a sufficient Title to the same Premises, and by force of the said Act, should effectually vest in the Purchaser or Purchasers thereof, his, her, or their Heirs and Assigns, or the Person or Persons to whom he, she, or they should direct the same to be conveyed and assured, the Fee Simple and Inheritance of and in such Quayes, Warehouses, Buildings, and other Hereditaments, or any Part thereof, as in such Indenture or Indentures should or might be mentioned and expressed, free and clear of and from all Estates, Rights, Charges, and Incumbrances whatsoever, save and except such Rights, Charges, Estates, and Incumbrances as the said Lord High Treasurer or Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or such as the Purchaser or Purchasers, his, her, or their Heirs and Assigns, should have Notice of before such Conveyance and Assurance should be completed: And whereas since the passing of the said Act it has been discovered that certain outstanding Terms and other Incumbrances affecting the said Quayes, Warehouses, Buildings, and other Hereditaments, or some Part or

• Parts thereof, have not been surrendered or extinguished, and that certain Parts or Shares of the said Quays, Warehouses, Buildings, and other Hereditaments, or some or one of them, have not been legally conveyed to His Majesty, or the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer, and it is possible that there may be other Rights, Charges, Estates, and Incumbrances of which the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury may legally be deemed to have Notice: And whereas the Values of all such Quays, Warehouses, Buildings, and other Hereditaments, and Parts and Shares thereof, were assessed by several Juries impanelled for that Purpose, and the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury have since been in the Possession or in the Receipt of the Rents and Profits thereof: And whereas certain Quays and Hereditaments commonly called or known by the Names of Brewer's and Clinch's Quays, Godly Quay, Carlton Wharf and Hood Quay, Bishop Wharf, and Car and Hammers's Quays, being some of the said Quays, Warehouses, Buildings, and other Hereditaments situate as aforesaid, have been put up to Sale by public Auction, and in consequence of the Discovery of such Terms and Incumbrances, and of the Want of such Conveyances as aforesaid, it is doubtful whether all of such Quays and other Hereditaments as have been sold or agreed to be sold, or may hereafter be sold or agreed to be sold, can, under or by virtue of the said last-mentioned Act, be duly conveyed to the respective Purchaser or Purchasers thereof without the further Aid and Authority of Parliament: For Remedy whereof it is enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, who for the Purpose of this Act shall be deemed to be a Body Corporate, or any Three or more of them, by Indenture or Indentures under their Hands and Seals, to convey and assure all or any of such Quays, Warehouses, Buildings, and other Hereditaments, or such of them or such Part or Share or Parts or Shares thereof as may have been or hereafter may be agreed to be sold, to any Person or Persons who have contracted or hereafter may contract for the Purchase or Disposal thereof, either by public Auction or private Contract, or in such Manner as such Purchaser or Purchasers respectively shall direct; and that every such Conveyance and Assurance under the said recited Act or this Act shall be a sufficient Title to the Premises thereby respectively conveyed and assured, and by force of this Act shall effectually vest in the respective Purchaser or Purchasers thereof, or in the Person or Persons to whom he, she, or they respectively shall direct the same respectively to be conveyed and assured, the Fee Simple and Inheritance of and in the Quays, Warehouses, Buildings, and Hereditaments, or Part or Parts, Share or Shares thereof thereby respectively conveyed and assured, as in such Indenture or Indentures shall or may be mentioned or expressed, free and clear of and from all and all Manner of prior and other Titles, Charges, Estates, Rights, and Incumbrances whatsoever, except only such Leases or Agreements for the Occupancy of the said Quays, Warehouses, Buildings, and Hereditaments, or any of them, or any Part or Parts, Share or Shares thereof, as may have been granted by or entered into with any of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs or their Secretary for the Time being, and that such Leases and Agreements shall continue and subsist in the same Manner as if this Act had not been passed.

II. And be it further enacted, That if there be any Charge or Incumbrance, or Sum of Money payable for the Purchase of or by way of Compensation for any of the said Quays or Hereditaments, or any Part or Parts, Share or Shares thereof, or for any Damages sustained in respect of the same respectively, which at the Time of the passing of this Act was charged upon or payable in respect of the same Quays and Hereditaments, or Part or Parts, Share or Shares thereof, then and in every such Case such Charge, Incumbrance, or Sum of Money respectively shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be charged upon and payable out of the Consolidated Duties of Customs, and shall be paid accordingly by, or by the Order of the Commissioners of that Revenue for the Time being.

C A P. IX.

As an Act for incorporating the Members of a Society commonly called "The Seaman's Hospital Society," and their Successors, as therein is mentioned and provided; and for the better enabling and empowering them to carry on the charitable and useful Designs of the same Society. [6th May 1833.]

• WHEREAS in the Month of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty-one a Society was instituted for the charitable Relief of sick and distressed Seamen of all Nations in the Port of London (who at that Time were very numerous in the Metropolis), and for the providing them with Medical and Surgical Aid, Lodging, Support, and Clothing, and Conveyance, and until Employment could be again found for them in their meritorious Calling; which Society has been from Time to Time supported by Donations and annual Subscriptions and Legacies of considerable Amount, and by the Loan of an Hospital Ship by His Majesty's Government; and the said Society have been the Means of relieving upwards of Twenty-three thousand sick and distressed Persons, and of either obtaining them Employment or of restoring them to their Friends, many of whom might otherwise have perished, and the said Society are desirous of still further prosecuting their said charitable Designs, which are highly beneficial to the Nation, and are desirous of building an Hospital on Stone; and it

Conveyance of Quays, &c. by Lord High Treasurer under recited Act or this Act to vest the Property in the Purchaser for term years. Titles, &c.

Incumbrances, &c. to be payable out of the Consolidated Duties of Customs.

Society incorporated.

It is apprehended that the incorporating of the said Society, and the giving them the Powers and Authorities herein after conferred, may greatly facilitate the Prosecution of the aforesaid charitable Designs, and may induce many charitable and well-disposed Persons assiduously to increase the Funds of the said Society: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That His Royal Highness Augustus Frederick Duke of Sussex, the Right Honourable Robert Lord Viscount Melville, the Right Reverend George Henry Lee Doctor in Divinity, Lord Bishop of Exeter and Will, his Grace John Duke of Bedford, the Most Noble George Marquis of Chesham, the Right Honourable George John Earl Spencer Knight of the Garter, the Right Honourable Henry Earl Bathurst Knight of the Garter, the Right Honourable George Earl of Abingdon, the Right Honourable Philip Earl of Harwich Knight of the Garter, the Right Honourable Richard Earl Howe, the Right Honourable Edward Lord Ellenborough, the Right Honourable George Lord Colborne, the Right Honourable James Lord Gosford, the Right Honourable James Lord De Saussure, Alexander Baring Esquire, John William Esquire, Sir John William Lubbock Baronet, William Manning, William Tindal Esquire, Thomas Wilson, William Wilby, William Wilby, and John Woodman, Esquires, William Bore Esquire, a Captain in the Royal Navy, Richard Almyer, David Galt Esq., John Smith Esquire, William Boscawell, John Evans, William Stanley Clarke, John Cross, Thomas Edger, and Charles Francis, Esquires, the Honourable William Fraser, Alexander Sutherland Gordon, Robert Grant, and Robert Alexander Gray, Esquires, Sir Francis Molyneux Comptroller, Abel Peyton Phelps, Alexander Raphael, Philip Ripley, James Slater, Thomas Sandys, James Sayer, Henry Starbuck, and John Will, Esquires, William Young Esquire, a Captain in the Royal Navy, John Lubbock, Simon Coet, and John Deacon, Esquires, shall and they are hereby declared to be Governors, and that they and all and every Person and Persons who at the Time of passing this Act shall be repeated Governors for Life of the Society commonly called or known by the Name of "The Seamen's Hospital Society," and such others as at the Time of passing this Act shall be repeated Annual Governors of the said Seamen's Hospital Society, for so long and during such Time as they shall continue to pay an annual Sum of One Pound and One Shilling, or upwards, towards the charitable Purposes thereof, and likewise all such others as shall at any Time or Times hereafter pay any such annual Sum towards the Purposes aforesaid for so long and during such Time as they shall continue to pay the same, and also all such others as shall pay for the Purposes aforesaid the Sum of Ten Pounds and Ten Shillings, or upwards, in one entire Payment or in different Payments, to be made within the Space of any Twelve Calendar Months, and also all such others as shall be elected in manner herein-after mentioned, shall be and they are hereby declared and adjudged to be One Body Corporate and Politic, in Deed, Name, and in Law, by the Name of "The Seamen's Hospital Society," and that by the same Name they shall have perpetual Succession, and shall and may have and use a Common Seal for the Business and Affairs of the said Society, with Power to change, alter, break, and make new the same when and as often as they shall judge the same to be expedient; and that they and their Successors by the same Name may sue and be sued, plead and be pleaded, answer and be answered unto, defend and be defended, in all or any Court or Courts of Record and Places of Judicature, and before any Judges, Justices, or Officers, within this Kingdom, in all and singular Actions, Pleas, Suits, Pleas, Matters, and Demands, of what Kind or Quality soever they shall be, and may act and do in all Matters and Things relating to themselves and their Corporate Property, Real and Personal, in an ample Manner and Form and as fully and effectually as any Subjects of the Realm lawfully may or can; and that they and their Successors, by the Name aforesaid, shall be able and capable in Law to have, hold, receive, enjoy, possess, and retain, for the Ends and Purposes of this Act, all such Ships, Goods, Chattels, and Effects, Sum and Sums of Money, as have been given, devised, or bequeathed, or have been by them purchased or accumulated, or which shall at any Time or Times hereafter be paid, given, devised, or bequeathed by any charitable or well-disposed Person or Persons, or which shall be purchased or accumulated by the said Society, of what Nature or Value soever, to and for the charitable Ends and Purposes of the said Society; and that they and their Successors, by the Name aforesaid, shall and may for ever hereafter be Persons able and capable in the Law, and may have Power, notwithstanding the Statutes of Mortmain, to purchase, have, take, hold, receive, and enjoy, to them and their Successors, Manors, Messuages, Lands, Rents, Tenements, Annuities, and Hereditaments, of what Nature or Kind soever, in Fee and in Perpetuity, or for Terms of Lives or Years, not exceeding the yearly Value of Twelve thousand Pounds in all Manors beyond Reprises, for the better carrying on the charitable Ends and Designs of the said Society, and to enable them to build an Hospital or House, with proper Offices, and for the Investment of the Capital and Funds for the Use being of the said Society, and also to sell, grant, demise, exchange, and dispose of any of the same Manors, Messuages, Lands, Rents, Tenements, and Hereditaments whereof or whereas they shall have any Estate or Interest as aforesaid.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, their Heirs and Successors, respectively to give, grant, sell, alien, assign, devise, bequeath, or dispose of, in Mortmain, in Perpetuity, or otherwise, in or to the Use and Benefit of or in Trust for the said Society and their Successors, any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Annuities, and Hereditaments whatsoever, not exceeding the yearly Value of Twelve thousand Pounds above all Charges and Reprises, and any Sum or Sums of Money to any Ancestors, and any Ships, Goods, or Chattels of whatever Value, for the charitable Purposes of the said Society; all which Gifts, Grants, Conveyances, Assignments, Bequests, and Dispositions the said Society are hereby authorized and enabled to receive, accept, and hold.

III. And he is further enacted, That for the better Execution of the charitable Designs of the said Society, the Preservation and Disposal of their Property, and the more regular Government of the said Corporation, the said Corporation and their Successors shall for ever have One President, Two or more Vice-Presidents, and One Treasurer; but no Gift, Conveyance, or Bequest to the said Society shall be rendered void or invalid by reason of the Vacancy of any of the said Offices at the Time of giving, making, or perfecting the same.

IV. And he is further enacted, That the said Lord Viscount Melville shall be and he is hereby appointed President of the said Corporation; and that the said Doctor George Henry Lee Lord Bishop of Exeter and Wells, the said Duke of Bedford, the said Marquis of Cholmondeley, the said Earl Spencer, Baronet, Aberdeen, Bedford, and Beau, the said Lords Ellesborough, Cholmondeley, Gumbel, and De Saussure, and the said Alexander Barrington, John Wilkes Buxton, Sir John Wilkes Lubbock, William Manners, William Taylor Massey, Thomas Wilson, William Williams, William Willoughby, and John Woodroffe, shall be and they are hereby appointed Vice-Presidents; and that the said John Lubbock shall be and he is hereby appointed Treasurer of the said Corporation; and that the said William Buxton, Richard Alington, David Gale Arnold, John Strickell Brittonwood, William Bouverie, John Brown, William Stansby Clarke, John Cotton, Thomas Edgou, Charles Francis, the Honourable William Fraser, Alexander Sinclair Gordon, Robert Grant, Robert Alexander Gray, Sir Francis Molyneux Gunningham, Abel Peyton Phelps, Alexander Raphael, Philip Ripley, James Slater, Thomas Stoddart, James Soper, Henry Sturrood, John Wild, William Young, Simon Cook, and John Dawson shall be and they are hereby appointed a Committee for transacting and managing the Affairs of the said Corporation; and James Whaley Downe Dundas, a Captain in the Royal Navy, Charles Luttrell Prouse, John Locke, and George Francis Prouse, Esquires, shall be and they are hereby appointed Auditors of the Accounts of the said Corporation; and that the said President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, Committee, and Auditors shall continue to perform the Duties of their respective Offices until other fit Persons be duly chosen in their respective Rooms or success hereon-after mentioned; and that the President for the Time being, or in his Absence One or more of the Vice-Presidents, or the Treasurer for the Time being, with any Fourteen or more of the other Members of the said Corporation, or in the Absence of the President and of all the Vice-Presidents and Treasurer, any Fifteen or more of the other Members of the said Corporation, shall compose a General Court; and the first General Court shall be held on the Second Friday in July next ensuing, either at the Office of the said Society, Number Nineteen, Bishopsgate Street in the City of London, or at such other Place in the City of London as any Three or more of the Committee present at any Weekly Meeting of the Committee shall, by Fourteen Days Notice at least, to be given in any Two or more Daily London Newspapers, appoint; and such General Court shall then and from Time to Time be adjourned to such Times and Places as the Court shall think necessary for the due Execution of this Act, of which Time and Place (in case the Adjournment shall be otherwise than see Day) Notice shall be given at least Fourteen Days in Two or more of the London Daily Papers; and a General Court of the Members of the said Corporation shall be held Four Times at the least in every Year, (that is to say,) on the Second Friday in January, on the Second Friday in April, on the Second Friday in July, and on the Second Friday in October, of which Notice shall be in like Manner given; and an Annual General Court shall be held on the First Wednesday in February which will come and be in the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, and on every succeeding First Wednesday in every February in every Year for ever, unless such annual Day shall be changed by any His Majesty's Letters under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and a like Notice of Fourteen Days at aforesaid, both of the Time and Place of holding every such Quarterly and Annual Court, shall be given; and at every such Annual General Court the President, Vice-Presidents, a Treasurer, Four Auditors, and a Committee (such Committee to consist of such Number of the Members of the said Corporation as such General Court shall think necessary) shall be elected for the ensuing Year; and the Members of the said Corporation assembled at any such General Court as aforesaid, or at any Special General Court to be held as after mentioned, or the major Part of them so assembled (but the Members so assembled not to consist of less than Fifteen), shall have full Power and Authority, in the Name of the said Corporation and in their Account, to apply and dispose of the Monies, Goods, and Effects already given and accumulated, and which shall then Time to Time be contributed or given by any Person or Persons in the Account of the said Charity, and of all other Monies and Effects belonging or to belong to the said hereby-erected Corporation, to and for the Purposes aforesaid, and to, for, or in any other Purpose, Way, Matter, or Thing relating to the said Charity and for the Benefit thereof, at their Discretion, and at such like Discretion to purchase or agree to purchase, or take upon Lease, or to sell or agree to sell, or let, Lend, Tenement, or Hereditaments, and to direct the Investment of Money, or the Sale of Securities, or the Change and varying of Securities, and the general Disposition and Management of the Property of the said Corporation, and wish and under their Committee Seal to enter into any Conveyance and Contracts for the Purposes aforesaid, or for any other Purpose or Purpose for the better effecting and carrying on of the charitable Uses and Designs aforesaid, and to do, manage, and transact and determine all such other Matters and Things as shall to them appear necessary and convenient for the effecting or carrying on the Purposes aforesaid and shall and may delegate such

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the General Committee, or any Meeting of Committee at which not less than Ten Committee-men shall be present, shall from Time to Time and at all Times as Occasion shall require have Power and they are hereby authorized from Time to Time to appoint all such Clerks, Physicians, Surgeons, Apothecaries, Solicitors, Secretaries, and Collectors, or other superior Officers, as shall be necessary for the Transaction of any of the Affairs and Business of the said Corporation, for so long, and upon such Conditions, and with such Salary, Emoluments, and Perquisites, to be paid and allowed out of the Funds and Effects of the said Society, as to the Committee for the Time being shall seem meet, provided that at least Seven of the Committee-men then present concur in every such Appointment; and all which Salaries and Emoluments the Treasurer of the said Society is hereby required from Time to Time to pay and allow out of the Funds and Effects of the said Society; but all or any of which Officers may be from Time to Time removed, either by the same Means by which they or he shall respectively have been appointed, or by any Annual Court, or by any Quarterly, Adjourned, or Special General Court; and the Appointment and Removal at Pleasure of all or so many other Servants and inferior Officers of the Corporation as the Committee for the Time being may think necessary to employ, with such Salary and Wages as shall be thought right, may be made by the General Committee at any Weekly Meeting of Committee at which Three or more Members shall be present and vote therein; all which Salary and Wages the Treasurer for the Time being shall pay and make good out of the Funds and Effects of the said Society.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That no Chaplain, Physician, Surgeon, Apothecary, Solicitor, Secretary (except an Honorary Secretary), or Collector, or other Officer or Servant of the Corporation, whether superior or inferior, shall be entitled to vote either in Committee, or at any Annual, Quarterly, Adjourned, or Special General Court, so long as he shall continue in Office.

XV. And be it further enacted, That (until otherwise directed by some Rule, Order, or Bye Law to be made as aforesaid) it shall and may be lawful to and for the Treasurer for the Time being of the said hereby-erected Corporation, and he is hereby authorized and required, from Time to Time, by and with the Consent and Approbation of the Committee thereof for the Time being, or the major Part of such Committee present at any usual Meeting of Committee, (but the Number of Committee-men by whom such Consent and Approbation shall be given not to consist of less than Ten,) such Consent and Approbation to be testified in Writing under their Hands, to lay out and invest all or any such Sum or Sums of Money as hath or have been given, devised, or bequeathed, or shall at any Time or Times hereafter be paid, given, devised, or bequeathed, by any charitable or well-disposed Person or Persons to and for the charitable Ends, Intents, and Purposes of the said Society, or any Monies accumulated or hereafter to be received or accumulated by the said Society, or any Part of such Monies, (other than and except such and so much thereof as the Emancipates of the said Corporation shall call for the immediate Application or Expenditure of) in any of the Parliamentary Stocks or Public Funds of Great Britain, or at Interest on Government or Real Securities in England or Wales, in his own Name, or in the Name of any Three or more Committee-men, as shall be by the Committee directed, and from Time to Time, with such Consent and Approbation as aforesaid, to make sale of, and to alter, transfer, vary, and transmute such Stocks, Funds, and Securities for or into other Stocks, Funds, and Securities of a like Nature, or otherwise, as Need or Occasion shall be or require.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That the Monies arising from or by any Sale or Sales, or so much thereof as shall not be again laid out and invested, with such Consent and Approbation as aforesaid, in some other of the Stocks, Funds, and Securities before mentioned, and also all the Dividends, Interest, and annual Proceeds which shall from Time to Time arise from such Funds, shall from Time to Time be applied to and for the said charitable Uses, Ends, Intents, and Purposes.

XVII. And to the Intent that there never may be wanting a competent Number of Members of the said hereby-erected Corporation, and for perpetuating the Succession thereof, be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Members of the said Corporation at any General Court (either Annual, Quarterly, Adjourned, or Special General, or the major Part of them that shall be then present, but the Number then present not to consist of less than Fifteen,) to elect and choose some other fit and able Person or Persons to be a Member or Members of the said hereby-erected Corporation, either as Honorary Members, or in the Room or Place of such Members as may have died off or have ceased to be Subscribers to or Members of the said Corporation.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That all Questions upon the Proceedings of the said Corporation at any General Court or Committee shall be decided by Vote, and in case of an Equality of Votes the President or Chairman of the Meeting shall have the casting Vote, but otherwise he is not to vote; and upon Demand of any Five Members of the said Corporation present at such General Court or Committee respectively, the same shall be determined by Ballot, to be immediately proceeded upon and completed.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That the Members of the said Corporation, at a General Court, or the major Part of them present at such General Court (but such Members present not to consist of less than Fifteen,) shall have Power from Time to Time and at all Times to fill up any Vacancy or Vacancies in the Committee, and, in case the Committee shall have neglected or omitted so to do, to appoint such superior Officers and Persons as the Members constituting a General Court shall think necessary to employ for the Purposes and in the Execution of this Act, and from Time to Time to suspend or remove any Officer or Servant of or employed by the said Corporation, and to refer it back to the Committee to appoint another instead; and in case of any Appointment of a superior Officer taking place at a General Court, such General Court may, out of the Monies to be received for the Purposes of this Act, make reasonable Allowances to every such Officer as appointed as last aforesaid for his Services, but it shall and may be lawful to and for the General Committee (provided

XX. And be it further enacted, That all and every Officer or Servant of the said Corporation shall from Time to Time, when thereto required by any Seven or more of the General Committee, make and render to the General Committee a true, exact, and perfect Account in Writing under his or her Hand or their respective Hands, upon Oath, to be taken before Two or more of the said Committee (which Oath any Two or more of the said Committee are hereby empowered to administer), of all Moneys, Stores, and Effects which he, she, or they and every of them respectively shall to that Time have received, paid, disbursed, or been entrusted with by virtue of this Act, or by reason of their respective Offices; and in case any Money or Effects, the Property of the said Society, shall remain in their or any of their Hands, the same shall be paid or handed over to the General Committee or to any Seven or more of them, or to such Person or Persons as any Seven or more of the General Committee shall appoint to receive the same; and in case any such Officer or other Person shall not make and render, or shall refuse to verify upon Oath, any such Account, or to make such Payment or Delivery as aforesaid, then any One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace for either of the Counties of Middlesex, Kent, Surrey, or Essex, or for the City of London, shall and may, upon Complaint to him or them, make Inquiry and concerning such Delinquency in a summary Way, as well by Examination of the Parties themselves as by the Testimony of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses upon Oath (which Oath the said Justice or Justices is and are hereby empowered and required to administer); and if any such Officer or Person shall be convicted of any such Offence, such Justice or Justices shall upon such Conviction commit the Party offending to some one of the Prisons of the City of London, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize until he or she shall have made a true and perfect Account and Payment as aforesaid, or until he or she shall have compounded and agreed with the General Committee (but the Number of Committee-men consenting to such Composition not to be less than Seven in Number), and have paid such Composition Money, which Composition the said General Committee, or any Seven or more of them, are hereby empowered to make.

Treasurer or Auditors.

XXI. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted and declared, That the Treasurer for the Time being of the said Corporation shall not be obliged to account with the General Committee or any of them as Committee-men, but shall as all events once a Year, and at such other Time or Times as he shall be thereto required by the Auditors here-before named, or to be appointed as here-before and hereon after mentioned, or the major Part of such Auditors, give in his Accounts for the Purpose of the same being examined and allowed or disallowed, and shall pay over all the Moneys remaining in his Hands, and transfer all the Funds and Securities standing in his Name as Treasurer aforesaid, to the Treasurer to be from Time to Time appointed to succeed him, on Demand.

Auditors.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the Duty of the Auditors for the Time being to audit, examine into, and settle the Accounts of the Treasurer and Committee-men at least once in every Year, and to do as in Time to Time as hereon for the same being printed and had before the Annual General Court.

Accounts when audited and settled, not to be questioned.

XXIII. And it is hereby enacted and declared, That all Accounts which shall be audited and allowed by the Auditors for the Time being, or the major Part of them, and which shall be confirmed at the ensuing Annual General Court, shall be considered as finally settled, and the same shall never again be opened or questioned.

Auditors of the Year preceding may be re-elected;
their Number to be always kept up to five.
Officers liable to the City of London.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be competent to the General Court either to re-elect the Auditors of the Year preceding, or such of them as to the General Court shall seem meet, or to elect others; and whosoever by Death, Death, Desire to be discharged, Refusal, declining, or becoming incapable to act as Auditor, the Number shall become reduced to fewer than Four, the Number shall be filled up as speedily as may be, and a General or Special General Court be called, if needful, for the Purpose.

XXV. And whereas considerable Inconvenience has at Times been occasioned to the said Charity by the Medical and other Officers of the said Charity being obliged, in case of Felony or Misdemeanour committed on board their Hospital Ship, to go to Meditions for the Prosecution of the Offenders; by Remedy whereof be it enacted, That all Felonies and Misdemeanours which shall be at any Time or Times committed on board any Hospital Ship in the Occupation of or belonging to or being in the said Corporation, and which shall at any Time be committed in any Part of the River Thames above Greenwich, or in respect of any Property attached to the same, shall (whether the Ship shall be, at the Time of the Offence committed, above or ground) be triable in the City of London, and not elsewhere, and may, in the Indictment, Information, Warrant, and all other Proceedings respecting the same, be alleged to have been committed in the City of London, except in case of summary Conviction, which may take place either on board the Ship or on either Shore, and the Offender for the Time being shall be committed to one of the Prisons in the City of London, but which Commitment may in any Case take place by any of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace either of the City of London, or of either of the Counties of Middlesex, Kent, Surrey, or Essex, or in case of Riot, Assault, Battery, or Breach of the Peace on board any such Hospital Ship, then by a Constable-man or Committee-men of the said Corporation; in all which Cases any of such Justices of the Peace are hereby empowered to act out of their respective Counties or Jurisdictions as in full and ample Manner as according to the Laws and Statutes of this Realm they are empowered in other Cases to act within posed: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and thirty three there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid for and upon every Hundred Weight of Cotton Wool or Waste of Cotton Wool, the Produce of any Foreign Country, or imported from any Foreign Country, a Duty of Two Shillings and Eleven-pence in lieu of the Duty of Five Shillings and Ten-pence imposed by the said Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said Duty shall be raised, levied, collected, paid, and appropriated in like Manner as if the same had been imposed by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled An Act for granting Duties of Customs.

III. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be amended, altered, or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

C A P. XI.

An Act for repealing the Duties and Drawbacks of Excise on Tiles [17th May 1833.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that the several Duties and Drawbacks of Excise payable on Tiles made in Great Britain, or brought from Ireland into Great Britain, should cease and determine: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all the several Duties of Excise payable by Law for or upon Tiles made in Great Britain, and for and upon Tiles brought from Ireland into Great Britain, and all Drawbacks of Excise for or in respect of the Exportation of any Tiles to Foreign Parts, or the Removal of any Tiles from Great Britain into Ireland, shall be repealed, cease, and determine, and be no longer paid or payable: Provided always, that any of the said Duties which shall have been charged, or any Arrear thereof, or any Penalty or Forfeiture in respect of the said Duties, which shall have been incurred before the Commencement of this Act, or the Payment of any Drawback which shall be payable in respect of any Tiles shipped for Exportation to Foreign Parts or Removal to Ireland before the Day of the Commencement of this Act, shall and may be sued for, levied, recovered, and paid in the same Manner as if this Act had not been passed.

II. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall commence and take effect on the Twentieth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three.

III. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be amended, altered, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

C A P. XII.

An Act to repeal the Duties on Personal Estates continued by an Act of the present Session of Parliament. [17th May 1833.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in this present Session of Parliament, intitled An Act for continuing to His Majesty until the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four certain Duties on Sugar imported into the United Kingdom, and for One Year certain Duties on Personal Estates, Offices and Professions in England, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, it is amongst other things enacted, that the several and respective Sums of Money and Duties which shall have been or shall be charged upon Estates in ready Money, Debts, Goods, Wares, Merchandises, Chattels, or other Personal Estate, by virtue of an Act passed in the Thirty eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for granting an Aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax, and which have been continued and are in force until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, shall be continued, and raised, levied, collected, and paid unto His present Majesty within the Space of One Year from the said Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three: And whereas it is expedient that the said Duties should not be continued after the said Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said recited Act passed in this present Session of Parliament as continues unto His present Majesty the said recited Duties on Estates in ready Money, Debts, Goods, Wares, Merchandises, Chattels, or other Personal Estate, within the Space of One Year from the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty three, shall be and is hereby repealed; and it is hereby declared that the said Duties ceased and determined on the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three: Provided nevertheless, that this Act shall not extend to any Assessments of the like Duties continued by any Act or Acts for any former Year or Years, or to the Recovery of any Arrears thereof.

Duties and Drawbacks of Excise on Tiles repealed.

Proviso as to Arrears of Duties, to Penalties, and to Payments of Drawbacks on Shipments before the Commencement of the Act.

Commencement of Act. Act may be altered.

§ W. 4. c. 3.

So much of recited Act as continues the Duties on Personal Estates for One Year from the 25th March 1833 repealed. Not to extend to any Act of former Times.

CAP. XIII.

An Act to provide for the Execution of the Duties performed by the Barons of Exchequer in Scotland in relation to the Public Revenue, and to place the Management of the Assessed Taxes and Land Tax in Scotland under the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes.

[17th May 1833.]

- WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Anne, intituled An Act for amending and establishing a Court of Exchequer in the North Part of Great Britain called Scotland, it was enacted, that from and after the Fifth Day of May One thousand seven hundred and eight a Court of Exchequer should be and was thereby constituted and established in Scotland, and such Court was thereby erected to be a Court of Record, Revenue, and Judicature for and within Scotland, and it was by the said Act among other things enacted, that all Officers and Persons employed in or about the collecting, receiving, managing, paying, answering, or accounting for any of the Crown Revenues, Debts, or Duties in Scotland should be under and subject to the Orders, Authority, and Jurisdiction of the said Court of Exchequer in all things touching the said Revenues, Debts, or Duties, and the Securities to be given and Oaths to be taken relative thereto, not contrary to or inconsistent with the Commands, Orders, or Directions in force of or from the Queen's Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, or of or from the Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain, or the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury in Great Britain for the Time being; And whereas an Act was passed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for consolidating certain of the Provisions contained in any Act or Acts relating to the Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, and for amending the said Act, so far as the same relate to that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; and another Act was passed in the said Forty-third Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, intituled An Act for repealing the several Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, and granting new Duties in lieu thereof; for granting new Duties in certain Cases therein mentioned; for repealing the Duties of Excise on Licences, and on Carriages constructed by Coachmakers, and granting new Duties therein, under the Management of the said Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes; and also new Duties on Persons selling Carriages by Auction or on Commission; and another Act was passed in the Forty-fifth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, intituled An Act to amend in such of an Act of the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty, for consolidating certain of the Provisions of the Acts relating to the Duties in Scotland under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, as relate to the Appointment of Assessors and Sub-Collectors, and the Notices required to be delivered to Persons assessed to the said Duties; and another Act was passed in the Fifty-second Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, intituled An Act to amend and regulate the Assessment and Collection of the Assessed Taxes, out of the Rents and Duties or Profits arising from Property, Possessions, Trades, and Offices, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; and another Act was passed in the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, intituled An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act of the Fifty-second Year of His present Majesty, to amend and regulate the Assessment and Collection of the Assessed Taxes, and of the Rents and Duties or Profits arising on Property, Possessions, Trades, and Offices, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; and another Act was passed in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to continue several Acts for the Relief of Persons compounders for Assessed Taxes from an annual Assessment, for a further Term, and to amend the Acts relating to Assessments and Compositions of Assessed Taxes, by which and other Acts relating to the Assessed Taxes, and Compositions for the same, various Powers and Duties are conferred and imposed upon the said Barons in relation to the Assessment and Recovery of the Assessed Taxes in Scotland; And whereas an Act was passed in the Thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for making perpetual, subject to Redemption and Purchase in the Manner therein stated, the several Sums of Money now charged in Great Britain as a Land Tax for One Year, from the Twentieth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight; And whereas another Act was passed in the Forty-second Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, intituled An Act for consolidating the Provisions of the several Acts passed for the Redemption and Sale of the Land Tax, into One Act, and for making further Provision for the Redemption and Sale thereof; and for removing Doubts respecting the Rights of Persons claiming to vote at Elections for Knights of the Shire and other Members to serve in Parliament, in respect of Messuages, Leases, or Tenements, the Land Tax upon which shall have been redeemed or purchased; and other Acts were passed, relating to the Redemption of the Land Tax; And whereas by various Acts in force in relation to the Courts of Law and Equity, and the Records of that Part of the United Kingdom called Scotland, the said Barons are authorized and required to appoint and fix the Compositions of certain Officers and others connected with the said Courts or Establishments, and to authorize the Issue of Money for the Payment of such Compositions or Parts thereof, and other Powers and Duties are by such Acts conferred upon the said Barons: And whereas the said Barons are also empowered, by various Acts in relation to sundry Public Works, Buildings, Undertakings, or Establishments in Scotland, to authorize the Issue of Money toward the Payment or part Payment of the Expence of Erection, Repair, or Maintenance of such Public Works, Buildings, Undertakings, or Establishments, and to attend to the Security and Interest of the Public in pro-

' calling or enforcing the Repayment of Money advanced towards such Purposes or some of them, and
 ' is procuring or enforcing the Payment of the Interest accruing upon Monies due in respect of such ' Works or some of them: And whereas an Act was passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His ' Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for augmenting Parochial Stipends in certain Cases
 ' in Scotland; and another Act was passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George
 ' the Fourth, intitled An Act for amending and rendering more effectual an Act for augmenting Parochial
 ' Stipends in certain Cases in Scotland; by which Two last-recited Acts the said Barons were author' ized and directed to issue their Precepts or Warrants to His Majesty's Receiver General in Scotland
 ' for the Payment annually of certain Sums to certain of the Parochial Ministers of the Church of ' Scotland, and for Payment of Ann to the Representatives of such Ministers who may be entitled ' thereto, and of vacant Stipends, for the Purposes and in the Manner therein set forth: And whereas
 ' an Act was passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled
 ' An Act to amend an Act for building additional Places of Worship in the Highlands and Islands of ' Scotland; by which Act the Commissioners for building additional Places of Worship in the Highlands
 ' and Islands of Scotland are directed to account to the said Barons of Exchequer for the Expediture
 ' of the Sums to be issued under the said last-recited Act for the Purposes aforesaid, and the said
 ' Barons are thereby directed to issue Precepts to the Ministers officiating at such Places of Worship
 ' for the Payment of the Stipends thereby directed to be paid, and the Ann when due to be issued to ' be paid in the Manner prescribed by the said recited Act for augmenting Parochial Stipends: And
 ' whereas the said Barons of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland have been hitherto in use, under or ' by virtue of Writs of Privy Seal, Royal Warrants, Customs, Usage, or otherwise, to issue Precepts for
 ' the Sums applicable to the Payment of the Charges of the Courts of Law in Scotland, and also to ' direct and order Payment of other Charges not relating to the Courts of Law; and Powers and Duties
 ' are also exercised and performed by the said Barons in relation to the Payment of Fees and Salaries
 ' payable out of the Civil Establishment of Scotland; and the said Barons are also by such Authority
 ' in use to order and take cognizance respecting the Payment of the Salaries of Sheriffs and their ' Substitutes; to issue Payments to the Sheriff of Edinburgh for Expenses incurred in the Public ' Service, and to see to the accounting for the same; to issue, on the Application of the Lord Advocate,
 ' the Monies necessary for defraying the Expence of Criminal Prosecutions, and otherwise in relation ' to the receiving, ordering, issuing, and Administration of Public Monies; to grant Tacks of Tithes;
 ' and to appoint to Baronies falling under the Gift of the Crown: And whereas an Act was passed in ' the Fourth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled An Act to consolidate
 ' the several Boards of Customs, and also the several Boards of Excise, of Great Britain and Ireland: And
 ' whereas another Act was passed in the Seventh and Eighth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty
 ' King George the Fourth, intitled An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to the Collection
 ' and Management of the Revenue of Excise throughout Great Britain and Ireland: And whereas another ' Act was passed in the Second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King William the Fourth,
 ' intitled An Act for making Provision for the Dispatch of Business now done by the Court of Exchequer
 ' in Scotland: And whereas another Act was passed in the Second and Third Year of the Reign of His ' said Majesty King William the Fourth, intitled An Act to provide for the Examination and Audit of ' the Customs and Excise Revenue in Scotland; and another Act was passed in the said Second and ' Third Year of the Reign of His said Majesty King William the Fourth, intitled An Act to amend
 ' the Hereditary Land Revenue of the Crown in Scotland being placed under the Management of the Com- ' missioners of the Land Revenue: And whereas it is expedient that all the Powers, Authorities, and ' Duties hitherto exercised or performed by the said Barons of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland,
 ' in relation to and concerning the managing, ordering, paying, issuing, or administering any of the ' Monies of or belonging or subjected to the Crown in Scotland, other than the Duties or Revenues of ' Customs and Excise, in so far as the same or any Part thereof are by the said recited Acts in that ' behalf put under the Management and Disposal of the Board of Customs and Excise of the United ' Kingdom, and the said Crown Revenue of Scotland, so far as the same are by the said recited Act in ' that behalf put under the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenue, Works,
 ' and Buildings, should be vested in the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury in the Manner
 ' and to the Effect therein after mentioned: and that all the Powers and Duties of the said Barons (see ' being Judicial Powers and Duties) in relation to the Assessment, Collection, Management, or Appre-
 ' priation of the Land Tax or any of the Assessed Taxes, and the Regulation or Payment of any of ' the Officers or other Persons therewith connected, and the taking the Security to be given by such ' Officers and Persons, should be transferred to and conferred upon the Commissioners for the Affairs ' of Taxes for the Time being: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and ' with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in the present Par' liament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act
 ' all the Powers and Authorities at present exercised or exercisable by the said Barons of the Court
 ' of Exchequer in Scotland, and all the Duties performed by the said Barons, either in issuing Precepts ' or Directions to the Collectors of the Customs or Customs of Excise, or any other Officer or Officers in ' the Collection or Receipt of any of the Duties or Revenues of Customs or Excise, or Crown Revenue,
 ' or of the Land Tax or Assessed Taxes, or other Public Monies, to pay such Revenues, Duties, or ' Monies either to the Receiver General for Scotland, or other Officer or Person whatsoever, for the ' Public Service, or any other Person whatsoever, or in relation to the receiving, ordering, issuing,
 ' allowing,

The Powers and Duties of the Barons of

IX. And be it enacted, That this Act may be amended, altered, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed during the present Session of Parliament.

Act may be altered.

C A P. XIV.

An Act to enable Depositors in Savings Banks, and others, to purchase Government Annuities through the Medium of Savings Banks; and to amend an Act of the Ninth Year of His late Majesty, to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to Savings Banks. [10th June 1833.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to Savings Banks, and it is expedient to alter and amend the same, and also to enable Depositors in Savings Banks, and others, to lay out their Funds in the Purchase of immediate or deferred Life Annuities, as well as immediate or deferred Annuities for a certain Term of Years, and that Provisions should be made for carrying the said Measures into effect as hereinafter expressed: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Twentieth Day of May in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, or as soon after as the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt shall think fit, of which due Notice shall be given in the London Gazette, it shall and may be lawful for any Two Trustees or Managers of a Savings Bank legally established to receive from any Depositor in the said Savings Bank, or other Person whose the said Trustees or Managers shall think entitled to become a Depositor in a Savings Bank, any Sums or Sums of Money for the Purchase of immediate or deferred Life to be contracted for by any Two of the said Trustees or Managers on behalf of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, and to be charged and chargeable, and the said Annuities are hereby made chargeable, upon the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom, under the Limitations, Restrictions, and Regulations hereinafter expressed; and all Sums of Money from Time to Time paid to the said Trustees or Managers on account of the Purchase of every such Annuity shall be kept separate, distinct, and apart from the other Funds of the Institution, and be from Time to Time, when received, paid into the Bank of England to the Account of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt; and the Cashiers of the Bank of England are hereby required to receive all such Moneys, and to place the same to the Account of the said Commissioners, to be entitled "The Fund for purchasing Life Annuities, or Annuities for Terms of Years, (as the Case may be) on the Account of Savings Banks and Parochial Societies;" and the said Commissioners shall in like Manner keep distinct and separate Accounts of all Moneys so placed to the said Accounts, pursuant to the Provisions of this Act.

II. Provided always, and he it enacted, That no such Annuity or Annuities shall be contracted for by the said Trustees or Managers on behalf of the said Commissioners upon the Life of any Person, under the Provisions of this Act, who on the Day when the Contract for such Annuity or Annuities shall be made shall be under the Age of Fifteen Years, neither shall any such Annuity or Annuities sold or granted to or purchased by any One Individual exceed in the whole the Sum of Twenty Pounds nor less than Four Pounds per Annum: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for the said Trustees or Managers, or Commissioners, or the Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller acting under the said Commissioners, to decline or refuse to contract for, sell, or grant any Annuity, under the Provisions of this Act, in any Case where there shall be, in the Opinion of the said Trustees or Managers, or of the said Commissioners or of the said Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller, sufficient Grounds for refusing or declining so to do: Provided also, that if any One Individual shall have or hold, or be possessed at any One Time of any Annuity or Annuities granted under the Provisions of this Act exceeding in the whole the Sum of Twenty Pounds per Annum, the said Annuity or Annuities shall immediately cease and be forfeited.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the said Trustees or Managers to take, demand, or receive from any Person applying to enter into any Contract for the Purchase of such Annuity as aforesaid, for Admission Fee or otherwise, a greater Sum of Money than Two Shillings and Sixpence, nor from any Person who may have entered into any such Contract a greater Sum actually than the Sum of One Shilling, which said several Sums the said Trustees are hereby authorized and empowered to charge and demand of and from such Persons as aforesaid; and that the Money arising from such Fees and Payments shall be applied towards defraying the necessary Expenses incurred by the said Trustees or Managers in carrying into execution the Provisions of this Act with respect to the contracting for, granting, and paying such Annuities.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person having contracted for the Purchase of any such Annuity as aforesaid, with the Consent of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, or the Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller acting under them, to make the annual or other Payments, or to receive the said Annuity as contracted for as aforesaid, through the Hands of the Trustees or Managers of any other Savings Bank or Society (herein after mentioned) than that at which such Person originally entered into such Contract as aforesaid.

V. And be it further enacted, That for the better carrying this Act into execution it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, from Time to Time as they shall think fit, to direct the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt to use and adopt such Tables as shall from Time to Time be authorized and approved of by the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, for ascertaining the Values of Annuities, whether immediate or deferred, depending on the Continuance of single Lives, and also such Tables of the Values of Annuities for a certain limited Term of Years, immediate or deferred, as may be granted according to the Provisions of this Act, and such respective Tables shall be valid and effectual for the Purposes of this Act; and all Annuities for Lives or Years, of whatsoever Kind, to be purchased under the Provisions of this Act, shall be purchased according to the Values stated in such Tables respectively so long as the same shall remain in force; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of the Treasury to alter, revoke, and recall all or any of the said Tables from Time to Time, and to direct the Use and Adoption of such other Tables in lieu thereof as shall be approved of by the said Commissioners of the Treasury, and also to discontinue, by any Warrant under their Hands, addressed to the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, of which the said Instrumental Commissioners shall give Notice in the London Gazette, the granting of any Annuities for Lives or Years under the Provisions of this Act, if they shall think it fit and expedient so to do: Provided always, that the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt shall, previous to the Adoption and using of any such Tables respectively, give Notice from Time to Time in the London Gazette, in such Form and Manner as to the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt shall seem fit and proper, that such Tables have been authorized and approved by the said Commissioners of the Treasury.

VI. And be it further enacted, That in every Case where any Sum of Money shall be paid to the Purchasers of How Annuities to be contracted for.

They shall be entitled to such Amount of Annuity as shall be specified in the Tables.

Provision of this Act, the Person or Persons purchasing any such Annuity for Lives or Years, upon the Payment of such Sum of Money to the said Trustees or Managers, and by the said Trustees paid into the Bank of England to the Account of the said Commissioners, entitled "The Fund for purchasing Life Annuities or Annuities for Terms of Years on account of Savings Banks and Provident Societies," shall for every Sum of Money paid be entitled to receive, during the Continuance of the single Life of the Nominee, whether such Life Annuity shall be immediate or deferred, or during the Term of Years, immediate or deferred, for which any Annuity shall be granted under this Act, an Annuity for a Life or for Terms of Years, as the Case may be, of such annual Amount as shall be specified in any such Table or Tables respectively as the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, shall from Time to Time authorize and approve, in manner herein-before directed, to be calculated and ascertained according to the Age of the Nominee, or the Continuance of the Term of Years respectively, as the Case may be.

Proceeding Provision.

VII. And be it further enacted, That in every Case where the Calculation of the Amount of any Annuity according to the Provisions of this Act shall produce a Fraction less than Sixpence, the fractional Part of the said Annuity less than Sixpence shall be taken from the Amount thereof, and shall not be payable by the Officer of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt.

Certain Annuities to be carried to a separate Account.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all Life Annuities, of whatsoever Kind, which shall be purchased and granted under the Provisions of this Act (whether such Life Annuities shall commence immediately or not), shall, in their due Course as the same shall fall due and become payable, be carried to a new and separate Account in the Books of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt; and all Annuities for Terms of Years which shall be purchased and granted under this Act shall in like Manner be carried to a new and separate Account in the Books of the said Commissioners.

Life-Annuities may make their Purchases as Lives of original Mortgages without their Continuance.

IX. And be it further enacted, That whenever Proof of the Age of any Nominee shall have been produced under the Provisions of this Act, as herein-after directed, any Person or Persons who shall be desirous of purchasing any Annuity or Annuities, whether such Annuity shall depend upon the Life of such Person or not (the total Amount of such Annuities not exceeding the Sum herein-before mentioned), or the Life of such Nominee (whether such Life Annuities shall have been originally contracted for to commence immediately or not), shall be at Liberty so to do, and the original Proof of the Age of such Nominee, produced at the Time of the Purchase of the first Annuity upon the Life of such Nominee, shall be deemed sufficient for that Purpose, without the Production of any further Proof of Age.

Amount of Annuities from Time to Time payable shall be certified to the Treasury, who shall issue their Warrants to the Bank for Payment thereof out of the Consolidated Fund.

X. And be it further enacted, That for the Purpose of ascertaining from Time to Time the Amount of Annuities for Lives or for Terms of Years payable under the Authority of this Act, the said Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller acting under the said Commissioners shall, within Fourteen Days preceding the Fifth Day of July, the Tenth Day of October, the Fifth Day of January, and the Fifth Day of April in each and every Year (commencing on the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three), certify to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury the Amount of Annuities for Lives and of Annuities for Terms of Years payable under this Act, the half-yearly Payments of which shall from Time to Time be chargeable upon the said Consolidated Fund on each of such Days respectively; and the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, shall thereupon order and direct, by Warrants under their Hands, the Sum specified from Time to Time in every such Certificate to be issued and paid out of the said Consolidated Fund from Time to Time to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, to be by them placed to the Account of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, for the Purpose of paying all such Annuities respectively.

Time of Payment of Annuities granted under this Act.

XI. And be it further enacted, That all Annuities for Lives or Years, of whatsoever Kind, which shall be purchased under the Provisions of this Act, shall be payable by Two equal half-yearly Payments, to be respectively made on the Fifth Day of January and on the Fifth Day of July, or on the Fifth Day of April and the Tenth Day of October, in each and every Year, according to the respective Periods, as herein-after mentioned, within which any Money shall be paid for the Purchase of any such Annuity for Life or Years, of whatsoever Kind respectively; and the first half-yearly Payment of every such Annuity so purchased shall be made at the Times following; (that is to say,) on the Fifth Day of January, in respect of all such Purchases completed by the actual Payment of Money into the Bank of England to the Account of the said Commissioners herein-after mentioned at any Time during the Quarter ending on the Tenth Day of October preceding such Fifth Day of January; on the Fifth Day of April, in respect of all such Purchases as completed at any Time during the Quarter ending on the Fifth Day of January preceding the Fifth Day of April; on the Fifth Day of July, in respect of all such Purchases as completed at any Time during the Quarter ending on the Fifth Day of July preceding such Tenth Day of October; and all future half-yearly Payments of every such Annuity shall be made with reference to the Time of each half-yearly Payment: Provided always, that upon the Death of any Nominee in respect of any Life Annuity, a Sum equal to One Fourth Part of the Annuity depending upon the Life of such Nominee (over and above all half-yearly Arrears thereof respectively) shall be payable to the Person or Persons entitled to such Annuity, or his, her, or their Executors or Administrators, (as the Case may be,) on the half-yearly Day of Payment next succeeding the Production of Proof in the said Tables, and by them to the said Commissioners, certifying the Death of such Nominee; provided that such Proof shall be produced to the said Commissioners within Thirty Quarterly Payments on Death of Members of Life Annuities.

Days next preceding the Fifth Day of January, Fifth Day of April, Fifth Day of July, and Tenth Day of October respectively in every Year, and that such last-mentioned Payment shall be claimed within Two Years after the Death of such Nominee, but not otherwise: Provided also, that the Fourth Part of any expired Life Annuity payable under the Provisions of this Act shall not be payable or be paid upon or in respect of any deferred Life Annuity, unless One half-yearly Payment of such deferred Life Annuity shall have been actually paid or become due at the Time of the Decease of such Nominee.

XII. And be it further enacted, That for the Space of Fourteen Days next after any of the said Quarterly Days for Payment of the said Annuities respectively, no Bargain or Contract shall be made by the said Trustees or Managers on behalf of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, for the Grant or Purchase of any Annuity under this Act: any thing herein-before contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That all Contracts for Life Annuities or Annuities for a limited Term of Years, whether immediate or deferred, which shall be entered into by the Trustees or Managers of any Savings Bank, or by the Trustees or Managers of any Society in any Parish or Place authorized by this Act to contract for the same, shall in each and every Case be deemed and taken to be Contracts made by the said Trustees or Managers on behalf of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt: Provided always, that no Life Annuity shall be procured to be contracted for, nor shall any Payments of any Life Annuity be made, under the Provisions of this Act, until Proof of the Age of the Person proposed to be annuitant, and until Proof of the Existence and Identity of the respective Nominees upon whose Life the Payments of any Annuity shall be demanded, shall have been previously submitted to and approved of by the said Commissioners, or by the Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller acting under the said Commissioners; and the said Annuities for Lives and for Terms of Years shall be placed under the same Regulations as are contained in the Acts now in force for enabling the said Commissioners to grant Life Annuities and Annuities for Terms of Years, so far as the same can be made applicable thereto, save and except that no Charge by way of Commission shall be made by the said Commissioners at any Time on any Sum of Money which shall be paid by any Person for the Purchase of any Annuity under the Provisions of this Act, and also according to such Instructions and Regulations as the said Commissioners, or the said Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller, shall from Time to Time issue and direct for carrying into effect the Provisions of this Act; and all the Provisions, Penalties, and Forfeitures in the said last-mentioned Acts contained shall apply and be in force with regard to any and all Annuities granted under the Act in the same Manner as though the same were expressly enacted herein, except so far as the same shall be altered or varied by this Act.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That upon the Production to the proper Officer of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt of Proof of the Existence and Identity of the respective Nominees, as herein-before enacted, and upon the same being approved by such Officer, it shall be lawful for any Two Trustees of the Savings Bank whereon such respective Nominees shall be registered, and also for any Two Trustees of any Society duly established in any Parish under this Act, to draw upon the said Commissioners for the half-yearly Payment of the several Annuities then due upon the Lives of such Nominees respectively; and such Officer shall and he is hereby required to pay to the said Trustees as aforesaid, or their respective Agents, now appointed or hereafter to be appointed, within Five Days after the Production of such Draft, the several half-yearly Payments then due.

XV. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases of Annuities for Terms of Years it shall be lawful for the said Trustees, as herein-before mentioned, to draw upon the said Commissioners for the half-yearly Payment of the several last-mentioned Annuities then due; and the said Officer shall and he is hereby required to pay to the said Trustees or their respective Agents, now appointed or hereafter duly appointed, within Five Days after the Draft is presented, the several half-yearly Payments then due.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That the Right, Title, Interest, and Benefit in and to any Annuity, of whatsoever Kind, whether such Annuity shall be immediate or deferred, which may be purchased under the Provisions of this Act, shall not be transferable or assignable by the Purchaser thereof as to enable the Assignee to recover the same, during the Lifetime of the said Purchaser, except in case of his or her Insolvency or Bankruptcy, when the same shall become the Property of his or her Assignee or Assignees for the Benefit of his or her Creditors, and the same shall, in such Case, after due Notice of such Insolvency or Bankruptcy, be paid to such Assignee or Assignees as aforesaid; and in case of any such Bankruptcy or Insolvency, the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt shall purchase the said Annuity according to the Value thereof, the same being computed upon the same Tables upon which the said Annuity was originally purchased; and the Receipt of the Assignee or Assignees shall be a sufficient Discharge to the said Commissioners.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That Life Annuities and Annuities for Terms of Years, purchased under the Provisions of this Act, shall not be subject or liable to any Taxes, Charges, or Impostments whatsoever; and that all such Annuities shall be deemed Personal Estate, and in all Cases where the same shall not depend upon the Life of the Person created thereby shall go to the Executors or Administrators of such Person as Personal Estate, and shall not be disposable as the Heirs.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That whenever it shall happen that any Person, having made any Claim of such said Annuity or Payment, to which within the Consideration of this Act

An Act to amend the Laws relating to Dramatic Literary Property. [10th June 1833.]

24 G. 4. c. 138.

The Author of any Dramatic Piece shall have as his Property the sole Liberty of representing it or causing it to be represented at any Place of Dramatic Entertainment.

Proviso as to Cases where, previous to the passing of this Act, a Dramatic Piece has been given.

Proviso as to Persons performing Pieces contrary to this Act.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty-fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act to amend the several Acts for the Encouragement of Learning by securing the Copies and Copyright of printed Books to the Authors of such Books, or their Assigns, it was amongst other things provided and enacted, that from and after the passing of the said Act the Author of any Book or Books composed, and not printed or published, or which should thereafter be composed and printed and published, and his Assigns or Assigns, should have the sole Liberty of printing and re-printing such Book or Books for the full Term of Twenty-eight Years, to commence from the Day of first publishing the same, and also, if the Author should be living at the End of that Period, for the Remainder of his natural Life: And whereas it is expedient to extend the Provisions of the said Act: he it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act the Author of any Tragedy, Comedy, Play, Opera, Farce, or any other Dramatic Piece or Entertainment, composed, and not printed and published by the Author thereof or his Assigns, or which hereafter shall be composed, and not printed or published by the Author thereof or his Assigns, or the Assigns of such Author, shall have as his own Property the sole Liberty of representing, or causing to be represented, at any Place or Places of Dramatic Entertainment whatsoever, in any Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Isles of Man, Jersey, and Guernsey, or in any Part of the British Dominions, any such Production as aforesaid, not printed and published by the Author thereof or his Assigns, and shall be deemed and taken to be the Proprietor thereof; and that the Author of any such Production, printed and published within Ten Years before the passing of this Act by the Author thereof or his Assigns, or which shall hereafter be so printed and published, or the Assigns of such Author, shall, from the Time of passing this Act, or from the Time of such Publication respectively, until the End of Twenty-eight Years from the Day of such first Publication of the same, and also, if the Author or Authors, or the Survivor of the Authors, shall be living at the End of that Period, during the Remainder of his natural Life, have as his own Property the sole Liberty of representing, or causing to be represented, the same at any such Place of Dramatic Entertainment as aforesaid, and shall be deemed and taken to be the Proprietor thereof: Provided nevertheless, that nothing in this Act contained shall prejudice, alter, or affect the Right or Authority of any Person to represent or cause to be represented, at any Place or Places of Dramatic Entertainment whatsoever, any such Production as aforesaid, in all Cases in which the Author thereof or his Assigns shall, previous to the passing of this Act, have given his Consent to or authorized such Representation, but that such sole Liberty of the Author or his Assigns shall be subject to such Right or Authority.

II. And he it further enacted, That if any Person shall, during the Continuance of such sole Liberty as aforesaid, contrary to the Intent of this Act, or Right of the Author or his Assigns, represent or cause to be represented, without the Consent in Writing of the Author or other Proprietor first had and obtained, at any Place of Dramatic Entertainment within the Limits aforesaid, any such Production as aforesaid, or any Part thereof, every such Offender shall be liable for each and every such Representation to the Payment of an Amount not less than Forty Shillings, or to the full Amount of the Benefit or Advantage arising from such Representation, or the Injury or Loss sustained by the Plaintiff therein, whichever shall be the greater Damages, to the Author or other Proprietor of such Production as represented contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, to be recovered, together with Double Costs of Suit, by such Author or other Proprietor, in any Court having Jurisdiction in such Case in that Part of the said United Kingdom or of the British Dominions in which the Offence shall be committed; and in every such Proceeding where the sole Liberty of such Author or his Assigns as aforesaid shall be subject to such Right or Authority as aforesaid, it shall be sufficient for the Plaintiff to state that he has such sole Liberty, without making any averment in Writing of Right or Authority, or otherwise mentioning the same.

III. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That all Actions or Proceedings for any Offence or Injury that shall be committed against this Act shall be brought, sued, and commenced within Twelve Calendar Months next after such Offence committed, or else the same shall be void and of no effect.

IV. And be it further enacted, That whenever Authors, Persons, Offenders, or others are spoken of in this Act in the Singular Number or in the Masculine Gender, the same shall extend to any Number of Persons and to either Sex.

CAP. XVI.

An Act to repeal the Duties, Allowances, and Drawbacks of Excise on Soap, and to grant other Duties, Allowances, and Drawbacks in lieu thereof. [10th June 1833.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Duties, Allowances, and Drawbacks now payable in respect of all Soap made in Great Britain, and of Soap brought from Ireland into Great Britain, should be repealed, and that other Duties should be imposed and other Drawbacks granted in lieu thereof: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Thirty-first Day of May One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three all and singular the Duties and Allowances of Excise now payable on Soap made in Great Britain, and on Soap brought from Ireland into Great Britain, except as such Duties are hereinafter continued on Soap brought from Ireland, and all Drawbacks of Excise on Soap exported to Foreign Parts, or removed from Great Britain into Ireland, shall cease and determine and be no longer paid or payable: Provided always, that any of the said Duties which may have been charged on or before the said Thirty-first Day of May One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, and any Arrear thereof, and all Allowances on any Soap which shall have been used, employed, or consumed on or before the said Thirty-first Day of May One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, in Great Britain, in the making of any Cloths, Serpes, Kerseys, Sams, Stockings, or other Manufactures of Sheep's or Lambs Wool only, or Manufactures whereof the greatest Part of the Value of the Materials shall be Wool, or in the Finishing of the said Manufactures, or preparing the Wool for the same, or in the whitening of new Linnen in the Piece for Sale, or in preparing and finishing any Manufactures from Flax or Cotton for Sale, or in the Process of throwing, pressing, or drying of Silks, and the Payment of any Drawback which shall be payable in respect of the Exportation or Homeward of any Soap on or before the said Thirty-first Day of May One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, shall and may be used for, levied, recovered, and paid as if the said Duties, Allowances, and Drawbacks had not been repealed.

It And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Thirty-first Day of May One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, in lieu and instead of the Duties by this Act repealed, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, the several Rates and Duties of Excise hereinafter enumerated: (that is to say,) for every Pound Weight Anhydrous of all Hard Soap which shall be made in Great Britain, to be paid by the Maker thereof a Duty of One Penny Halfpenny; for every Pound Weight Anhydrous of all Hard Soap which shall be brought from Ireland into Great Britain, to be paid by the Importer thereof, a Duty of One Penny Halfpenny; for every Pound Weight of all Soft Soap which shall be made in Great Britain, or which shall be brought from Ireland into Great Britain, to be paid by the Maker or Importer thereof respectively, a Duty of One Penny, and that from and after the said Thirty-first Day of May One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three there shall be granted and paid, for every Pound Weight of all Hard Soap for which the Duty in respect thereof shall have been paid, and which shall be exported as Merchandise from Great Britain to Foreign Parts, or which shall be shipped as Stores of any Vessel entitled to ship Goods as Stores Duty-free, or which shall be removed from Great Britain into Ireland, a Drawback of One Penny Halfpenny: for every Pound Weight of all Soft Soap which shall be so exported, shipped, or removed, a Drawback of One Penny: and that from and after the said Thirty-first Day of May One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, and until the End of the Session of Parliament next after the Thirty-first Day of May One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, there shall be granted and allowed, on all Soap used, employed, or consumed in Great Britain in the making of any Cloths, Serpes, Kerseys, Sams, Stockings, or other Manufactures of Sheep or Lambs Wool only, or Manufactures whereof the greatest Part of the Value of the Materials shall be Wool, or in the Finishing of the said Manufactures, or preparing the Wool for the same, or in the whitening of new Linnen in the Piece for Sale, or in preparing and finishing any Manufactures from Flax or Cotton for Sale, or in the Process of throwing, pressing, or drying of Silks, One Half of the respective Allowances payable on Soap used for such Purposes before the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three.

III. And be it further enacted, That the said Duties by this Act imposed shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise: and that the said Duties, Allowances, and Drawbacks shall be respectively raised, levied, collected, recovered, allowed, and paid in such and the like Manner, and in or by any or either of the general or special Ways, Means, or Methods, by which the former Duties, Allowances, and Drawbacks of Excise respectively heretofore repealed were or might be raised, levied, collected, recovered, allowed, and paid; and the said Persons, Goods, Merchandise, and Commodities so produced, transported, imported, or exported, shall be subject to the same and equal Burden imposed, Duties and Allowances of Excise on Soap made in Great Britain or brought from Ireland in case, except as hereinafter mentioned, Provision for Recovery of Duties, not charged before the 1st May.

Duties to be levied, and Drawbacks to be allowed, after the 1st of May.

Allowance to be granted on Soap used in Manufactures.

Duties to be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise, and to be levied in like Manner as former Duties.

Keenays, Bases, Stockings, or other Manufactures of Sheep's or Lambs Wool only, or Manufactures whereof the greatest Part of the Value of the Materials shall be Wool, or in the Finishing of the said Manufactures, or preparing the Wool for the same, or in the spinning of new Linen in the Piece for Sale, or in preparing and finishing any Manufactures from Flax or Cotton for Sale, or in the Process of throwing, printing, or-dyeing of Silk, shall in addition to the other Particulars by Law required in clearing such Allowances, make Oath or solemn Affirmation that all the Soap in respect of which the highest Rate of Allowance hereby repealed shall be claimed was truly and truly used and consumed on or before the said Thirty-first Day of May One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, and that to the best of his Knowledge and Belief the full Duties of Excise payable on and before the said Thirty-first Day of May had been charged and paid on the said Soap; and no such Allowance shall be admitted or paid which shall not be claimed within the Period aforesaid, or in respect of which such Oath or Affirmation shall not be made; and every Person swearing or affirming falsely shall be subject and liable to the Penes and Fines of Perjury.

XI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act no such Allowance on Soap used in Manufactures as aforesaid shall be claimed by or be paid or payable to any Servant or Workman, or Person, other than the Owner or One of the Part Owners or the Possessor of the Manufactory or Business in which the Soap in respect of which such Allowance shall be claimed shall have been used or consumed.

X. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Maker of Soap to increase the Weight of any Soap by adding Water, Lye, Lye, or any Liquor or Matter thereto, after the same shall have been taken an Account of and charged with Duty in the Frames by the Officer of Excise, and before the same shall be sent out from the Frames, where manufactured, or on Package of all the Soap as increased in Weight, and One hundred Pounds.

XI. And be it further enacted, That every Dealer in Soap shall preserve all Certificates delivered with any Quantities of Soap received by him, and shall at all Times deliver up all such Certificates in his Custody or Possession to any Officer of Excise who shall demand the same; and every Dealer in Soap who shall, on Demand by any Officer of Excise, neglect or refuse to deliver up to such Officer all the Certificates received by him, and that in his Possession, or who shall give any false or untrue Account of the Certificates received by him, shall forfeit One hundred Pounds.

XII. And whereas it is expedient that Provision should be made for allowing the Makers of Soap to make and store Soap not to be sold or consumed until after the Thirty-first Day of May, when the Duties now payable are to cease and determine, and the new Duties hereby imposed are to commence and take effect; be it therefore enacted, That every Maker of Soap who shall intend to make and store any Soap not to be sold or consumed before the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three shall give Notice of such his Intention in Writing to the proper Officer of Excise before starting any Soap, and on such Notice shall specify some separate and secure Room, Cellar, or Store, to be approved of by the Commissioners of Excise or their Officers, for the keeping therein of all such Soap as is intended to be stored; and such Maker of Soap may from Time to Time, when giving Notice to cleanse or take out of the Copper any Soap, also give Notice in Writing to the proper Officer of Excise that all the Soap of that particular Class is Soap not to be sold or sent into Consumption until after the Thirty-first Day of May One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, and that he is desirous of storing the same; and all such Soap shall be made under the Regulations and shall be charged with the Duties now in force, save and except that in charging such Soap with Duty no Allowance of One Pound in every Ten Pounds of Hard Soap, or any other Allowance, shall be made or allowed; and the Duties so charged shall be payable and paid in the usual Course of Payment according to the Laws now in force relating to the Revenue of Excise; and as soon as such Soap shall be cut up, and an Account here taken of the same, all such Soap shall be forthwith deposited and stored in the separate Room, Cellar, or Store approved of by the Commissioners of Excise or their Officers, under the Locks and Keys of the Officers of Excise, and otherwise secured in such Manner as the Commissioners of Excise shall direct; and as often as any other Soap shall be made to be stored and secured, the Officer of Excise shall take an Account thereof, and of all Soap which shall have been previously stored; and all such Soap shall be kept as stored and secured, and shall not be sold or sent into Consumption, or any Part thereof be delivered to the Maker thereof, until on or after the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, on which Day the proper Officers of Excise shall take an Account of all the said Soap which shall have been so charged under such Notice, or stored and secured; and if upon such Account the whole Quantity of Soap shall be found in the Stock of the Maker who shall have made the same, stored and secured as aforesaid, and the Officers of Excise shall be satisfied that it is the same Soap which was so made, and that no Part thereof has been sent into Consumption, or any Addition made thereto, or any Alteration therein, the Commissioners of Excise are hereby authorized and empowered to allow to the respective Makers of such Soap, from the Charges of Duty thereon, the Sum of One Penny Halfpenny on every Pound of Hard Soap, and Three Farthings on every Pound of Soft Soap, the Amount of which Allowance shall be placed to the Credit of each respective Maker of such Soap, and shall be allowed to him on the Payment of the next and any subsequent Return or Charge of Duties which shall become payable after the said First Day of June until such Credit shall be exhausted.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Soap which shall be made under the Regulations aforesaid, as not to be sold until after the said Thirty-first Day of May, shall be stored Soap used in certain Manufactures to make Oath that the Soap was used before that Day.

Allowance on Soap to be paid only to Owner or Possessor of the Manufactory.

Penalty for unlawfully increasing the Weight of Soap, 100l.

Certificates of Receipts of Soap not to be preserved by Dealers, and delivered to the Officers upon Demand.

Regulations for storing Soap not to be sold until after the 31st May.

If the prescribed Regulations for storing

Soap are limited upon, the Duty shall less all Claims to any Allowance, and be subject to the Provisions extending under the Excise Laws.

hundred and thirty-three, shall not at any Time previous thereto be so stored and secured in such granary and secure Rooms, Cellar, or Store approved of by the Commissioners of Excise or their Officers; or if any such Maker of Soap shall open or procure to be opened any such Room, Cellar, or Store, or expose any of the Logs, Keys, or Fastenings thereof, or procure, or cause or procure to be removed, any Soap from or out of the same, or shall send out or deliver any such Soap so made to be stored, or if on the First Day of June, or at any Time previous thereto, the Officers of Excise shall not find all such Soap so stored and secured and unaltered, or if any such Maker of Soap shall use or practice any Art or Device to deceive any Officer of Excise in taking an Account of such Soap, or of any Part of his Stock, or to remove any Part of such Soap, or to evade any Part of the Duty on Soap with which previous to the said First Day of June he might or would be chargeable, or to obtain any greater Allowance under the Regulations aforesaid than he shall be entitled to, then and in any such Case the Soap Maker so offending shall forfeit all Claims to any such Allowance as aforesaid, together with any Penalty or Forfeiture, or Forfeitures which he may thereby incur under any of the Laws of Excise.

Act may be altered this Session.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

C A P. XVII.

An Act for repealing Part of an Act of the Twenty-sixth Year of King George the Third, for better securing the Duties on Starch, and for preventing Frauds on the said Duties; and for making other Provisions in lieu thereof. [10th June 1833.]

20 G 3. c. 31.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled an Act for better securing the Duties on Starch, and for preventing Frauds on the said Duties, it was amongst other things enacted, that no Maker or Makers of Stone Blue for Sale shall begin to make or manufacture, or cause or procure to be made or manufactured, any Stone Blue from any Flour, Meal, or other Ingredients or Materials whatsoever, (other than the Materials or Ingredients for colouring the same,) except Starch for which all the Duties due and in respect thereof have been first charged, on pain of forfeiting for every such Offence all such Stone Blue, Flour, Meal, and other Ingredients, and Materials whatsoever, (other than the Materials or Ingredients for colouring such Stone Blue,) together with the Boxes, Tubs, and Vessels whatsoever containing the same, and also the Sum of One hundred Pounds: And whereas the said Enactment hath been found inconvenient, and it is necessary to repeal the same, and to provide other Provisions in lieu thereof: be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Enactment shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Prohibition of manufacturing Stone Blue from Flour, &c. repealed.

Penalty on Maker of Stone Blue using or having in his Possession any Substances other than Starch on which the Duties shall have been charged.

It. And be it further enacted, That every Maker of Stone Blue who shall in the making or manufacturing of Stone Blue make use of, or cause or procure or permit or suffer to be made use of, any Starch the full Duties whereon shall not have been duly charged, or any Flour, Meal, or other ferrous Substance other than Starch the full Duties whereon shall have been duly charged, or who shall receive, or have in his Possession on his Premises reserved for making Stone Blue, any Flour, Meal, or other ferrous Substance to be used in lieu of or as a Substitute for Starch in the making or manufacturing of Stone Blue, or who shall receive, or have in his Possession in his Dwelling House, or on any Premises occupied by him, any Starch previously made, or the full Duties whereon shall not have been paid, or any Flour, Meal, or other ferrous Substance fermenting or fermented to be used, or capable of being used, in lieu of or as a Substitute for Starch in manufacturing Stone Blue, or capable of being converted into Starch, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and all such Stone Blue, Starch, Flour, Meal, and other ferrous Substance, together with the Boxes, Tubs, Casks, or other Vessels containing the same, shall be forfeited and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise.

Penalty on Stone Blue Makers using or having in his Possession certain Substances.

III. And for the Purpose of preventing the excessive Use of earthy Matters and Substances in substitution for Starch in the manufacturing of Stone Blue, be it further enacted, That every Maker of Stone Blue who shall receive or shall have in his Possession, or who shall in the making or manufacturing of Stone Blue make use of, or cause or procure or permit to be made use of, any Fuller Earth, Derby Earth, Plaster of Paris, Chalk, or other earthy Matter or Substance (except as herein-after provided), shall forfeit One hundred Pounds, together with all such Fuller Earth, Derby Earth, Plaster of Paris, Chalk, or other earthy Matter or Substance, and all Stone Blue which shall have been made or manufactured therewith: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for any Maker of Stone Blue to have in his Possession and to make use of any Pipe Clay in manufacturing Stone Blue, in the Proportion of Two Pounds only of Pipe Clay to every One Hundred Weight of Starch, for the Purpose of binding or coloring the Stone Blue firm and adhesive.

Act may be altered this Session.

IV. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

C A P. XVIII.

An Act to apply the Sum of Six Millions out of the Consolidated Fund to the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three. [18th June 1833.]

C A P. XIX.

An Act for the more effectual Administration of Justice in the Office of a Justice of the Peace in the several Police Offices established in the Metropolis, and for the more effectual Prevention of Depredations on the River Thames and its Vicinity, for Three Years. [18th June 1833.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend the several Acts now in force for the more effectual Administration of Justice in the Office of a Justice of the Peace in the several Police Offices established in the Metropolis, and for the more effectual Prevention of Depredations on the River Thames and its Vicinity; be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the several Police Offices now established in the Parishes of Saint Margaret Westminster, Saint James Westminster, Saint Mary-le-Bone, Saint Andrew Holborn, Saint Leonard Shoreditch, Saint Mary Whitechapel, and Saint John of Wapping, in the County of Middlesex, and Saint Saviour in the County of Surrey, shall be continued; and that the several Persons appointed to execute the Office of a Justice of the Peace at the Police Offices now established shall continue to execute the same at the said Police Offices, together with any other Justice of the Peace for the Counties of Middlesex and Surrey respectively who may think proper to attend thereto; and that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in case of a Vacancy by Death or otherwise, to appoint another fit Person, being a Justice of the Peace of the said Counties of Middlesex and Surrey respectively, to execute the Duties of a Justice of the Peace at the said several Police Offices.

II. And be it further enacted, That One or more of the said Justices as appointed shall diligently attend at each of the said Police Offices every Day from Ten of the Clock in the Morning until Eight of the Clock in the Evening, and at such other Times and Places as shall be found necessary and directed by One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that Two of the said Justices shall in the Morning attend together at each of the said Offices from Twelve of the Clock at Noon until Three in the Afternoon: Provided always, that no such Attendance shall be given on Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday, or any Day appointed for a Public Fast or Thanksgiving, unless in Cases of urgent Necessity, or when it shall be directed by such Principal Secretary of State.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and with the Advice of His or Their Privy Council, to alter the Situation of any of the said Police Offices, or to discontinue any of the said Police Offices, or to establish any additional Police Offices, or to make such Regulations in the Attendance of the Justices, and in conducting such Police Offices, as may be deemed expedient.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the present Receiver for the said Police Offices shall continue such Receiver, and that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, upon any Vacancy in the said Office of Receiver by Death or otherwise, to appoint any other proper Person, not being one of the Justices appointed to act at any of the said Police Offices, to be the Receiver of the said Police Offices; and that the said Receiver for the Time being shall receive all Fees, Penalties, and Forfeitures, and other Sums of Money applicable to the Purpose of the Act, and shall keep an exact and particular Account of all such Moneys as shall be received by him, and shall apply the same quarterly in discharge of the Salaries, Expenses, and Charges attending the said Police Offices, and in carrying this Act into execution; and shall make all such Contracts and Disbursements as shall be necessary for purchasing, leasing, fitting up, and furnishing proper and sufficient Houses and Buildings wherein the said Police Offices shall be held, in such Manner as shall be directed by One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, of which Houses and Buildings as to be hired or purchased, and of all Houses and Buildings already hired or purchased for the like Purpose, and of the Furniture and Furniture thereof, and of all other Necessaries to be held or purchased for the Purpose of this Act, the Property acquired therein shall be vested in the Receiver for the Time being, who shall and may sell, assign, and dispose of the same, or any Part thereof, under the like Directions and Appointments, as Occasion shall require; and such Receiver shall prepare proper Plans and Estimates of all such Contracts and Disbursements as shall be necessary for the Purpose aforesaid, and shall deliver the same to One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and such Receiver shall further do and execute all such other lawful Matters and Things towards the carrying this Act into execution as from Time to Time shall be directed by One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and for His Care and Pains in the Execution of such Office shall and may retain to his own Use, out of the Moneys so received by him as aforesaid, a Sum not exceeding Four hundred Pounds per Annum.

V. And be it further enacted, That a sufficient Number of fit and able Men shall from Time to Time, by the Direction of One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, be appointed, retained, and employed as Constables at the said Police Offices, and shall be sworn in by any of the said Justices in their respective Offices of the said Counties for preserving the Peace, and providing Redress for

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Justices appointed to the said Police Office in the Parish of Saint John of Watlington, commonly called the Thomas Police Office, or any of them, shall (subject to the Approbation of One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State) appoint, retain, and employ any Number of fit and discreet Men, who, under the Name of Thomas Police Surveysors, shall (being first duly sworn in manner above mentioned) have, within the Counties and Liberties aforesaid, the Powers, Authority, Privileges, and Advantages of a Constable as aforesaid, and shall direct and inspect the Conduct of the Constables attached to the Thomas Police Office, and of all Persons to be employed in and about Ships and Vessels in the said River Thames, or in or on the several Canals, Docks, Wharfs, Quays, and Landing Places therein adjacent, and subject to the Orders of any of the said last mentioned Justices, shall have Power by virtue of their Offices to enter at all Times, as well by Night as by Day, into and upon every Ship, Hoy, Barge, Lighter, Boat, or other Vessel (not being then actually employed in His Majesty's Service) lying or being in the said River or Creeks, or in any Dock or Docks therein adjacent, and into every Part of every such Vessel, for the Purpose of inspecting and upon Occasion directing the Conduct of any Constable who may be stationed on board of any such Vessel, and of inspecting and observing the Conduct of all other Persons who shall be employed on board of any such Vessel in or about the lading or unlading thereof, as the Case may be, and for the Purpose of taking all such Measures as may be necessary for preventing against Fire and other Accidents, and preserving Peace and good Order on board of any such Vessel, and for the effectual Prevention or Detection of any Felonies or Misdemeanors; and the Justices appointed to the said Thomas Police Office may at any Time suspend or dismiss any such Thomas Police Surveysor whom they shall find unfit or negligent in the Execution of his Duty, or otherwise unfit for the same; and when any such Surveysor shall be so dismissed, or cease to belong to the said Office, all Powers and Authorities vested in him as such Surveysor under and by virtue of this Act shall immediately cease and determine to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Officers and Patrols of Bow Street Office to act in Courts.

VII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Chief Magistrate of the Public Office in Bow Street to administer to the Officers of that Office, and to the Horse Patrol acting under his Authority, an Oath duly to execute the Office of Constable within the said several Counties and Liberties, and within the Royal Palaces of His Majesty, His House and Successors, and Ten Miles thereof; and each of the said Officers and Patrol of the said Public Office, being sworn, shall, within the several Liberties and Counties aforesaid, and also within the said Royal Palaces and Ten Miles thereof, have Power to act as a Constable, and shall have therein all such Powers and Authorities, Privileges and Advantages, as any Constable duly appointed now has or hereafter may have within his Constableness: Provided always, that when any such Constable or Patrol shall be detached from his Employment, or cease to belong to the said Public Office in Bow Street, all Powers and Authorities, Allowances, Emoluments, Privileges, and Advantages, vested in the Person so dismissed or ceasing to belong to the said Office, shall immediately cease and determine.

In case of Removal of Bow Street Office, Powers to continue.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all Powers and Authority, Privileges, Advantages, Exemptions, Duties, Obligations, and Liabilities, by this Act conferred, and imposed upon the Magistrates of the said Public Office in Bow Street, and upon the Clerks, Constables, and others therein employed, and on the Horse Patrol acting under the Authority of the Chief Magistrate of that Office, shall, in case of the Removal of that Office from the said Street to any other Street or Place, be used and exercised, enjoyed and performed, by the Magistrates, Clerks, Officers, Patrol, and others respectively, at the Office to be substituted for the said Public Office in Bow Street, in as full and ample Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as if such substituted Office had been expressly named in this Act.

Constables may be appointed for special Purposes.

IX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Justices of the said Public Office in Bow Street, or for the Justices appointed to attend at the said Police Office, or for any of them, if they should think fit, on the Application of any Person or Persons showing the Necessity thereof, to appoint any Number of fit and competent Men recommended by the Person or Persons so applying, and approved by such Justice or Justices, to be Constables, to keep the Peace in any Place within the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within the Parishes of Saint Mary-le-bone, Paddington, Saint Pancras, Kensington, or Saint Luke Oldham, in the County of Middlesex, for each Period of Time as such Justice or Justices shall deem fit and necessary, and to administer an Oath to every such Constable duly to execute that Office within such Place, and for the Period of Time for which he shall be appointed; and every Constable so sworn shall, at such Place, and during the Time he shall so serve, have all such Powers and Authorities, Privileges, and Duties, as any Constable duly appointed paideth hath or shall have within his Constableness, and shall be paid by the Person or Persons as aforesaid: Provided always, that if any Person shall be appointed such Wages as shall be deemed reasonable and adequate by the Justice or Justices by whom he shall be so appointed: Provided always, that in case of any Neglect of Duty or Misconduct of any Constable so appointed, or upon the Request in Writing of the Person or Persons on whose Application such Appointment shall have been made, it shall be lawful for any of the aforesaid Justices to determine such Appointment, and all Powers, Authorities, Privileges, Advantages, and Liabilities of such Constable shall thereupon cease.

X. And be it further enacted, That if any of the Officers or Patrols acting under the Authority of the Chief Magistrate of the said Public Office, Bow Street, or any of the Constables returned and employed at any of the said Police Offices, or any of the Constables appointed and sworn in under the Authority of the Justices of the Metropolitan Police, or any Constable appointed and sworn in as hereinbefore last mentioned, shall be guilty of any Disobedience of Orders, Neglect of Duty, or of any Misconduct as such Constable, and shall be convicted thereof before Two Justices of the Peace, he shall suffer any Term not exceeding Ten Months, and in default of immediate Payment shall suffer Imprisonment, with or without hard Labour, for any Time not exceeding Three Months: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent any such Person from being proceeded against by way of Indictment for any Offence committed by him as Constable, as if that no Person shall be proceeded against both by Indictment and also under this Act for the same Offence.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, so direct that such Sums shall be issued quarterly, out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to the said Receiver, as will be sufficient to pay the yearly Salary of Eight hundred Pounds, clear of all Fees or Deductions, to each of the Justices appointed to attend at the said Police Offices for their Time and Trouble, and to pay such further Sums as may be necessary for the Expenses of the Officers, and for the Payment of Clerks, Constables, Surveyors, and others therein employed, and for the Payment of the Expenses of the said Public Office in Bow Street, and of the Magistrates, Clerks, and Constables, and others therein employed, and of the Horse Patrol acting under the Authority of the Chief Magistrate of that Office, and of each Horse and Foot Patrol as have been represented under the Provisions of the Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, for the more effectual Administration of the Office of Justice of the Peace so near the Metropolis, provided that the whole of the said Charges shall not exceed the annual Sum of Fifty-eight thousand Pounds, over and above the necessary Disbursements for purchasing, hiring, repairing, fitting up, and furnishing the Houses and Buildings wherein the said Offices shall be held; and that the said Receiver, out of the Money so issued to him, shall and may pay to the Constables and Surveyors as appointed as aforesaid, for their Trouble and Attendance, such Sums as may from Time to Time appear reasonable to One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and any extraordinary Expenses necessarily incurred in apprehending Offenders, and in executing the Orders of the Justices acting under and by virtue of this Act, such extraordinary Expenses being first examined and approved of by the Justices attending the Police Office in which such Constables or Surveyors shall be respectively attached, and shall and may pay, under the Direction of such Principal Secretary of State, such further Sums for rewarding the extraordinary Diligence or Execution of any of the said Constables or Surveyors, or for compensating them for Wounds or severe Injuries received in the Performance of their Duties, or for an Allowance to such of them as shall be completely disabled by bodily Injury, or worn out by Length of Service.

XII. And be it further enacted, That no Justice of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, County of Surrey, City and Liberty of Westminster, or Liberty of the Tower of London, or his Clerk, or any Person in their Behalf, elsewhere than at the said Public Office in Bow Street and at the said Police Offices shall directly or indirectly, upon any Pretence whatsoever, take or receive any Fee, Reward, Gratuity, or Accommodation for any Act by him or them done or to be done in the Execution of his or their Office or Employ as Justice of the Peace or Clerk as aforesaid, within the Limits of the Wealthy Bills of Mortality, or within the Parishes of St. Mary-Above, Paddington, St. Pancras, Kensington, or St. Luke Church, in the County of Middlesex, upon pain of forfeiting the Sum of One hundred Pounds for every such Offence, one Mitty thereof to the said Receiver, to be applied to the Purpose of this Act, and the other Ninety thereof, with full Costs of Suit, to the Person who shall sue for the same in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster; and that every Summons which shall, after the passing of this Act, be issued by any Justice of the Peace of the Counties of Middlesex and Surrey respectively, requiring any Person residing within the said Limits and Parishes to appear at any Place without those Limits and Parishes, to answer any Information or Complaint touching any Matter arising within the said Limits and Parishes, shall be utterly void and of none Effect; any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend to any Fees taken at any General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, or at any Meeting of Justices for the Purpose of hearing Allowances, or to any Fees taken by the Vestry Clerk, or by the Clerk to the Churchwardens and Overseers of any Parish, for the Purpose of enforcing the Payment of any Taxes or Assessments arising within the same Parish, or for the Purpose of hearing and determining any Offence cognizable before Justices of the Peace, by virtue of any Statute made and provided for the special Regulation or Government of such Parish.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That in some conspicuous Part of each of the said Police Offices, and also of the said Public Office in Bow Street, there shall be put up in plain English, this Statute, which may be lawfully Persons to provide Constables for Neglect of Duty or other Misconduct.

Justices to be allowed a Salary of 8000 per Annum.

Further Sums to be issued for Payment of Clerks, Constables, &c. and for Bow Street Office and Horse Patrol.

No Justice shall take Fees but at the Public Office, Bow Street, and at the Police Offices.

Penalty 1000.

Summons for Persons to appear at any Place within the Limits specified in this Act, void.

Nothing herein to extend to Fees at Quarter Sessions, or Meetings of Justices for hearing Allowances, &c.

Tables of Fees to be hung up.

legally be taken at each Office respectively under an Act passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Second, intituled An Act for the settling and ascertaining the Fees to be taken by Clerks in Justice in the Peace, and under another Act passed in the Twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of King George the Second, intituled An Act for making perpetual several Laws for Punishment of Persons destroying Treasures, Leaks, or other Works created by Authority of Parliament; and that all Acts made for creating Courts of Commissions shall be deemed Public Acts; and to empower a certain Number of the Trustees of the British Museum to do certain Acts; and for enlarging the Tables of Fees to be taken by the Clerks in the Justice of the Peace for the County of Middlesex; and for giving further Time for the Payment of Duties intituled to be paid for the Indulgences or Contracts of Clerks and Apprentices; and for filing Affidavits in the Examinations of Contracts of Clerks in Attorneys and Solicitors; and for preventing Persons driving certain Carriages from riding upon such Carriages; and that it shall be lawful for any Justice at each Office respectively to return to its any Act for which any Fee shall be demandable unless such Fee shall be first paid; and that if any such Act shall be done, and the Fee due thereon shall not be paid, it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace to summon the Person from whom such Fee shall be due, and to make Order for Payment of the same, with the Costs of the Proceedings, and in default of Payment to levy the same, with the Costs of the Distress, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal.

Amount of Fees and Indulgences received at the said Office shall be delivered quarterly to the Receiver, and the Amount thereof paid to him.

Justices and Clerks who are received before any of the Justices to be paid to the Receiver.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the Justices of the said Public Office in Bow Street and the Justices appointed to attend at the said Public Offices, and their Clerks respectively, shall, in Books to be provided for that Purpose, keep a full, true, and particular Account of all Fees taken and received at each of the said Offices, together with all Penalties and Forfeitures which shall have been recovered, levied, or received in pursuance of any Adjudication, Conviction, or Order had or made at any of the said Offices, or any Process or Warrant issuing from the same; to which Books of Account the said Receiver shall at all Times have free Access; and the said Justices shall, once in every Quarter of a Year, deliver unto such Receiver such Account, verified upon Oath by each Justice or Justice, Clerk or Clerks, or such other Person or Persons as shall be employed in keeping such Accounts respectively, or any Part thereof, before some Justice of the Peace for the said County of Middlesex or County of Surrey, and shall pay the Amount of all such Fees unto such Receiver, to be applied in manner herebefore mentioned.

XV. And be it further enacted, That where by any Act or Acts, other than an Act passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for improving the Police in and near the Metropolis, any Penalties or Forfeitures, or Shares of Penalties or Forfeitures, are or shall hereafter be made recoverable in a summary Manner before any Justice or Justices of the Peace, and by such Act or Acts respectively the same are or shall be limited and made payable to His Majesty, or to any Body Corporate, or to any Person or Persons whatsoever, save and except the Informer who shall sue for the same, or any Party aggrieved, in every such Case the same, if recovered or adjudged before any Justice or Justices of the said Public Office in Bow Street, or at any of the said Public Offices, shall, notwithstanding any thing in such Act or Acts respectively contained, be recovered for and adjudged to be paid to the said Receiver for the Time being, to be by him applied for the Purpose of this Act; and the same shall not in any Case be recovered by or adjudged to be paid to any other Person than the said Receiver, unless such Person be the Informer or the Party aggrieved; Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to any Penalties or Forfeitures recovered under any Act relating to the Customs or to Trade or Navigation, and save for by the Direction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, which shall be paid to such Person as the said Commissioners shall direct to receive the same.

In every such Indulgences and Forfeitures are accounted for, Receipts may be for the same in any Court of Record.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That if the Justice appointed as aforesaid, or any other Person, having received any such Fees at the said Public Office in Bow Street, or at any of the said Public Offices, shall neglect to account for and pay the same in manner aforesaid, or if any Justice, Justice's Clerk, Constable, Officer, or other Person who shall levy or receive such Penalties or Forfeitures, or Shares of Penalties or Forfeitures, shall neglect to pay the same into the Hands of such Receiver, or if any Person having sued any such Office of Record, or having been removed from the same, shall neglect, within Twenty-one Days after Notice for that Purpose, to account for and pay into the Hands of the succeeding Receiver all such Sums of Money as shall remain in his Hands applicable to the Purpose of this Act, it shall be lawful for such Receiver for the Time being, in his own proper Name only, or by his Name and Description of Office, to sue for and recover the same, with Costs of Suit as between Attorney and Client, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, by Action of Debt, in which Action it shall be sufficient for such Receiver to declare as for Money had and received to the Use of such Receiver for the Purpose of this Act; and the Defendant or Defendants in such Action may, at the Discretion of any Judge of such Court, be held to special Bail in such competent Sum as such Judge shall order and direct; and in any such Action the Court in which such Action shall be brought may, if such Court shall think proper, at the Instance of either of the Parties, refer the Account in dispute in a summary Manner to be audited by any Officer of the Court or other fit Person, at his Discretion, who may examine both Plaintiff and Defendant upon Oath (which Oath the said Referee shall have Power to administer); and upon the Report of such Referee, unless either of the Parties shall show good Cause to the contrary, such Court may make a Rule, either for the Payment of such Sum as upon such Report shall appear to be due, or for staying the Proceedings in the said Action (and upon such Terms and Conditions as to the said Court shall appear reasonable and Regulations as to Coffee Shops.

Shop, House, Booth, Standing, Tent, Caravan, Waggons, or other Place shall, during the Continuance of any such Fair as aforesaid, be open within the Hours herein-before prohibited, for any Purpose of Business or Amusement in the Place where such Fair shall be held, or within Three hundred Yards thereof, then it shall be lawful for any Constable or other Peace Officer, within his Jurisdiction, to take into Custody the Master or Mistress, or other Person having the Care, Government, or Management of any such House, Shop, Room, Booth, Standing, Tent, Caravan, Waggons, or other Place, and also every Person being therein, and who shall not quit the same forthwith upon being called by any such Constable or other Peace Officer so to do, and to convey every such Person so taken, as soon as conveniently may be, before a Justice of the Peace, who shall proceed to hear the Complaint in a summary Way; and every Person convicted before any such Justice, as the Master, Mistress, or Person having the Care, Government, or Management of any such House, Shop, Room, Booth, Standing, Tent, Caravan, Waggons, or other Place, shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds; and every Person so convicted as having been therein, and not having quitted the same forthwith upon being called by a Constable or other Peace Officer so to do, shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, and if any Party so convicted shall not immediately pay the Penalty, the Justice shall commit him or her to hard Labour in the House of Correction for any Space of Time not exceeding Three Months, unless the Penalty shall be sooner paid; and if there shall appear to any Two Justices, within their respective Jurisdictions, Reason to believe that any Fair usually held within the Distance of Ten Miles of Temple Bar has been held without Charter, Prescription, or other lawful Authority, or that any Fair lawfully held within the said Distance has been usually held for a longer Period than is warranted by Charter, Prescription, or other lawful Authority, it shall be competent to them to summon the Owner or Occupier of the Ground upon which such Fair is usually held to appear before such Justices as may be present at some Petty Sessions, to be held at the Time and Place to be specified in the Summons, not less than Eight Days after the Service of the Summons, to shew his Right and Title to hold such Fair, or to hold such Fair beyond a given Period (as the Case may be); and if such Owner or Occupier shall not attend in pursuance of such Summons, or shall not shew to the Justice present at such Petty Sessions sufficient Cause to believe that such Fair has been held by lawful Right and Title for the whole Period during which the same has been usually held, such Justice shall declare, in Writing, such Fair to be unlawful, either altogether or beyond a stated Period (as the Case may be), and shall give Notice of such their Declaration, by affixing Copies thereof to the Parish Church, and on the most public Places in and near the Ground where such Fair has been usually held; and if after such Notices shall have been affixed for the Space of Six Days any Attempts shall be made to hold such Fair, or it shall be declared altogether unlawful, or to hold it beyond the prescribed Period, if it shall be declared unlawful beyond a certain Period, any Justice of the Peace within his Jurisdiction may, by his Warrant, direct any Constable or other Peace Officer to remove every Booth, Standing, and Tent, and every Carriage, of whatsoever Kind, conveyed to or being upon such Ground for the Purpose of holding or continuing such Fair, and to take into Custody every Person entering, pitching, or fixing, or assisting to erect, pitch, or fix, any such Booth, Standing, or Tent, and every Person driving, accompanying, or conveyed in every such Carriage, and every Person resorting to such Ground with any Exhibitions, Shows, Swings, Roundabouts, Whirligigs, or other Instruments of Gaming or Amusement, and to carry every Person so taken before the Justice granting such Warrant, or before some other Justice, who shall proceed to hear the Complaint in a summary Way; and every Person convicted before any such Justice of any of the Offences last aforesaid shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds; and if the Party so convicted shall not immediately pay the Penalty, the Justice shall commit him or her to hard Labour in the House of Correction for any Space of Time not exceeding Three Months unless the Penalty shall be sooner paid; Provided nevertheless, that if the Owner or Occupier of the Ground where any such Fair has been usually held shall, when summoned before the Justices at their Petty Sessions as aforesaid, enter into a Recognizance to the good Use of Two hundred Pounds, (which Recognizance such Justice may hereby authorize to take,) with Condition to appear in the Court of King's Bench on the First Day of the then next Term, and to answer to any Information in the Nature of a Quo warranto which His Majesty's Attorney or Solicitor General may exhibit against such Owner or Occupier, touching the Right and Title to such Fair, and to abide the Judgment of the Court thereon, and to pay such Costs as may be awarded by the Court, which Costs the said Court is hereby authorized to award, then, notwithstanding the Justice shall declare such Fair to be unlawful, they shall forbear from giving Notice of such their Declaration, and from taking any further Proceedings thereon, and Judgment shall be given by the said Court against the Right and Title to such Fair, and the Justices taking such Recognizance shall forthwith transmit the same to One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to the end that the same may be filed in the said Court, and such further Directions may be given thereon as to such Secretary of State may seem fit and necessary.

XXIII. And whereas there are many Shops, Rooms, and Places of public Resort, where Thieves, Profligates, and other disorderly Persons assemble at Night; be it further enacted, That no Shop, Room, or Place of public Resort where ready-made Coffee, Tea, or other Liquors are sold or consumed within the City of London or the Liberties thereof, or within the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within any of the Parishes herein-before mentioned, shall be kept open after the Hour of Eleven at Night during any Part of the Year, nor open before the Hour of Four in the Morning (Provided that the said Shop and Room shall be closed "TWO" in the Morning "TWO" in the Morning and Early Day;

Days; and that no Shop, Room, or Place of public Resort where any Refreshments or any Liquors are not subject to any Duties of Customs or Excise are contained within the City of London and the Liberties thereof, or within the said Limits and Parishes, shall be kept open after the Hour of One in the Morning or before the Hour of Five in the Morning; and if any such Shop, Room, or Place shall be open within the Hours herein-before respectively prohibited, or being shut up, if any Person shall during those Hours respectively be found therein, except the Person actually dwelling there, or having lawful Excuse for being there, or if Gaming shall be at any Time permitted or suffered therein, then the Master, Mistress, Waiter, or other Person having the Care, Government, or Management of such Shop, Room, or Place, whether he or she be the real Owner or Keeper thereof or no, shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds upon Conviction of any such Offence before any Justice of the Peace by Confession or upon the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses; and if the Party so convicted shall not immediately pay the said Penalty, the Justice shall commit him or her to hard Labour in the House of Correction for any Space of Time not exceeding Three Months unless the said Penalty shall be sooner paid; and the said Penalty, when paid, shall be distributed, one Moiety to the Informer, and the other Moiety to the Chamberlains of the City of London, if the Offence be committed to the said City, and if out of the said City, then to the said Receiver for the Purpose of this Act: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall apply to or affect any House duly licensed for the Sale of Wine and Spirituous Liquors; and that no such Conviction shall exempt the Owner, Keeper, or Manager of any such Shop, Room, or Place from any Penalty or penal Consequence whosoever he or she may be liable for keeping a disorderly House.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall, within the City of London and Liberties thereof, or within the Limits and Parishes aforesaid, blow any Horn or use any other noisy Instrument, for the Purpose of hawking, selling, or distributing any Article whatsoever, it shall be lawful for any Constable, Headborough, Patrol, Watchman, or other Person to apprehend every Person so offending, and convey him before any Justice of the Peace, who shall proceed to examine upon Oath any Witnesses appearing to give Evidence touching such Offence; and if the Party accused shall be convicted of such Offence, then and to every such Case he shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings; and in case the Offender shall not upon Conviction forthwith pay the Penalty, such Justice is hereby required to commit such Offender to the House of Correction, there to be kept to hard Labour for any Time not exceeding Ten Days, unless the Penalty shall be sooner paid.

XXV. And whereas Accidents often happen and Damage is frequently done in Streets and Highways by the Negligence or wilful Misbehaviour of Persons driving Carriages or Vehicles therein, and the Laws now in force have been found insufficient for the due Protection of His Majesty's Subjects; be it therefore enacted, That if the Driver of any Carriage or Vehicle of any kind whatsoever shall ride upon any such Carriage or Vehicle, or on any of the Horses drawing the same, not having some Person on Foot or on Horseback to guide the same (such Carriages or Vehicles as are commonly driven or conducted by some Person holding the Reins of the Horse or Horses excepted), or if the Driver of any Carriage or Vehicle whatsoever, or any Person riding, shall, by Negligence, wilful Misbehaviour, or any other Misdemeanour, cause any Hurt or Damage to any Person or Property being upon any Street or Highway, or if the Driver of any Carriage or Vehicle whatsoever shall wilfully be at such Damage from such Carriage or Vehicle then he cannot bear the Direction and Government of any Horse or Horses or Cattle drawing the same, not having employed some proper Person to take care of the same, or shall by Negligence, wilful Misbehaviour, or any other Misdemeanour, interrupt the Passage of any other Carriage or Vehicle, or of His Majesty's Subjects, or shall obstruct any Street or Highway, and being required by any Constable or Peace Officer to pass on or across, shall continue to obstruct the same, every Person so offending in any of the Cases aforesaid within Five Miles of Temple Bar, and being convicted by any Justice of the Peace of any such Offence, either upon Confession, or by the Oath of a credible Witness, shall for every such Offence forfeit any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, and in every Case where any such Hurt or Damage shall have been caused or suffered shall further pay such a Sum, not exceeding Five Pounds, as shall appear to the said Justice to be a reasonable Compensation to the Person so aggrieved or injured, and the Evidence of such Person shall be admitted in proof of the Offence: Provided always, that if the Person so aggrieved or injured shall have taken the only Witness examined in proof of the Offence, such Sum so ordered or assessed shall be paid and applied in the same Manner as a Penalty; and in default of Payment of such Penalty and of such Compensation, if ordered, together with the Costs attending such Conviction, immediately or within such Time as such Justice shall appoint, such Justice shall and may commit such Offender to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, to be there imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Two Months, unless such Penalty, together with the Costs and Compensation, if ordered, be sooner paid; and every such Offender shall and may, by the Authority of this Act, with or without any Warrant, be apprehended by any Person who shall see such Offence committed, and shall be immediately conveyed or delivered to a Constable or other Peace Officer, in order to be conveyed before some Justice of the Peace.

XXVI. And whereas great Inconvenience has arisen from the driving of Stage Carriages, and from the driving of Cattle, Sheep, Pigs, and other Animals, in the Streets and Highways of the Metropolis during the Hours of Drive Service, and it is expedient that Regulations should be made for preventing such Inconveniences, and for the better and more speedy Manner the Application of the Statute in or Churchwardens of any Church, Chapel, or other Place of public Worship to the Court of Aldermen of the City of London, if the same shall be situated within the City of London or the Liberties thereof, or to any Two of the Justices of the said Public Office in Beau Street, or to any Two of the Justices appointed to attend at any of the said Police Offices which shall be in the Vicinity of such Church or Chapel or Place of public Worship, if the same shall be situated within the Limits and Parishes aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Court of Aldermen, or for such Two Justices, as the Case may be, to make Rules or Orders for regulating the Route and Conduct of Persons who shall drive any Stage Carriage, or who shall drive any Cattle, Sheep, Pigs, or other Animals within such Parish or Place, during the Hours of Divine Service on Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday, or any Day appointed for a Public Fast or Thanksgiving, and to annex reasonable Penalties for the Breach of such Rules or Orders, not exceeding Forty Shillings with Costs, if awarded, for any such Offence, provided the same be not repugnant to the Laws of the Realm, and three Times in Three to alter and amend the same if necessary; and every Breach of any such Rule or Order shall be deemed a separate Offence, and any Person who shall offend against any such Rule or Order shall, on Conviction thereof before any Justice of the Peace, forfeit and pay such Penalty as shall be adjudged, and, in default of Payment within such Time as such Justice at the Time of Conviction shall appoint, shall be liable to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding One Month; and any Person committing any Offence against any such Rule or Order may be immediately apprehended, without any Warrant, by any Constable who shall see such Offence committed, and be conveyed before a Justice of the Peace, to be dealt with as herein-before is mentioned; and any Justice of the Peace, on a complaint made to him that any such Offence hath been committed within his Jurisdiction, may issue his Warrant for the Apprehension of any such Offender: Provided always, that when any such Rules or Orders shall have been made by the Court of Aldermen of the City of London, or by any Two Justices as herein-before is mentioned, the same shall be printed, and affixed on the Church, Chapel, or Place of public Worship to which the same shall refer, and in the most conspicuous Places leading to and contiguous thereto, and elsewhere, as the said Court of Aldermen or the said Justices shall direct.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That no Proprietor of any Stage Carriage duly licensed to carry Passengers for Hire shall be liable to any Penalty for any Deviation from the Route or Line of Route specified in such License, which the Driver of such Stage Carriage shall be compelled to make during the Hours of Divine Service by virtue of any Order or Rules made by the Court of Aldermen, or by Two Justices of the Peace, as herein-before is mentioned.

XXVIII. And whereas an Act passed in the Twenty-first Year of the Reign of King George the Third, entitled An Act to prevent the Mischief that arises from driving Cattle within the Cities of London and Westminster, and Liberties thereof, and Parts of Middlesex, has been found ineffectual for the Prevention of such Mischief, and it is expedient to extend the Powers and enlarge the Limits of the said Act; be it therefore enacted, That all the Powers and Provisions of the said Act shall extend and be in force within the Distance of Five Miles from Temple Bar, as fully and effectually as if such Limits had been originally inserted in the said Act; and that if any Person not being employed to drive Cattle shall within the said Limits sell with Scales, Brickbats, or by any other Means blast or drive away, or shall not any Dog or any Ox, Heifer, Cow, Steer, or other Cattle, contrary to the Provisions of the said Act, such Person shall, upon being convicted thereof according to the said Act, forfeit and pay, on the first Conviction, any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings nor less than Twenty Shillings, and on the Second and every further Conviction any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds nor less than Fifty Shillings, to the Person or Persons who shall prosecute such Offender to Conviction, and in default of Payment shall be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to be kept to hard Labour for any Time not exceeding Two Months on the first Conviction, nor Five Months on the Second and every future Conviction, in the Manner prescribed by the said Act, unless the Penalty be sooner paid.

XXIX. And whereas diverse Places in and about the Metropolis are kept and used for the Purpose of fighting or baiting of Horses or other Animals, at which Places idle and disorderly Persons commonly assemble, to the Interruption of good Order and the Danger of the public Peace; be it therefore enacted, That any Person who shall, within Five Miles of Temple Bar, keep or use, or shall act in the Management or conducting of any Promises or Place whatsoever for the Purpose of fighting or baiting of Horses, Cock-fighting, baiting or fighting of Badgers or other Animals, shall, on Conviction thereof before any One Justice of the Peace, forfeit any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, and in default of immediate Payment shall be liable to be imprisoned and kept to hard Labour for any Time not exceeding Two Months, unless the said Penalty shall be sooner paid.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That every Conviction for any Offence mentioned in this Act, except in such Cases where the Form of such Conviction is herein-after provided, may be in the following Form of Words, or some other Form of Words to the like Effect:

Forms.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for every such Thomas Police Surveyor (subject to the Orders of any of the said Justices appointed to attend the Thomas Police Office), having just Cause to suspect that any Felony has been or is about to be committed in or on board of any Ship, Boat, Barge, Lighter, Boat, or other Vessel lying or being in the said River, Dock, or Creek, to enter at all Times, as well by Night as by Day, into and upon every such Ship, Boat, Barge, Lighter, Boat, or other Vessel, and therein to take all necessary Measures for the effectual Prevention or Detection of all Felonies which he has just Cause to suspect to have been or to be about to be committed in and upon the said River, Dock, or Creek, and to apprehend and detain all Persons suspected of being concerned in such Felonies, and also all Property so suspected to be stolen, and the same to produce before some Justice, to be dealt with according to Law.

Unlawful Quantities of
may be seized.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for every such Thomas Police Surveyor, at any Time between Sun-rising and Sun-setting, to enter any Ship or Vessel (except His Majesty's Ships) in the said River, Dock, and Creek, and to search the same for unlawful Quantities of Gunpowder, and also to exercise the same Powers of seizing, removing to proper Places, and detaining all such unlawful Quantities of Gunpowder found on board any such Ship or Vessel, and the Barrels or other Packages in which such Gunpowder shall be, as are given to Persons receiving for unlawful Quantities of Gunpowder, under a Warrant of a Justice, by virtue of an Act passed in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled an Act to regulate the making, buying, and Carriage of Gunpowder within Great Britain, and to repeal the Letters Licentiate made for any of these Purposes.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if on Information given on Oath it shall appear to any Justice that there is reasonable Cause for suspecting that any Goods, Matter, or Thing stolen or unlawfully obtained are or is concealed or otherwise lodged in any Dwelling House, Warehouse, Yard, Garden, or any other Place, it shall be lawful for such Justice, by special Warrant under his Hand and Seal, directed to any Thomas Police Surveyor or Constable as aforesaid, or other Constable within his Jurisdiction, to cause every such Place to be entered and searched at any Time of the Day, or by Night, if Power for that Purpose be especially given and by such Warrant; and the said Justice, if it shall appear to him necessary, may moreover empower such Surveyor or Constable, with any such Assistance as to the said Justice may appear, or by such Surveyor or Constable may be found necessary (such Surveyor or Constable having previously made known such his Authority), to use Force for the effecting of such Entry, whether by breaking open Doors or otherwise, and if upon Search thereupon made any such Goods, Matter, or Thing shall be found, then to convey the same forthwith to and before a Justice, or to guard the same on the Spot while the Offenders are taken before a Justice, or otherwise dispose thereof in some Place of Safety, subject to the Orders of a Justice in manner above mentioned, and moreover to apprehend and convey before the said Justice the Person or Persons in whose House, Lodging, or other Place the same shall so have been found, as also every other Person found in such House, Lodging, or Place who shall appear to have been privy to the depositing of such Goods, Matter, or Thing in such Place, knowing or having reasonable Cause to suspect the same to have been stolen or otherwise unlawfully obtained; and if such Person respectively shall not immediately, or within some reasonable Time to be assigned by the Justice, make it appear to the Satisfaction of the Justice by what lawful Means such Goods, Matter, or Thing came to be deposited or obtained in such Place, he or she shall be deemed and adjudged guilty of a Misdemeanor, and shall suffer as hereto-afore mentioned, and shall be liable to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Three Months, over and above any such Damages as may be recoverable by Action at Law against any such Offender.

in such Case the Person or Persons in whose House, Lodging, or other Place any such suspected Goods, Matter, or Thing shall have been found, and also every other Person so appearing to have been privy to the depositing thereof, knowing or having Cause to suspect the same to have been stolen, or otherwise unlawfully obtained, shall be deemed and adjudged guilty of a Misdemeanor, and shall suffer as herein-after mentioned.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That when any Person shall be brought before such Justice charged with having or conveying any such Goods, Matter, or Thing stolen or unlawfully obtained, and shall declare himself or herself to have recovered the same from some other Person, or to have been employed as a Carrier, Agent, or Servant to convey the same for some other Person, such Justice is hereby authorized and required to cause every such Person, and also, if necessary, every prior or pretended Purchaser, or other Person through whose Possession the same shall have passed, to be brought before him and examined, and to examine Witnesses upon Oath touching the same; and if upon the whole Evidence it shall appear to such Justice that any Person shall have had Possession of such Goods, Matter, or Thing, and have had reasonable Cause to believe the same to have been stolen or unlawfully obtained, every such Person shall be deemed and adjudged guilty of a Misdemeanor, and shall suffer as herein-after mentioned; and every such Person shall be deemed to have had Possession of such Goods, Matter, or Thing at the Time and Place when and where the same shall have been found or seized; and the Possession of a Carrier, Agent, or Servant shall be deemed to be the Possession of the Person who shall have employed such other Person to convey the same.

XL. And be it further enacted, That every Person who, for the Purpose of protecting or preventing any Goods, Matter, or Thing whatsoever from being seized on Suspicion of their being stolen or otherwise unlawfully obtained, or of preventing the same from being produced or made to serve as Evidence of or concerning any Felony or Misdemeanor, shall frame or cause to be framed, or be any-wise concerned in framing or causing to be framed, any Bill of Parole containing any false Statements in regard to the Name or Amount of any alleged Vendor, the Quantity or Quality of any such Goods, Matter, or Thing, the Place from whence or the Conveyance by which the same were furnished, the Price agreed upon or charged for the same, or any other Particular, knowing such Statement to be false, or who shall fraudulently produce such Bill of Parole knowing the same to have been fraudulently framed, shall be adjudged guilty of a Misdemeanor, and shall suffer as herein-after mentioned.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That any Person who shall be found in or upon any Canal, Dock, Warehouse, Wharf, Quay, or Bank, or on board any Ship, Vessel, Boat, or Craft, having in his or her Possession any Tube or other Instrument for the Purpose of unlawfully procuring or obtaining any Wine, Spirit, or other Liquors, or having in his or her Possession any Still, Stillion, or other Mineral or Likened, for the Purpose of unlawfully extracting or carrying away any such Wine, Spirit, or other Liquors, and any Person who shall attempt unlawfully to procure or obtain any such Wine, Spirit, or other Liquors, shall be deemed and adjudged guilty of a Misdemeanor, and shall suffer as herein-after mentioned.

XLII. And whereas, for the Purpose of increasing the Facility of Depredation, it hath been a common Practice among Persons concerned in the landing and warehousing of Merchandise from or on board Ships and Vessels in the said River wilfully to injure and prevent the opening and breaking of Casks, Bags, and other Packages, and the spilling of their Contents: for Remedy thereof be it further enacted, That if any Person employed in the landing, landing, or warehousing of any Goods, or any other Person, shall wilfully or through culpable Negligence or Carelessness cause or suffer, or be concerned in causing or suffering, to be broken, bruised, pierced, opened, cut, torn, or otherwise injured, any Cask, Box, Chest, Bag, or other Package containing or being designed and prepared for containing any Goods while on board of any Barge, Lighter, or other Craft lying or being in the said River, or any Dock, Creek, Quay, Wharf, or Landing Place adjacent to the coast, or in the Way to or from any Warehouse in or upon which such Package shall have been removed, shall be removing, or about to be removed, with Intent that the Contents of such Package or any Part thereof may be spilled or dropped from such Package, every Person so offending shall for every such Offence be deemed and adjudged guilty of a Misdemeanor, and shall suffer as herein-after mentioned.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That if for the Purpose of preventing the Seizure or Discovery of any Materials, Furniture, Stores, or Merchandise belonging to or being taken Part of the Cargo of any Ship or Vessel lying in the said River, or the Docks or Canals adjacent thereto, or of any other Articles unlawfully obtained from any such Ship or Vessel, or any such or any other Article shall be wilfully let fall or thrown into the River, or in any other Manner directly or purposely conveyed away or endeavored to be conveyed away from any Ship, Boat, Barge, Lighter, Craft, Wharf, Quay, or other Landing Place, every Person being party, privy, or accessory to such letting fall, throwing, or conveying, or to any previous Instructions or preconcerted Design so to let fall, throw, or convey away any such, or to any such Purpose as aforesaid, shall be deemed and adjudged guilty of a Misdemeanor, and shall suffer as herein-after mentioned; and every Thames Police Surveyor, or Constable or other Peace Officer within his Jurisdiction, shall apprehend and detain and lawfully convey such Person before some Justice, and shall also seize and detain any Boat in which such Person shall be found, or before some Justice, and shall also seize and detain any Boat in which such Person shall be found, or out of which any such Article shall be so let fall, thrown, or conveyed away; and upon the Conviction of such Person, such Boat, with her Tackle, Apparel, Furniture, and Landing, shall be forfeited and disposed of as a booby-ship directed.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That for every Offence herein-before declared to be a Misdemeanor, or for which no special Penalty is herein before appointed, the Offender shall, at the Discretion of the Justice before whom the Conviction shall take place, either forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, or suffer Imprisonment for any Time not exceeding Two Months, with or without hard Labour, in any Goal or House of Correction within the Jurisdiction of such Justice; and in case of the Adjudication of a pecuniary Penalty, and Nonpayment thereof, it shall be lawful for such Justice to commit the Offender to any Goal or House of Correction for the like Term, unless such Penalty shall be sooner paid; and the Mistry of every such pecuniary Penalty, if recovered or adjudged before any Justice or Justices at the said Public Office in New Street, or at any of the said Police Offices, shall be paid to the said Receiver as aforesaid for the Purpose of this Act, and if recovered or adjudged in the City of London, or the Liberties thereof shall be paid to the Chamberlain of the City of London for the Time being, and the other Mistry thereof, under the Direction of the Justice by whom the same shall have been adjudged, shall either be paid and applied to the Use of the Informer above, or be distributed between such Persons as shall have contributed to the Conviction of the Offender, in such Shares and Proportions as such Justice shall think fit; and that when any Articles shall be seized by virtue of this Act, and the Person in whose Possession the same shall have been found shall be convicted of a Misdemeanor as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Justice before whom the Conviction shall take place to cause such Articles to be advertised in some public Newspaper, to the end that Persons having a Right thereto may claim and retrieve the same within Thirty Days from the Date of such Advertisement, in the manner and upon the Conditions directed in and by an Act of the Second Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intitled the Act to prevent the committing of Theft and Fraud by Persons carrying Bag-loads and other Goods upon the River Thames; and if no Person shall prove his Property and Right to the said Articles within the said Thirty Days, the same shall be sold for the best Price that can reasonably be gotten for the same; and after deducting the Charges, according to the said recited Act, the Residue of the Proceeds thereof shall be paid to the said Receiver for the Purpose of this Act.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That in every Case in which Complaint shall be made of any Offence by this Act declared to be a Misdemeanor, or of any Offence touching any Boat or Vessel belonging to or hired or employed by the Justices appointed to attend at the Thames Police Office, the Matter of such Complaint, if the Offence shall have been committed or the Offender apprehended within the Jurisdiction of the City of London, may be heard and determined by the Lord Mayor, Recorder, or one of the Aldermen of the said City, and not elsewhere; but if the Offence shall have been committed or the Offender apprehended out of the said Jurisdiction, such Complaint may be heard and determined, either by one of the Justices appointed to the Thames Police Office as aforesaid, or by any other Justice within whose Jurisdiction the Offence shall have been committed or the Offender apprehended; and every Conviction for any such Offence shall be certified, filed, and entered in such Manner as is directed in and by the said last recited Act with respect to Convictions under that Act, and may also be drawn up in such Form and Manner, under the Seal, as is appointed in and by the same Act; and neither such Conviction nor any Proceeding process therein shall be removed by Certiorari or otherwise into any Court of Record, but such Conviction shall be final and conclusive to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

XLVI. And whereas the Penalties for Misdemeanors provided in and by the said last-recited Act have been found insufficient for the preventing of such Offences, be it enacted, That every Person who shall be guilty of any of the Offences respectively made and declared to be Misdemeanors in and by the said Act may be punished, at the Discretion of the Justice or Justices by or before whom the Offender shall be convicted, either with the Penalties appointed in and by the said Act, or by such other Punishment as he hereby appointed in Cases of Offences declared to be Misdemeanors by this present Act, and that all the Powers and Provisions of the said last-recited Act respecting the Obstruction of its Execution, and the Commencement and Prosecution of Actions against Justices, and their Officers acting thereunder, shall extend to all Things done and to all Persons acting under this Act, as fully as if the same Powers and Provisions were herein repeated and re-enacted.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases in which it is directed by the said last-recited Act that any Boat, with her Tackle and Appurtenances, which shall be forfeited, shall be burnt and destroyed, it shall be lawful for any Justice before whom any Person shall have been convicted of any Offence whereby any Boat is or should be adjudged to be forfeited under that Act, and also for any Justice by whom any Boat shall be adjudged to be forfeited under this Act, to direct such Boat, with her Tackle and Appurtenances, either to be burnt and destroyed, or to be restored to the Owners thereof, or to be publicly sold, and the Proceeds of such Sale to be applied in like Manner as other Forfeitures under this Act.

XLVIII. And for the more effectual Prevention of Accidents by Fire and other Mischiefs upon the said River, be it further enacted, That if any Master or Commander or other Officer of any Ship or Vessel (except the Majesty's Ships) shall, while such Ship or Vessel shall lie or be in the said River between Westminster Bridge and Blackwell, keep any Gun on board such Ship or Vessel armed or loaded with Ball, or cause or permit to be fired or discharged any Gun on board such Ship or Vessel before Sun-rising or after Sun-setting, such Master, Commander, or other Officer shall for every such Gun so kept armed or loaded forfeit the Sum of Five Shillings, and for every Gun so fired or discharged the Sums of Two Shillings; and if any Master, Commander, or other Officer of any such Ship or Vessel, or any other Person on board of the same, or any Person on board of any Barge, Lighter, Boat, or other Craft or Vessel, shall, while such Ship, Barge, Lighter, Boat, Craft, or Vessel shall lie or be in the said River between Wharfedale Bridge and Blackwell, heat or melt, or cause or permit to be heated or melted, by Fire, Loggerhead Fire, or any other Means, on board any Ship, Barge, Lighter, Boat, Craft, or Vessel whatsoever, any Pitch, Tar, Horse, Grease, Tallow, Oil, or other combustible Matter, every Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds; and any One of the Justice appointed to attend at the Thames Police Office, or any other Justice within his Jurisdiction, is hereby authorized and required, upon any Complaint made on that Behalf within Ten Days next after any such Offence shall have been committed, to summon the Party accused, and also the Witnesses on either Side, or, after Oath made of the Commission of any of the Facts above mentioned by One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, to issue a Warrant to apprehend the Party accused, and upon the Party's Appearance, or Contempt in not appearing (upon the Proof of Notice given), such Justice shall proceed to the Examination of the Witness or Witnesses on Oath, and upon due Proof thereof, either by the voluntary Confession of the Party, or by the Oath of One or more credible Witness or Witnesses, to give Judgment or Sentence; and in case the Party accused shall be convicted of such Offence it shall and may be lawful for such Justice to commit such Offender to Prison, there to remain for any Time not exceeding the Space of Two Months, unless the Penalty shall be sooner paid.

XLIX. And whereas Disputes frequently arise between Bergemen, Lightermen, Watermen, Ballast-men, Coal-whippers, Coal-porters, Sailors, Lumpers, Roggers, Shipwrights, Caulkers, and other Labourers who work for Hire in or upon the said River, and the Dock, Creek, Wharf, Quay, and Place adjacent, respecting Wages or Money due to them for Work, and the Owners, Masters, or Commanders of Vessels and their Agents, and the Owners, Wharfingers, or Occupiers of such Wharfs or Quays, and their Agents, and other Persons employing such Labourers; be it further enacted, That all Differences, Complaints, and Disputes which shall happen and arise between any Bergemen, Lightermen, Watermen, Ballastmen (except Treaty Ballastmen), Coal-whippers, Coal-porters, Sailors, Lumpers, Roggers, Shipwrights, Caulkers, or other Labourers who work for Hire in or upon the said River, or the Dock, Creek, Wharf, Quay, or Place adjacent, and the Owners, Masters, or Commanders of Vessels, or their Agents, or the said River, or the Dock or Creek thereto adjoining, or the Owners, Wharfingers, or Occupiers of such Wharf or Quay, or their Agents or other Employers, respecting Wages or Money due to such Labourers for Work, whether the same Persons be employed for any certain Time, or in any other Manner, shall be heard and determined by the Justice appointed to the Thames Police Office, or any One of them, or any other Justice within his Jurisdiction; and every such Justice is hereby empowered to summon before him any such Master or Commander of any Vessel, or any such Owner thereof, or his Agent, or the Owner, Wharfinger, or Occupier of any Wharf or Quay, or their respective Agents, or any other Employer; and if any such Person being so summoned shall refuse or neglect to attend such Summons, then every such Justice is hereby empowered to issue his Warrant to bring such Person summoned before him to answer such Complaint, and to examine upon Oath any such Labourer as aforesaid, or any other Witness or Witnesses, touching any such Complaint or Dispute, and to make such Order for Payment of so much Wages to such Labourer as to such Justice shall seem just and reasonable, provided that the Sum ordered do not exceed Five Pounds, besides all reasonable Costs attending the Prosecution of the Complaint, which Costs the Justice is empowered to order; and in case of Refusal to pay, or Nonpayment of any Sum so ordered, by the Space of Twenty-four Hours next after such Determination, such Justice may issue forth his Warrant to levy the same by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Person ordered to pay the same, together with the Charges of such Distress and Sale; and if no sufficient Distress shall be found, such Justice shall commit the Person ordered to make such Payment to Prison for any Time not exceeding One Month, unless the Sum so ordered shall be sooner paid; and every such Order shall be final and conclusive to all Intents and Purposes, and shall not be removable by Certiorari or otherwise into any Court whatsoever.

L. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend to authorize or empower any Justice, except the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Recorder of the City of London for the Time being, or some or one of them, to hear and determine any such Differences, Complaints, or Disputes as shall or may arise for or in respect of any Employment or Work done within the said City of London, or the Suburbs and Liberties thereof, or on board of any Ship, Barge, Lighter, Boat, or other Vessel lying or being on the North Side of the River, between the Tower of London and the Western Extremity of the Temple, adjoining Essex Street in the County of Middlesex.

LI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend to deprive the Lord Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London of any Right, Privilege, or Jurisdiction heretofore lawfully claimed, exercised, or enjoyed within the Town and Borough of Southwark or the Liberties thereof, or to prevent the said Lord Mayor for the Time being, or each of the Aldermen of the said City as have borne the Office of Mayors, or the Recorder of the said City for the Time being, from acting as Justices of the Peace within the said Town and Borough of Southwark and the Liberties thereof in such and the like Manner as they could or might have done in case this Act had not been made, and in this behalf, the Lord Mayor, and Citizens of the said City of London, shall have full Power.

C A P. XX.

An Act to indemnify Witnesses who may give Evidence before either House of Parliament touching the Charge of Bribery in the Election of Burgesses to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Stafford. [18th June 1833.]

WHEREAS there is Reason to believe that there has been the most notorious, long-continued, and general Bribery and Corruption in the Election of Burgesses to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Stafford, and that such Bribery and Corruption are likely to continue and to proceed in future unless some Means are taken to prevent the same: And whereas a Petition against such Practices at the last Election for the said Borough has been presented to the Commons House of Parliament: And whereas it may be necessary to examine before the Committee to which the said Petition may be referred, or to the Bar of either House of Parliament, several Persons; and the Evidence of such Persons may tend to expose them to Penal Consequences: And whereas it is expedient to indemnify such Persons, upon their making such true and lawful Declarations and Discoveries as herein-after mentioned; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That for the more effectually prosecuting the said Inquiry, every Person who having been a Candidate for the said Borough at the last Election, who may have been implicated or engaged in such alleged Bribery and Corruption and so connected with any Election of Members to serve in Parliament for the said Borough of Stafford, and who shall be examined as a

All Persons except Candidates involved in Bribery at Stafford, who may be examined before either House of Parliament.

Witness before either House of Parliament, or any Committee of either House of Parliament, touching such alleged Bribery and Corruption, and who shall upon such Examination make a true and faithful Discovery and Disclosure to the best of his or her Knowledge touching all Acts, Matters, and Things to which he or she shall be or she shall be so examined, shall be, and he or she is hereby freed, indemnified, and discharged of, from, and against all Penal Actions, Forfeitures, Punishments, Disabilities, and Incapacities, and all Criminal Prosecutions, which he or she may have been or may become liable or subject to, or which he or she may have incurred or may incur at the Suit of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, or any other Person, for or by reason or means of or in relation to any Act, Matter, or Thing done or committed by such Person or Persons in respect of such alleged Bribery and Corruption: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall afford any Indemnity to any Person with respect to any Action for Bribery at the last Election for the said Borough of Stafford, which shall have been commenced before the Eighteenth Day of Month One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three.

21. Provided also, and he it further enacted, That where any Witness shall be examined before the House of Lords or any Committee of the said House, such Witness shall not be indemnified under this Act unless he or she shall receive from the Lord Chancellor a Certificate in Writing, stating that such Witness has, upon his or her Examination, made a true and faithful Disclosure touching all Acts and Matters to which he or she has been so examined; and where any Witness shall be examined before the House of Commons, or before any Committee of the said House, such Witness shall not be indemnified under this Act unless he or she shall receive from the Speaker of the House of Commons or the Chairman of such Committee a similar Certificate; and where any Witness shall be examined before the House of Lords or any Committee of the said House, and also before the House of Commons or any Committee of that House, such Witness shall not be indemnified under this Act unless he or she shall receive a Certificate from the Lord Chancellor, and shall also receive a Certificate from the Speaker of the House of Commons or the Chairman of the Committee of the House of Commons, or such Chairman of the Committee of the House of Commons, are respectively hereby authorized to give; and if any Action, Information, or Indictment shall at any Time be pending in any Court for Bribery at the last or any former Election for the Borough of Stafford, against any Person or Persons, except as aforesaid, who shall have been so examined as a Witness or Witnesses in manner above mentioned, such Court shall, on the Production and Proof of such Certificate or Certificates, stay the Proceedings in any such Action, Information, or Indictment, and may, in its Discretion, award to any such Person or Persons such Costs as he, she, or they may have been put to by such Action, Information, or Indictment.

Parliament, or any Court or Court of Sessions, and who shall make a faithful Disclosure, indemnified.

Not to indemnify against any Action brought before 1833 March 1833.

Witnesses examined before either House, or both Houses, not to be indemnified unless they shall have a Certificate from the Lord Chancellor, or from the Speaker or the Chairman of the Committee of the House of Commons.

To stay of Action, &c. the Production of the Certificate shall stay the Proceedings.

25 Edw. 6.

* by Law voted or to be voted in Commissioners of Sewers: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That any Person who has not already acted as a Commissioner under any Commission of Sewers already issued shall be qualified or capable of becoming or acting as a Commissioner in the Execution of any Commission of Sewers unless such Person shall be, in his own Right or in Right of his Wife, in the actual Possession or Receipt for Life or for a larger Estate of the Rents and Profits of Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, situated in the County in which he shall act as a Commissioner, or in any adjoining County, of Freehold or Copyhold Tenure, or held for a Term of not less than Sixty Years absolute, or determinable with a Life or Lives, of the clear yearly Value of One hundred Pounds above Rents, or held for a Term of Years originally granted for not less than Twenty-one Years, and of which Ten Years at the least shall then be unexpired, of the clear yearly Value of Two hundred Pounds above Rents, or shall be the Agent of a Person possessed of Freehold or Copyhold Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, situated in such County as aforesaid, or in any adjoining County, of the clear yearly Value of Two hundred Pounds above Rents, or unless such Person shall be the Agent duly appointed by Writing under the Seal of any Body Politic or Corporate, or under the Hand of any Person not being himself present, and acting as a Commissioner in the Execution of the Commission of Sewers under or by virtue of which such Agent shall act, and which Body Politic or Corporate shall for the Time being be in the Receipt of the Rents and Profits of Freehold or Copyhold Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments situated in such County as aforesaid, or in any adjoining County, and which Person making such Appointment shall for the Time being be, in his own Right or to Right of his Wife, in the actual Possession or Receipt of the Rents and Profits of Freehold or Copyhold Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, situated in such County as aforesaid, or any adjoining County, and which Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, whether so belonging to such Body Politic or Corporate, or to such other Person, shall be actually leased under or by virtue of the Commission of Sewers in respect whereof such Agent shall act, and shall be of the clear yearly Value of Three hundred Pounds above Rents, or unless such Agent shall, before he acts, deliver his written Appointment to the Clerk to such Commission of Sewers, or his Deputy, to be filed by such Clerk among the Records or Proceedings of the Commissioners acting in the Execution of such Commission: Provided always, that in Cases where Commissions of Sewers run into more than One County, the Qualification herein-before provided may be situated either partly in each of the Counties into which such Commission shall run, or wholly in any One of such Counties: Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall extend to give a Qualification to any Person as Agent after he shall have ceased to be such Agent.

Qualifiers may act as Commissioners, upon making an Affidavit.

II. And be it further enacted, That if any Person being a Quaker shall have been or shall hereafter be appointed a Commissioner of Sewers, and shall be in other respects qualified according to the Provisions of the said recited Acts and of this Act, it shall be lawful for such Person, on making his solemn Affidavit to the Effect of the Oath prescribed by the said recited Act of the Twenty-third Year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, before the Person or Persons who for the Time being shall be empowered by Law to administer such Oath, and also upon his making and subscribing the Affidavit directed by this Act, to act as a Commissioner of Sewers, without being subject or liable to any Penalty or Forfeiture imposed by the said last-recited Act for acting without having taken the Oath therein contained.

Oaths to be taken by other Commissioners before acting.

III. And be it further enacted, That every such Commissioner before he shall act in the Execution of his Office shall, in addition to the Oath prescribed by the said recited Act of the Twenty-third Year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, (or the Affidavit in lieu thereof substituted by this Act in respect of any Commissioner who shall be a Quaker,) take and subscribe before the Person or Persons who for the Time being shall be authorized to administer the Oath prescribed by the said last-mentioned Act the following Oath, or, being a Quaker, the following Affidavit, either,

" I do swear, [or, being one of the People called Quakers, do solemnly affirm,] That I truly and lawfully am in my own Right [or in the Right of my Wife] in the actual Possession and Enjoyment of [or in the Receipt for Life, or for a larger Estate, of the Rents and Profits issuing out of] Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, situate in the County of _____ of Freehold or Copyhold Tenure, or held for a Term of not less than Sixty Years absolute, or determinable with a Life or Lives, of the clear yearly Value of One hundred Pounds above Rents; or held for the unexpired Term of _____ Years, originally granted for _____ Years, of the clear yearly Value of Two hundred Pounds above Rents; [or am the Agent of _____, who, to the best of my Knowledge, is seized of Freehold or Copyhold Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, situate in the County of _____, of the clear yearly Value of Two hundred Pounds above Rents]; [or am Agent of _____, who, [or which,] to the best of my Knowledge, is seized or possessed in his or their own Right] [or in the Right of his Wife] of Freehold or Copyhold Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, situate in the County of _____, of the clear yearly Value of Three hundred Pounds above Rents. So help me GOD."

Penalty on Persons acting not qualified.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person who has not already acted as a Commissioner of Sewers shall presume to act as a Commissioner of Sewers, not being qualified as aforesaid, or who shall have ceased to be qualified as aforesaid, or, on having taken the Oath, or, being a Quaker, made the adhere Affirmation prescribed by this Act, every Person willfully so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons who shall sue for the same, to be recovered, with full Costs of Suit, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, by Action of Debt or on the Case, or by Bill, Plaint, Suit, or Information, wherein no Assign, Protection, Waiver of Law, or more than One Imparsonance, shall be allowed; and the Person so sued or prosecuted shall prove that he is qualified, or otherwise shall pay the said Penalty, without any other Proof or Evidence on the Part of the Prosecutor than that such Person had acted as a Commissioner in the Execution of any Commission of Sewers: Provided nevertheless, that no Act or Proceeding touching the Execution of any Commission of Sewers which shall be done or performed by any unqualified Person, previously to his being convicted of the Offence of acting without being qualified as herein provided shall be thereby impeached or rendered nugatory, but all such Acts and Proceedings shall be as valid and effectual as if such Person had been duly qualified.

V. Provided always, That any Mayor, Bailiff, or other Officer appointed or authorized to act as a Commissioner under any Commission of Sewers by virtue of his Office shall and may, so long as he shall hold such Office, act as a Commissioner in the Execution of such Commission of Sewers by virtue of such Office, without being qualified as herein-before directed with regard to Commissions of Sewers in general, and without being required to take and subscribe the Oath or Affirmation herein before prescribed to be taken by Commissioners of Sewers in general with regard to their Qualification, and without being liable to the Forfeiture or Penalty herein-before imposed upon Commissioners of Sewers in general for acting without being qualified as aforesaid, or without having taken such Oath or Affirmation, any thing herein-before contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding: Provided also, that such Mayor, Bailiff, or other Officer shall, before he acts, deliver a Certificate, under the Hand of the Town Clerk or other legal Officer of the Corporation in respect of which such Mayor, Bailiff, or other Officer shall or may act, to the Clerk to the Commission under which he shall so act as aforesaid, certifying that he is the Mayor, Bailiff, or other Officer authorized to act as a Commissioner under such Commission.

VI. And he is further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act all and every Commission and Commissions of Sewers then being in Force, or that hereafter shall be granted and made, shall stand and continue in Force for the Term of Ten Years next ensuing the Date of every such Commission, notwithstanding any Dissolution of the Crown of these Kingdoms during the Existence of any such Commission or Commissions, unless the same Commission or Commissions be or thereaffer shall be repealed or determined by reason of any new Commission in that behalf made, or by Writ of Supersedeas delivered out of the King's Court of Chancery, discharging any such Commission or Commissions.

VII. And he is further enacted, That all Laws, Acts, Decrees, Constitutions, and Ordinances made or to be made by any Court of Sewers, and duly registered to the Rolls or Books of such Court by the Clerk to the Commission, shall continue in full Force and Effect, notwithstanding the Expire, Repeal, or other Determination of the Commission under which such Laws, Acts, Decrees, Constitutions, and Ordinances shall have been respectively made, and notwithstanding the same respectively shall not have been ingrossed or written in Parliament, and under the Seal of the Commissioners or any Six of them, and notwithstanding the one Part thereof shall not remain with the Clerk to the Commission, and the other Part in such Place as the said Commissioners or Six of them shall order or appoint, and notwithstanding the same shall not be certified into the King's Court of Chancery, and the King's Royal Assent had thereto respectively, and the same Laws, Acts, Decrees, Constitutions, and Ordinances shall be altered, repealed, or made void by any subsequent Court or Courts of Sewers in those Parts or Limits where the same Laws, Decrees, and Ordinances were or shall be made and ordained, or by any Six of them.

VIII. And he is further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners or any Three or more of them, or for their Clerk upon the Direction in Writing of any Three or more of the said Commissioners, (and which he is hereby required to do on such Direction,) to appoint the First Meeting of the said Commissioners after the passing of this Act at such Time and Place as to them shall seem best, and of which Meeting Ten clear Days previous Notice shall be given, by Advertisement in some Newspaper of the County, and generally circulated in that District thereof, and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners from Time to Time to meet at such Time and Place, and to adjourn to meet at any Place or Places and at such Time or Times as the said Commissioners or the major Part of them present at any Meeting shall appoint; and no Order or Determination shall be made unless the major Part of the Commissioners present shall concur therein; and all Acts, Orders, and Proceedings which are directed or authorized to be made, done, or executed by or before the said Commissioners, and all the Powers and Authorities vested in them, shall and may be made, done, and executed by the major Part of the Commissioners who shall be present at the said respective Meetings, the whole Number present not being less than Six; and all Acts, Orders, or Proceedings made, done, or executed by or before such Six Commissioners shall have the same Force and Effect and be as binding and conclusive on all Persons, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as fully and effectually as if the same were made, done, or executed by or before the whole of the said Commissioners; and a Chairman shall and may in the first place be appointed at every Meeting by a Majority of the Votes of the Persons present, who in case of an equal Number of Votes (including the Chairman's Vote) shall have the casting or decisive Vote.

Proceedings not to be impeached on account of Disqualification.

As whole Commission not required to qualify

Commissions to continue for 10 Years, unless removed or repealed by Writ of Supersedeas.

Laws, Decrees, and Ordinances to continue in force notwithstanding Expire, Repeal, or other Determination of Commission, and although not ingrossed in Parliament, or not certified into the Court of Chancery.

Regulation as to Meetings of Commissioners.

Special Meetings may be called on Ten Days Notice.

Any person who causes Special Meetings may be called on Ten Days Notice.

Discretion of Commissioners of Sewers in the exercise of their powers under the several sections of this Act.

Proviso and Enforcement by Law.

IX. And be it further enacted, That if after any Adjournment of any Meeting of the said Commissioners it shall on any Emergency be considered necessary or advisable that a Special Meeting should be appointed for an earlier Day than the Day for which any Meeting shall stand by Adjournment as aforesaid, then and in such Case it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners or any Three or more of them, or for their Clerk upon the Direction in Writing of any Three or more of the said Commissioners (and which he is hereby required to do on such Direction), to appoint a Special Meeting for an earlier Day, and of which Meeting, and of the Time and Purpose thereof, Ten clear Days previous Notice shall be given by Advertisement in some Newspaper of the County, and generally circulated in that District thereof; and no other Business shall be transacted on any such Special Meeting but first which shall have been specified in such Notice as aforesaid: Provided nevertheless, that in the event of any imminent Danger being apprehended from unusually high Tides or any other Cause, and that in the Judgment of Two or more of the said Commissioners the Emergency of the Case will not admit of the Delay of Ten clear Days previous Notice of a Special Meeting, it shall and may be lawful for any Two or more of the said Commissioners, or for their Clerk upon the Direction in Writing of any Two or more of the said Commissioners, (and which he is hereby required to do on such Direction), to convene, by Circular Letter sent to each sitting Commissioner, a Special Meeting for as early a Day as the said Two or more Commissioners shall think fit in their Discretion as aforesaid, such Letters to specify the particular Object for which such Meeting is convened; and no Business shall be transacted thereat but that which strictly relates to such Object.

X. And whereas Doubts have arisen as to the Extent of the Jurisdiction of Commissioners of Sewers: be it therefore further enacted and declared, That all Walls, Banks, Calverts, and other Defences whatsoever, whether natural or artificial, situate or being by the Consent of the Sea, and all Rivers, Streams, Sewers, and Watercourses which now are or hereafter shall or may be navigable, or to which the Tide now does or hereafter shall or may ebb and flow, or which now do or hereafter shall or may directly or indirectly communicate with any such Navigable or Tide River, Stream, or Sewer, and all Walls, Banks, Calverts, Bridges, Dams, Floodgates, and other Works created or to be erected in, upon, over, or adjoining to any such Rivers, Streams, Sewers, or Watercourses, shall be from henceforth, to all Intents, Constructions, and Purposes, within and subject to the Jurisdiction of Commissioners of Sewers: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall authorize or empower any Commissioner of Sewers to exercise Authority or Jurisdiction upon or over any Dams, Floodgates, or other Works created for the Purpose of Obstruction, previous to the passing of this Act, in, upon, or over any Rivers, Streams, Ditches, Gutters, Sewers, or Watercourses near or contiguous to any House or Building, or to any Garden, Yard, Paddock, Park, planted Walk, or Avenue to a House, without the Consent in Writing of the Owner or Proprietor thereof respectively first had and obtained.

XI. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases in which any Court of Sewers shall inquire by Jury of or concerning all or any of the Matters and Things authorized and directed to be inquired into and presented under and by virtue of the said recited Acts, and the Laws of Sewers of old Time accustomed, or of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for Commissioners of Sewers, or any Six or more of them, to issue a Warrant or Precept under their Hands and Seals to the Sheriff, Bailiff, or other Returning Officer or Officers of every County at large, Cinque Ports, City, Town, Liberty, Precinct, or Place within the Limits of such Commission, commanding such Sheriff, Bailiff, or other Returning Officer or Officers to inquire, summon, and return, and he and they in and are hereby required, on receiving such Warrant or Precept, to inquire, summon, and return, at such Time and Place as in such Warrant or Precept shall be expressed, a Jury of not exceeding Forty-eight nor less than Eighteen substantial and indifferent Persons within his or their respective Jurisdictions, qualified and usually accustomed to serve on Grand Juries as Courts of Sessions of the Peace, and the Persons so to be impeached, summoned, and returned as aforesaid are hereby required to appear before the said Commissioners at such Court of Sewers to be holden within and for the Limits of any and every such Commission of Sewers, or at some Adjournment thereof, as in such Warrant or Precept shall be directed, and to attend such Court, and at any and every Adjournment thereof, until discharged by the said Court; and the said Jury shall be sworn in open Court before the Commissioners, and shall be charged by them to take their Inquiries, and to make and return their Presentments of and concerning all Matters and Things authorized and directed to be inquired into and presented under and by virtue of the said recited Acts, and the Law of Sewers of old Time accustomed, out of this Act, and the said Jury, being so impeached, sworn, and charged as aforesaid, shall proceed in their Inquiry before and in the Presence of the Court, upon the Evidence of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, deposed upon Oath or Affirmation, in the same Manner and Form, and subject to the like Rules of taking and receiving Evidence, as is usual in His Majesty's Courts of Common Law; and the said Commissioners may cause to be summoned to appear before them on the Time and Place of holding their respective Courts of Sewers aforesaid, and at every Adjournment of any Court, all Clerks, Receivers, Bailiffs, Engineers, Surveyors, Collectors, Expeditors, and other their Ministers and Officers of Sewers, and such other Persons as in the Judgment of such Commissioners shall be competent to give proper Evidence and Information to the Court and Jury in the Premises; and Notice of the Time and Place of taking such Inquiries shall be given by affixing to the principal Door of each and every of the Churches and Chapels in the several Parishes, Townships, or Places in which the Rivers, Streams, Ditches, Sewers, Watercourses, Walls, Banks, Calverts, and other Works, Leasls, Tonnements, and Roadments, Channels, Cuts, and Beds of Fishes, and other Matters and Things to be inquired into or that may be effected thereby, shall be, be, or arise, or if there be no Church, then to some conspicuous Place within such Parish, Township, or Place, a printed or written Paper specifying such Time and Place of Meeting, and signed by the Clerk in the Court before whom such Inquisition is to be taken, at least Seven Days before the taking of such Inquisition, and also by inserting, at least Seven Days before the taking thereof, such Notice once at the least in One or more of the Newspapers published or circulated in or near to the Limits of the Commission of Sewers under Authority whereof such Inquisition shall be taken.

XII. And forasmuch as there are in many Counties at large Cities and Towns being Counties of themselves, Cinque Ports, Hundreds, Liberties, and Precincts, having Jurisdiction exclusive of the Sheriff, Bailiffs, or other Returning Officers of such Counties at large; and it may happen that in the Inquiries and Proceedings of and concerning any Matters and Things affecting or relating to Lands or Tenements lying partly in such County at large and partly in such minor Jurisdiction, authorized and directed to be inquired into and proceeded under or by virtue of the said recited Acts, and the Law of Sewers of old Time accustomed, and of that Act, the Jury returned by the Sheriff or other Returning Officer of such County at large, and the Jury returned by the Sheriff or other Returning Officer of such minor Jurisdiction, may come to opposite or different Conclusions, or make opposite or different Proceedings of or concerning any Matters or Things affecting or relating to any Lands or Tenements lying partly in such County or large and partly in any such City or Town and County of the same, Cinque Port, Hundred, Liberty, or Precinct within such County at large, it shall and may be lawful for such Court of Sewers theretores, or at any Time thereafter, to issue a Warrant or Precept, as well to the Sheriff, Bailiff, or other Returning Officer of such County at large, as to the Sheriff, Bailiff, or other Returning Officer of such City or Town and County of the same, Cinque Port, Hundred, Liberty, or Precinct, commanding them respectively to inquire, summon, and return, and he and they in and are hereby required, on receiving such respective Warrant or Precept, to appear, summon, and return, at such Time and Place (although out of the Jurisdiction of such respective Sheriff, Bailiff, or other Returning Officer,) as in such Warrant or Precept shall be expressed, a sufficient Number, not exceeding Eighteen nor less than Nine substantial and different Persons within his Jurisdiction, and not having occupied Part of the Juris respectively which shall have previously differed in respect of the Matters or Things aforesaid, and out of such Panel so to be returned the Names of Nine Persons shall be drawn by the Clerk of such Court of Sewers or his Deputy in such Manner as Jurors for Trials or Issues joined in His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster are by Law directed to be drawn; and the said Eighteen Jurymen shall thereupon be sworn and charged to take their Inquisition and to make and return their Proceedings of and concerning the aforesaid Matters and Things, and which Proceedings so taken and made shall be as conclusive in all respects as if the same Matters and Things had been inquired of as to Lands or Tenements lying within such County at large by a separate Jury of such County at large, and as to Lands or Tenements lying within such City or Town and County of the same, Cinque Port, Hundred, Liberty, or Precinct, by a separate Jury thereof.

XIII. And whereas Doubts have arisen whether a Proclamation of a Jury is not necessary in such or any Occasions to repair Defences and Works within the Jurisdiction of Commissioners of Sewers; by a Statute enacted, That whosoever, under any Commission now in force or which shall hereafter issue, a Jury shall have found and presented that any Person, Body Politic or Corporate, is or are liable to and ought to maintain and repair or contribute to the Maintenance and Repair of any Defence, Wall, Bank, Sewer, or other Work within the Jurisdiction of the Commission of Sewers either under or by virtue of such Commission, in respect of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or Common of Pasture, or Profit of Fishing, it shall not afterwards, during the Continuance of such Commission, be necessary to inquire by Jury and obtain a Proclamation upon any subsequent Wants of Amendment and Reparation of the same Defences, Walls, Banks, Sewers, or Works, or any of them, but such Person, Body Politic or Corporate, as presented as aforesaid, and the Owners and Occupiers for the Time being of such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or Common of Pasture, or Profit of Fishing, shall be liable from Time to Time to maintain and repair or contribute to the Maintenance and Repair of such Defences, Walls, Banks, Sewers, and other Works, according to such Proclamation; and it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Sewers to decree, order, and direct the same to be maintained and repaired by such Person, Body Politic or Corporate, from Time to Time during the Continuance of such Commission accordingly.

XIV. And be it further enacted and declared, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to make separate and distinct Rates, as Occasions shall require, for every separate and distinct Level, Valley, or District, or any Part of such Level, Valley, or District, within their respective Commissions, and to fix and specify the Limits of every such Level, Valley, or District, or of any such Part of a Level, Valley, or District, and to appoint Surveyors, Collectors, Treasurers, Expeditors, and other Officers for every such Level, Valley, or District, or any Part thereof respectively, whenever the said Commissioners shall think fit so to do, and to cause separate and distinct Rates to be levied in the Name of His Majesty, and Inquests Cases of Difference a Jury to be on panels/Inquests shall be composed, Half from that County at large and Half from the minor Jurisdiction.

A Proclamation of a Jury may be necessary upon such Occasions to repair.

Rates to be made for every distinct Level or District.

received by virtue of any Rate or Rates which shall be made, under the Authority of the said recited Acts relating to Sewers, or of this Act, upon any Lands or Hereditaments within any such Level, Valley, or District, or any Part thereof respectively, and of all Payments and Disbursements in respect thereof; and the said Commissioners are hereby also authorized to apply the Moneys to be collected and received from each distinct Level, Valley, or District, or any Part thereof respectively, by virtue of any such Rate or Rates as aforesaid, to and for the several Purposes to which the same may be lawfully applied under the Authority of the said recited Acts or of this Act, but so nevertheless that each Level, Valley, or District, and every Part of such Level, Valley, or District, shall bear its own Costs, Charges, and Expenses; and in case any such Costs, Charges, and Expenses shall apply to or be incurred in respect of Two or more Levels, Valleys, or Districts, or Parts thereof respectively, the same shall be apportioned and divided between such Levels, Valleys, and Districts, or such Parts thereof respectively, in such Manner as the said Commissioners shall judge to be fair and equitable.

XV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to release or discharge any Person, Body Politic or Corporate, from any Liability to which such Person, Body Politic or Corporate, was or were before the passing of this Act subject by reason of Tenure, Frontage, Prescription, Custom, Covenant, or Grant; but in case any such Person, Body Politic or Corporate, shall not keep in good and proper Repair any Walls, Banks, Sewers, Guts, Cuts, Calces, Tunnels, Culverts, Shutes, Floodgates, Tumbling Bars, Cuts, and other Works, Aids, and Defences to which he, she, or they may be liable by reason of any such Tenure, Frontage, Prescription, Covenant, or Grant, and shall not, after having had Seven Days Notice from the Surveyor, Deputee, or other Officer to be appointed by the Court of Sewers for that Purpose, proceed to put the same into good and proper Repair with all reasonable and proper Dispatch, then and in that Case it shall be lawful for such Surveyor, Deputee, or Officer to put the same into good and sufficient Repair; and the Expenses to be incurred thereby shall be paid by the Person, Body Politic or Corporate, liable to such Repair as aforesaid.

XVI. And be it further enacted and declared, That any Court shall and may, at its Discretion, by and out of the Taxes, Rates, and Scots to be raised under and by virtue of the said recited Acts and this Act, or any or either of them, decree, order and appoint, pay and allow, to Clerks and other Persons employed by the Court, and also to Witnesses attending to give Evidence before the said Court, either in support of any Processment or Order of the Court, or in opposition to such Processment or Order, such Recompense, Fees and Sums of Money, from Time to Time, for their several Expenses and Loss of Time, as to the said Court shall seem just, and also all such Costs, Charges, and Expenses as shall be incurred in surveying, measuring, planning, and valuing the Lands and Hereditaments, or otherwise preparatory to or in or about the making, collecting, and expending such Taxes, Rates, or Scots as aforesaid, or the hearing of Objections in such Taxes, Rates, or Scots, or in or about the carrying on of any Litigation or Controversy arising out of the Duties imposed on the Courts of Sewers by virtue of the recited Acts or of this Act, and for the Payment of all other necessary Allowances, Charges, and Expenses of putting the recited Acts and this Act into execution, and the contingent Expenses of working the said Commissions of Sewers respectively.

XVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall prevent any Court of Sewers, from Time to Time and at any Time during the Continuance of the Commission of Sewers, from causing Inquiry and Processments to be made by Jury of and concerning the aforesaid Matter and Things, or any other Matter, Cause, or Thing to be inquired into and presented upon, by the Ways and Means herein before provided, or by such other Ways and Means as they were authorized by ancient Customs and Usage or otherwise to do before the passing of this Act, or to abridge or invalidate any Powers or Authorities usually heretofore exercised by any Commissioners of Sewers in their respective Levels not herein expressly abridged or altered.

XVIII. And whereas Persons frequently remove from and give up the Possession of Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, before deriving the full Benefit of the Quality of the last Scot or Rate assessed or imposed upon them in respect thereof under or by virtue of the Law of Sewers, and it is just and reasonable that the Persons who succeed them in the Possession thereof should be subject to a Proportion of such Rate; be it therefore enacted, That where any Person shall cease into or occupy any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments out of or from which any other Person assessed as aforesaid shall be removed, and also when any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments shall at the Time of making such Scot or Rate be empty or unoccupied, then every Person so moved or assessed and removing from, and every Person so coming into or occupying the same, shall be liable to pay such Scot or Rate in proportion to the Time that such Person respectively occupied the same Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, in the same Manner, and under the like Penalty of Distress, as if such Person so removing had not removed, or such Person so coming in or occupying had been originally rated and assessed in such Scot or Rate; and which said Proportion, in case of Dispute between the Parties, shall be ascertained and settled by any Court of Sewers; Provided always, that no outgoing Tenant shall be entitled to have or claim any larger Assessement of Rate than shall have been actually paid by him, and not repaid by his Landlord.

XIX. And be it further enacted and declared, That it shall and may be lawful for any Court of Sewers to decree and ordain any new Walls, Banks, Sewers, Guts, Cuts, Calces, Bridges, Tunnels, Culverts, Shutes, Floodgates, Tumbling Bars, Cuts, or other Works, Aids, and Defences, or any Alteration in the same, Drainage, Course, Direction, or Situation of any old or existing Walls, Banks, Nothing herein to discharge Persons from Liability by Statute, &c.

Various Powers (not) used for Making and Loss of Time (including) Amendments of Sewers.

Nothing in this Act to prohibit Courts of Sewers from causing Inquiry and Processments by any or before.

Right to the appointed tenement occupying and increasing Estates.

Commissioners authorized to make and maintain new Works.

Rivers, Sewers, Guts, Gales, Calceis, Bridges, Tunnels, Culverts, Sluices, Floodgates, Tumbling Bars, Cuts, and other Works, Aids, and Defences to be constructed, made, and done for the more effectually defending and securing any Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, and Premises within the Jurisdiction of such Court against the Inruption or Overflowing of the Sea, or for draining and carrying of the superfluous Fresh Waters, according to the Wisdom and Direction of such Court, and also, in like Manner and at their Discretion, to decree and ordain any former Walls or Defences against the Sea, or against any Rivers, Streams, Sewers, or Watercourses, within their Commission, to be abandoned and given up, and new Defences and Walls, Banks, Sluices, Floodgates, Tumbling Bars, Cuts, and other Works to be made and continued in lieu thereof, and on every such Case to direct by Inquest and Presentment of a Jury in what Manner and Proportions the same shall thereafter be repaired and maintained by the Parties, Body Politic or Corporate, deriving Advantage or avoiding Damage thereby or therefrom, having regard to previous Liabilities in respect of the Walls and Defences so to be abandoned and given up.

XX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein-before contained shall be construed to authorize or empower the Commissioners acting under any Commission of Sewers for the County of Kent, or any Limits or District within the same, to decree or ordain any Wall, Bank, Sewer, Gut, Cut, Gout, Calceis, Sluice, Floodgate, Tumbling Bar, or other Work, Aid, or Defence to be constructed, made, or done for conveying the Waters of the River Stour, above Sandwich Bridge in the County of Kent, into the Port of Sandwich Barges below the Bridge, or into the Sea at Pyppell Bay, not authorized by an Act passed in the Sixteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, entitled, An Act to enable the Commissioners of Sewers for the several Counties in the Eastern Parts of the County of Kent, more effectually to drain and improve the Lands and Grounds within the general Valley, or so as in any Manner to affect, alter, or interfere with the Provisions of the said Act for the preventing of Prejudice to Sandwich Barges.

XXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to authorize or empower any Court of Sewers to make any new Walls, Banks, Sewers, Guts, Cuts, Gales, Calceis, Sluices, Floodgates, Tumbling Bars, Cuts, or other Works, Aids, and Defences, where none have or hath or shall have theretofore been, without the Consent in Writing, certified to such Court of Sewers, of the Owners and Occupiers respectively, or their respective Heirs, Executors, Administrators, Trustees, or Assigns, or of the Owners and Occupiers of Three Fourth Parts at the least in Value of the Lands and Hereditaments lying within the Valley, Level, or Division proposed to be charged with the Costs and Expenses of making and continuing such new Works respectively.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Occupier for the Time being of Land lying next and adjoining to any River, Sewer, or Watercourse within and subject to the Jurisdiction of Commissioners of Sewers, at any Time within Six Calendar Months from and after any Gravel, Soil, Mud, or Earth shall have been cast or deposited upon the Banks of such River, Sewer, or Watercourse, by the Order of any Surveyor, Bailiff, Expeditory, or other Officer of Sewers, and at any Time within Six Weeks from and after any Rashes, Flags, or other Woods shall have been cast or deposited upon such Banks as aforesaid, to take and remove for his own Use such Gravel, Soil, Mud, and Earth, and such Rashes, Flags, and Woods respectively: Provided always, that such Gravel, Soil, Mud, and Earth, and such Rashes, Flags, and Woods respectively, shall be removed at least Ten Feet from the Land Side of the Banks of such River, Sewer, or Watercourse.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any such Occupier shall neglect to remove such Gravel, Soil, Mud, or Earth as aforesaid within such Six Calendar Months as aforesaid, or such Rashes, Flags, or other Woods as aforesaid within such Six Weeks as aforesaid, for his own Use, then and from thenceforth respectively it shall be lawful for any such Surveyor, Bailiff, Expeditory, or other Officer of Sewers, with Workmen, Horses, Carts, Carriages, Barrows, and other necessary Tools and Implements, at any Time or Times in the Day-time to enter upon the Land of such Occupier, and to take away and remove therefrom such Gravel, Soil, Mud, and Earth, and such Rashes, Flags, and Woods respectively, and also for such Purposes to pass and repair, at any Time or Times in the Day-time, through and over any other Lands lying between the nearest Highway and the Banks of such River, Sewer, or Watercourse: Provided always, that if the Owner or Occupier of the Land upon which any such Gravel, Soil, Mud, Earth, Rashes, Flags, or Woods shall have been deposited shall require the Commissioners of Sewers to remove the same, such Commissioners shall, within Six Weeks after such Requisition as aforesaid, cause the same to be removed from and off the said Land.

XXIV. aid Court, and for other Purposes, and the General Orders of the said Court, and without Fee or Reward; to the intent that such Money shall be applied, under the Direction and with the Approbation of the said Court, to be signified by an Order made upon a Petition to be preferred in a summary Way by the Person who would have been entitled to the Rents and Profits of the said Lands, Tenements, and other Hereditaments, to the Purchase or Redemption of the Land Tax, or to the Discharge of any Debt or Debts, or such other Incumbrances, or Part thereof; as the said Court shall authorize to be paid, affecting the same Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or affecting other Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments standing entitled therewith to the same or the like Uses, Trusts, Incidents, or Purposes; or where such Money shall not be so applied, then the same shall be laid out and invested, under the like Direction and Approbation of the said Court, in the Purchase of other Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, which shall be conveyed and settled to, for, and upon such and the like Uses, Trusts, Incidents, and Purposes, and in the same Manner, as the Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments which shall be so purchased, taken, or used as aforesaid stood settled or limited, or such of them as at the Time of making such Conveyance or Settlement shall be existing undetermined and capable of taking effect; and in the meantime and until such Purchase shall be made the said Money shall, by Order of the said Court, upon Application thereto, be invested by the said Accountant General in his Name in the Purchase of Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated or Three Pounds per Centum Reduced Bank Annuities; and in the meantime and until the said Bank Annuities shall be ordered by the said Court to be sold for the Purpose aforesaid the Dividends and annual Produce of the said Consolidated or Reduced Bank Annuities shall from Time to Time be paid, by the Order of the said Court, to the Person who would for the Time being have been entitled to the Rents and Profits of the Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments to be purchased as aforesaid, in case such Settlement or Purchase were made.

Application of Consolidated
Money when
less than 200*l*.

XXXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Money so agreed or assigned to be paid for any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments purchased, taken, or used for the Purpose aforesaid, belonging to any Corporation, or to any Person under any Disability or Incapacity as aforesaid, shall be less than the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, and shall amount to or exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds, then and in all such Cases the same shall, at the Option of the Person for the Time being entitled to the Rents and Profits of the Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments so purchased, taken, or used, or of his Guardian or Committee in Cases of Infancy, Idiocy, or Lunacy, to be signified in Writing under their respective Hands, be paid into the Bank of England in the Name and with the Privity of the said Accountant General, and be placed to his Account as aforesaid, in order to be applied in manner herein-before directed; or otherwise the same shall be paid, at the like Option, to Two or more Trustees to be nominated by the Person making such Option, and approved by Six or more of the Commissioners taking such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, such Nomination and Approbation to be signified in Writing under the Hands of the nominating and approving Parties, in order that such Principal Money and the Dividends and Interest arising thereon, may be applied in manner herein-before directed, so far as the Case be applicable, without obtaining or being required to obtain the Direction or Approbation of the said Court of Exchequer.

Application of Consolidated
less than 10*l*.

XXXIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That when such Money so agreed or assigned to be paid as before mentioned shall be less than the Sum of Twenty Pounds, then and so every such Case the same shall be applied to the Use of the Person who would for the Time being have been entitled to the Rents and Profits of the Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments so purchased, taken, or used as aforesaid, in such Manner as the said Commissioners, or any Six or more of them, shall think fit: or in case of Lunacy, Idiocy, or Infancy, then to his Guardian or Committee, so and for the Use and Benefit of such Person as entitled.

Persons in possession to be deemed lawfully entitled to the Produce and the interest shall be deemed to be done to the Court of Exchequer.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That where any Question shall arise touching the Title of any Person to any Money to be paid into the Bank of England in the Name and with the Privity of the Accountant General of the said Court of Exchequer, in pursuance of this Act, for the Purchase of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments to be purchased in pursuance of this Act, or to any Bank Annuities to be purchased with any such Money, or in the Dividends or Interest of any such Bank Annuities, the Person who shall have been in possession of such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments at the Time of such Purchase, and all Persons claiming under such Person, or under the Possession of such Person, shall be deemed and taken to have been lawfully entitled to such Land, Tenements, or Hereditaments, according to such Possession, until the contrary shall be shown to the Satisfaction of the said Court of Exchequer; and the Dividends or Interest of the Bank Annuities to be purchased with such Money, and also the Capital of such Bank Annuities, shall be applied and disposed of accordingly, unless it shall be made to appear to the said Court that such Possession was a wrongful Possession, and that some other Person was lawfully entitled to such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or to some Estate or Interest therein.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That in case the Person to whom any Sum or Sums of Money shall be assigned or agreed for the Purchase of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments to be purchased by virtue of this Act, shall refuse to accept the same, or shall not be able to make a good Title to the Primitives to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners or any Six or more of them, or in case such Person to whom such Sum or Sums of Money shall be so assigned or agreed to be paid as aforesaid cannot be found, or if the Person entitled to such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments be not known or discovered, then and in every such Case it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Comments shall be, by some Person not interested in the Premises, stating that such Offer was made by or on behalf of the said Commissioners, and that such Offer was not then and thereupon agreed to or was refused by the Person to whom the same was so offered, shall in all Cases whatever be sufficient Evidence and Proof that such Offer was made, and was not agreed to or was refused by the Person to whom such Offer was made (as the Case may be); and in case such Person shall be desirous of purchasing the same, and he and the said Commissioners shall differ and not agree with respect to the Price thereof, in such Case the Price thereof shall be ascertained by a Jury in manner hereinafter directed with respect to the disputed Value of Premises to be purchased by Commissioners of Sewers in pursuance of this Act; and the Expense of hearing and determining such Difference shall be borne and paid in like Manner as heretofore directed with respect to Purchases made by the said Commissioners of Sewers, scilicet metuendo.

XI. And be it further enacted, That all such Conveyances of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments to be sold and disposed of by the said Commissioners of Sewers shall be expressed in the following or some similar Form of Words, as the Circumstances of the Case may require:

WE, the Commissioners of Sewers acting in and for several Limits (here describe the Limits or set forth in the Certificate of Sewers), in consideration of the Sum of _____ to us paid by _____ do hereby grant and release to the said _____ all (describing the Premises to be conveyed), and all Rights, Title, and Interest of the Commissioners of Sewers in and to the same and every Part thereof, to hold unto the said _____ his Heirs, Executors, Administrators, and Assigns for ever. In witness whereof we have hereunto set our Hands and Seals this _____ Day of _____ in the Year of our Lord _____

XII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for Courts of Sewers, from Time to Time as Occasion shall require, to borrow and take up at Interest any Sum or Sums of Money for the Purchase of Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or for defraying the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of any Work or Works required to be done within the respective Limits of their Commission, for making, repairing, and maintaining any Sea Bank, Wall, or other Defence or Defence, against any violent Eruption or Encroachment or apprehended Encroachment of the Sea or Rivers, or for the making and maintaining any new Cut, or for the more effectual and better draining and carrying off the Floods and superfluous Fresh Waters, or for the building, constructing, repairing, mending, renewing, and maintaining any Floodgates, Sluices, Bridges, Dams, or other necessary Works, or for any other Construction, Work, Matter, or Thing which the said Court shall judge necessary or expedient for the more effectual Defence, Security, and Improvement of the Lands, Grounds, Tenements, and Hereditaments within the Jurisdiction of such Court of Sewers; and the Repayment of such Sum and Sums of Money, with Interest, shall and may from Time to Time be secured to the Party lending the same upon or by virtue of a Decree or Ordinance under the Hands and Seals of the Commissioners, or any Six of them, (which Decree and Ordinance they are hereby authorized to make,) charging the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments receiving Benefit or avoiding Damage from the said several Works, and the Owners or Occupiers or Owners and Occupiers for the Time being thereof, with the Payment of such Sum and Sums of Money, with Interest, according to the Proportions and in the Manner returned in and by any Presentment touching or concerning the Costs and Charges of such last-mentioned Works, or the Lands, Grounds, Tenements, and Hereditaments receiving Credit or avoiding Damage thereby: Provided always nevertheless, that no such Money shall be borrowed or taken up at Interest as aforesaid without the Consent in Writing, certified to the said Commissioners or any Six of them, of the Owners and Occupiers respectively, or their respective Husbands, Guardians, Trustees or Executors, Committees, Executors or Administrators, of Three Fourth Parts at the least in Value of the Lands and Hereditaments lying within the Valley, Level, or District proposed to be charged with the Repayment thereof: Provided also, that no Person being the Owner for the Time being of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments shall be chargeable or liable, in respect of such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, for or towards any Principal Money borrowed or taken up as aforesaid, with or to the Payment of any greater Sum of Money than One Fifth Part of the Value of such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments at the Time of borrowing or taking up the same: Provided also, that it shall be provided, expressed, and declared in and by the said Decree and Ordinance, that the Sum or Sums of Money so borrowed and taken up thereon shall be repaid within a Time to be named in such Decree and Ordinance, not being for a longer Period than Five Years from the making thereof, by equal annual or shorter Installments, together with Interest on the Sum or Sums so borrowed or taken up, or on such Part thereof as shall from Time to Time remain due and unpaid; and the said last-mentioned Decree and Ordinance shall be and remain in full Force and Effect until such Sum or Sums of Money, and all Interest thereon, shall have been fully paid and satisfied; any thing in the said recited Act or this Act contained, or any Custom or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIII. And for facilitating the raising, securing, and paying off from Time to Time of the Moneys which it may be necessary so to raise and borrow as aforesaid, be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Court of Sewers from Time to Time to grant Securities, in the Form of a Certificate, under the Hands and Seals of Six of the said Commissioners, to such Person who shall so advance any Sum of Money as aforesaid, setting forth the Amount of the Sum borrowed, the Rate of Interest payable for the same, the Periods at which the said Principal Money shall be decreed to be paid off by Installments, and a general Description of the particular Lands, or, if by Assessment, the District,

Form of Conveyance from Commissioners.

Power to borrow and take up Money at Interest for making and maintaining Works.

Courts of Sewers may grant Securities to Persons advancing Money.

District, Limit, or Level in which the Lands are situate, which are to be charged with the Repayment thereof, and that every such Security or Certificate shall be made in the following Words, or by any other Words to the same Purport and Effect:

BY virtue of an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled (here insert the Title of the Act), we the undersigned, being Six of the Commissioners [here insert the general Description of the Commission under which they act], in consideration of the Sum of [here insert the amount of the Money of Great Britain to (here insert the Name of the Revenue of the said District) lent and paid by us to heretofore certify, that (here describe the particular Lands, or of by Assesment, the Village, Level, or Level in which the Lands are situate, which are to be charged)] are become charged with the Repayment of the said Sum, in Installments of One [here insert the Part of the said Sum] in every Year, together with Interest on each Part of the said Principal Money of [here insert the sum] unpaid from Time to Time at and after the Rate of [here insert the Rate of Interest] per Centum per Annum, until the whole thereof shall be repaid; which Sum or lent and advanced by the said [here insert the Name of the Person] in Part of a Capital Sum of [here insert the sum] which as a Court of Sewers holden at [here insert the Place] on the [here insert the Day of the Month] last was decreed and ordered to be taken up and borrowed for the Purpose of [here briefly state the general Cause or Object of borrowing the Money]. In witness whereof we have hereunto set our Hands and Seals the [here insert the Day of the Month] Day of [here insert the Month] 18*[here insert the Year]*.

Form of Security

XLIII. And he it further enacted, That every Person, Body Politic, Corporate, Collegiate, Aggregate or Sole, who shall be entitled to the Money thereby secured, and his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, and Successors, may from Time to Time, personally, or by Attorney therunto lawfully authorized, assign or transfer his or their Right, Title, Interest, or Benefit to the said Principal and Interest Money thereby secured to any Person whatsoever, by indorsing on the Bank of such Security, in the Presence of One credible Witness, who shall subscribe his Name thereto, the following Words, or Words to the like Effect:

Securities may be transferred

I [or We] [A. B. of A. Co.], in consideration of the Sum of [here insert the sum] to me this Day paid by [C. D. of A. Co.], do hereby transfer the whole Certificates of Charge, with all my Right and Title to the Principal Money thereby secured and now remaining due thereon, and to all the Interest Money now due or hereafter to become due, unto [here insert the Name of the Assignee] his [her, or their] Executors, Administrators, Successors, and Assigns [or de Cuius may be]. Given under my Hand and Seal this [here insert the Day of the Month] Day of [here insert the Month] 18*[here insert the Year]*.

Form of Transfer

Which Transfer shall be produced and confided to the Clerk for the Time being of the said Commissioners before the Party holding the same Transfer shall be entitled to receive any Principal or Interest due or owing as aforesaid; and every such Clerk shall make an Entry amongst the Records of the said Commissioners of the Particulars of every such Transfer, and indorse a Minute of such Entry upon the Book of every such Transfer, signed by such Clerk, and for which Entry and Minute he shall be entitled to a Fee of Five Shillings, and no more.

Transfer to be produced to Clerk of Commissioners, and to be registered by him.

XLIV. And whereas it has been found in some Instances difficult or inconvenient to hold Courts of Sewers within the Limits or Districts of the Commission under or by virtue whereof such Courts have been held, by reason that no House or other edifice or Building could be procured within such Limits or Districts to be therefore further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for Commissioners acting under any Commission of Sewers to hold Courts of Sewers at any Place not being at a greater Distance than Five Miles from the Limits or Districts of such Commission.

Courts of Sewers may be held out of the Limits of the Commission

XLV. And he it further enacted, That all Laws, Acts, Decrees, Constitutions, and Ordinances heretofore made, done, decreed, and ordained at or by any Court of Sewers holden without the Limits or District of the Commission under or by virtue whereof such Court has been holden, but within Five Miles of the Limits or District of such Commission, shall be and they are hereby declared to be as valid and legal, and shall hereafter be and remain in as full force and virtue, as if the same Laws, Acts, Decrees, Constitutions, and Ordinances had been made, done, decreed, and ordained at a Court of Sewers holden within the Limits or District of the Commission under or by virtue whereof such Court was holden; any Statute, Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

All Acts of Commissioners done without the Limits of the Commission, but within Five Miles thereof, to be valid.

XLVI. And whereas in many Cases the Burthen of supporting, repairing, and maintaining a common Sea Wall, Bank, Sewer, or other Work may be divided among divers Persons, each of whom may be liable to the Repair of a certain Portion thereof; and in order to avoid the Necessity of presenting each such Person separately in respect of the Necessity of such common Sea Wall, Bank, Sewer, or other Work, he it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Sewers Jury, Bailiff, Surveyor, Expediter, or other Person to present the whole of such Sea Wall, Bank, Sewer, or other Work respectively, or such Part thereof respectively as shall at any Time be out of repair or require clearing, and to allege to such Presentment what Persons or Bodies Politic or Corporate are liable to the Repair thereof, and also to specify what Part or Portion of such Sea Wall, Bank, Sewer, or other Work each such Person, Body Politic or Corporate, is bound or liable to repair, without making a separate and distinct Presentment against each such Person or Body Politic or Corporate; and upon Twenty-eight Days Notice of such Presentment to be left with, or at the last or usual Place of Abode or Office of such Person, Body Politic or Corporate, each such Person, Body Politic or Corporate, shall be at liberty to traverse the Allegation contained in such Presentment as to his Liability to the Repair of such Part of such Sea Wall, Bank, Sewer, or other Work, or in such Presentment, in which case with him; and Trial of such Treasures shall be thereupon had as if such Presentment had been solely and exclusively made against such Person, Body Politic or Corporate, so traversing the same as aforesaid.

Several Defects may be included in One Presentment, and separately traversed

Property in Lands, Build-

C A P. XXIII.

An Act to reduce the Stamp Duties on Advertisements and on certain Sea Insurances; to repeal the Stamp Duties on Pamphlets, and on Receipts for Sums under Five Pounds; and to exempt Insurances on Farming Stock from Stamp Duties. [26th June 1833.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that the several Stamp Duties now payable in Great Britain and Ireland respectively upon Advertisements and upon Sea Insurances in certain Cases, and also upon Pamphlets, and upon Receipts or Discharges given for or upon the Payment of any Sum of Money not amounting to Five Pounds, should be repealed, and that other Stamp Duties should be granted upon such Advertisements and Sea Insurances respectively in lieu of the said Duties now payable thereon as aforesaid; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of His Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present

The Duties granted in Great Britain by 11 G. 3. c. 134. on certain Sea Insurances and on Receipts for Wines under 21.

Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three the Duties granted and now payable in Great Britain, under and by virtue of an Act passed in the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intitled An Act for repealing the Stamp Duties on Books, Law Proceedings, and other written or printed Instruments, and the Duties on Fire Insurances, and on Legacies and Successions to Personal Estate upon Testaments, now payable in Great Britain, and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof, upon or in respect of any Policy of Assurance or Insurance or other Instrument, by whatever Name the same shall be called, whereby any Insurance shall be made upon any Ship or Vessel, or upon any Goods, Merchandise, or other Property on board of any Ship or Vessel, or upon the Freight of any Ship or Vessel, or upon any other Interest in or relating to any Ship or Vessel which may lawfully be insured for or upon any Voyage, other than a Voyage from any Port or Place in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or to the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, or Sark, or the Isle of Man, to any other Port or Place in the said Kingdom or Islands, or Isle of Man, or for any certain Term or Period of Time not exceeding Twelve Calendar Months; and also the Duty granted by the said Act, and now payable in Great Britain, upon any Receipt or Discharge given for or upon the Payment of Money, so far as the same relates to any Receipt or Discharge given for or upon the Payment of any Sum of Money not amounting to Five Pounds; and also the Duties granted and now payable in Great Britain under and by virtue of another Act passed in the said Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of the said King George the Third, intitled An Act for repealing the Stamp Duties on Advertisements, Almanacs, Newspapers, Gold and Silver Plates, Stage Coaches, and Licences for keeping Stage Coaches, now payable in Great Britain, and for granting new Duties in lieu thereof, upon or in respect of Pamphlets or Books or Papers commonly so called, and upon or in respect of any Advertisement; and also the Duties granted and now payable in Ireland under and by virtue of an Act passed in the Fifty-sixth Year of the Reign of the said King George the Third, intitled An Act to repeal the several Stamp Duties in Ireland, and also several Acts for the Collection and Management of the said Duties, and to grant new Stamp Duties in lieu thereof, and to make more effectual Regulations for collecting and managing the said Duties, upon or for any Assurance or Insurance of any Ship or Ships, Goods or Merchandise, or any other Property or Interest whereon Insurance may be lawfully made against Loss in any Voyage or Voyages, or from the Danagers of or other Perils at Sea from any Voyage, other than a Voyage to or from any Port or Place in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, from or to any other Place in the said Kingdom or Islands; and also the Duties granted by the said last-mentioned Act, and now payable in Ireland, upon or for any Pamphlet, and upon or for any Advertisement; and also the Duty granted by the said last-mentioned Act, and now payable in Ireland, upon or in respect of any Receipt or Discharge for or upon the Payment of Money, or on the Delivery of any Check, Draft, Bill, or other Order, so far as the same relates to any Receipt or Discharge given for or upon the Payment of any Sum of Money not amounting to Five Pounds, or on the Delivery of any Check, Draft, Bill, or Order for any Sum not amounting to Five Pounds, shall cease and determine, and the said several Duties here-before mentioned shall be and the same are hereby repealed accordingly; save and except so much and such Part and Parts of the said Duties respectively as shall have accrued or been incurred before or upon the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, and shall then or at any Time afterwards be or become due or payable and remain in arrear and unpaid; all which said Duties so remaining in arrear and unpaid as aforesaid shall be recoverable by the same Ways and Means, and with such and the same Penalties, as if this Act had not been made.

The Duties granted in Great Britain by 22 G. 3. c. 124. on Pamphlets and Advertisements, and the Duties granted in Ireland by 22 G. 3. c. 125. on certain Sea Insurances, Pamphlets, Advertisements, and on Receipts for Wines under 21.

repealed, except as to arrears.

Some of new Duties on Advertisements and Sea Insurances were mentioned in the Schedule annexed.

II. And it is enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, in lieu and stead of the said several Duties upon Advertisements and Sea Insurances by this Act repealed, there shall be granted, raised, levied, collected, and paid in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, unto and for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for and in respect of the several Articles, Matters, and Things mentioned and described in the Schedule to this Act annexed, the several Duties or Sums of Money set down in Figures against the same respectively, or otherwise specified and set forth in the said Schedule; and that the said Schedule, and the several Provisions, Regulations, and Directions therein contained with respect to the said Duties, and the Articles, Matters, and Things charged thereunto, shall be deemed and taken to be Part of this Act, and that the said Duties shall be levied and assessed to be Stamp Duties, and shall be under the Care and Management of the Commissioners of Stamps for the Time being for the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

Copies of all Pamphlets, the remaining Advertisements to be sent to the Head Office for Stamps within Six Days after Publication.

III. And in order to provide for the Collection of the Duty by this Act granted on Advertisements contained in or published with any Pamphlet, Literary Work, or Periodical Paper, be it enacted, That any printed Copy of every Pamphlet or Literary Work or Periodical Paper (not being a Newspaper), containing or being published therewith any Advertisements or Advertisements liable to Stamp Duty, which shall be published within the Cities of London, Edinburgh, or Dublin respectively, or within Twenty Miles thereof respectively, shall, within the Space of Six Days next after the Publication thereof, be brought, together with all Advertisements printed therein, or published or intended to be published thereunto, to the Head Office for Stamps in Westminster, Edinburgh, or Dublin nearest to which such Pamphlet, Literary Work, or Periodical Paper shall have been published; and the Title thereof, and the Christian Name and Surname of the Printer and Publisher thereof, with the Number of Advertisements printed with, therein, or published therewith, with only Stamp Duty by Law payable in respect of such Advertisements shall be registered in a Book to be kept at such Office, and the Duty on such Advertisements shall be there paid to the Receiver General of Stamp Duties for the Time being, or his Deputy or Clerk, or the proper authorized Officer, who shall thereupon forthwith give a Receipt for the same; and one printed Copy of every such Pamphlet, Literary Work, or Paper as aforesaid, which shall be published in any Place in the United Kingdom, not being within the Cities of London, Edinburgh, or Dublin, or within Twenty Miles thereof respectively, shall, within the Space of Ten Days next after the Publication thereof, be brought, together with all such Advertisements as aforesaid, to the Head Distributor of Stamps for the Time being within the District in which such Pamphlet, Literary Work, or Paper shall be published; and such Distributor is hereby required forthwith to register the same in manner aforesaid in a Book to be by him kept for that Purpose; and the Duty payable in respect of such Advertisements shall be thereupon paid to such Distributor, who shall give a Receipt for the same; and if the Duty which shall be by Law payable in respect of any such Advertisements as aforesaid shall not be duly paid within the respective Times and in the Manner herein-before limited and appointed for that Purpose, the Printer and Publisher of such Pamphlet, Literary Work, or Paper, and the Publisher of any such Advertisements, shall respectively forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds for every such Offence; and in any Action, Information, or other Proceeding for the Recovery of such Penalty, or for the Recovery of the Duty on any such Advertisements, Proof of the Payment of the said Duty shall lie upon the Defendant.

IV. And be it enacted, That all the Powers, Provisions, Clauses, Regulations, and Directions, Fees, Postcharges, Fines, and Penalties, contained in or imposed by the several Acts of Parliament relating to the Duties on Advertisements and Sea Insurances respectively, and the several Acts of Parliament relating to any prior Duties of the same Kind or Description in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, shall be of full Force and Effect with respect to the Duties by this Act granted, and to the Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, Articles, Matters, and Things charged or chargeable therewith, and to the Persons liable to the Payment of the said Duties, so far as the same are or shall be applicable, in all Cases not hereby expressly provided for, and shall be observed, applied, enforced, and put in execution for the raising, levying, collecting, and securing of the said Duties hereby granted, and otherwise relating thereto, so far as the same shall not be superadded by and shall be consistent with the express Provisions of this Act, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same had been herein repeated and specially enacted with reference to the said Duties by this Act granted.

V. And whereas it is expedient to exempt from the Duties imposed by Law on Insurances from Loss by Fire all Insurances on Agricultural Produce, Farming Stock, and Implements of Husbandry in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, be it enacted, That no Insurance from Loss or Damage by Fire which shall be made, renewed, or continued by any Policy effected upon or after the Twenty-fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, on any Agricultural Produce, Farming Stock (live or dead), or Implements or Utensils of Husbandry, being upon any Farm or Farms in Great Britain or Ireland, shall be liable to the yearly Per-centage Duties or to any other Stamp Duty granted or imposed upon or in respect of Insurances from Loss or Damage by Fire by any Act or Acts in force in Great Britain or Ireland respectively, provided such Insurance shall be effected by a separate and distinct Policy relating solely to such Agricultural Produce, Farming Stock, Implements, or Utensils.

VI. And whereas by certain Acts in force in Great Britain and Ireland respectively the Corporations or Companies or Persons insuring against Loss by Fire are required to deliver to the Commissioners of Stamps or their Officers certain quarterly Accounts of all Insurances made by such Corporations, Companies, or Persons, and containing such Particulars relating thereto as in the said Acts respectively are specified in that Behalf, be it enacted, That such Corporations or Companies or Persons insuring as aforesaid, at the Time of the Delivery of every such quarterly Account, shall also deliver to the said Commissioners or their Officers a separate and distinct Account of all Insurances of Agricultural Produce, Farming Stock, or Implements or Utensils of Husbandry from Loss or Damage by Fire, made, renewed, or continued by such Corporations or Companies or Persons respectively during the Quarter for which such last mentioned Account shall be rendered; and in every such last-mentioned Account there shall be truly specified the Number of every Policy, by which any such Insurance shall be made, the Sum or Amount of the Sums insured thereby, and the Time for which such Insurance shall be made or renewed, or continued; and for any Default in the Delivery of such Account containing and specifying the Particulars required by this Act, the Corporation or Company or Person or Persons making such Default shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

VII. And be it enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

Power and Provisions of former Acts to be in force and put in execution with regard to the Duties hereby granted.

Insurance on Agricultural Produce, Farming Stock, and Implements of Husbandry exempt from Stamp Duties

Separate Accounts of Insurances on Agricultural Produce, &c. to be rendered quarterly to the Commissioners of Stamps.

Act may be altered this Session.

C A P. XXIV.

An Act to amend an Act of the Tenth Year of His late Majesty, for regulating the Reduction of the National Debt. [9th July 1833.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to amend the several Acts for regulating the Reduction of the National Debt; and it was in and by the said Act, amongst other things, enacted, that the One-fourth Part of the Sum which from Time to Time should appear by every such Annual Account respectively to be the actual surplus Revenue of the Year immediately preceding beyond the Expenditure of the United Kingdom should be charged and the same was in and by the said Act made chargeable upon the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom, and was directed to be issued and paid in and for the Quarter of the Year then next ensuing the Quarter of the Year within which such Annual Account respectively was in and by the said Act directed to be made up, either into the Bank of England or into the Bank of Ireland, to the Account of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, as the said Commissioners should direct, to be by them applied towards the Redemption of the National Debt of the United Kingdom, in such Proportions, and at such Time and Times in each and every Quarter in every future Year, as the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt should require, according to the Provisions and Directions of any Act or Acts then in force respecting Sums issued from the Exchequer towards the Reduction of the said National Debt: And whereas in and by the said Act it was also enacted that the said Commissioners should from Time to Time apply of such respective Annual Sums so placed to their Account by virtue of the said Act, either in the whole or in part, in the Purchase of such redeemable Public Annuities, or Annuities for any Term or Terms of Years, as in the Purchase of Exchequer Bills, or in the paying off Exchequer Bills, or in the advancing of such Annual Sums upon the Credit of any Exchequer Bills therein-before mentioned as the said Commissioners should from Time to Time judge most expedient: And whereas it is expedient to extend the Powers and Provisions of the said recited Act, and to enable the said Commissioners to purchase from Time to Time, with the said Money as with any Part thereof which shall be so issued to them from Time to Time, under the Provisions of the said Act, within any Quarter in this present Year, or in any future Year after the passing of this Act, the Reversion of any of the existing perpetual redeemable Annuities, or of any of the perpetual redeemable Annuities which may be hereafter created, and which may at any Time be existing after the passing of this Act, and constituting the Public Funded Debt of the United Kingdom; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt (and the said Commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered), out of any of the said Money which shall be issued to them towards the Reduction of the National Debt, by virtue of the said recited Act, or of any other Act or Acts now in force or which may hereafter be passed relating to the Fund commonly called "The Sinking Fund," to apply such Money or any Part thereof, if they shall think fit, at such Time and Times and under such Regulations as the said Commissioners shall think proper to adopt for that Purpose, to the Purchase of the Reversion of any of the present existing perpetual redeemable Annuities, or the Reversion of any perpetual redeemable Annuities which may at any Time exist after the passing of this Act, and constituting the Public Funded Debt of the United Kingdom, and to grant to any Person or Persons, Bodies Public or Corporate, in exchange for such perpetual Annuities payable at the Bank of England or shall so may be transferred to them under the Provisions of this Act, an Annuity or Annuities, in commutation for such limited Term of Years certain, and upon such Terms and Conditions, as shall and may be agreed upon between the said Commissioners and the Parties contracting with the said Commissioners.

II. And be it further enacted, That all Annuities for Term of Years granted by the said Commissioners by virtue of this Act shall be charged and the same are hereby made chargeable upon the Consolidated Fund of the said United Kingdom, and the said Annuities shall be deemed and taken to be Annuities for Terms of Years granted by the said Commissioners within the Meaning and Intent of the Act passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to enable the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt to grant Life Annuities, and Annuities for Terms of Years, and all the Clauses, Conditions, Provisions, Directions, Regulations, and Periods of Payment contained in the said last-recited Act relating to immediate Annuities granted or to be granted by the said Commissioners for certain Terms of Years, and in a certain Act made and passed in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to bring the Management of certain Annuities on Lines from the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer to the Management of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, and to amend an Act for enabling the said Commissioners to grant Life Annuities and Annuities for Terms of Years, shall be deemed and taken to apply to the Annuities for Terms of Years which shall at any Time be granted by the said Commissioners under and by virtue of this Act, so fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes (except as altered and varied by virtue of this Act), as if the said Clauses, Conditions, Provisions, Directions, Regulations, and Periods of Payment were severally repeated and re-enacted in this Act.

III. And be it further enacted, That all the perpetual annuities which shall at any Time after the passing of this Act be transferred to the said Commissioners under the Provisions of this Act shall be

The Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt empowered to apply the Moneys of the Sinking Fund to the Purchase of the Reversion of perpetual redeemable Annuities Annuities for Terms of Years granted by virtue of this Act to be charged upon the Consolidated Fund.

Perpetual Annuities transferred to Commissioners for persons, Devisees, or otherwise, and also any Person who was entitled to an Estate or Interest to which the Person so claiming, or some Person through whom he claims, became entitled as Lord by Barony, and the Word "Person" shall extend to a Body Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, and to a Class of Conditions or other Persons, as well as an Individual, and every Word importing the Singular Number only shall extend and be applied to several Persons or Things as well as one Person or Thing; and every Word importing the Masculine Gender only shall extend and be applied to a Female as well as a Male.

II. And be it further enacted, That after the Third last Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three no Person shall make an Entry or Distress or bring an Action to recover any Land or Rent but within Twenty Years next after the Time at which the Right to make such Entry or Distress or to bring such Action shall have first accrued to some Person through whom he claims; or if such Right shall not have accrued to any Person through whom he claims, then within Twenty Years next after the Time at which the Right to make such Entry or Distress or to bring such Action shall have first accrued to the Person making or bringing the same.

III. And be it further enacted, That in the Construction of this Act the Right to make an Entry or Distress or bring an Action to recover any Land or Rent shall be deemed to have first accrued at such Time as herein-after is mentioned; (that is to say) when the Person claiming such Land or Rent, or some Person through whom he claims, shall, in respect of the Estate or Interest claimed, have been in Possession or in Receipt of the Profits of such Land, or in Receipt of such Rent, and shall while entitled thereto have been disseised, or have discontinued such Possession or Receipt, then such Right shall be deemed to have first accrued at the Time of such Disseision or Discontinuance of Possession, or at the last Time at which any such Profits or Rent were or was so received; and when the Person claiming such Land or Rent shall claim the Estate or Interest of some deceased Person who shall have retained in such Possession or Receipt in respect of the same Estate or Interest until the Time of his Death, and shall have been the last Person entitled to such Estate or Interest who shall have been in such Possession or Receipt, then such Right shall be deemed to have first accrued at the Time of such Death; and when the Person claiming such Land or Rent shall claim in respect of an Estate or Interest in Possession granted, appointed, or otherwise secured by any Instrument (other than a Will) to him, or some Person through whom he claims, by a Person being in respect of the same Estate or Interest in the Possession or Receipt of the Profits of the Land, or in the Receipt of the Rent, and no Person entitled under such Instrument shall have been in such Possession or Receipt, then such Right shall be deemed to have first accrued at the Time at which the Person claiming as aforesaid, or the Person through whom he claims, became entitled to such Possession or Receipt by virtue of such Instrument; and when the Estate or Interest claimed shall have been an Estate or Interest in Reversion or Remainder, or other future Estate or Interest, and no Person shall have obtained the Possession or Receipt of the Profits of such Land or the Receipt of such Rent in respect of such Estate or Interest, then such Right shall be deemed to have first accrued at the Time at which such Estate or Interest became an Estate or Interest in Possession; and when the Person claiming such Land or Rent, or the Person through whom he claims, shall have become entitled by reason of any Forfeiture or Breach of Condition, then such Right shall be deemed to have first accrued when such Forfeiture was incurred or such Condition was broken.

IV. Provided always, That when any Right to make an Entry or Distress or to bring an Action to recover any Land or Rent by reason of any Forfeiture or Breach of Condition shall have first accrued in respect of any Estate or Interest in Reversion or Remainder, and the Land or Rent shall not have been recovered by virtue of such Right, the Right to make an Entry or Distress or bring an Action to recover such Land or Rent shall be deemed to have first accrued in respect of such Estate or Interest at the Time when the same shall have become an Estate or Interest in Possession, as if no such Forfeiture or Breach of Condition had happened.

V. Provided also, That a Right to make an Entry or Distress or to bring an Action to recover any Land or Rent shall be deemed to have first accrued, in respect of an Estate or Interest in Reversion, at the Time at which the same shall have become an Estate or Interest in Possession by the Determination of any Estate or Estates in respect of which such Land shall have been held, or the Profits thereof or such Rent shall have been received, notwithstanding the Person claiming such Land, or some Person through whom he claims, shall, at any Time previously to the Creation of the Estate or Estates which shall have determined, have been in Possession or Receipt of the Profits of such Land, or in Receipt of such Rent.

VI. And be it further enacted, That for the Purpose of this Act an Administrator claiming the Estate or Interest of the deceased Person of whose Chance he shall be appointed Administrator shall be deemed to claim as if there had been no Interval of Time between the Death of such deceased Person and the Grant of the Letters of Administration.

VII. And be it further enacted, That when any Person shall be in Possession or in Receipt of the Profits of any Land, or in Receipt of any Rent, as Tenant at Will, the Right of the Person entitled subject thereto, or of the Person through whom he claims, to make an Entry or Distress or bring an Action to recover such Land or Rent shall be deemed to have first accrued either at the Determination of such Tenancy, or at the Expiration of One Year next after the Commencement of such Tenancy, at which Time such Right shall be deemed to have first accrued.

An Administrator to claim as if he obtained the Estate without Interval.

In the Case of a Tenant at Will, the Right shall be deemed to have accrued at the End of the or Certain Trust shall be deemed to be a Tenant at Will, within the Meaning of this Clause, to his Heirs, Executors or Trustees.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That when any Tenancy shall be in Possession or in Receipt of the Profits of any Land, or in Receipt of any Rent, or in Receipt from Year to Year or other Period, without any Lease in Writing, the Right of the Person entitled subject thereto, or of the Person through whom he claims, to make an Entry or Distress or to bring an Action to recover such Land or Rent shall be deemed to have first accrued at the Determination of the first of such Years or other Periods, or at the last Term when any Rent payable in respect of such Tenancy shall have been received (which shall first happen).

IX. And be it further enacted, That when any Tenancy shall be in Possession or in Receipt of the Profits of any Land, or in Receipt of any Rent, by virtue of a Lease in Writing, by which a Rent amounting to the yearly Sum of Twenty Shillings or upwards shall be received, and the Rent reserved by such Lease shall have been received by some Person wrongfully claiming to be entitled to such Land or Rent as Receiver immediately competent on the Determination of such Lease, and no Payment in respect of the Rent reserved by such Lease shall afterwards have been made to the Person rightfully entitled thereto, the Right of the Person entitled to such Land or Rent, subject to such Lease, or of the Person through whom he claims, to make an Entry or Distress or to bring an Action after the Determination of such Lease shall be deemed to have first accrued at the Time at which the Rent reserved by such Lease was first so received by the Person wrongfully claiming as aforesaid; and no such Right shall be deemed to have first accrued upon the Determination of such Lease to the Person rightfully entitled.

X. And be it further enacted, That no Person shall be deemed to have been in Possession of any Land within the Meaning of this Act merely by reason of having made an Entry thereon.

XI. And be it further enacted, That no conditional or other Claim upon or near any Land shall preserve any Right of making an Entry or Distress or of bringing an Action.

XII. And be it further enacted, That when any One or more of several Persons entitled to any Land or Rent as Coparceners, Joint Tenants, or Tenants in Common, shall have been in Possession or Receipt of the Entirety, or more than his or their undivided Share or Shares of such Land or of the Profits thereof, or of such Rent, for his or their own Benefit, or for the Benefit of any Person or Persons other than the Person or Persons entitled to the other Share or Shares of the same Land or Rent, such Possession or Receipt shall not be deemed to have been the Possession or Receipt of or by such last-mentioned Person or Persons or any of them.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That when a younger Brother or other Relation of the Person entitled on His or the Possession or Receipt of the Profits of any Land, or to the Receipt of any Rent, shall enter into the Possession or Receipt thereof, such Possession or Receipt shall not be deemed to be the Possession or Receipt of or by the Person entitled on His.

XIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That when any Acknowledgment of the Title of the Person entitled to any Land or Rent shall have been given to him or his Agent in Writing agreed by the Person in Possession or in Receipt of the Profits of such Land, or in Receipt of such Rent, then such Possession or Receipt of or by the Person by whom such Acknowledgment shall have been given shall be deemed, according to the Meaning of this Act, to have been the Possession or Receipt of or by the Person to whom or to whose Agent such Acknowledgment shall have been given at the Time of giving the same, and the Right of such last-mentioned Person, or any Person claiming through him, to make an Entry or Distress or bring an Action to recover such Land or Rent shall be deemed to have first accrued of and not before the Time at which such Acknowledgment, or the last of such Acknowledgments if more than One, was given.

XV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That when no such Acknowledgment as aforesaid shall have been given before the passing of this Act, and the Possession or Receipt of the Profits of the Land, or the Receipt of the Rent, shall not at the Time of the passing of this Act have been adverse to the Right or Title of the Person claiming to be entitled thereto, then such Person, or the Person claiming through him, may, notwithstanding the Period of Twenty Years herein before limited shall have expired, make an Entry or Distress or bring an Action to recover such Land or Rent at any Time within Five Years next after the passing of this Act.

XVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if at the Time at which the Right of any Person to make an Entry or Distress or bring an Action to recover any Land or Rent shall have first accrued as aforesaid such Person shall have been under any of the Disabilities herein-after mentioned, (that is to say) Infancy, Coverture, Idiotcy, Lunacy, Unsoundness of Mind, or Absence beyond Seas, then such Person, or the Person claiming through him, may, notwithstanding the Period of Twenty Years herein before limited shall have expired, make an Entry or Distress or bring an Action to recover such Land or Rent at any Time within Ten Years next after the Time at which the Person to whom such Right shall first have accrued as aforesaid shall have ceased to be under any such Disability, or shall have died (which shall first happen).

XVII. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That no Entry, Distress, or Action shall be made or brought by any Person who, at the Time at which his Right to make an Entry or Distress or to bring an Action to recover any Land or Rent shall have first accrued, shall be under any of the Disabilities herein-before mentioned, or by any Person claiming through him, but within Forty Years from the Time at which such Right shall first have accrued, although the Person under Disability

Person of one Coparcener not to be the Possession of the others.

Possession of a younger Brother not to be Possession of the Heir.

Acknowledgment in Writing agreed to by Possessor or Receipt of Rent.

Where Possession is not adverse at the Time of passing the Act, the Right shall not be barred until after Five Years.

Person under Disability to be allowed Ten Years.

But no Action, shall be brought beyond 40 Years after the Right accrued.

at such Time may have remained under Claim or more of such Disabilities during the whole of such Forty Years, or although the Term of Ten Years from the Time at which he shall have ceased to be under any such Disability, or have died, shall not have expired.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That when any Person shall be under any of the Disabilities herein-before mentioned at the Time at which his Right to make an Entry or Distress or to bring an Action to recover any Land or Rent shall have first accrued, and shall depart this Life without having ceased to be under any such Disability, no Time to make an Entry or Distress or to bring an Action to recover such Land or Rent beyond the said Period of Twenty Years next after the Right of such Person to make an Entry or Distress or to bring an Action to recover such Land or Rent shall have first accrued, or the said Period of Ten Years next after the Time at which such Person shall have died, shall be allowed by reason of any Disability of any other Person.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That no Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, nor the Islands of Man, Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, or Sark, nor any Island adjacent to any of these (Saving Part of the Dominions of His Majesty), shall be deemed to be beyond Seas within the Meaning of this Act.

XX. And be it further enacted, That when the Right of any Person to make an Entry or Distress or bring an Action to recover any Land or Rent to which he may have been entitled for an Estate or Interest in Possession shall have been barred by the Determination of the Period herein-before limited, which shall be applicable in such Case, and such Person shall at any Time during the said Period have been entitled to any other Estate, Interest, Right, or Possibility, in Reversion, Remainder, or otherwise, in or to the same Land or Rent, no Entry, Distress, or Action shall be made or brought by such Person, or any Person claiming through him, to recover such Land or Rent, in respect of such other Estate, Interest, Right, or Possibility, unless in the meantime such Land or Rent shall have been recovered by some Person entitled to an Estate, Interest, or Right which shall have been limited or taken effect after or in defeasance of such Estate or Interest in Possession.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That when the Right of a Tenant in Tail of any Land or Rent to make an Entry or Distress or to bring an Action to recover the same shall have been barred by reason of the same not having been made or brought within the Period herein-before limited, which shall be applicable in such Case, no such Entry, Distress, or Action shall be made or brought by any Person claiming any Estate, Interest, or Right which such Tenant in Tail might lawfully have barred.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That when a Tenant in Tail of any Land or Rent, entitled to recover the same, shall have died before the Expiration of the Period herein-before limited, which shall be applicable in such Case, for making an Entry or Distress or bringing an Action to recover such Land or Rent, no Person claiming any Estate, Interest, or Right which such Tenant in Tail might lawfully have barred shall make an Entry or Distress or bring an Action to recover such Land or Rent, but within the Period during which, if such Tenant in Tail had so long continued to live, he might have made such Entry or Distress or brought such Action.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That when a Tenant in Tail of any Land or Rent shall have made an Assurance thereof, which shall not operate to bar an Estate or Estates to take effect after or in defeasance of his Estate Tail, and any Person shall by virtue of such Assurance, at the Time of the Execution thereof, or on any Time afterwards, be in Possession or Receipt of the Profits of such Land, or in the Receipt of such Rent, and the same Person, or any other Person whatsoever (other than some Person entitled to such Possession or Receipt in respect of an Estate which shall have taken effect after or in defeasance of the Estate Tail), shall continue or be in such Possession or Receipt for the Period of Twenty Years next after the Commencement of the Time at which such Assurance, if it had then been executed by such Tenant in Tail or the Person who would have been entitled to his Estate Tail if such Assurance had not been executed, would, without the Consent of any other Person, have operated to bar such Estate or Estates as aforesaid; then at the Expiration of such Period of Twenty Years such Assurance shall be and be deemed to have been effectual as against any Person claiming any Estate, Interest, or Right to take effect after or in defeasance of such Estate Tail.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That after the said Twenty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three no Person claiming any Land or Rent in Equity shall bring any Bill to recover the same but within the Period during which by virtue of the Provisions herein-before contained he might have made an Entry or Distress or brought an Action to recover the same respectively if he had been entitled at Law to such Estate, Interest, or Right in or to the same as he shall claim therein in Equity.

XXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That when any Land or Rent shall be vested in a Trustee upon any express Trust, the Right of the Caususque Trust, or any Person claiming through him, to bring a Bill against the Trustee, or any Person claiming through him, to recover such Land or Rent, shall be deemed to have first accrued, according to the Meaning of this Act, at and not before the Time at which such Land or Rent shall have been conveyed to a Purchaser for a valuable Consideration, and shall then be deemed to have accrued only as against such Purchaser and any Person claiming through him.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That in every Case of a concealed Fraud the Right of any Person to bring a Bill in Equity for the Recovery of any Land or Rent of which he, or any Person through whom he claims, may have been deprived by such Fraud, shall be deemed to have first accrued at and

No further Time to be allowed for a discovery of Disabilities.

When the Right to an Estate in Possession is barred, the Right of the same Person to bring Action shall also be barred.

When Tenant in Tail is barred. Remainder men shall not recover.

Provision as to a Tenant in Tail shall not be against him, for maintenance.

When there is Possession, under an Assurance by a Tenant in Tail, which shall not bar the Remainder, they shall be barred at the End of Twenty Years after the Time when the Assurance should have taken effect.

Limitation as to Bills in Equity.

In Case of an express Trust the Right not to accrue until Conveyance.

As to Cases of Fraud.

not before the Time at which such Fraud shall or with reasonable Diligence might have been first known or discovered, provided that nothing in this Clause contained shall enable any Owner of Lands or Herots to have a Suit in Equity for the Recovery of such Lands or Herots, or for setting aside any Conveyance of such Lands or Herots on account of Fraud, against any best able Purchaser for valuable Consideration who has not assisted in the Commission of such Fraud, and who at the Time that he made the Purchase did not know and had no Reason to believe that any such Fraud had been committed.

XXVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be deemed to interfere with any Rule or Jurisdiction of Courts of Equity in refusing Relief on the Ground of Acquiescence or otherwise to any Person whose Right to bring a Suit may not be barred by virtue of this Act.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That when a Mortgagee shall have obtained the Possession or Receipt of the Profits of any Land, or the Receipt of any Rent, comprised in his Mortgage, the Mortgagor or any Person claiming through him shall not bring a Suit to redeem the Mortgage but within Twenty Years next after the Time at which the Mortgagee obtained such Possession or Receipt, unless in the meantime an Acknowledgment of the Title of the Mortgagor or of his Right of Redemption shall have been given to the Mortgagor, or some Person claiming his Estate, or to the Agent of such Mortgagor or Person, in Writing, signed by the Mortgagor or the Person claiming through him; and in such Case no such Suit shall be brought but within Twenty Years next after the Time at which such Acknowledgment, or the last of such Acknowledgments if more than One, was given; and when there shall be more than One Mortgagee, or more than One Person claiming through the Mortgagor or Mortgagees, such Acknowledgment, if given to any of such Mortgagees or Persons, or his or their Agent, shall be as effectual as if the same had been given to all such Mortgagees or Persons; but where there shall be more than One Mortgagee, or more than One Person claiming the Estate or Interest of the Mortgagor or Mortgagees, such Acknowledgment, signed by One or more of such Mortgagees or Persons, shall be effectual only as against the Party or Parties signing as aforesaid, and the Person or Persons claiming any Part of the Mortgage Money or Land or Rent by, from, or under him or them, and any Person or Persons entitled to any Estate or Estates, Interest or Interests, to take effect after or in defence of his or their Estate or Estates, Interest or Interests, and shall not operate to give to the Mortgagor or Mortgagees a Right to redeem the Mortgage as against the Person or Persons entitled to any other undivided or divided Part of the Money or Land or Rent; and where each of the Mortgagees or Persons aforesaid as shall have given such Acknowledgment shall be entitled to a divided Part of the Land or Rent comprised in the Mortgage, or some Estate or Interest therein, and not to any undivided Part of the mortgaged Money, the Mortgagor or Mortgagees shall be entitled to redeem the same divided Part of the Land or Rent on Payment, with Interest, of the Part of the Mortgage Money which shall bear the same Proportion to the whole of the Mortgage Money as the Value of such divided Part of the Land or Rent shall bear to the Value of the whole of the Land or Rent comprised in the Mortgage.

XXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Archbishop, Bishop, Dean, Prebendary, Parson, Vicar, Master of Hospital, or other Spiritual or Ecclesiastical Corporation Sole, to make an Entry or Distress or to bring an Action or Suit to recover any Land or Rent within such Period as hereinafter is mentioned next after the Time at which the Right of such Corporation Sole, or of his Predecessor, to make such Entry or Distress or bring such Action or Suit shall first have accrued; (that is to say,) the Period during which Two Persons in succession shall have held the Office or Benefice in respect whereof such Land or Rent shall be claimed, and Six Years after a Third Person shall have been appointed thereto, if the Times of such Two Incumbencies and such Term of Six Years taken together shall amount to the full Period of Sixty Years; and if such Times taken together shall not amount to the full Period of Sixty Years, then during such further Number of Years in addition to such Six Years as will with the Time of the holding of such Two Persons and such Six Years make up the full Period of Sixty Years; and after the said Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three no such Entry, Distress, Action, or Suit shall be made or brought at any Time beyond the Determination of such Period.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That after the said Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three no Person shall bring any Charge impedit or other Action or any Suit to enforce a Right to present or to bestow any Church, Vicarage, or other Ecclesiastical Benefice, as the Patron thereof, after the Expiration of such Period as hereinafter is mentioned; (that is to say,) the Period during which Three Clerks in succession shall have held the same, all of whom shall have obtained Possession thereof adversely to the Right of Presentation or Gift of such Patron, or of some Person through whom he claims, if the Times of such Incumbencies taken together shall amount to the full Period of Sixty Years; and if the Times of such Incumbencies shall not together amount to the full Period of Sixty Years, then after the Expiration of such further Time as with the Times of such Incumbencies will make up the full Period of Sixty Years.

XXXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That when on the Accidance, after a Clerk shall have obtained Possession of an Ecclesiastical Benefice adversely to the Right of Presentation or Gift of the Patron thereof, a Clerk shall be presented or collated thereto by His Majesty or the Ordinary by reason of a Lapse, such last-mentioned Clerk shall be deemed to have obtained Possession adversely to the Right of Presentation or Gift of such Patron as aforesaid; but when a Clerk shall have been

Bring the Jurisdiction of Equity.

Mortgagee to be bound at the End of Twenty Years from the Time when the Mortgagee took possession, or from the last written Acknowledgment.

No Lands or Herots to be recovered by Requisition or Ecclesiastical Corporation Sole but within Two Incumbencies and Six Years, or Sixty Years.

No Actions to be recovered but within Three Incumbencies and Sixty Years.

Incumbencies after Lapse to be reckoned within the Period, but not Incumbencies after Pre-presented by His Majesty upon the Assentance of a Benefice in consequence of the Incumbent thereof having been made a Bishop, the Incumbency of such Clerk shall, for the Purposes of this Act, be deemed a Continuance of the Incumbency of the Clerk so made Bishop.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That in the Construction of this Act every Person claiming a Right to present to or to bestow any Ecclesiastical Benefice, as Patron thereof, by virtue of any Estate, Interest, or Right which the Owner of an Estate Tail in the Adversion might have had, shall be deemed to be a Person claiming through the Person entitled to such Estate Tail, and the Right to bring any Quare impedit, Action, or Suit shall be limited accordingly.

XXXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That after the said Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three no Person shall bring any Quare impedit or other Action or any Suit to enforce a Right to present to or to bestow any Ecclesiastical Benefice, as the Patron thereof, after the Expiration of One hundred Years from the Time at which a Clerk shall have obtained Possession of such Benefice adversely to the Right of Presentation or Gift of such Person, or of some Person through whom he claims, or of some Person entitled to some preceding Estate or Interest, or undivided Share, or adverse Right of Presentation or Gift, held or derived under the same Title, unless a Clerk shall subsequently have obtained Possession of such Benefice on the Presentation or Gift of the Person so claiming, or of some Person through whom he claims, or of some other Person entitled in respect of an Estate, Share, or Right held or derived under the same Title.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That at the Determination of the Period limited by this Act to any Person for making an Entry or Distress, or bringing any Writ of Quare impedit or other Action or Suit, the Right and Title of such Person to the Land, Rent, or Advowson for the Recovery whereof such Entry, Distress, Action, or Suit respectively might have been made or brought within such Period, shall be extinguished.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That the Receipt of the Rent payable by any Tenant from Year to Year, or other Lease, shall, as against such Lessee or any Person claiming under him (but subject to the Lease), be deemed to be the Receipt of the Profits of the Land for the Purposes of this Act.

XXXVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That when, on the said Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, any Person who shall not have a Right of Entry to any Land shall be entitled to maintain any such Writ or Action as aforesaid in respect of such Land, such Writ or Action may be brought at any Time before the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and thirty-five in case the same might have been brought if this Act had not been made, notwithstanding the Period of Twenty Years herein-before limited shall have expired.

XXXVIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That when, on the said First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, any Person whose Right of Entry to any Land shall have been taken away by any Decretum curie, Discontinuance, or Warranty, might maintain any such Writ or Action as aforesaid in respect of such Land, such Writ or Action may be brought after the said First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, but only within the Period during which by virtue of the Provisions of this Act an Entry might have been made upon the same Land by the Person bringing such Writ or Action if his Right of Entry had not been so taken away.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That no Decretum curie, Discontinuance, or Warranty which may happen or be made after the said Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty-five shall toll or defeat any Right of Entry or Action, for the Recovery of Land.

XI. And be it further enacted, That after the said Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three no Action or Suit or other Proceeding shall be brought, to recover any Sum of Money secured by any Mortgage, Judgment, or Lien, or otherwise charged upon or payable out of any Land or Rent, at Law or in Equity, or any Legacy, but within Twenty Years next after a present Right to receive the same shall have accrued to some Person capable of giving a Discharge for or Release of the same, unless in the meantime some Part of the Principal Money, or some interest thereon, shall have been paid, or some Acknowledgment of the Right therein shall have been made in Writing written to His Majesty.

As to Persons claiming an Advowson in Remainder, &c. after an Estate Tail.

No Advowson to be recovered after 100 Years.

At the End of the Period of Limitation the Right is to be extinguished.

Receipts of Rent deemed Receipt of Profits.

except the Dower, Quare impedit, and Ejectment.

Real Actions may be brought until the 1st June 1835.

During the Rights of Persons entitled to real Actions only at the Commencement of this Act, &c.

No Decretum, &c. to bar Right of Entry.

Money charged upon Land and Legacies to be deemed satisfied at the End of Twenty Years, if there shall be no interest paid or Acknowledgment in Writing to the same Court.

No Arrears of Dower to be recovered for more than Six Years.

No Arrears of Rent or Interest to be recovered for more than Six Years.

Act not to extend to Scotland, nor to Adversaries in Ireland. Act may be amended.

Act not to extend to the Spiritual Courts.

Act not to extend to Scotland, nor to Adversaries in Ireland. Act may be amended.

Writing signed by the Person by whom the same shall be payable, or his Agent, to the Person entitled thereto or his Agent; and in each Case no such Action or Suit or Proceeding shall be brought but within Twenty Years after such Payment or Acknowledgment, or the last of such Payments or Acknowledgments if more than One, was given.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That after the said Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three no Arrears of Dower, nor any Damages on account of such Arrears, shall be recovered or obtained by any Action or Suit for a longer Period than Six Years next before the Commencement of such Action or Suit.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That after the said Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three no Arrears of Rent or of Interest in respect of any Sum of Money charged upon or payable out of any Land or Herit, or in respect of any Legacy, or any Damages in respect of such Arrears of Rent or Interest, shall be recovered by any Distress, Action, or Suit but within Six Years next after the same respectively shall have become due, or next after such Acknowledgment of the same in Writing shall have been given to the Person entitled thereto, or his Agent, signed by the Person by whom the same was payable, or his Agent: Provided nevertheless, that where any joint Mortgagee or other Incumbrancer shall have been in Possession of any Land, or in the Receipt of the Profits (except, within One Year next before an Action or Suit shall be brought by any Person entitled to a subsequent Mortgage or other Incumbrance on the same Land, the Person entitled to such subsequent Mortgage or Incumbrance may recover in such Action or Suit the Arrears of Interest which shall have become due during the whole Time that such prior Mortgagee or Incumbrancer was in such Possession or Receipt as aforesaid, although such Time may have exceeded the said Term of Six Years.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That after the said Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three no Person claiming any Tithe, Legacy, or other Property for the Recovery of which he might bring an Action or Suit in Law or in Equity, shall bring a Suit or other Proceeding in any Spiritual Court to recover the same but within the Period during which he might bring such Action or Suit at Law or in Equity.

XLIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act shall not extend to Scotland; and shall not, so far as it relates to any Right in parson to or bestow any Church, Vicarage, or other Ecclesiastical Benefice, extend to Ireland.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be amended, altered, or repealed during this present Session of Parliament.

C A P. XXVIII.

An Act to repeal an Act of the Thirtieth Year of His Majesty King George the First, for the better Regulation of the Woollen Trade. [24th July 1833.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the First, entitled An Act for the better Regulation of the Woollen Manufacture, and for preventing Disputes among the Persons concerned therein; and for limiting a Time for presenting for the Payment of any Act of the Twelfth Year of His Majesty's Sons, in case of Payment of the Workmen's Wages in any other Manner than in Money: And whereas the said Act is at this Day not only unnecessary, but if enforced might be extremely injurious; and it is therefore expedient to repeal the same: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Act be and the same is hereby repealed.

C. 28. & 29.

C A P. XXIX.

An Act to make further Provisions with respect to the Payment of Pensions granted for Service in the Royal Artillery, Engineers, and other Military Corps under the Control of the Master General and Board of Ordnance, and with respect to Deductions hereof to be made from Pensions granted by the Commissioners of Chifess Hospital. [24th July 1833.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Pensions, Allowances, and Relief payable to Soldiers and others disabled, invalid, or discharged from the Royal Artillery, Engineers, and other Military Corps, which have hitherto been granted and paid by or under the Authority of the Board of Ordnance, should hereafter be granted and paid by and under the Authority of the Lords and others Commissioners of the Royal Hospital for Soldiers at Chelsea in the County of Middlesex, under the like Rules, Provisions, and Regulations as Pensions, Allowances, and Relief granted to other disabled, invalid, and discharged Soldiers: be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act the whole of the said Pensions, Allowances, and Relief payable to Soldiers and others discharged from the Royal Artillery, Engineers, and other Military Corps which have been heretofore granted and paid by the said Master General and Board of Ordnance, shall be granted and paid by and under the Power, Authority, Direction, Control, and Authority of the said Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital.

Pensions heretofore granted by the Board of Ordnance to be granted by the Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital.

II. And be it further enacted, That all the Classes, Rates, Regulations, Powers, Pains, Forfeitures, Matters, and Things contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament now in force relating to Pensions granted or to be granted to disabled, invalid, or discharged Soldiers, shall be applicable and applied and put in force for the Purpose of this Act, with respect to all subsisting Pensions already granted by the Board of Ordnance on account of the Services herein before mentioned, and to all Pensions, Half-pay, and Allowances hereafter to be granted and payable to Soldiers and others on account of such Services.

III. And be it enacted, That the Treasurer of Chelsea Hospital shall and may withhold and deduct from and out of all Moneys which shall and may be applicable to the Payment of Pensions granted or to be hereafter granted by the Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital to any disabled, invalid, or discharged Soldiers, Artillery-men, or other Persons as aforesaid, who shall have enlisted since the First Day of March last, or who shall hereafter enlist, the Sum of Sixpence in the Pound only instead of One Shilling in the Pound which has heretofore been deducted by the said Treasurer of Chelsea Hospital, and which is so continue to be deducted from all Pensions granted for Services under Enlistments which have taken place previously to the said First Day of March last, subject to the following Proviso or Exception (that is to say): Provided nevertheless, that no Deduction shall be made by the said Treasurer of Chelsea Hospital from any Pensions which have already been granted by the said Master General and Board of Ordnance without being subject to any Deductions, and the Sum of Sixpence in the Pound only shall be deducted from such Pensions as have been granted by the said Master General and Board of Ordnance subject to such Deduction of Sixpence in the Pound only, and all such Deductions as are heretofore directed to be made by the said Treasurer of Chelsea Hospital shall continue to be applied according to the Provision of an Act passed in the Twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intitled An Act for the Relief of the Out-Pensioners of the Royal Hospital at Chelsea.

IV. And be it enacted, That all Orders made by Noncommissioned Officers and Soldiers for the Payment of Prize Money, received in any Part of the United Kingdom, for Barges not exceeding Forty Shillings, shall be exempt from Stamp Duty, and for Barges exceeding Forty Shillings shall be subject to a Stamp Duty of One Shilling only; and that no Fee or Payment whatever shall be demanded or taken from any Out-Pensioner of Chelsea Hospital, or charged against him, for administering or attesting any Oath necessary or required to be taken for the Receipt of any Pension or Allowance of Money payable at or from Chelsea Hospital, or for the making or executing or attesting any Assignment of Out-Pension, or Orders of Justice relating to any Out-Pension, or to any Payment on account thereof.

C A P. XXX.

An Act to exempt from Poor and Church Rates all Churches, Chapels, and other Places of Religious Worship. [24th July 1833.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that Churches, Chapels, and other Places exclusively appropriated to public Religious Worship should be exempt from the Payment of Poor and Church Rates: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three no Person or Persons shall be rated or shall be liable to be rated, or to pay to any Church or Poor Rates or Rates, for or in respect of any Churches, District Churches, Chapels, Meeting Houses, or Premises, or such Part thereof as shall be exclusively appropriated to public Religious Worship, and which (other than Churches, District Churches, and Episcopal Chapels of the Established Church) shall be duly certified for the Performance of such Religious Worship according to the Provision of any Act or Acts now in force: Provided always, that no Person or Persons shall be hereby exempted from any such Rates or Rates for or in respect of any Parts of such Churches, District Churches, Chapels, Meeting Houses, or other Premises which are not so exclusively appropriated, and from which Parts not so exclusively appropriated such Person or Persons shall receive any Rent or Rents, or shall derive Profit or Advantage.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Person or Persons shall be liable to any such Rates or Rates because of the said Churches, District Churches, Chapels, Meeting Houses, or other Premises, or any Vestry Rooms belonging thereto, or any Part thereof, may be used for Sunday or Infant Schools, or for the charitable Education of the Poor.

C A P. XXXI.

An Act to enable the Election of Officers of Corporations and other Public Companies now required to be held on the Lord's Day to be held on the Saturday next preceding, or on the Monday next ensuing. [24th July 1833.]

WHEREAS the Profanation of the Lord's Day is greatly increased by reason of certain Meetings which are usually or occasionally held thereon: And whereas it is the Duty of the Legislature to remove in as much as possible Impediments to the due Observance of the Lord's Day: Be it therefore enacted by His Majesty King George the Fourth, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual Regulations relating to Army Pensions to be applicable to Pensions granted under this Act.

Deduction from Pensions from 2s per Cent. instead of 3 per Cent. in the Cases herein ascertained.

28 G. 2 c. 1

Orders for Payment of Prize Money not exceeding 40s. awarded in the United Kingdom, to be exempt from Stamp Duty, and no Fee for Affidavits.

No Person liable to be rated for Places not exclusively appropriated to public Religious Worship.

Places not exclusively appropriated.

Persons not liable because Parts of Premises used for Schools.

Assessments were directed to be made for the same Purpose, in the Manner and under the Limitations therein prescribed, in the Counties wherein any of the said Roads and Bridges were respectively situated: And whereas by an Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled An Act for maintaining or repairing the Parliamentary and Military Roads and Bridges in the Highlands of Scotland, and also certain Ferry Piers and Shipping Quays erected by the Commissioners for Highland Roads and Bridges, and certain Provisions were afterwards made and approved, under the Provisions therein contained, to erect Toll Gates on the Roads under their Care, and to levy Tolls to be applied towards the Maintenance of the said Roads, in and of or in lieu of the said Parliamentary Allowance and County Assessment: And whereas by an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled An Act to amend the Acts for maintaining and repairing the Military and Parliamentary Roads in the Highlands of Scotland, further Provisions were made for the Execution of the said recited Acts; but Doubts have arisen in the Interpretation thereof, in Cases where Tolls have been imposed upon Roads for the Maintenance of which such Tolls have afterwards proved inadequate: And whereas it is expedient that such Doubts should be removed: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, in all Cases where the Tolls which have, under the Provisions of the second of the said recited Acts or of this Act, been imposed and levied upon any Road or Bridge under their Care, or which it may hereafter be deemed expedient to impose or levy thereon, shall prove insufficient for the Maintenance and Repair of such Road or Bridge, or rebuilding of such Bridge, to apply such Insufficiency to the Governor of the County wherein the same shall be situated, and to include, in the Account annually transmitted to the said Governor of the Expediture chargeable to such County under the Provisions of the Act first herein recited, such and the same Proportion of the Amount of the Deficiency of the Expense of maintaining and repairing such Road or Bridge, or rebuilding such Bridge, as would have been chargeable to the said County in respect of the said Road or Bridge in case no Tolls had been imposed and levied thereon; and upon such Notice being given, and such Account being transmitted to the said Governor by the said Commissioners, at least Thirty Days previous to the Twenty-ninth Day of April in each Year, the Amount of such Deficiency shall be chargeable upon and shall be borne or levied and be paid by and out of the said Parliamentary Allowance and County Assessment (but subject to the same Limitations under which the said County Assessment is now levied) in the same Manner and Proportion in which the whole Expense of the Maintenance and Repair of such Road or Bridge, or rebuilding such Bridge, would have been chargeable in case no Tolls had been imposed or levied thereon.

II. And whereas it will tend greatly to increase the public Utility of certain Roads already made under the Superintendance of the said Commissioners, and to enlarge and facilitate the Communications in the County of Inverness, that the District Road herein-after mentioned should be placed under the Direction and Management of the said Commissioners; be it enacted, That the Road commonly called the Daughfear or Turmeson Road, leading from the Stone Bridge of the Town of Inverness to the North-western Extremity of the Parliamentary Road called the Inverness-Craig Road, and passing through the United Parish of Inverness and Sleat, and County of Inverness, shall from and after the passing of this Act be transferred from the Charge and Control of the local Trustees thereof, and shall for all Purposes be deemed and taken to be Part of the Roads under the Care and Superintendance of the said Commissioners, and shall be maintained in repair, widened, or improved by them, either out of the said Parliamentary Allowance and County Assessment, or by means of Tolls to be levied thereon; which Tolls the said Commissioners are hereby empowered to impose and levy in the Manner directed by the said Act recited herein-before recited, or partly out of the said Parliamentary Allowance and County Assessment, and partly by means of Tolls, by virtue of the Provisions of this Act, in the same Manner, and with and under the same Powers and Limitations, as are applicable to Roads under their Care, pursuant to the said recited Acts.

III. And whereas it is expedient that Power should be granted to the said Commissioners to fix and settle Plans for the Alteration and Improvement of the Lines of the following Roads; namely, the Road leading from the Town of Inverness to the Conings of Nairnshire, called the Fort George Road, from a Point near the East End of the High Street of Inverness to a Point on the said Road East of Polly Street near Inverness, and from a Point near Castle Stewart to the Western Extremity of the Nairnshire Leuchlin Coast Road, passing through the Parishes of Inverness, Petty, and Ardverie, in the County of Inverness; as also the said Road called the Daughfear or Turmeson Road, from the Stone Bridge of Inverness to a Point near the Canal Bridge at Alnack, passing through the Parish of Inverness; as also the Road from Zerpordoch to Floss called the Zerpordoch Road, from a Point at or near Kinnleith to a Point at or within the Burgh of Thorn, passing through the Parish of Thorn, in the County of Shire; be it enacted, That so soon as sufficient Funds for defraying the Expense of making any such alteration or new Line of any of the said Roads above described shall be provided to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, either by the Contribution of any Individual or Individuals, or Corporation, or by the Assessment of any County or Counties, or by Money which may be borrowed in the Credit of the Tolls on any of the said Roads respectively, the said Commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered by the said recited Acts, or by the Direction of any of the said Roads, for the Alteration or Improvement thereof sufficient Funds shall be so provided, and to cause a Plan to be laid out and the Clerk of the Peace of the County wherein such Road to be altered and improved shall be situated, showing the precise Line thereof, and the Lane through which the same shall pass, together with a Book of Reference, containing the Names of the Owners and Occupiers of such Lands, and shall also cause a written or printed Notice thereof to be affixed on the Church Door of every Parish through which the same shall pass, to be continued at least Three successive Sabbaths before the Alteration shall begin to be made; and from and after the Time when any such Alteration and Improvement shall be completed the said Commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to direct Tolls to be levied on such Road in the same Manner and to the same Extent, that Tolls are or may be levied on any Road under the Superintendance of the said Commissioners; and any such Road, when so altered and improved, shall be maintained in repair in the same Manner that the other Roads under the Care of the said Commissioners are so.

IX. And whereas by an Act of the Parliament of Scotland, made in the Second Parliament of King Charles the Second, intituled An Act for repairing Highways and Bridges, and also by an Act passed in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for widening the Highways in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, it is provided that Highways shall be Twenty Feet in Width at the least; be it enacted, That the said Commissioners shall have Power and they are hereby authorized to direct all or any of the said Roads, or any Road under their Management, to be widened and expanded so that the same shall be in all Places Twenty Feet in Width of clear passable Road, exclusive of the Bank, Ditch, and Fence on either Side thereof; and the said Commissioners shall not be liable to pay for any Ground necessary to make any Road of such legal Breadth, reserving all Issues of Damages to the Proprietors for any Fence or Fences which may be altered or removed, by widening any such Road; and the said Commissioners shall have further Power and are hereby authorized, if they shall see fit, near any Town or Village, to extend any Turnpike Road to any Width not exceeding Forty Feet of clear passable Road, exclusive of the Bank, Ditch, and Fence on either Side thereof, on making Satisfaction in the Manner directed by an Act passed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for granting to His Majesty the Son of Treaty thousand Pounds, to be raised and applied towards making Roads and building Bridges on the Highways of Scotland, and for enabling the Proprietors of Land in Scotland to charge their Estates with a Proportion of the Expence of making and keeping in repair Roads and Bridges in the Highways, to the Proprietors and Occupiers of any Ground, Buildings, or Fences taken or removed for the Purpose of such widening over and above the Width of Twenty Feet as aforesaid.

X. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to direct to be made and kept in repair Footpaths in or near to any Town or Village where the same can be done by means of the Tolls levied thereon or near thereto.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to advance out of the Funds or their Disposal such Sums as shall appear to them requisite for the necessary Alteration and Improvement of any of the Roads and Bridges under their Superintendance upon which Tolls are at present or shall hereafter be levied under the Provisions of the second Act above recited, and which are wholly unprovided in repair by means of such Tolls, and to repay themselves such Advances out of the surplus Proceeds of such Tolls which shall remain after providing for the Expences of Repair of the Road or Bridge whereon the same shall be respectively levied.

XII. And be it further enacted, That if it shall appear to the said Commissioners to be expedient for the Public Service, it shall be lawful for them, with the Consent of the Justices and Commissioners of Supply of the County within which any such District Road or Bridge as herein-after mentioned shall be situate, verified at some several Meeting for the Assessment of the Land Tax, or at some special Adjournment of such Meeting, to assume to themselves the Care and Superintendance of any Road adjoining to or connected with any Road or Bridge already under their Superintendance, such Road having been previously sufficiently made and repaired to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, and every such Road shall thenceforth and thereafter be deemed and taken to be Part of the Roads and Bridges under the Care and Superintendance of the said Commissioners, and shall be maintained in repair by them in the same Manner as the Parliamentary and Military Roads and Bridges under their Care; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to exercise all such Powers and Authorities, for and in respect of any such Road, which they are authorized and empowered to exercise with respect to any Road already under their Management: Provided always, that regard shall be had to the Limitation of the Amount of the Money applicable to the County wherein any such Road shall be situated.

XIII. And whereas Doubts have sometimes arisen in defining the Limits of Roads under the Care of the said Commissioners which ought for the Purpose of Repair to be considered as Turning Out Lines; be it enacted, That in such Cases it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, from Time to Time, to appoint and define the Limits of the several Roads under their Care, which are to be respectively deemed and taken to be and form separate and distinct Lanes of Road for the Purpose of Repair, and to be entitled to the Benefit of the Tolls levied within such Limits; and any Order defining such Limits, and directing the Application of such Tolls, or of the Assessment levied in respect of the Road so defined, upon or for the Benefit of such Road, after being presented to the Clerk of the Peace of the County or City to which the same may relate, shall be deemed valid, the same shall be

IX. And whereas it is desirable that the several Ferry Piers and Shipping Quays erected by the said Commissioners should be maintained in repair, but it has in some Cases appeared independent to the said Commissioners to enforce the Provisions made for that Purpose by the said Act accord-above recited, by leaving Tolls or Dues thereon; be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, in case they shall deem it expedient, with the Consent of the Justices and Commissioners of Supply of the County within which such Ferry Pier or Shipping Quay as hereinafter mentioned shall be situate, notified at some annual Meeting for the Assessment of the Land Tax, or some special Adjournment of such Meeting, to assume the Care of maintaining in repair, altering, or improving any of the said Ferry Piers and Shipping Quays situated in the Counties of Ayrshire, Renfrewshire, and Argyll, and the same shall therewith be maintained or repair by them in the same Manner, and with and under the same Powers and Limitations, as the Parliamentary and Military Roads and Bridges whereas no Tolls are levied.

Provision as to Ferry Piers and Shipping Quays.

X. And whereas Damage has been done to Bridges erected by or which have been put under the Care and Superintendance of the said Commissioners, by the floating of Timber or Rivers over which such Bridges have been erected, through the Stoppage or Accumulation of such Timber or above such Bridges, whereby the same are not only injured and endangered, but in some Instances have been actually carried away; be it therefore enacted, That if any Timber, Trees, Logs, Deals, or Spars shall at any Time from and after the passing of this Act be floated or directed to be floated by any Person or Persons in any River whereas any Bridge shall have been erected by or shall be under the Care and Superintendance of the said Commissioners, the Owner or Owners of such Timber, Trees, Logs, Deals, or Spars, and every Person who shall have directed or shall be employed in floating the same in any such River, or be actually engaged and employed to station a sufficient Number of Persons at every such Bridge where such Timber, Trees, Logs, Deals, or Spars shall be floating in any such River, for the Purpose of preventing the same from stopping or being accumulated at or above any such Bridge, and for the Purpose of directing the Passage of the same under the Arch or Arches or between the Piers of any such Bridge, or as not to injure the same; and if any Timber, Trees, Logs, Deals, or Spars shall at any Time be floated in any such River without Persons being so stationed as aforesaid, or if any such Timber, Trees, Logs, Deals, or Spars shall be suffered to stop or to accumulate at or above any such Bridge, or if any such Bridge shall sustain any Damage through the floating of such Timber, Trees, Logs, Deals, or Spars, the Owner or Owners thereof, and every Person or Persons who shall have directed or shall have been employed in floating the same, shall be liable to a Penalty of not less than Forty Shillings and not exceeding Five Pounds for each Offence, to be recovered for the Use of any Person suing for the same before the Sheriff or any One or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the County where the Offender or Offenders shall be found or shall reside, and shall also forfeit all such Timber, Trees, Logs, Deals, or Spars which shall be found stopped or accumulated at or above such Bridge, to the Use of the Person or Persons by whom the same shall be seized and removed from at or above any such Bridge, upon proving the same before the said Sheriff or any One or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the County where such Timber, Trees, Logs, Deals, or Spars shall be so seized and removed; and if any Person or Persons shall hinder, obstruct, or prevent any Person or Persons from seizing or removing any such Timber, Trees, Logs, Deals, or Spars, every such Person, being lawfully convicted thereof before the said Sheriff or One or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the County where the Offender or Offenders shall be or reside, shall forfeit a Sum not less than Forty Shillings and not exceeding Five Pounds, to the Use of the Person or Persons suing for the same; and, moreover, every Owner or Owners of any such Timber, Trees, Logs, Deals, or Spars shall be liable in the Amount of any and every Damage that may be occasioned to any such Bridge through the floating of the Stoppage or Accumulation of any such Timber, Trees, Logs, Deals, or Spars thereon, to be recovered by the said Commissioners either before the Sheriff of the County whereas such Bridge may be situated, or before the Court of Session, as they shall think fit; and the full Costs of every such Action shall in every such Case be awarded to the said Commissioners.

Provision of Bridges.

XI. And whereas by the first of the said recited Acts it was enacted, that no Person should obstruct or be presumed to erect any House, Hut, or other Building exceeding Five Feet in Height within Twenty Feet of the Middle of any of the Roads thereby directed to be kept in repair; And whereas by an Act passed in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled An Act for amending and making more effectual the Laws concerning Turnpike Roads in Scotland, it was enacted, that no new Inclosures or Plantations should be made within the Distance of Twenty-five Feet from the Centre of any Turnpike Road; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act no new Inclosures or Plantation shall be made within the Distance of Twenty-five Feet from the Centre of any Road under the Care of the said Parliamentary Commissioners, without incurring a Penalty of Five Pounds for every such Offence, to be recovered as any Penalty under any of the said recited Acts may be recovered; and the Sheriff of the County and Justices of the Peace are hereby authorized and empowered, on the Application of the Inspector or any other Person acting in the Employment of the said Commissioners, to order any such Inclosure or Plantation to be pulled down or removed at the Expense of the Person making the same, or of the Owner or Occupier of the Ground whereas it shall be made.

No new Inclosures to be made within Twenty-five Feet of the Centre of any of the Roads.

XII. And whereas by the said recited Act passed in the First and Second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and by the said recited Acts, and by the said recited Acts, and by the said recited Acts, the same, are enacted, which is extended to the several Roads under the Charge of the said Com-

Extension of certain Parts of the General Turnpike Act to this Act.

' measures upon which Tolls are levied would be highly beneficial, and would render the Laws for the Regulation of public Roads in Scotland more uniform' be it enacted, That so much of the said recited Act as relates to the Conduct of the Tacksmen of Tolls and Tollkeepers employed in collecting Tolls, and to the making of Encroachments on any Turnpike Road, and to the Regulation of Drivers, and to the Number of Carts which may be taken care of by Drivers, and to the preventing Children from driving Carts, and to the passing on Waggones and Carts of every Description, and other Carriages travelling for Hire, the Names of the Owners thereof, and to the Seizure of trespasser Offences, and to the Amount of Penalties by which any of such Matters and Things may be enforced, and to the Recovery of such Penalties, shall be and the same are hereby extended to this Act, and every such Provision in the said recited Act hereby so extended shall receive the same Effect as if every Clause recited in the said recited Act relating to any Matter or Thing above mentioned had, been reprinted in this Act.

Expenses of Act.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the Expenses of this Act may and shall be defrayed out of any Money in the Hands of the said Commissioners appointed by the Three Acts herein last before recited.

Certain Powers of 1805, &c. and of a C. 3, &c. extended to this Act, &c.

XIV. And be it enacted, That all the Powers and Authorities granted by the said recited Act passed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, for making Roads as therein directed, are hereby granted for making the new Loans of Road, and the Alterations and Improvements herein directed, and all the Powers and Authorities granted by the said Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, for the opening of Turnpike Gates and of Toll Houses, are hereby granted for the Purposes of this Act, which, with the said Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth, save and except in so far as the same is altered by this Act, shall have Continuance for and during the Term of Thirty-one Years from and after the passing hereof, and from thence to the End of the thirteenth Session of Parliament.

Public Act.

XV. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such by all Judges, Justices, and others.

An Act to continue, until the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, Compositions for the Assessed Taxes. [24th July 1833.]

1833, c. 117.

WHEREAS under the Provisions of an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intitled An Act to continue, until the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, Compositions for the Assessed Taxes, and to grant Relief in certain Cases, the Duties of Compositions for Assessed Taxes now in force will expire on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four; and it is expedient to continue such Compositions for a further Term of One Year and so longer, as to expire on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and thirty-five: be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the several Duties payable under every Contract of Composition for the Duties of Assessed Taxes, and every Contract and Composition respectively now in force, shall be and are hereby respectively continued to His Majesty, to the like annual Amounts now payable, for a further Term of One Year and no longer, computed from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, and to terminate on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to all Intents, and under the same Rules and Privileges as if such Compositions did not by the Laws now in force expire before the last-mentioned Day; and all the Powers and Provisions of the several Acts passed relating to and for continuing the Duties of Compositions and Contracts for collecting the same half-yearly, and for enforcing Payment thereof, shall be extended and applied to the Compositions and Contracts continued under this Act, to all Intents, as if the same had been repeated in this Act.

Compositions continued for a further Term of One Year, and expiring April 1835.

except in Cases where Parties shall give Notice to determine the same on the 25th of April 1834.

Act may be altered.

It. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act shall not extend to any Person who shall be desirous of determining his or her Composition on the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, and who shall so or before the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three give Notice thereof in Writing to the Assessor or Collector of the Parish or Place, or to the Surveyor giving the Execution of the Acts relating to the Duties of Assessed Taxes for the District in which such Composition shall be payable.

III. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be amended, altered, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

Witness not to be questioned the want of Form. Rated Person not disqualified from giving Evidence.

Lord Chan. Keeper, or any other Commissioner to be addressed to any One or more Person, who shall have Power to issue Precepts to the Sheriffs thereon.

Notwithstanding the said Act shall be of full Effect and Purpose as if the said Commissions in the Nature of

of a Wish De Insane Impetundo had been directed or addressed to, and the said Inquisition returned by Three or more Commissioners, as hereinafter.

II. And whereas it is expedient, for the better Care and Treatment of Idiots, Lunatics, and Persons of unsound Mind, found such by Inquisition, that proper and fit Persons should be appointed as superintendants, and from Time to Time report to the Lord Chancellor, or other the Person or Persons intrusted as aforesaid, the Care and Treatment and State of every such Idiot, Lunatic, and Person of unsound Mind; be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, or other the Person or Persons entrusted as aforesaid, by an Instrument under his Hand and Seal or their Hands and Seals, to appoint Three Persons, Two of whom shall be Physicians, and One a Surgeon of not less than Five Years standing, to be Visitors, during Pleasure, for superintending, respecting, and reporting upon, under the Order and Direction of the Lord Chancellor or other the Person or Persons intrusted as aforesaid, the Care and Treatment of all Persons found idiot, lunatic, or of unsound Mind, by Inquisition, and to make all such Orders and Regulations as to the Duties of such Visitors as the Lord Chancellor, or other the Person or Persons entrusted as aforesaid, shall from Time to Time think fit, and to allow such Visitors such Salaries, not to exceed Five hundred Pounds per Annum to each of the Medical Visitors, and Three hundred Pounds per Annum to the other Visitor, for their Trouble, and also such Allowances for travelling Expenses, as such Lord Chancellor, or other the Person or Persons entrusted as aforesaid, shall think reasonable.

III. And be it further enacted, That each of such Persons so found idiot, lunatic, or of unsound Mind as aforesaid shall be visited on the least Once in each Year by One of such Medical Visitors, and either if the same shall be deemed expedient by the Lord Chancellor, or other the Person or Persons intrusted as aforesaid.

IV. And be it further enacted, That within a fit and convenient Time after each such Visitation such Visitors shall respectively make a Report in Writing to the Lord Chancellor, or other the Person or Persons entrusted as aforesaid, of the State of Mind and bodily Health, and of the general Condition, and also of the Care and Treatment of each such Person so found idiot, lunatic, or of unsound Mind who shall have been visited by him as aforesaid; which said Reports shall be duly filed and kept secret in the Office of such Visitors, and shall be open to the Inspection of no Person whatsoever, save and except the said Visitors, their Secretary, and the Lord Chancellor, or other the Person or Persons intrusted as aforesaid, or such other Person or Persons as the Lord Chancellor, or other Person or Persons entrusted as aforesaid, shall specially appoint: Provided always, that all such Reports, as far as the same relate to any particular Patient, shall be cancelled and destroyed on the Decease of each such Patient, and shall also be cancelled and destroyed on the Surpassness of his or her Commission, unless the Lord Chancellor, or other the Person or Persons intrusted as aforesaid, shall deem it fit and expedient that the same shall not be cancelled or destroyed until his or her Death.

V. And be it further enacted, That as often as any of the Visitors to be appointed as aforesaid shall die or be removed, or refuse to act, or become unable, by Illness or otherwise, to act, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, or other the Person or Persons entrusted as aforesaid, by an Instrument under his Hand and Seal or their Hands and Seals, to appoint a Visitor in the Room of every Visitor who shall die or be removed, or refuse or become unable to act.

VI. And be it further enacted, That no Person shall be appointed Visitor as aforesaid who shall be, or shall have been within the Two Years then next preceding, directly or indirectly interested in the Leasing any House licensed for the Reception of Insane Persons; and if any Person shall after his Appointment become so interested, and continue to act as such Visitor, his Appointment as Visitor shall thenceforth become void and null, and it shall not be lawful for him to act as such Visitor.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Lord Chancellor, or other the Person or Persons intrusted as aforesaid, it and he or they respectively, by an Instrument under his Hand and Seal or their Hands and Seals, to appoint, during Pleasure, a fit Person to be Secretary to such Visitors, and for the Purposes of this Act, and to allow such Person such Salary for his Trouble, not exceeding Three hundred Pounds per Annum, and also to allow such further Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding Three hundred Pounds per Annum, for providing and maintaining suitable Offices for the said Visitors and Secretary, and for the general Expenses of carrying into Execution the Purposes of this Act, as such Lord Chancellor, or other the Person or Persons intrusted as aforesaid, shall think reasonable.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That in order to raise a Fund for the Payment of the said Salaries and Expenses, and for the other incidental Expenses of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, or other the Person or Persons entrusted as aforesaid, to raise such Fund by a Percentage on the clear annual Income of the Persons found Idiots, Lunatics, or of unsound Mind by Inquisition as aforesaid, such Percentage not to exceed One and a Half Pence per Cent on each clear annual Income, and to order the same, by general Order, to be paid by the Commissioners or Receivers or other the Person or Persons for the Time being in receipt of the Income of the respective Estates of the said Idiots, Lunatics, and Persons of unsound Mind, into the Bank of England, in the Name and with the Privy of the Accountant-General of the Court of Chancery, to an Account to be opened and called "The Account of the Board of Visitors for the better Care and Treatment of Lunatics."

IX. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners and Receivers or other the Person or Persons aforesaid shall respectively pay out of the Funds in their Hands the said Percentage as aforesaid to be paid as aforesaid on the same certified by the Masters of the Court of Chancery to be the Account of the clear annual Income of the said Idiots, Lunatics, and Persons of unsound Mind, as the said Account of the

X. And for the better executing the Assesses of the said clear annual Income, and collecting the said Per-centage thereon, he is further enacted, That the Masters of the said Court of Chancery shall, within Two Calendar Months from the passing of this Act, in all Matters of Lunacy referred to them, wherein a Committee or Committees shall have been then appointed, and within Two Calendar Months after the Appointment of Committees, or within Twelve Calendar Months after the Date of the Inquisition in all other Cases, respectively ascertain and certify to the Lord Chancellor, or other the Person or Persons intrusted as aforesaid, the respective Amounts of the clear annual Income of the Persons so found Idiots, Lunatics, or of assumed Mind as aforesaid; and in case any Alteration shall afterwards take place, the said several Masters shall respectively certify the same to the Lord Chancellor, or other the Person or Persons intrusted as aforesaid, within Two Calendar Months after such Alteration shall have been made known to them; and for the Purpose of enabling the said Masters to ascertain and certify the Assesses of such clear annual Income, it shall and may be lawful for the said Masters to examine the Committees and Receivers or other the Person or Persons for the Time being in receipt of the Income of the respective Estates of the said Idiots, Lunatics, and Persons of assumed Mind, to attend them to give them all the Information in their Power, and also to produce all Books, Papers, Accounts, and Documents in their Possession or Power relating to the Incomes or Estates of such Idiots, Lunatics, and Persons of assumed Mind.

XI. And he is further enacted, That no Sum of Money required for the Purposes of this Act shall be paid by the said Accountant General out of the said Fund so paid into the Bank of England as aforesaid, except upon Checks or Drafts payable to the Bearer, and signed by the Lord Chancellor, or other Person or Persons intrusted as aforesaid; and that no Fee shall be charged or taken upon, for, or in respect of such Payments or any of them.

XII. And he is further enacted, That the Assesses of Money received and paid under and by virtue of this Act shall once in every Year be made out by the said Secretary, and audited and signed by such One of the said Masters of the said Court of Chancery as the Lord Chancellor, or other the Person or Persons intrusted as aforesaid, shall appoint for that Purpose, and shall afterwards be filed in the Office of the Secretary of Lunacy, and that no Fee shall be charged or taken upon, for, or in respect of such Accounts being so audited or filed.

Commissioners to be appointed

Commissioners to subscribe the following De-

as the Book of the Minutes of the Proceedings of said Commissioners a Declaration in the Words following :

“ I DO hereby solemnly, and in the Presence of God, testify and declare, That I am a Member of the United Church of England and Ireland, as by Law established. Witness my Hand this
 “ Day of _____ 1833.”

His Majesty in Council may receive Commissioners and fill up Vacancies.

III. And be it further enacted, That the said Four Bishops and the said Three other Commissioners shall be at all Times removable by His Majesty in Council by Warrant under the Sign Manual; and that whenever by Death, Resignation, Retardation, or otherwise, any such Bishop or Person shall cease to be a Commissioner under this Act, then and in every such Case it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint one other Bishop or Person in the Place and Stead of any such Bishop, or in Place and Stead of either of each Two Persons appointed by His Majesty, so coming to be such Commissioner respectively; and in case of the Death, Resignation, or Removal of said Commissioner appointed by the Lord Primate and the Archbishop of Dublin, it shall and may be lawful for the said Lord Primate and Archbishop of Dublin for the Time being to appoint another proper and discreet Person in the Place and Stead of the Person so dying, resigning, or being removed as aforesaid; and any such Bishop or Person so to be appointed shall accordingly be and become to all Intents and Purposes one of the Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act.

Salaries to Commissioners.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors to order and appoint such Salary as he or they shall deem fit to be paid to the said Three Persons (not being Bishops) to be appointed such Commissioners as aforesaid, beyond being laid in the Nature and Extent of the Duties to be performed, and so the Responsibility which may attach to such Persons respectively.

Commissioners to appoint Officers, and pay Salaries and incidental Expenses.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to appoint, during Pleasure, such Secretary and Treasurer, and such other subordinate Officer or Officers, as they in their Discretion shall think necessary for the Execution of the several Duties and Trusts hereby imposed on them; and the said Commissioners shall, out of the several Funds hereby vested in and made payable to them, pay such Salaries as shall, pursuant to the Provisions hereon before contained, be appointed to be paid to the said Three Commissioners, and also such other Salaries to the said Secretary, Treasurer, and other subordinate Officer or Officers as the said Commissioners, by and with the Approbation and Consent of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors, testified in Writing under his or their Hand or Hands, shall from Time to Time think fit and allow; and the said Commissioners shall also out of the said Funds defray all such incidental Charges and Expenses as shall become necessary in the Execution of the several Powers and Trusts by this Act, or by any Act hereafter to be passed, imposed on them.

Three Commissioners to form a Quorum.

VI. And be it further enacted, That all Acts, Matters, and Things (save as herein-after excepted) which the said Commissioners be by any of the Provisions of this Act authorized or required to do and perform, shall and may be done and performed by any Three of such Commissioners: Provided always, that such Three Commissioners be for each Purpose assembled at a Meeting, whereof due Notice shall have been given to all the said Commissioners.

As to Proceedings respecting to be sealed by the Common Seal.

VII. Provided always, and be it hereby enacted, That no Proceeding which requires to be certified and attested by the Common Seal of the Corporation shall be finally concluded, nor the said Seal affixed to any Deed or Instrument, save at a Meeting whereof Notice shall have been in like Manner given, and whereas Two at least of the said Episcopal Commissioners shall be personally present: Provided always, that in case any Episcopal Commissioner, being the only Episcopal Commissioner present, should object to the Ratification and Confirmation of any such Proceeding as aforesaid, or to the affixing of such Seal to any Deed or Instrument as aforesaid, such Ratification or affixing of the Seal shall not take place till a subsequent Meeting of the Commissioners, of which due Notice shall have been given.

Who to be Chairman.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That at each Meeting of the said Commissioners the Commissioner first in Rank and Precedence there present shall preside as Chairman, and in case of the Equality in Rank and Precedence of all the Commissioners so present, then the senior Commissioner in the Order of Appointment shall so preside; and the Chairman at all such Meetings shall not only vote as a Commissioner, but shall also, in case of the Equality of Votes, have the casting or decisive Vote.

Secretary to keep a Book.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary or other Officer of said Commissioners shall keep a Book, in which he shall make Minutes of the Proceedings of the said Commissioners at their several Meetings, and enter the Names of the Commissioners present thereon; and such Entry of the Proceedings at each Meeting shall be signed by the Chairman thereof.

Commissioners to make a Report to Lord Lieutenant, and return an Account in Form to be laid before Parliament once in every Year, or Printed image deposited by the University of Southampton Library Digitisation Unit

X. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall once in every Year, within Fourteen Days after the First Day of August, make a Report to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, under the Hand and Seal of the said Commissioners, of their Proceedings under this Act for the Year preceding ending on such First Day of August, and shall also return with said Report an Account of all their Receipts and Disbursements during the like Period, distinguishing the specific Sources from which all Monies may be derived, and showing the total Amount derived from each such Source, together with the specific Purposes to which the Receipts have been applied; and such Report and Account shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament; and the said Commissioners shall also, at all other Times when and as otherwise required by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors for the Time being, deliver to him or them a Report of their Proceedings, and return an Account of their Receipts and Disbursements under this Act, for and during such Period as they may be so required.

XI. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners shall frame and prepare such Rules, Orders, and Bye Laws, not being contrary to the Provisions in this Act contained, nor to the Laws of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, as the said Commissioners shall judge most convenient for the better Government of such Corporation, and the Management and Disposal of the Funds hereby vested in them for the several Purposes of this Act, and for the more effectual Execution of the several Powers and Trusts hereby reposed in them; and of such Rules, Orders, and Bye Laws, being approved and confirmed by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by Writing under his or their Hand or Hands, shall be good, valid, and effectual, and shall be sufficient in all Courts to justify all Persons who shall act pursuant to the same; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, by and with the Consent and Approbation of the said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor, from Time to Time to amend or alter such Rules, Orders, and Bye Laws, or to make others in lieu thereof or in addition thereto, which, being duly confirmed as aforesaid, shall be good, valid, and effectual to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever: Provided always, that no Rule, Order, or Bye Law shall be presented to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor for his Approbation and Confirmation unless it shall first have been made by the said Commissioners at one Meeting, and shall afterwards have been confirmed by them at another Meeting, which other Meeting shall have been called upon One Month's Notice, which shall have been set forth the Rule, Order, or Bye Law proposed to be confirmed.

XII. And be it enacted, That the Governors and Directors of the Bank of Ireland shall and they are hereby required to open in their Books a general and such and so many particular and distinct Accounts with the said Commissioners, under the Title of "The Ecclesiastical Commissioners for Ireland," as the said Commissioners shall from Time to Time require to be kept, and to receive such Ledgers and make such Payments to the Credit and Debit of such Accounts respectively, and to give and deliver such Receipts and Vouchers as the said Commissioners shall from Time to Time direct.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of the Act all Payments of First Fruits in Ireland shall cease and determine for ever; and that all Archbishops, Bishops, Archdeacons, Deans, Rectors, Vicars, and all other Ecclesiastical Persons, and their Successors, in Ireland, shall be for ever hereafter excused, acquitted, and discharged, as well against his present Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, as against the Trustees and Commissioners of First Fruits in Ireland, and all other Persons whatsoever, of and from the Payment of all and in all manner of First Fruits issuing out of Ecclesiastical Benefices payable by the Clergy in Ireland, by whatsoever Name the same are called, and by whatsoever Right or Title the same did or may any way belong to the Crown, or to the said Trustees and Commissioners, or any other Person or Persons: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to exonerate, acquit, or discharge any Person, their Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, from paying and satisfying all and every the Arrears of First Fruits due or payable by them or any of them, or which may hereafter become due and payable by virtue of any Writing Obligatory in force at or before the passing of this Act, but that such Arrears shall and may be recovered as hereafter provided.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall make or cause to be made, and from Time to Time, as they shall think necessary, amend or cause to be amended, a Valuation, in which Valuation Allowance shall be made for the Deductions herein-after mentioned, of all and every the Revenues, Rents, Fees, Tithes, Compositions for Tithes, Estates, Demesnes, Glebes and other Lands, Offerings, Emoluments, and all other Profits, Spiritual or Temporal, appertaining or belonging, or that shall hereafter appertain or belong, to any Archbishoprick, Bishoprick, Archdeaconry, Deanery, Prebend, Cathedral Church, Collegiate Church, Spiritual Corporation, Aggregate or Sole, Parsonage not impropriate, Vicarage, Benefice, Chantry, Free or other Chapel, Perpetual Curacy, or any other Benefice or Office or Promotion Spiritual, of what Name, Nature, Quality, or Description wherever they be, within that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, and shall have, take, levy, and receive therefrom and thereout, from and after the Times when the same shall lawfully become void next after the passing of this Act, and for ever thereafter, a yearly Tax, Rate, or Assessment, computed and imposed upon such Valuation, according to the several Rates and Scales specified and certified in the Schedule (A.) to this Act annexed.

XV. And be it enacted, That the said yearly Tax shall be paid half-yearly in equal Manner to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners on each First Day of July and First Day of January, the first Payment on account of such annual Tax to be made from and out of each Dignity, Benefice, Office, or Promotion Spiritual on the First Day of July or First Day of January, as may happen, next after the First Day of May or the First Day of November, as may happen, next after the consecration, Installation, Induction, Collation, Inveiture, placing, Election, or Appointment of the Persons succeeding thereto: Provided always, that such Person shall only be charged or chargeable in such first Payment with a Proportion of such Tax, according to the Term during which he shall have enjoyed or been created to the Profit of such Dignity, Benefice, Office, or Promotion Spiritual; and provided further, that if any such Dignity, Benefice, Office, or Promotion Spiritual shall remain void for any Time after such Day hereinafore appointed for the Payment of the said annual Tax, the Person succeeding thereto

may have a Commission to make Inquiries for the Purpose of enabling them to form a Valuation, and impose a Tax.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall also have Power and Authority, when and so often as they shall so think necessary, to direct into any Diocese in England a Commission under their Corporate Seal to the Archbishop or Bishop thereof, and such other Person or Persons, being Members of the United Church of England and Ireland, as the said Commissioners shall think fit, commanding and authorizing the Persons in such Commission to be named, or Two of them at the least, to examine, search, and inquire into, of, and for all such Matters and Things as may be requisite and necessary in order to enable the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners under this Act to form the said Valuation, and impose the said Rate, Tax, and Assessment, according to the Provisions of this Act, and authorizing and empowering same Two or more Persons to be named in such Commission, separately, or in the Presence of each other, to administer an Oath to each of the said Persons therein named as aforesaid, to the Effect following, that is to say,

That to be taken by Persons named in such Commission.

I, A. B. do swear, That I will well, diligently, and truly, according to the best of my Skill and Know- ledge, do, fulfil, perform, and execute the several Powers and Trusts reposed in me by virtue of a Commission issued pursuant to the Provisions of an Act passed on the Fourth Year of the Reign of our Majesty King WILLIAM the Fourth, intituled (Acce. under the Title of this Act), within the Limits thereof, without Favour or Affection, Prejudice, Malice, or ill-will to any Person whatsoever.

Commissioners to make Report;

So help me GOD:
Which Oath the said Persons to be therein named shall take before they shall begin to execute their said Commission; and also directing and authorizing the said Persons in such Commission so named, or Two of them at the least, to return, under their Hands and Seals, to the Commissioners appointed under this Act, on a certain Day to be named in the said Commission, a true, just, and faithful Account and Estimate of the said several Matters and Things in the said Commission so directed to be inquired of by them as aforesaid, and which Returns the said Persons in such Commission named are hereby required to make; and the said Persons to be therein named as aforesaid, or any Two of them, shall likewise have Power to examine Witnesses upon Oath touching or concerning and to examine

any of the Matters or Things to be inquired of by them as aforesaid: Provided always, that the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners under this Act may in their Discretion direct and order the Costs and Expenses of issuing said Commission, and of all the Proceedings thereunder, or any Part thereof, to be paid and borne, in such Shares or Proportions as the said Commissioners shall think fit, by such Archbishop, Bishop, Archdeacon, Dean, Prebendary, Parson, Vicar, or other Spiritual Person aforesaid, of and into the Revenues, Rents, Issues, and Profits of whom such Commission shall be issued to issue and exonerate as aforesaid; and which Costs and Expenses, when so ordered to be paid as aforesaid, shall and may be recovered in the Manner hereafter directed and mentioned with respect to the said annual Tax: Provided always, that no such Archbishop, Dignitary, or Spiritual Person shall be required to pay the Costs or Expenses of any such Commission, or any Part thereof, unless the Valuation of the Revenues, Issues, and Profits to him belonging shall exceed the Amount thereof as stated in the last previous Return thereof by him made in the Proportion of Ten Pounds per Centum.

Provision as to Costs of Commissions.

XV. Provided, and he it enacted, That in and from the Valuation to be made for the Purpose of imposing the said Rate, Tax, or Assessment, the said Commissioners shall from Time to Time deduct and allow all Rents, Synodals, Proxies, and other Charges, including Salaries or Stipends for Perpetual Curates or Licensed Assistant Curates of any Benefice the Incumbent whereof shall be resident in any such Benefice, which any such Spiritual Person or Persons as aforesaid, chargeable with the said annual Tax, is or are bound to pay or allow in respect of his or their Archbishoprick, Bishoprick, Archdeaconry, Deanery, Prebend, Benefice, or other Possession Spiritual as aforesaid; and in case there shall be no such House or Glebe House or Place of Residence thereon or therein respectively belonging, then that the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall deduct and allow such Sums as shall appear to be the annual Rent or Value of the House or Place of Residence occupied by each such Spiritual Person, or such lesser Sum as the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall in their Discretion think fit; and in case any such Spiritual Person so chargeable as aforesaid shall have expended or laid out in building or improving any House, Offices, or Place of Residence as aforesaid, or shall have paid or secured, or shall be chargeable with to his or their Predecessors respectively, or his or their respective Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, any Sums or Sums of Money on account of Money laid out or expended thereupon on any such Buildings or Improvements, then in every such Case the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall from Time to Time, in and from such Valuation, deduct and allow, as a set-off thereof, in the following Manner and according to the following Rate; (that is to say) the annual Sum or Allowance of Ten Pounds in the Hundred for all and every the Sum or Sums so expended or laid out in such Building or Improvement, or paid or secured to be paid, or with respect to such Person as aforesaid shall be chargeable to his Predecessor, or his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, as the Case may be, on account of Money so theretofore laid out or expended on such Building or Improvement as aforesaid, and which shall not be by Law recoverable by such Person, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, from or against his Successor; and the annual Sum or Allowance of Five Pounds in every Hundred for all and every the Sum or Sums so expended or laid out, or paid or secured to be paid, or wherewith any such Person shall be chargeable to his Predecessor, or his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, as aforesaid, on account of Money so theretofore laid out or expended as aforesaid, as the Case may be, and which shall be by Law recoverable by such Person, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, from or against his Successors.

Certain Sums chargeable on Laymen, to be deducted from the Valuation.

XVI. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall not, from or in such Valuation, deduct or allow for any Sum or Sums of Money so laid out or expended, or paid or secured to be paid, or wherewith any of the Persons aforesaid shall or may be chargeable as aforesaid, unless such Sum and Sums shall be contained, included, and mentioned in the Certificate of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, or of the Archbishop or Bishop of the Province or Diocese respectively, as the Case may be, in such Cases given or directed to be given, under or by virtue of any Statute now or hereafter in force or to be made, in order to enable any Archbishop, Bishop, or other of the Persons aforesaid to recover against his Successor the Sums above mentioned, or any of them, or any Part thereof.

No Sums shall be deducted unless mentioned in Certificate.

XVII. And he it further enacted, That if the said Tax, Rate, or Assessment, or any Part thereof, payable by any Body or Person, shall be in arrear and unpaid more than a reasonable Time after the same shall have been demanded by or on the Part of the Commissioners under this Act, it shall and may be lawful for such Commissioners in every such Case to apply to the Court of Chancery or Exchequer in Ireland, by Petition in a summary Way, for Relief in that Behalf; and such Court shall and may, on the Hearing of such Petition, and upon the Production of a Certificate under the Corporate Seal of such Commissioners, of such Tax being in arrear and unpaid as aforesaid, in a summary Way, with or without Reference to any Master or other Officer of said Court, order Process of Sequestration (after hearing such Matters, if any, as may be alleged in answer to such Application, by Affidavit or otherwise, upon a Day to be fixed for that Purpose,) to issue out of said Court, directed to Sequestrators to be named by or on behalf of such Commissioners, authorizing and requiring such Sequestrators forthwith to enter into the Possession of and take and receive the Rents, Issues, and Profits of all and every the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments of or belonging to any such Body or Person in his or their Ecclesiastical Capacity or Character, and all and every the Tithes, Modons, Compositions for Tithes, Salaries, Stipends, Fees, and all other Ecclesiastical Endowments and Profits whatsoever of or belonging to the same respectively, or any Part or Parts thereof as to the said Court shall seem fully sufficient for the due payment and satisfaction of the said Tax, Rate, or Assessment, and any Part thereof.

For enforcing Payment of Rates or Assessments.

fully paid and satisfied the said yearly Tax and every Part thereof which shall be then, or which shall at any Time pending such Sequestration, remain or become due and payable, together with lawful Interest for the same from the Time when every such Sum or Sums ought respectively to have been paid, and all Costs and Charges and Expenses whatsoever attending such Process and Sequestration as aforesaid; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Court to proceed against all Persons disobeying or opposing such Process, or in any Manner hindering or preventing the due Execution thereof, and to act in all Matters connected with and consequent upon such Sequestration in the same Manner as in other Cases in which Sequestrations are or shall be issued out of said Court pursuant to the Orders of said Court.

Sequestrations
under this Act.

XXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That any Sequestration issued pursuant to the Provisions of this Act shall be preferred, and the said Commissioners under this Act shall be paid and satisfied the Sum and Sums to be recovered thereby, and every Part thereof, in preference to any other Process or Process whatsoever, notwithstanding any Sequestration, Judgment, Execution, or other Process whatsoever issued or begun for such other Person or Persons; any thing herein or in any other Law or Statute contained to the contrary hereof notwithstanding.

If incumbent die before Gale Day, Tax to be apportioned.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Archbishop, Bishop, or other Person charged or chargeable with the Payment of said yearly Tax shall happen to die, or be lawfully excused, translated, promoted, removed, or put from his Dignity, Benefice, Office, or Promotion Spiritual, before any one of the Gale Days hereby appointed for the Payment of the said Tax, then such Archbishop, Bishop, or Person, or his Executors or Administrators, in the Case may be, shall only be charged and chargeable with a Proportion of such Tax, according to the Time he may have been entitled to or enjoyed the Profits of such Dignity, Benefice, Perpetual Curacy, or Office, or Promotion Spiritual as aforesaid; and the Successor to such Dignity, Benefice, Office, or Promotion Spiritual shall become liable to the Remainder of such Tax accruing due on each Gale Day: And provided further, that in any Case in which it shall be made to appear to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners that any Spiritual Person chargeable with the said Tax shall not have received the Profits of the Dignity, Benefice, Perpetual Curacy or Office, or Promotion Spiritual, in respect whereof he may be so chargeable, then and in such Case it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to extend the Time for the Payment of such Tax until such Profits shall be received, or in case such Spiritual Person shall die, or be removed, or promoted from his Dignity, Benefice, Perpetual Curacy, or Office, or Promotion Spiritual as aforesaid, without being entitled to receive any of such Profits, then and in such Case to charge and recover the same of and from his Successor therein, wherever such Successor shall have received the said Profits; any thing herein-before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Arrears of Tax due on Death of such Person to such as a Judgment Debt.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That the Proportion of said annual Tax due on the Death of any Archbishop, Bishop, or other Person as aforesaid shall be deemed and taken to be and shall rank as a Judgment Debt of such deceased Archbishop, Bishop, or Person as aforesaid, and be paid as such, as if a Judgment had been duly acknowledged by or entered against him during his Lifetime by the said Commissioners for the Arrears of said Tax which shall be so due as aforesaid, and immediately after all other legal Judgments, Crown Bonds, and Recognizances entered up against, acknowledged, or executed by law during his Lifetime.

Names of Commissioners to be entitled to Administration.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners under this Act shall be deemed and taken to be, in every Ecclesiastical Court in the United Kingdom, Judgment Creditors of any Archbishop, Bishop, or other such Person as aforesaid chargeable with any Arrears of said annual Tax; and in case the Executors, or next of Kin, or Ordinary Legatees of such Archbishop, Bishop, or other Person as aforesaid shall refuse or neglect to make out Probate or Letters of Administration to him, the said Commissioners shall be entitled to have Administration of his Goods and Chattels, Rights and Credits, granted or consented unto their Names or Nominees in such Manner and Form, but subject to the same Regulations as far as may be, as and under which Administrations are usually granted to Creditors of other deceased Persons, notwithstanding that no Affidavit or other Evidence shall be made or given in or to such Ecclesiastical Court of any Debt being actually due to such Commissioners: Provided always, that a Certificate under the Corporation Seal of the said Commissioners shall be produced to such Ecclesiastical Court, alleging that a Debt or account of Arrears of said annual Tax is due to such Commissioners, and that they require such Administration to be granted to the Person to be therein named.

Archbishops and Bishops to
taken, &c.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That the several Archbishops and Bishops of Great Brittain, from and after the passing of this Act, on the First Day of November and First Day of May in every Year, or at the least within Fourteen Days after, make Returns to the said Commissioners of all, how many, and what Archdeacons, Deans, Provosts, Masters, Wardens, Prebendaries, Rectors, Parsons, Vicars, Perpetual Curates, Incumbents, or other Spiritual Persons, by whatever Name called, known, or described, have been installed, admitted, instituted, collated, or inducted (and of and upon Gift, Grant, or Promotion such Installations, Admissions, Institutions, or Inductions has taken place,) into Dignities, Benefices, Curacies, Chapelries, Offices, or Promotions Spiritual, by whatever Name called, known, or described as aforesaid, and by what Names and Surnames they were so installed, admitted, instituted, collated, or inducted, and each of them were singly and separately called and known by, together with the Day and Year of the Installation, Admission, Institution, Collation, or Induction of each of them, and in what County and Counties within their respective Dioceses or Dioceses and Chapels, or other Dignities, Benefices, or Offices, or Promotions Spiritual, by whatever Name called, known, or described, be and are annexed, to the Dates of the said respective Returns.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Powers and Authorities, Provisions, Regulations, Privileges, Clauses, Matters, and Things in this Act contained, in relation to Bishops in their Dioceses, shall extend and be construed to extend to the Archbishops in the respective Dioceses of which they are Bishops, and also in their own peculiar Jurisdictions, as fully and effectually as if the Archbishops were named with the Bishops in every such Case.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That every Archbishop and Bishop within the Limits of whose Province or Diocese respectively any Benefice or Office or Promotion Spiritual, by whatever Name called, known, or described respectively, except or peculiar, shall be locally situate, shall have, use, and exercise all the Powers and Authorities necessary for the due Execution by them respectively of all the Purposes and Provisions of this Act, and for enforcing the same with regard thereto respectively, as such Archbishop and Bishop respectively would have used and exercised if the same were not except or peculiar, but were subject in all respects to the Jurisdiction of such Archbishop or Bishop; and where any Benefice or Promotion Spiritual as aforesaid, except or peculiar, shall be locally situate within the Limits of more than One Province or Diocese, or where the same or any of them shall be locally situate between the Limits of any Two or more such Dioceses, the Archbishop or Bishop of the Cathedral Church in whose Province or Diocese the Parish Church of the same respectively shall be situate in local Situations shall have, use, and exercise all and every the Powers and Authorities which are necessary for the due Execution of the Provisions of this Act, and enforcing the same with regard thereto respectively, as such Archbishop or Bishop would have used and exercised if the same were not except or peculiar, but were subject in all respects to the Jurisdiction of such Archbishop or Bishop respectively, and the same, for all the Purposes of this Act, shall be deemed and taken to be within the Limits of the Province or Diocese of such Archbishop or Bishop: Provided that the Peculiar belonging to any Archbishop or Bishop, though locally situate in another Diocese, shall continue subject to the Archbishop or Bishop to whom they belong, as well for the Purposes of this Act as for all other Purposes of Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction.

XXX. And be it enacted, That when any Two or more Dignities, Benefices, Vicarages, or Perpetual Curacies shall be held by One Incumbent, that the same shall be valued and taxed as a single Benefice: Provided always, that in case any Dignity or Benefice be attached or annexed to or held together with any Archbishop or Bishoprick, such Dignity or Benefice, and such Archbishop or Bishoprick, shall be separately valued and taxed according to the respective Scales contained in the Schedule to this Act annexed, and as if such Benefice or Dignity, and such Archbishop or Bishoprick, were held and enjoyed by several Persons.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That whenever and as often as any of the Archbishopricks or Bishopricks is or shall happen to be void, that then the Dean of the Cathedral Church where the See of such Archbishoprick or Bishoprick being void shall happen to be, or the Vicar General of the Diocese, being in Holy Orders, or any Archdeacon of the Diocese, according to the Direction or Order of said Commissioners, to be made or given in Writing under the Seal of the said Commissioners, shall, during the Vacancy thereof, be charged and chargeable and is hereby required to do or cause to be done all and every Thing and Things for the due Execution of this Act, within the Diocese of such Archbishoprick or Bishoprick, as the same Archbishop or Bishop of the See being void should have done, according as it is limited and appointed by this Act, or by any thing herein contained: Provided always, that during the Vacancy of the Archbishoprick of Dublin it shall be lawful for said Commissioners to order, direct, and appoint the Dean of St. Peter's, or the Vicar General of such Diocese, being in Holy Orders, or Archdeacon of Dublin, to do and perform all and every the Matters and Things for the due Execution of this Act within such Diocese as such Archbishop should have done, according as it is limited and appointed by this Act, or any thing herein contained.

XXXII. And whereas His Majesty has been graciously pleased to signify that He has placed at the Disposal of Parliament His latest in the Temporalities and Civilty thereof of the several Bishopricks and Archbishopricks mentioned in this Act and the Schedule (B.) thereto annexed; be it therefore enacted, That the Bishoprick of Worcester, now void, shall from and after the passing of this Act, and the other Bishopricks named in the First Column of the Schedule (B.) in this Act annexed shall, when and as the same may severally become void, be thereafter united to and held together with the Bishoprick or Archbishoprick mentioned in conjunction therewith respectively in the Second Column of the said Schedule (B.); and that the Archbishops or Bishops of the Archbishopricks or Bishopricks in such Second Column named shall, at such Times respectively as before mentioned, be and become, by virtue of this Act, and without further Grant, Institution, or Ceremony whatsoever, Bishops respectively of the said Bishopricks named in such First Column in conjunction therewith, and shall have and exercise all and every the Ecclesiastical Patronages and Jurisdictions in appointing, collating, and presenting to all and every the Dignities, Rectories, Vicarages, Curacies, Chapels, or other Offices or Promotions, and all other Jurisdictions whatsoever, by whatever Name called, known, or described, heretofore had, used, exercised, and enjoyed by the respective Bishops of the said Bishopricks in the First Column of the said Schedule (B.) named, as also the Right of examining and appointing to all and every the Offices of Chancellor, Vicar General, Official, Præpositus, Registrar, and all other Ecclesiastical Offices of or belonging or appertaining to such Bishopricks, and the same, together with the Right of Enfeoffment, the Right and Succession, shall at all Times thereafter grant each such Bishoprick the Bishoprick of Kildare, and that the then Bishop of Kildare shall be and become, by virtue of this Act, and without further Grant, Installation, or Ceremony whatsoever, Bishop of Ardfagh, and have and exercise all and every the Ecclesiastical Patronages and Jurisdictions in appointing, collating, and presenting to all and every the Dignities, Rectories, Vicarages, Curacies, Chapels, or other Offices or Promotions, by whatever Name called, known, or described, heretofore lawfully had, used, exercised, and enjoyed by the Archbishop of Tuam as Bishop of Ardfagh, as also the Right of nominating and appointing to all and every the Offices of Chancellor, Vicar General, Official, Principal Registrar, and all other Ecclesiastical Offices of or belonging to the said Bishoprick of Ardfagh; and His most Excellent Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, shall at all Times thereafter grant, to be held by one and the same Person, the said Bishopricks of Kildare and Ardfagh, together with each other Bishoprick as shall under the Provisions of this Act be appointed to be held together with each Bishoprick of Kildare.

XLVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That all and singular the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments together with all and singular the Tithes, Rents, and Emoluments, to the said Bishoprick of Ardfagh appertaining and belonging, shall, from and after the Time when the said new Archbishoprick See of Tuam shall become void as aforesaid, and by the same are lawfully transferred to and vested in the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners and their Successors for ever, to and for the like Trusts, Uses, and Purposes, with the like Powers, and subject in all respects to such and the like Charges, Conditions, and Regulations, as herein-before provided in respect of the Bishopricks mentioned in the First Column of the said Schedule (B.) to this Act annexed.

XLIX. And be it enacted, That all and singular the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, with all and singular the Tithes, Rents, and Emoluments whatsoever, appertaining or belonging to the Preceptory of Tully or Deanery of Christ Church, heretofore held and enjoyed in commendam or otherwise by the Bishop of Kildare for the Time being, as Dean of Christ Church, or by whatever other Title, shall be deemed and taken to be, for the Purposes of this Act, Part of the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, Tithes, Rents, and Emoluments, appertaining and belonging to the said Bishoprick of Kildare, and be in like Manner and Time transferred to and vested in the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners and their Successors, and in all respects subject to such and the like Provisions.

L. And be it further enacted, That the said Deanery of Christ Church shall, from and after the next Avoidance thereof, be united to and held together with the Deanery of Saint Patrick's; and that the then Dean of the Cathedral of Saint Patrick's in the Archbishopric of Dublin shall, and his Successors for ever shall be and become, by virtue of this Act, and without further Grant, Installation, Election, or other Ceremony whatsoever, Dean and Deans of Christ Church for ever, and have and exercise all and every the Rights, Privileges, Jurisdiction, and Authority appertaining to the said Deanery of Christ Church, heretofore lawfully had, used, and enjoyed by the Deans thereof: Provided nevertheless, that all and every the Ecclesiastical Patronage in appointing or presenting to Benefices now belonging, in his sole and separate Right, to the Dean of Christ Church, shall, from and after the next Avoidance of such Deanery, vest in and be exercised by the Archbishop of Dublin and his Successors for ever.

L. And whereas an Act was passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Fourteenth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intitled *An Act to regulate the Bishops of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in and to the United Kingdom or the Part of Ireland, shall be amended and returned to the said Parliament; and the said Act of the Parliament of Ireland was incorporated into and made Part of an Act passed in the Parliament of England in the same Year, intitled *An Act for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, and by force of the said Two Acts the Right of sitting in the House of Lords of the United Parliament, as between the Lords Spiritual of Ireland, stands regulated according to a certain Rotation by the said Acts appointed to take place among the Archbishoprick Sees, from Session to Session, and according to another like Rotation appointed to take place among the Episcopal Sees: And whereas the Enactments herein-before made for reducing the Number of the Archbishoprick Sees in Ireland, and for the Union of certain of the Episcopal Sees, render it necessary to make Provisions so as to accommodate the said Rotation to such Enactments: be it therefore enacted, That when and as the new Archbishoprick Sees of Cashel and Tuam shall severally become void, they and each of them respectively shall thereafter cease to be included in the Rotation by the said Acts established amongst the Archbishoprick Sees, and shall be included in the Rotation by the said Acts established to be observed amongst the Episcopal Sees, and therein take place next before the Episcopal See last in the Order of Rotation of the Episcopal Sees the Bishops whereof may have sat in Parliament for the Session last previous; and the Rotation by the said Acts appointed to take place amongst the Archbishoprick Sees shall, in case of such such Avoidance as aforesaid, proceed in the Archbishoprick whose See is next in Rotation to the Archbishoprick See becoming void or aforesaid.

LII. And be it further enacted, That in the Case of the Bishoprick of Waterford now void, and in the Case of such and singular of the other Bishopricks named in the First Column of the Schedule to this Act annexed, when and as they shall become respectively void, or united to any other Bishoprick, the Rotation by the said recited Acts appointed to take place among the Episcopal Sees shall proceed to the Bishop whose See is next in Rotation to the said See of Waterford or other See being or becoming void, or united to any other Bishoprick as aforesaid; and such See of Waterford, or other See being or becoming void, or united to any other Bishoprick as aforesaid, shall for ever afterwards be excluded from being included out of such Rotation.

Temporality of Ardfagh united to the Commissioners under this Act.

Temporality of the Deanery of Christ Church to be several Part of the Tenements of the Bishoprick of Kildare.

Dean of St Patrick's to be Dean of Christ Church.

Patronage of Dean of Christ Church to rest in Archbishop of Dublin.

Rotation of Archbishopricks sitting in Parliament.

30 & 41 G. 3. c. 67.

Rotation of Bishops.

Survey of the said Archbishop.

LIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That, save as herein specifically provided, the Order of Retention by the said recited Acts established shall remain unchanged, but subject always to the Regulations thereby made in case any Spiritual Lord should be a Temporal Peer of the United Kingdom, or being a Temporal Peer of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland should be elected by the Lords Temporal to be one of the Representatives of the Lords Temporal.

Revenues of Armagh and Down reduced.

LIV. And whereas the Revenues of the Archbishoprick of Armagh and the Bishoprick of Down have increased in such Manner that, without affording the just and competent Support of the said Bishops, a Partion thereof may be beneficially applied for the other Purposes of the Established Church in Ireland, in manner hereinafter mentioned; be it therefore further enacted, That when and so soon as the said Archbishoprick of Armagh shall become void, the Successor thereto, and his Successors for ever, Archbishop of Armagh, shall, from and out of the Revenues of the said Archbishoprick, pay over to the said Commissioners under this Act the annual Sum of Four thousand and five hundred Pounds, the same to be paid by Two equal Payments on each First Day of July and First Day of January in every Year, the first Payment or Amount of each annual Tax to be made on the First Day of July or First Day of January, as may happen, after the first half yearly Payment of the Revenue of such Archbishoprick of Armagh shall have become due and payable to such Successor of the now Archbishop of Armagh; and that the now Bishop of Down, having freely assented thereto, shall, from and out of the Revenues of the said Bishoprick, pay over to the said Commissioners under this Act the annual Sum of Four thousand and one hundred and sixty Pounds; and when and so soon as the said Bishoprick of Down shall become void, the Successor thereto, and his Successors for ever, Bishops of Down, shall, from and out of the Revenues of the said Bishoprick, pay over to the said Commissioners under this Act the annual Sum of Six thousand one hundred and sixty Pounds, the same to be paid by Two equal Payments on each First Day of July and First Day of January in every Year, the first Payment thereof to be made on the First Day of January in the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four; and the same in like Manner to be paid to the said Commissioners by the said Archbishop of Armagh and Bishops of Down shall be applied to such and the like Purposes as the Proceeds of said Tax hereby voted in the said Commissioners and the Revenue of such Bishopricks so to be applied with other Bishopricks, and under like Rules and Regulations.

Bishops of Down and Armagh assigned their annual Tax in respect of same paid by them.

LV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the now Bishop of Down and his Successors, and the Successors of the now Archbishop of Armagh, shall not be liable, in respect of the said Sums so by them to be respectively paid to the said Commissioners, to be rated, taxed, or assessed in or to the annual Tax herein-before appointed to be imposed and levied; any thing herein-before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Commissioners
may receive
sequestration

LVI. And be it enacted, That if at any Time the said Sums hereby directed to be paid by the said Archbishop or Bishop shall be in arrear and unpaid for Six Months next after the same shall have become due and payable as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to recover the same by Process of Sequestration, to be applied for and issued in like Manner as herein-before directed in case any Archbishop or Bishop shall fail to make Payment of the annual Rate, Tax, or Assessment by this Act authorized to be imposed and levied, and subject in all respects to such and the like Provisions.

Payments to be
same.

LVII. And be it enacted, That while and so long as the Temporality of the said Archbishoprick and Bishoprick respectively shall at any Time be in the Custody of His most Excellent Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, the said annual Payments shall be made to the said Commissioners in like Manner as the same are hereby directed to be made by the Archbishop or Bishop thereof respectively while the said Sees are full.

Summs now due
First Fruits on vacant Arches to be paid by
till paid.

LVIII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Sum and Sums of Money due and payable at the passing of this Act by any Archbishop, Dean, Prebendary, Minister, Vicar, Incumbent, Perpetual Curate, Parson, Vicar, or other Spiritual Person, by whatever Name called, Laico, or otherwise, on account of First Fruits and Arrears thereof, and any Sum or Sums at any Time lawfully lent and advanced by, and now payable or hereafter to become payable, pursuant to the Laws in force in Ireland, to the Trustees and Commissioners of the First Fruits in Ireland, for purchasing, building, rebuilding, improving, repairing, enlarging, or enlarging Glebe or other Houses or Offices, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be and the same and every Part thereof are hereby vested in and transferred and made payable to the Commissioners under this Act, and their Successors, to be by them applied and disposed of to, for, and upon the Purposes of this Act hereafter mentioned, and subject to the like Rules and Regulations as are herein mentioned, as to the Proceeds of the said annual Tax hereby voted in the said Commissioners.

Summs now due
and now owing,
or to be paid Trustees, in Name of and by Commissioners.

LIX. And be it further enacted, That all and every Sum of Money so actually due on account of First Fruits and Arrears thereof, and all and every Sum and Sums so lent and advanced as aforesaid for building, rebuilding, improving, repairing, enlarging, or enlarging Glebe or other Houses and Offices, and which are or shall become due and payable as aforesaid, and all and every Sum or Sums of Money due or to become due on any Account whatever to the said Trustees and Commissioners of First Fruits in Ireland, other than the Sums by this Act entitled, shall and may be used for and recovered and levied, by or under the Direction of the Commissioners of this Act and their Successors, and in their Name as aforesaid, by the same Ways, Means, Remedies, and Processes, and at the Times, as the same might have been respectively used for and recovered and levied by or for the said Trustees and Commissioners of First Fruits in Ireland of this Act and shall and may equally be used for all the Purposes, Remedies, and and Authorities given or mentioned in any Act or Acts of Parliament, or otherwise provided or allowed by Law, for the Recovery thereof respectively, shall, until all and every such Sums and Sums shall be recovered and paid as aforesaid, continue and be in full Force and Effect as if the same were herein re-enacted, and as if the Commissioners of this Act had been named in every such Act or Acts, or in any Bond or Bonds or other Securities therein respectively mentioned, and in pursuance thereof respectively executed and entered into, instead of the Trustees and Commissioners of the First Fruits in Ireland.

LX. And be it further enacted, That all and every Sum and Sums of Money and Property of every Kind and Description, and Securities for Money, belonging to and now in the Hands or Possession of or at the Disposal of the Trustees and Commissioners of First Fruits in Ireland, or any of their Officers, an account of the First Fruits, or on account of any Gift, Grant, or Loan from the Commissioners of the Treasury in pursuance of any Act of Parliament heretofore made, or on any other Account, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be forthwith, and the same and every of them are hereby directed to be paid over and transferred to, and are hereby to all Intents and Purposes vested in, the said Commissioners under this Act and their Successors for ever, subject nevertheless, in the first place, to all Grants and subsisting Contracts made by the said Board of First Fruits before the passing of this Act, to be by them applied and disposed of in and for the several Purposes of this Act as heretofore mentioned, and subject to the like Rules and Regulations as heretofore mentioned with respect to the said annual Tax hereby vested in the said Commissioners.

LXI. And whereas the several Sums respectively bequeathed by Doctor Hugh Smiler and Doctor Richard Robinson, formerly Lord Archbishops of Armagh, towards buying of Glebes and augmenting poor Livings in Ireland, were and are vested in the said Trustees and Commissioners of First Fruits in Ireland for the Purposes aforesaid; be it therefore enacted, That the same and all the Proceeds thereof, or so much thereof as remains unapplied to the aforesaid Purposes, and the Funds, Parliamentary or otherwise, Loans, Estates, and Mortgages or other Securities wherein the same or any Part thereof have been laid out or invested, shall be and the same are hereby transferred to, vested in, and made payable to the Commissioners under this Act appointed, and their Successors for ever, to be by them kept distinct from all other Funds, and applied and disposed of, immediately from and after the passing of this Act, towards the Payment of such annual Salaries, save as herein-after excepted, as may have been heretofore lawfully granted by the said Trustees and Commissioners of First Fruits to any Incumbent, Curate, or Minister for the Augmentation of any Benefice, Living, or Curacy, and towards buying of Glebes and augmenting poor Livings in Ireland, and to all other Purposes, but in the Manner and subject and according to the Regulations and Directions hereafter mentioned and appointed with respect to the other Funds to be applied for such Purposes.

LXII. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners under this Act are hereby authorized and empowered from Time to Time, at their Discretion, to lay out or invest all or any Part of such Moneys as shall at any Time hereafter, by or under the Provisions of this Act, come to or be in their Hands or at their Disposal, in the Purchase of Government or Parliamentary Funds, Stocks, or Securities, and or other, either in England or Ireland, and from Time to Time change, transfer, or sell out such Stocks, Funds, or Securities, or any Part thereof, as they may find necessary or convenient.

LXIII. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Rents, Issues, and Profits of all Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, and the said annual Tax and the Proceeds thereof, and all and every Sum and Sums of Money and Securities for Money, vested in or which shall accrue to or in any Manner come into or be in the Hands, Power, Custody, or Possession, or at the Disposal of the said Commissioners and their Successors, under and by virtue of this Act, and all Incomes, Dividends, Profits, and Proceeds thereof, or any Part thereof, (save and except the Properties and Funds respectively bequeathed by Doctor Hugh Smiler and Doctor Richard Robinson, and heretofore vested in the said Trustees and Commissioners of First Fruits in Ireland as heretofore mentioned, and the Interest, Dividends, and Proceeds thereof respectively, and also save and except such other Funds and Properties as may be hereafter bequeathed to or vested in the said Commissioners under this Act, and their Successors, for any special Purposes,) shall be and the same are hereby declared to be applicable, and shall be applied in the Manner and for the Purposes following. (That is to say,) for the providing, in such Manner and Proportions, and subject to such Regulations, in the said Commissioners shall deem fitting, Things necessary for the Celebration of Divine Service in the Church or Chapel of every Parish, Vicar, Perpetual Curacy, or Chapelry, or Chapel of Ease in Ireland, as required and authorized by any Bulw or Canon in Force in England or Ireland, and also for the Payment of the Salaries for Maintenance of the Parish Clerks or Sextons, or the Clerks or Sextons of any Chapelry or Chapel of Ease, and also for defraying such Expenses of building, rebuilding, enlarging, or repairing any Church or Chapel, or house and maintaining any Churchyard as aforesaid, as have been heretofore defrayed by Vestry Assessment in Ireland, and also for supplying such Parts or Proportions of the Expenses of providing for the said several Matters aforesaid, and for putting into and keeping in repair Cathedral and Parochial Churches, as the said Commissioners are hereafter directed to contribute for such Purposes: Provided always, that in Cases such Parish Clerks or Sextons shall and may be appointed by the Messors, and by him responsible, with the Consent of the Bishop, for any Misconduct.

LXIV. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where, under and by virtue of an Act made in the Twenty-first Year of His Majesty King George the Second, and in the said Act, any Moneys now in the Hands of said Trustees or Officers vested in Commissioners.

Private Donations towards Building to be vested in Commissioners, and kept distinct.

Commissioners to put Moneys out of Interest.

20 G. 5. (1.)

*Benefices belonging to Deans, Archdeacons, Rectors, and other Members of Cathedral Churches, and for appropriating others to their Use, and also for the Removal of the Sites of ruined Cathedral Churches, and for Parochial Church shall have been or shall be made, or shall have been made by Usage or Custom, Cathedral and Parochial, and in all Cases where, under and by virtue of an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intitled An Act for the repairing of Cathedral Churches in Cases where the Parochial Churches have been long in Ruins, any Cathedral Church shall have been or shall be made use of as a Parochial Church, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby required, to contribute to the Repairs of such Cathedral and Parochial Churches, in such Proportion as has been agreed upon by and between the Dean and Chapter, or Chapter, of such Cathedral Church, and by the Protestant Inhabitants of the Parish or Union in which such Church is situate, that the Inhabitants thereof should contribute to the rebuilding, enlarging, and putting into and keeping in repair of such Cathedral and Parochial Churches; and if it shall happen that no such Agreement as aforesaid shall have been made by and between the Parties aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, and the Privy Council thereof, upon the Petition of the Dean and Chapter or of the said Commissioners, finally to adjust and ascertain the Proportions in which such Deans and Chapters, or Chapters, and said Commissioners shall so respectively contribute for the Purposes aforesaid; and the same necessary and sufficient for such Purposes shall be from Time to Time appointed and paid accordingly by the said Deans and Chapters, or Chapters, and said Commissioners respectively, subject however to the Regulations hereafter mentioned with respect to Monies to be expended in such Purposes.*

Certain Parts of
repealed

LXV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, and save as herein-after provided, so much and such Parts of an Act made in the Parliament of the United Kingdom in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws which regulate the Levy and Application of Church Rates and Parish Rates, and the Election of Churchwardens and the Maintenance of Parish Clergy in Ireland, as herein-after mentioned, shall be and the same are hereby repealed, (that is to say,) so much and such Parts of the said Act as authorize and enable the Archbishop or Bishop of any Diocese wherein any Church which shall be made Cathedral and Parochial, or any Cathedral Church which shall have been made use of as a Parochial Church, under the said recited Acts made in the Twenty-first Year of King George the Second, or the Thirty-sixth Year of King George the Third, in estate, to adjust and ascertain the Proportions in which the Deans and Chapters and Inhabitants shall respectively contribute as aforesaid to the rebuilding, enlarging, or keeping in repair of such Churches; and also so much and such Parts of the said Act as authorize the making or levying of any Church Rate or Parish Rate or Assessment for any of the following Purposes, namely, the building, rebuilding, enlarging, or repairing of the Church or Chapel of any Parish, Union of Parishes, or Chapel, or of any Cathedral and Parochial Church, or Cathedral made use of as a Parochial Church, the providing Things necessary for the Celebration of Divine Service therein or in any of them, as regulated and authorized by any Statute or Canon in force in England or Ireland, the providing a Salary for the Maintenance of any Parochial Clerk or Sexton, or the Clerk of any Chapel or Chapel of Ease, or the defraying of the Expenses of such building, rebuilding, enlarging, or repairing, or other necessary Charges, or any of them, or the taking of any other Proceedings in relation to such Rate, Tax, or Assessment, for any of the foregoing Purposes; and from and after the Commencement of this Act it shall not be lawful for any Vestry called or holden in or for any Parish, Union, or Chapel, or Place in Ireland, or for any Person or Persons, to make or levy any Rate or Assessment for any Church Purpose whatsoever; but all such Rates or Assessments upon any Parish, Union, Chapel, or Place, or the Inhabitants thereof or any of them, for any of the said Purposes, and all Proceedings for the making, assessing, applying, or levying the same, shall, from and after the Commencement of this Act, wholly cease and determine; any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that every Rate, Assessment, or Apportionment for any Church Purpose whatsoever shall be and shall be deemed to be by all Courts of Justice totally void so far as much thereof as provides for the aforesaid Church Purposes or any of them, any thing in the said Act of the Seventh of George the Fourth to the contrary notwithstanding; provided that nothing herein contained shall be deemed, taken, or construed to make void the said Rate or Assessment as to so much thereof as shall have been assessed or applied for any other Purpose.

Loans by Means of First Fruits for building
repealed.

LXVI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act it shall not be lawful to make, apply, or levy any Rate or Assessment in any Parish, Union, Chapel, or Place, for the Purpose of repaying, by Instalments or otherwise, any Loan or Loans heretofore made by the Trustees and Commissioners of the First Fruits of Ecclesiastical Benefices in Ireland, for the Purpose of building, rebuilding, enlarging, or repairing the Church or Chapel of any such Parish, Union, Chapel, or Place, but that all Sums so lent and advanced and remaining unpaid shall be and the same are hereby remitted and discharged, and all Obligations to the King's Majesty or otherwise, in the Nature of collateral Securities, for the Repayment of such Advances, shall be deemed and taken to be satisfied; provided that nothing herein contained shall affect or repeal any Provision contained in any Act or Acts heretofore made in order to enforce the due Application of any Sum or Sums of Money so advanced, or the refunding thereof if not so applied.

Yearly Estimates of Expenses to be transmitted to the Treasury.

LXVII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act the Incumbent, or, in his Absence, the officiating Curate or Minister officiating as Curate of every Parish, Union, or Chapel, or of every such Cathedral

Cathedral and Parochial Church, or Cathedral used as a Parish Church, in Zealand, shall and he and they are hereby required, on or before the First Day of November in this present Year, and on or before the First Day of June in each and every succeeding Year, to prepare or cause to be prepared an Estimate of such Sum or Sums of Money as will be necessary, according to his or their Belief, for the ordinary Repairs of the Church or Chapel of such Parish, Union, Chapelry, or Perpetual Curacy, or of such Cathedral and Parochial Church, or Cathedral used as aforesaid respectively, for the ensuing Year, and for providing Things necessary for the Celebration of Divine Service in every such Church or Chapel of any such Parish, Union, Chapelry, or Perpetual Curacy, for each ensuing Year, which Estimate shall contain the several Items and Particulars of all the Matters and Things for which such Sum or Sums shall or may be required necessary for such Church or Chapel; and such Estimate shall be transmitted by such Person or Persons whose Duty it is to prepare the same to the Ordinary of the Diocese on or before the First Day of December in this present Year, and on or before the First Day of July in each and every succeeding Year, together with a Certificate under the Hand or Hands of such Person or Persons, stating that according to his or their Belief the several Matters and Things contained in such Estimate are or will be necessary or proper to be done or executed or provided for the Use of or in the Church or Chapel of such Parish, Union, Chapelry, or Perpetual Curacy, or such Cathedral and Parochial Church, or Cathedral used as aforesaid, as the Case may be, and that the Charges for the same and every of them as contained in such Estimate are reasonable and proper Charges: Provided always, that such Estimate, except in the Case of Cathedral Churches, before it be sent to the Ordinary of the Diocese, shall be first approved of by the Rural Dean of the Deanery in which the Church or Chapel to which such Estimate shall relate shall be locally situate, which Approval shall be certified by Signature affixed to such Estimate.

LXVIII. And be it further enacted, That upon the Receipt of such Estimate and Certificate as aforesaid the Archbishop, Bishop, or other Ordinary of the Diocese whosoever such Church or Chapel shall be situate, or in case of the Illness or Absence from Zealand of each Archbishop, Bishop, or other Ordinary, or during the Vacancy of the See, then that the Vice-Governor of such Diocese shall and he and they are hereby required, when such Estimate shall have been approved of by him, to signify his Approbation thereof by certifying such Approbation at the Foot of such Estimate, and to transmit such Estimate, with such Certificate of Approbation thereof, to the said Commissioners, who are hereby required to take the same into their Consideration; and they are hereby authorized and required to grant the Amount required by such Estimate and Certificate for the Purposes aforesaid, or any of them, or such lesser Sum as they in their Discretion shall think fit, and to issue and pay the same to such Person or Persons, in such Manner, and subject to such Regulations as they shall think fit.

LXIX. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall pay or cause to be paid on the First Day of September in each Year, in such Manner as they shall think fit, for the Maintenance of all and every the Person or Persons who at the passing of this Act shall be Clerk or Clerks of any Parish, Union, or Chapelry, or of any Chapel of Ease, (not being within the County of the City of Dublin or the Suburbs thereof,) in which there shall be a Church or Chapel fit for the Celebration of Divine Service according to the Rites and Ceremonies of the United Churches of England and Ireland, the following Salaries, so long as such Person or Persons shall be and continue to be such Clerk or Clerks as aforesaid, that is to say, for the Clerk of every such Parish in the Church or Chapel whereof there shall be Divine Service usually celebrated on Sundays and Festival Days and also on Two common Days at least in the Week, a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds nor less than Ten Pounds, and in all other Cases a Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds nor less than Five Pounds, as and for the Maintenance and Maintenance of every such Clerk respectively for the Year next ensuing, and in satisfaction and full of all other Fees, Dues, and Allowances whatsoever alleged or claimed to be payable to such Parish Clerk under any Usage or Custom.

LXX. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners are hereby authorized and required to grant any Sum or Sums, not exceeding the Sum of Twenty Pounds and Ten Pounds respectively above mentioned, which they in their Discretion shall think fit, as and for the Maintenance of any Person or Persons who shall from and after the passing of this Act be appointed to the Office of such Clerk or Clerks of such Churches or Chapels as aforesaid, and which Salary shall also be in full and satisfaction of all other Fees, Dues, and Allowances whatsoever alleged or claimed to be payable to such Clerk under any Usage or Custom.

LXXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Church or Chapel of any Parish, or any such Cathedral and Parochial Church, or Cathedral used as a Parish Church, shall, by reason of any accidental Injury or other unforeseen Event, be in immediate Want of any extraordinary Repairs or rebuilding or Expensures thereof, or if it should become necessary to enlarge any such Church or Chapel, the said Commissioners appointed under this Act, upon the Application of such Dean and Chapter, or Chapter, or of the Incumbent, or in his Absence of the officiating Curate or Minister of such Parish, approved by the Ordinary of the Diocese, shall and may pay and apply such Sum or Sums of Money as they shall think fit and necessary, or as by the Provisions of this Act they are bound to contribute with respect to any such Cathedral and Parochial Church, or Cathedral used as aforesaid, in making or executing such extraordinary Repairs, or rebuilding or enlarging of any such Church or Chapel, or such Cathedral and Parochial Church, or Cathedral used as aforesaid.

LXXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Church, Chapel, or other Building used for Religious Worship according to the Rites of the British Church of England and Ireland shall, by accident or otherwise

whenever demolished, pulled down, burned, or set fire to, or in any Manner maliciously or wantonly injured or damaged, it shall and may be lawful for the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, or any Person or Persons to be by them deputed in that Behalf, by Writing under their Common Seal, to sue for and recover Satisfaction and Amends for such malicious or wanton Demolition, Burning, Firing, or Injury or Damage as aforesaid, at the next Assizes to be held for the County to which such Church, Chapel, or other Building may be situate, or if in the County of Dublin, at the next Presenting Term, or if in the City of Dublin, at the next Quarter Sessions for the said City, by exhibiting to the Judge or Judges of Assize, or to the Court of King's Bench for the said County of Dublin, or to the Recorder of the City of Dublin at such Quarter Sessions, a Petition, setting such Satisfaction and Amends as aforesaid, and therein setting forth particularly the Injury or Damage done or committed, and the particular Amount and Nature thereof, by what Number of Persons such Injury or Damage was done or committed, and the Names or Descriptions of such Offenders, so far as the same shall be known to the Petitioner: and the Matter of such Petition shall be inquired into by such Judge or Judges of Assize, or Court of King's Bench, or Recorder, in open Court, in the Presence of the Grand Jury impanelled and sworn at such Assizes or Presenting Term or Sessions, on the Oath of such Person or Persons as may be produced to testify as to the same, and if on Consideration of the Matter such Judge or Judges of Assize, or Recorder, shall be of opinion that such Demolition, Burning, Firing, or other Injury or Damage was wantonly or maliciously done, such Judge or Judges shall inquire into the Amount of such Injury or Damage done or committed as aforesaid: and the said Grand Jury shall thereupon, and they are hereby required, pursuant to the Directions of such Judge or Judges, Court of King's Bench, or Recorder as aforesaid, in present such Sum or Sums of Money as shall appear to be the Amount of the Injury or Damage committed or aforesaid to be raised either on the County, County of a City or Town, Barony, Town or Towns, Parish or Parishes, in or near which such Offence shall have been committed, and in such Proportions as they shall think fit: which Sum or Sums as presented as aforesaid shall be apportioned, levied, and raised by such Ways and Means and in such Form or Manner as other public Money presented at the said Assizes, or Presenting Term, or Sessions; and such Monies shall be paid to the said Commissioners, or to the Person or Persons by them deputed as aforesaid, and be by such Commissioners applied to rebuild or repair such Church, Chapel, or other Building, and be for such Purpose expended by such Person or Persons in such Manner and subject to such Regulations and Security for the due Application thereof as they shall think fit: Provided that if any Person or Persons shall find himself, herself, or themselves aggrieved by any Proceedings to be made in pursuance of this Act, such Person or Persons, in case the Sum so presented do exceed the Sum of Ten Pounds, shall or may, at the said Assizes, or Presenting Term, or Sessions, traverse the same: which Traverse shall be tried at the same or next ensuing Assizes, Presenting Term, or Sessions, as the Judge or Judges who shall allow the same shall think fit: and if in such Traverse the Issue shall be found for the Petitioner, such Proceedings shall be discharged, otherwise the same shall be final and conclusive to all Persons, and in case the said Issue shall be found against the Traverser, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Judge before whom the same shall be tried, in case he shall see fit, to award the Costs thereof to be paid by the Traverser, to be taxed and certified by the Clerk of the Crown, the Payment whereof may be enforced, if necessary, by a summary Order of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench in Ireland: Provided always, that the said Commissioners, or the Person or Persons by them deputed as aforesaid, or the Rector, Curate, or other officiating Minister, or, in case of Vacancy of the Benefice, any Two Inhabitants of the Parish, within Thirty Days after such Offence shall have been committed, shall give Notice thereof to the High Constable of the Barony and to the Churchwardens, of the Parish where such Offence shall have been committed (if such High Constable or Churchwardens shall respectively reside within such Barony and Parish), who are hereby required forthwith to publish the same within such Barony and Parish: and if such High Constable or Churchwardens shall not reside therein as aforesaid, then such Notice shall be given to some Two Inhabitants of such Barony or Parish.

A review of Proceedings above St. to be held in cases of such Offences.

Notice thereof to be given within Ten Days after Offence committed.

Any Proceeding commenced in any County in any Assize or other Court of Law, shall not be discontinued by any Person or Persons.

Expenses of such Money to be recovered by Commissioners.

Amount to be paid to the Commissioners.

LXXIII. And be it further enacted, That in all Parishes and Places where, by virtue of any Law, Statute, or Custom, Provisions may heretofore have been made, by Vestry or other Assessor, for the Maintenance of any Curate, Lecturer, Clerk, or other Minister or Assistant in the Celebration of Divine Worship, or Almoner or Sexton, such Provisions by Vestry or other Assessor shall from and after the passing of this Act wholly cease and determine, and it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners under this Act, by and out of the Proceeds of the said annual Tax, and the other Funds as aforesaid by this Act vested in them, to provide for all such Purposes in such Manner and Proportions as to them shall seem fitting.

LXXIV. Provided always, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized, to appoint such Sum or Sums of Money to be expended under such Rules and Regulations, and Security for ensuring the due Application thereof, as they in their Discretion shall think fit.

LXXV. And be it further enacted, That every such Incumbent, Dean and Chapter, or Chapter, or other Person or Persons who shall have received from the said Commissioners any Sum or Sums of Money for any of the Purposes herein-before mentioned, shall, within One Year from the Receipt of such Sum or Sums of Money, return and transmit to the said Commissioners a full Statement and Account of the Expenditure of such Sum or Sums of Money, and shall, if required by the said Commissioners, verify the Truth thereof upon Oath, which Oath any Vicar General, Barrington, Justice of the Peace, Master or Master Extraordinary in Chancery, in and are respectively hereby empowered and LXXVI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to use for any Part of any Sum or Sums of Money granted for any of the Purposes aforesaid which may be assigned or not duly accounted for as herein directed, or any Surplus thereof after the Execution of the said Purposes, by Civil Bill before the Assistant Barrister of the County wherein such Church and Parochial Church or Cathedral used as aforesaid in respect whereof the same may be due shall be granted, provided that such Sum used for by such Civil Bill shall not exceed the Sum of Fifty Pounds, and if the same shall exceed the Sum of Fifty Pounds, then by Action in any of His Majesty's superior Courts or Courts of Law: And provided further, that if the Person retaining the same or not duly accounting shall be possessed of any Ecclesiastical Benefice or other Ecclesiastical Emolument, then the said Commissioners shall take Proceedings to recover the same by Process of Sequestration, which Sequestration shall be applied for and issued on the Certificate of the said Commissioners, in the Manner and subject to the Regulations herein-before directed as to Sequestrations in any other Case to be applied for by the said Commissioners.

Commissioners may use the Money unaccounted for as assigned.

LXXVII. And be it further enacted, That when and so soon as in any Year the said Commissioners shall have in their Hands any Surplus or Balance, after due Provision shall have been made for the several Objects and Purposes herein-before mentioned, and not sooner, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to apply and dispose of such Surplus, or any Part thereof, in such Proportions as to the said Commissioners shall seem fit, for all or any of the Objects herein-after mentioned.

Commissioners may apply surplus Money.

LXXVIII. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to advance or apply, out of the said surplus Fund and Monies at their Disposal as aforesaid, such Sum or Sums as they shall think fit for the Purpose of building Churches or Chapels of Ease in any Parish or Place in England, provided that an Application in Writing shall be made to such Commissioners, through the Bishop of the Diocese, for such Purpose, by or at least Twenty of the Inhabitants of such Parish or Place, accompanied by a Plan and Estimate of the Expence of building such Church or Chapel of Ease, and that such Application shall signify the Willingness of the Persons making the same to contribute or procure to be contributed, in such Proportions as may have been mutually agreed upon by them, a Sum not less than One Fifth of the whole Expence as stated in such Estimate, for the Purpose of building such Church or Chapel of Ease; and provided further, that before any Advance for such Purpose shall be made by said Commissioners the several Sums so subscribed or contributed shall be respectively paid or secured to be paid to the said Commissioners, in such Manner as the said Commissioners shall appoint and require, and that for such Purpose the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby enabled to take such Personal or Real Security as to them shall seem proper or necessary; and provided further, that such Commissioners may employ an Architect chosen by themselves to execute such Building, and subject to such Regulations as such Commissioners shall think fit; and provided that if such Sum or Sums of Money shall be paid by Inhabitors, the last Inhabitor shall be at least One Fourth Part of the whole Sum granted for such Purpose, and that such Inhabitor shall not be paid until the said Commissioners shall be satisfied, by the Certificate of a competent Architect, that the building of such Church or Chapel is completed in a sufficient and workmanlike Manner, pursuant to the Plan and Estimate approved as aforesaid, and also by a Certificate from the Ordinary of the Diocese that he, upon Inspection thereof, is satisfied with the Execution of such Work; and the said Commissioners shall have the like Remedies for the Recovery of any Part of such Sum or Sums recovered from them for the Purpose of any such Building which shall not have been duly applied for such Purpose, and shall remain over and above after the Execution of such Purpose, as herein-before provided as to Sums granted by said Commissioners for the Purpose of repairing Churches or Chapels; and the Rents or Profits which may arise from the Letting or Sale of Pews and Seats in such Church or Chapel shall and become vested in such Commissioners, to be employed by them in other Works which shall come into their Hands under the Provisions of this Act: Provided always, that if it shall appear to the said Commissioners that, from the peculiar Circumstances of any Parish or Place, it is expedient that a Church or Chapel of Ease should be built in such Parish or Place, and that such Application of Twenty Inhabitants as aforesaid, or Contribution of One Fifth of the Expence of building the same as aforesaid, cannot be obtained, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners, upon the Application of the Bishop of the Diocese, to advance, if they shall think fit, the necessary Means out of the Funds at their Disposal, without such Application or Contribution as aforesaid.

Commissioners may advance Part of Surplus for building Churches in certain Cases.

LXXIX. Provided nevertheless, and be it enacted, That in consideration of such Subscriptions as aforesaid it shall and may be lawful for such Commissioners to allot and assign such and so many of the Seats and Pews to be erected in said Church or Chapel of Ease as to them shall seem fit or expedient to the Persons who may have or entered into such Subscriptions as aforesaid, according to such Scheme for the Classification thereof, with regard to the Amount of their several Subscriptions, as shall be proposed by such Subscribers and approved by such Commissioners; and the Pews so assigned to such Subscribers as aforesaid shall be vested in them, and deemed and taken to be Personal Property, and assignable and transmissible as such.

Commissioners may assign Pews to Subscribers in consideration of their subscriptions.

LXXX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be in the Manner lawful for the said Commissioners, out of any surplus Funds or Monies at their Disposal, from Time to Time, and in such Proportions as they shall think proper, to lend and advance, upon an Application accompanied by a Plan and Estimate made by the Inhabitors of any Benefice or Parish, and approved of by the Bishop of the Diocese, any Sum of Money, not exceeding Two Years net Income of such Benefice or Parish, to be applied for the Purpose of building or repairing any Building of the said Bishop and Clergy for the Commissioners may advance Money for building Works in certain Cases.

Purchase of Houses already built, for the fit and suitable Habitation of such Incumbent and his Successors, or if the said Commissioners shall so think fit, in the Purchase of Glebe or Demesne Lands fit and convenient for the Erection of such Glebe House and Offices.

Money so advanced to be repaid by Incumbent.

LXXXI. And be it further enacted, That the Incumbent of any such Benefice or Parish to whom any such Money shall be so advanced, or in case of his Death or Removal before the Repayment of the whole Sum so advanced, his Successor or Successors for the Time being, shall and he and they is and are hereby required and bound to repay to the said Commissioners as much of the said Sum as shall become due, by Installments during their respective Incumbencies, in manner following: that is to say, Four Pounds per Centum of the Sum so advanced on the First Day of July next after the Expiration of One Year from the Day on which same shall have been so advanced and lent (or within Twenty-one Days after), and Four Pounds per Centum more of the Sum advanced on the First Day of July in every succeeding Year (or within Twenty-one Days after), until the Sum so advanced shall be wholly repaid.

Who shall not be deemed Incumbent to such Installments.

LXXXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Person shall be deemed a Successor, so as to be charged by or under this Act, who shall die or be removed within the Space of One Year from the Death or Removal of the Incumbent immediately preceding him.

In what Manner Successors shall be liable.

LXXXIII. Provided also, that no Successor shall in any Case be liable to pay any such Installment before the First Day of July next after he shall have so become a Successor chargeable under this Act, nor to pay any more than One such Installment on each First Day of July, notwithstanding that more than One Year may have intervened between the Death or Removal of the last Incumbent who had become chargeable with the Payment of any Installment under this Act and such First Day of July.

For repaying Payment of Installments by Successors of Incumbents removed before Receipt of the whole Sum granted.

LXXXIV. Provided also, That in Cases where such last preceding Incumbent shall die or be removed before he shall have received the whole of such Sum so granted by way of Loan, every Person who shall be a Successor of any such Incumbent should be bound and obliged to repay to the said Commissioners appointed under this Act an Installment at the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum for the Sum which shall have been actually so advanced to such Incumbent on account of such Loan (although the whole Amount of such Loan may not have been received by such Incumbent) on the First Day of July next after such Person shall have become a Successor chargeable by virtue of this Act; and that no Installment not actually paid of any such Loan shall be discharged, or be deemed or taken as discharged by reason of the Neglect or Default of any Incumbent in respect of the Nonpayment of any Installment which may have become due and payable during his Incumbency, it being the true Intent and Meaning of this Act that Installments of every such Loan shall continue to be paid until the whole Amount of such Loan shall be actually paid to the said Commissioners.

To enforce Payment of such Sums as shall be so lent and advanced to parsonage and by virtue of the Provisions of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners appointed under this Act for the Time being, and they are hereby required, to take and receive, previous to the advancing of any Sum of Money to any such Incumbent, a Bond from such Incumbent, which Bond shall not be subject to any Stamp Duty, binding him, with One or more sufficient Sureties, and them, his and their Heirs, Executors, and Administrators, jointly and severally, to the King's most Excellent Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in Penalty amounting to Double the Sum advanced, conditioned for the due Application of the Money so to be advanced within Ten Years from the Advance, or for refunding to the said Commissioners so much of the said Money as shall not be so applied within such Time, and for the Payment to the said Commissioners of all such Installments of the said Sum or Sums at the several Times before mentioned as may severally become due during his Incumbency, with legal Interest on such Installments respectively from the respective Time when such Installment ought to have been paid until the actual Payment thereof; which Bond shall have the same Force and Effect as Bonds to the King's most Excellent Majesty, and for His Use, have by virtue of an Act passed in Ireland in the Twenty-first and Twenty-second Years of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled An Act for the more speedy and effectual Recovery of the King's Debts, and Suits shall and may be prosecuted and carried on upon such Bonds, by the Orders and under the Directions of the said Commissioners, for the Recovery of the Money which shall be due thereon, in such and the same Manner as Suits on Bonds to the King's Majesty may be prosecuted by virtue of the said Act.

When Commissioners may apply their Installments to require Interest.

LXXXV. Provided also, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, if they shall so think fit, at the Time of making such Advance, to signify their Intention to require Interest, at the lawful Rate or any less Rate, to be paid for the same from the Time of advancing the said Sum, or any other Time, until Repayment thereof, and in such Case the Bond aforesaid shall be framed and Payment made accordingly.

Sum advanced to be a Charge on all the Ecclesiastical Endowments of the Benefice.

LXXXVI. And be it further enacted, That all and every Sum and Sums of Money so to be advanced by the said Commissioners appointed under this Act to any such Incumbent as aforesaid shall, with or without Interest, as the Case may be, from the Time of advancing any Part thereof, be a Charge on all the Glebe Lands, Tithes, Composition for Tithes, Rents, Modies, Salaries, Stipends, Fees, Gratifications, and all other Ecclesiastical Emoluments and Profits whatsoever arising or to arise from the Benefice of which such Person or Persons shall be Incumbent as aforesaid; and in case Default shall be made in the due Application of such Advances, or the regular Discharge of any of the said Payments or any Part thereof, on the Days appointed for the Payment thereof, by such Incumbent or his Successor or Successors, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to recover the same by Process of Sequestration, and such Sequestration shall be applied for and issued on the Certificate of such Commissioners in the Manner and subject to the Regulations herein-before directed as to Sequestrations in any other Case to be applied for by the said Commissioners.

In default of Repayment, Commissioners may recover the same by Process.

LXXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That such Sums or Sums of Money as shall be lent or advanced on any such Incumbent by virtue of this Act shall be distinguished and reckoned apart, in the said Certificate to be given by any Archbishop or Bishop by virtue of the Acts now in Force to enable an Incumbent who builds to recover against his Successor, from any and every Sum or Sums by any such Incumbent lent out or expended out of his own proper Income in the building of such Glebe House and Offices which would otherwise be allowed by such Certificate; and a separate and distinct Part of the said Certificate shall be allotted by the said Archbishop or Bishop for ascertaining the Expenditure of the Sums so lent and advanced by the said Commissioners.

LXXXIX. And be it further enacted, That in case any such Incumbent shall die or be removed before all the Sums agreed to be advanced by the said Commissioners appointed by virtue of this Act for building or procuring such Glebe House and Offices as aforesaid shall have been actually advanced by the said Commissioners, then and in such Case his Successor shall be entitled and bound to receive the Remainder of the Money so agreed to be advanced, and shall give, in proportion to the Money remaining to be advanced, the like Security that had been given by his Predecessor, by Bond to the King's most Excellent Majesty, the Penalty of which Bond shall be recovered in manner herein-before declared and enacted with respect to the Secretary of the Penalty of the Bond so given by his Predecessor; and the Money so advanced, with or without Interest, as the Case may be, shall also be charged on such Benefice in the same Manner as the Money advanced to such first Incumbent, and recoverable in the like Manner.

XI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the Incumbent for the Time being of such Benefice shall annually, at his own Expence, until the last Instalment of such Sum shall be paid, keep the Buildings on which Money so lent and advanced shall have been expended regularly insured against Fire at some public Insurance Office in Great Britain or Ireland, to the full Amount at least of the Sum so lent and advanced: and in default thereof it shall be lawful for the Court of Chancery or Exchequer in Ireland to assign the Fruits of such Benefice, Parson, Vicar, Curacy, or Perpetual Curacy, in like Manner as herein directed as to Sequestrations issued on the Petition of the said Commissioners, until such Insurance shall be made.

XII. Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to limit or restrain the Power by this Act vested in the Commissioners to grant any Sum or Sums of Money gratuitously to any Incumbent or Perpetual Curacy for the Purpose herein-after mentioned, whether such Incumbent or Curacy shall not have received a Lease so far in part applied to the said Purpose, not to abstract, amend, make void, or alter the Laws now in Force for building, repairing, or improving Glebe Houses, or any of them, save as herein mentioned; but that such Incumbents, in case they shall think proper to proceed under and according to the said Laws, may do so in the same Manner as if the Act had not been made.

XIII. And be it enacted, That where the annual Value of any Benefice or of any Perpetual Curacy, which has not been augmented as herein mentioned, shall not amount to One hundred Pounds commuted value, and there shall be no Glebe House thereon, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners gratuitously to grant a Sum of One hundred Pounds to the Incumbent thereof, in such Manner as they shall think fit, to enable him the better to carry on the building of a Glebe House thereon, and before such House is begun to be built.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners under this Act, when and as in their Judgment it may be proper, out of such surplus Funds and Monies as aforesaid from Time to Time remaining in their Hands or at their Disposal, to assign any Benefice with Cure of Souls, Living, or Curacy, Appropriate or Inappropriate, or the Maintenance of any Parson, Vicar, Curate, and Minister officiating in any Church or Chapel, or licensed Place of Worship in England where the Liturgy and Rites of the United Church of England and Ireland as now by Law established are or shall be used and observed, and which shall appear to them to be under the clear yearly Value of Two hundred Pounds, after allowing the Deductions herein-before mentioned, either by the Purchase of Glebes or other Lands, or Tithes or Compositions for Tithes, or both, or by granting to the Incumbent of such Benefice or Living, or to such Parson, Vicar, Curate, or Minister, an annual Salary, to be paid out of the Rents, Issues, and Profits of the several Lands or Tenements and the Interest or Dividends of the several Monies and Properties hereby vested in such Commissioners as aforesaid, or in any other Manner as to the said Commissioners shall seem fit: Provided always, that the Value of such Benefice, Living, Maintenance, or Curacy, together with such Augmentations as aforesaid, shall not in the whole exceed the Value of Two hundred Pounds by the Year.

XV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That no Augmentation of the Benefice or Maintenance of any such Parson, Vicar, Minister, or Curate as aforesaid shall be made by any of the Ways or Means aforesaid by the said Commissioners, unless there shall be at the Time of such Augmentation (or within Three Years after such Augmentation shall be made, or purchased, or granted as aforesaid,) within such Benefice, Living, or Curacy a Church or Chapel or other licensed Place of Worship, where Divine Service as aforesaid may and shall be performed, every Sunday at the least, by such Parson, Vicar, Curate, or Minister whose Benefice or Maintenance shall be so augmented as aforesaid; and in case such Augmentation by Salary of a Parson shall be made as aforesaid or by any other Sum lent to be distinguished in the Certificate.

In case Incumbent dies before the whole Sum shall be advanced, Successor to receive the Remainder upon the Security.

Incumbent to keep Buildings insured.

Not to extend to abstract or alter the Laws now in Force for building Glebe Houses.

Commissioners may grant 100£ gratuitously to certain Cases.

Power of Commissioners to assign Benefices.

No Augmentation, unless there is a Church where Divine Service to be performed, or to be performed at the building or repairing of the within Three Years after.

or Chapel, or other licensed Place of Worship, shall be, at the Time of such Augmentation being so made or granted as aforesaid, actually built, but the same is to be so made and granted in order to encourage the building or repairing such Church or Chapel, or other licensed Place of Worship, within Three Years as aforesaid, such Augmentation shall, notwithstanding any such Augmentation or Grant as aforesaid, not commence or take place, nor shall any Parson, Vicar, Curate, or Minister be entitled to, or have any Right whatever to demand or receive, such Salary or Augmentation less from the Time when such Church or Chapel, or other licensed Place of Worship, shall be actually built and fitted for the Performance of such Divine Service as aforesaid.

CCV. And be it further enacted, That if the Incumbent of any Benefice, or any Parson, Vicar, Minister, or Curate, whose Maintenance has been augmented by the Trustees and Commissioners of First Fruits, or which shall be so augmented by the Commissioners under this Act, by the Grant of such annual Salary or otherwise, shall not reside upon such augmented Benefice, Living, or Curacy, or so conveniently as shall be satisfactory to the Bishop of the Diocese, or shall be wilfully absent from the Cure of such Church or Chapel for the Service of which such Augmentation has been or shall be so granted, for any Period exceeding the Space of Sixty-one Days together, or to be accounted at several Times in any One Year, and make his Residence and abiding at any other Place or Places, without such Licence or Exemption as allowed by an Act passed in Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, entitled An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws for enforcing the Residence of Spiritual Persons on their Benefices, to restrain Spiritual Persons from carrying on Trade or Merchandize, and for the Support and Maintenance of almsgiving Charities, in Ireland, and unless such Parson, Vicar, Curate, or Minister so to be absent by virtue of such Licence or Exemption shall find and provide a sufficient Parson, to be approved of by the Archbishop, Bishop, or other Ordinary of such Diocese, to supply the Cure and perform Divine Service in such Church or Chapel as aforesaid during such Absence; and if there shall be a Discontinuance of the Performance of Divine Service, except for the necessary Repairs, or rebuilding, or enlarging of the said Churches or Chapels, or for other Cause to be approved of by the Archbishop, Bishop, or other Ordinary of the Diocese, and certified to the said Commissioners as aforesaid; then and in any of said Cases such Salary or Augmentation as made or to be made of any such Benefice, Living, or Curacy, and all Right and Title of any such Parson, Vicar, Incumbent, Curate, or Minister to demand or receive such Salary or Augmentation, shall utterly cease and be determined, during his Incumbency only, notwithstanding any such Grant before made thereof; and that such Parson, Vicar, Incumbent, Curate, or Minister shall for ever after be disabled and rendered incapable of having or enjoying such Salary or Augmentation, but that the same shall nevertheless be retained and payable to the next Successor as if the same had not so ceased or been so suspended; and that the said Salary or Augmentation so stopped during the Incumbency of such disabled Person shall be vested in the said Commissioners, to be applied by them to such Uses and Purposes as the same might have been applied to if the same had not been so granted or aforesaid.

CCVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Incumbent of any such Benefice, Living, or Curacy, or any Parson, Vicar, Curate, or Minister, whose Maintenance shall be augmented by the Grant of such annual Salary or otherwise by the said Commissioners under this Act, or which shall have been at any Time heretofore augmented by the said Trustees and Commissioners of First Fruits in Ireland, shall accept and take any other Benefice, Living, or Curacy, and be instituted and inducted into the Possession of the same, that then the said Benefice, Living, or Curacy which shall have been so augmented shall from thenceforth be and be deemed and adjudged absolutely void to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; and that it shall be lawful for the Archbishop, Bishop, or other Parson to collate or present thereto, in like Manner and Form as if the former Incumbent had died or resigned, any Licence, Union, or other Dispensation to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding; and that every Licence, Union, or Dispensation, of what Name or Names, Quality or Qualities soever, obtained contrary to the true Meaning and Intention of this Act, shall be absolutely void and of none effect; and in case any Parson already possessed of any Benefice, Living, or Curacy shall be collated or instituted to any of the said Benefices, Livings, or Curacies which have been heretofore augmented as aforesaid by the said Trustees and Commissioners of First Fruits in Ireland, or which shall be so augmented by the Commissioners under this Act as aforesaid, every such Collation, Presentation, or Nomination shall be utterly void to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever Provided always, that no Lapse shall incur upon any Avoidance of any Benefice, Living, or Curacy which shall happen in consequence of this Act, until Six Months after Notice shall be given, in all Cases in which Notice is now by Law required, to the Parson or Persons having a Right to present or nominate to the same, by the Archbishop or Bishop of the Diocese, or other Ordinary for the Time being, in Writing sealed by him or their Hand and Archbishops or Episcopal Seal or Seal of Office respectively.

CCVII. And whereas the Provision for augmenting such poor Livings as shall be thought proper by the said Commissioners to be so augmented is intended to extend not only to Parsons, Vicars, and Curates who come in by Presentation or Collation, Induction, and Induction, or Licence, but likewise to such Ministers who come in by Donation, or are only almsgiving Parsons or Curates in and of

Improper or Appropriate Parishes, officiating in any Church or Chapel where the Liturgy and Rites of the United Churches of England and Ireland as by Law established shall be used and observed, some of which may happen not to be Corporations nor have a legal Succession, and therefore are incapable of taking a Grant of such perpetual Augmentation by a Salary, or Endowment of

No Rector or Vicar discharged lawfully from Cure of Souls.

XCIX. And for continuing the Succession in such augmented Cures hereby made Perpetual Cures and Benefices, and that the same may be duly and constantly served, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case such augmented Curacy be suffered to remain void by the Space of Six Months, without any Nomination within that Time of a fit Person to serve the same, by the Patron or Persons having the Right of Nomination thereunto, to the Bishop or other Ordinary, to be licensed for that Purpose, the same shall lapse to the Bishop or other Ordinary, and from him to the Metropolitan, and from the Metropolitan to the Crown, according to the Course of Law used in the Case of Presentation Livings and Benefices; and the Right of Nomination in such augmented Cures may be granted or recovered, and the Incumbency thereof may and shall cease and be determined, in the like Manner and by the like Method as the Presentation to or any Incumbency in any Vicarage Presentation may see be respectively granted, recovered, or determined: Provided always, that in case the Patron or Persons entitled to nominate to such augmented Cures should suffer Lapse to incur, but shall, before any Advantage taken thereof by the Ordinary, Metropolitan, or Crown respectively, nominate, such Nomination shall be effectual as if made within Six Months, although so much Time be before elapsed as that the Title of Lapse be vested in the Crown.

If augmented Curacy void for Six Months in like lapse.

Nomination before Advantage taken of Lapse, good.

C. And be it further enacted, That all such Donations which have been augmented by the said Trustees and Commissioners of such Profits in England, or which shall be at any Time hereafter augmented by the Commissioners under this Act, by virtue of the Powers hereby given to them, shall be subject to the Visitation and Jurisdiction of the Bishop of the Diocese wherein such Donative is or shall be, to all Intents and Purposes of Law whatsoever: Provided always, that no Donative shall be augmented without the Consent of the Patron or Patrons in Writing under his or their Hands and Seals first had and obtained.

Donation to be subject to Visitation.

Consent of Patron necessary to Augmentation.

CI. Provided also, That where the said Commissioners under this Act shall, in pursuance of the Powers given to them by this Act, think it convenient and fitting that any Donative, Curacy, or Chapelry should receive an Augmentation out of the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, or other Funds and Revenues hereby vested in them, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, before they make the said Augmentation, to treat and agree with the Patron of any Donative, Insuperintendent of any Rectory appropriated without Endowment of any Vicarage, or Person or Vicar of any Mother Church, in the Case shall happen to be, for a perpetual, yearly, or other Payment or Allowance to the Minister or Curate of such augmented Donative, Curacy, or Chapelry, and his Successors, to be made on all succeeding Times by such Patron, Insuperintendent, Person, or Vicar, and his and their Heirs and Successors, and Predecessors, and subjecting the said augmented Donative, Curacy, or Chapelry therewith therewith and thereto in such Manner and with such Remedies for Recovery thereof as shall be thought fit; and such Agreement made with the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, by and with the Advice and Consent of Six or more of His Majesty's Privy Council in Ireland, sealed under their Hands, in Cases where the King's most Excellent Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, are or shall be interested, or with any Bodies Politic or Corporate, or any other Person or Persons, having any Estate or Interest in Possession, Reversion, or Remainder in any such Impropriate Rectory, in fee or their own Right, or in Right of their Wives, or in Right of his or their Churches, or with the Guardians or Guardians or Committees or Committees of or acting for any Person or Persons having such Estate or Interest, who at the Time of such Consent shall be respectively Infants, Idiots, or Lunatics, or under any other legal Disability, or with any Parson or Vicar of any Mother Church, shall be respectively good and effectual to all Intents and Purposes in Law, with respect to such Charges, against His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, or against all or any such Bodies Politic and Corporate, or against the Person or Persons so agreeing, their Wives, Heirs, and Successors respectively, and every of them, and against all and every their Issue, and against every other Person and Persons claiming in Remainder or Reversion after any Estate Tail in the Possession, according to the Form of such Agreement, as fully and in like Manner as if such Agreement had been made by His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, under His said their Great Seal, and as if such Bodies Politic and Corporate had been free from any Restraints, and as if each other Person so agreeing had been sole owner in fee and their own Right of such Rectory, Impropriate Rectory, or Mother Church as aforesaid, at the Time of making such Agreement; and that the Agreements of Guardians or Committees for or on behalf of Infants or Idiots or Lunatics under their Guardianship, or of whom they shall be Committees as aforesaid, shall be as good and effectual to all Intents and Purposes as if the said Infants or Idiots or Lunatics respectively had been of full Age and of sound Mind, and had themselves entered into such Agreement: Provided always, that in case of any such Agreement as aforesaid with any Parson or Vicar, the same shall be with the Approbation and Consent of his Parson and Ordinary; and in case of any such Agreement made with any Person in Right of his Wife, that the Wife may be a Party to the Agreement, and seal and execute the same.

Remedy in Case of Impropriate Rectory following to repair Churches or maintain officiating Clergyman.

CII. And whereas it is expedient to provide a more effectual Remedy in Cases where the Owners of Impropriate or Improper Tithe are by Law bound, but nevertheless refuse or neglect, to repair the Church of any Church, or maintain an officiating Clergyman, in Ireland; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, or any Archbishop or Bishop of the Diocese, to present a Petition to the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lords Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal, or Master of the Rolls, for the Time being, or to the Court of Exchequer, in Ireland, praying such Relief as the Nature of the Case may require; and it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, and Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal, and for the Master of the Rolls, and the Court of Exchequer, in Ireland, and they are hereby required, to hear such Petition in a summary Way, and upon Affidavits or such other Evidence as shall be produced upon such Hearing to support of or in answer to such Petition, to determine the same, and to make such Order thereon, and with respect to the Costs of such Petition, as to him or them shall seem just, and such Order shall be final and conclusive, unless the Party or Parties who shall think himself or themselves aggrieved thereby shall, within One Year from the Time such Order shall have been passed and entered by the proper Officer, have preferred an Appeal from such Decision to the House of Lords, to whom it is hereby enacted and declared that an Appeal shall lie from such Order; and neither such Petitions, nor any Proceedings upon the same or relative thereto, nor the Copies of any such Petitions or Proceedings, shall be subject or liable to the Payment of any Stamp Duty whatever.

Entries of Agreements and Orders.

Copy to be Exhibited.

Power for Commissioners to purchase House and Land for aggregated Benefice.

CIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Agreements, Agreements, and Orders made by the said Commissioners in pursuance of this Act shall be carefully examined and entered into a Book to be provided and kept by their Secretary or other Officer or Officers to be by their appointed for such Purpose, and that such Entries, being approved of by the said Commissioners, and attested by them, shall be taken to be as Records; and true Copies thereof or of the said Entries, being proved by One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, shall be deemed, taken, and adjudged to be good and sufficient Evidence in Law touching the Matters and Things therein contained or relating thereto.

CIV. And be it further enacted, That where any Living, Benefice, Curacy, or Chapelry shall have been aggregated by the said Trustees and Commissioners of First Fruits in Ireland, or shall be aggregated by the Commissioners under this Act, by any of the Ways or Means aforesaid, and there is or shall be no Parsonage or other House suitable for the Residence of the Minister, Curate, Chaplain, or Incumbent, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners under this Act, by and with the Approbation and Consent of the Bishop of the Diocese, and they are hereby empowered (in order to promote the Residence of Clergy as their Benefices), to apply and dispose of any surplus Funds or Monies as aforesaid remaining in their Hands or at their Disposal, in such Manner as they shall deem most advisable, as or towards the building, rebuilding, or purchasing a House and other proper Erections within the Parish, Benefice, Curacy, or Chapelry, convenient and suitable for the Residence of the Minister thereof, which House shall be over thereafter be deemed the Parsonage appertaining to such Living, Benefice, Curacy, or Chapelry, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; and also it shall and may be lawful for any Lords, or Judges, or the whole Parliament, whether being within the local Limits of the said Benefice, Curacy, Living, or Chapelry, or rat, but so as that the same be situate convenient to such House as to be built, rebuilt, or purchased as aforesaid, such Land so to be purchased being of Freehold Tenure, or Copyhold of Inheritance, or for Life or Lives, holden of any Manor or Lordship belonging to the same Benefice, Curacy, Living, or Chapelry; and which Lands so purchased shall for ever, from and after the Grant and Conveyance thereof, be and become annexed to and Gliebs of such Benefice, Living, Curacy, or Chapelry, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, and be holden and enjoyed by such Incumbent and his Successors accordingly, without any License or Writ of Ad quod damnum; and the Whole or any Part or Parts of the said Land which before such Appropriation were or was of Copyhold Tenure shall for ever from and after such Appropriation become and be of Freehold Tenure; the Statute of Mortmain, or any other Statute or Law, to the contrary notwithstanding; subject nevertheless to the Laws now in force or that may hereafter be in force in Ireland for exchanging of Glebes.

CV. And whereas Two or more Benefices, Vicarages, or Curacies may be contiguous, and of such small Extent as that One Church may be sufficient for the same, and the Cure thereof may be conveniently attended by the same Parson, Vicar, or Curate; and it may happen that such Benefices, Vicarages, or Curacies are or shall be permanently united, and yet the whole Value of such united Benefices, Vicarages, or Curacies may not amount to the clear yearly Value of Two hundred Pounds; according to the Valuation herein-before mentioned; be it therefore declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Clauses and Provisions in this Act relative to the augmenting of single Benefices, Vicarages, or Curacies, or Chapelries, shall extend and be construed to extend to all such united Benefices, Vicarages, and Curacies, when the same do not in the whole amount to the clear yearly Value of Two hundred Pounds as aforesaid.

CVI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners under this Act, by Instrument in Writing under their Corporate Seal, by and with the Consent of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, and of His Majesty's Privy Council in Ireland assembled (Six at least consenting), and with the Consent of the Archbishop or Bishops of the Diocese, and of the respective Patron or Patrons, certified under his or their Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals, attested by Two or more credible Witnesses subscribing thereto, to divide any Parish in Ireland the average annual Value whereof shall exceed Eight hundred Pounds, and to separate and disunite from such Parish any Townland, Townlands, District, Parcel or Parcels of Land, and all Tithes, Composition for Tithes, Dues, and Ecclesiastical Emoluments whatsoever, from such Townland, Townlands, District, Parcel or Parcels of Land arising or to arise and payable to the Ecclesiastical Incumbent of such Parish, and themselves to annex and unite in Perpetuity, by the same or a different Instrument, any such Townland, Townlands, District, Parcel or Parcels of Land, and all such Tithes, Composition for Tithes, Dues, and Ecclesiastical Emoluments whatsoever therefrom arising or to arise, to any other adjoining Parish or Parishes the annual average Value of which respectively shall not exceed Two hundred Pounds: Provided nevertheless, that the annual Value of any such Parish so divided as aforesaid shall not by such Division be in any Case reduced below the Sum of Three hundred Pounds.

CVII. And provided also, and be it enacted, That any such Division of any Parish shall take effect and come into operation upon the Death or Removal of any Person who shall be the Incumbent of any such divided Parish at the Time of the Commencement of this Act or at the Time when such Division shall be made as aforesaid, as the Case may be, and not sooner; and that then and for ever thereafter such Townland, Townlands, District, Parcel or Parcels of Land, and all such Tithes, Compositions for Tithes, Dues, and Ecclesiastical Emoluments whatsoever therefrom respectively arising or to arise, shall cease to be or to be deemed a Part or Parts of or annexed to such divided Parish, and shall become and be and be deemed a Part or Parts of or annexed to such adjoining Parish or Parishes, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

CVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, with such Approbation and Consent and in such Manner as are herein-before last ascertained, to divide and separate the Glebes belonging to any such Parish so divided, and to grant a Portion of such Glebe to the Incumbent of each divided Portion of the Parish or of such adjoining Parish, as the Case may be, and for a Glebe for such Parish, subject, however, to the Laws now in force or that may hereafter be in force for the Exchange of Glebes; and that all such Divisions of Glebes shall be good, firm, and valid in Law; and that such Part or Parts of such Glebe so divided be always deemed and taken to be the Glebe or Glebes of such Parish or Parishes to which the same shall be so annexed; and that the Incumbent or Incumbents of such Parish or Parishes to which the same shall be so annexed shall hold and enjoy such Part or Parts of such divided Glebe, being so annexed, in as full and ample a Manner to all Intents and Purposes as if such Part or Parts of such Glebe had been always held and enjoyed as the Glebe belonging to such Parish or Parishes to which the same shall be so annexed, any Law or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

CIX. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Patron of any Parish so to be divided as aforesaid shall happen to be a Minor, Infant, Lunatic, or Feme Covert, it shall and may be lawful for the Guardian, Committee, or Husband of every such Patron to consent to such Divisions as aforesaid for such Patron, and to certify his, her, or their Consent under his, her, or their Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals, for such Patron, who shall be bound thereby in such Manner, and the same shall be as valid Provision of Act relative to augmenting single Benefices to extend to united Benefices not of the Value of 2000.

Commissioners may divide Parishes in certain Cases.

Such Divisions not to take effect until Death of Incumbent.

Commissioners may divide also the Glebes belonging to the Parishes so divided.

Guardian, Committee, &c. may consent.

and effectual, as if he or she had been of Full Age, or sound Mind, or Feme Sole, and had expressed such Consent as aforesaid.

Boards of Parishes to be first constituted, and Map and Statement of Value transmitted to Lord Lieutenant, who shall examine or refer same.

CX. And he it further enacted, That before any such Division or Augmentation of any Parish or Parishes as last aforesaid shall be made and concluded, the Boards of such Parish or Parishes shall be ascertained by Instrument in Writing in manner following; (that is to say,) the said Commissioners under this Act, by Instrument in Writing under their Seal, shall and may set out and describe the Boards of such Parishes, and the several Townlands or other Parcels or Demarcations of Lands which shall be comprised within such Parishes respectively; and a Copy of such Instrument shall, within Fourteen Days from the Date thereof, together with a Map and Survey of the said Parishes respectively, and a Statement of the annual Value of the same, and of such Part or Parts to be so separated and divided from such divided Parish as aforesaid, be transmitted to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland in Council, and the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors in Council shall confirm or alter the Boards of such Parish or Parishes as set out and described in such Instrument, on the Circumstances of the Case may seem to require, and shall order such Instrument to be altered accordingly: Provided always, that such Instrument so altered by any such Order, or if no Order shall be made thereupon by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland in Council within Six Weeks after the Date of the Transmission of the Copy of such Instrument to the Council Office in Dublin Castle, then such Instrument as originally transmitted, shall be entered in the Registry of the Diocese, (for which Entry the Sum of Thirteen Shillings and Fourpence, and no more, shall be paid to the Registrar,) and shall also be enrolled in the Rolls Office of the High Court of Chancery in Ireland, for which Enrolment the Sum of Thirteen Shillings and Fourpence, and no more, shall be paid, over and above the Expenses usually paid to the Clerk for registering the same.

Commissioners
shall adjust Proportions of Crown Rents,
Ports, &c. to be paid, by Incumbents of divided Parishes.

CXI. And in order to prevent Disputes which might arise upon the apportioning of any Crown Rents, Post Corn Rents, Pensions, Procurations, Synodals, and Salaries payable to the Schoolmasters of the Diocesan Schools by the several Incumbents of any such divided or augmented Parish or Parishes, he it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners under this Act, and they are hereby empowered and directed, to settle and adjust the Proportions of Crown Rents, Post Corn Rents, Pensions, Procurations, Synodals, and the Salaries of the said Schoolmasters which the Incumbents of any such divided Parish and such augmented Parish or Parishes are respectively to pay; which Proportions, being so adjusted by an Adjudication in Writing under the Seal of the said Commissioners, and registered in the Register Book of the Bishop of the Diocese wherein such Parishes are situate respectively, shall be the Proportions which the Incumbents of such divided and of such augmented Parishes respectively to pay, and shall be binding and conclusive upon the said several Incumbents of such divided or augmented Parish or Parishes respectively, and their respective Successors, any Law or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Incumbents of divided Parishes entitled to receive Disbursements from their Successors, as of Parish had not been divided.

CXII. And he it further enacted, That where any Parish shall be divided in manner aforesaid, and that the Incumbent of any such divided Parish shall be entitled to receive any Sum of Money from his next Successor in such Parish, in case the same had not been divided, on account of any Purchase of Glebe, or Addition to the Glebe, or of any Buildings or Improvements made on the Glebe of such Parish, or any Money paid by him to his Predecessor on such Account, according to the Laws in force for that Purpose, such Incumbent shall have and be entitled to receive from his next Successor in that Part of such divided Parish within which such additional Glebe shall be situate, or on which such Buildings or Improvements shall have been made, the same Sum as he would have been entitled to receive if the said Parish had not been divided, provided that the Sum so to be received shall not exceed Two Years Income of that Part of the Parish; and such Incumbent, having paid such Proportion of the said Money, shall be entitled to receive such Proportion of the Money so to be paid from his Successors, according to the Laws in force for that Purpose, in such Manner as he ought in case such Parish had not been divided, and it shall not be lawful for the said Commissioners to divide any Parish the Incumbent whereof shall be liable to any such Payment in such Manner as that the Sum to be paid by him shall exceed Two Years Income of the divided Part of the Parish in which such Buildings or Improvements shall be situate.

Where Assent of His Majesty is required, Assent of the
tenant to be good.

CXIII. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That where the Assent of the King's Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, is to be given to the making of any such Division of any Parish as aforesaid, or to the annexing or uniting a Part or Parts thereof to any adjoining Parish or Parishes as aforesaid, the Assent of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governor of Ireland for the Time being directed, under his or their Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals, shall to all Intents and Purposes be as good, valid, and effectual in Law as if the Consent of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, were therein signified by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Ireland: Provided always, that such Consent of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland shall be enrolled in the Rolls Office of the High Court of Chancery in Ireland, together with the Instrument making and setting forth such Division as aforesaid, for the Enrolment of which Consent the Sum of Three Shillings and Sixpence, and no more, shall be paid, over and above the Expenses usually paid to the registering Clerk for the same.

Commissioners
may pay Commission to

CXIV. And he it further enacted, That where any Person or Persons, other than the Crown, or an Archbishop or Bishop, shall be Patron or Possessor of any Living or Parish so to be divided as aforesaid, or shall be entitled to present a Clerk thereto upon any Vacancy or Turn thereof, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners under this Act, if they shall think fit so to do, out of the surplus Funds remaining at their Hands, upon obtaining the Consent of such Patron or Patrons to such Division of any such Parish as aforesaid, to pay unto such Patron or Patrons such Sum or Sums of Money as the said Commissioners shall think fit as a Compensation for the Distribution of the annual Value of such Living or Parish, so that such Sum or Sums of Money shall in no Case exceed Twelve Years Purchase of the annual Sum by which the Income or annual Value of such divided Parish shall be reduced by reason of and in consequence of such Division as aforesaid: and such Sum or Sums of Money shall be and become vested in and settled upon the same Patron or Patrons, and for and upon the same Uses, Estates, Tenants, and Limitations, and subject to the same Powers, Conditions, Charges, and Incumbrances, as the Advowson or Right of Presentation to such divided Parish was vested in, settled upon, or subject to, or would have been vested in, settled upon, or subject to, or as near thereto as the Nature of the Case may admit.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That where any Person or Persons, other than the Crown, or an Archbishop or Bishop, shall be Patron or Patrons of any Living or Parish or to be augmented by the Association thereto of any Part of any such divided Parish, or shall be entitled to present a Clerk thereto upon any Vacancy or Turn thereof, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners under this Act, and they are hereby directed and required, and shall be entitled to demand, take, and receive from such Patron or Patrons of any such augmented Parish or Parishes such Sum or Sums of Money as shall be mutually agreed upon by and between such Commissioners and the respective Patron or Patrons, or, in case of Disagreement between them, shall be fixed and determined by Three Arbitrators, to be chosen in the same Manner as in the Case of Arbitration appointed for the Settlement of Differences between the said Commissioners and Parties applying for the Purchase of Prebendaries under this Act, and under and subject to the like Regulations, so far as the same are applicable: which Sum or Sums of Money so to be received by the said Commissioners shall be added to the general Funds of the said Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act; and in default of Payment of such Sum or Sums of Money to the said Commissioners, within Six Calendar Months after a Demand thereof by Notice in Writing shall have been made and served upon such Patron or Patrons, the said Sum or Sums of Money shall be and become a Charge or Lien on such Advowson or on the Inheritance of the same, and be paid and payable to the said Commissioners, with Interest thereon, in priority to all other Charges or Incumbrances upon such Advowson.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That whenever any Benefice whereof the King shall be Patron, or the Right of Presentation or Collation whereof shall be in any Archbishop, Bishop, or other dignitary, or in any Ecclesiastical Corporation, shall, after the passing of this Act, become void in any Manner whatsoever, and that it shall appear to the Commissioners under this Act, by the Certificate of the Ordinary, that Three Years shall not have been celebrated thereon for the Three Years next preceding the First Day of February One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, then and in such Case it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, if they shall so think fit, by an Instrument under their Corporate Seal, to direct that the Appointment, Presentation, or Collation of any Clerk to such Benefice shall be suspended until such Commissioners shall think fit by a like Instrument otherwise to direct; and in the meantime, and for and during such Period as such Benefice shall remain vacant, all and every the Tithes, Profits, and Emoluments whatsoever belonging or appertaining thereto, and all Arrears thereof which may have accrued there since the said Benefice may have become void as aforesaid, shall be vested in and received by the said Commissioners under this Act, to be by them applied to the building or repairing of the Church and Glaze Houses in the said Benefice; and if the Circumstances of such Benefice shall not require such Application of the said Funds, then so to be paid into the general Fund under the Administration of the said Commissioners; and the said Commissioners shall have all and every the like Remedies for the Recovery of such Tithes, Profits, and Emoluments, and all Arrears thereof, as any Clerk filing such Benefice might or would have, and shall be for all such Intents and Purposes in the Piece and Stand of such a Clerk; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners and the Archbishop or Bishop associated with them, pursuant to the Provision herein-after contained, in any Case where the Spiritual Wants of any Benefice so notified as aforesaid shall appear to require the Appointment of an Officiating Minister, so to declare, and to appoint such moderate Stipend or Salary to be paid to such Officiating Minister as they shall think proper, and thereupon the Bishop of the Diocese shall appoint and license a Curate for the Performance of Ecclesiastical Duties within such Benefice for and during such Period as the same shall remain notified, and in case the Spiritual Wants of such Benefice shall not appear to require the Appointment of such Curate, then and in such Case, and for and during such Period as aforesaid, the Cure of Souls, and all and every the occasional Duty or Duties within such Benefice so remaining notified as aforesaid, shall be committed to the Incumbent or Officiating Minister of some adjoining Parish, to be remunerated by a moderate Stipend or Salary, in like Manner fixed by the said Commissioners and the Archbishop or Bishop associated with them, such Incumbent or Minister to be nominated and appointed by the Ordinary, and when such Ordinary is hereby required to nominate and appoint at the Request of the Commissioners under the Act, under such Regulations as he may think fit to make; and the Ordinary shall and is hereby required, when thereto required by the Commissioners under this Act, to grant such Certificates as aforesaid in all such Cases as aforesaid; and the said Commissioners shall, from and out of the Tithes, Profits, and Emoluments of such Benefice so notified as aforesaid, pay to the said

Patrons in or this Case.

Commissioners may require Compensation for Incumbent Curate

Commissioners may suspend Appointment of Clerk in any Benefice where the said Ministry shall not have been celebrated for Three Years Tithes and Profits of such Benefice to run to Commissioners.

Application of them.

Authorizing the Appointment of an Officiating Minister in any notified Benefice, or the Remuneration of the Incumbent or some adjoining Parish appointed as aforesaid, or to the Incumbent or Officiating Minister to whom the Care of Souls and occasional Duty shall have been committed, as the Case may be, such Stipend or Salary as may have been fixed and determined in manner aforesaid.

CXVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That whenever the said Commissioners under this Act shall propose to suspend the Appointment, Presentation, or Collation to any Benefice, under the Power herein-before vested in them, or of removing such Suspension if it shall have taken place, they shall in either of such Cases give Notice of such Intention to the Archbishop or Bishop of the Diocese in which such Benefice shall be situate, unless he happen to be one of the said Commissioners; and such Archbishop or Bishop shall be associated with the said Commissioners in determining upon the Propriety of directing or removing such Suspension as aforesaid, and shall and may vote upon all Questions relating thereto as if he were a Commissioner, and be deemed and taken to be for such Purpose or Purposes a Member of the said Corporation of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners of Ireland.

CXVIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That in any Case in which the said Commissioners shall direct that the Appointment, Presentation, or Collation of a Clerk to any Benefice shall be suspended, a full Statement of the Reasons on which such Direction was founded, comprising the several Particulars of the Extent of such Benefice, its annual Value, the Amount of the Population, the Number of Protestants residing within it, the Condition of the Church and Glebe House, if any, and the Quantity of Land belonging to it, shall be entered in a Book to be kept for that Purpose, and preserved among the Records of the Commission.

CXIX. And whereas by an Act made in the Parliament of the United Kingdom, in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws for enforcing the Residence of Spiritual Persons on their Benefices, to curtail Spiritual Powers from carrying on Trade or Merchandize, and for the Support and Maintenance of Stipendiary Curates, Bishops are authorized and empowered to pay over certain Sums therein mentioned to the Trustees and Commissioners of First Fruits in Ireland, for certain Purposes therein also mentioned; be it therefore enacted, That all and every Payment made to the Commissioners of this Act, in the Manner and Form and for the Purposes directed and specified by said recited Act, with respect to Payments to said Trustees and Commissioners of First Fruits, shall be as good, valid, and effectual to all Intents and Purposes; and such Sums, when paid, shall be applied by the Commissioners of this Act for the Purposes in said recited Act mentioned, so the same Manner as if such Payments had been made to the said Trustees and Commissioners of First Fruits, and as if this Act had not been passed.

CXX. And whereas the Commissioners under this Act may hereafter purchase Houses not situate within the Parishes for which they are purchased, but as near as to be sufficiently convenient and suitable for the Residence of the Officiating Minister thereof; be it therefore enacted, That such Houses, having been previously approved by the Bishop by Writing under his Hand and Seal, and duly registered in the Registry of the Diocese, shall be deemed Houses of Residence appertaining to such Benefices to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

CXXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of this Act to lend and advance all and every such Sums and Sums of Money, and to give such Consents, and to do and perform such Acts, Matters, and Things, and to give such Securities, and in such Manner and Form respectively, as by any Statute or Law in Ireland in Force at the passing of this Act the Trustees and Commissioners of First Fruits in Ireland might or were empowered or authorized to have lent and advanced, given and done, if this Act had not been passed; all which Securities, Loans, Consents, Acts, Matters, and Things, when made, entered into, given, and done, respectively shall be valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, unless it is or shall be enacted or declared to the contrary or otherwise provided for by this Act, or by any other Act hereafter to be made; and that all and every Action or Proceeding for Breaches of Covenant, or otherwise, which has been commenced, or which might at any Time hereafter, if this Act had not been made, have been taken, commenced, and carried on by the said Trustees and Commissioners of First Fruits in Ireland, shall and may be recommenced, taken, and carried on at any Time hereafter by the Commissioners of this Act, in the Name of their Secretary, as if they had been expressly named in any Deed, Covenant, Agreement, Writing, or Security, or in any Act or Acts of Parliament, or under or by virtue whereof such Action or Proceeding might have been and shall be so recommenced, taken, and carried on; and that all and every Sum and Sums to be recovered in any such Action or Proceeding shall and may be applied and disposed of by the Commissioners of this Act to such of the Purposes hereof as they in their Discretion shall think fit; and that the Commissioners of this Act shall pay, satisfy, and discharge, out of the Funds hereby vested in them, all Debts legally due by said Trustees and Commissioners of First Fruits in Ireland, whether for and on account of Salaries due to any of their Officers, Bills of Costs, or otherwise, or any other Account whatsoever, at the passing of this Act, which said Trustees and Commissioners of First Fruits would have been bound to pay if this Act had not been passed; and shall and may perform and execute all and every Covenant, Contract, or Agreement lawfully entered into and made by the said Trustees and Commissioners before the passing of this Act; and shall do and perform all and every Act, Matter, and Thing lawfully covenanted, agreed, or contracted to be done, performed, and executed by or on the Part of said Trustees and Commissioners of First Fruits, and which the said Trustees and Commissioners would have been bound to perform, execute, and do, if this Act had not been passed.

CXXII. And be it further enacted, That in case of any Refusal or Neglect of any Archbishop, Bishop, Archdeacon, Dean, Vicar, or Curate, to receive or pay the same to any Spiritual Person as aforesaid.

Archbishop or Bishop to be associated with Commissioners in determining upon Suspension or Removal of Benefices.

Statement to be made of Reasons for such Suspension.

afforded, by whatever Name called, known, or described, or any other Person or Persons whatsoever, to make or cause to be made any of the Returns hereby required or directed to be made to the said Commissioners of this Act, or to do any Act, Matter, or Thing hereby directed or required to be done by them or any of them, it shall be lawful for the Court of King's Bench in Ireland to direct a Writ of Mandamus, or any other Writ that may be necessary, to any such Archbishop, Bishop, Archdeacon, Dean, Prelate, or other Spiritual or other Person as aforesaid, to enforce the making such Returns, or the Performance of such Acts, Matters, and Things, by each Spiritual or other Person as aforesaid, Pursuant to this Act.

CXXXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person, upon Examination on Oath or Affirmation before the said Commissioners of this Act, or the Commissioners to be named and authorized in and by any Commission to be issued in pursuance of this Act, or in any Affidavit, Deposition, or Affirmation before any Judge, Baron of the Exchequer, Vice-Chancellor, Surrogate, Master or Master Extraordinary in Chancery, or Justice of the Peace, in any Matter relating to the Execution of this Act, shall wilfully and corruptly give false Evidence, or shall in any such Affidavit, Deposition, or Affirmation wilfully and corruptly swear or affirm any Matter or Thing which shall be false or untrue, every such Person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be and is hereby declared to be subject and liable to such Fines and Penalties as by any Law now or hereafter to be in force in Ireland any Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are or may be subject and liable to.

CXXXIV. And whereas several Parishes, or the Tithes or Portions of Tithes and Glebes thereof, are appropriated or united to certain Archbishopsricks, Bishopsricks, Deaneries, Archdeaconries, Dignities, Prebends, or Canonries; and it is expedient that the same should be disappropriated, dissolved, and divested out of such Archbishopsricks, Bishopsricks, Deaneries, Archdeaconries, Dignities, Prebends, or Canonries, and vested in the respective Vicars or Curates discharging the Duties of the Parishes in which the said Benefices, Tithes, or Portions of Tithes are respectively situate: And whereas the new Dean of Down and Raphoe freely consent that such Appropriations as aforesaid should be made in respect of their several Deaneries, and the Parishes or Tithes or Portions of Tithes and Glebes appropriated or united thereto; he it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, and His Majesty's Privy Council there, in the Case of the said Deaneries of Down and Raphoe, when and as they may so think fit, and in the Case of any and every Archbishopsrick, Bishopsrick, or other Deanery, or Archdeaconry, Dignity, Prebend, or Canonry, by and with the Consent and Approbation of the Archbishop, Bishop, Dean, Archdeacon, Dignitary, Prelate, or Canon thereof, or whosoever such Archbishopsrick, Bishopsrick, Deanery, Archdeaconry, Dignity, Prebend, or Canonry shall be void, to disappropriate, dissolve, and divert any Rectory, Vicarage, Tithes or Portions of Tithes, and Glebes, or Part or Parts thereof from and out of said Deaneries of Down and Raphoe respectively, or from and out of any Archbishopsrick, Bishopsrick, or other Deanery or Archdeaconry, Dignity, Prebend, or Canonry, and to unite any such Rectory, Vicarage, Tithes or Portions of Tithes to the Vicarages or Perpetual or other Curacies of such Parishes respectively, so that each such Rectory, Vicarage, Tithes or Portions of Tithes, and Glebes, or Part or Parts thereof, shall, with its respective Vicarage, Perpetual or other Curacy, form a distinct Parish or Benefice: Provided always, that whenever a Vicarage or Perpetual Curacy to which any Rectory, Vicarage, Tithes or Portions of Tithes, and Glebes, or Part or Parts thereof, shall have been so united as aforesaid, shall have been previous to such Union augmented either by the Trustees and Commissioners of First Fruits in Ireland, or by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and that the whole of the net Income of the Benefice created by such Union as aforesaid shall exceed the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, that then and in such Case the said Augmentation, or the Partion thereof whereby the whole Income of such Benefice shall exceed the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, shall cease and determine.

CXXXV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in case any Bishopsrick shall by such Means as aforesaid be reduced below the annual Value of Four thousand Pounds, the said Commissioners under this Act shall, from and out of the Funds vested in them by this Act, pay to the Bishop of such Bishopsrick for the Time being such annual Sum as may be necessary, at the Time of disappropriating the said Tithes or Portions of Tithes or Glebes, to make up such full annual Value of Four thousand Pounds.

CXXXVI. And be it further enacted, That whenever, pursuant to the Provisions aforesaid, any Rectory, Vicarage, Tithes or Portions of Tithes, or Glebe or Portions thereof, shall be united to any Vicarage or Perpetual Curacy, then and in such Case the Right of Presentation in such Rectory, Vicarage, or Perpetual Curacy, in any and every Vacancy thereof happening at any Time after such Disappropriation and Union as aforesaid, shall belong to and be exercised by the King's Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, or by the Archbishop, Bishop, or other Dignitary, or Corporation or Person having the Right of Grant, Nomination, Election, or Appointment to the Dignity, Prebend, or Canonry whereunto such Rectory, Vicarage, Tithes or Portions of Tithes, or Glebe or Partion thereof, had, before such Disappropriation, been united or annexed, and the Dignitary, Corporation, or Person having the previous Right of Presentation to such Rectory, Vicarage, or Perpetual Curacy, in such Times or Relations and according to such Manner as the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors and Privy Council of Ireland shall direct.

CXXXVII. And whereas the Duties of Archbishops and Bishops in Ireland will be, by the aforesaid Unions and Dissolutions of Archbishopsricks, Bishopsricks, Deaneries, Archdeaconries, Dignities, Prebends, or Canonries, whether

Archbishops in Ireland to have same Powers as Archdeacons in

whether Archdeacons in Ireland can lawfully exercise the same Powers as may be exercised by Archdeacons in England, be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Archdeacons in Ireland shall have and shall be deemed and taken to have and exercise all such Powers, Rights, Authorities, Privileges, and Jurisdictions within their respective Archdeaconries as any Archdeacon in England have or may exercise within their respective Archdeaconries by any Law, Statute, Custom, or general Custom in force in England.

Notice to the Commissioners
under this Act.

CXXXVIII. And whereas it is expedient that the Tenants or Lessees of the Lands of Archbishops or Bishops, and other Sole Ecclesiastical Corporations, in Ireland, should be empowered to purchase a perpetual Estate or Interest in such Lands and Premises, be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act it shall and may be lawful for any Tenant or Tenant, Lessee or Lessee, holding or who shall hold under or by virtue of any Lease or Contract for Term of Twenty-one Years, or for Term of Twenty-one Years or Three Lives, or for Three Lives, or for Term of Forty Years, immediately free and under any Archbishop or Bishop or other Sole Ecclesiastical Corporation in Ireland, any Lands, Premises, or Hereditaments belonging to the respective Sees or other Spiritual Promotion or Dignity of any such Archbishop or Bishop or other Sole Ecclesiastical Corporation, to purchase the Fee Simple and Inheritance of and in the said Lands, Premises, and Hereditaments so held by him or them as aforesaid, in the Manner and at the Rate of Purchase Money, and subject to the perpetual annual Rents, and to the Provisions, Restrictions, Regulations, and Conditions hereinafter mentioned; (that is to say,) that it shall and may be lawful for any such Tenant or Lessee, by Notice in Writing under his Hand, to notify to the said Commissioners under this Act, and to such Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person under whom such Lands, Premises, or Hereditaments are or shall be held, that he, such Tenant or Lessee, is ready and willing to purchase the Fee Simple and Inheritance as aforesaid of and in the said Lands, Premises, or Hereditaments so held by him under such Archbishop or Bishop or other Spiritual Promotion or Dignity, in the Manner and pursuant to the Provisions of this Act; and that thereupon the said Commissioners shall and may, and they are hereby authorized and required to ascertain the annual Rent or Rents now thereby reserved and payable by virtue of such Lease or Contract out of the said Lands and Premises, and the Amount of the Sum or Sums of Money (whereof paid or agreed to be paid as and for the Fine or Fines and Fees for Renewal of any such Lease or Interest of and in the said Lands and Premises, in the Case of Leases usually renewed every or every alternate or every third Year, for and during the Period of Nine Years next preceding the Service of such Notice; and in the Case of Leases usually renewed at longer Intervals, and in the Case of Leases for Lives, for and during each Period so shall include the Three last previous Occasions of such Renewal; and every such Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person under whom the said Lands and Premises shall be held as aforesaid shall, upon being thereto required by the said Commissioners by Writing, certify to the said Commissioners, by Writing under his Hand and Seal, the Amount of such annual Rent, and every such Fine and Fines and Fees so paid, or agreed to be paid, or usually paid or payable as aforesaid, for and during such Period as aforesaid; and then it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners under this Act, and they are hereby empowered, if they shall so think fit, or shall be required by Request under the Hand and Seal of the said Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person, or Tenant or Tenant, Lessee or Lessee, to issue a Commission under their Seal to inquire into and ascertain the Amount of such annual Rent and such Renewal Fine or Fines and Fees as aforesaid to be paid or payable, or agreed to be paid, or usually paid or payable as aforesaid, for and during the Period aforesaid; which Commission shall issue in the same Manner, and subject to the like Rules and Regulations, with the like Powers, as is used and heretofore provided with respect to Commissions directed to be issued for inquiring into the annual Value of Ecclesiastical Benefices.

Commissioners
to ascertain Amount of annual Rent and what Addition has been made thereon since the Sixteenth
Day of August
1793.

CXXXIX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby empowered and directed, so each and every Case in which they shall proceed to ascertain the Amount of the annual Rent or Rents reserved and payable out of the Lands and Premises in which the Tenant, Lessee, or Assignee thereof shall be desirous to purchase the Fee Simple and Inheritance as aforesaid, to inquire and ascertain whether any and what Addition has been made to the Rent or Rents reserved and payable to any Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person out of the said Lands and Premises since the Sixteenth Day of August in the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirty-two; and in case it shall appear that the said yearly Rent or Rents has or have been increased since such Period, and that such Increase has been made in consequence of the Change of the Liability to the Payment of the Composition for Tithes, then and in every such Case the said Commissioners shall separate the Sum or Sums which shall as appear to have been added on the aforesaid Account to the yearly Rent or Rents theretofore usually reserved and payable out of such Lands and Premises, and shall not include such additional Sum or Sums in the Rent to be reserved in any Conveyance of such Lands and Premises to be executed by them or him pursuant to this Act; and the said Commissioners shall ascertain, by reference to the Lease or Contract made made under the Reservation of such additional Sum or Rent, the annual and customary Rent or Rents (said Rents of Sums in the Nature of penal Rents excepted) reserved and payable out of the said Lands and Premises; and such annual and customary Rent or Rents shall be deemed and taken to be the annual Rent reserved and payable out of such Lands and Premises.

Commissioners
shall ascertain the Amount of

CXXX. And be it further enacted, That when such Rent or Rents and Fine or Fines and Fees shall have been ascertained by any of the Ways or Means aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the said the Ways and Means aforesaid, to ascertain the Amount of the annual Rent to be reserved and made payable in and by the Deed of Conveyance herein-after mentioned, in the same and the like Manner and according to the like Averages and Proportions, and subject to the like Provisions, as are herein-before mentioned and provided with respect to Lands and Premises held immediately from and under any Archbishop or Bishop as aforesaid; which Rent, when so ascertained by the said Commissioners as aforesaid, shall be the Amount of the annual Rent to be reserved and made payable to the said Commissioners and their Successors in and by such Deed of Conveyance, subject only to such Approval as herein-after intimated, and to such Variation as may be made in the Amount thereof according to the Price of Wheat or Oats in any Period of Seven Years, according to the Provisions herein-after mentioned; and the Amount of such Rent, when so ascertained as aforesaid, shall thereupon be notified by a Notice in Writing by the said Commissioners to the Tenant or Lessee who shall have applied to purchase the said Lands and Premises as aforesaid, together with the Amount of Purchase Money, to be computed by the said Commissioners as herein-after mentioned, required to be paid by such Tenant or Lessee for or on account of the Deed of Conveyance of the Lands and Premises as held by him as aforesaid.

Terms of proposed Purchases of Proportions to be subject to Approval of the Lord Lieutenant.

CXXXV. Provided always, That in each and every Case of such Purchase as aforesaid, before such Purchase shall be completed, the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby required to notify in Writing to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being in Council the Terms and Particulars of such proposed Purchase, the Purchase Money to be paid in respect thereof, and the annual Rent to be thereafter reserved from and out of the said Lands and Premises so to be purchased, together with the Amount of the annual Rent and the average annual Fine for Removal thereto payable in respect of the said Lands and Premises, and ascertained as aforesaid; and no such Purchase shall be completed until the said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland in Council shall signify his Approval thereof.

On ascertaining Amount of Rent to be reserved, the Commissioners shall grant a Certificate, and the Tenant, who shall pay Purchase Money into Bank of Ireland, and thereupon a Conveyance to be executed.

CXXXVI. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Amount of the annual Rent so to be thereafter reserved and made payable for and out of the said Lands and Premises to such Archbishop or Bishop, or other Ecclesiastical Person, and his Successors, or to the said Commissioners under this Act, as the Case may be, shall have been ascertained and determined on by any of the Ways and Means aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners under this Act, and they are hereby directed, if as required by such Tenant or Lessee, Tenant or Lessees, by Writing under his or their Hand or Hands as to do, to grant to such Tenant or Lessee, Tenant or Lessees, a Certificate under their Seal, stating the Terms of such Purchase, and the Amount of the said Purchase Money to be paid as aforesaid, and of the annual Rent to be reserved and made payable in and by the said Deed or Deeds of Conveyance herein-after mentioned; which Sum so ascertained and mentioned as such Purchase Money as and by the said Certificate such Tenant or Lessee shall (if he shall think fit to complete such Purchase) pay or cause to be paid into the Bank of Ireland, to the Credit of the said Commissioners under the Act, under a distinct and separate Account, to be for that Purpose opened in the Books of the said Bank, to be called the Perpetuity Purchase Fund Account, within the Period of Six Calendar Months after the signing of the said Certificate; and thereupon, if the said Lands and Premises so to be purchased shall, previously to such Purchase, have been transferred to and become vested in the said Commissioners by virtue of the Provisions of this Act, then and in such Case, on the Production to the said Commissioners of the Receipt of the Cashier or Cashiers of the said Bank of Ireland for the Amount of such Purchase Money mentioned and specified in and by such Certificate, the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby required, in such Manner as herein-before provided as to the Execution of Deeds by them, to execute, seal, and deliver a Deed of Conveyance to such Tenant or Lessee of the Fee Simple and Inheritance of the said Lands and Premises, when the same shall be tendered for Execution by the said Tenant or Lessee, unto and to the Use of such Tenant or Lessee, his Heirs and Assigns, as he or they shall appoint, subject to such annual Rent as aforesaid; and if the said Lands and Premises so to be purchased shall at the Time of such Purchase belong to or be held under any Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person, then and in such Case to the Production by the said Tenant or Lessee to the said Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person of the said Notice or Certificate as delivered by the said Commissioners as aforesaid, specifying the Amount of such annual Rent to be reserved and made payable in and by the said Deed of Conveyance, and specifying the Amount of Purchase Money to be paid for such Purchase as aforesaid, and upon Production of such Receipt of the said Cashier or Cashiers for such Purchase Money as aforesaid, such Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person shall and he or they is and are hereby required and directed to execute, seal, and deliver a Deed of Conveyance of the Fee Simple and Inheritance of the said Lands and Premises to such Tenant or Lessee, when the same shall be tendered for Execution, subject to the annual Rent so ascertained as aforesaid; and if such Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person shall, on the Production of such Notice or Certificate and Receipt as aforesaid, refuse or neglect to execute such Deed of Conveyance when tendered for Execution as aforesaid, for the Space of Two Calendar Months after such Tender shall have been made as aforesaid, then, upon satisfactory Proof being made to the said Commissioners of such Refusal or Neglect, by Affidavit to be sworn before any Judge, Sergeant, Vice General, Master or Master Extraordinary in Chancery, or Justice of the Peace, which Affidavit or Oath they are hereby respectively empowered to take or administer, or upon Oath of a credible Witness to be sworn by the said Commissioners, it shall and may be lawful for the said

Deed or Deeds of Conveyance in the Name of and on behalf of the said Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person as aforesaid, or neglecting to execute the same as aforesaid, and to affix the Corporate Seal of the said Commissioners to such Deed or Deeds, and to certify the Cause of their so executing the same by Writing at the Foot of or on the Back of the said Deed or Deeds; and such Execution of the said Deed or Deeds by the said Commissioners shall be as valid and effectual, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if the said Deed or Deeds had been duly executed by the said Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person, in pursuance of this Act.

CXXXVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Recitals in any such Deed of Conveyance shall for all Purposes whatsoever be deemed conclusive Evidence of the Truth of the Facts therein stated.

CXXXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby directed, at the Request of either Party, to insert or cause to be inserted in each and every the said Deed or Deeds of Conveyance a Statement of the average Price of Wheat or Oats (whichever of the Two they shall consider as the Corn principally grown in the County or District where such Lands are situate) for the Period of Ten Years immediately preceding the First Day of May next before the Service of such Notice by such Tenant or Lessee as aforesaid, calculated upon the Returns advertised in the Bulletin Goods during such Period of Ten Years, which average Price the said Commissioners are hereby required and empowered to calculate and increase from such Returns as aforesaid.

CXXXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the said Tenant or Lessee as purchasing the Fee Simple and Inheritance of and in such Lands and Premises as aforesaid shall seal and deliver a Counterpart or Counterparts of such Deed or Deeds of Conveyance, one Part whereof shall be delivered to the said Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person, or to the said Commissioners, as the Case may be, to whom respectively the said annual Rent shall be so reserved and made payable as aforesaid.

CXL. And provided also, and be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners, or Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person, as the Case may be, shall, in every Case of such Purchase, cause such Deed or Deeds of Conveyance to be enrolled in the Rolls Office of the High Court of Chancery in Ireland (for which Enrolment a Fee of Two Shillings and Sixpence only shall be demanded or paid); and the said Commissioners shall in every such Case cause a Certificate, specifying the Amount of the annual Rent and of the average Recreval Fine theretofore paid or payable on the several Occasions of renewing the Lease in the said Lands or Premises during such Period as aforesaid, to be registered in the Registry of the Diocese wherein the same shall be situate, and also to be enrolled in the Rolls Office of the High Court of Chancery in Ireland along with and annexed to the Enrolment of the said Deed or Deeds; and a true and correct Copy of which Certificate, when enrolled in the said Rolls Office as aforesaid, shall be and be deemed and taken to be conclusive Evidence of the Truth of the several Matters and Things therein contained as aforesaid.

CXLI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That to Tenant or Lessee as aforesaid shall be entitled to have any such Conveyance of the Fee Simple and Inheritance made or granted to him or her, of whose Lease, if holding by Lease for the Term of Twenty-one Years, Twenty Years shall not be then to come and unexpired, or if holding by Lease for the Term of Forty Years, whereof Thirty-nine Years shall not be then to come and unexpired, or if holding by Lease for Twenty-one Years or Three Lives, or for Three Lives, all the Lives named wherein shall not be then or being, unless he or she shall, previous to the Execution of such Deed of Conveyance, pay all and every the Recreval Fines customably paid or payable on and for the Renewal of such Lease; nor shall any such Tenant or Lessee be entitled to such Conveyance of the Fee Simple and Inheritance unless all Rent and Arrears of Rent due upon and reserved by such Lease shall have been fully paid and satisfied.

CXLII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for such Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person to whom, or the Purchaser, his Heirs, Assignees, or Assigns, by whom, the Rent reserved by the said Deed of Conveyance shall be payable, to make an Application in Writing to the said Commissioners, at any Time within Four Months after the Expiration of Seven Years, to be computed from the First Day of May next preceding the Execution of such Deed of Conveyance as aforesaid, and in like Manner at any Time within Four Months after the Expiration of every subsequent Period of Seven Years, such Periods to be computed each from the Termination of the preceding Period, during the Continuance of such Grant as aforesaid, signifying the Desire of such Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person, Purchaser, his Heirs, Assignees, or Assigns, to have the average Price of Wheat or Oats for the Seven Years preceding inquired of and ascertained, in order that the annual Rent reserved in and made payable by such Deed of Conveyance may be varied or increased or diminished for the ensuing Seven Years, in proportion to such average Price, of which Application due Notice in Writing shall be given to such Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person, or such Purchaser, his Heirs, Assignees, or Assigns as aforesaid, in the Case may require; and in Cases in which the said Lands and Premises shall have been leased in and transferred to the said Commissioners, or the said annual Rent shall be payable to them, under the Provisions of this Act, then it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, or such Purchaser, his Heirs, Assignees, or Assigns, at the Times and in the Manner herein-before mentioned, during the Continuance of such Grant as aforesaid, to cause a Notice to be served in Cases of any such Notice by the said Commissioners upon such Purchaser, his Heirs, Assignees or Assigns, within twelve calendar

The average Price of Wheat or Oats for Ten Years previous to be inserted in the Conveyance.

A Counterpart to be executed and delivered to the Bishop or the Commissioners.

Deeds to be enrolled, and Certificate registered.

Tenant not entitled to Purchase unless he previously certifies in writing to the Commissioners of the average Price of Wheat or Oats for the Seven Years preceding inquired of and ascertained, in order that the annual Rent reserved in and made payable by such Deed of Conveyance may be varied or increased or diminished for the ensuing Seven Years, in proportion to such average Price, of which Application due Notice in Writing shall be given to such Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person, or such Purchaser, his Heirs, Assignees, or Assigns as aforesaid, in the Case may require; and in Cases in which the said Lands and Premises shall have been leased in and transferred to the said Commissioners, or the said annual Rent shall be payable to them, under the Provisions of this Act, then it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, or such Purchaser, his Heirs, Assignees, or Assigns, at the Times and in the Manner herein-before mentioned, during the Continuance of such Grant as aforesaid, to cause a Notice to be served in Cases of any such Notice by the said Commissioners upon such Purchaser, his Heirs, Assignees or Assigns, within twelve calendar

Application may be made every Seven Years for Variation of new reserved Rent, according to Increase or Decrease in Price of Corn.

such Notice to such Purchaser, his Heirs, Assignees, or Assigns, then upon the said Commissioners, signifying the Decline of the said Commissioners, or of the said Purchaser, his Heirs, Assignees, or Assigns, as the Case may be, that such average Price of Wheat or Oats for the Seven Years preceding the First Day of May next before the Service of such Notice may be taken and ascertained as aforesaid; and thereafter in each and every of such Cases it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to ascertain the average Price of Wheat or Oats for the Term of Seven Years next preceding the First Day of May next before such Application or the Service of such Notice, and for that Purpose to nominate and appoint a Person to be Arbitrator for ascertaining the same accordingly; and such Arbitrator is hereby authorized and required, from the Public Grants, to ascertain the Price of a Bushel of Wheat or Oats upon the Average of such Term of Seven Years preceding, and to state and set forth such average Price by his Report in Writing under his Hand, to be delivered to the said Commissioners, and if it shall appear that the average Price of Wheat (when Wheat shall be taken as the Measure of such Rent), or that the average Price of Oats (when Oats shall be taken as the Measure of such Rent), for such Seven Years preceding, is more or less by One Tenth than the average Price thereof set forth in the Deed or Deeds of Conveyance, then and in such Case the Amount of such annual Rent to be paid out of or in respect of the said Lands and Premises to such Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person, or to the said Commissioners, as the Case may be, shall be increased or diminished by the said Commissioners in such Manner and to such Extent that the Amount of such annual Rent payable for and during the next ensuing Seven Years shall bear the like Proportion to the Amount of the annual Rent reserved and made payable out of the said Lands and Premises in such original Deed of Conveyance of the said Lands and Premises as the average Price of Wheat or Oats ascertained at the Time of such Application shall bear to the average Price thereof set forth in such original Deed of Conveyance; and the said Commissioners under this Act shall nevertheless, in Cases where the said annual Rent shall be payable to any such Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person, grant to such Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person, Purchaser, his Heirs, Assignees, or Assigns, or, in Cases where the said Rent shall be payable to the said Commissioners, shall, for the Purpose of Registry and Enrolment as herein-after mentioned, execute a Certificate under their Seal setting forth the Amount of such revised or new annual Rent to be paid and payable out of the said Lands and Premises to such Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person, or to the said Commissioners, as the Case may be, and cause Notice of or a Copy of the said Certificate to be given to or served upon such Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person, and the Person or Persons who shall have purchased the Fee Simple and Inheritance of and in the said Lands and Premises, or to the Person or Persons who shall have become possessed of his or their Estate or Estates therein, and shall also cause such Certificate to be registered in the Registry of the Diocese where the said Lands and Premises shall be situate, and also to be enrolled in the Rolls Office of the High Court of Chancery along with and annexed to the Enrolment of such Deed of Conveyance; and a Copy of such Enrolment, duly compared and attested, shall be conclusive Evidence of the Amount of such revised and new annual Rent: and such revised and new annual Rent shall be paid to and received by such Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person, or the said Commissioners respectively, as the Case may be, for Seven Years from and after the First Day of May next before the Service of such Notice, and until such revised and new annual Rent shall afterwards, upon a Note Application, be again varied and ascertained according to the average Price of Wheat or Oats during the Term of Seven Years then last past; and the several Parties aforesaid are hereby respectively authorized to make such further Application from Time to Time after the Expiration of every Seven Years, during the Continuance of such Grant, in such and the like Manner and Form as herein-before directed with respect to the first Application; and the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of every such Application, and of varying and re-ascertaining the Amount of such annual Rent, shall be defrayed by the Person or Persons who shall make such Application as aforesaid; and any such revised and new annual Rent shall, during the Period when it shall be so in force, stand in the Place of the said original annual Rent reserved and made payable out of the said Lands and Premises upon such Purchase or Conveyance of the said Lands and Premises, and shall be paid and recoverable, and charged and chargeable upon the said Lands and Premises, and against the Purchaser, his Heirs, Assignees, or Assigns, in like Manner as the said original Rent reserved as and by such Deed of Conveyance, and subject to the same Regulations; and the several Clauses and Provisions here-in-before in every such Case apply as fully and effectually to any such revised and new annual Rent, to all Intents and Purposes, as if such revised and new annual Rent were the annual Rent originally reserved upon such Purchase in and by the Deed or Deeds of Conveyance of the said Lands and Premises as aforesaid: Provided always, that the said Rent so reserved by such original Deed of Conveyance shall continue to be used as the Standard, by reference to which, together with the original Price of Wheat or Oats, the Rent is from Time to Time to be varied as aforesaid: Provided also, that in case any such Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person, Tenant, Assignee, or Owner of such Lands and Premises purchased as aforesaid, who would respectively be entitled to receive or liable to pay such revised or new annual Rent as aforesaid, shall be dissatisfied with or dispute the Amount of the average Price of Corn so ascertained as aforesaid, or the Amount of any such revised and new annual Rent ascertained as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for such Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person, Tenant, Assignee, or Owner of such Lands and Premises, within One Calendar Month after the expiration of such Notice, to apply by Petition to the said Court in such Manner and under and subject to such Regulations and Provisions as herein-after mentioned with respect to Disputes as to the Amount of any Purchase Money, or any Contribution thereon, or in respect thereof, to be paid by any Tenant, and such Court may vary the Amount of such revised and new Rent as the Case may require; and if the Amount of such revised and new annual Rent shall be varied by the said Court, upon such Petition, from the Amount thereof ascertained by the said Commissioners, then the Amount thereof so ascertained and adjudged by the said Court shall be the annual Rent of the said Lands and Premises for each Period as aforesaid, and subject to the Provisions and Regulations aforesaid as to such revised and new annual Rent, and shall be inserted in such Certificate to be engrossed and enrolled as aforesaid, instead of the revised and new annual Rent ascertained by the said Commissioners as aforesaid, and stand in the Place of the same to all Intents and Purposes; provided that any Party or Person so petitioning, and being in such Petition, shall pay all the Costs in relation thereto.

CXLIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners under this Act to deduct and be paid, out of the Amount of such Purchase Money paid for the Purchase of the Fee Simple and Inheritance of and in any such Lands and Premises, such Sum or Sums of Money as shall be necessary for defraying the Costs or Expenses necessarily or properly incurred by the said Commissioners, or by such Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person, in and about or in respect of any such Purchase and Conveyance of the Fee Simple and Inheritance of and in the said Lands and Premises; and upon the Production of a Certificate, signed as behalf of the said Commissioners, specifying the Amount of such Costs and Expenses incurred by such Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person, or the said Commissioners, it shall and may be lawful for the said Governors and Directors of the said Bank of Ireland into whose Hands the said Purchase Money shall have been paid as aforesaid, and they are hereby directed, immediately thereupon, without further Order or Inquiry, to pay out of such Purchase Money to the said Commissioners, for defraying all such Costs and Expenses, the Amount so specified in such Certificate; which Payment and Certificate shall be received and allowed to such Governors and Directors of the said Bank of Ireland, in the Account of such Purchase Money, as a sufficient Discharge and Acquittance for the Amount thereof.

CXLIV. And be it enacted, That in all Cases of Applications for the Purchase of Properties under this Act, the Applicant shall deposit or secure in such Manner as the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall approve such Sum of Money as the said Commissioners shall think necessary to defray the Expenses which the said Commissioners may incur in ascertaining the Terms of the Purchase for which such Application shall be made; and in case such Applicant shall decline completing such Purchase, such Expenses as aforesaid shall be deducted from and out of the Money so deposited or secured, and the Surplus, if any, refunded to such Applicant; and in case such Applicant shall complete such Purchase, the whole Sum so deposited or secured shall be refunded, subject nevertheless to such Award as any Arbitrators appointed under this Act shall make in respect of the Expenses of such Arbitration.

CXLV. And be it further enacted, That for the Purpose of ascertaining the respective Amount of Purchase Money to be paid by any such Tenant or Lessee as aforesaid for the Purchase of the Fee Simple and Inheritance of and in any such Lands and Premises as aforesaid, the said Commissioners appointed under this Act shall inquire and ascertain, by the assent of a Commission, with the like Powers and Authorities and subject to the like Regulations as any other Commission to be issued under this Act, or by such other Ways and Means as to them shall seem fit, the full improved yearly Value of the said Lands and Premises, such full and improved annual Value to be taken and estimated according to the usual and accustomed Mode of ascertaining and estimating the same by the Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Corporation Sole in whose Diocese or Dignity or Promotions such Lands and Premises shall be respectively situate, and shall estimate and compute, according to the best of their Knowledge, Skill, and Ability, the Value of the Fee Simple and Inheritance in such Lands and Premises, subject to the annual Rent to be received and made payable thereon by the Deed of Conveyance to be executed in manner herein-before appointed; and having estimated and computed the Value of such Fee Simple and Inheritance, subject to such Rent, the said Commissioners shall deduct therefrom Four Fifths per Centum on the Amount thereof, and ascertain and declare the Amount of such Value so reduced; and the said Commissioners shall also estimate and compute the Value of the Interest in such Lands and Premises possessed by such Tenant or Tenants, Lessee or Lessees, under his, her, or their then subsisting Lease, and shall determine and declare the Difference between the Value reduced by such Four-Fifths as aforesaid of such Fee Simple and Inheritance, subject to the Rent aforesaid, and the Value of the Interest possessed under such Lease, which Difference shall be the Amount of Purchase Money to be paid by such Tenant or Tenants, Lessee or Lessees, for the Perpetuity to be acquired under this Act; and the said Commissioners shall insert such Amount in the Certificate of the Terms of such Purchase to be by them granted to such Tenant or Lessee as herein-before provided: Provided always, that in case any such Tenant or Lessee shall be dissatisfied with the Amount of Purchase Money adjudged payable to himself aforesaid by the said Commissioners, the Matter shall be referred to Three Arbitrators, one to be appointed by the said Commissioners, another by such Tenant or Lessee, and the third by the Two Arbitrators appointed as aforesaid, within Ten Days after Notice in Writing to be given by such Commissioners, Tenant, or Lessee for that Purpose; and in case of the Death or Incapacity, or Refusal to act of any or either of the said Arbitrators, either shall be appointed in the stead of the Party so unable or unwilling to act;

he was appointed, or by the said Two Arbitrators appointed by the Parties, as the Case may be, within Two Days next after Notice thereof; and the said Arbitrators, or any Two of them, shall and are hereby authorized and empowered, by actual Survey or Valuation, or by the Examination of Witnesses upon Oath (which Oath the said Arbitrators are hereby empowered to administer), and by such other Ways and Means as they shall think proper, to compute, estimate, and determine, in like Manner as the said Commissioners are herein-before directed, the Amount of Purchase Money payable for the Perpetuity to be acquired under this Act, and to make their Award therein by Writing under their Hands and Seals, or under the Hands and Seals of any Two of them; and such Award shall be binding upon the said Commissioners, and they shall amend accordingly the Certificate of the Terms of the Purchase to be by them granted to such Tenant or Lessee, or grant a new Certificate in lieu thereof, and the Expenses of such Arbitrators shall be borne by the said Commissioners, or by the said Tenant or Lessee or Lessee or Lessees, as such Arbitrators shall direct.

CXLVI. And he it further enacted, That the said annual Rent so reserved and made payable by any such Tenant or Lessee or Grantee out of or in respect of any such Lands and Premises, in any such Deed or Deeds of Conveyance thereof as aforesaid, and every such rent and now annual Rent so aforesaid, shall be recovered and recoverable by any such Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person, and his Successors, or by the said Commissioners and their Successors, as the Case may be, by all or any of the Ways, Means, or Remedies which, according to any Law or Statute now in force in England or hereafter to be made, is or are or shall be provided for the Recovery of any Rent Service upon any Lease for Life or for Years executed by any Landlord or Person named in Fee Simple, and subject to all the like Rules and Regulations by Statute or otherwise, any Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that if in any Action of Ejectment to be brought on account of the Nonpayment of any such annual Rent, pursuant to the Statutes in force in England as to Nonpayment of Rent, Judgment shall be had and given for the Plaintiff in such Action, and Execution shall have been executed, and such Tenant, Lessee, or Grantee who shall have so purchased the Fee Simple and Inheritance as aforesaid of and in such Lands and Premises, his Assignees or Assignees, or the Person or Persons who shall be then entitled to his Estate or Interest therein, shall not, within Six Months from the Time of such Execution executed, do such Act or Acts or take such Proceedings as are or shall be by Law necessary for the Redemption of the said Lands and Premises from the said Judgment and Execution, pursuant to the said Statutes, then and in every such Case it shall and may be lawful for any Tenant, Under-tenant, or Owner of any derivative Lease, Estate, or Interest in the said Lands and Premises, who shall have contributed to the Purchase of the Fee Simple and Inheritance as aforesaid, his Assignee or Assignees, within Nine Months after such Execution executed, to do such Act or Acts or take such Proceedings for the Redemption of the said Lands and Premises from the said Judgment and Execution, and for obtaining Relief in respect of the same, so under the said recited Statutes any Mortgagee of a Lease might do or take for the Redemption of the said Lease, or his Estate or Interest therein, from any Judgment and Execution in any Action of Ejectment for Nonpayment of Rent, pursuant to the said Statutes, and for obtaining Relief in respect of the same, and with the like Effect to all Intents and Purposes; and after such Redemption the Sum or Sums of Money so paid or advanced for or on account of such Redemption, and the Costs thereof, shall be and be deemed a Lien and Charge upon such Estate or Interest of such Tenant or Person so failing or neglecting to pay the same, or to take such Proceedings for such Redemption as aforesaid, and shall be payable, with Interest, to such Person who shall have so paid or advanced such Sum or Sums or obtained such Redemptions, or the same shall be recoverable by him (at his Election) from such Person so failing or neglecting as aforesaid, in and by any Action of Debt.

CXLVII. And he it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Owner, his Heirs, Assignees, or Assigns, or any Trustee after the passing of this Act, upon a Division of the Lands or Premises held by him or them, either by Sale or otherwise (except by Lease or Demise or Rack Rent), to make an Application in Writing to any Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person under whom he or they shall then hold the said Lands or Premises, or to the Commissioners under this Act in case the said Lands and Premises shall have been vested in and transferred by the said Commissioners, signifying the Desire of such Applicant that the yearly Rent or Rents then charged, or to be charged on the said Lands and Premises by such Deed of Conveyance as aforesaid shall be divided and apportioned upon Parts of the said Lands and Premises only; and thereupon in each and every such Case such Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person, or the said Commissioners, as the Case may be, shall and he or they is and are hereby authorized and required to divide or apportion the Whole or any Part of the said yearly Rent or Rents as aforesaid in such Messuages and Proportions as by such Application may be required, regard being had to the Security of the several Parts or Proportions of the said yearly Rent or Rents; and in case of any Disagreement in respect of such Apportionment, then the same shall be made by One or more Valuers, to be in all Cases nominated by the said Commissioners; and the Expenses of such Apportionment shall be in all Cases defrayed by the Party applying for the same; and such Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person, or the said Commissioners, or, in case of such Disagreement as aforesaid, such Valuer or Valuers, shall declare what Parts and Proportions of the said yearly Rent or Rents respectively shall in future be severally charged upon any Part or Parts of the said Lands and Premises, and shall state the Names and Descriptions, the Number of Acres, and the Mires and Bounds of each Partion, and the Amount of Rent to be reserved and made payable out of each such Partion respectively, and after every such Apportionment made digital by the University of Southampton Library Digitisation Unit agement the yearly Rents or Sums so apportioned shall be reserved and be made and be payable in such Parts and Proportions, and chargeable only upon such Proportion of the said Lands and Premises as shall be so declared to be liable to the Payment thereof respectively: and in case the said Apportionment shall be made before the Execution of a Conveyance of the Fee Simple and Inheritance, pursuant to this Act, then and in every such Case it shall and may be lawful for such Archbishop or Bishop, or for the said Commissioners, to execute separate Conveyances, in the Manner herein before directed for executing Conveyances, of each such Part or Proportion of the said Lands and Premises, subject only to the proportionate Rent payable in respect thereof; and in case a Conveyance shall have been made or executed by such Archbishop or Bishop, or the said Commissioners, of the said Lands and Premises, then and in every such Case the said Archbishop or Bishop, or the said Commissioners, shall execute, under his or their respective Seal, a Certificate setting forth the said Apportionment, and the Amount of the Rent to be charged or chargeable upon such Portion of the said Lands and Premises, and shall cause the same to be registered in the Registry of the Diocese wherein the said Lands and Premises shall be situate, and also to be enrolled in the Rolls Office of the High Court of Chancery along with and annexed to the Enrollment of the Deed of Conveyance of such Lands and Premises as aforesaid; and after such Registry and Enrollment of such Certificate the said Lands and Premises shall thenceforward stand and be charged and chargeable with the said yearly Rent or Sums in such Parts and Proportions only and in such Manner as shall be specified in such Certificate; and a Copy of such Enrollment, duly compared and attested, shall be conclusive Evidence of the Amount of Rent with which each respective Portion of the said Lands and Premises stands charged and chargeable.

CXLVIII. And he it further enacted, That immediately upon the Execution of such Deed of Conveyance as aforesaid of the said Lands and Premises, under the Provisions of this Act, the said Lands and Premises in the said Deed of Conveyance mentioned, and the Estates and Interests therein so granted, shall thereupon respectively go to and be vested in, settled upon, and enjoyed by the same Person or Persons, for the like Estate, Estates, or Interests, and to and upon the same Uses, Trusts, Issues, and Purposes respectively, (or as near thereto as the Nature of such Case and the Difference of Interest will admit,) as the said Lands and Premises stood settled or limited to, for, or upon, or each of them as at the Time of making such Conveyance shall be existing undetermined and capable of taking effect: Provided always, that the Execution of such Deed of Conveyance as aforesaid shall operate as and be and be deemed to be, to all Intents and Purposes, a Surrender of all and every the then previously subsisting Terms or Terms of Years, Estates, or Interest in the said Lands and Premises derived from or under such Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person, or the said Commissioners, as the Case may be: and the same and every of them shall thenceforth cease, determine, and be for ever extinguished.

CXLIX. And he it further enacted, That whenever any such Tenant or Lessee who shall have purchased and acquired as aforesaid the Fee Simple and Inheritance of and in such Lands and Premises previously held by him as immediate and superior Tenant under such Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person, or the said Commissioners appointed under this Act, shall, by virtue of any Lease, Covenant, or Contract theretofore made or entered into, be bound to render to any other Person or Persons any Lease of any such Lands and Premises, either as often as such Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person respectively shall renew the Lease of such Lands and Premises to him such immediate superior Tenant, or in any other Manner, then and in every such Case the Conveyance of the Fee Simple as aforesaid of and in the said Lands and Premises as aforesaid to such immediate and superior Tenant (or the Payment from Time to Time of the annual Rent out of the said Lands and Premises to the said Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person, or to the said Commissioners respectively,) shall (so long as the said Estate or Interest thereby granted shall continue) in all Courts of Law and Equity, and to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as to such under Tenant or inferior Tenant, or Person or Persons having any such derivative Estate or Interest, and being entitled to the Benefit of such Covenant or Contract for Renewal, and as to all other derivative Estates or Interests in the said Lands and Premises dependent upon such Covenant, Contract, or Agreement for Renewal, be and be deemed, taken, and construed to be a Renewal by such Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person, or otherwise, from Time to Time of the Lease of such immediate and superior Tenant, for the Purpose of and within the true Intend and Meaning of such Covenant, Contract, or Agreement for Renewal as aforesaid.

CL. And he it further enacted, That when the Fine to be paid upon the Execution of any such Renewal or before mentioned shall have been, by such Covenant, Contract, or Agreement for Renewal, agreed to be a certain or ascertained Proportion of or dependent upon the Amount of the Renewal Fine to be paid by the immediate superior Tenant of such Lands to such Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person as aforesaid, then and in such Case, upon and after the Completion of such Purchase of the Fee Simple of and in the said Lands and Premises as aforesaid, the Amount of such Proportion of such Renewal Fine payable by such under or inferior Tenant shall be ascertained by reference to the Amount of the average Renewal Fine payable previously to the said Purchase, as appearing in the Certificate of the said Commissioners appointed under this Act, registered in the Registry of the Diocese, and enrolled in the Rolls Office of the Court of Chancery as aforesaid, ascertaining the Amount of the average Renewal Fine payable by the immediate superior Tenant of the said Lands

CLL. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any such immediate superior Tenant of the said Lands under such Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person, or the said Commissioners, as the Case may be, or for any under or inferior Tenant or other Person as aforesaid having or claiming any derivative Estate or Interest in any of the said Lands and Premises immediately or mediately from, through, or under such superior Tenant, under or by virtue of any Lease or Contract containing a Covenant or Agreement for Renewal, in case any Dispute or Difference shall arise here-on there or any of them respectively as to the Sum of Money to be paid by any such inferior Tenant to any such his next immediate Landlord or the Person from whom he holds the said Lands, or any of them, or as to the Contribution towards such Purchase Money as aforesaid, or towards reimbursing to such his next immediate Landlord or Person from whom he holds as aforesaid a Proportion of the Same of Money paid or payable by such his next immediate Landlord or Person for a Contribution in respect of such Purchase as aforesaid, or in case during the Period of Six Calendar Months from the Service of any such Notice as last aforesaid there shall be no Opinion or Neglect by any of such Parties or Persons to agree with respect to any such Contribution, or in case within such Time no Agreement shall be made with respect to the same, or in case any such Dispute shall arise respecting any Mortgage or Sale of any Land or Premises for raising any Contribution Money or Part thereof, as respecting the Variation of any Fine, as herein-after provided, according to the Price of Wheat or Oats, or respecting the Redemption of any additional and increased annual Rent to be reserved in lieu or stead of any Contribution under the Provisions herein-after contained, in any of such Cases to present a Petition to the High Court of Chancery or Court of Exchequer in Ireland, stating the Premises respectively as the Case may be, and praying the proper or necessary Relief in relation to the said Matters; whereupon it shall and may be lawful for such Court, without requiring

Proof of any Notice of such Petition being given to or served upon any Person or Persons, to make an Order referring the Matter of such Petition to one of the Masters of the Court of Chancery, or to the Chief Remembrancer of the Court of Exchequer, as the Case may be, directing such Master or Chief Remembrancer to inquire and report concerning the said Matters or any of them, as such Court shall direct; and thereupon it shall and may be lawful for the said Master or Chief Remembrancer, as the Case may be, to summon before him any of the said Parties, or any Person or Persons, and to examine him or them, upon Oath, respecting any of the Matters so referred to him, and upon Appearance of, or Proof of Service of Notice of such Petition and Order upon, any such Person or Persons to be affected by such Petition, to inquire and make his Report concerning the said Matters so referred to him, as in other Cases of References to any such Master or Chief Remembrancer under the Orders of such respective Courts: to which Report of such Master or Chief Remembrancer it shall be lawful for any of the said Parties to the said Petition or to be affected by it to take an Exception or Exceptions as in other Cases of Exceptions taken to any Reports of such Master or Chief Remembrancer; and upon the Hearing of such Report when not excepted to, or upon the Hearing of such Exceptions to such Report when any such shall have been taken thereon, it shall and may be lawful for such Court to make such Order for the Payment of such Sum or Sums of Money by such Person or Persons as shall be found to be chargeable with the same by such Report, or of such Sum or Sums of Money by such Person or Persons as, upon Exceptions taken to such Report, the said Court shall deem to be properly chargeable with the same, to be paid within Three Calendar Months from the Time of Service of such Order of the said Court, in such Manner as such Court shall think fit, or such other Order as the said Court shall think fit; and such Order of such Court shall be final and conclusive, and without any Appeal therefrom; and the said Court may order the Costs of any such Proceedings in relation to the said Petition to be paid by or to any of the said Parties respectively, as the said Court shall think fit, and such Order or Orders shall and may be served either in the Manner herein-after provided, or in such other Manner as the said Court shall think fit to direct: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for any such immediate superior Tenant of such Lands and Premises, if he shall so think fit, to make all the Tenants or Persons having or claiming any derivative Estate or Interest in the said Lands whether immediately or mediately from, through, or under him by virtue of any Covenant for Renewal, Parties to any such Petition, for the Purpose of having all the Sums of Money payable by or chargeable upon all and every of such Persons in respect of any such Contribution simultaneously satisfied.

CLIV. And be it further enacted, That if any such Person or Persons having or claiming any such derivative Estate or Interest in such Lands and Premises by virtue of any Lease or Contract containing any such Covenant or Agreement for Renewal, having been served with any such Notice calling on him or them for any such Contribution as aforesaid, by Writing decline or refuse to take or accept a Renewal of such Estate or Interest, subject to the Provisions of this Act, or who bring or serve with any such Order of such Court as aforesaid shall neglect or refuse to comply with the Terms of such Order for or during the Period of Three Calendar Months from the Time of the Service of such Order as aforesaid, every such Person so declining or refusing to take or accept such Renewal as aforesaid, or neglecting or refusing to comply with such Order as aforesaid, his or their Heirs, Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, and all other Persons claiming under him, or claiming any Benefit or Interest under any such respective Lease or Contract containing such Covenant or Agreement for Renewal, shall for ever thereafter be barred of and from all Right, Benefit, and Advantage, in Law or Equity, in, of, and from such Covenant or Agreement for Renewal, or to obtain any new Lease of the said Lands and Premises respectively; and every such Person or Persons, his or their Heirs, Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, and all Persons claiming any Benefit of such respective Covenant or Agreement for Renewal, shall be therewith for ever barred from all Relief in any Court of Law or Equity in respect of any such Covenant or Agreement for Renewal: Provided always, that any such Order of any such Court as aforesaid shall and may be enforced by any of the Ways or Means by which any Order pronounced by such Court in any Suit in Equity upon a Bill filed may be enforced, save only as against any Person or Persons who, being entitled to any such derivative Estate or Interest as aforesaid, shall have, by Notice in Writing, declined or refused to take or accept any Renewal of such Estate or Interest.

CLV. And be it further enacted, That whenever it shall happen that any immediate and superior Tenant of such Lands, or any other Tenant or Person having any derivative Estate or Interest in such Lands and Premises immediately or mediately from, through, or under any such immediate superior Tenant of such Lands, (other than and except Tenants at Rack Rent for Years, or from Year to Year, or at Will,) shall be unable or unwilling to pay or advance such Sum or Sums of Money as shall be ascertained, agreed, or adjudged as aforesaid to be payable by any such Person or Persons respectively for or on account of such Purchase Money or Contribution in respect of such Purchase Money as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for any of such Persons, in lieu of paying or advancing any such Sum or Sums of Money respectively, or the whole Amount thereof respectively, to grant to the Person or Persons respectively entitled to receive any such Sum or Sums of Money, or to any other Person or Persons who shall be willing to advance such Sum or Sums of Money, a Mortgage of the said Lands and Premises so held or possessed by him or them respectively, or of their respective Estate or Interest therein, (subject nevertheless to such annual Rent as aforesaid, and to any Rent or Rent payable thereon,) for such original Payment of such Sum or Sums of Money as to the said Person or Persons respectively, for Payment of such other Rent next after the giving of such Notice; provided that the making of such Election, and the giving of such Notice, and the Payment of such additional Rent by such under or inferior Tenant or Owner of such derivative Estate or Interest, shall be deemed and taken to be a sufficient Compliance with any Order as herein-before mentioned to be made by the Court of Chancery or Court of Exchequer for the Payment of such Contribution Money as aforesaid by such Tenant or Owner of such derivative Estate or Interest; Provided also, that it shall and may be lawful for such under or inferior Tenant or Owner of such derivative Estate or Interest, having served such Notice as last aforesaid, and being liable to the Payment of such last-mentioned additional Rent, to redeem the Whole or any Portion of such additional Rent, by paying at any Time thereafter to such his next immediate Landlord of the said Lands and Premises, his Executors or Administrators, or Assigns, the Whole or any Portion of such Contribution Money payable in respect of such derivative Estate or Interest, in manner following; (that is to say,) that from such Time when the Whole or a Portion of such Contribution Money shall be so paid as last aforesaid, the Whole or so much of such additional Rent as shall be equivalent to the Interest of such Sum of Money so paid, at the Rate of Six Pence per Centum for a Year, shall cease and determine; and the Owner of such derivative Estate or Interest, and his Assigns, and such Lands and Premises so held by him or them, shall from the Time of such Payment cease to be liable to the Payment of the Whole or of such Portion of the said additional Rent, as the Case may be.

CLVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person, who by reason of being possessed of an Estate or Interest in such Lands shall become liable to pay any Part of such Purchase Money required for the Purchase of the Fee Simple and Inheritance of and to such Lands and Premises, or such Contribution Money in respect of such Purchase as aforesaid, and shall have paid or advanced the same or such Portion thereof as he was liable to pay as aforesaid, shall, by virtue of any Deed, Will, Instrument, Contract, or otherwise, be seised or possessed of or entitled to only a limited Interest as Tenant for Life, or other like limited Interest, in such Lands and Premises, or in such Estate or Interest therein, the Executor and Administrators of any such Tenant for Life or Person having such like limited Interest, having so paid or advanced any such Purchase Money or Contribution Money in respect of such Purchase, shall after his Death, as against all Persons claiming any Charge, Incumbrance, or Estate in or upon such derivative Estate or Interest, be the first Incumbrancer or Incumbrancers upon, and have the first Charge or Lien upon, such Estate or Interest in such Lands and Premises (having always such annual Rent as aforesaid payable to such Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person, or the said Commissioners, or other Head Rent payable out of the same,) for the Amount of such Sum of Money so paid by him, together with legal Interest thereon from the Time of the Decease of such Tenant for Life or Person having such like limited Interest; Provided nevertheless, that if any Part of such Principal Sum of Money so paid and advanced by such Person shall be repaid or refunded to such Person having such limited Interest, his Executors or Administrators, by any under or inferior Tenant of the said Lands and Premises, by way of Contribution in respect of any such Purchase under the Provisions thereof, such Charge, Lien, or Incumbrance shall be reduced by the Amount of the Sum so refunded or repaid as aforesaid.

CLIX. And be it further enacted, That for the Purpose of raising such Purchase Money or Contribution Money in respect of such Purchase as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for all Bodies Politic, Corporations, and Collegiate, Corporations Aggregate or Sole, and all Guilds, Fraternities, and Brotherhoods, whether Corporata or not Corporata, and all Trustees for Charities or other public Purposes, and all Joint Stock Companies, who are or shall be possessed of any Estate or Interest in any such Lands or Premises belonging to the See or other Spiritual Promotion or Dignity of any Archbishop or Bishop or other Ecclesiastical Person, and also for any Committee or Curator of any Infant or Lunatic, or of any Person non compos mentis, and for any Guardian of any Infant, or for any Person authorized to act for any incapacitated Person, (which Infant, Lunatic, non compos mentis, Infane, or incapacitated Person shall be possessed of or entitled to any Estate or Interest in any of the said Lands and Premises,) in the same Manner as such Persons might have done if not under any Incapacity, and also for all Trustees of any such Lands and Premises on behalf of the Persons for whom they shall be Trustees, and also for all Persons having a limited Interest in possession in any of such Lands and Premises as Tenants for Life, or such like limited Estate, to contract or agree respectively as to the Amount of any Purchase Money or Contribution Money in respect of such Purchase to be paid as herein-before mentioned in respect of any such respective Lands and Premises, and to apply to or appear before any of the said Courts as Parties to any such Petition or Proceedings as herein-before mentioned, and to comply with and perform the Orders of any of the said Courts respecting any such Contribution Money or other Matters; and (for the Purpose of performing any such Order, or for raising any such Purchase Money or Contribution Money, or for doing or performing such other Matters or Things as shall in such respective Cases be necessary or proper under the Provisions of this Act) also to make or execute any such Sale or Mortgage of the Whole or a Portion of such respective Lands and Premises, or such respective Interest or Estates therein as shall be necessary or proper in each such Case; and also to agree for or cause to be reserved or recoverable out of such respective Lands and Premises, or such respective Estates or Interests, such additional annual Rent as aforesaid as may be necessary or proper under the Provisions of this Act, in lieu of Payment of any such Contribution Money; and also to make, do, or execute all other Matters, Acts, and Things necessary or proper therein for the Purpose of effecting the said ends and purposes of the said Act, and the Tenants for Life or other limited Interest shall be the first Incumbrancers or Mortgages of record by them.

the Provisions or executing the Powers hereof in any respect, as to any such Lands, in the same or in like Manner, as nearly as the Nature of each Case will admit, as fully and effectually, to all Intent and Purposes, and subject to all the same Rules and Regulations, as, under the Provisions hereof, any Person of full Age, being solely or absolutely possessed of or entitled for his own Use to any Lease of any such Lands, or any derivative Estate or Interest therein, might or could make, do, or execute the same or any of them under the Provisions of this Act; and that whenever in any of the Provisions of this Act relating to any such Lands, in describing any Tenant, Landlord, or other Person, a Word importing the Singular Number or the Masculine Gender only be used, the same shall be understood to include and be applied to several Persons as well as One Person, and Female as well as Male, and to such Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate as aforesaid, and to such Corporations Aggregate or Sole, Guilds, Fraternities, or Brotherhoods, Corporate or not Corporate, Trustees for Charities or other public Purposes, and Trustees for any Person or Persons, as well as to Individuals; and that the Word "Landlord" shall extend as well to any Person or Persons, Body Corporate, Politic, or Collegiate, or other Body of Persons entitled to receive any Rent out of any of such Lands and Premises, as to Persons usually or legally designated by such Word; and that the Word "Tenant" shall extend as well to any Person or Persons, Body Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, or other Body of Persons, who shall be bound to pay any Rent out of any of such Lands and Premises, as to Persons usually or legally designated by such Word, unless in any of the foregoing Cases there be something in the Subject or Context repugnant to such Construction.

CLX. And be it further enacted, That while and as long as any Tenant or Tenants, Lessee or Lessees, holding, or who shall at any Time hereafter hold immediately from and under the said Commissioners under this Act, any Lands, Premises, or Hereditaments heretofore belonging or which shall hereafter belong to any Bishoprick or hereafter to be united to any other Archbishoprick or Bishoprick, and such Lands, Premises, and Hereditaments, or the Revenue thereof, shall have been transferred to and vested in the said Commissioners by virtue of this Act, shall be desists of holding such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments by the like Tenure as the same have been heretofore held by, and shall from Time to Time, at such Periods as the Lease in such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments may have been theretofore usually renewed, or ought to be renewed according to the customary Manner of renewing the same, or within Six Months thereafter, apply for a Renewal of such Lease, and the said Commissioners under this Act shall and may accept a Surrender of the then subsisting Lease, and shall and are hereby required to devise anew the Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments therein contained for such like Terms or Interest as may have been granted therein by the Lease so surrendered, reserving by such new Lease the annual Rent or Rents theretofore reserved out of the said Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments by the Lease so surrendered, and receiving for and in consideration of making such new Lease Payment of such a Fine as may be equal to the average Amount of the Renewal Fees theretofore paid or agreed to be paid, or customarily paid or payable for the Renewal of the Lease or Interest in such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, such annual Rent or Rents and average Amount of such Renewal Fees to be ascertained by all such and the like Means as hereinbefore provided for ascertaining the same in the Case of Applications for the Purchase of Perpetuities under this Act.

CLXI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in case the Value of any new Lease or Interest so to be granted as aforesaid shall at any Time appear to the said Commissioners to be increased or diminished in any Manner whatsoever, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to accept or require such greater or lesser Renewal Fee or Fees as in their Judgment may be just and reasonable with regard to such increased or diminished Value: Provided nevertheless, that if any Difference as to the Increase or Reduction of such average Renewal Fee should arise between the said Commissioners and the Tenant or Tenants, Lessee or Lessees claiming such Renewal, the same shall be referred to the Determination of Three Arbitrators, to be appointed in manner hereinbefore provided for the Appointment of Arbitrators to adjust Differences between the said Commissioners and Tenants or Lessees applying for the Purchase of Perpetuities under this Act, and with the like Powers and Authority so far as the same are applicable; and the Determination of such Arbitrators as to the Amount of such Increase or Reduction of the said Fee shall be conclusive and binding upon all Persons whatsoever; and the Expence of such Arbitration shall be borne by the said Commissioners, or by the said Tenant or Tenants, or Lessee or Lessees, as such Arbitrators shall direct.

CLXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Archbishop or Bishop, or other Ecclesiastical Person, in any Lease or Demise of any Lands or Premises to be made by him or Right of his See or other Spiritual Proceeding, after the passing of this Act, or for the said Commissioners, in any Lease or Demise to be made by them of any Lands and Premises vested in them pursuant to the Provisions of this Act, to reserve any additional Rent or Sum reserved as a consequence of the Change in the Liability to the Payment of Corporations for Tithes in any Lease or Demise of any such Lands and Premises made by him or them after the Statute Day of August One thousand eight hundred and thirty-two from the former and customary annual Rent or Rents theretofore reserved and payable out of such Lands and Premises, and to reserve such former and customary annual Rent or Rents in any new Lease or Demise to be made thereof by him or them after the passing of this Act.

CLXIII. And be it further enacted, That no Lease or Demise of any Lands and Premises to be made by any Archbishop or Bishop, or other Ecclesiastical Person, after the passing of this Act, or by the said Commissioners of any Lands and Premises vested or which may hereafter be vested in them pursuant to the Provisions of this Act, shall be deemed a P

C A P. XXXVIII.

An Act to extend to the Twenty-first Day of January One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, the Time for carrying into execution an Act of the First and Second Years of His present Majesty, for ascertaining the Boundaries of the Forest of Dean, and for inquiring into the Rights and Privileges claimed by Free Miners of the Hundred of Saint Brice's, and for other Purposes.

[14th August 1833.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for ascertaining the Boundaries of the Forest of Dean, and for ascertaining into the Rights and Privileges claimed by Free Miners of the Hundred of Saint Brice's, and for other Purposes: And whereas the Commission directed by the said recited Act to be issued under the Great Seal of Great Britain, or under the Seal of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer, bears Date the Twenty-first Day of January One thousand eight hundred and thirty-two: And whereas the Time within which the Commissioners are by the said recited Act directed to make their Reports to the Lord High Treasurer, or Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, will expire on the Second Day of August One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three: And whereas the Commissioners appointed by virtue of the said Act have proceeded with all practicable Expedition, and have made great Progress in inquiring into and ascertaining the Boundaries of the said Forest of Dean, the Rights and Interests of Persons occupying or claiming to be interested in Lands or Tenements within the same, and the Origin of the Rights and Privileges claimed by the Persons calling themselves Free Miners; but as such Rights, Privileges, and Interests are of a very complicated Description, and have occupied considerable Time in their Investigation, and some of them not being yet ascertained and settled, it will be impracticable for the Commissioners to make the Reports directed by the said recited Act within the Period thereby limited; and it is therefore expedient that further Time should be allowed for that Purpose; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Time for making the several Reports directed to be made by the said Commissioners under the Authority of the said recited Act shall be extended until the Twenty-first Day of January One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

II. And be it further enacted, That all the Powers, Provisions, Authorities, Regulations, Directions, Clauses, Penalties, Forfeitures, Matters, and Things in the said recited Act contained shall extend and be construed to extend to this present Act, and shall operate and be in force during the said additional Period, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same Powers, Authorities, Provisions, Regulations, Directions, Clauses, Penalties, Forfeitures, Matters, and Things were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act and made expressly applicable thereto, and as if the Time for the making the said several Reports by the said Commissioners as aforesaid had been therein originally extended to the said additional Period.

C A P. XXXIX.

An Act to reduce certain of the Duties on Dwelling Houses, and to repeal other Duties of Assessed Taxes.

[14th August 1833.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Forty-eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled *An Act for repealing the Duties of Assessed Taxes, and granting new Duties in lieu thereof, and certain additional Duties to be consolidated therewith; and also for repealing the Stamp Duties on Gene Consignments, and granting new Duties in lieu thereof, to be placed under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes; and the several other Acts in force for granting and regulating the Assessment of the Duties on inhabited Dwelling Houses, all Shops and Warehouses therein-after described, being Parts of Dwelling Houses occupied by Persons in Trade, and included in the Rate or annual Value of the Dwelling House, and the Household and other Officers: And whereas by an Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled *An Act for repealing certain of the Duties of Assessed Taxes, for reducing certain other of the said Duties, and for relieving Persons who have compounded for the same, Persons in Trade because exempt for the Duties chargeable by the said Acts on Windows or Lights for any Number not exceeding Three Windows or Lights to any Shop or Warehouse in the Front or Fronts and on the Ground or Basement Story of every Dwelling House occupied by such Person or Persons in Trade, who should expose to sale or sell any Goods, Wares, or Merchandises in any such Shop or Warehouse: And whereas it is expedient to grant further Relief to Persons in Trade who are assessed for their Dwelling Houses or Tenements which they occupy for the joint Purposes of Residence and carrying on their Trades in such Shops or Warehouses thereof as are described in the said last-mentioned Act: Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That upon all Assessments for any Year, commencing from and after the Fifth Day of April

1833 c. 38.

An Act for the better Administration of Justice in His Majesty's Privy Council.

[14th August 1833.]

WHEREAS by virtue of an Act passed in a Session of Parliament of the Sixth and Third Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for transferring the Powers of the High Court of Delegates, both in Ecclesiastical and Maritime Causes, to His Majesty in Council, it was enacted, that from and after the First Day of February One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three it should be lawful for every Person who might thereafter, by virtue either of an Act passed in the Twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, intitled The Subordination of the Clergy and Restraint of Appeals, or of an Act passed in the Eighth Year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, intitled For the settling of certain Acts in Civil and Marine Causes, have appeared or made suit to His Majesty in the High Court of Chancery, to appeal or make suit to the King's Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, in Council, within such Time, in such Manner, and subject to such Rules, Orders, and Regulations for the due and more convenient Proceeding, as should seem meet and necessary, and upon such Security, of any, as His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, should from Time to Time by Order in Council direct: And whereas, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, certain Persons, Members of His Majesty's Privy Council, together with others, being Judges and Barons of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, have been from Time to Time appointed to be His Majesty's Commissioners for receiving, hearing, and determining Appeals from His Majesty's Courts of Admiralty, in Causes of Prize: And whereas, from the Decline of various sorts of Judicature in the East Indies, and in the Plantations, Colonies, and other Possessions of His Majesty Abroad, an Appeal lies to His Majesty in Council: And whereas Matters of Appeal or Petition to His Majesty in Council have usually been heard before a Committee of the whole of His Majesty's Privy Council, who have made a Report to His Majesty in Council, whereupon the final Judgment or Determination hath been given by His Majesty: And whereas it is expedient to make certain Provisions for the more effectual hearing and reporting on Appeals to His Majesty in Council and on other Matters, and to give such Powers and Jurisdiction to His Majesty in Council as herein-after mentioned: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the President for the Time being of His Majesty's Privy Council, and the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain for the Time being, and such of the Members of His Majesty's Privy Council as shall from Time to Time hold any of the Offices following, that is to say, the Office of Lord Keeper or First Lord Commissioner of the Great Seal of Great Britain, Lord Chief Justice or Judge of the Court of King's Bench, Master of the Rolls, Vice Chancellor of England, Lord Chief Justice or Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, Lord Chief Justice or Baron of the Court of Exchequer, Judge of the Prerogative Court of the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and Chief Judge of the Court in Bankruptcy, and also all Persons Members of His Majesty's Privy Council who shall have been President thereof or hold the Office of Lord Chancellor of Great Britain, or shall have held any of the other Offices herein-before mentioned, shall form a Committee of His Majesty's and Privy Council, and shall be styled in the Acts by the Commission of the King's Majesty in Council, and shall be

be lawful for His Majesty from Time to Time, as and when He shall think fit, by His Sign Manual, to appoint any Two other Persons, being Privy Counsellors, to be Members of the said Committee.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three all Appeals or Applications in Prize Cases and in all other Suits or Proceedings in the Courts of Admiralty, or Vice Admiralty Courts, or any other Court in the Possessions in America and other His Majesty's Dominions or elsewhere Abroad, which may now, by virtue of any Law, Statute, Commission, or Warrant, be made to the High Court of Admiralty in England, or to the Lords Commissioners in Prize Cases, shall be made to His Majesty in Council, and not to the said High Court of Admiralty in England or to such Commissioners as aforesaid; and such Appeals shall be made in the same Manner and Form and within such Time wherein such Appeals might, if this Act had not been passed, have been made to the said High Court of Admiralty or to the Lords Commissioners in Prize Cases respectively; and that all Laws or Statutes now in force with respect to any such Appeals or Applications shall apply to any Appeals to be made in pursuance of this Act to His Majesty in Council.

III. And be it further enacted, That all Appeals or Complaints in the Nature of Appeals whatsoever, which, either by virtue of this Act, or of any Law, Statute, or Custom, may be brought before His Majesty or His Majesty in Council from or in respect of the Determination, Sentence, Rule, or Order of any Court, Judge, or Judicial Officer, and all such Appeals as are now pending and unheard, shall from and after the passing of this Act be referred by His Majesty to the said Judicial Committee of His Privy Council, and that such Appeals, Causes, and Matters shall be heard by the said Judicial Committee, and a Report or Recommendation thereon shall be made to His Majesty in Council for His Decision thereon as herebefore, in the same Manner and Form as has been heretofore the Custom with respect to Matters referred by His Majesty to the whole of His Privy Council or a Committee thereof (the Nature of such Report or Recommendation being always stated in open Court).

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to refer to the said Judicial Committee for Hearing or Consideration any such Matter whatsoever as His Majesty shall think fit, and such Committee shall thereupon hear or consider the same, and shall advise His Majesty thereon in manner aforesaid.

V. And be it further enacted, That no Matter shall be heard, nor shall any Order, Report, or Recommendation be made, by the said Judicial Committee, in pursuance of this Act, unless in the Presence of at least Four Members of the said Committee; and that no Report or Recommendation shall be made to His Majesty unless a Majority of the Members of such Judicial Committee present at the Hearing shall concur in such Report or Recommendation: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent His Majesty, if He shall think fit, from summoning any other of the Members of His said Privy Council to attend the Meetings of the said Committee.

VI. And be it further enacted, That in case His Majesty shall be pleased, by Directions under His Sign Manual, to require the Attendance at the said Committee for the Purpose of this Act of any Member or Members of the said Privy Council who shall be a Judge or Judges of the Court of King's Bench, or of the Court of Common Pleas, or of the Court of Exchequer, such Arrangements for despatching the Attendance of such Judge or Judges upon his or their ordinary Duties during the Time of such Attendance at the Privy Council as aforesaid shall be made by the Judges of the Court or Courts in which such Judge or Judges shall belong respectively in regard to the Business of the Court, and by the Judges of the said Three Courts, or by any Eight or more of such Judges, including the Chief of the several Courts, in regard to all other Duties, as may be necessary and consistent with the Public Service.

VII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Judicial Committee, in any Matter which shall be referred to such Committee, to examine Witnesses by Word of Mouth, (and either before or after Examination by Deposition,) or to direct that the Depositions of any Witness shall be taken in Writing by the Registrar of the said Privy Council, to be appointed by His Majesty as hereinafter mentioned, or by such other Person or Persons, and in such Manner, Order, and Course as His Majesty in Council or the said Judicial Committee shall appoint and direct; and that the said Registrar and such other Person or Persons so to be appointed shall have the same Powers as are now possessed by an Examiner of the High Court of Chancery or of any Court Ecclesiastical.

VIII. And be it enacted, That in any Matter which shall come before the said Judicial Committee it shall be lawful for the said Committee to direct that such Witnesses shall be examined or re-examined, and as to such Facts as to the said Committee shall seem fit, notwithstanding any such Witness may not have been examined, or no Evidence may have been given on any such Facts in a previous Stage of the Matter; and it shall also be lawful for His Majesty in Council, on the Recommendations of the said Committee, upon any Appeal, to remit the Matter which shall be the Subject of such Appeal to the Court from the Decision of which such Appeal shall have been made, and at the same Time to direct that such Court shall rehear such Matter, in such Form, and either generally or upon certain Points only, and upon such rehearing take such additional Evidence, though before rejected, or reject such Evidence before admitted, as His Majesty in Council shall direct; and further, on any such remitting or otherwise, it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council to direct that One or more signed Issues or Issues shall be tried in any Court in any of His Majesty's Dominions Abroad, for any Purpose for which such Issue or Issues shall to His Majesty in Council seem proper.

Appeals from Vice Admiralty Courts Abroad, &c. to be made to the King in Council.

All Appeals from Sentences of any Judge, &c. to be referred by His Majesty to the Committee, to report thereon.

His Majesty may refer any of the Matters to the Committee.

No Matter to be heard unless in Presence of Four Members of the Committee.

In case the King directs the Attendance of any Judge, a Member of the Committee, Arrangements to be made by the several Judges of the Court.

Evidence may be taken viva voce, or upon written Depositions.

Committee may order any particular Witness to be examined, and as to any particular Facts, and may remit Causes for rehearing.

appealing

XI. And he it enacted, That every Witness who shall be examined in pursuance of this Act shall give his or her Evidence upon Oath, or if a Quaker or Moravian upon solemn Affirmation, which Oath and Affirmation respectively shall be administered by the said Judicial Commissioner and Registrar, and by such other Persons or Persons as His Majesty in Council or the said Judicial Commissioner shall appoint; and that every such Witness who shall wilfully swear or affirm falsely shall be deemed guilty of Perjury, and shall be punished accordingly.

X. And he it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Judicial Commissioner to direct One or more Special Issues or Issues to be tried in any Court of Common Law, and either at Bar, before a Judge of Assize, or at the Settings for the Trial of Issues in Lawes or Chancery, and either by a Special or Common Jury, in like Manner and for the same Purpose as is now done by the High Court of Chancery.

XI. And he it enacted, That it shall be in the Discretion of the said Judicial Commissioner to direct that, so the Trial of any such Issues, the Depositions already taken of any Witness who shall have died, or who shall be incapable to give oral Testimony, shall be received in Evidence; and further, that such Deeds, Evidence, and Writings shall be produced, and that such Facts shall be admitted, as to the said Commissioner shall seem fit.

XII. And he it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Judicial Commissioner to make such and the like Orders respecting the Admission of Persons, whether Parties or others, to be examined as Witnesses upon the Trial of any such Issues as aforesaid, as the Lord High Chancellor or the Court of Chancery has been used to make respecting the Admission of Witnesses upon the Trial of Issues directed by the Lord Chancellor or the Court of Chancery.

XIII. And he it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Judicial Commissioner to direct One or more new Trials or new Trials of any Issues, either generally or upon certain Points only; and that in case any Witness examined at a former Trial of the same Issue shall have died, or have, through bodily or mental Disease or Infirmary, become incapable to repeat his Testimony, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioner to direct that such Evidence of the Testimony of such Witness shall be received.

XIV. And whereas by an Act passed in the Thirteenth Year of His late Majesty King George the Third, and intituled an Act for establishing certain Regulations for the better Management of the Affairs of the East India Company, or well in India or in Europe, and by an Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and intituled An Act to make the Courts of Law to order the Examinations of Witnesses upon Interrogatories and otherwise, certain Powers are given to certain Courts therein mentioned to enforce, and Provisions are made for the Examination of Witnesses by Commissioners, upon Interrogatories and otherwise; he it therefore further enacted, That all the Powers and Provisions contained in the Two last-mentioned Acts, or either of them, shall extend to and be exercised by the said Judicial Commissioner in all respects as if such Commissioner had been therein named as one of His Majesty's Courts of Law at Westminster.

XV. And he it enacted, That the Costs incurred in the Prosecution of any Appeal or Matter referred to the said Judicial Committee, and of such Issues as the same Committee shall under this Act direct, shall be paid by such Party or Parties, Person or Persons, and be taxed by the aforesaid Registrar, or such other Person or Persons, to be appointed by His Majesty in Council or the said Judicial Committee, and in such Manner as the said Committee shall direct.

XVI. And he it further enacted, That the Orders or Decrees of His Majesty in Council made in pursuance of any Recommendation of the said Judicial Committee, in any Matter of Appeal from the Judgment or Order of any Court or Judge, shall be enrolled, for safe Custody, in such Manner, and the same may be inspected and Copies thereof taken under such Regulations, as His Majesty in Council shall direct.

XVII. And he it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioner to refer any Matters to be examined and reported on to the aforesaid Registrar, or to such other Person or Persons as shall be appointed by His Majesty in Council or by the said Judicial Committee, in the same Manner and for the like Purpose as Masters are referred by the Court of Chancery to a Master of the said Court; and that for the Purpose of the Act the said Registrar and the said Person or Persons so to be appointed shall have the same Powers and Authorities as are now possessed by a Master in Chancery.

XVIII. And he it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, under His Sign Manual, to appoint any Person to be the Registrar of the said Privy Council, as regards the Purpose of this Act, and to direct what Duties shall be performed by the said Registrar.

XIX. And he it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the President for the Time being of the said Privy Council to require the Attendance of any Witness, and the Production of any Deeds, Evidence, or Writings, by Writ to be issued by such President: as such and the same Force, or as nearly as may be, as that in which a Writ of Subpoena ad testificandum or of Subpoena duces tecum is now issued by His Majesty's Court of King's Bench or Westminster; and that every Person disobeying any such Writ so to be issued by the said President shall be considered as in Contempt of the said Judicial Committee, and shall also be liable to such and the same Penalties and Consequences as if such Writ had issued out of the said Court of King's Bench, and may be used for such Penalties by the said Court.

XX. And he it further enacted, That all Appeals to His Majesty in Council shall be made within such Times respectively within which the same may now be made, where such Times shall be fixed by Printed image deposited by the University of Southampton Library Digitisation Unit any Law or Usage, and where no such Law or Usage shall exist, then within such Term as shall be ordered by His Majesty in Council; and that, subject to any Right subsisting under any Charter or Constitution of any Colony or Plantation, it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council to alter any Usage as to the Time of making Appeals, and to make any Order respecting the Time of appealing to His Majesty in Council.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That the Order or Decree of His Majesty in Council on any Appeal, from the Order, Sentence, or Decree of any Court of Justice in the East Indies, or of any Colony, Plantation, or other His Majesty's Dominions Abroad, shall be carried into effect in such Manner, and subject to such Limitations and Conditions, as His Majesty in Council shall, on the Recommendation of the said Judicial Committee, direct; and it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, on such Recommendation, by Order, to direct that such Court of Justice shall carry the same into effect accordingly, and thereupon such Court of Justice shall have the same Powers of carrying into effect and enforcing such Order or Decree as are possessed by or are hereby given to His Majesty in Council: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall suspend or abridge the Powers, Jurisdiction, or Authority of His Majesty's Privy Council as heretofore exercised by such Council, or in anywise alter the Constitution or Duties of the said Privy Council, except so far as the same are expressly altered by this Act, and for the Purposes aforesaid.

XXII. And whereas various Appeals to His Majesty in Council from the Courts of Sudder Dewanny Adawlat at the several Presidencies of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay in the East Indies, have been admitted by the said Courts, and the Transcripts of the Proceedings in Appeal have been from Time to Time transmitted under the Seal of the said Courts, through the United Company of Merchants in England trading to the East Indies, to the Office of His Majesty's said Privy Council, but the Sisters in the Classes so appealed have not taken the necessary Measures to bring on the same to a Hearing; he it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council to give such Directions to the said United Company and other Persons for the Purpose of bringing to a Hearing before the said Committee the several Cases appealed or heretofore to be appealed to His Majesty in Council from the several Courts of Sudder Dewanny Adawlat in the East Indies, and for appointing Agents and Counsel for the different Parties in such Appeals, and to make such Orders for Security and Payment of the Costs thereof, as His said Majesty in Council shall think fit; and thereupon such Appeals shall be heard and reported on to His Majesty in Council, and shall be by His Majesty in Council determined in the same Manner, and the Judgments, Orders, and Decrees of His Majesty in Council thereon shall be of the same Force and Effect, as if the same had been brought to a Hearing by the Direction of the Parties appealing in the usual Course of proceeding: Provided always, that such last-mentioned Powers shall not extend to any Appeals from the said Courts of Sudder Dewanny Adawlat other than Appeals in which no Proceedings have been or shall heretofore be taken in England on either Side for a Period of Two Years subsequent to the Admission of the Appeal by such Court of Sudder Dewanny Adawlat.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That in any Case where any Order shall have been made on any such Appeal as last aforesaid, the same shall have full Force and Effect notwithstanding the Death of any of the Parties interested therein; but that in all Cases where any such Appeal may have been withdrawn or discontinued, or any Compromise made in respect of the Matter in dispute, before the Hearing thereof, then the Determination of His Majesty in Council in respect of such Appeal shall have no Effect.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council from Time to Time to make any such Rules, and Orders as may be thought fit for the regulating the Mode, Form, and Time of Appeal to be made from the Decisions of the said Courts of Sudder Dewanny Adawlat, or any other Courts of Judicature in India or elsewhere as the Eastward of the Cape of Good Hope (from the Decisions of which an Appeal lies to His Majesty in Council), and in like Manner from Time to Time to make such other Regulations for the preventing Delays in the making or hearing such Appeals, and as to the Expenses attending the said Appeals, and as to the Amount or Value of the Property in respect of which any such Appeal may be made.

XXV. And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the Fifty seventh Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act to facilitate the hearing and determining of Suits in Equity in His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, it was enacted that the Lord Chief Baron of the said Court for the Time being should have Power to hear and determine all Causes, Matters, and Things which should be at any Time depending in the said Court of Exchequer as a Court of Equity, and that if the said Lord Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer should by Sickness or any other unavoidable Cause be prevented from sitting on the Equity Side of the said Court for the Purpose in the said Act mentioned, then it should and might be lawful for His Majesty and His Successors to nominate and appoint from Time to Time by Warrant under the Royal Sign Manual, revocable at Pleasure, any One other of the Barons of the Degree of the Coat of the said Court for the Time being, to hear and determine the Causes, Matters, and Things in the said Act mentioned; And whereas by reason of the great Increase of Business on the Common Law or Plea Side of the said Court of Exchequer the Lord Chief Baron is prevented from giving so much Time as heretofore to the Sittings on the Equity Side of the said Court, and the Sittings on such Equity Side of the said Court being necessarily suspended during the Absence of the Lord Chief Baron, great Inconvenience is thereby Orders for Courts Allowed to be carried into effect, with King's Council shall direct.

Act not to abridge Powers of Privy Council

His Majesty may direct the East India Company to bring on Appeals from the Sudder Dewanny Adawlat Courts to a Hearing.

Orders made on such Appeals to have effect notwithstanding Death of Parties, &c.

His Majesty empowered to make Orders for regulating the Mode, &c. of such Appeals.

His Majesty empowered to appoint One of the Barons of the Court of Exchequer to sit on Equity in the Absence of the Lord Chief Baron.

whereas the Lord Chief Baron may by this Act become liable to the Performance of other additional Duties unconnected with the said Court of Exchequer, and it is desirable that the said Court of Exchequer should sit as a Court of Equity without any unnecessary Interruption, for the Purpose of hearing and determining Causes, Matters, and Things depending in the said Court as a Court of Equity. And whereas Doubts have arisen whether or not the above-recited Act extends to Cases of the Lord Chief Baron being prevented from sitting by the Performance of Judicial Duties elsewhere: be it therefore declared and enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty and His Successors to nominate and appoint from Time to Time by Warrant under the Royal Sign Manual, revocable or Pleasure, any One of the Barons of the Degree of the Chief of the said Court for the Time being to hear and determine (on such Days as the Lord Chief Baron of the said Court shall sit on the Common Law Side of the said Court during the Term, or shall preside at the Sittings at His Prizes in London or Middlesex after the Term, or shall attend at the Judicial Committee of His Majesty's Privy Council under the Provisions of this Act) all Causes, Matters, and Things which shall at any Time be depending in the said Court of Exchequer as a Court of Equity.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That during the Absence of the Chief Judge in Bankruptcy from the Court of Review established by virtue of an Act passed in the First and Second Year of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to establish a Court in Bankruptcy, by reason of his Attendance at the said Judicial Committee by virtue of this Act, any Two Judges of the said Court shall and may form a Court of Review in Bankruptcy, and shall and may make, do and execute all Orders, Acts, Matters, Powers, and Things whatsoever which by virtue of the said Act the Judges of the said Court or any Three of them are authorized to make, do, or execute, and in all respects whatsoever as if Three of the said Judges were present, except that nothing herein contained shall authorize any Two Judges of the said Court to hear and determine any Matter brought under the Review of the said Court by way of Appeal from the Determination or Decision of any Commissioner or Subdivision Court appointed by virtue of the said Act.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That all the Clauses and Provisions contained in the said Act of Parliament which relate to the Baron nominated and appointed under that Act shall apply and be extended to the Baron nominated and appointed under the Authority of this Act.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That the said Judicial Committee shall have and enjoy in all respects such and the same Power of punishing Contempts and of compelling Appearances, and that His Majesty in Council shall have and enjoy in all respects such and the same Power of enforcing Judgments, Decrees, and Orders, as are now exercised by the High Court of Chancery or the Court of King's Bench, (and both in person and in rem,) or as are given to any Court Ecclesiastical by an Act of Parliament passed in a Session of Parliament of the Second and Third Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for enforcing the Process upon Contempts in the Courts Ecclesiastical of England and Ireland; and that all such Powers as are given to Courts Ecclesiastical, of punishing Contempts or of compelling Appearances, shall be exercised by the said Judicial Committee, and if at enforcing Decrees and Orders shall be exercised by His Majesty in Council, in such and the same Manner as the Powers to and by such Act of Parliament given, and shall be of an equal Force and Effect as if the same had been thereby expressly given to the said Committee or to His Majesty in Council.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That, subject to such Orders as His Majesty in Council shall from Time to Time make, it shall be lawful for the present Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, if he shall so think fit, either in Person or by Deputy, to attend the Hearing by the said Judicial Committee of all Causes and Appeals which, but for this Act or the said intromitted Act, would have been heard by any Court or Commission which such Registrar was entitled to attend, in Person or by Deputy, by virtue of his Office of Registrar of the High Courts of Admiralty, Delegates, and Appeals for Prizes, and likewise, subject to any Order of His Majesty in Council, to transmit, perform, and do all Acts, Matters, and Things that shall be found necessary, or have heretofore been done by the said Registrar or his Deputies in respect of such Causes and Appeals.

XXX. And be it enacted, That Two Members of His Majesty's Privy Council who shall have held the Office of Judges in the Exchequer or any of His Majesty's Departments beyond the Seas, and who, being appointed for that Purpose by His Majesty, shall attend the Sittings of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, shall severally be entitled to receive, over and above any Allowance granted to them in respect of having held such Office as aforesaid, the Sum of Four hundred Pounds for every Year during which they shall so attend as aforesaid, as an Indemnity for the Expence which they may thereby bear; and such Sum of Four hundred Pounds shall be chargeable upon and paid out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

XXXI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be held to impeach or render void any Treaty or Engagement already entered into by or on behalf of His Majesty, or be taken to restrain His Majesty from acceding to any Treaty, with any Foreign Prince, Potentate, or Power, in which Treaty it shall be stipulated that any Person or Persons other than the said Judicial Committee shall bear and finally adjudicate Appeals from His Majesty's Courts of Admiralty in Causes of Prize, but that the Judgments, Decrees, and Orders of such other Person or Persons so appointed by Treaty shall be of the same Force and Effect of which they would respectively have been if this Act had not been passed.

Two Judges of the Court of Bankruptcy to sit on the Chief Judge of the Court of Review during his Absence at the said Judicial Committee.

Power of Act 50th extended to this Act.

Power of enforcing Decrees.

1833W 4. c.25.

Registrar of Courts of Admiralty may attend the said Judicial Committee.

British Judges attending the Judicial Committee to receive an Allowance.

C A P. XLII.

An Act for the further Amendment of the Law, and the better Advancement of Justice.

[14th August 1833.]

WHEREAS it would greatly contribute to the diminishing of Expence in Suits in the Superior Courts of Common Law at Westminster if the Pleadings therein were in some respects altered, and the Questions to be tried by the Jury left less at large than they now are according to the Course and Usages of pleading in several Parts of Actions; but this cannot be conveniently done otherwise than by Rules or Orders of the Judges of the said Courts from Time to Time to be made, and Doubts may arise as to the Power of the said Judges to make such Alterations without the Authority of Parliament: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Judges of the said Superior Courts, or any Eight or more of them, of whom the Chief of each of the said Courts shall be Three, shall and may, by any Rule or Order to be from Time to Time by them made, in Term or Vacation, at any Time within Five Years from the Time when this Act shall take effect, make such Alterations in the Mode of pleading in the said Courts, and in the Mode of entering and answering Pleadings, Judgments, and other Proceedings in Actions at Law, and such Regulations as to the Payment of Costs, and otherwise for carrying into effect the said Alterations, as to them may seem expedient; and all such Rules, Orders, or Regulations shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament, if Parliament be then sitting, immediately upon the making of the same, or if Parliament be not sitting, then within Five Days after the next Meeting thereof, and no such Rule, Order, or Regulation shall have Effect until Six Weeks after the same shall have been so laid before both Houses of Parliament, and any Rule or Order so made shall, from and after such Time aforesaid, be binding and obligatory on the said Courts, and all other Courts of Common Law, and on all Courts of Error into which the Judgments of the said Courts or any of them shall be carried by any Writ of Error, and be of the like Force and Effect as if the Provisions contained therein had been expressly enacted by Parliament: Provided always, that no such Rule or Order shall have the Effect of depriving any Person of the Power of pleading the General Issue, and giving the special Matter in Evidence, in any Case wherein he is now or hereafter shall be entitled to do so by virtue of any Act of Parliament now or hereafter to be in force.

II. And whereas there is no Remedy provided by Law for Injuries to the Real Estate of any Person deceased, committed in his Lifetime, nor for certain Wrongs done by a Person deceased in his Lifetime to another in respect of his Property, Real or Personal: for Remedy thereof be it enacted, That an Action of Trespass, or Trespass on the Case, on the Case may be, may be maintained by the Executors or Administrators of any Person deceased for any Injury to the Real Estate of such Person, committed in his Lifetime, for which an Action might have been maintained by such Person, so as such Injury shall have been committed within Six Calendar Months before the Death of such deceased Person, and provided such Action shall be brought within One Year after the Death of such Person; and the Damages, when recovered, shall be Part of the Personal Estate of such Person: and further, that an Action of Trespass, or Trespass on the Case, as the Case may be, may be maintained against the Executors or Administrators of any Person deceased for any Wrong committed by him in his Lifetime to another in respect of his Property, Real or Personal, so as such Injury shall have been committed within Six Calendar Months before such Person's Death, and so as such Action shall be brought within Six Calendar Months after such Executors or Administrators shall have taken upon themselves the Administration of the Estate and Effects of such Person; and the Damages to be recovered in such Action shall be payable in like Order of Administration as the Simple Contract Debts of such Person.

III. And be it further enacted, That all Actions of Debt for Rent upon an Indenture of Demise, all Actions of Covenant or Debt upon any Bond or other Specialty, and all Actions of Debt or Scire facias upon any Recognizance, and also all Actions of Debt upon any Award where the Submission is not by Specialty, or for any Fine due in respect of any Copyhold Estate, or for an Escuage, or for Money lent on any Heri facias, and all Actions for Possibilities, Damages, or Sums of Money given to the Party grieved, by any Statute now or hereafter to be in Force, that shall be used or brought at any Time after the End of the present Session of Parliament, shall be commenced and used within the Time and Limitation hereafter expressed, and not after; that is to say, the said Actions of Debt for Rent upon an Indenture of Demise, or Covenant or Debt upon any Bond or other Specialty, Actions of Debt or Scire facias upon Recognizance, within Ten Years after the End of this present Session, or within Twenty Years after the Cause of such Actions or Suits, but not after; the said Actions by the Party grieved, One Year after the End of this present Session, or within Two Years after the Cause of such Actions or Suits, but not after; and the said other Actions within Three Years after the End of this present Session, or within Six Years after the Cause of such Actions or Suits, but not after; provided that nothing herein contained shall extend to any Action given by any Statute where the Time for bringing such Action is or shall be by any Statute specially limited.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons that is or are or shall be entitled to any such Action or Suit, or to such Scire facias, is or are or shall be, at the Time of any such Cause of Action accrued, within the Age of Twenty-one Years, Pimpe Covert, Non compos mentis, or beyond the Seas, that such Person or Persons shall be liable to be appointed a Guardian of the Person and Provision in case of Acknowledgment in Writing, or by Part Payment.

The Limitation after Judgment or Order if reversed.

Writs shall not be allowed beyond the Seas within the Meaning of this Act.

Restriction as to Plea in Abatement for Non-Judgment of a Co-Defendant.

Reply of Plaintiff to the said Plea.

Provision in the Case of subsequent Proceedings against the Person named in a Plea in Abatement.

Manner not to be pleaded in Abatement.

Initials of Names not to be used as Signs.

Wager of Law. Simple Contract Debt.

mean the same within such Times after their coming to or being of full Age, Discretion, of sound Memory, or returned from beyond the Seas, as other Persons having no such Inconvenience should, according to the Provisions of this Act, have done; and that if any Person or Persons against whom there shall be any such Cause of Action is or are or shall be, at the Time such Cause of Action accrued, beyond the Seas, then the Person or Persons entitled to any such Cause of Action shall be at Liberty to bring the same against such Person or Persons within such Times as are before limited after the Return of such Person or Persons from beyond the Seas.

V. Provided always, That if any Acknowledgment shall have been made, either by Writing signed by the Party liable by virtue of such Indenture, Specialty, or Recognizance, or his Agent, or by Part Payment or Part Satisfaction on account of any Principal or Interest being then due thereon, it shall and may be lawful for the Person or Persons entitled to such Action to bring his or their Action for the Money remaining unpaid and so acknowledged to be due within Twenty Years after such Acknowledgment by Writing or Part Payment or Part Satisfaction as aforesaid, or in case the Person or Persons entitled to such Action shall at the Time of such Acknowledgment be under such Disability as aforesaid, or the Party making such Acknowledgment be, at the Time of making the same, beyond the Seas, then within Twenty Years after such Disability shall have ceased as aforesaid, or the Party shall have returned from beyond Seas, as the Case may be; and the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in any such Action, on any Indenture, Specialty, or Recognizance, may, by way of Replication, state such Acknowledgment, and that such Action was brought within the Time aforesaid, in case or to a Plea of this Statute.

VI. And everwholen be it enacted, If in any of the said Actions Judgment be given for the Plaintiff, and the same be reversed by Error, or a Verdict given for the Plaintiff, and upon Matter alleged in Arrest of Judgment the Judgment be given against the Plaintiff, that he take nothing by his Plea, Writ, or Bill, or if in any of the said Actions the Defendant shall be outlawed, and shall after receive the Outlawry, that in all such Cases the Party Plaintiff, his Executors or Administrators, as the Case shall require, may commence a new Action or Suit from Time to Time within a Year after such Judgment reversed, or such Judgment given against the Plaintiff, or Outlawry returned, and not after.

VII. And be it further enacted, That no Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, nor the Islands of Man, Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, and Sark, nor any Islands adjacent to any of them, being Part of the Dominions of His Majesty, shall be deemed to be beyond the Seas within the Meaning of this Act, or of the Act passed in the Twenty-first Year of the Reign of King James the First, intituled An Act for Limitation of Actions, and for avoiding of Statute in Law.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That no Plea in Abatement for the Nonjoinder of any Person as a Co-defendant shall be allowed in any Court of Common Law unless it shall be stated in such Plea that such Person is resident within the Jurisdiction of the Court, and within the Place of Residence of such Person shall be stated with consistent Certainty in an Affidavit verifying such Plea.

IX. And be it further enacted, That in any Plea in Abatement in any Court of Law of the Nonjoinder of another Person, the Plaintiff may reply that such Person has been discharged by Bankruptcy and Certificate, or under an Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors.

X. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases in which after such Plea in Abatement the Plaintiff shall, without having proceeded to Trial upon an issue thereon, commence another Action against the Defendant or Defendants in the Action in which such Plea in Abatement shall have been pleaded, and the Person or Persons named in such Plea in Abatement as joint Contractors, if it shall appear by the Pleadings in such subsequent Action, or on the Evidence at the Trial thereof, that all the original Defendants are liable, but that One or more of the Persons named in such Plea in Abatement or any subsequent Plea in Abatement are not liable as a contracting Party or Parties, the Plaintiff shall nevertheless be entitled to Judgment, or to a Verdict and Judgment, as the Case may be, against the other Defendant or Defendants who shall appear to be liable; and every Defendant who is not so liable shall have Judgment, and shall be entitled to his Costs as against the Plaintiff, who shall be allowed the same as Costs in the Cause against the Defendant or Defendants who shall have so pleaded in Abatement the Nonjoinder of such Person; provided that any such Defendant who shall have so pleaded in Abatement shall be at Liberty on the Trial to adduce Evidence of the Liability of the Defendants named by him in such Plea in Abatement.

XI. And be it further enacted, That no Plea in Abatement for a Misnomer shall be allowed in any Personal Action, but that in all Cases in which a Misnomer would but for this Act have been by Law pleadable in Abatement in such Actions, the Defendant shall be at Liberty to cause the Declaration to be amended at the Costs of the Plaintiff, by inserting the right Name, upon a Judge's Summons founded on an Affidavit of the right Name, and in case such Summons shall be discharged, the Costs of such Application shall be paid by the Party applying, if the Judge shall think fit.

XII. And be it further enacted, That in all Actions upon Bills of Exchange or Promissory Notes, or other written Instruments, any of the Parties to which are designated by the initial Letter or Letters or some Contrivance of the Christian or first Name or Names, it shall be sufficient in every Affidavit to hold to Bail, and in the Process or Declaration to designate such Persons by the same initial Letter or Letters or Contrivance of the Christian or first Name or Names, instead of stating the Christian or first Name or Names in full.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That no Wager of Law shall be hereafter allowed.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That an Action of Debt on Simple Contract shall be maintainable in any Court of Common Law against any Person or Persons who shall be liable to pay the same.

XV. And whereas it is expedient to lessen the Expence of the Proof of written or printed Documents, or Copies thereof, on the Trial of Causes; be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Judges, or any such Eight or more of them as aforesaid, at any Time within Four Years after this Act shall take effect, to make Regulations by general Rules or Orders, from Time to Time, in Term or in Vacation, touching the voluntary Admission, upon an Application for that Purpose at a reasonable Time before the Trial, of one Party to the other of all such written or printed Documents or Copies of Documents as are intended to be offered in Evidence on the said Trial by the Party requiring such Admission, and touching the Inspection thereof before such Admission is made, and touching the Costs which may be incurred by the Proof of such Documents or Copies on the Trial of the Cause in case of the offering to apply for such Admission, or of the not producing of such Document or Copies for the Purpose of obtaining Admission thereof, or of the Refusal to make such Admission, as the Case may be, and as to the said Judges shall seem meet; and all such Rules and Orders shall be binding and obligatory in all Courts of Common Law, and of the like Force as if the Provisions therein contained had been expressly enacted by Parliament.

XVI. And whereas it would also lessen the Expence of Trials and prevent Delay if such Writs of Inquiry as hereto after mentioned were executed, and such Issues, as hereto after mentioned were tried, before the Sheriff of the County where the Venue is laid; be it therefore enacted, That all Writs issued under and by virtue of the Statute passed in the Session of Parliament hold in the Eighth and Ninth Years of the Reign of King William the Third, intituled An Act for the better preventing frauds and evasions Saith, shall, unless the Court where such Action is pending, or a Judge of one of the said Superior Courts, shall otherwise order, direct the Sheriff of the County where the Action shall be brought to summon a Jury to appear before such Sheriff, instead of the Justices or Justice of Assize or Nisi Prius of that County, to inquire of the Truth of the Breaches suggested, and among the Damages that the Plaintiff shall have sustained thereby, and shall command the said Sheriff to make Return thereof to the Court from whence the same shall issue at a Day certain, in Term or in Vacation, in each Writ to be mentioned; and such Proceedings shall be had after the Return of such Writ as are in the said Statute in that behalf mentioned, in like Manner as if such Writ had been executed before a Justice of Assize or Nisi Prius.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That in any Action depending in any of the said Superior Courts for any Debt or Demand in which the Sum sought to be recovered, and endorsed on the Writ of Summons, shall not exceed Twenty Pounds, it shall be lawful for the Court in which such Suit shall be depending, or any Judge of any of the said Courts, if such Court or Judge shall be satisfied that the Trial will not involve any difficult Question of Fact or Law, and such Court or Judge shall think fit so to do, to order and direct that the Issue or Issues joined shall be tried before the Sheriff of the County where the Action is brought, or any Judge of any Court of Record for the Recovery of Debt in such County, and for that Purpose a Writ shall issue directed to such Sheriff, commanding him to try such Issue or Issues, by a Jury to be summoned by him, and to return such Writ with the Finding of the Jury thereon indorsed, at a Day certain, in Term or in Vacation, to be named in such Writ; and thereupon such Sheriff or Judge shall summon a Jury, and shall proceed to try such Issue or Issues.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That at the Return of any such Writ of Inquiry, or Writ for the Trial of such Issue or Issues as aforesaid, Costs shall be taxed, Judgment signed, and Execution issued forthwith, unless the Sheriff or his Deputy before whom such Writ of Inquiry may be executed, or such Sheriff, Deputy, or Judge before whom such Trial shall be had shall certify under his Hand upon such Writ that Judgment ought not to be signed until the Defendant shall have had an Opportunity to apply to the Court for a new Inquiry or Trial, or a Judge of any of the said Courts shall think fit to order that Judgment or Execution shall be stayed till a Day to be named in such Order; and the Verdict of such Jury on the Trial of such Issue or Issues shall be as valid and of the like Force as a Verdict of a Jury at Nisi Prius; and the Sheriff or his Deputy, or Judge, presiding at the Trial of such Issue or Issues, shall have the like Powers with respect to Assessment on such Trial as are heretofore given to Judges at Nisi Prius.

XIX. Provided also, That all and every the Provisions contained in the Statute made and passed in the First Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for the more speedy Judgment and Execution in Actions brought in His Majesty's Courts of Law at Westminster, and in the Court of Common Pleas of the County Palatine of Lancaster, and for extending the Law as to Judgment in a Copyhold collocation in Court of Bankruptcy, shall, so far as the same are applicable thereto, be extended and applied to Judgments and Executions upon such Writs of Inquiry and Writs for the Trials of Issues, in like Manner as if the same were expressly re-enacted herein.

XX. And be it further enacted, That from and after the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three the Sheriff of each County in England and Wales shall severally name a sufficient Deputy, who shall be resident or have an Office within One Mile from the Inner Temple Hall, for the Receipt of Writs granting Warrantias thereon, making Returns thereon, and accepting of all Rules and Orders to be made on or touching the Execution of any Process or Writ to be directed to such Sheriff.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Defendant in all Personal Actions, (except Actions for Assault and Battery, Edge Imprisonment, Libel, Slander, malicious Arrest or Detention, Criminal Conversation or detaching of the Plaintiff's Daughters or Servants,) by Leave of any of the said Superior Courts where such Action is pending, or a Judge of any of the said Superior Courts in which such Action is pending, to cause the Defendant to be allowed in any Sherry and Court in which Actions be allowed by Judge's Order.

Power to the Judges to make Regulations to the Admission of written Documents

Writs of Inquiry under the Statute 3 & 4 Will. 3. c. 11, to be executed before the Sheriff, unless otherwise ordered Power to direct Issues joined in certain Actions to be tried before the Sheriff or any Judge.

Upon the Return of a Writ of Inquiry or a Trial of Issues, Judgment to be signed, unless &c.

Process of Sheriff as to such Issues.

Provisions of 1 W. 1. c. 2, to extend to writs of writ Inquiry and Issues.

Sheriff to name Deputy to be resident in London.

Defendant to be allowed in any Sherry and Court in which Actions be allowed by Judge's Order.

Courts, to pay into Court a Sum of Money by way of Compensation or Amends, in such Manner and under such Regulations as to the Payment of Costs and the Form of Pleading as the said Judges, or such Eight or more of them as aforesaid, shall, by any Rules or Orders by them to be from Time to Time made, order and direct.

Power to direct local Actions to be tried in any County.

XXII. And whereas unnecessary Delay and Expence is sometimes occasioned by the Trial of local Actions in the County where the Cause of Action has arisen; be it therefore enacted, That in any Action depending in any of the said Superior Courts, the Verdict as to which is by Law local, the Court in which such Action shall be depending, or any Judge of any of the said Courts, may, on the Application of either Party, order the Issue to be tried, or Writ of Inquiry to be executed, in any other County or Place than that in which the Verdict is laid; and for that Purpose any such Court or Judge may order a Suggestion to be entered on the Record, that the Trial may be more conveniently had, or Writ of Inquiry executed, in the County or Place where the same is ordered to take place.

Allowing Amendments to be made on the Record in certain Cases.

XXIII. And whereas great Expence is often incurred, and Delay or Failure of Justice takes place, at Trials, by reason of Variance as to some Particular or Particulars between the Proof and the Record or setting forth, on the Record or Document on which the Trial is had, of Contracts, Customs, Prescriptions, Names, and other Matters or Circumstances not material to the Merits of the Case, and by the Mis-statement of which the opposite Party cannot have been prejudiced, and the same cannot in any Case be amended at the Trial, except where the Variance is between any Matter in Writing or in Print produced in Evidence and the Record: And whereas it is expedient to allow such Amendments as hereinafter mentioned to be made on the Trial of the Cause; be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Court or Judge, holding Pleas in Civil Actions, and any Judge sitting at Nisi Prius, if such Court or Judge shall see fit so to do, to cause the Record, Writ, or Document on which any Trial may be pending before any such Court or Judge, in any Civil Action, or in any Information in the Nature of a Quo warranto, or Proceedings on a Mandamus, when any Variance shall appear between the Proof and the Record or setting forth, on the Record, Writ, or Document on which the Trial is proceeding, of any Contract, Custom, Prescription, Name, or other Matter, in any Particular or Particulars in the Judgment of such Court or Judge not material to the Merits of the Case, and by which the opposite Party cannot have been prejudiced in the Conduct of his Action, Prosecution, or Defence, to be forthwith amended by some Officer of the Court or otherwise, both in the Part of the Pleadings where such Variance occurs, and in every other Part of the Pleadings which it may become necessary to amend, on such Terms as to Payment of Costs to the other Party, or postponing the Trial to be had before the same or another Jury, or both Payment of Costs and Postponement, as such Court or Judge shall think reasonable; and in case such Variance shall be in some Particular or Particulars in the Judgment of such Court or Judge not material to the Merits of the Case, but such as that the opposite Party may have been prejudiced thereby in the Conduct of his Action, Prosecution, or Defence, then such Court or Judge shall have Power to cause the same to be amended upon Payment of Costs to the other Party, and withdrawing the Record or postponing the Trial as aforesaid, or such Court or Judge shall think reasonable; and after any such Amendment the Trial shall proceed, in case the same shall be proceeded with, or the same Matter in all respects, both with respect to the Liability of Witnesses to be indicted for Perjury, and otherwise, as if no such Variance had appeared; and in case such Trial shall be had at Nisi Prius or by writ of such Writ as aforesaid, the Order for the Amendment shall be entered on the Process or the Writ, as the Case may be, and returned together with the Record or Writ, and thereupon such Papers, Rolls, and other Records of the Court from which such Record or Writ issued, as it may be necessary to amend, shall be amended accordingly; and in case the Trial shall be had in any Court of Record, then the Order for Amendment shall be entered on the Roll or other Document upon which the Trial shall be had; provided that it shall be lawful for any Party who is dissatisfied with the Decision of such Judge at Nisi Prius, Sheriff, or other Officer, respecting his Allowance of any such Amendment, to apply to the Court from which such Record or Writ issued for a new Trial upon that Ground, and in case any such Court shall think such Amendment improper, a new Trial shall be granted accordingly, on such Terms as the Court shall think fit, or the Court shall make such other Order as to them may seem meet.

Power for the Court or Judge to direct the Issue to be tried specially.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That the said Court or Judge shall and may, if they or he think fit, in all such Cases of Variance, instead of causing the Record or Document to be amended as aforesaid, direct the Jury to find the Facts or Facts according to the Evidence, and thereupon such Finding shall be stated on such Record or Document, and notwithstanding the Finding on the Issue joined, the said Court or the Court from which the Record has issued shall, if they shall think the said Variance immaterial to the Merits of the Case, and the Mis-statement such as could not have prejudiced the opposite Party in the Conduct of the Action or Defence, give Judgment according to the very Right and Justice of the Case.

Power to make a special Case without proceeding to Trial.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Parties in any Action or Information, after Issue joined, by Consent and by Order of any of the Judges of the said Superior Courts, to state the Facts of the Case, in the Form of a special Case, for the Opinion of the Court, and to agree that a Judgment shall be entered for the Plaintiff or Defendant, by Confession or of Nolle prosequi, immediately after the Decision of the Case, or otherwise as the Court may think fit; and Judgment shall be entered accordingly.

Witnesses introduced solely on account of the P

XXVI. And in order to render the Rejection of Witnesses on the Ground of Interest less frequent, be it further enacted, That if any Witness shall be objected to as incompetent on the Ground that the Verdict fact or Judgment in the Action on which it shall be proposed to examine him would be admissible in Evidence for or against him, such Witness shall nevertheless be examined, but in that Case a Verdict or Judgment in that Action in favour of the Party on whose Behalf he shall have been examined shall not be admissible in Evidence for him or any one claiming under him, nor shall a Verdict or Judgment against the Party on whose Behalf he shall have been examined be admissible in Evidence against him or any one claiming under him.

Verdict to be admissible

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That the Name of every Witness objected to as incompetent on the Ground that such Verdict or Judgment would be admissible in Evidence for or against him shall at the Trial be indorsed on the Record or Document on which the Trial shall be had, together with the Name of the Party on whose Behalf he was examined, by some Officer of the Court, at the Request of either Party, and shall be afterwards entered on the Record of the Judgment; and such Indorsement or Entry shall be sufficient Evidence that such Witness was examined in any subsequent Proceeding in which the Verdict or Judgment shall be offered in Evidence.

Witness to indorse the Name of the Witness on the Record.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That upon all Debts or Sums certain, payable at a certain Time or otherwise, the Jury on the Trial of any Issue, or on any Inquisition of Damages, may, if they shall think fit, allow Interest to the Creditor at a Rate not exceeding the current Rate of Interest from the Time when such Debts or Sums certain were payable, if such Debts or Sums be payable by virtue of some written Instrument at a certain Time, or if payable otherwise, then from the Time when Demand of Payment shall have been made in Writing, so as such Demand shall give Notice to the Debtor that Interest will be claimed from the Date of such Demand until the Time of Payment; provided that Interest shall be payable in all Cases in which it is now payable by Law.

Jury empowered to allow Interest upon Debts

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That the Jury on the Trial of any Issue, or on any Inquisition of Damages, may, if they shall think fit, give Damages in the Nature of Interest, over and above the Value of the Goods at the Time of the Conversion or Seizure, in all Actions of Tresspass or Trespass de bonis antiquariis, and over and above the Money recoverable in all Actions on Policies of Assurance made after the passing of this Act.

In certain Actions the Jury may give Damages in the Nature of Interest

XXX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall sue out any Writ of Error upon any Judgment whatsoever given in any Court in any Action personal, and the Court of Error shall give Judgment for the Defendant thereon, then Interest shall be allowed by the Court of Error for such Time as Execution has been delayed by such Writ of Error, for the delaying thereof.

Interest on Writs of Error for the Delay of Execution.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That in every Action brought by any Executor or Administrator on right of the Testator or Decedent, such Executor or Administrator shall, unless the Court in which such Action is brought, or a Judge of any of the said Superior Courts, shall otherwise order, be liable to pay Costs to the Defendant in case of being nonsuited or a Verdict passing against the Plaintiff, and in all other Cases in which he would be liable if such Plaintiff were suing in his own Right upon a Cause of Action accruing to himself, and the Defendant shall have Judgment for such Costs, and they shall be recovered in like Manner.

Executors and Administrators in right of the Testator to pay Costs.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That where several Persons shall be made Defendants in any Personal Action, and any One or more of them shall have a Nolle prosequi entered as to him or them, or upon the Trial of such Action shall have a Verdict pass for him or them, every such Person shall have Judgment for and recover his reasonable Costs, unless, in the Case of a Trial, the Judge before whom such Cause shall be tried shall certify upon the Record, under his Hand, that there was a reasonable Cause for making such Person a Defendant in such Action.

Defendants having a Nolle prosequi or a Verdict in any Action shall have Costs.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That where any Nolle prosequi shall have been entered upon any Cause, or as to Part of any Declaration, the Defendant shall be entitled to, and have Judgment for, and recover his reasonable Costs in that Behalf.

Where Nolle prosequitur entered upon any Cause, &c.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That in all Writs of Scire facias the Plaintiff obtaining Judgment on an Award of Execution shall recover his Costs of Suit upon a Judgment by Default as well as upon a Judgment after Plea pleaded or Demurrer joined, and that where Judgment shall be given either for or against a Plaintiff or Defendant, or for or against a Defendant or Tenant, upon any Demurrer joined in any Action whatever, the Party on whose Favour such Judgment shall be given shall also have Judgment to recover his Costs in that Behalf.

Plaintiff on Scire facias, and Plaintiff or Defendant on Demurrer, to have Costs.

XXXV. And whereas it is provided in and by a Statute passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws relative to Juries and Jurors, that the Person or Party who shall apply for a Special Jury shall pay the Fees for striking such Jury, and all the Expenses occasioned by the Trial of the Cause by the same, and shall not have any further or other Allowance for the same, upon Taxation of Costs, than such Person or Party would be entitled unto in case the Cause had been tried by a common Jury, unless the Judge before whom the Cause is tried shall, immediately after the Verdict, certify under his Hand, upon the Back of the Record, that the same was a Cause proper to be tried by a Special Jury: And whereas the said Provision does not apply to Cases in which the Plaintiff has been nonsuited, and it is expedient that the Judge should have such Power of certifying as well when a Plaintiff is nonsuited as when he has a Verdict against him: be it therefore enacted, That the said Provision of the said last-mentioned Act of Parliament, and every thing therein contained, shall apply to Cases in which the Plaintiff shall be nonsuited as well as to Cases in which a Verdict shall pass against him.

Costs of Special Juries in case of a Plaintiff.

XXXVI. And whereas it would tend to the better Dispatch of Business, and would be more agreeable, and better adapted to the Justice and Equity thereof, to give Allowance of Costs to the Officers

Power to make Regulations in the Officers of each Court as Witnesses

taking Oath.

Officers on the Plea Side of the Courts of King's Bench and Exchequer, and the Officers of the Court of Common Pleas at Westminster, who now perform the Duties of taking Oaths, were to be empowered to take Oaths which have arisen or may arise in each of the said Courts indiscriminately: he it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Judges of the said Courts, or such Right or more of them as aforesaid, by any Rule or Order to be from Time to Time made, in Term or Vacation, to make such Regulations for the Taking of Oaths by any of the said Officers of the said Courts indiscriminately as to them may seem expedient, although such Oaths may not have arisen in respect of Business done in the Court to which such Officer belongs, and to appoint some convenient Place in which the Business of Taking shall be transacted for all the said Courts, and to alter the same when and as it may seem to them expedient:

Executors of Lessor may file plea for Arrears to his Life-time.

XXXVII. And he it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Executors or Administrators of any Lessor or Landlord to distrain upon the Lands demised for any Term, or as Will, for the Arrears of Rent due to such Lessor or Landlord in his Lifetime, in like Manner as such Lessor or Landlord might have done in his Lifetime:

Arrears may be demanded for within Six Months after Determination of Term.

XXXVIII. And he it further enacted, That such Arrears may be distrained for after the End or Determination of such Term or Lease, as Will, in the same Manner as if such Term or Lease had not been ended or determined; provided that such Distress be made within the Space of Six Calendar Months, after the Determination of such Term or Lease, and during the Continuance of the Possession of the Tenant from whom such Arrears became due: Provided also, that all and every the Powers and Provisions in the several Statutes made relating to Distresses for Rent shall be applicable to the Distresses so made as aforesaid:

Submission to Arbitration by Rule of Court, &c. not to be revocable without Leave of the Court.

XXXIX. And whereas it is expedient to render References more effectual; he it further enacted, That the Power and Authority of any Arbitrator or Umpire appointed by or in pursuance of any Rule of Court, or Judge's Order, or Order of Nisi Prius, in any Action now brought or which shall be hereafter brought, or by or in pursuance of any Submission to Reference containing an Agreement that such Submission shall be made a Rule of any of His Majesty's Courts of Record, shall not be revocable by any Party to such Reference without the Leave of the Court by which such Rule or Order shall be made, or which shall be mentioned in such Submission, or by Leave of a Judge; and the Arbitrator or Umpire shall and may and is hereby required to proceed with the Reference notwithstanding any such Revocation, and to make such Award, although the Person making such Revocation shall not afterwards avoid the Reference; and that the Court or any Judge thereof may from Time to Time enlarge the Term for any such Arbitrator making his Award:

Power to compel
of Witnesses.

XL. And he it further enacted, That when any Reference shall have been made by any such Rule or Order as aforesaid, or by any Submission containing such Agreement as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Court by which such Rule or Order shall be made, or which shall be mentioned in such Agreement, or for any Judge, by Rule or Order to be made for that Purpose, to command the Attendance and Examination of any Person to be named, or the Production of any Documents to be mentioned in such Rule or Order, and the Disobedience to any such Rule or Order shall be deemed a Contempt of Court, if, in addition to the Service of such Rule or Order, an Appointment of the Time and Place of Attendance in obedience thereto, signed by One at least of the Arbitrators, or by the Umpire, before whom the Attendance is required, shall also be served, either together with or after the Service of such Rule or Order: Provided always, that every Person whose Attendance shall be so required shall be entitled to the like Conduct Money, and Payment of Expences, and for Loss of Time, as for and upon Appearance at any Trial: Provided also, that the Application made to such Court or Judge for such Rule or Order shall set forth the County where such Witness is residing at the Time, or county such Court or Judge that such Person cannot be found: Provided also, that no Person shall be compelled to produce, under any such Rule or Order, any Writing or other Document that he would not be compelled to produce at a Trial, or to attend at more than Two consecutive Days, to be named in such Order:

Power for the
under a Rule of Court to administer
Oath as Oath.

XLI. And he it further enacted, That when in any Rule or Order of Reference, or in any Submission to Arbitration containing an Agreement that the Submission shall be made a Rule of Court, it shall be ordered or agreed that the Witnesses upon such Reference shall be examined upon Oath, it shall be lawful for the Arbitrator or Umpire, or any One Arbitrator, and he or they are hereby authorized and required, to administer an Oath to such Witnesses, or to take their Affirmation in Cases where Affirmation is allowed by Law instead of Oath, and if upon such Oath or Affirmation any Person making the same shall wilfully and corruptly give any false Evidence, every Person so offending shall be deemed and taken to be guilty of Perjury, and shall be prosecuted and punished accordingly:

Power of granting Commissions to take Affidavits to be used in Scotland and Ireland.

XLII. And whereas it would be convenient for the Power of the Superior Courts of Common Law and Equity at Westminster to grant Commissions for taking Affidavits to be used in the said Courts respectively should be extended; he it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Lord High Chancellor, Lord Keeper or Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal, the said Courts of Law, and the several Judges of the same, shall have each and the same Powers for granting Commissions for taking and receiving Affidavits in Scotland and Ireland, to be used and read in the said Courts respectively, as they now have in all and every the Shires and Counties within the Kingdom of England, and Dominions of Wales, and Town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, and in the Isle of Man, by virtue of the Statute now in force; and that all and every Person and Persons willfully swearing or affirming falsely in any Affidavit to be made before any Person or Persons who shall be so empowered to take Affidavits shall be deemed and taken to be guilty of Perjury, and shall be prosecuted and punished accordingly: And he it further enacted, That the same Fines and Penalties as if such Person had wilfully sworn or affirmed falsely in the open Court in which such Affidavit shall be certified, and be liable to be prosecuted for such Perjury in any Court of competent Jurisdiction in that Part of the United Kingdom in which such Offence shall have been committed, or in that Part of the United Kingdom in which such Person shall be apprehended on such a Charge.

XLIII. And whereas the Occurrence of Holidays in the said Courts of Common Law during Term Time, and in the Offices belonging to the same, on the several Days on which Holidays are now kept, is very inconvenient, and tends to Delay in the Administration of Justice; he it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That none of the several Days mentioned in the Statute passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of King Edward the Sixth, intituled An Act for keeping Holydaies and Feasting Days, shall be observed or kept in the said Courts, or in the several Offices belonging thereto except Sundays, the Day of the Nativity of our Lord and the Three following Days, and Monday and Tuesday in Easter Week.

XLIV. And he it further enacted, That this Statute shall commence and take effect on the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three.

XLV. And he it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend to that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, or that Part of the United Kingdom called Scotland, except in the Cases herein-before specially mentioned.

C A P. XLIII.

An Act for transferring to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods and Forests the several Powers now vested in the Holyhead Road Commissioners, and for discharging the last-mentioned Commissioners from the future Repairs and Maintenance of the Roads, Harbours, and Bridges now under their Care and Management. [14th August 1833.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for vesting in Commissioners the Bridges now building over the Mersey Straits and the River Conway, and the Harbours of Haverth and Holyhead, and the Road from Dublin to Haverth, and for the further Improvement of the Road from London to Holyhead, by which said Act certain Commissioners were appointed for carrying the Powers of the said Act and of the several other Acts therein mentioned into execution: And whereas an Act was passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to extend the Powers of an Act for vesting in Commissioners the Bridges building over the Mersey Straits and the River Conway, and the Harbours of Haverth and Holyhead, and the Road from Dublin to Haverth, and for the further Improvement of the Road from London to Holyhead: And whereas an Act was passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for further extending the Powers of an Act for vesting in Commissioners the Bridges building over the Mersey Straits and the River Conway, and the Harbours of Haverth and Holyhead, and the Road from Dublin to Haverth, and for the further Improvement of the Road from London to Holyhead: And whereas an Act was passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for the further Improvement of the Road from London to Holyhead, and of the Road from London to Liverpool: And whereas an Act was passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for the further Improvement of the Road from London to Holyhead, and of the Road from London to Liverpool: And whereas an Act was passed in the First Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to alter and amend several Acts for the Improvement of the Roads from London to Holyhead, and from London to Liverpool; and for the further Improvement of the said Roads: And whereas under and by virtue of the Powers and Authorities contained in the said several Acts herein-before mentioned large Sums of Money have been issued and applied in the building and completing the Bridges over the Mersey Straits and the River Conway, in repairing and improving the Harbours of Haverth and Holyhead, and in the making, repairing, and mending the several Roads, and in executing the several other Works in those Acts mentioned, under the Superintendance of the Commissioners appointed as and by the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty; and many important Improvements have been effected and are now carrying on on the said Roads, and further intended Improvements on the said several Roads will remain to be carried into effect: And whereas it is of great public Importance, towards the maintaining and facilitating the Intercourse between Great Britain and Ireland, that the said Bridges, Roads, Harbours, and other Improvements already created and made, and now making, should be preserved and maintained and kept in a proper and efficient State of Repair: And whereas the said several Improvements and Works may be more effectually preserved and performed and carried into effect if the several Powers and Authorities given by the said several Acts herein-before recited to the Commissioners appointed by the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty as aforesaid were transferred to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, and such other Person or Persons as may be nominated and appointed in manner herein-after mentioned: He it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said the passing of this Act the Commissioners appointed is and by the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth shall be discharged from and shall cease to carry into execution all or any of the Powers and Provisions vested in them by the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, and by the said several other Acts herein-before recited, or any of them.

Appointments of Commissioners.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings for the Time being, and such other Persons or Persons as shall be nominated and appointed in manner hereinafter mentioned, shall be Commissioners for carrying into execution the Powers and Provisions of the said several Acts herein-before recited Acts and this Act.

Power to appoint additional Commissioners.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, by any Writing under their Hands, to elect and appoint any Number of Persons (not exceeding Four in the whole) to be Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, in addition to the Commissioners herein-before nominated and appointed; and such Commissioners so elected shall have and possess and are hereby declared to be invested with the same and like Powers and Authorities for the Execution of this Act as if they had been specially named and appointed in and by this Act.

Appointments of new Commissioners in Case of Death, Resignation, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in case of a Vacancy by Death or Resignation of any of the Commissioners to be elected and appointed as last aforesaid it shall and may be lawful for the said Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, and they are hereby required, from Time to Time, by Writing under their Hands, to nominate and appoint any Person or Persons that they think proper to supply such Vacancy or Vacancies: and every Person so nominated and appointed shall have and possess and is hereby declared to be invested with the same and the like Powers and Authorities for the Execution of this Act as the Commissioners in whose Room such Person shall be nominated and appointed.

Powers of the new Acts vested in the Commissioners.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, and they are hereby authorized, empowered, and required, to execute and carry into effect all the Powers, Authorities, Chances, Emoluments, and Provisions contained in the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth, and in the several other Acts herein-before recited, either expressly or by reference to any other Act or Acts, as fully, amply, and effectually as the same could have been carried into effect and executed by the Commissioners appointed by the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty as aforesaid, or as if the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act had been named in the said last-mentioned Act instead of the Commissioners thereby appointed.

Meeting of Commissioners.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Powers and Provisions of this Act shall be executed by the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act at Meetings to be held as herein-after mentioned; and that at any such Meeting it shall be sufficient if Three Commissioners shall be present; but no Act shall be done at any Meeting unless the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, or for the Time being, or One of them, shall be present; and for the Purpose of executing the Powers and Provisions of this Act the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby required to meet from Time to Time as such Times and Places as shall be expedient.

Officers under former Acts to continue till removed.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the several Officers appointed by the Commissioners named in the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth shall continue to act in the same Capacity, for the Purposes of this Act, until they shall be removed by the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act; and such several Officers shall account to the said Commissioners for the Execution of this Act in the same Manner as they would have done if they had been appointed by such last-mentioned Commissioners.

Roads, Harbours, and Bridges, described in Commissions are under this Act.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the several Roads, Harbours, and Bridges which by the said herein-before recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth were vested in the Commissioners appointed by that Act, and all other Roads and Bridges, and all Turnpikes, Tolls, Toll Houses, Gates, Weighing Machines, and all Lads, Heaves, Quarries, and Gravel Pits, or other Hereditaments, Perpetuities, Rights, and Privileges whatsoever, vested in such Commissioners under the said recited Acts, shall from and after the passing of this Act be and become and shall remain vested in the Commissioners for the Time being for the Execution of this Act; and all Materials, Tools, Barrows, Furniture, and other Things which now belong to the Commissioners for the Execution of the said Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty shall from henceforth belong to and shall be and become the Property of the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act.

Interest for Loans borrowed under former Acts not to be paid, but the Loans and Commissions are otherwise valid.

IX. And be it further enacted, That all Loans or Sums of Money which have been borrowed or raised or which may be now due and owing by the Commissioners appointed by the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth as aforesaid, under or by virtue of the Provisions of the herein-before recited Acts or any of them, and all Interest due and to grow due thereon respectively, shall be paid and discharged by the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, as fully and effectually to all Interees and Purposes as if such Monies had become due and owing from the said last-mentioned Commissioners; and all and every Person and Persons who may owe or be subject or liable to the Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money to the said Commissioners (excepted by or derived from the Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty), as aforesaid.

or to any other Person or Persons for the Benefit of the said Commissioners, shall be liable to the Payment of all such Sums and Sums of Money to the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act; and all Leases, Deeds, Bonds, Covenants, Agreements, Contracts, and Securities entered into by any Person or Persons to or with the said Commissioners appointed by the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty as aforesaid, or to or with their Clerk, Treasurer, or other Officer, under or by virtue of the Powers or Directions of either of the said herein-before recited Acts, shall remain in full Force and Effect, and shall be and continue available in all Courts of Law and Equity, and the same are fully satisfied and performed on account and for the Benefit of the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, and shall be voted as such last-mentioned Commissioners, and shall and may be enforced and recovered upon in any Action or Suit to be brought and carried on in the Name of the Clerk for the Time being to the said last-mentioned Commissioners; and all Leases, Deeds, Assignments, Securities, Contracts, or Agreements duly made or entered into by the said Commissioners appointed by the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty as aforesaid, or with any Person or Persons, shall remain in full Force and Effect, and be observed and kept by the said Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, according to the Terms and stipulations thereof respectively, and shall and may be enforced and recovered upon in any Action or Suit to be brought against the Clerk for the Time being to the said last-mentioned Commissioners.

X. And be it further enacted, That all Moneys, Bills, or Drafts now in the Hands of the Commissioners acting in execution of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, or of their Treasurer or Secretary, or in any Bank placed to the Credit of any Account or Accounts under the Control of the said Commissioners or of their Treasurer or Secretary, shall immediately after the passing of this Act be paid into the Bank of England to the Account of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, intitled "The Woods and Forests Fund," or to such other Account with the said Bank of England as the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings shall direct; and all Sums of Money, Bills, and Drafts which shall hereafter be received by the Commissioners for the Execution of this Act, their Agents or Receivers, on account of Tolls, Rates, and Assessments, or from any other Sources whatsoever, under or by virtue of the herein-before recited Acts or this Act, or any of them, shall be paid by them into the Bank of England as soon as conveniently may be after the same shall have been received; and all Sums of Money, Bills, and Drafts which shall be received by the said Commissioners or any of the Accounts aforesaid at their Office in London shall be paid by them into the Bank of England within One Day after the same shall have been so received, or within One Day after any such Bill or Draft shall have been accepted, completed, and perfected, if the same be not accepted, completed, and perfected at the Time it shall be received; and all Moneys, Bills, and Drafts which shall be received by the Bank of England in pursuance of the Provisions of this Act shall be placed to the said Account intitled "The Woods and Forests Fund," or to such other Account as aforesaid; and the Drafts or Orders of the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, or any Two of them, shall be sufficient Authority to the said Bank of England to pay, apply, and dispose of the said Moneys, Bills, and Drafts to the Person or Persons or in the Manner in such Drafts or Orders respectively mentioned or specified; and after Payment of such Moneys, Bills, and Drafts in manner herein-before directed, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings for the Time being shall be alone answerable and accountable for the future Application of such Moneys, Bills, and Drafts respectively.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings shall cause a separate and distinct Account to be kept in the Books of their Office of the Moneys received under the Powers and Provisions of this Act, and of the Payment and Application of the same.

All Moneys now in the Hands of the Commissioners under 4 G. 4. c. 73, or hereafter to be received by the Commissioners under this Act, to be paid into the Bank of England to the Account of the Commissioners of Woods, &c.

A separate Account to be kept of Moneys received and paid under this Act.

C A P. XLIV.

An Act to repeal so much of Two Acts of the Seventh and Eighth Years and the Ninth Year of King George the Fourth as inflicts the Punishment of Death upon Persons breaking, entering, and stealing in a Dwelling House; also for giving Power to the Judges to add to the Punishment of Transportation for Life in certain Cases of Forgery, and in certain other Cases. [14th August 1833.]

WHEREAS by Two several Acts respectively passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of King George the Fourth and in the Ninth Year of the same Reign, the First of the said Acts intitled An Act for amending and amending the Law in England relative to Burglary and other Offences connected therewith; and the Second of the said Acts intitled An Act for amending and amending the Law in Ireland relative to Burglary and other Offences connected therewith; it is amongst other things by each of the said Acts enacted, that if any Person shall break and enter any Dwelling House, and steal therein any Chattel, Money, or valuable Security to any Value whatever, every such Offender being convicted thereof shall suffer Death as a Felon: And whereas by each of the said Acts it is further enacted, that in the Case of every Felony punishable under the said respective Acts of Burglary and Theft committed in England and every Offence committed in the

II. And be it enacted, That for the Purposes of this Act the Boundaries of each of the said Burghs as aforesaid or to be added to said Members to Parliament shall be the same as the Boundaries which are fixed by an Act passed in the Second and Third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to amend the Representation of the People in Scotland; and the Boundaries of all the other Royal Burghs, Burghs of Regality and of Barony, shall be such as are established by Charter, Grant, Prescription, Act of Parliament, or otherwise, and within a Distance not exceeding One thousand Yards from the Bounds of such last-mentioned Burghs; and such last-mentioned Burghs, and Liberties heretofore thereto attached, shall be deemed and taken to be Burghs within the Intent and Meaning of this Act.

Act/Boundaries of Parliamentary and other Burghs.

III. And be it enacted, That in the Absence of the Chief Magistrate of any Burgh directed or required to act in the Execution of any of the Powers or Provisions of this Act, the next senior Magistrate of such Burgh who shall be present shall officiate in the Place and Stead of such absent Chief Magistrate; and that where a Royal Burgh and a Burgh of Regality or Barony shall be united within the same Bounds of Police, the Chief Magistrate or other Magistrate so directed to preside in such Meetings shall be held to mean a Magistrate of such Royal Burgh.

In Absence of Chief Magistrate, the next in Seniority may act.

IV. And be it enacted, That such acting Chief Magistrate shall upon receiving such Application, accompanied, if he shall so require, with a satisfactory Undertaking to pay the Expenses after mentioned, appoint and direct a proper Person to make out and furnish, within Fourteen Days thereafter, Lists shewing, to the best of his Knowledge and Belief, the Amount of Population residing within such Burgh, and shall also direct the Assessors of the House Tax to furnish him, within the like Period, with a List of the Names of all Occupiers of Premises of the Value aforesaid situated within such Burgh; which List of the Occupiers of Premises so aforesaid, distinguishing the Amount of Rental at which such Premises are assessed, the said Assessors are hereby required to make and certify on Payment of a Fee of not more than One Shilling for each One hundred Names, and which List shall be sufficient Proof of the Qualification of Parties; and in case it shall be expedient to obtain such List otherwise than thro' the Assessor's Book, it shall be competent for such Chief Magistrate to cause accurate Lists to be made up and taken by Persons to be appointed for that Purpose.

List of the Population to be made out.

V. And be it enacted, That in case of any Dispute arising touching the Correctness of such Population Returns, or of any List of Occupiers of Houses or Premises to be made and furnished under the Provisions of this Act, or the Value of the same, or the Boundary of any Burgh not being a Burgh sending or contributing to send a Member or Members to Parliament, the same shall, for the Purposes of this Act, on the Application of either Party, after Six Days Notice given to the other Party, be settled by the Sheriff of the County, whose Determination therein shall be final.

In case of Dispute touching Returns, &c.

VI. And be it enacted, That if the Provisions of this Act shall be adopted in whole or in part, all the Expenses incurred in relation to the calling the first Meetings, making out the Population Returns of Occupiers of Houses, and otherwise in relation to carrying the Act into execution, shall be defrayed out of the Money assessed and levied under the Authority thereof; but in case the Provisions of this Act shall not be adopted by any such Meeting as aforesaid, or whole or in part, then the whole Expenses incurred in relation to the calling and holding such Meeting, making out Lists, taking Polls, and all other Expenses whatsoever thereto relating, shall be paid and borne by the Persons signing the Requisition for holding such Meeting; and the Chief Magistrate to whom such Requisition is addressed is hereby authorized to pursue for and recover the same, with Expenses of Process.

Expenses attending the calling such Meetings, &c. to be recovered.

VII. And be it enacted, That on Receipt of such Application the acting Chief Magistrate of such Burgh shall convene the Occupiers of Premises of the yearly Value aforesaid in the Town Hall or other convenient Place within such Burgh; and the said acting Chief Magistrate shall lay this Act before such Meeting, together with such Certificates, Requisition, and Lists aforesaid, and shall attend and shall preside at such Meeting and at each subsequent Meeting authorized by this Act, and shall appoint a Clerk to act thereat, who shall make regular Minutes of the Proceedings thereof; and such Magistrate shall in case of Equality of Votes, besides his deliberative Vote, have a casting or decisive Vote.

Mode of calling such Meeting.

VIII. And be it enacted, That such Meeting shall be held on a Day not less than Twenty-one Days or more than Thirty Days after such Magistrate shall have received such Requisition as aforesaid; and Intimation thereof shall be made by affixing such Notices upon the Doors of the Town House and of the several Parish Churches within such Burgh, Fourteen Days preceding the Day of the Meeting, so the Form of the Schedule marked (A.) hereto annexed, and by Tuck of Drum or other Mode of Intimation usually adopted in such Burgh Two Days in each Week for Two Weeks before such Meeting, or by open Proclamations at the Market cross of such Burgh, and also by an Advertisement in any Newspaper published in such Burgh, and if no Newspaper be published therein, then in a Newspaper circulating in such Burgh, at least Three clear Days before the Day appointed for such Meeting.

Meetings to be intimated.

IX. And be it enacted, That at all Meetings and Elections under this Act all Persons occupying Premises in any such Burgh of the Value of not less than Ten Pounds shall be entitled to vote; and Companies or Copartnerships occupying Premises of the Value aforesaid, or of greater Value, so as to afford more than One Qualification of Ten Pounds, shall be entitled to grant Authority in Writing to any One or more of the Partners of such Company or Copartnership to vote, and which Partner or Partners shall have vote accordingly: Provided always, that such Company or Copartnership shall not so authorize or have right to vote by more than One Partner in respect of each Qualification of Ten Pounds afforded by such Premises.

Regulations as to Alteration of Wards.

X. And be it enacted, That such Meeting shall proceed to consider and determine whether the Provisions of this Act, or any of them, shall be adapted and carried into execution within such Burgh; or shall appoint a Committee of their own Number, not exceeding Nine, to inquire and report to some future Meeting to be held on such Day as shall be appointed; and such future Meeting shall, upon the Report of such Committee, proceed in all respects in the Manner herein directed for such Meeting.

XI. And be it enacted, That the Process of all Meetings shall ascertain the Determination thereof by a Show of Hands, or in such other Manner as shall appear to him expedient, and shall declare the same, which Declaration shall be final and conclusive, unless the same shall not be unanimous, and a Poll shall be demanded in Writing, within Twenty four Hours thereafter, by any Five Persons present, and qualified to vote at such Meeting.

XII. And be it enacted, That when such Poll shall be demanded as aforesaid, such Magistrate shall direct the same to be proceeded in within such Period as he shall determine, not exceeding Two clear Days from the Day of the Date of such Demand in Writing, exclusive of Saturdays and Sundays, and the polling shall commence at the Place directed at Nine of the Clock of the Forenoon of the Day that shall be named.

XIII. And be it enacted, That no Poll by this Act authorized to be taken shall be directed to begin on a Saturday, or shall be kept open for more than Two consecutive Days, and that only between the Hours of Nine in the Morning and Four in the Afternoon for the First Day, and between the Hours of Eight in the Morning and Four in the Afternoon for the Second Day.

XIV. And be it enacted, That the Chief Magistrate of such Burgh shall direct the necessary Number of Clerks to be appointed, and of Poll Books to be prepared in the Form of Schedule (B.) hereunto annexed, or which the Name of every Person qualified and requiring to vote, together with his Designation and the Manner in which he shall vote, shall be entered.

XV. And be it enacted, That the Poll shall close before, provided all Persons duly qualified and desirous to vote shall have voted, or at any Time after the Lapse of an Hour without any qualified Person offering to vote.

XVI. And be it enacted, That as soon after the Close of the Poll as may be, the Poll Clerks shall transmit to such Magistrate the State of the respective Polls, who shall read up the same, and openly declare the Result of the total Poll at an adjourned Meeting to be held on the next lawful Day.

XVII. And be it enacted, That no Resolution to adopt the Provisions of this Act, in whole or in part, shall be effectual, unless it shall be carried by at least Three Fourths of the Number of Persons voting and qualified as aforesaid.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That if such Resolution shall be to adopt the Act only in part, the Clauses so adopted shall be set forth and declared in the Minutes of such Meeting.

XIX. And be it enacted, That where such Burgh shall have resolved not to adopt the Provisions of this Act, or shall have adopted them only in part, the Inhabitants thereof, qualified as aforesaid, may, after the Expiration of Two Years from the Date of any preceding Meeting, but not sooner, by such and the like Proceedings, again take this Act into consideration, and adopt the same in whole or in part, or such Part thereof as may not have been formerly adopted, or determine not to adopt the same.

XX. And be it enacted, That where, by such Proceedings, the Act shall be adopted in such Burgh, in whole or in part, such Resolution as to adopt shall not be subject to any further Question; and the Inhabitants thereof, qualified as aforesaid, present at the Meeting adopting the same unanimously, or at some adjourned Meeting as aforesaid, shall then and there proceed to determine by a Majority of Votes, and shall set forth in their Minutes the Limits beyond the Boundary of such Burghs, not included in the said recited Act, to which the Provisions of this Act shall extend, and not exceeding the Distance of One thousand Yards as aforesaid, and also shall determine whether such Burgh shall be divided into Wards, and in that Case shall set forth and describe the Boundaries and Limits of such Wards, and shall specify the Number of Commissioners, to be elected by the Inhabitants, to carry this Act into operation, and shall also fix the maximum Rate of Assessment (which shall be no Case except One Shilling and Sixpence in the Pound of the Rent of Premises, to be assessed in manner hereinafter mentioned,) to be levied for the Purposes of this Act for the Three succeeding Years, and shall set forth and specify the Proportion of such Assessment which shall be made applicable to each of the several Purposes of this Act.

XXI. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners to be elected as herein-after provided shall not be, in any Case, fewer than Five or more than Twenty-one, including the Chief Magistrate of the Burgh, who shall be Commissioner ex officio, and shall, when present, preside at all Meetings of the Commissioners, and the said Commissioners, together with a further Number of Commissioners chosen by the Magistrates and Town Council of such Burgh from among themselves, amounting as near as may be to One Fifth Part of such elected Commissioners, shall be the Commissioners for carrying the Act into operation.

XXII. Provided always, That where such Burgh shall be divided into Wards, the Number thereof, and the Number of Commissioners to be elected, in manner herein after provided, shall be so settled and adjusted that there shall be One such Commissioner for each such Ward.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful and competent for the Inhabitants of the said Burgh, qualified as aforesaid, at a Meeting or adjourned Meeting, called as aforesaid, to alter, vary, add to, or divide such Wards or any of them in such Manner as the State of the Population thereof or other Circumstances shall in them appear from Time to Time to require; and in the Event of any Addition being made to the Number of Wards by the Subdivision thereof or otherwise, Commissioners shall be chosen for such additional Wards in manner and for the Purposes herein mentioned, but so as that the Number of Wards shall in no Case exceed Twenty.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That where, by reason of Contiguity of any Two or more Burghs, it shall be desirable and expedient for such contiguous Burghs jointly to adopt the Provisions of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for such Burghs intending so to unite, as if such Burghs were One Burgh, and so follow forth such and the like Statutes and Orders in all respects in which the same can be observed. For adopting the Provisions of this Act, as are directed and prescribed for One Burgh intending to adopt the same; and such united Burghs shall, in respect of Division into Wards, Election of Commissioners, Assessments for the Expenses of carrying this Act into execution, and every other Power, Privilege, Honor, or Thing granted, provided, or prescribed in relation to single Burghs adopting this Act, be and be taken to be as One Burgh; and the Chief Magistrate of each such Burgh shall, or shall be a Commissioner for such District of Burghs under this Act; and the Magistrate and Council of each such Burgh shall, in addition to the Chief Magistrate hereby appointed as an officer Commissioner, select One or more Members from among their own Body to be Commissioners, so as that the Number so elected shall, with such Chief Magistrate, make as nearly as may be One Fifth of the elected Commissioners of such united Burghs; and if the Number of Commissioners to be elected by the Magistrate and Council does not admit of each Burgh electing One Commissioner, or of each Burgh electing an equal Number, such Burghs, where all cannot elect, shall elect successively, and according to a Rotation to be established by such Burghs, and in like Manner where such Burgh cannot elect an equal Number, the Right of electing the greater Number shall be enjoyed in succession, according to such Rotation; and the Chief Magistrate of each such united Burgh shall respectively and successively, annually, be the Preses of the Commissioners of such united Burghs, according to such Rotation, and the Preses of all public Meetings to be held thereafter; and in case of any Difference as to such Rotation, Election, or Right of Election, it shall be competent to either Party to apply to the Sheriff of the County in which such Burghs are situated to determine the same, six Days previous Notice being given to the other Party of such Application; and the Determination of the Sheriff thereof shall be final and conclusive: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall affect or be construed to affect the Rights, Powers, Privileges, or Jurisdictions of any Magistrate and Council within their own Burghs.

XXV. And be it enacted, That the Resolutions and whole Proceedings of such Meetings shall be reported to the Sheriff of the County within which such Burgh shall be situated by the Transmission to him of the Minutes of such Meetings and all Documents laid before the same, which Transmission the writing Chief Magistrate as aforesaid is hereby required to make within Forty-eight Hours after the Close of the Proceedings aforesaid; and the said Sheriff shall, within Forty-eight Hours after the Receipt thereof, affix a Deliberation thereon, finding and declaring, as the Case may be, either that this Act has not been adopted, or that the Powers and Provisions thereof (in so far as such Minutes shall show this to have been the Case) have been adopted, and that this Act shall apply to such Burgh in manner therein set forth, and shall forthwith cause such Minutes to be recorded in the Sheriff Court Books of the County, and in the Books of the Burgh to which they specially apply, and in the Books of the Commissioners of Police, hereinafter appointed to be kept, where such shall be the Case.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That on Receipt of such Deliberation, such Magistrate aforesaid shall convene a Meeting of Occupiers of Houses and Presides of each Burgh, qualified as aforesaid, and if the Burgh shall be divided into Wards, at some convenient Place to their respective Wards, to be specified in the Notice to be given of such Meeting, for the Election of Commissioners for the Purpose of executing this Act, all which Meetings shall be summoned in the same Way and Manner and at the same Distance of Time as is provided for the first Meeting to be held in virtue of this Act; and on all such Burghs as shall be divided into Wards in manner herein provided, the Ward Meetings shall elect their own Preses; and the Commissioners (except the Chief Magistrate of the Burgh, and the Commissioners to be elected by the Magistrate and Town Council of such Burghs,) shall be elected by such Meeting or by such Wards.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That such Elections shall be proceeded with in manner following: (that is to say) each Candidate who shall be qualified to vote as aforesaid, and residing within such Burgh, shall be eligible to be elected a Commissioner for the Purpose of this Act, and shall be proposed at the said Meeting by some Person duly qualified to vote thereat, and shall be seconded by some other Person in like Manner qualified, and the Preses of the Meeting shall ascertain and declare the Resolution thereof in manner aforesaid; and if such Election shall not be unanimous, and if a Poll shall be demanded in Writing, as the Manner and within the Time before provided, at such or any other Meeting for the Purpose of Election under this Act, such Chief Magistrate or such Preses of such Meeting shall open and proceed with such Poll in the Manner herein provided; and the said Chief Magistrate or Preses of Wards respectively shall for that Purpose appoint a Clerk, and shall provide a Book in the Form of Schedule (C.) hereto annexed, in which the Votes shall be entered, and shall declare the Result of such Poll, and the said Chief Magistrate or Preses shall be reintroduced, all such Commissioners to be elected annually.

XXX. And be it enacted, That One Third, or as nearly as may be One Third, of such elected Commissioners of each such Borough as aforesaid, who shall be the highest on the List of such Commissioners, to be arranged alphabetically according to their Surnames, and the One of the Commissioners elected by such Magistrate as aforesaid who shall be the highest of such non-nominated Commissioners on the List, to be also arranged alphabetically, shall go annually out of Office, videlicet, on the same Day at the Expiration of a Year on which they were elected into Office, or on the next lawful Day thereafter; and on the same or the next lawful Day, annually, the Places of such Commissioners going out of Office shall be supplied by an equal Number of new Commissioners to be chosen, videlicet, the Third Part of such elected Commissioners, or as nearly as may be the Third Part, from among the Candidates qualified as aforesaid, by the Electors of the Borough, or by the several Wards where such Borough shall be divided into Wards, and the Commissioners to be elected from among the Magistrates and Town Council of such Boroughs, by the Magistrates and Town Council of the Boroughs as aforesaid, under all the Rules, Regulations, and Provisions applicable to such First Meeting and Election; and the like Notice of such annual Meeting shall be given as is herein-before directed to be given of such First Meeting for electing Commissioners; and the Persons so elected shall be placed at the Foot of the List of Commissioners.

Notice to be given to the Electors of the Assessment.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That there shall be held in each such Borough adopting the Provisions of this Act, at the Expiration of the Third Year after the First Meeting held to determine the maximum Assessment, and at the Expiration of every Third Year thereafter, a Meeting of the Inhabitants thereof, qualified as aforesaid, in order to determine the Amount of the maximum Assessment for the Three Years next succeeding, and the Clerks to the said Commissioners shall give Notice thereof in the same Manner as by this Act the Chief Magistrate is required to give Notice with respect to the First Meeting to be held under this Act, that a Meeting will be holden on such Day for fixing the maximum Amount of the Assessment for the Three Years next succeeding; and previous to such Meeting the said Commissioners shall furnish to the acting Chief Magistrate of the Borough a List of the Names of the Occupiers of Premises, qualified as aforesaid, which List shall be sufficient Evidence and Proof of the Qualifications of the Parties to vote at such Meeting: Provided always, that in default of giving due Notice of such Meeting in manner above provided, the Clerk to the said Commissioners shall furnish and pay to the said Commissioners a Penalty of One hundred Pounds.

Provision to be made in respect of Meetings in the Assessment.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That the Person presiding shall at such Triennial Meetings proceed in the same Manner as at the First Meeting to be held under this Act in regard to the Assessment of the Sum agreed to be assessed: Provided always, that the Rate of Assessment shall not be diminished so long as any Money borrowed on the Security of such Assessment shall remain unpaid, and that the Rate of Assessment for any Three succeeding Years shall not be less than Two Thirds of the Rate agreed to at the last preceding Triennial Meeting held under the Provisions of this Act; and that if a larger Sum shall not be agreed to, the Commissioners shall have Power to levy such Two Thirds of the original Assessment, without any further Authority.

Outgoing Commissioners may be re-elected.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That any of such outgoing Commissioners may be re-elected: Provided always, that no Person shall be eligible as a Commissioner, or entitled to vote at such Election, who shall have been relieved from the Assessment made or levied for the Purpose of this Act for the Year immediately preceding on the Ground of inability to pay the said Assessment, or by whom any Arrear of any Assessment due under this Act shall at the Time of the Election have been owing for the Space of a Month, and shall since it became due have been demanded, whether such Arrear shall be due by himself or by any Company or Copartnership by which he is authorized to vote; and a Certificate under the Hand of the Collector shall be deemed and taken to be a sufficient Evidence of such Arrears or Relief.

Provision how to be supplied.

XXXIV. And be it enacted, That in case the Place of any of the Commissioners elected as aforesaid shall become vacant by Death, Refusal to act, Inqualification, or Resignation, then and in such Cases it shall be lawful for the remaining Commissioners to nominate Persons duly qualified as supply such Vacancies, and the Person so nominated shall have and enjoy the same Powers and Privileges as the Person in whose Stead he is appointed, and shall remain in Office until the Period at which the Person in whose Stead he is nominated would have gone out by Rotation; and if the Electors shall refuse or neglect to meet, or if at such Meeting the Electors shall refuse or neglect to elect the Whole or any Part of the Number of Commissioners originally fixed and agreed to, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners who held Office immediately before the Time specified for such Election to supply the Deficiency.

Electors refusing to elect.

XXXV. And be it enacted, That instead of electing Commissioners it shall be competent and lawful to the Electors duly qualified as aforesaid to determine by a Majority of Three Fourths of the Votes of the Persons assembled as aforesaid at any Meeting called for such Purpose, that the Magistrates and Town Council of such Burgh for the Time being shall carry this Act, or such Part thereof as shall have been adopted, into execution; and such Magistrates and Town Council then shall have the same Rights, Powers, and Authorities, and be subject to the like Rules, Limitations, and Regulations, as are hereby conferred or imposed upon the Commissioners herein before authorized and directed to be elected, so far as the same are applicable and capable of taking effect, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

Magistrates and Town Council may be elected Commissioners.

XXXVI. And be it enacted, That none of the Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act shall, directly or indirectly, derive any Emolument or Profit for any Business or Work of any Description performed or to be performed by him under this Act; nor shall any Commissioner be capable of acting as such during the Time he shall enjoy any Office of Profit to be created or established by virtue of this Act, or while he has any Share or Interest in any Company relating to the Execution thereof; nor shall any such Commissioner be capable of standing as a Candidate for any such Office, or be a Candidate for any such Contract, save and except Contracts entered into with any Chartered or Joint Stock Company of which such Commissioner may be a Partner.

Commissioners not to hold Places of Profit.

XXXVII. And be it enacted, That the whole Commissioners shall be obliged to attend all Meetings, both special and statutory, (save only the First Meetings under this Act,) each Citation being given personally, or at their Dwelling Houses or Shops, by written or printed Summons issued by their Clerk, at least Twenty-four Hours before the Time of meeting; and in the Absence of the said acting Chief Magistrate such one of the said Commissioners as shall be chosen by the Meeting shall preside at all Meetings of the said Commissioners; and the Process of all Meetings of the Commissioners shall have both a deliberative and in case of Equality a casting Vote in all Matters which shall come before them: Provided always, that One Third of the said Commissioners must be present at all Meetings to constitute a Quorum.

Commissioners to be summoned to attend Meetings.

Quorum.

XXXVIII. And be it enacted, That Meetings of the said Commissioners shall be held, in such Places as they shall appoint, within each Burgh upon the Second Monday of the Months of May, August, November, and February in each Year, at Twelve of the Clock Noon.

Statutory Meetings of Commissioners.

XXXIX. And be it enacted, That the Clerk to the said Commissioners, on Requisition being made, stating the Object of the intended Meeting to Writing, and signed by Two of the said Commissioners, shall cause Special Meetings to be called within Forty-eight Hours, and to be held within Four Days after such Requisition, and shall cause the whole Commissioners to be summoned to attend such Meetings by printed or written Summons containing a Copy of such Requisition.

Special Meetings may be called on Requisition.

XL. And be it enacted, That no Rules or Regulations shall be adopted or carried into execution by any Special Meeting which shall tend to alter or amend any Rules or Regulations which may have been made and framed at any of the Four Meetings hereby appointed to be held annually.

Special Meetings not to amend Rules.

XLI. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners may adjourn to any other Day, Hour, and Place within the Bounds before described.

Meetings may be adjourned.

XLII. And be it enacted, That at all and each of the Meetings to be held in virtue of this Act the Commissioners present shall defray their own Expenses.

Expenses of Commissioners, to be paid in special Commissions.

XLIII. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners shall have Power to form Committees of their Number, under such Directions to report to the Commissioners, so far carrying the various Purposes of this Act into execution, and to delegate to such Committees the Powers competent to the said Commissioners under this Act, in whole or in part, with regard to the Subject which may be committed, to name the Commisars, and to fix the Number of such Commisars who shall form a Quorum; and the Commisars, who shall preside at such Committees, shall be entitled to a casting Vote in case of Equality, and to convene the Members by Notices in the Way he shall think most convenient.

Powers and Duties of Committees.

XLIV. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners shall, in such Manner as to them shall seem best for the Purposes of this Act, estimate, assess, levy, and apply the Sums of Money hereby authorized to be raised for the Purposes of this Act, and shall have Power at such Times as they shall appoint, and from Time to Time, to order and direct Lists to be taken of the Inhabitants of such Burgh, and of the Value of Premises situate therein, and shall for such Purpose appoint, at such Salaries as they shall judge meet, Collectors, Clerks, Surveyors, Officers of Police, Watchmen, and all other Persons to be employed in the Execution of this Act, and to remove them at Pleasure, and to fix the Number and Descriptions of Officers to be employed, and the Wages to be paid to them respectively, and to increase or diminish their Numbers from Time to Time, as they shall see Cause, and to make Orders and Regulations for their Government; and the said Commissioners shall have Power also, with the Consent of the Proprietors, to purchase such Lands and Premises as shall be required for the Purposes of this Act, and shall also have full Power and Authority to make all necessary Rules, Orders, and Regulations relative to the watching, lighting with Gas or otherwise, paving and cleaning the Streets, Roads, Lanes, Passages, or public Ways or Places within any such Burgh, or to the Supply and Distribution of Water and Gas to the same, in so far as the Powers of this Act may apply to those Objects in any Burgh, and generally for the due and effectual Enforcement thereof, for the Preservation of the streets, Ditches, and gutters, and for putting down and repairing such Nuisances as may affect the Health of the Inhabitants, and for carrying into effect all the Objects and Purposes and Provisions of this Act.

such Money shall not be so applied, then the same shall be laid out and invested, under the like Direction and Approbation of the said Court, in the Purchase of other Lands or Heritages, which shall be conveyed and settled to, for, and upon such and the like Uses, Trusts, Intents, and Purposes, and in the same Manner, as the Lands or Heritages which shall be so purchased, taken, or used as aforesaid stood settled or invested, or such of them as at the Time of making such Conveyance and Settlement shall be existing undetermined and capable of taking effect; and in the meantime, and until such Purchases shall be made, the Interest or annual Produce of such Money shall from Time to Time be paid, by Order of the said Court, to the Person or Persons who would for the Time being have been entitled to the Rents and Profits of the Lands and Heritages so hereby directed to be purchased, in case such Purchases or Settlements were made.

LIII. And be it enacted, That if any Money so agreed to be paid for any Lands or Heritages purchased, taken, or used for the Purposes aforesaid, and belonging to any Corporation, or to any Person or Persons under Disability or Incapacity as aforesaid, shall be less than the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, and shall amount to or exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds, then and in all such Cases the same shall (at the Option of the Person or Persons for the Time being entitled to the Rents and Profits of the Lands or Heritages so purchased, taken, or used, or of his, her, or their Guardian or Guardians in case of Infancy or Lunacy, to be signified in Writing under their respective Hands,) be paid into one of the said Banks, and shall be ordered to be applied in manner herein-before directed; or otherwise the same shall be paid, at the like Option, to Two Trustees, to be nominated by the Person or Persons making such Option, and approved of by the said Commissioners, (each Nominations and Approbation to be signified in Writing under the Hands of the nominating and approving Parties,) in order that such Principal Money and the Interest arising thereon may be applied in any Manner herein-before directed, so far as the Case be applicable, without obtaining or being required to obtain the Direction or Approbation of the said Court.

LIV. And be it enacted, That where such Money so agreed or ordered to be paid as last before mentioned shall be less than Twenty Pounds, then and in all such Cases the same shall be applied to the Use of the Person who would for the Time being have been entitled to the Rents and Profits of the Lands or Heritages so purchased, taken, or used for the Purposes of this Act, in such Manner as the said Commissioners shall think fit, or in case of Infancy or Lunacy, them to his, her, or their Guardian or Guardians, to and for the Use and Benefit of such Person or Persons so entitled respectively.

LIV. And be it enacted, That in case the Person or Persons to whose any Sum or Sums of Money shall be payable as aforesaid shall refuse to accept the same, or shall not be able to make good a Title to the Premises, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, or in case the Person or Persons to whom any such Sum or Sums of Money shall be so payable as aforesaid cannot be found, or if the Person or Persons entitled to such Lands or Heritages be not known or discovered, then and in every such Case it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or any Two or more of them, to pay the Sum and Sums of Money so payable as aforesaid into the Bank of Scotland, or Royal Bank of Scotland, or Bank of the British Linen Company, or Commercial Bank of Scotland, or National Bank of Scotland respectively, as the Case may be, to the Credit of the Parties interested in the said Lands or Heritages, describing them if they are known, and if they are not known, then generally to the Credits of the Parties interested in the said Lands or Heritages, without any Description of them, subject to the Order, Control, and Disposition of the said Court of Session; which said Court, or either of the Divisions thereof, on the Application of any Person or Persons making claim to such Sum or Sums of Money, or any Part thereof, by Petition, shall be and are hereby empowered, in a summary Way of proceeding, or otherwise, as to the said Court shall seem meet, to make such other Order in the Premises as to the said Court shall seem just and reasonable; and the Cashiers or Clerks of the Bank of Scotland, or Royal Bank of Scotland, or Bank of the British Linen Company, or Commercial Bank of Scotland, or National Bank of Scotland respectively, who shall receive such Sum or Sums of Money, in and are hereby required to give a Receipt or Receipts for the same, mentioning and specifying for what and for whose Use the same is or are received, to such Person or Persons as shall pay any such Sum or Sums of Money into such Bank or Banks as aforesaid.

LV. And be it enacted, That where any Question shall arise touching the Title of any Person to any Money to be paid into any such Bank as aforesaid, in pursuance of this Act, for the Purchase of any Lands or Heritages, or of any Estate, Right, or Interest in any Lands or Heritages, to be purchased in pursuance thereof, or to any Interest of such Money, the Person or Persons who shall have been in possession of the Lands or Heritages at the Time of such Purchase, and all Persons claiming under such Person or Persons, or under the Possession of such Person or Persons, shall be deemed and taken to have been lawfully entitled to such Lands or Heritages, according to such Possession, until the contrary shall be shown to the Satisfaction of the said Court of Session; and the Interest of such Money, and also the Principal Sums, shall be paid, applied, and disposed of accordingly, unless it shall be made appear to the said Court that such Possession was a wrongful one, and that some other Person or Persons was or were lawfully entitled to such Lands or Heritages, or to some Estate or Interest therein.

LVI. And be it enacted, That where, by reason of any Disability or Incapacity of the Person or Persons or Corporation entitled to any Lands or Heritages to be purchased under the Authority of this Act, the Purchase Money of the same shall be required to be paid into any of the said Banks, and to be applied in the Purchase of the same Lands or Heritages to be settled on the like Persons or Persons as Application when less than £200, and more than £200.

Application when less than £200.

In case of not making out Title, the Court may order Payment and Expenses.

Where Questions arise touching the Title to any Money

Court may order Payment of Expenses in certain Cases.

Act, shall be lawful for the said Court of Session to order the Expenses of all Purchases from Time to Time to be made in pursuance of this Act, or so much of such Expenses as the said Court shall deem reasonable, together with the necessary Costs and Charges of obtaining such Orders, to be paid by the said Commissioners, who shall from Time to Time pay such Sum or Sums of Money for such Purposes as the said Court shall direct.

Right of Heir-able Property how regulated

LVI. And be it enacted, That the Rights of all Heir-able Property to be acquired in the Execution of this Act shall be taken in favour of the Clerk of the Commissioners for the Time, and his Successors in Office, and such Rights shall be sufficient for vesting the Subjunct in the Commissioners and their Successors in Office; and all Contracts, Agreements, Sales, and Conveyances, or other Deeds or Writings constituting such Rights, may be made according to the following Form:

Form of Conveyance

“ I, A. B. in consideration of _____ to me by hereafter paid by yearly or half-yearly Payments, as may be agreed on, by the Commissioners of Police for the Burgh of _____ do hereby grant, dispose, and convey to _____ as Clerk to and for behoof of the said Commissioners, and his Successors in Office, all (describing the Premises to be conveyed), and all my Right, Title, and Interest to the same, to be holden by the said Commissioners and their Successors for ever, by virtue of an Act of Parliament made in the Third and Fourth Year of the Days of His Majesty King William the Fourth, intitled An Act (Here insert the Title of the Act), in witness whereof I have subscribed these Presents, written by _____ this _____ Day of _____ to the Year of our Lord _____ before these Witnesses (Here insert Witnesses Names and Descriptions).”

Which said Conveyance, being registered in the Register of Sasines of the Burgh or of the County respectively in which the Premises conveyed shall be situated, and which the respective Keepers of the Registers are hereby authorized and required to register, shall receive the same Effect and be as valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes as if a formal Disposition had been executed, and followed by Sasnet recorded according to the Form of the Law of Scotland, any Law, Statute, or Practice to the contrary notwithstanding.

How the Com- missioners may sue and be sued

LVIII. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners shall and may sue and be sued in the Name of any one of the said Commissioners or of their Clerk; and no Action or Suit which may be so brought, commenced, or prosecuted by or against the said Commissioners or any of them, by writ or on account of this Act, shall abate or be discontinued by the Death, Suspension, or Removal of such Commissioner or Clerk; Provided always, that every Commissioner or Clerk in whose Name any Action or Suit shall be commenced, prosecuted, or defended in pursuance of this Act shall be reimbursed, out of the Money to be raised by virtue of this Act, all such Damages, Charges, and Expenses as such Party shall be put to or become chargeable with by reason of his being so made Pursuer or Defender therein.

Treasurer and Collector to be appointed

LIX. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall in like Manner at their First Meeting elect and appoint a Treasurer and Collector to act during their Measure, and such Collector and Treasurer before they shall be permitted to take upon them the Execution of their Office shall respectively grant Bond, with sufficient Sureties, to the said Commissioners, for their Intimations, and for the just and faithful Execution of their Office, to such an Amount as the said Commissioners shall think reasonable; and any Collector and Treasurer who may be convicted of wilfully receiving or not accounting to the said Commissioners for any Sum of Money received by him as Collector or Treasurer for said shall forfeit Triple the Amount thereof to the said Commissioners.

Allowance to Collector.

LX. And be it enacted, That such Collector shall be allowed for his Trouble in collecting such Rates and Assessments a Sum not exceeding the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum upon all such Sums of Money as he shall collect and receive.

Collector to lodge all Money received by him in Bank.

LXI. And be it enacted, That such Collector shall be obliged to lodge all Money received by him in one or other of the Bank of Scotland, Royal Bank of Scotland, or Bank of the British Liners Company of Scotland, or Commercial Bank of Scotland, or National Bank of Scotland, or in one of the Branches thereof, and if there are no Branches of any of such Banks in such Town, then in some other Bank to be fixed by the said Commissioners, upon an Account to be opened in the Name of the Commissioners, and to be operated upon by the Treasurer for the Time; and such Treasurer shall make no Debits on the said Account for any private Purpose or any Purpose whatsoever, nor for any other Purpose than the Payments which shall from Time to Time be authorized by the said Commissioners of their Consents for the Purposes of this Act, on the same shall be certified to the said Treasurer by the Clerk to the said Commissioners, who shall countersign all such Debits.

On Insolvency of Treasurer or Collector, the Money may be raised

LXII. And be it enacted, That in case any such Treasurer or Collector shall become insolvent, and the Sums chargeable against him shall not have been paid by his Sureties, then and in every such Case the Sums deficient shall be assessed upon the Burgh at the next annual Assessment in the Manner herein prescribed with regard to annual Assessments, and shall be payable at such Time as the said Commissioners shall appoint; and in case of Failure in Payment, the same Proceedings shall be competent as are hereby directed in case of Failure in Payment of the annual Assessment.

Names of Occupiers to be furnished by Heirs in Assessments.

LXIII. And be it enacted, That the Assessors of the House Tax, or other Assessors so aforesaid, shall furnish the said Commissioners, as often as they shall require the same, with a List of the Names of all Occupiers of Premises as aforesaid, certified as aforesaid, and on Payment of a Fee in manner herein prescribed, and shall, in every Burgh, Town, or Village, and in every Ward, Precinct, or District, upon Requisition, Requirement, furnish such Commissioners with a Copy of the List of the Persons qualified to vote in such Burgh for Members of Parliament.

LXIV. And be it enacted, That on or before the Second Meeting of November in each Year the said Commissioners (being assembled in manner herein-before directed by written or printed Notifications, which shall state that the Meeting is for the Purpose of laying on an Assessment,) shall assess all Tenants, Occupiers, and Possessors of Premises valued at Two Pounds or upwards of yearly Rent within such Burghs as shall adopt the Provisions of this Act, in the Same necessary to be levied for the Purpose of this Act; which Assessment shall be calculated from Whitsunday to Whitsunday, and shall be payable in the Months of October and November annually; the first Year's Assessment being for One whole Year from the Whitsunday preceding to the Whitsunday next ensuing; Provided always, that the said Assessment shall not in any Year exceed the maximum Rate of Assessment that shall be fixed for such Year above provided.

Commissioners to make Assessments.

LXV. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners shall not assess any Premises which shall be unoccupied or unfurnished from one Term of Whitsunday to another Term of Whitsunday, nor the Town House of the Burgh, nor any Place used solely for public Worship, nor any Buildings which are solely occupied for the Purpose of Religion, or of public Charity, or of Science or Education; and no Person occupying Premises within the above-said Distance of One thousand Yards beyond the Boundary of any Burgh not comprehended within the said recited Act shall be assessed under or by virtue of this Act, unless he shall receive Benefit under the Provisions thereof; and if assessed, he shall only be assessed in respect of the House or other Premises which he may occupy, and not in respect of any Land held by him for agricultural Purposes, or as Nursery or Garden Ground, nor shall he be assessed in respect of such House or Premises excepting for and on account of such or such one of the Purposes of this Act as shall be extended and be beneficial to such House or Premises; and in case of any Dispute in relation to such Assessment, or the Benefit derived by the Person so assessed or sought to be assessed under the Provisions of this Act, the same shall, on the Application of the Party complaining, after Six Days Notice to the other Party, be heard and determined by the Sheriff of the Burgh, whose Determination shall be final.

Exemption from Assessment.

LXVI. And be it enacted, That when the Provisions of this Act shall have been adopted in any Burgh possessed of any Free Income arising from the Common Good of such Burgh, after Deduction of the Interest of any Debt which such Burgh may owe, and also the necessary annual Outgoings of such Burgh, there shall be annually contributed therefrom such a reasonable Proportion towards the Purpose of this Act as the Town Council and the said Commissioners shall consent and adjust: Provided always, that if these Parties shall not agree thereupon, either of them may require, by Notice in Writing, that the Amount of such Contribution shall be submitted to the Decision of the Sheriff of the County wherein such Burgh shall be situated, and such Sheriff is hereby required thereupon to enquire in such Burgh, and to inquire into all Facts and Circumstances which he may deem material, and to take in Writing the Statements of Parties, and such Evidence as he shall think necessary, and such Sheriff shall decide as to the Amount of such Contribution to be paid from the Common Good of such Burgh, and such Decision shall be recorded in the Books of the Burgh, and also in the Books of the said Commissioners: Provided nevertheless, that if either Party shall be dissatisfied with such Decision, such Party may, within Four Weeks, but not thereafter, require that such Statements and Evidence, together with the Detestations, shall be transmitted to the Court of Exchequer, which Court shall thereupon proceed in the Matter in such Way as may seem best to the said Court; and the Decision of the said Court shall be final: Provided always, that in the Event of any Change of Circumstances operating either towards the Increase or Diminution of the Free Income of such Burgh, it shall be competent either to the Magistrates and Town Council, or to the said Commissioners, after the Expiration of Three Years after the Date of any such Decision, or Three Years after the Date of any after Decision, to propose an Amendment or Rectification of the existing Contribution, and in case of Disagreement between the Magistrates and Commissioners, the Amount shall again be submitted to the Decision of the Sheriff, and in case of Dissatisfaction, to the Determination of the Court of Exchequer, as is herein provided in relation to the last Contribution.

Common Good
to contribute.

LXVII. And be it enacted, That the Sum which such Burgh shall thus agree to, or shall be directed to contribute annually as aforesaid, shall be recoverable by such and the like Process as Debts due from the Common Good of Royal Burghs in Scotland may now by Law be recovered.

Contributions
covered.

LXVIII. And be it enacted, That the said Assessment shall be levied from the actual Possessors of all Premises (whether Proprietors or Tenants): but in the Cases of Premises let for a long Period then a whole Year, the Person by whom the Assessment shall be paid shall be entitled to deduct the same from the Rent payable to the Person by whom the said Premises shall be so let, who shall be liable for such Assessment, and from whom the same may be levied in case of the Removal or Default of the actual Possessor of any such Premises: and Deduction shall be allowed by the Commissioners of the Assessment for each entire Period of Six Months from Whitsunday to Whitsunday, or from Martinmas to Whitsunday, during which any such Premises shall be unoccupied or not furnished.

Premises and Tenants to pay
Assessment.

LXIX. And be it enacted, That the Lists of Occupiers made up by Order of the Commissioners, as furnished by the Assessors for the House Tax as aforesaid, or a Copy thereof Assented and signed by the Process of any Meeting of the said Commissioners, shall forthwith be delivered over to the Collector of the said Assessment as his Rule for allocating the same, who shall forthwith make out a Roll or Book of Assessment: ~~Provided always, that the said Commissioners shall have Power to require any~~

to be delivered to the Collector

any such Valuation of Premises against which an Appeal may be taken by the Person liable to be assessed therefor by Letter to the Clerk, lodged with him on or before the first lawful Day in June in each Year.

Recovery of Rates.

LXX. And be it enacted, That the said Collector shall present the said List or Book of Assessment to any one of the Magistrates of such Burgh who is hereby authorized and required to grant such summary Warrants and Warrants as may be necessary for levying the same; and where any Person so rated and assessed as aforesaid shall refuse or neglect to pay the Rate or Assessment charged upon him for the Space of Ten Days next after the same shall be due and demanded by the Collector, it shall be lawful for the said Collector to apply to such Magistrate for a Warrant to any of the Officers of the said Burgh to enter the Premises rated or possessed, and to seize and take possession of the Goods and Effects of the Person assessed and refusing and neglecting as aforesaid; and which Warrant the said Magistrate is hereby authorized and required to grant, upon a Certificate, signed by the Collector or Person who made the Demand, of such Demand having been made, and of such Person being in arrear to the Amount to be stated in the Certificate; and if such Rate or Assessment shall not be paid within Three Days after such Seizure is made, together with Charges and Expenses thereby incurred, then the said Collector is hereby authorized to sell by public Auction, either on the Premises where the said Goods were seized, or any other Place, such Part of the said Goods or Effects as shall be sufficient to pay the said Rate, with the Expenses attending such Seizure and Sale, reserving the Surplus, if any be, to the Owner; and failing the Recovery of all or any Part of the Rate or Assessment in aforesaid manner before described, the said Collector shall be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to prosecute for and otherwise recover the same according to Law; and the Collector shall be bound to preserve the Warrants of such Seizure or Sales, and enter in a Book to be kept for that Purpose the Names of the Parties proceeded against, the Assessment due, the Expenses of the Proceedings, and the true Proceeds of each Sale, which Book shall be open to the Inspection (without any Fee) of all Parties interested for Three Months after the Date of each Sale respectively; and at any Time within that Period it shall be competent to any Party considering himself aggrieved to complain to the said Magistrate of any thing done aforesaid or apprehensively in regard to such Seizure or Sale, such Complaints being made in the Form of Petitions subscribed by the Complainer; and the Decision of the Magistrate shall be final, and not subject to Review in any Court by any Form whatsoever.

Refusal to give of Receipts.

LXXI. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners may, upon the Petition of any Occupier of any Premises subject to the Payment of the said Rates or Assessments, on the Ground of Poverty or Inability to pay the same, to wit, in whole or in part, Payment of the said Rate or Assessment by such Occupier or Owner respectively, in such Manner as the said Commissioners shall in their Discretion think just and reasonable, but upon no other Account whatsoever.

Books to be kept.

LXXII. And be it enacted, That Accounts of all Property, heritable and moveable, vested in the said Commissioners, showing the Nature of such Property, and of all Money received and disbursed, and all Orders and Proceedings of the Commissioners, shall be kept in Books by their Clerks; and all Books of such Accounts and Proceedings whatsoever may at all reasonable Times be inspected and perused, without Fee or Reward, by any Person rated, and also by Persons who shall be entitled to any Money due and owing on the Credit of such Rates; and such Persons may take Copies of or Extracts from any of the said Books, Accounts, and Proceedings, and of the said respective Rates, without Fee or Reward; and any Person in whose Custody or Power any such Books, Accounts, and Proceedings are, who shall refuse Inspection thereof, or to permit Copies or Extracts to be taken as aforesaid, shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds; and in case any Person who shall be rated shall be dissatisfied with any Accounts which shall have been made up as aforesaid, or with any of the Items or Articles contained in any such Account, such Person may appeal against the same by Petition to the Magistrates of the Burgh, in which shall be specified the Grounds of Objection to such Accounts, Items, or Articles; and the said Magistrate shall proceed to hear and determine the Matter of such Appeal, and the Decision shall be final and not subject to Review.

Account of Applications of Money to be made out and distributed among Commissioners.

LXXIII. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners shall yearly, between the last Monday in January and the Second Monday in February, cause to be made out a just and accurate Account of all the Monies received and expended in the Execution of this Act, showing from what Sources such Monies have been received, and to what Purposes the same have been laid out and applied; and which Account, signed by the Preses of the Meeting and Clerk, shall be deposited with the Clerk, who shall cause to be printed, and inserted in One or more of the Newspapers published or circulated in such Burgh, authenticated Abstracts of such yearly Accounts, and shall permit any Person interested under this Act to inspect and examine such Accounts or all reasonable Times, without Payment of any Fee or Reward for such Inspection.

Watchmen, &c. to become Constables.

LXXIV. And be it enacted, That the Watchmen and other Officers of Police appointed under the Authority of this Act shall, in virtue of their Appointment, and so long as they hold the same, and no longer, be subject to all the Regulations, and possess and exercise all the Powers applicable and belonging to the Office of Constable by the Law of Scotland, and shall, before acting, be respectively sworn in as Constables by the Chief Magistrate of the Burgh or Sheriff of the County.

Penalty for neglecting Watchmen or other Police Officers during their Hours of Duty.

LXXV. And be it enacted, That every Person who shall neglect, harbour, or entertain, or assist from their Duty, any such Watchmen or other Police Officer during their Hours of Duty, shall, on Conviction, forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding One Pound for every such Offence.

LXXXVI. And be it enacted, That every Person who shall assault, strike, obstruct, hinder, or molest any Officer or other Person employed under this Act, in the Execution of his Duty, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds Sterling, without Prejudice to the Officer or other Person to sue for and recover a Recompense, Damages, or Expenses for the Injury which he may sustain, and to have the same awarded in the due Course of Law.

Penalty for obstructing Officers.

LXXXVII. And be it enacted, That if any such Officer shall demand any Emolument whatsoever (other than such Salary or Allowance as shall be appointed and allowed by the said Commissioners) for or on account of any thing whatsoever relative to his Employment or Duty, or shall be concerned or interested in any Bargain or Contract made by the said Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act, every such Person so offending shall be incapable afterwards serving or being employed under the said Commissioners, and shall forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds for every such Offence, together with full Expenses.

Regulating Foot Pavements and Streets

LXXXIX. And be it enacted, That if within any such Borough any Person or Persons shall carry, push, roll, drive, draw, or cause to be carried, pushed, rolled, driven, or drawn, on any of the Foot Pavements within the Bounds thereof, any Bar, Sledge, Cask, or Wheelbarrow, Wheel or Wheels, or any Coach, Wagon, Cart, or Carriage whatsoever (except directly across the same on necessary Occasions); or shall wilfully ride, lead, or drive any Horse, Ass, Mule, or Cattle (except when going directly across the Foot Pavements to or from Stables or Coachhouses) upon any Part of the said Foot Pavements; or shall, in any of the Streets, Squares, Lanes, or Passages, drive any Carriage or Carriages for the Purpose of breaking, exercising, or trying Horses, or shall ride any Horse for the Purpose of exercising, using, trying, showing, or exposing such Horse for Sale (otherwise than by passing through such Street or other public Places); or shall throw or cast any Dirt, Dung, Ashes, or Rubbish into or upon the same; or shall roll any Cask, empty or full, along the Foot Pavements, for any Distance whatever (except across them directly to or from a Cellar, Shop, or Warehouse); or shall roll any such Cask (except from a Shop, Cellar, Warehouse, or other Place directly to such Cart or Carriage as it is to be loaded upon, or from such Cart or Carriage as it has been loaded upon directly to the Shop, Cellar, Warehouse, or other Place in which it is to be deposited, not exceeding Thirty Yards in any Case); or shall drive any Cart or other Carriage on the Streets of any such Borough, or any of the Roads or Passages within the Limits thereof, loosely or improperly, or shall drive any Four-wheeled Cart commonly called a Wood Yarker without a Person in charge of each Pair of Wheels; or shall leave any Cart or Carriage standing on the Streets, Roads, or Passages thereof, yoked or unyoked, either during the Day or Night; or shall ride any Horse loosely or improperly, or drive any Horse or Cattle or Carriage of any kind in an improper Manner upon any of the said Streets, Roads, or Passages; or shall load or drive any Plank or Piece of Timber exceeding the Length of Twenty Feet upon or by the Means of any Machine or Carriage having less than Four Wheels, or suffer the same, if upon such Machine or Carriage, or not being of the Length of Twenty Feet or upon a common Cart or other Carriage, to project beyond the outer Part thereof, or occupy more of the Street or Road or Breadth than is occupied by such Machine, Cart, or other Carriage itself, or to touch or drag upon any Part of such Street or Road; then it shall and may be lawful for any Person who shall see such Offence committed to arrest such Offenders, and by Authority of this Act, without any other Warrant, to convey them to the Custody of any Officer of Police or other Peace Officer, in order to be secured or conveyed before any Magistrate of such Borough, or the Sheriff of the County within which such Borough is situated; and such Magistrate or Sheriff shall, upon the Complaint of the Person seeing such Offender, or of the Officer of Police or other Peace Officer into whose Custody he shall have been given, proceed to examine upon Oath any Witness or Witnesses who shall appear or be produced to give Information touching such Offence; and if the Party or Parties accused shall be convicted of riding, or breaking, exercising, or trying, or driving any Horse or Cattle,

Forfeit and pay to the Commissioners a Sum not exceeding Five

Five Pounds Sterling; and any Person convicted of any other of the above Offences shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Twenty Shillings Sterling: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the holding of any legalised occasional Fair or Fairs within any such Burgh.

XI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful to the said Magistrates of any such Burgh, or the Dean of Guild, and to the Sheriff of the County in which such Burgh is situate, in their respective Burgh, Guild, and Sheriff Courts, and within their respective Jurisdictions, on an Application by the said Commissioners, or the Person to whom they may give Power to act for them in such Matter, in the Form used in such Courts, against the Proprietor or Proprietors of any Buildings fronting any of the Streets, Squares, Lanes, Roads, or Passages within such Burgh, having Stairs built upon the Streets or Foot Pavements, or projecting or encroaching in any Manner upon the Streets or Foot Pavements, or having any other Buildings or Things projecting therefrom, or connected therewith, which obstruct the free Passage, or occasion Inconvenience or Danger to Passengers on the Streets or Foot Pavements, or order such Stairs, Projections, Encroachments, or other Things to be removed by the Proprietor thereof, at the Sight of the Person presenting, or any other Person who may be named by such Magistrate, Dean of Guild, or Sheriff, within such reasonable Time and to such Manner as to such Magistrate, Dean of Guild, or Sheriff may appear suitable; and if the same be not removed within the Time fixed the Proprietor or other Person through whose Default the Decree or Order of Court has not been duly implemented shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Twenty Shillings for each Month after the Expiration of the Time allowed for removing during which the Obstructions remain; and in case such Obstructions shall not be removed within Six Months after the Time allowed for removing the same has expired, then such Magistrate, Dean of Guild, or Sheriff may and is hereby required to issue his Warrant for removing the same vi vi vi.

Buildings and other Encroachments on the Streets, &c. may be removed.

XII. And be it enacted, That in all Cases of Buildings already erected on the Sites of the Foot Pavements of any of the Streets, Squares, Lanes, Roads, or Passages of any such Burgh, which cannot have convenient Access made to them by any other Means than the Stairs or Projections or Encroachments already made, such Magistrate, Dean of Guild, or Sheriff shall not have Power to order such Stairs or Projections to be altogether removed, unless with the Consent of the Proprietor thereof; but it shall be lawful to such Magistrate, Dean of Guild, or Sheriff, and he is hereby authorized and empowered, to order such Stairs, Projections, or Encroachments to be removed or altered by the Proprietor thereof, at the Sight of such Person as may be named by the Magistrate, Dean of Guild, or Sheriff, and that to such Extent and in such Way as to him may appear proper, as so, without depriving such Buildings of a suitable Access, to abate the Danger or Inconvenience arising from such Stairs or Projections; and in case of Failure to execute the Operations ordained by such Magistrate, Dean of Guild, or Sheriff, within the Time allowed, the Penalties herein specified for a Failure to implement the Orders of such Magistrate, Dean of Guild, or Sheriff in the Case of a total Removal, shall in this Case also be incurred, and be recoverable in manner aforesaid; and in case the Order shall not be implemented within Six Months after the Time allowed for removing the same has expired, then such Magistrate, Dean of Guild, or Sheriff may and is hereby required to issue his Warrant for removing the same vi vi vi.

If convenient Access cannot be obtained except by such Stairs, &c. then he is partially removed.

XIII. And be it enacted, That in all such Cases of the Removal in whole or in part (or the Alteration) of such Stairs, Projections, Encroachments, or other Buildings or Things, in case the Proprietor of the House or other Building to which the same belongs shall be thereby injured, he or they shall be entitled to a Compensation from the said Commissioners for such Injury, according as the Amount thereof shall be agreed upon between him and them, or shall be ascertained by such Magistrate, Dean of Guild, or Sheriff by means of a Report to Persons of Skill, and a Report on Oath by them, or otherwise as such Magistrate, Dean of Guild, or Sheriff shall direct, in case the Parties shall consent to the Amount being so ascertained, or by a Jury, to be summoned in the same Manner as Jurors in Scotland are summoned.

Compensation for Injury.

XIV. And be it enacted, That the Proprietor, Lefe Renter, or any other Person entitled to the Reuse of any Premises which shall be insecure, ruinous, or otherwise dangerous to Passengers, shall be obliged and be hereby required forthwith, on the Requisition of such Magistrate, Dean of Guild, or Sheriff, on the Application to him of the Procurator Fiscal, having the Consent of the Commissioners therein, within a reasonable Time to be limited in such Requisition, to repair and secure or to pull down and remove such Premises; and in default thereof such Magistrate, Dean of Guild, or Sheriff is hereby authorized and empowered, on the Report of Workmen, to repair and secure or pull down and remove such Premises; and every such Person aforesaid neglecting or refusing to comply with such Requisition shall for every Day forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds Sterling, besides defraying the whole Expence incurred in repairing and securing or pulling down and removing such Premises.

Dangerous Houses to be secured or taken down.

XV. And be it enacted, That in all such Cases of the Removal in whole or in part, of the Alteration, of such Obstructions, the Proprietor shall be relieved by the said Commissioners of all Expence which may be incurred in making Application to such Magistrate, Dean of Guild, or Sheriff as aforesaid, in implementing his Orders, or in any other Way in relation to the Premises, except only such Expences as may be incurred by or through the improper Opposition of such Proprietor to the Application to be made as aforesaid, or any of the Proceedings under the same, or by or through his improper Refusal or Delay to implement the Orders of such Magistrate, Dean of Guild, or Sheriff, all which Expences shall and may be paid by such Proprietor, and he is hereby required to pay the same Expence to be paid by the Commissioners.

C. And be it enacted, That no Stores, Wood, Linn, Sand, or other Article shall be deposited, or any Sheds for Workmen or other Erection or Inclosure be placed upon or Opening made in any of the Streets or other public Places within any such Borough, without the Authority of the Magistrates first had and obtained; and the Persons making or causing such to be made shall at their own Expense cause a sufficient Rail or Fence, and (where necessary) a Footpath, sufficiently fenced, to be put round the same, and shall also cause a sufficient Number of Lamps or Lights to be affixed as or near the same, to be kept burning every Night, from Sunsetting to Sunrise, that such Depositions, Erections, and Inclosures shall remain, or such Holes or Openings shall be unfilled up, all to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners: in failure whereof such Magistrate may, on Complaint, decree the Persons so offending to pay any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds for each Day or Night the same may remain unfilled, and may also order such Depositions, Erections, Inclosures, Foundations, or Holes to be fenced, and Lamps or Lights to be affixed and kept burning, at the Expense of the Persons employed or concerned therein, saving always to any Person who may suffer Injury by such Operations, whether the Provisions above written be observed or not, to prosecute for Reparation and Damages according to Law.

Proviso under
bound.

CL. And be it enacted, That when it may become necessary to perform any Work upon Houses or Tenements within the Limits aforesaid, whereby Risk may arise of any Articles or Materials falling upon the Streets, or of other Injury to the Public, every Person carrying on or causing to be carried on such Works shall at his Expense sufficiently fence round the Parts of the said Foot Pavement opposite to such House, and shall uphold and keep in proper Repair the Fences aforesaid, during the whole Time the said Works are carrying on, to prevent Passengers from walking along these Parts of the said Foot Pavements, and, where necessary, shall also form a Footpath, sufficiently fenced, round or in front of such Works; and the Person neglecting or refusing so to do shall be liable in a Penalty not exceeding Ten Shillings for each Day's Failure, and any Magistrate of any Borough which shall have adopted the Provisions of this Act or any Part thereof may order the said Foot Pavements to be fenced CII. And be it enacted, That all Cellars and other Places adjoining to the public Streets or Places, having an Entry by such Steps or other Openings to the Pavement beyond the Line of the Wall of the Building to which they belong, shall be protected by a sufficient Iron Grating or other sufficient Cover, in such Way as may be best suited for preventing Danger or Injury; and if any Proprietor or Occupier shall fail to maintain such Grating or Cover when required by any Magistrate of any Borough which shall have adopted the Provisions of this Act, or to keep it properly secured, he shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Shillings, and such Magistrate may order the Work to be executed at the Expence of the Party so offending.

Such Steps to be covered in CIII. And be it enacted, That such Magistrate, upon Complaint, may order to be removed or to be repaired all Chimney Cans or Pots, Ticks, Saws, Shutters, or other Articles on the Roofs or any other Part of Houses, which may be dangerous to Passengers; and on Failure, such Magistrate may employ a Person to remove or repair the same; and the Proprietor shall in such Case, besides paying all Expences, forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding One Pound Sterling.

Chimney Pots, &c. to be repaired or removed

CIV. And be it enacted, That where any Part of the Streets and other Ways aforesaid, or the Pavements or Footpaths, Squares, Shores, or Pipes, Drains or Common Sewers, or Water Pipes, within any such Borough, whether already made or hereafter to be made, shall get into Disrepair, an Intimation in Writing shall be given, by Order of the said Commissioners, to the Person liable to repair the same, requiring him to make such Repair within a Time to be specified in such written Intimation; and failing thereof, it shall be competent for any such Magistrate of any such Borough, on Complaint by the Proprietor thereof, to fine and sentence such Person in Double the Amount of the estimated Expence of such Repair, to be recovered in manner herein provided, and on Recovery thereof to authorize and direct such Repairs to be made by the said Commissioners, and the Expence to be defrayed out of the Sums to be so recovered; and the Remainder of such Sums, deducting the Costs of recovering the same, shall be applied as Fines and Penalties are by this Act directed to be applied.

Repairs to be directed

CV. And be it enacted, That the Proprietors of all Houses and other Buildings, or of Gardens, Yards, Grounds, and other Heritages on which Buildings are not erected, which are adjoining to or fronting any Street, Square, or other public or principal Place within any such Borough, shall, at their own Expence, when required by the said Commissioners, cause Footpaths before their Property respectively, on the Sides of the said Roads, Streets, Squares, or other public or principal Places, to be made, and to be well and sufficiently paved with Hat, hewn, or other Stones, or to be constructed in such other Manner and Form and of such Breadth as the said Commissioners shall direct; and in case such Proprietors shall refuse or neglect or delay so to do, the Magistrate before whom such Complaint shall be brought may fine and amerce such Proprietors in Double the Amount of the estimated Expence, to be recovered in manner herein provided, and on recovery thereof to authorize and direct such Foot Paths to be made by the said Commissioners.

Foot Paths

CVI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful to the said Commissioners to provide in any such Borough, a proper Police Office, if necessary, containing suitable Accommodation for the Meetings of the Commissioners, and for the several Officers of the Establishment, and for confining Prisoners, as provided for by this Act, and also proper Watch-houses in different Stations, and to contract with Proprietors of Buildings properly adapted or which may be capable of being adapted to the Purpose aforesaid, or with other Persons qualified and willing to enter into such Contracts, for the Purchase or Hire, or for the obtaining on Lease for a suitable Term of Years, of such Buildings; and in Case no such Buildings, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, can be found at a suitable Price or Rate, then the said Commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to purchase or for such convenient Sites as may here be fixed as aforesaid within any such Borough, upon which Buildings for the Purpose aforesaid may be erected, and to contract for the Erection thereof, and for fitting up and furnishing the same.

Property may be purchased for Police Office.

CVII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful to the Magistrates and Town Council of any such Borough, in conjunction with the Commissioners to be elected therein, to erect or cause to be erected in such Borough, if necessary, a Weigh-house for the Use of the Inhabitants thereof, and of Persons resorting thence, with the necessary Weights, Scales, and Measures, and other Conveniences requisite for the weighing or measuring any Articles of whatever Description which may be exposed to Sale in such Borough, and requiring or directed to be weighed or measured; and it shall be lawful to the said Commissioners to demand and take such reasonable Rate or Sum for the Use thereof as shall be settled and agreed on between them and the said Magistrates; and the Expences of such Weigh-house shall and may be borne and defrayed by the said Commissioners out of the Assessments to be levied under or in virtue of the Powers hereby granted; and in case of Difference between the said Magistrates and the said Commissioners as to the Erection or Expence of such Weigh-house, or the Amount of the Rate to be taken for the Use thereof, it shall be competent for either Party, after Six Days previous Notice given to the other Party, to apply to the Sheriff of the County, who shall determine the same, and whose Decree shall be final and conclusive.

CIX. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall wilfully take away, break, or throw down any Lamp or Lamps, Tube, or other Gas-fittings set up within the Bounds of any such Borough, or shall wilfully extinguish the Light within the same, or damage the hose or Apparatus thereof, such Offender shall forfeit and pay a Fine not exceeding Five Pounds Sterling for every such Offence, and shall moreover pay such Sum to the Magistrate before whom such Offender shall be brought shall find to be necessary for remedying the Damage done; and in case such Offender shall not immediately upon Conviction pay such Fine, such Magistrate is hereby empowered, to commit him to the Common Goal or Bridewell for a Space not exceeding Sixty Days; and such Offender shall not be discharged before the Expiration of that Time, unless such Fine shall be sooner paid; and in case of Neglect or Refusal to pay the Sum so awarded in Name of Damages within Forty eight Hours after it shall be demanded, the same may be recovered by Pleading and Sale of the Offender's Effects, or by other legal Means.

Streets.

CX. And be it enacted, That in case it shall be necessary for the conducting of Gas, or making Common Sewers or Drains, or for laying Pipes for the Supply of any such Borough with Water or Gas, or for any other Purpose, that the Streets within any such Borough shall be opened, it shall be in the Power of the said Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized to apply by Petition to the Magistrates and Council of each Borough, and to Road Trustees respectively, with regard to Streets and other Places under their respective Management and Superintendance, for Leave to open such Streets, Roads, and other Places; and such Magistrates and Council and Road Trustees respectively shall, on such Application, grant the necessary Warrant for that Purpose; the said Commissioners and those employed by them being always bound to carry on such Operations in the Manner least inconvenient for the Inhabitants, and with the least possible Delay, and at their own Expence to fence such Works while the same are going on, and to re-enclose the Streets and other Places so opened by them in the same Condition as before they shall have been opened.

Commissioners
Scavengers.

CXI. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners may appoint Scavengers and others for sweeping and cleaning the Streets, Roads, Lanes, and other Places in any such Borough, or contract with any Person for these Purposes, and to remove the Dung or Filth thereof to such Places as the said Commissioners shall deem most convenient to the Inhabitants; with Power to the said Commissioners to rent or purchase Depots for that Purpose, within or without any such Borough, from such Person as may be willing to contract and agree with them thereto; and all Duns, Ashes, Dung, or other Filth, excepting always Stable and Byre Dung, and the Refuse of Slaughter-houses, collected upon the Streets, Lanes, common Streets or Passages within each Borough, shall belong to the Commissioners.

If Magistrates provide Stables, Cattle not to be elsewhere slaughtered.

CXII. And be it enacted, That as soon as the Magistrates and Council, or other Persons duly authorized, shall provide in the Suburbs or other proper and convenient Place of any such Borough fit Stables or Slaughter-houses for the Purpose of slaughtering Cattle and other Beasts, and shall by Tack of Drains, or other usual Mode of Proclamation in each Borough, once a Day for Seven Days have declared the same to be open, it shall not thereafter be lawful for any Flesher or Butcher or other Person (private Persons in their own Provinces, for the Use of their own Families and Incorporations, who have erected Stables at the Sight and under the Authority of the Magistrates and Town Council, and their Tenants, close excepted,) to slaughter Cattle or other Beasts elsewhere than in the Stables or Slaughter-house so to be provided; and any Person thereto using any other Stables or Slaughter-house shall be liable to the said Commissioners to a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to demand and take for the Use thereof such reasonable Hire or Sum as may be agreed on and fixed between them and the said Magistrate; and in case of Difference as to the Rate to be taken for the Use of such Slaughter-house or Stables, the same shall, upon the Application of either Party, and after Seven Days previous Notice to the other Party of such intended Application, be fixed and determined by the Sheriff of the County, whose Decision thereon shall be final and conclusive, and not subject to Review in any Court of Law or Equity.

Hackney Coaches, &c. to be regulated.

CXIII. And be it enacted, That the Magistrates and Council of any such Borough for the Time being shall have full Power and Authority, and they are hereby empowered and authorized, to license such Number of Hackney Coaches, Landaus, Chariots, or other Carriages for Hire, as they from Time to Time shall think proper; and the Town Clerk of each Borough shall be entitled to exact the Sum of One Shilling for each Licence, such Licence to continue for Two Years, and to prevent all others, not licensed, from plying for Hire, or occupying any Part of the Streets or Highways of each Borough, Suburbs or Liberties thereof; and if any Person or Persons who shall obtain such Licence shall use, within the Space of One Month after obtaining or receiving the same, keep and maintain such Coach or other Carriage for which such Licence shall be granted, for the Use and Convenience of the Public, and continue so to discharge the Continuance of his or her Licence, and shall, on the Complaint of the Prosecutor Fiscal or other public Prosecutor of each Borough, be convicted thereof before the said Magistrate, or any One of them, by the Oath or Oaths of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, such Person or Persons shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds Sterling for each Offence, to be levied summarily, and the Licence thereafter shall be void; but in case the Person so offending shall surrender his Licence to the said Magistrate, such Fine or Penalty shall not be levied; and such Magistrates shall be and are hereby authorized and empowered to make such other Rules and Regulations as they shall think fit for licensing and regulating the said Hackney Coaches and other Carriages, and also for Sedan Chairs, Cabs, Waggones, and Porters in each Borough, and for trying and punishing the Habituality of Rogues, Drunken Drabmen, Vagrants, and Beggars, and for fixing and altering along their Sides, and for ascertaining what Rates and Fines, both as to Distance and Time, shall be allowed to be taken by them, and as to what Distances, and under what Penalties, Coachmen, Drivers, Chaises, and Porters shall be obliged to drive or ply in and round each Borough, not exceeding Seven Miles for Coachmen, and Two Miles for Chaises and Porters; and the said Magistrates and Council are hereby authorized and empowered from Time to Time to repeal, add to, alter, or amend such Rules and Regulations, and to impose Fines and Penalties for the Breach or Nonperformance of such Rules and Regulations, which Fines and Penalties shall be recoverable on the Complaint of the Prosecutor Fiscal or other public Prosecutor of such Borough, or on the Complaint of the private Party aggrieved; declaring that no Penalty imposed by the said Magistrates and Council shall exceed One Pound Sterling; and all such Rules and Regulations made by such Magistrates and Council, specifying the Fines and Penalties for the Breach and Nonperformance thereof, shall from Time to Time, as often as they shall be made, altered, or varied, be put up, either in Print or in Writing, on such Place or Places as the said Magistrates and Council shall think proper, at all Times to remain and be in the said Place or Places.

CLIV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to require that the Water from the Roofs and Cornices of all Houses or other Buildings fronting the public Streets, Lanes, Roads, Passages, Wynds, and Clozes, shall be conveyed by leaden or other proper Pipes or Bams, to be brought down the Walls of such Houses or other Buildings respectively to the Street, and shall be kept in repair, at the Expence of the Proprietors of such Houses or other Buildings respectively, but as in and that the same shall not discharge the Water thereby conveyed upon the Foot Pavements; and if any such Proprietor shall fail or neglect to convey such Roof Water in manner aforesaid, within Fourteen Days after being required to do so by such Commissioners, any Magistrate may, on Complaint as aforesaid, order the Works necessary for conveying the said Water in manner aforesaid to be done at the Expence of such Proprietors, to be recovered, along with the Expences of the Application, by Pleading and Sale as aforesaid.

CLV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to dig Wells and, except to such Boroughs in which there shall be Wells already established by Act of Parliament for the supplying any such Borough with Water, to bring Water into such Borough for the Use of the Inhabitants, and for that Purpose to contract and agree with the Proprietors and all other Persons interested in any Springs, Streams, or River capable of supplying such Borough, and with the Owners and Occupiers of Ground situated between such Springs, Streams, or River and such Borough, for the Right and Privilege of collecting and conveying the Water of such Springs, Streams, or River into such Borough, and of erecting Cisterns and laying Pipes, and to construct all other necessary Works for conveying such Water into such Borough, in and through the Lands or Grounds lying between such Springs, Streams, or River and such Borough, and also through the Streets and Lanes thereof, and to open such Grounds from Time to Time in order to repair or replace such Pipes and Works, and from Time to Time to contract and agree with such Persons as they shall judge proper for laying such Pipes, and erecting, completing, and repairing such Works, as may be necessary for effecting the Purposes above mentioned.

CLVI. And be it enacted, That all and every the Pipes or other Conduits to be laid or used for the Conveyance of Gas in, under, through, along, or across any Road, Street, Lane, or other public Passage or Place within such Borough, shall be so laid at the greatest practicable Distance, and, whenever the Width of the Carriageway in such Street or Place will allow thereof, at the Distance of Four Feet at least from the nearest Part of any Water Pipe, Gough, or Watercourse already laid down or hereafter to be laid down for the Conveyance of Water in, under, through, along, across, or round any of the Streets, Lanes, or other public Passages or Places within such Borough, except in Cases where it shall be unavoidably necessary to lay the Gas Pipes across any of the said Water Pipes, Goughs, or Watercourses, in which Cases the said Gas Pipes shall be laid over and above the said Water Pipes, Goughs, and Watercourses at the greatest practicable Distance therefrom, and shall form therewith as near as possible a Right Angle; and in such Cases the said Gas Pipes so crossing the said Water Pipes, Goughs, and Watercourses shall be at least Six Feet in Length, so that no Joint of any of the said Gas Pipes shall be nearer to any Part of the said Water Pipes, Goughs, or Watercourses than Three Feet at least; and in laying down the said Gas Pipes the said Commissioners shall in no Case join Two or more Gas Pipes together previously to their being laid in the Trench, but shall lay each Pipe as near as may be in its Place in the Trench, and shall in each Trench form the Joints with the other Pipes to be added thereto with proper and sufficient Materials, and shall also make and keep all and every such Pipes, and all Pipes connecting or communicating therewith, and all the Screws, Joints, Islets, Apertures, or Openings therein respectively, air-tight, and in all and every respect prevent the said Gas from escaping therefrom, upon pain of forfeiting for any such Offence, if the said Commissioners shall neglect or refuse to make such Gas Pipes air-tight within Twenty-four Hours after Notice thereof given to them in Writing, the Sum of Fifty Pounds, to be recovered, at the Instance of any Person having Interest, by summary Complaint to the Sheriff of the County, in which such Borough is situate.

CLVII. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Water of any Owner or Company of Proprietors of Waterworks shall be contaminated or affected by the Gas to be supplied under the Authority of the Act, the said Commissioners shall reflect and pay for every such Offence a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds, to be used for and recovered as herein directed, and applied for the Use and Benefit of the Water Company; and if any of the said Waterworks situated in any Borough shall in any such Year shall

Roofs, &c. shall conveyed to Pipes.

be contaminated or affected by Gas in any way whatsoever, then and in every such Case the said Commissioners supplying such Gas shall, within Twenty-four Hours next after Notice thereof in Writing, signed by the Clerk or Surveyor to such Water Company, Owner, or Company of Proprietors, or by any Person concerning the Water, to be left with or at the Office of the Clerk of the said Commissioners, cause the most proper and effectual Measures to be taken effectually to stop and prevent Gas from escaping from their Works, Mains, or Pipes, or contaminating or affecting the Water of such Company or Owner of Waterworks; and in case the said Commissioners shall not, within Twenty-four Hours next after such and every such Notice so left as aforesaid, effectually stop and prevent Gas from so escaping, and wholly and satisfactorily remove the Cause of every such Complaint, and prevent all and every such Contamination whereof Notice shall be given as aforesaid, then and in every such Case the said Commissioners shall, so each and every Complaint whereof Notice shall be given as aforesaid, forfeit and pay to the Treasurer for the Time being, or to any One of the Directors for the Time of such Water Company, or to such Owner of Waterworks, for the Use and Benefit of such Company or Owner, over and above the herein-mentioned Penalty of Twenty Pounds, to be recovered as herein directed, the Sum of Ten Pounds for each and every Day during which such Water shall be and remain contaminated, tainted, or affected by the Gas of the said Commissioners; and in default of Payment thereof as aforesaid, such Penalty or Penalties shall and may be recovered by various Complainants to the Sheriff of the County in which such Burgh is situate, with the Evidence on Oath of One credible Witness, by and in the Name of any One or more of the Directors of any such Water Company, or of such Owner, at the Option of the Party or Parties pursuing such Complaint against the said Commissioners; before the said Sheriff, with such Expenses therefor as shall be justified by him, and to be levied by Deceit and Process of Pointing the Goods and Effects of the said Commissioners, together with the Expenses of such Deceit and Process; and such Penalty or Penalties, when so levied, shall be paid to the Treasurer, or to One of the Directors for the Time being of the Company, or to the Owner of such Water contaminated or affected by such Gas.

Personneling
if Water is contaminated.

CXVIII. And whereas it may be or become a Question upon such Complaint as aforesaid, whether the said Water be contaminated or affected by the Gas supplied under the Authority of this Act? he it therefore enacted, That in every such Case it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Owner or Company of Proprietors of Waterworks to apply to the Sheriff of the County in which such Burgh is situated for a Warrant, and on obtaining the same to dig to and about and search and examine the Mains, Pipes, Conduits, and Apparatus of the said Commissioners, for the Purpose of ascertaining whether such Contamination proceeds or be occasioned by the Gas of the said Commissioners; and if it shall appear that the said Water has been contaminated by any Escape of such Gas, the Expenses of the said Digging, Search, and Examination, and Repair of the Pavement of the Street or Streets which shall be taken up or disturbed, shall be borne and paid by the said Commissioners; which Expenses shall be ascertained and determined, if necessary, by the Sheriff of such County, to be recovered by Deceit and Process of Pointing, as herein-before directed: Provided always, that if upon such Examination it shall appear that such Contamination has not arisen from any such Escape of Gas from any of the Mains, Pipes, or Conduits of the said Commissioners, then the Company or Persons supplying such Water shall bear and pay all the Expenses of such Examination, Repair, and Search, and shall also make good to the said Commissioners any Loss, Injury, or Damage which may be occasioned to the said Mains, Pipes, Conduits, or Apparatus of the said Commissioners by such Search and Examination, and also to the Pavement of the said Streets so broken or disturbed in such Search; the Amount of such Injury to be ascertained and determined, if necessary, by the Sheriff of such County, and recoverable in like Manner as the Penalties are herein-before directed to be recovered.

Persons making
Wells and provided from In-decisions for a Waterworks.

CXIX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to prevent any Person or Persons from proceeding against the said Commissioners in respect of any such Gas Work, or the Method which shall be employed by them for furnishing such Light as aforesaid, as a public or private Nuisance, or from bringing any Actions against the said Commissioners for any Injury sustained by reason of any such Works or Method of lighting, whether such Injury shall proceed from the Nature of such Method of lighting, or the Carelessness or Want of Skill of the Persons who may be employed thereon.

Management of Waterworks,
where such Sublet, beyond the
Commissioners.

CXX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, except in such Burghs in which there shall be Works already established by Act of Parliament for the supplying any such Burgh with Water or Gas, to treat and agree for, and thereafter, with the Consent of the Proprietors or other Trustees or other Persons in Charge or Management thereof, to assume and take the Management of such Works and Establishments, and of the supplying of Water or Gas thereby, or otherwise, to such Burgh: Provided always, that the said Commissioners shall previously thereto satisfactorily undertake for all the Debts and Obligations legally due by and incumbent on such Waterworks or Establishment, and free and indemnify the Persons theretofore having the Management and Administration thereof.

Water not to be
Borewells.

CXXI. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall take or cause to be taken or used any Water out of any Pond, Tank, Reservoir, or Aqueduct, or other Work belonging to the said Commissioners, whether the same be already made, or shall be made or acquired by virtue of this Act, without the previous Consent in Writing of the said Commissioners to give such Consent, then and in every such Case every Person so offending shall forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Fifty Pounds Sterling for CCXII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall wilfully or maliciously damage or destroy any Chimney, Pipe, or Apparatus, or other Work for supplying Water or Gas as aforesaid, or shall wantonly discharge or let off any Water or Gas from such Chimney, Pipe, Apparatus, or other Work, every such Person shall, besides the full Amount of the Damage done thereby, forfeit and pay to the said Commissioners any Sum not exceeding Fifty Pounds Sterling for every such Offence.

Penalty on Persons making any Injury to Works.

CCXIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to enter into Contracts with the Occupier or Proprietor of any House or Premises situated within any such Borough for the Supply of such Owner or Occupier with Water or Gas, and by such Contract such Proprietor or Occupier may, at his own Expence, be permitted to convey Water or Gas into such House or Premises, upon making such annual Payment to the said Commissioners, and on such Conditions, as may be agreed upon: Provided always, that if at any Time the Payment of such annual Sum shall fall into arrear, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to levy the same by Pounding and Sale of the Party's Effects in manner herein-before provided for the Recovery of Assessments due under the Provisions of this Act, and to stop the further Supply of Water and Gas to such Premises in such Manner as they shall direct; and provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent any Person from taking Water at any of the public Wells already made and erected, or to be made and erected within such Borough.

Supplying Premises with Water or Gas.

CCXIV. And be it enacted, That every Person so supplied with Water shall in every Receiptable for Water affix to the Pipe conveying Water into his Premises a Ball-cock or other self-acting Cock, in such Manner as the said Commissioners or their Officers shall direct, and shall keep the same in repair, and shall prevent the Water running to waste or being applied to the Use of any other Person or Persons than those resident on the Premises; and any Person so offending shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Twenty Shillings Sterling for every such Offence, with Power to the said Commissioners on the Third Offence to stop the Supply of Water to such Party; and the Officers of such Commissioners shall have free Access at all reasonable Times to the Premises so to be supplied as aforesaid, to see that such Ball-cocks are kept in proper and sufficient Condition and Repair, and that such Waste or Misapplication does not occur.

Ball-cocks to be provided or repaired.

CCXV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to borrow and take up, for the Purpose of procuring a Police Office, erecting a Slaughterhouse or Shambles, or Weigh-house, or for erecting Lamps, or for making and constructing Common Sewers, any Sum not exceeding Three Times Amount of the several Assessments fixed and determined as above provided in relation to these several Objects respectively, or for procuring Water any Sum not exceeding Six Times Amount of the Assessment fixed for that Object; that is to say, that a Sum may be borrowed and applied to the said Purpose, in so far as the same relate to the Watching Department, not exceeding Three Times the Amount of the Proportion of the Assessments specified as applicable for One Year to the Department of Watching, as herein-before provided; and in like Manner Sums may be borrowed for the Purpose of being applied to the aforesaid Purpose connected with the other Departments respectively, not exceeding Three Times the Amount of the Assessments specified as applicable for One Year to each of the said Departments respectively; and in like Manner a Sum may be borrowed for procuring Water or supplying Gas, or paying for any existing Water-works or Establishment or Gas-works as aforesaid, not exceeding Six Times Amount of the Yearly Assessment fixed on for bringing Water into such Borough.

Power to borrow Money.

CCXVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in all Cases in which it shall be necessary for the said Commissioners to borrow any Sum or Sums of Money for the Purposes of this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized and required, at their First Annual Meeting for Assessment after such borrowing, or at any subsequent annual Meeting not exceeding Twelve Months from the Date of any such borrowing, to cause all Tenants, Occupiers, and Possessors of Premises valued as aforesaid in such additional Assessment beyond the Sum necessary for the Purpose of this Act as will produce a Fund amounting to Five per Centum per Annum upon the Sum so borrowed by the said Commissioners, which Sum of Five per Centum per Annum the said Commissioners shall annually appropriate, set apart, and invest at the highest Rate of Interest which can be had for the same in the Public Funds, in any of the said Banks, or in Heritable Security, as a Sinking Fund, applicable and to be applied by them from Time to Time in the Repayment of the Money borrowed, until the Debt shall be extinguished: Provided always, that such additional Assessment shall not increase the whole Assessment leviable beyond the maximum Rate of Assessment, to be fixed at the first Meeting for fixing the maximum Rate of Assessment, or any subsequent Triennial Meeting as aforesaid.

Commissioners to establish a Sinking Fund.

CCXVII. And be it enacted, That no Commissioner, or Officer acting under them, shall be personally liable for the Repayment of any Money so borrowed, but all such Obligations shall be deemed and taken to be granted on the sole Security of the Rates and Assessments authorized to be assessed and levied as herein-before provided.

Commissioners not to be personally liable.

CCXVIII. And be it enacted, That all Bonds for the Money so to be borrowed as aforesaid shall be signed by the Treasurer or Collector of the said Commissioners in Presence of Two of the said Commissioners, who shall sign as Witnesses thereto, and shall be in the Form and Tenor following; videlicet, Officers under former Act.

CXXX. And be it enacted, That before such Bond shall be delivered to the Creditor, or shall form a valid Lien on the Rates and Monies as aforesaid, the same shall be recorded in the Register Book of the said Commissioners, and a Certificate of such Registration shall be indorsed on such Bond, and signed by the Clerk of the said Commissioners; and such Assignments shall be notified to the Treasurer of the said Commissioners, who shall enter in the said Register Book the Date of the said Assignment, the Names of the Parties thereto, the Number or Mark of such Bond, and the Interest due on the same; and a Certificate of such Entry shall be indorsed on the said Bond, and signed by the Treasurer; and thereafter the Assignee, his Executors and Assignees, shall be entitled to the full Benefit of such Bond.

CXXXI. And be it enacted, That this Act shall not extend or be deemed or construed to extend to any Burgh in possession of any Local Act for regulating the Police thereof, or any other of the Purposes of this Act, unless such Burgh shall adopt the same in whole or in part in manner herein provided; and upon such Adoption such Local Act, and all the Powers and Provisions thereof, shall thereupon cease and determine in so far as such Powers and Provisions regulate or relate to any of the Rates and Purposes provided for by this Act, and so adopted; saving always the Powers and Provisions in relation to Water hereto contained; and this Act, or so much thereof as shall be so adopted, shall thereupon come into full Force and Operation, and shall be executed in the Manner herein provided.

CXXXII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That where Two or more Burghs locally situated together, and described in the said recited Act of the First and Second Year of the Reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth as One Parliamentary Burgh, shall severally be possessed of Local Acts regulating the Police of each Burgh separately, it shall not be competent or lawful in such Case for the Indhabitants of any such Burgh to make any such Application as is herein-before authorized for adopting the Provisions of this Act, or to do so the same in whole or in part, unless the Persons in each such Burgh, qualified as aforesaid, shall unanimously agree so to do.

CXXXIII. And be it enacted, That where the Provisions of this Act shall be made to apply to any Burgh now having or which may hereafter have a Local Act, all Bonds, Contracts, Covenants, Agreements, and Securities made and entered into under and by virtue of any Local Act shall remain in full Force and Effect, and shall continue available and binding on all the Parties thereto in all Cases of Justice; and nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend or diminish or affect the Debt, Right, or Claims of any Creditor under any such Act, but all such Debts, Rights, or Claims shall continue Burdens under this Act to the same Extent and in the same Manner that they were Burdens under such Local Act, and in all Cases where the Provisions of this Act shall be made to apply, the Officers appointed under and employed in the Execution of any such Local Act shall respectively continue to exercise their Offices until they shall be respectively legally removed therefrom under the Authority of CCXXXIV. And be it enacted, That all Offences specified in this Act may be tried either by the Sheriff of the County within which such Burgh shall be situated, according to the necessary Form prescribed in an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled An Act to enable additional Circuit Courts of Justice to be held, and to facilitate Criminal Trials, in Scotland, or by the Magistrates of such Burgh in the Manner after provided: And it is hereby provided, that Prosecutions shall alone be raised and insisted in at the Instance of the Procurator Fiscal of Court; and all Penalties awarded and Sums recovered under the Authority of this Act, whereof the Application is not otherwise provided, after deducting Expenses (if any), shall be paid to the Commissioners of Police, and shall be applied by them to their respective Burghs for the Purpose of this Act, and be accounted for by them along with the Sums authorized to be assessed under the Provisions of this Act: And it is further provided, that such Sheriff and Magistrate may respectively appear as Procurator Fiscal, either jointly along with the ordinary Fiscal of Court, or in such other Way as they may respectively prefer, such Officer of Police as the said Commissioners may recommend for that Duty, to the Effect that such Officer may conduct, as Procurator Fiscal, Prosecutions under this Act before such Courts respectively.

CCXXXV. And be it enacted, That the Magistrates of every Burgh whom shall have been adapted the Provisions of this Act in regard to Watching shall enjoy, hold, and possess, in so far as regards the Recovery of Rates, the Matter of Crises, and also of Offences specified in this Act, the same Jurisdiction over the whole Territory adjoining to such Burgh, comprehended within the Limits to which this Act shall extend, as that which such Magistrate may hold and possess within such Burgh itself.

Jurisdiction of Magistrates of Burghs.

CCXXXVI. And be it enacted, That the Chief Magistrate of such Burgh, and in the Case of United Burghs the Chief Magistrate acting as Peace officer, and their Successors in Office, or, in his unassailable Absence, the acting Chief Magistrate for the Time, shall within their respective Burghs (but for the Purposes of this Act only) possess such and the like Jurisdiction and Authority for the Trial of Crises and Offences specified in and cognizable under this Act as such Magistrates would possess if nominated and appointed Sheriff Substitutes within their respective Burghs, and shall try such Crimes and Offences according to the necessary Form and subject to the Appeal prescribed in and allowed by the said recited Act of the Ninth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth.

Jurisdiction conferred on Magistrates.

CCXXXVII. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act all the Enactments and Provisions in this Act contained shall extend and apply to all Acts of Parliament which shall hereafter be passed for the regulating the Police of any Royal Burgh, Burgh of Regality, or Burgh of Barony in Scotland, save and except in so far as such Enactments and Provisions may be expressly altered or excluded by any such Act.

Provisions of this Act to apply to all Police Acts.

CCXXXVIII. Saving and reserving always to all Sheriffs and their Substitutes, and to all Burghs, Provosts, Magistrates and Council, Deans of Guild, and to all Justices of the Peace, and to all other Magistrates, all Rights of Sovereignty, and all and every Jurisdiction, of whatever Kind or Nature, Civil as well as Criminal, and to all private Parties, all Rights of Markets which they are anyways used or entitled to exercise, in the same Manner as if this Act had never been passed: and saving and reserving always the whole Acts and Statutes now in force for regulating the Police, the Distribution of Water or of Gas and any Royal Burgh or any other Burgh in Scotland, and all Powers, Jurisdictions, Provisions, and Authorities thereby conferred, which are hereby declared to remain in full Force and unimpaird, excepting in so far as the same may be altered or abrogated under the Powers and Provisions of this Act.

c. 26.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to amend and consolidate the Laws for the Relief of the Insolvent Debtors in England, it is amongst other Things enacted, that the Court established for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England shall be continued, and that the several Persons appointed by His Majesty to be Chief and other Commissioners of the said Court shall continue to be the Chief and other Commissioners of the said Court, with all the Powers, Privileges, and Authorities in the said Act specified: And whereas by an Act passed in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to establish a Court in Bankruptcy, it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs, and Executors, by a Commission under the Great Seal to appoint One Person to be the

Chief

Chief Judge and Three other Persons to be other Judges of the said first-mentioned Court: And whereas such Chief and other Judges have been fully appointed under and by virtue of the said Act: And whereas it has been found, that consistently with the Vacations necessarily allowed to the Commissioners of the first-mentioned Court, and with the Time occupied by them while they are on their several Circuits, Intervals occur in their Itinera during which Prisoners who would otherwise be entitled to their Discharge cannot obtain the same: And whereas there are not a sufficient Number of such Commissioners to enable them to extend their Circuits to the Principality of Wales: of all which Grievances repeated Complaints have been made: And whereas the Business of the said Court of Bankruptcy will allow Time for the Judges of the said Court, other than the Chief, some one or more of them, to discharge Part of the Duties vested in the Commissioners of the said first-mentioned Court: Be it enacted by His Majesty's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, from Time to Time, by Commission under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to authorize and direct the Judges of the said Court of Bankruptcy, other than the Chief Judge, any one or more of them, to act in the said first-mentioned Court as a Commissioner or Commissioners thereof, at such Times and for such Purposes as may in any such Commission be specified.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said Judge or Judges so to be named in the said Commission shall have and may exercise all the Powers, Authorities, and Privileges, whether in the Court House of the said first-mentioned Court, or upon the Circuit, or elsewhere, which by the said first-recited Act are given to or vested in the Commissioners of the said first-mentioned Court, or any one or more of them.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said first-mentioned Court forthwith, after such Petition and Schedule as may by Law required shall have been filed in the said Court by any Prisoner lawfully arrested so to do, being in any Gaol within the Principality of Wales, to order such Prisoner to be brought before One of the Commissioners of the said first-mentioned Court or Judges of the said Court of Bankruptcy (acting by virtue of this Act) proceeding on his Circuit at such Assize or other Town or Place within the County or County of a City or Town wherein such Gaol shall be situate, as may be directed by Order of the said first-mentioned Court in that behalf; and the Masters of the Petition of such Prisoner shall be heard by such Commissioners or Judge accordingly, who shall for that Purpose have and exercise all the Power, Authority, and Privileges which are by Law now vested in such Commissioners generally on Circuit in England: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the said first-mentioned Court from ordering any such Prisoner to be brought before the Justices of the Peace in the said Act mentioned in Cases where the said Court may see fit so to do; and that the Matters of any such Petition may be heard by such Justices, and all other Proceedings had therein, in manner directed by the said first-recited Act.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Clerks of the Peace for the several Counties within the Principality of Wales, or their Deputies, shall bring to the Place of hearing of any Petition of any such Prisoner before such Judge or Commissioner the Duplicate of Petition, and Schedule, Books, Papers, and Writings lodged with him, as by the said first-recited Act the Clerks of the Peace in England and their Deputies are required to do before the Commissioners going Circuit in England: and that such Clerks of the Peace in Wales, or their Deputies, shall do all such other Acts at the Times of such Hearings, and be entitled to such Fees and Allowances, as are required of or allowed to Clerks of the Peace in England and their Deputies.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer or Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the Time being to direct that such Sum or Sums shall be paid as may appear fit and necessary for the defraying the travelling Expences of such Judge or Judges, with their or his Registrar or Deputy Registrar, and other necessary Officers, in the Execution of their Duties under this Act.

VI. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Court of Review in Bankruptcy to order and direct any One or more of the Registrars or Deputy Registrars of the said Court of Bankruptcy to attend any One or more of the said Judges in the Discharge of their Duties under this Act, and to give such Attendance and perform such Duties as the said Court of Review may by any Order direct.

VII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by Warrant under His Royal Sign Manual from Time to Time to authorize any One or more Judge or Judges of the said Court of Bankruptcy to exercise the same Jurisdiction and Powers in all respects as by the said secondly-recited Act is and are given to any Three of such Judges; and also by any such or the like Warrant to direct at what Times the said Court of Review, and the Judges or Commissioners of the said Court of Bankruptcy, and every of them, shall respectively hold their Sittings.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Court of Review to order that any Costs, which by the said secondly-recited Act are directed to be taxed by one of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery, shall and may be taxed by one of the Registrars or Deputy Registrars of the said Court of Bankruptcy.

His Majesty may direct the Judges, other than the Chief of the Bankruptcy Court, to act in the said first-mentioned Court.

Power of such Judges.

Justices: Court empowered to order Prisoners to be brought before One of the Commissioners or Judge of the Court of Bankruptcy.

Clerks of the Peace of the Principality of Wales in bringing to the Place of hearing Petitions, in the presence of Registrars, &c.

Treasury may direct Payment of travelling Expences of Judges, &c.

Court of Review may direct Registrars or Deputy Registrars to attend.

Power given to His Majesty with respect to the Court of Bankruptcy.

Court of Review may make Orders as to taxing of Costs.

CAP. XLVIII.

An Act to amend an Act of the Second and Third Years of His present Majesty relating to Stage Carriages in Great Britain, and also to explain and amend an Act of the First and Second Years of His present Majesty relating to Hackney Carriages used in the Metropolis.

[25th August 1833.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to repeal the Duties under the Management of the Commissioners of Stages on Stage Carriages and on Horses let for Hire in Great Britain, and to grant other Duties in lieu thereof, and also to consolidate and amend the Laws relating thereto, and it is expedient to alter and amend the said Act in the several Particulars herein-after mentioned: be it therefore enacted by His King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, so much and such Part and Parts of the said recited Act as in any Manner regulate or restrict the Number of Passengers allowed to be carried on the Outside of any Stage Carriage, or regulate or relate to the Distribution or placing of, or the Manner of carrying the Outside Passengers on any Stage Carriage, and also so much and such Part of the said recited Act as requires that a separate Division or Space shall be allotted for Luggage on the Top or Roof of any Stage Carriage, shall be and the same is and are hereby repealed: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to repeal or alter any Clause of the said recited Act by which any Penalty is imposed for conveying a greater Number of Passengers on the Outside of any Staged Stage Carriage than is specified and allowed in and by the Licence granted in respect of such Carriage.

II. And be it enacted, That notwithstanding any thing in the said recited Act contained, any licensed Stage Carriage with four Wheels or more, the Top or Roof of which shall not be more than Eight Feet and Nine Inches from the Ground, and the Bearing of which on the Ground shall not be less than Four Feet Six Inches from the Centre of the Track of the Right or left Wheel to the Centre of the Track of the Left or rear Wheel, if such Carriage shall be licensed to carry any Number not more than Nine Passengers, shall be allowed to carry not more than Five of such Passengers outside; and if licensed to carry more than Nine and not more than Twelve Passengers, shall be allowed to carry not more than Eight of such Passengers outside; and if licensed to carry more than Twelve and not more than Fifteen Passengers, shall be allowed to carry not more than Eleven of such Passengers outside; and if licensed to carry more than Fifteen and not more than Eighteen Passengers, shall be allowed to carry not more than Twelve of such Passengers outside; and if licensed to carry any greater Number than Eighteen Passengers, shall be allowed to carry not more than Two additional Passengers outside for every Three additional Passengers which such Carriage shall be so licensed to carry in the whole: provided that in no Case a greater Number of Passengers shall be carried on the Outside of any Stage Carriage than the Licence relating thereto shall authorize to be carried on the Outside thereof; and if any greater Number of Outside Passengers shall be carried by any Stage Carriage than so herein-before specified and allowed, or if any Outside Passenger shall be carried by any Stage Carriage not expressly licensed to carry any Outside Passenger, the Driver of such Stage Carriage at the Time when such Offence shall be committed shall forfeit Five Pounds.

III. And be it enacted, That the several Numbers of Outside Passengers by this Act allowed to be carried by any such Stage Carriage as aforesaid shall be reckoned exclusive of the Driver and also of the Conductor or Guard, if there shall be a Conductor or Guard of such Stage Carriage; and that no Child or Children in the Lap shall be counted as a Passenger or Passengers; and that no Child set in the Lap, but under Seven Years of Age, shall be so counted, unless there shall be more than One such Child, and of there shall be more than One such Child set in the Lap, but under Seven Years of Age, then Two of such Children shall be accounted equal to One Adult Person, and considered as One Passenger, and so on in the same Proportion.

IV. And be it enacted, That no Person shall be allowed to sit or be carried upon any Luggage placed on the Roof of any Stage Carriage, and that not more than One Passenger or other Person shall be allowed to sit or be carried upon the Box with the Driver of any Stage Carriage; and that if any Person shall sit or be carried upon any Luggage placed as aforesaid, or if more than One Person besides the Driver shall sit or be carried upon the Box of any Stage Carriage, the Driver of such Stage Carriage at the Time when any such Offence shall be committed shall forfeit Five Pounds.

V. And be it enacted, That all Penalties which may be incurred under the Provisions of this Act may be prosecuted for and recovered by Information or Complaint before a Justice of the Peace in the Name of any Person who will inform or accept in that Behalf, by the same Ways and Means and in the same Manner and Form as are and is provided for the Recovery of any Penalty incurred under the said recited Act; and all Clauses, Regulations, and Provisions contained in the said recited Act relating to the recovering, levying, or mitigating of the Penalties thereby imposed, shall be of full Force and Effect, and shall be applied and put in execution for the recovering, levying, and mitigating of the Penalties by this Act imposed, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if such Clauses, Regulations, and Provisions had been repeated and specially enacted in this Act with reference to the Penalties by this

VI. Provided always, and he it enacted, That all personal Penalties imposed by or incurred under this Act and under the said recited Act, or either of them, whether the same shall be sued or prosecuted for and recovered by or in the Name of His Majesty's Attorney General in England, or His Majesty's Advocate for Scotland, or the Solicitor of Stamps, or any other Officer of Stamp Duties in England or Scotland respectively, or for the Recovery of which any Information or Complaint shall be made or any Action or Suit commenced by any other Person or Persons whatsoever, shall go and be applied to the Use of His Majesty, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary thereof notwithstanding; and all such Penalties shall be paid or remitted to the Solicitor of Stamps in the Manner directed by the said Act, and shall be deemed to be Part of His Majesty's Revenue arising from Stamp Duties, and shall accordingly be accounted for and paid by the said Solicitor to the Receiver General of Stamp Duties: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Stamps, at their Discretion, to give all or any Part of any such Penalties as Rewards to any Person or Persons who shall have detected the Offenders for or on respect of which such Penalties shall have been incurred, or who shall have given Information which may have led to the Discovery thereof or to the Conviction of the Offenders.

VII. And whereas an Act was passed in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to amend the Laws relating to Hackney Carriages, and to Waggons, Carts, and Drays, used in the Metropolis, and to place the Collection of the Duties on Hackney Carriages, and on Waggons and Profiers, in England, under the Commissioners of Stamps; and Doubts have arisen whether Carriages drawn or impelled by the Power of Steam, and used for the Conveyance of Passengers for Hire, are Hackney Carriages, subject to the Duties and Regulations imposed and enacted by the said intitled Act; for removing such Doubts, be it enacted and declared, That nothing in the said last-recited Act shall extend or be deemed or construed to extend to any Carriage drawn or impelled by the Power of Steam, or otherwise than by Animal Power.

Application of Penalties.

The Act 3 G. 4. c. 122. not to extend to Waggons &c. 762<sup>o</sup>.

C. P. XLIX.

An Act to allow Quakers and Moravians to make Affirmation in all Cases where an Oath is or shall be required. [28th August 1833.]

WHEREAS it is expedient and reasonable that the solemn Affirmation of Persons of the Persuasion of the People called Quakers, and of Moravians, should be allowed in all Cases where an Oath is or shall be required: be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every Person of the Persuasion of the People called Quakers, and every Moravian, be permitted to make his or her solemn Affirmation or Declaration, instead of taking an Oath, in all Places and for all Purposes whatsoever where an Oath is or shall be required either by the Common Law or by any Act of Parliament already made or hereafter to be made, which said Affirmation or Declaration shall be of the same Force and Effect as if he or she had taken an Oath in the usual Form; and if any such Person making such solemn Affirmation or Declaration shall be lawfully convicted wilfully, falsely, and corruptly to have affirmed or declared any Matter or Thing, which if the same had been in the usual Form would have amounted to wilful and corrupt Perjury, he or she shall incur the same Penalties and Forfeitures as by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm are enacted against Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury, any Law, Statute, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that every such Affirmation or Declaration shall be in the Words following, (that is to say),

I, A. B. being one of the People called Quakers [or one of the Persuasion of the People called Quakers, or of the United Brethren called Moravians, as the Case may be,] do solemnly, sincerely, and truly declare and affirm.

Quakers and Moravians permitted to make solemn Affirmation or Declaration instead of an Oath. Penalty on affirming or declaring falsely.

Form of Declaration.

And whereas some Doubts may arise as to the Form of the Affirmation to be taken in lieu of the Oath of Abjuration by Persons of the Persuasion of the People called Quakers; be it therefore enacted, That instead of the Form of Affirmation prescribed in lieu of the Abjuration Oath by an Act of the Eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the First, intitled An Act for granting the People called Quakers such Forms of Affirmation or Declaration as may remove the Difficulties which many of them are under, and instead of the Form of the Oath of Abjuration prescribed by an Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for allowing the Oath of Abjuration and the Assurance, and for amending as much of an Act of the Seventh Year of His late Majesty Queen Anne, intitled An Act for the Improvement of the Union of the Two Kingdoms, as after the Year therein limited requires the Delivery of certain Lists and Copies therein mentioned to Persons intitled of High Treason or Misprision of Treason, every Person of the Persuasion of the People called Quakers shall be permitted to make his or her solemn Affirmation in the following Words; (to-wit),

I, A. B. being one of the People called Quakers, [or one of the Persuasion of the People called Quakers, or of the United Brethren called Moravians, as the Case may be,] do solemnly, sincerely, and truly acknowledge, profess, testify, and declare, That King William is lawful and rightful King of this Realm, and of all other His Dominions and Countries thereto belonging: And I do solemnly and sincerely declare, That I do believe that not any of the Descendants of the Person who pretended to be Prince of Wales, during the Life of the late King, shall succeed, or be able to succeed, in the Form of Affirmation in lieu of Oath of Abjuration. 8 G. 1. c. 6.

An Act for the Management of the Customs.

[18th August 1833.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled An Act for the Management of the Customs, whereby the Laws in relation to the Management of the Customs were consolidated and amended: And whereas since the passing of the said Act divers Acts for the further Amendment of the Law have been found necessary, and it will be of advantage to the Trade and Commerce of the Country that the said Acts should be consolidated into One Act; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That this Act shall commence upon the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, except where any other Commencement is herein particularly directed.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty from Time to Time to appoint, under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, any Number of Persons not exceeding Thirteen to be Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs for the Collection and for the Management of the Customs in and throughout the whole of the United Kingdom, and of any of His Majesty's Possessions Abroad; and that each of such Commissioners, when so appointed, shall have and hold his Office during His Majesty's Pleasure.

III. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners so appointed or to be appointed by His Majesty shall, in all Matters and Things relating to the Execution of their Duties, be subject to the Authority, Direction, and Control of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and shall obey such Orders and Instructions as shall from Time to Time be issued to them by the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury under the Hands of Three or more of them.

IV. And be it further enacted, That every Order, Document, Instrument, or Writing, not being for the Payment of Money, required by any Law at any Time in Force to be under the Hands or under the Hands and Seals of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, being attested by the Hands or the Hands and Seals of Two or more of such Commissioners, and every such Order for the Payment of Money being attested by the Signatures of Three or more of such Commissioners, shall be deemed to be an Order, Document, Instrument, or Writing under the Hands or under the Hands and Seals, as the Case may be, of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs accordingly.

V. And be it further enacted, That any Appointment of Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in Force at the Time of the Commencement of this Act shall continue in force as if the same had been afterwards made under and by virtue of the Authority of this Act.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs under the Authority of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, to appoint proper Persons to execute the Duties of the several Offices necessary to the Management and Collection of the Customs and all Matters connected therewith, under the Control and Direction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, granting or allowing to such Persons such Salaries or other Allowances, or permitting such Employments, for the Labour and Responsibility in executing the Duties of their respective Offices or Employments, and requiring of such Persons such Securities for their good Conduct therein, as the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall deem to be reasonable and necessary; and such Persons shall hold their Offices during the Will and Pleasure of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, in such Cases and in such Manner as the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall direct.

VII. And be it further enacted, That every Person employed on any Duty or Service relating to the Customs by the Orders or with the Concurrence of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs (whether previously or subsequently expressed) shall be deemed to be the Officer of the Customs for that Duty or Service (with this saving Act) Obligations being hereby imposed (in and to which) for to be done or performed by, or, or with any particular Officer nominated in such Law for such Purpose,

And be it further enacted, That all Commissions, Deputations, and Appointments granted to any Officers of the Customs in force at the Time of the Commencement of this Act shall continue in force as if the same had been afterwards granted under and by virtue of the Authority of this Act, and that all Bonds which shall have been given by any such Officers and their respective Sureties for good Conduct or otherwise shall remain in full Force and Effect.

Oath of Office.

X. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall be appointed to any Office or Employment in the Service of the Customs under the Control and Direction of the Commissioners of the Customs in any Part of His Majesty's Dominions shall, at their respective Admissions thereto, take the following Oath: (that is to say.)

‘ I, A. B. do swear to be true and faithful in the Execution, to the best of my Knowledge and Power, of the Trust committed to my Charge and Inspection in the Service of His Majesty's Customs: and that I will not receive, take, or receive any Fee, Perquisite, Gratuity, or Reward, whether pecuniary or of any other Sort or Description whatever, either directly or indirectly, for any Service, Act, Duty, Matter, or Thing done or performed or to be done or performed in the Execution or Discharge of any of the Duties of my Office or Employment, on any Account whatever, other than my Salary, and what is or shall be allowed me by Law, or by any special Order of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs for the Time being.

‘ So help me GOD.’

Hours of Attendance, and Division of Service in these Hours.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury by their Warrant from Time to Time to appoint the Hours of general Attendance of the Commissioners and respective Officers of the Customs, and other Persons in the Service of the Customs, at their proper Offices and Places of Employment, and that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in appoint the Times during such Hours at which any particular Parts of the Duties of such Officers and other Persons respectively shall be performed by them.

Officers of Customs not liable to serve particular and other local Offices.

XII. And be it further enacted, That no Commissioner of Customs, nor any Officer of Customs, or Person employed in the Collection or Management of or accounting for the Revenue of Customs or any Part thereof, nor any Clerk or other Person acting under them, shall, during the Time of his acting as such Commissioner or as such Officer, or of his being so employed as aforesaid, or of his acting as such Clerk or other Person as aforesaid, as the Case may be, be compelled to serve as a Mayor or Sheriff, or in any Corporate or Parochial or other public Office or Employment, or to serve on any Jury or Inquest, or in the Militia, any Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Holidays.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That no Day shall be kept as a public Holiday by the Customs except Christmas Day and Good Friday in every Year, and any Days appointed by His Majesty's Proclamation for the Purpose of a General Fast or of a General Thanksgiving, and also, so far as regards Scotland, any Days appointed for such Purposes by Authority of the General Assembly, and also such Days as shall here be appointed for the Celebration of the Birthdays of Their Majesties and of Their Successors, and that such Days shall be kept as public Holidays by the Officers and Servants of the Dock Companies in the United Kingdom.

Collection in London to pay Duties due to Receiver General.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the Collector of the Customs in the Port of London shall pay into the Hands of the Receiver General of the Customs the whole of the Money which he shall receive as account of the Duties of Customs on the Day on which he shall receive the same, or on near the whole as may be, save and except such Sum or Sums of Money as shall from Time to Time, by virtue of the special Order of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, be directed to be deducted, paid, or allowed thereout.

In London Detainers

XV. And be it further enacted, That every Sum of Money which shall be due in the Port of London upon any Detention, Carriage, or other Detention or Detention whatever, by the Payment of any Money

Money out of the Duties of Customs, shall be paid by the Receiver General of the Customs out of any Money in his Hands arising from the Duties of Customs, and every such Payment shall be allowed by the Commissioners for the better examining and auditing the Public Accounts of this Kingdom in the settling or auditing of the Accounts of the Receiver General of the Customs; and when any such Payment shall become due at any other Port in the United Kingdom, the same may be paid by the Collector at such Port, the Controller being duly apprized thereof, out of any of the Moneys in his Hands arising from the Duties of Customs, and under such Directions and Instructions for the due Execution of their Offices as shall from Time to Time be given to them by the Commissioners of the Customs.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs finally to settle and close the Accounts of any Collectors or Receivers of any Part of the Revenue of the Customs or other Duties under their Management, notwithstanding any erroneous Appropriation of any Duties of Customs received by such Collectors or Receivers; and the said Commissioners are hereby empowered to correct such Appropriations, in order to prevent the Accounts of any such Collectors or Receivers from being kept open; and all such Corrections shall be allowed by the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts in the passing the general Accounts of Customs, Subsidies, or Impostments.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs to authorize the proper Officers to demand, on the passing of every Entry, the Sum of One Shilling; and upon the making of any Cocket, if such Cocket be

| For British Goods, the Sum of  | s <sup>d</sup> | s | s |
| Or if such Cocket be for Foreign Goods, or for Foreign Wines and Spirits containedin Glass, the Sum of | 0              | 1 | 6 |
|  | 0              | 0 | 6 |

And that the Officers of His Majesty's Customs shall be authorized to refuse to pass any such Entry or to grant any such Cocket until such Charges shall be paid: Provided always, that all such Charges shall be carried and applied towards any Superannuation Fund for the Officers of the Customs, or applied, reduced, or satisfied as the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury may from Time to Time, by Warrant under their Hands or the Hands of any Two or more of them, be pleased to direct.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That all Salaries, Allowances, or Commissions granted or allowed to any Officer, Clerk, or other Person in the Service of the Customs shall be paid without any Abatement or Deduction on account of any Duties imposed by any Act of Parliament, unless expressly charged thereon.

XIX. And whereas it is expedient that Regulations should be established by Law in the Office of the Receiver General of the Customs in England for depositing in the Bank of England all the Monies, Bills, Drafts, and Notes received by such Receiver General on account of the Revenue under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs, except as herein-after mentioned, until the same shall be paid into the Exchequer; be it therefore enacted, That all Monies, Bills, Notes, and Drafts received by or coming to the Hands of the Receiver General of the Customs in England on account of the Revenue of Customs in Great Britain shall be paid by him into the Hands of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England; (that is to say,) such Monies and Notes, and such of the Bills and Drafts as shall be already accepted, or shall not require Acceptance (having been first duly endorsed), shall be paid as aforesaid on the Day on which the same shall have been received, and such of the Bills and Drafts as shall require Acceptance, and not be already accepted when received, (the same having been first duly endorsed where necessary,) within Three Days after the same shall have been accepted, for which Monies, Bills, Notes, and Drafts the Entry in the Book herein-after mentioned shall be a sufficient Discharge; and all such Monies, Bills, Notes, and Drafts as to be paid to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall be placed to an Account to be raised in the Books of the said Governor and Company, and to be intitled "The Account of the Public Monies of the Receiver General of Customs," inserting the Name of such Receiver General for the Time being.

XX. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for such Receiver General to retain and Levy in his own Hands, for the Payment of casual and ordinary and daily Demands, out of the Moneys so received by him as such Receiver General, a Sum not exceeding One thousand Pounds at the Close of each Day, and also any further Sum which he shall be directed to retain by the said Commissioners, not exceeding Four thousand Pounds, and also any further Sum, with the Permission in Writing of any Three or more of the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or some Person duly authorized in that Behalf, shall daily, upon receiving any Money, Bills, Notes, or Drafts from such Receiver General of the Customs, make an Entry of the Money, Bills, Notes, and Drafts so received in a Book to be provided by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, which Book shall be forthwith re-delivered to the Persons making the Payments for the Customs, and inspected daily after its Return by the Controller General of the Customs or his Clerk, (such Clerk being first duly authorized by him, and for whose Conduct he shall be answerable,) who shall compare the same with the Account of Monies, Bills, Notes, and Drafts received by the said Receiver General, for the Purpose of ascertaining that the Receiver General constantly pays into the Book all the Money, Bills, Notes, and Drafts which he is obliged to receive for the Customs, and that no Money, Bills, Notes, or Drafts, which the Controller General or his Clerk may discover in that Behalf shall be immediately reported by him to the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, who shall report the same, unless it shall appear to them to have happened by Mistake or Inadvertence, to the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

Money carried to the Exchequer to be written off at the Bank.

XXII. And he it further enacted, That the Monies placed to the Account of the Receiver General as aforesaid in the Bank of England shall be paid into the Exchequer from Time to Time as by Law is directed in manner following; (that is to say) the Receiver General, or his Clerk duly authorized by him for that Purpose, and for whose Conduct therein he shall be answerable, shall make an Order weekly upon the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, which Order shall be countersigned by the Controller General or his Clerk, to write off from his Account the Sum specified, and the said Governor and Company, or some Person duly authorized on their Behalf, shall thereupon write of such Sum, and deliver a Note, drawn and cancelled in such Manner as shall be approved by the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, for the Amount, to the Receiver General or his Clerk, who shall pay the same into the Exchequer, and the Bank Clerks attending there shall receive it as so much Cash; and it shall not be lawful for the Governor and Company of the Bank of England to pay or transfer any Part of the Money so paid in and placed to the Account of such Receiver General from such Account otherwise than into the Exchequer in manner aforesaid, and except in the Manner hereinafter directed, or to deliver any Note or Note, Bill or Bills of Exchange, and except in the Solicitor of the Customs or his Clerk, upon his Application for the same, together with the Receiver General or his Clerk and the Controller General or his Clerk, for the sole Purpose of taking out an Receipt for the Security of the Money for which such Bill of Exchange or Draft shall have been given, or to the said Receiver General or his Clerk, any Bills, Notes, or Deeds, which may be presented for Payment, except as hereinafter is mentioned, in which Case the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs shall be immediately acquainted therewith, if sent, by such Solicitor, Receiver General, or Controller General, or, if not sitting, at the Time of their assembling; and such Delivery shall be entered by the Bank in the Book to be kept as is herein directed.

Receiver General may draw on the Bank to pay Drafts, &c.

XXIII. And he it further enacted, That in order that the several Payments directed by Order of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs to be made by the said Receiver General to Merchants or any other Persons or account of Drawbacks or Bounties, or on any other Account whatsoever, may be made without Delay, and for the Payment of which the Money then in the Hands of the said Receiver General shall be insufficient, it shall be lawful for the said Receiver General, or his Clerk deputed and authorized by him for that Purpose, and for whose Conduct therein he shall be answerable, to draw out of the Bank of England, as Occasion may require, such Sum or Sums of Money as may be sufficient to answer the Purpose aforesaid; and that every Draft or Order on the Bank for Money for any of the said Purpose shall be countersigned by the Controller General, or his Clerk to be deputed and authorized by him for that Purpose, and for whose Conduct therein he shall be answerable; and that the said Receiver General shall from Time to Time account for the Monies so to be drawn by him or his Clerk out of the Bank.

Draws to be countersigned by Controller General

XXIV. And in order that separate Accounts may be kept at the Exchequer of the Monies paid in on various Branches of the Customs pursuant to Law, he it further enacted, That the said Receiver General of the Customs shall on every Monday Morning furnish the proper Officers of the Exchequer with an Appropriation Paper, stating the Heads under which the Receipts of the preceding Week are to be applied.

Officers of the Exchequer to be furnished with Appropriation Paper

XXV. And he it further enacted, That upon the Death, Resignation, or Removal of the present and of every other Receiver General of the Customs hereafter to be appointed, the Balance of Cash for which he shall at that Time have Credit on his Account as such Receiver General with the Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall, as soon as a Successor shall be appointed to the said Office, actually vest in such Successor, and until such Successor shall be appointed in such Person or Persons as shall for the Time being be duly authorized to execute the Duties of the said Office, be Trust for the Service of the Public, and be forthwith transferred, carried over, and placed to the Account of such Successor, or other Person or Persons as aforesaid, to be applied to the said Service in pursuance of the like Drafts and Orders as aforesaid.

On the Death or Removal of Receiver General, the Cash, &c. to vest in his Successor

XXVI. And he it further enacted, That the Receiver General of the Customs for the Time being shall keep the Account with the Bank of all Monies issued by and paid to the Bank on his Account for the Service of the Public, and the said Receiver General, observing the Rules and Regulations hereby prescribed, shall not be answerable for any Money, Bills, Notes, and Debits which he shall here or paid or caused to be paid into the Bank of England; and the Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall be answerable for all the Monies, Bills, Notes, and Debits which shall be actually received by them from and on account of such Receiver General as aforesaid, except such Bills as may have been returned in manner aforesaid.

Receiver General to keep Account

XXVII. And he it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall knowingly and wilfully forge or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be forged or counterfeited, or knowingly and wilfully act or assist in forging or counterfeiting, the Name or Handwriting of any Receiver General of the Customs, or of any Controller General of the Customs, or of any Person acting for them respectively as aforesaid, in any Draft, Instrument, or Writing whatsoever, for or in order to the receiving or obtaining any of the Money in the Hands or Custody of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, on account of the Receiver General of the Customs; or shall forge or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be forged or counterfeited, or knowingly and wilfully act or assist in the forging or counterfeiting, any Draft, Instrument, or Writing of or Part of a Draft made by such Receiver General or Person as aforesaid; or shall either to publish any such, knowing the same to be forged or counterfeited, with an Intention to defraud any Person whatsoever, every such Person or Persons so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be and is and are hereby declared and adjudged to be guilty of Felony, and shall be imprisoned beyond the Seas for Life.

XXVIII. And he it further enacted, That in all Cases wherein Proof on Oath shall be required by any Law, or shall be necessary for the Satisfaction or Consideration of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, in any Matter relating to any Business under their Management, the same may be made before the Collector or Controller of the Customs at the Port where such Proof shall be required to be made, or before the Persons acting for them respectively, and who are hereby authorized and empowered to administer the same.

XXIX. And he it further enacted, That upon Examinations and Inquiries made by any Surveyor General of the Customs, or any Inspector General of the Customs, for ascertaining the Truth of Facts relative to the Customs, or the Conduct of Officers or Persons employed therein, and upon the like Examinations and Inquiries made by the Collector and Controller of any Outport in the United Kingdom, or of any Port on the Isle of Man, or made by any Person or Persons in any of the British Possessions Abroad appointed by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs to make such Examinations and Inquiries, any Person examined before him or them as a Witness shall deliver his Testimony on Oath, to be administered by such of the Surveyors General, or such of the Inspectors General, or such Collector and Controller, or such Person or Persons as shall examine him, and who are hereby authorized to administer such Oath: and if such Person shall be convicted of making a false Oath touching any of the Facts so testified on Oath, or of giving false Evidence on his Examinations on Oath, before any of the Surveyors General or Inspectors General of the Customs, or such Collector and Controller, or such Person or Persons, in conformity to the Directions of this Act, every such Person so convicted as aforesaid shall be deemed guilty of Perjury, and shall be liable to the Pains and Penalties to which Persons are liable for wilful and corrupt Perjury.

XXX. And he it further enacted, That all Movers, Messages, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments which have heretofore been purchased, acquired, or taken for the Use and Service of His Majesty's Customs, together with the Rights, Members, Easements, and Appurtenances in the same respectively belonging, (other than and except such Messages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments as may be of Copyhold Tenure,) shall be and become and remain and continue vested in the Secretary for the Time being to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, and respective Successors as Secretaries in such Service, according to the respective Nature and Quality of the said Movers, Messages, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, and the several Estates and Interests of and in the same respectively, in Trust for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for the Use and Service of His Majesty's Customs in the said United Kingdom.

XXXI. And he it further enacted, That all other Movers, Messages, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments (other than and except as aforesaid) which shall at any Time or Times hereafter be purchased for the Use and Service of His Majesty's Customs, with the Rights, Members, Easements, and Appurtenances to the same respectively belonging, shall in like Manner be and become and remain and continue vested in the Secretary for the Time being to the said Commissioners and his Successors, as Secretaries in such Service, according to the respective Nature and Quality of the said Movers, Messages, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, and the several Estates and Interests of and in the same respectively, in Trust as aforesaid.

XXXII. And he it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Secretary for the Time being, by and under the Authority and Direction of the said Commissioners (testified by Writing under their Hands and Seals), in sell, exchange, or in any Manner dispose of, or to let, out, or demise, or to sell any of the Freehold and Leasehold Messuages, Messages, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments respectively which shall for the Time being be vested in them respectively under and by virtue of this present Act, with their respective Appurtenances, as also any of the Copyhold Messuages, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments which shall have been surrendered to and vested in any Person or Persons, and his, her, or their Heirs and Assigns, in Trust for His Majesty or any of His Posteriors, His or Their Heirs or Successors, for the Use and Service of His Majesty's Customs in the said United Kingdom, or any of them, either by public Auction or private Contract; and so to the said Freehold and Leasehold Messuages, Messages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, that it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Secretary for the Time being, and so to the said Copyhold Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, that it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Person or Persons in whom the same shall be vested as aforesaid, in due Form of Law, to convey, surrender, assign, make over, or to grant or demise the same respectively, or any of them, as the Case may require, to any Person or Persons who shall be willing to purchase or take the same respectively, and also to carry into execution any Contracts or Contracts already entered into for the Sale of any such Freehold, Copyhold, or Leasehold Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments as aforesaid, with such Alterations or Variations as the said Commissioners for the Time being, or any one Two or more of them, shall by Writing under their Hands direct, and for that Purpose to make and execute all such Conveyances, Assurances, and Agreements as may be thought proper, and also to do any other Act, Matter, or Thing in relation to any such Messuages, Messages, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments which shall by the said Commissioners be deemed beneficial for the Public Service: which said Statute or for the better Management thereof and what rights and duties

Collector or Controller of the Customs may exercise His power in that Surveyor General, or any Inspector General, or such Collector and Controller, or such Person or Persons, in conformity to the Directions of this Act, every such Person so convicted as aforesaid shall be deemed guilty of Perjury, and shall be liable to the Pains and Penalties to which Persons are liable for wilful and corrupt Perjury.

be, to put His Majesty's Officers in possession of such Lands, Messuages, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Premises, and for that Purpose to issue a Warrant under their Hands and Seals, requiring Possession to be delivered to such of His Majesty's Officers as shall be named in the said Warrant: and it shall also be lawful for such Person or Persons so authorized as aforesaid to require the said Justice, Deputy Lieutenant or Deputy Governors of such County, Riding, Stewartry, City, Liberty, or Place, to issue their Warrant to the Sheriff or Sheriffs of the County, Riding, Stewartry, City, or Place wherein such Lands, Messuages, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Premises shall be situate, to summon a Jury, and every such Sheriff or Sheriffs is and are hereby authorized and required to summon and return a Jury, properly qualified, of the Number of Twenty-four, and in the Manner required by the Laws of England, Ireland, and Scotland respectively, who shall meet at some convenient Time and Place to be mentioned in such Summons, out of whom a Jury of Twelve shall be drawn in such Manner as Justice for the Trial of Issues joined in His Majesty's Courts at Westminster and Dublin are drawn by Law in England or Ireland respectively, and in such Manner as Justice are drawn by Law for the Trial of Offences in Scotland; and in case a sufficient Number shall not appear, the Sheriff or Sheriffs shall choose others of the By-standers, or that can speedily be procured, being qualified as aforesaid, and the said Jurymen may be challenged by the Parties on either Side, but not the Jury, and the said Justice, Deputy Lieutenant, or Deputy Governors respectively, on the Application of the said Persons so authorized, or of any Parties concerned, may and shall summon Witnesses, and adjourn any such Meeting if Jurymen or Witnesses do not attend; and the Jury, on hearing any Witnesses and Evidence that may be produced, shall on their Oaths (which Oaths, as also the Oaths of such Witnesses, the said Justice, Deputy Lieutenant, or Deputy Governors respectively are hereby empowered and required to administer,) find the Compensation to be paid for the Possession or Use of such Lands, as the Case may be.

XXXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if the Owner or Owners of any Lands, Messuages, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Premises so required, or any Person or Persons interested therein, shall at any Time before the summoning of such Jury as aforesaid give Notice in Writing of any other Lands situate as aforesaid, and of any other Messuages, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Premises so required as aforesaid, and suited to the Purpose for which such Lands are required, and which the Owner or Owners thereof or Persons interested therein are willing to treat and agree for, then and in such Case the Jury so to be summoned shall previously find the Facts, whether the Lands as indicated in such Notice are situate within the Distances aforesaid, and are suited to the Purpose for which such Lands, Tenements, Messuages, Hereditaments, or Premises may be required, and whether the Owner or Owners thereof or Persons interested therein are willing to treat and agree for the same; and if they shall so find, the Owner or Owners of or Persons interested in the Lands so surveyed or marked out as aforesaid, or of the Messuages, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Premises so required, shall not be compellable by virtue of this Act to sell or dispose of the same: Provided always, that where the Owner or Owners of or Persons interested in any Lands, Messuages, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Premises required by virtue of this Act to be given up for the Purpose aforesaid, shall prefer to sell the same outright, and shall be able to make a good Title to the Fee Simple thereof, it shall be lawful for them to insist on so doing; and in such Case the Jury so summoned as aforesaid shall find the Value of the Fee Simple of such Lands, Tenements, Messuages, Hereditaments, or Premises, and the same shall be paid to the Owner or Owners thereof or Persons interested therein in the Manner directed by this Act.

XXXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if the said Lord High Treasurer, or the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Person interested therein, shall be dissatisfied with the Verdict of any such Jury, it shall be lawful for them or their Attorneys in England and Ireland to apply to the Court of Exchequer at Westminster or Dublin respectively in the next Term, and in Scotland to apply within Fourteen Days after the finding any such Verdict to the Court of Session in Scotland in Time of Session, or Lord Ordinary on the Rile in Time of Vacation, and to suggest to the said Courts or Lord Ordinary respectively that they have reason to be dissatisfied with such Verdict, and forthwith to give Notice thereof to the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners, or Party (as the Case may be); and thereupon in England and Ireland the Proceedings that shall have been had, and the Verdict of such Jury, shall be returned into the said Courts of Exchequer respectively; and if it shall appear to the said Courts to be proper, a Suggestion shall be entered on such Proceedings as aforesaid, and a Writ shall thereupon, by Rule of such Court, or Order of any Judge of such Court, be directed to the Sheriff of such County where the Lands shall lie, or the Messuages, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Premises shall be, or if the same shall lie or be in Two Counties, to the Sheriff of either of such Counties, to summon either a Common or Special Jury according to the Application that shall have been made on that Behalf, and as the Court or such Judge shall allow, and who shall respectively be qualified according to Law, to appear before the said Justice of Assize or Nisi Prius of that County at the next Assize or Sitting of Nisi Prius if the same shall not happen sooner than Twenty-one Days after such Suggestion, otherwise at the next succeeding Assize or Sitting; and the Compensation to be paid for the Possession or Use of such Lands, Messuages, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Premises shall at such Assize or Sitting be ascertained by such Jury in like Manner as any Damages may be required of upon any Inquisition or Inquiry of Damages by any Jury before any Judge of Assize or Nisi Prius; and the Verdict of such Jury shall be returned to the said Courts of Exchequer, and shall be final and conclusive; and in Scotland, if it shall appear proper to the said Court of Session or Lord Ordinary, upon such Application as to do, the said Court or Ordinary shall order and direct the Sheriff of the County where such Lands, Messuages, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Premises shall lie Lands that are suitable may be taken in lieu of such as have been marked out.

If any Person be dissatisfied with Verdict, Appeal may be made to the Court of Exchequer in England or Ireland, or to the Court of Session, &c. in Scotland.

or if the same shall lie or be in Two Counties, the Sheriff of either of such Counties, to summon another Jury in the Manner in which Juries are summoned in Scotland, properly qualified according to Law, so appear before the Lords or Lord of Justiciary at the next Circuit of the same shall not happen sooner than Twenty-one Days after such Application, otherwise at the next succeeding Circuit; and the Compensation as aforesaid for the Land, Messuages, Tenements, Hereditaments, and Premises shall at each Circuit be ascertained by a Jury drawn from the Jury summoned as aforesaid in such Manner as Juries are drawn in Scotland under the Direction of the said Lords or Lord of Justiciary as aforesaid; and the Verdict of such last-mentioned Juries shall be final and conclusive, without being subject to Review or Challenge of any Kind, unless the Court that shall have allowed such Inquiry shall think fit, on any Application made within Four Days after the Commencement of the succeeding Term or Session, if in Scotland, to order any new Trial in relation thereto.

Jury, in executing Compensation for Premises, can be paid London, &c.

XI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Jury empanelled before any Justice of the Peace, Magistrate, Deputy Lieutenant, or Deputy Governor, or before any Judge of Assize or Nisi Prius, or to ascertain the Compensation to be paid for any Lands under this Act, and they are hereby required to ascertain and settle the Proportion to be paid out of such Compensation to any Person or Persons having any Interest as Lessee, or Tenant at Will, or otherwise, in any such Lands, and the Proportion to be paid out of such Compensation shall be returned on the Verdict: Provided also, that where any such Inquiry before any Judge of Assize or Nisi Prius, or Lords or Lord of Justiciary, shall be had on the Application of any such Lessee or Tenant at Will, or other Person having any inferior Interest in any such Lands, Messuages, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Premises, who may have been dissatisfied with the Proportion of Compensation settled by the Jury to be paid in respect of such Interest, it shall not be lawful for the Jury in any such Case to alter the Amount of the entire Compensation awarded by any former Verdict to be paid for such Lands, Messuages, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Premises, but only the Proportion thereof to be paid to the Person or Persons having separate hereditaments; and it shall not be lawful for any Jury, on any Inquiry had before any Judge of Assize or Nisi Prius, or Lords or Lord of Justiciary, as to any Compensation on the Application of the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury in any Case in which the whole Compensation awarded by the former Jury is confirmed by the Jury on such Inquiry, to alter the Proportion that shall have been settled by any such former Jury as to any separate Interest in any such Lands, Tenements, Messuages, Hereditaments, or Premises.

Security to be given for Costs.

XII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Court or Judge or Lord Ordinary, making any such Rule or Order, to require that the Party on whose Application the same shall be made shall give such Security as shall to such Court, Judge, or Lord Ordinary seem proper, for Payment of Costs under such Circumstances as shall be specified in any Rule or Order made for that Purpose.

Lands belonging to the Owners, all Decisions for the Public Service to be removed, making Compensation to the Owners.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where any Lands shall be taken under the Provisions of this Act for any Term of Years or for such Period only as the Public Service shall require, it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any other Person or Persons so authorized as aforesaid, at any Time before the Possession of any Lands which shall have been taken for the Purpose aforesaid shall be delivered up to the Owner or Owners thereof, or other Person or Persons acting on his, her, or their Behalf, to take down and remove all such Buildings or other Erections which shall or may have been built or erected thereon for the Public Service, and to carry away the Materials thereof, making such Compensation to the Owner or Owners of such Lands, or other Person or Persons acting on his, her, or their Behalf, for the Damage or Injury which may have been done thereto or to the Soil thereof by the Erection of any such Buildings, or removing and carrying away the same, or otherwise in consequence of the same having been occupied for the Public Service, as the said Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or such other Person or Persons authorized as aforesaid shall think reasonable, and as shall be agreed upon in that Behalf; and if such Owner or Owners, or other Person or Persons acting on his, her, or their Behalf, shall not be willing to accept the Compensation so offered, it shall be lawful for the said Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or other Person or Persons so authorized as aforesaid, to apply to and require Two Justices of the Peace of the County, Riding, Stewary, Cop, or Place to settle and ascertain the Compensation which ought to be made for such Damage or Injury as aforesaid; and such Justice shall settle and ascertain the same accordingly, and shall grant a Certificate thereof; and the Amount of such Compensation, so settled and ascertained and certified, shall forthwith be paid by Warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, to the Person or Persons entitled thereto: Provided always, that nothing in this Act shall extend or be construed to extend to alter, prejudice, or affect any Agreement which hath been or shall or may be entered into by any such Person or Persons authorized as aforesaid with any Owner or Owners of any such Lands, or other Person or Persons acting on his, her, or their Behalf, in relation to any such Buildings or Erections, but every such Agreement shall remain valid and effectual in like Manner as if this Act had not passed.

Parties belonging to incorporated Persons, &c. to be paid in the proper

XIV. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where any Money shall have been or shall be agreed, or shall have been or shall be found by the Verdict of any Jury, to be paid or given for the Use or Possession of any Lands, Messuages, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Premises taken by virtue of this Act, belonging to any Person or Persons under any Disability or Incapacity, or not having the absolute Possession thereof, the same shall be paid by Warrant of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or 227 Three of them, into the Hands of the proper Officer of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, Edinburgh, or Dublin respectively for the Time being for receiving the Moneys belonging to the Sums of the said Court respectively, for the Use and Benefit of such Person or Persons; and such Officer is hereby authorized and required to receive or accept and to give a Discharge for such Money, and upon the Acceptation or Receipt thereof to sign a Certificate to the Barons or Judges of the said Court of Exchequer respectively, under his Hand, purporting and signifying that such Money or other Consideration was received or accepted by and paid to him in pursuance of this Act, for the Use and Benefit of such Person or Persons who shall be named and described in such Certificate; and the said Certificate shall be filed or deposited in the said Court of Exchequer at Westminster, Edinburgh, or Dublin respectively, and a true Copy thereof, signed by such Officer of such Court, shall and may be read and allowed in Evidence for the Purposes herein-before mentioned; and such Officer of such Court is hereby required, upon Receipt of any such Sum or Sums of Money as aforesaid, to pay the same into the Bank of England, or Bank of Scotland, or Royal Bank of Scotland, or Bank of Ireland, as the Case may require; and immediately upon the filing or depositing of such Certificate, the said Lands, Messuages, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Premises shall be vested in or to the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That the Barons or Judges of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, and the Barons or Judges of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Edinburgh or Dublin for the Time being respectively, or any Two or more of them, shall be and they are hereby authorized and empowered, in a summary Way, upon Motion or by Petition for and on Behalf of any Person or Persons interested in or entitled to the Benefit of the Money so paid to and received by the proper Officer of the said Courts respectively, or the Interest or Produce thereof, and upon reading the Certificate directed to be signed by the said Officer concerning the same as aforesaid, and receiving such further Satisfaction as they shall think necessary, to make and procure such Ordered Directions for paying the said Money, or any Part of the same, or for placing out such Part thereof as shall be Principal in the Public Funds or upon Government or Real Securities, and for Payment of the Dividends or Interest thereof, or any Part thereof, in the respective Persons entitled to receive the same, or for laying out the Principal, or any Part thereof, in the Purchase of other Lands to be conveyed and settled to, for, and upon the same Uses, Tenants, Intents, and Purposes as the said Lands so taken stood settled at the Time of the Payment of such Money as aforesaid, as near as the same can be done, or otherwise concerning the disposing of the said Money, or any Part thereof, and the Interest of the same, or any Part thereof, for the Benefit of the Person or Persons respectively, or for appointing any Person or Persons to be Trustee or Trustees for all or any of such Purposes, as the said Courts respectively shall think just and reasonable.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That upon the Death, Removal, or Resignation of any such Officer of the said Courts of Exchequer all Stocks and Securities vested in him by virtue of this Act shall vest in the succeeding Officer of the Exchequer, for the Purposes herein-before mentioned, without any Assignment or Transfer; and all Moneys paid in the said Banks respectively in pursuance of the Act, or remaining in the Hands of any such Officer at his Death, Resignation, or Removal, and not vested in the Funds or placed out on Securities as aforesaid, shall be paid over to the succeeding Officer for the like Purpose for the Time being.

XLVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend to any Garden or Pleasure Ground, or to any Land immediately contiguous to and used as the Carriage or Enclosure of any Dwelling House.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That every Order, Decree, Instrument, or Writing relating to the Customs or to the Law of Navigation, required by any Law at any Time in force to be under the Hands of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, being signed by Three or more of such Commissioners, shall be deemed to be an Order, Decree, Instrument, or Writing under the Hands of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury accordingly.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, varied, or repealed by any Act to be passed in the present Session of Parliament.

Report.

That no Goods shall be unladed from any Ship arriving from Parts beyond the Seas at any Port or Place in the United Kingdom or in the Isle of Man, nor shall Bulk be broken after the Arrival of such Ship within Four Leagues of the Coast thereof respectively, before due Report of such Ship and due Entry of such Goods shall have been made, and Warrant granted, in manner herein-after directed; and that no Goods shall be so unladed except at such Times and Places, and in such Manner, and by such Persons, and under the Care of such Officers, as is and are herein-after directed; and that all Goods not duly reported, or which shall be unladed contrary hereto, shall be forfeited; and if Bulk be broken contrary hereto, the Master of such Ship shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and if, after the Arrival of any Ship within Four Leagues of the Coast of the United Kingdom or of the Isle of Man, any Unlading be made in the Stowage of the Cargo of such Ship, so as to facilitate the unlading of any Part of such Cargo, or if any Part be stowed, destroyed, or thrown overboard, or any Package be opened, such Ship shall be deemed to have broken Bulk: Provided always, that the several Articles herein-after enumerated may be landed in the United Kingdom without Report, Entry, or Warrant; (that is to say,) Diamonds and Ballion, fresh Fish of British taking, and reported in British Ships, Turbets and Lobsters fresh, however taken or imported.

III. And be it further enacted, That no Goods shall be imported into the United Kingdom or into the Isle of Man from Parts beyond the Seas in any British Ship, nor any Tobacco in any Ship, unless the Master shall have on board a Manifest of such Goods or of such Tobacco, made out and dated and signed by him at the Place or respective Places where the same or the different Parts of the same were or were taken on board, and authenticated in the Manner herein-after provided, and every such Manifest shall set forth the Name and the Tonnage of the Ship, the Name of the Master and of the Place to which the Ship belongs, and of the Place or Places where the Goods were taken on board respectively, and of the Place or Places for which they are destined respectively, and shall contain a particular Account and Description of all the Packages on board, with the Marks and Numbers thereon, and the Sorts of Goods and different Kinds of each Sort contained therein, to the best of the Master's Knowledge, and of the Particulars of such Goods as are stowed loose, and the Names of the respective Shippers and Consignees, so far as the same can be known to the Master; and to such particular Account shall be subjected a general Account or Recapitulation of the total Number of the Packages of each Sort, describing the same by their usual Names, or by such Descriptions as the same can best be known by, and the different Goods therein, and also the total Quantities of the different Goods stowed loose: Provided always, that every Manifest for Tobacco shall be a separate Manifest, distinct from any Manifest for any other Goods, and shall, without fail, contain the particular Weight of Tobacco in each Hogshead, Cask, Chest, or Case, with the Tare of the same; and if such Tobacco be the Produce of the Possessions of the Grand Signior, then the Number of his Parcels or Bundles within any such Hogshead, Cask, Chest, or Case shall be stated in such Manifest.

IV. And be it further enacted, That before any Ship shall be cleared out or depart from any Place in any of the British Possessions Abroad, or from any Place in China, with any Goods for the United Kingdom or for the Isle of Man, the Master of such Ship shall produce the Manifest to the Collector or Controller of the Customs, or other proper Officer, who shall certify upon the same the Date of the Production thereof to him: Provided always, that in all Places within the Territorial Possessions of the East India Company the Servant of the said Company by whom the last Dispatches of such Ship shall be delivered shall be the proper Officer to authenticate the Manifest as aforesaid; and in all Places in China the Chief Supercargo of the said Company shall be the proper Officer for such Purpose.

V. And be it further enacted, That before the Departure of any Ship from any Place beyond the Seas not under the British Dominions, where any Tobacco has been taken on board such Ship for the United Kingdom or for the Isle of Man, the Master of such Ship shall produce the Manifest of such Tobacco to the British Consul or other Chief British Officer, if there be any such resident at or near such Place, and such Consul or other Officer shall certify upon the same the Date of the Production thereof to him.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if any Goods shall be imported into the United Kingdom or into the Isle of Man, in any British Ship, or any Tobacco in any Ship, without such Manifest, or if any Goods contained in such Manifest be not on board, the Master of such Ship shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Master of every Ship required to have a Manifest on board shall produce such Manifest to any Officer of the Customs who shall come on board his Ship after her Arrival within Four Leagues of the Coast of the United Kingdom or of the Coast of the Isle of Man, and who shall demand the same, for his Inspection; and such Master shall also deliver to any such Officer who shall be the first to demand it, a true Copy of such Manifest agreed by the Master; and shall also deliver another Copy to any other Officer of the Customs who shall be the first to demand the same within the Limits of the Port to which such Ship is bound; and thereupon such Officers respectively shall notify on such Manifest and on such Copies the Date of the Production of such Manifest and of the Receipt of such Copies, and shall transmit such Copies to the Collector and Controller of the Port to which such Vessel is first bound, and shall return such Manifest to the Master; and if such Master shall not in any Case produce such Manifest, or deliver such Copy, he shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the Master of every Ship arriving from Parts beyond the Seas at any Port in the United Kingdom or in the Isle of Man, whether laden or in ballast, shall, within Four Leagues of the Coast thereof, produce the Manifest of such Goods or of such Tobacco, and before such Production shall produce the same to the Collector or Controller of the Customs, or other proper Officer, who shall certify upon the same the Date of the Production thereof to him: Provided always, that in all Places within the Territorial Possessions of the East India Company the Servant of the said Company by whom the last Dispatches of such Ship shall be delivered shall be the proper Officer to authenticate the Manifest as aforesaid; and in all Places in China the Chief Supercargo of the said Company shall be the proper Officer for such Purpose.

shall be received in each Place, the Master shall in either Case forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the proper Officers of the Customs to board any Ship arriving at any Port in the United Kingdom or in the Life of Man, and freely to may so board until all the Goods laden therein shall have been duly delivered from the same; and such Officers shall have free Access to every Part of the Ship, with Power to take down Headways, and to mark any Goods before landing, and to lock up, seal, mark, or otherwise secure any Goods on board such Ship; and if any Plans, or any Box or Chest, be locked, and the Keys be withheld, such Officers, if they be of a Degree superior to Tidewater or Waterman, may open any such Place, Box, or Chest in the best Manner in his Power; and if they be Tidewater or Waterman, or only of that Degree, they shall send for their superior Officer, who may open or cause to be opened any such Place, Box, or Chest in the best Manner in his Power; and if any Goods be found concealed on board any such Ship, they shall be forfeited; and if the Officers shall place any Lock, Mark, or Seal upon any Goods on board, and such Lock, Mark, or Seal be wilfully opened, altered, or broken before due Delivery of such Goods, or if any of such Goods be wilfully conveyed away, or if the Headways, after having been forced down by the Officer, be opened, the Master of such Ship shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Ship (having Commission from his Majesty, or from any Foreign Prince or State) arriving as aforesaid at any Port in the United Kingdom or in the Life of Man shall have on board any Goods laden in Parts beyond the Seas, the Captain, Master, Purser, or other Person having the Charge of such Ship or of such Goods for that Voyage shall, before any Part of such Goods be taken out of such Ship, or when called upon so to do by any Officer of the Customs, deliver an Account in Writing under his Hand, to the best of his Knowledge, of the Quality and Quantity of every Package or Parcel of such Goods, and of the Marks and Numbers thereof, and of the Names of the respective Shippers and Consignees of the same, and shall make and subscribe a Declaration at the Foot of such Account, declaring to the Truth thereof, and shall also truly answer to the Collector or Controller such Questions concerning such Goods as shall be required of him; and on Failure thereof such Captain, Master, Purser, or other Person shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and all such Ships shall be liable to such Searches as Merchant Ships are liable to; and the Officers of the Customs may freely enter and go on board all such Ships, and bring from thence on shore into the King's Warehouse any Goods found on board any such Ship as aforesaid; subject nevertheless to such Regulations in respect of Ships of War belonging to His Majesty as shall from Time to Time be directed in that respect by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That the Master of every British Ship arriving at any Port in the United Kingdom, on her Return from any Foreign Possessions in the West Indies, shall, within Two Days of such Arrival, deliver to the Collector or Controller a List containing the Names and Descriptions of the Crew which was on board at the Time of clearing from the United Kingdom, and of the Crew so board at the Time of Arrival in any of the said Possessions, and of every Seaman who has deserted or died during the Voyage, and also the Amount of Wages due at the Time of his Death to each Seaman so dying, and shall make and subscribe a Declaration at the Foot of such List, declaring to the Truth thereof; and every Master refusing so to do shall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds; and such List shall be kept by the Collector for the Inspection of all Persons interested therein.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That every Importer of any Goods shall, within Fourteen Days after the Arrival of the Ship respecting the same, make perfect Entry inwards of such Goods, or Entry by Bill of Lading, in manner hereinafter provided, and shall within such Time (and the same) and in default of such Entry and Lading it shall be lawful for the Officers of the Customs to convey such Goods to the King's Warehouse; and whenever the Cargo of any Ship shall have been discharged, with the Exception only of a small Quantity of Goods, it shall be lawful for the Officers of the Customs to convey such remaining Goods, and at any Time to convey any small Packages or Parcels of Goods, to the King's Warehouse, although such Fourteen Days shall not have expired, there to be kept until the due Entry thereof during the Remission of such Fourteen Days; and if the Duties due upon any Goods so conveyed to the King's Warehouse shall not be paid within Three Months after such Fourteen Days shall have expired, together with all Charges of Remission Warehouse Rent, the same shall be sold, and the Produce thereof shall be applied, first to the Payment of Freight and Charges, next of Duties, and the Overplus, if any, shall be paid to the Proprietor of the Goods.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Person entering any Goods inwards (whether for Payment of Duty, or to be warehoused upon the first perfect Entry thereof, or for Payment of Duty upon the taking out of the Warehouse, or whether such Goods be free of Duty) shall deliver to the Collector or Controller a Bill of the Entry of such Goods, fairly written in Words at Length, expressing the Name of the Ship, and of the Master of the Ship in which the Goods were imported, and of the Place from whence they were brought, and the Description and Situation of the Warehouse, if they are to be warehoused, and the Name of the Person in whose Name the Goods are to be entered, and the Quantity and Description of the Goods, and the Number and Denomination or Description of the respective Packages, containing the Goods, and in the Margin of such Bill shall delineate the respective Marks and Numbers of such Packages, and shall pay down any Duties which may be payable upon the Goods as the Case may require, of such Bill, in which all Sums and Numbers may be expressed in Figures, and the Particulars to be contained in such Bill shall be written and arranged in such Form and Manner, and the Number of such Duplicates shall be such as the Collector and Controller shall require; and such Bill being duly signed by the Collector and Controller, and transmitted to the Landing Water, shall be the Warrant to him for the Landing or delivering of such Goods.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall make or cause to be made any such Entry inwards of any Goods, not being duly authorized thereto by the Proprietor or Consignor of such Goods, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds: Provided always, that no such Personally shall extend or be deemed to extend to any Person acting under the Directions of the several Dock Companies or other Corporate Bodies authorized by Law to pass Entries.

XX. And be it further enacted, That no Entry nor any Warrant for the landing of any Goods, or for the taking of any Goods out of any Warehouse, shall be deemed valid, unless the Particulars of the Goods and Packages in such Entry shall correspond with the Particulars of the Goods and Packages, purporting to be the same, in the Report of the Ship, and as the Manifest, where a Manifest is required, and in the Certificate or other Document, where any is required, by which the Importation or Entry of such Goods is authorized, nor unless the Goods shall have been properly described in such Entry by the Denominations, and with the Characters and Circumstances according to which such Goods are charged with Duty or may be imported, either to be used in the United Kingdom, or to be warehoused for Exportation only; and any Goods taken out of any Shop, or out of any Warehouse, or for the Delivery of which, or for any Order for the Delivery of which, from any Warehouse, Demand shall have been made, not having been duly entered, shall be forfeited.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That if the Goods in such Entry be charged to pay Duty according to the Number, Measure, or Weight thereof, such Number, Measure, or Weight shall be stated in the Entry: and if the Goods in such Entry be charged to pay Duty according to the Value thereof, such Value shall be stated in the Entry, and shall be attested by the Declaration of the Inspector or his lawful Agent, written upon the Entry, and attested by his Signature; and if the Goods in such Entry be chargeable at the Option of the Officers of Customs, either according to the Number, Measure, or Weight thereof, or according to the Value thereof, then as well such Number, Measure, or Weight, as also such Value, shall be in like Manner stated in the Entry, and attested; and if any Person make such Declaration, not being the Inspector or Proprietor of such Goods, nor his Agent duly authorized by him, such Person shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and his Declaration shall be made in Manner and Form following, and shall be binding upon the Person by or in behalf of whom the same shall be made, (that is to say.)

I, A. B. of [Place of Abode] do hereby declare, That I am [the Inspector, or authorized by the Inspector] of the Goods contained in this Entry, and that I enter the same [stating which, if Part only] at the Sum of _____ Witness my Hand the _____ Day of _____

XXII. And be it further enacted, That if upon Examination it shall appear to the Officers of the Customs that such Goods are not valued according to the true Value thereof, it shall be lawful for such Officers to detain and secure such Goods, and (within Five Days from the Landing thereof if it be in the Ports of London, Leith, or Dublin, or within Seven Days if in any other Port in the United Kingdom, or if in any Port in the Isle of Man,) to take such Goods for the Use of the Crown; and if a different Rate of Duty shall be charged upon any Goods according as the Value of the same shall be described in the Entry to be above or to be below any particular Price or Sum, and such Goods shall be valued in the Entry so as to be liable to the lower Rate of Duty, and it shall appear to the Officers of the Customs that such Goods, by reason of their real Value, are properly liable to the higher Rate of Duty, it shall be lawful for such Officers in like Manner to take such Goods for the Use of the Crown; and the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs shall thereupon in any of such Cases cause the Amount of such Valuation, together with an Addition of Ten Pounds per Centum thereon, and also the Duties paid upon such Entry, to be paid to the Importer or Proprietor of such Goods in full Satisfaction for the same, and shall dispose of such Goods for the Benefit of the Crown; and if the Proceeds of such Sale shall exceed the Sums so paid and all Charges incurred by the Crown, One Moiety of the Overplus shall be given to the Officer or Officers who had detained and taken the Goods; and the Money retained for the Benefit of the Crown shall be paid into the Hands of the Collector of the Customs, with the Knowledge of the Controller, and entered in Account as Duties of Customs.

XXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Value of Goods imported by the East India Company shall be ascertained by the Gross Price at which the same shall have been sold by Auction at the public Sales of the said Company; and that the said Company shall fairly and openly expose for Sale and cause to be sold all such Goods as charged to pay Duty according to the Value thereof by way of public Auction in the City of London, within Three Years from the Importation thereof, and shall give due Notice at the Custom House in London to the Officers appointed to attend such Sales of the Time and Place thereof.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That if the Importer of any Goods, or his Agent after full Conference with him, shall declare before the Collector or Controller that he cannot for Want of full Information make a full or perfect Entry of such Goods, and shall make and subscribe a Declaration to that Effect, that he shall duly and fully file the said Declaration and Certificate in a Registry by Bill of Sight for:

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That no Goods shall be received as being of or from any British Possession in Answer (if any Benefit attach to such Distinction) unless the Master of the Ship importing the same shall have delivered to the Collector or Controller a Certificate, under the Hand of the proper Officer of the Place where such Goods were taken on board, of the due Clearance of such Ship from Tonnage, containing an Account of such Goods.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That before any Sugar, Coffee, Cocoa, or Spices shall be received as being of the Produce of some British Possession in America, or the Island of Mauritius, the Master of the Ship importing the same shall deliver to the Collector or Controller a Certificate, under the Hand of the proper Officer of the Place where such Goods were taken on board, testifying that Proof had been made in manner required by Law that such Goods are of the Produce of some British Possession in America, or of the Island of Mauritius, stating the Name of the Place where such Goods were produced, and the Quantity and Quality of the Goods, and the Number and Designation of the Packages containing the same, and the Name of the Ship in which they are laden, and of the Master thereof; and such Master shall also make and subscribe a Declaration before the Collector or Controller, that such Certificate was received by him at the Place where such Goods were taken on board, and that the Goods so imported are the same as are mentioned therein.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That before any Sugar shall be entered as being the Produce of any British Possession within the Limits of the East India Company's Charter, the Master of the Ship importing the same shall deliver to the Collector or Controller a Certificate under the Hand and Seal of the proper Officer at the Place where such Sugar was taken on board, testifying that Oath had been made before him, by the Skipper of such Sugar, that the same was really and lawfully the Produce of such British Possession; and such Master shall also make and subscribe a Declaration before the Collector or Controller, that such Certificate was received by him at the Place where such Sugar was taken on board, and that the Sugar so imported is the same as is mentioned therein.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That before any Wine shall be entered as being the Produce of the Cape of Good Hope, the Master of the Ship importing the same shall deliver to the Collector or Controller a Certificate under the Hand of the proper Officer of the Cape of Good Hope, testifying that Proof had been made, in manner required by Law, that such Wine is of the Produce of the Cape of Good Hope or the Dependencies thereof, stating the Quantity and Sort of such Wine, and the Number and Designation of the Packages containing the same; and such Master shall also make and subscribe a Declaration before the Collector or Controller, that such Certificate was received by him at the Cape of Good Hope, and that the Wine so imported is the same as is mentioned therein.

XL. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful to import into the United Kingdom any Goods of the Produce or Manufacture of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, from the said Islands respectively, without Payment of any Duty (except in the Cases herein-after mentioned); and that such Goods shall not be deemed to be included in any Charge of Duties imposed by any Act hereafter to be made on the Importation of Goods generally from Parts beyond the Seas: Provided always, that such Goods may nevertheless be charged with any Proportions of such Duties as shall lawfully counter-void any Duties of Excise, or any Coast Duty, payable on the like Goods the Produce of the Part of the United Kingdom into which they shall be imported: Provided also, that such Exemption from Duty shall not extend to any Manufactures of the said Islands made from Materials the Produce of any Foreign Country, except Manufactures of Linen and Cotton made in and imported from the Isle of Man.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That before any Goods shall be entered as being the Produce of the said Islands (if any Benefit attach to such Distinction), the Master of the Ship or Vessel importing the same shall deliver to the Collector or Controller a Certificate from the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Commander in Chief of the Island from whence such Goods were imported, that Proof had been made, in Manner required by Law, that such Goods were of the Produce of such Island, stating the Quantity and Quality of the Goods, and the Number and Designation of the Packages containing the same; and such Master shall also make and subscribe a Declaration before the Collector or Controller, that such Certificate was received by him at the Place where such Goods were taken on board, and that the Goods so imported are the same as are mentioned therein.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, when and so long as they shall see fit, to permit any Goods the Produce of the British Possessions or Colonies in North America, which shall have been legally imported into the Islands of Guernsey or Jersey direct from such Possessions, to be imported into the United Kingdom for Home Use direct from those Islands, under such Regulations as the said Commissioners shall direct, any thing in the Law of Navigation to the contrary notwithstanding.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That no Vessel arriving on the Coast of England from Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, wholly laden with Stores the Productions thereof, shall be liable to be requisited or visited by Pilots appointed and licensed by the Corporation of the Trinity House of Deptford Strand, any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That fresh Fish of every Kind, of British taking and imported in British Ships, and of every Kind, of Foreign taking and imported in Foreign Ships, shall be

Fish of every Kind, of British taking and curing, imported in British Ships, shall be imported free of all Duties, and shall not be deemed to be included in any Charge of Duty imposed by any Act hereafter to be made on the Importation of Goods generally: Provided always, that before any cured Fish shall be entered free of Duty, as being of such taking and curing, the Master of the Ship importing the same shall make and subscribe a Declaration before the Collector or Controller, that such Fish was actually caught and taken in British Ships, and cured by the Crews of such Ships, or by His Majesty's Subjects.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That before any Blubber, Train Oil, Sperm-catch Oil, Head Matter, or Whale Fin shall be entered as being the Produce of Fish or Creatures living in the Sea taken and caught wholly by His Majesty's Subjects usually residing in some Port of His Majesty's Dominions, and imported from some British Possession, the Master of the Ship importing the same shall deliver to the Collector or Controller a Certificate under the Hand of the proper Officer of such British Possession where such Goods were taken on board, (or if no such Office be residing there, then a Certificate under the Hands of Two principal Inhabitants on the Place of Shipment,) certifying that Oath had been made before him or them, by the Shipper of such Goods, that the same were the Produce of Fish or Creatures living in the Sea taken wholly by British Vessels owned and navigated according to Law; and such Master shall also make and subscribe a Declaration before the Collector or Controller, that such Certificate was received by him at the Place where such Goods were taken on board, and that the Goods so imported are the same as mentioned therein; and the Importer of such Goods shall also make and subscribe a Declaration before the Collector or Controller, at the Time of Entry, that to the best of his Knowledge and Belief the same were the Produce of Fish or Creatures living in the Sea taken wholly by British Vessels in manner aforesaid.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That before any Blubber, Train Oil, Sperm-catch Oil, Head Matter, or Whale Fin, imported direct from the Fishery, shall be entered as being the Produce of Fish or Creatures living in the Sea taken and caught wholly by the Crews of Ships cleared out from the United Kingdom, or from one of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, the Master of the Ship importing such Goods shall make and subscribe a Declaration, and the Importer of such Goods (to the best of his Knowledge and Belief) shall make and subscribe a Declaration, that the same are the Produce of Fish or Creatures living in the Sea taken and caught wholly by the Crew of such Ship, or by the Crew of some other Ship (naming the Ship) cleared out from the United Kingdom, or from one of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man (naming which).

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful upon the Return of any Ship from the Greenland Seas or Davis's Straits to the United Kingdom with any Blubber, being the Produce of Whales or other Creatures living in the Sea, for the Importers thereof to cause the same to be landed into Oil at the Port of Importation, under the Care and Inspection of the proper Officers of the Customs; and the Oil so produced shall be admitted to Entry, and the Duties be paid thereon, as if imported in that State, and such Oil shall not afterwards, if the same come to be exported, be subject to Duty of Exportation as a Manufacture of the United Kingdom.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Goods shall be deemed to be imported from any particular Place, unless they be imported direct from such Place, and shall have been there laden on board the importing Ship, either as the first Shipment of such Goods, or after the same shall have been actually landed at such Place.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Owner or Salvor of any Property liable to the Payment of Duty saved from Sea, and in respect of which any Sum shall have been awarded under any Law at the Time in force, or in respect of which any Sum shall have been paid or agreed to be paid, by the Owner thereof or his Agent, to the Salvors, to defray the Salvage of the same, to sell so much of the Property so saved as will be sufficient to defray the Salvage so awarded, or such other Sum so paid or agreed to be paid; and that upon the Production of an Award made in execution of any such Law to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, or upon Proof to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners that such Sum of Money has been paid, or has been agreed to be paid, the said Commissioners are hereby empowered and required to allow the Sale of such Property aforesaid, free from the Payment of all Duties to the Amount of such Sum as awarded, paid, or agreed to be paid, or to the Amount of such other Sum as to the said Commissioners shall seem just and reasonable: Provided always, that if such Owner or Salvor shall be dissatisfied with any Determination of the said Commissioners as to the Amount of such Property to be sold Duty-free, it shall be lawful for such Owner or Salvor to refer any such Determination of the said Commissioners to the Judgment and Review of the High Court of Admiralty; and in that Case such Sale shall be suspended until the Decision of such Court shall have been had thereon.

L. And be it further enacted, That all Foreign Goods, dutiable, (jetans, Botans, and wreck, brought or coming into the United Kingdom or into the Isle of Man, shall at all Times be subject to the same Duties as Goods of the like Kind imported into the United Kingdom respectively are subject to: Provided always, that if, for ascertaining the proper Amount of Duty so payable, any Question shall arise as to the Origin of any such Goods, the same shall be deemed to be of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of such Country or Place as the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs shall upon Investigation by them determine: Provided also, that if any such Goods be of such Sorts as are entitled to Allowance for Damage, such Allowance shall be made under such Regulations and Conditions as the said Commissioners shall from Time to Time direct: Provided also, that all such Goods as cannot be sold for the Amount of Duty due thereon shall be delivered over to the Ward of the High Court of Admiralty.

the same, and shall be deemed to be unsecuritized Goods, and shall be liable to and be charged with Duty accordingly.

LII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall have Possession of any such Goods, either on Land or within any Port in the United Kingdom, and shall not give Notice thereof to the proper Officer of the Customs within Twenty-four Hours after such Possession, or shall not on Demand pay the Duties due thereon, or deliver the same into the Custody of the proper Officer of the Customs, such Person shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and if any Person shall remove or alter in Quantity or Quality any such Goods, or shall open or alter any Package containing any such Goods, or shall cause any such Act to be done, or assist therein, before such Goods shall be deposited in a Warehouse in the Custody of the Officers of the Customs, every such Person shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and in default of the Payment of the Duties on such Goods within Eighteen Months from the Time when the same were so deposited, the same may be sold in like Manner and for the like Purposes as Goods imported may in such Default be sold: Provided always, that any Lord of the Manor having by Law just Claim to such Goods, or if there be no such Lord of the Manor, then the Person having Possession of the same, shall be at liberty to retain the same in his own Custody, giving Bond, with Two sufficient Sureties, to be approved by the proper Officer of the Customs, to Treble the Value of such Goods, for the Payment of the Duties thereon at the End of One Year and One Day, or to deliver such Goods to the proper Officer of the Customs in the same State and Condition as the same were in at the Time of taking possession thereof.

LIII. And whereas it may be expedient to subject some Sorts of Goods imported into the United Kingdom to certain internal Regulations and Restraints after the full Duties of Customs have been paid thereon, and to place such Regulations and Restraints under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise; be it therefore enacted, That no Goods which are subject to any Regulations of Excise shall be taken or delivered out of the Charge of the Officers of Customs (although the same may have been duly entered with them, and the full Duties thereon may have been paid,) until such Goods shall also have been duly entered with the Officers of Excise, and Permit granted by them for Delivery of the same, nor unless such Permit shall correspond in all Particulars with the Warrant of the Officers of the Customs: Provided always, that such Entry shall not be required by the Officers of the Excise, nor such Permit granted by them, until a Certificate shall have been produced to them of the Particulars of the Goods, and of the Warrant for the same, under the Hand of the Officers of the Customs who shall have the Charge of the Goods: Provided also, that if upon any Occasion it shall appear necessary, it shall be lawful for the proper Officers of Excise to attend the Delivery of such Goods by the Officers of the Customs, and to require that such Goods shall be delivered only in their Presence; and it shall be lawful for such Officers of Excise to count, measure, gauge, or weigh any such Goods, and fully to examine the same, and to proceed in all respects relating to such Goods in such Manner as they shall be authorized or required by any Act for the Time being in force relating to the Excise.

LIV. And whereas by the Laws now in force certain Articles subject to an Inland Duty of Excise are required to be stamped, to denote the Payment of such Duty; and to prevent Fraud in the Excise of such Duty, it is expedient that Foreign Articles of a similar Description, when imported into the United Kingdom, should be stamped with such Mark or Stamp as the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs may deem necessary, in order to distinguish the Foreign from the British Article; be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, and they are hereby authorized, after any Goods have been entered at the Custom House, and before the same shall be discharged by the Officers, and delivered into the Custody of the Importer or his Agent, to mark or stamp such Goods in such Manner and Form as they may deem fit and proper for the Security of the Revenue, and by such Officer as they shall direct and appoint for that Purpose.

LV. And be it further enacted, That every Order made by the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in respect of marking or stamping any Goods shall be published in the London Gazette and Dublin Gazette.

LV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall at any Time forge or counterfeit any Mark or Stamp to resemble any Mark or Stamp which shall be provided and used for the Purposes of this Act, or shall forge or counterfeit the Impression of any such Mark or Stamp, or shall aid or expose to Sale, or have in his, her, or their Custody or Possession, any Goods with a counterfeit Mark or Stamp, knowing the same to be counterfeit, or shall use or affix any such Mark or Stamp to any other Goods required to be stamped as aforesaid other than that to which the same was originally affixed, all and every such Offender or Offenders, and his, her, or their Aiders, Abettors, and Associates, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

LVI. And be it further enacted, That no Goods whatever (except Diamonds, Beiloes, Fresh Fish of British taking and imported in British Ships, and Turbot and Lobsters,) shall be unshipped from any Ship arriving from Ports beyond the Seas, or landed or put on shore, but only on Days not being Sundays or Holydays, and in the Day-time, (that is to say,) from the First Day of September until the last Day of March between Sun-setting and Sun-setting, and from the last Day of March to the First Day of September between the Hours of Seven of the Clock in the Morning and Four of the Clock in the Afternoon; nor shall any Goods, except as aforesaid, be so unshipped or landed unless in the Presence or with the Authority of the proper Officer of the Customs; and such Goods, except as aforesaid, shall be landed at one of the legal Quays appointed by His Majesty for the landing of Goods, or at some Succession, and that no Goods, except as aforesaid, after having been unshipped shall be re-shipped, or after having been put into any Boat or Craft to be landed shall be removed into any other Boat or Craft previously to their being duly landed, without the Permission or Authority of the proper Officer of the Customs.

LXVII. And be it further enacted, That the unshipping, carrying, and landing of all Goods, and the bringing of the same to the proper Place after landing, for Examination or for weighing, and the putting of the same into the Scales, and the taking of the same out of and from the Scales after weighing, shall be performed by or at the Expence of the Importer.

LXVIII. And be it further enacted, That the several Sorts of Goods enumerated or described in the Table following, denominated "A Table of Prohibitions and Restrictions Inwards," shall unless be absolutely prohibited to be imported into the United Kingdom, or shall be imported only under the Restrictions mentioned in such Table, according as the several Sorts of such Goods are respectively set forth therein; (That is to say) or from Warehouse, or Duties to be first paid.

 Number of Entry.
 Certificate hereunto.
 Particulars

LXVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Person intending to enter Outwards any Foreign Goods for Drawback, at any other Port than that at which the Duties hereunto on such Goods had been paid, shall first deliver to the Collector or Comptroller of the Port where the Duties on such Goods were paid Two or more Bills, as the Case may require, of the Particulars of the Importation of such Goods, and of the Entry Outwards intended to be made; and thereupon such Collector and Comptroller, sending such Bills to agree with the Entry Inwards, shall write off such Goods from the same, and shall issue a Certificate of such Entry, with such Particulars thereof as shall be necessary for the Computation of the Drawback allowable on such Goods, and setting forth in such Certificate the Destination of the Goods, and the Person in whose Name they are to be entered for Exportation, and also the Name of each other Port; and such Certificate, together with Two or more Bills of the same, as the Case may require, so which all Names and Numbers may be expressed in Figures, being delivered to the Collector or Comptroller of the Port from which the Goods are to be exported, shall be the Entry Outwards of such Goods; and such Collector and Comptroller shall thereupon cause a Cocket to be written and delivered for such Goods, in manner herein-before directed.

Export Bond to be given for Coals shipped by Bill of Lading and Wharfedale Passengers.

LXIX. And be it further enacted, That no Cocket shall be granted for the Exportation of any Coals to the Isle of Man, or to any British Possession, until the Exporter thereof shall have given Security by Bond to a parcel Sum of Forty Shillings the Chaldron, with Condition that the same shall be landed at the Place for which they shall be exported, or otherwise accounted for to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of the Customs; and also with Condition to produce (within such Time as the said Commissioners shall require, to be expressed in such Bond) a Certificate of the landing of such Coals at such Place, under the Hand of the Collector or Comptroller or other proper Officer at such Place: Provided always, that the Bond so to be given in respect of Coals shall not be liable to any Duty of Stamp.

Clearance of Goods.

LXX. And be it further enacted, That before any Port of the Goods for which any Cocket shall have been granted shall be shipped or waterborne, to be shipped, the same shall be duly cleared for Shipment with the Searcher; and before any Goods be cleared for Shipment, the Particulars of the Goods for such Clearance shall be indorsed on such Cocket, together with the Number and Denomination or Description of the respective Packages containing the same; and in the Margin of each such Indorsement shall be delineated the respective Marks and Numbers of such Packages; and to each such Indorsement shall be subjected, in Words at Length, an Account of the total Quantities of each Sort of Goods intended in such Indorsement, and the total Number of each Sort of Package in which such Goods are contained, distinguishing such Goods, if any, as are to be cleared for any Heavy or Drawback of Excise or Customs, and also such Goods, if any, as are subject to any Duty on Exportation, or entitled to any Exemption from such Duty, and also such Goods, if any, as can only be exported by virtue of some particular Order or Authority, or under some particular Homage or Condition, or for some particular Purpose or Destination; and all Goods shipped or waterborne to be shipped, not being duly cleared as aforesaid, shall be forfeited.

Packages to be indorsed on Cocket.
 Marks and Numbers and total Quantities.

LXXI. And be it further enacted, That the Person clearing such Goods for Shipment shall upon each Occasion produce the Cocket so indorsed to the Searcher, and shall also deliver a Shipping Bill or Copy of such Indorsement, referring by Name and Date to the Cocket upon which such Indorsement is made, and shall obtain the Order of the Searcher for the Shipment of such Goods; and the Particulars to be contained in such Indorsement and in such Shipping Bill shall be written and arranged in such Form and Manner as the Collector and Comptroller shall require.

Heavy, Drawback, or Duty Goods, or Goods under particular Conditions.

LXXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Coals shall have been brought Coastwise from one Port of the United Kingdom to another, and the Master shall be minded to proceed with such Coals or any Part of them to Ports beyond the Seas, it shall be lawful for such Master to enter such Ship and such Coals Outwards for the intended Voyage without first landing the Coals intended for Exportation, provided the Officers of the Customs shall be satisfied that the Quantity of Coals left on board does not exceed the Quantity so entered Outwards.

Goods not cleared for Export.
 Cocket to be sealed.
 Shipping Bill.
 Order of Searcher for Shipment.

LXXIII. And in order that correct Accounts may be taken of the Value of the Exports of Free Goods; be it further enacted, That upon the Clearance for Shipment of any Goods the Produce or Manufacture of the United Kingdom, not liable to any Export Duty, an Account, containing an accurate Specification of the Quantity, Quality, and Value of such Goods, together with a Declaration to the Truth of the same, signed by the Exporter or his known Agent, shall be delivered to the Searcher by the Person clearing such Goods, and if such Declaration be false, the Person signing the same shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and that it shall be lawful for the Searcher to call for the Invoices, Bills of Parcels, and such other Documents relating to the Goods as he may think necessary for ascertaining the true Value of the same: Provided always, that if such Exporter or Agent shall make and subscribe a Declaration before the Collector or Comptroller, that the Value of the Goods cannot be ascertained in Time for the Shipment of the same, and such Declaration shall be delivered to the Searcher at the Time of Clearance, a further Time of Three Months shall be allowed for the Delivery of such separate Shipping Bill, so failure whereof such Exporter or Agent shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Goods brought Coastwise may be exported without landing.

LXXIV. And be it further enacted, That no Drawback of Excise shall be allowed upon any Goods so cleared, unless the Person intending to obtain such Drawback shall have given due Notice to the Officer of Excise, in Form and Manner required by any Law in force relating to the Excise, and shall have obtained and have produced to the Searcher at the Time of clearing such Goods a proper Document under the Hand of the Officer of Excise, containing the necessary Description of the Goods for which the Collector or Controller; and if any such Goods be exported by any Corporation or Company trading by a Joint Stock, it shall be lawful for them to appoint any Person to be their Agent for the like Purpose and with the like Powers to act in their Behalf.

LXXXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Goods which are to be exported for Drawback be the Property of any Person residing Abroad, having been conveyed by the Owner thereof to some Person as his Agent residing in the United Kingdom, to be exported through the same to Paris beyond the Seas, by such Agent, upon account of such Owner, it shall be lawful for such Person, (being the Consignor by whom and in whose Name the Duties Inwards on such Goods had been paid, or his legal Representative,) in like Manner, as Agent for such Owner, to enter, clear, and ship such Goods for him, and upon like Conditions to receive for him the Drawback payable thereon.

XC. And be it further enacted, That no Drawback shall be allowed upon the Exportation of any Goods unless such Goods be shipped within Three Years after the Payment of the Duties Inwards thereon, and that no Debitum for any Drawback or Bounty allowed upon the Exportation of any Goods shall be paid after the Expiration of Two Years from the Date of the Shipment of such Goods, and that no Drawback shall be allowed upon any Goods which by reason of Damage or Decay shall have become of less Value for Home Use than the Amount of such Drawback; and all Goods so damaged which shall be cleared for any Drawback shall be forfeited, and the Person who caused such Goods to be so cleared shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, or Treble the Amount of the Drawback in such Case, at the Discretion of the Commissioners of the Customs.

XCI. And be it further enacted, That for the Purpose of computing and paying any Drawback or Bounty payable upon any Goods duly entered, shipped, and exported, a Debitum shall, in due Time after such Entry, be prepared by the Collector and Controller, certifying in the first Instance the Entry Outwards of such Goods, and so soon as the same shall have been duly reported, and a Notice containing the Particulars of the Goods shall have been delivered by the Reporter to the Searcher, the Shipment and Exportation thereof shall be certified to the Collector and Controller, upon such Debitum, by the Searcher, and the Debitum shall thenceupon be computed and passed with all convenient Dispatch, and be delivered to the Person entitled to receive the same.

XCV. And be it further enacted, That no Drawback or Bounty shall be allowed for any Goods exported from the United Kingdom to the Ile of Man until a Certificate shall be produced from the Collector and Controller of the Customs of the Ile of Man of the due landing of such Goods.

XCVI. And be it further enacted, That no Drawback or Bounty shall be allowed for any Goods exported from the United Kingdom in Bales cleared as being press-packed, unless the Quantities and Qualities of the Goods in each of such Bales shall be verified by the Master Packet thereof, or, in case of unavoidable Absence, by the Foreman of such Packet, having Knowledge of the Contents of the Bales, by Declaration made and subscribed upon the Cocket before the Collector or Controller; or if such Packet exceeds more than Ten Miles from the Port, then by Declaration made and subscribed, upon an Account of such Goods, before a Magistrate or Justice of the Peace for the County or Place where such Packet shall reside; and if such Bales be not cleared as being press-packed, then the Searcher, having opened any such Bales, shall not be required to repack the same at his Charge.

XCVII. And be it further enacted, That no Goods cleared for Drawback or Bounty, or from the Warehouse, shall be carried unthence, or to be put on board any Ship for Exportation from the United Kingdom, by any Person, unless such Person shall be authorized for that Purpose by Licence under the Hands of the Commissioners of the Customs; and that, before granting such Licence, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to require such Security by Bond for the faithful and incorrupt Conduct of such Person as they shall deem necessary; and that after granting such Licence it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to revoke the same, if the Person to whom the same shall have been granted shall be convicted of any Offence against the Laws relating to the Customs or Excise: Provided always, that all such Licences which shall be in Force at the Time of the Commencement of this Act shall continue in Force as if the same had been afterwards granted under the Authority of this Act.

XCVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Goods which have been taken from the Warehouse to be exported from the same, or any Goods which have been cleared to be exported for any Drawback or Bounty, shall not be duly exported to Paris beyond the Seas, or shall be re-landed in any Part of the United Kingdom (such Goods not having been duly re-landed or discharged as short-shipped under the Care of the proper Officers), or shall be landed in the Islands of Feroe or Ferroe, or shall be carried to any of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, (not having been duly entered, cleared, and shipped to be exported directly to such Island, the same shall be forfeited, together with the Ship from or by which the same had been so re-landed, landed, or carried, and any other Ship, Vessel, Boat, or Craft which may have been used in so re-landing, landing, or carrying such Goods; and any Person by whom or by whose Orders or Means such Goods shall have been so taken or cleared, or so re-landed, landed, or carried, shall forfeit a Sum equal to Treble the Value of such Goods.

XCVI. And be it further enacted, That a Drawback of the whole of the Duties of Customs shall be allowed for Wine intended for the Consumption of Officers of His Majesty's Navy, on board such of His Majesty's Ships in actual Service as they shall serve in, not exceeding the Quantities of Wine, in any One Year, for the Use of such Officers herein-after respectively mentioned; (that is to say.)

Provided always, that such Wines be shipped only at one of the Ports hereinafter mentioned; (that is to say,) London, Rochester, Deal, Dover, Portsmouth, Plymouth, Yarmouth, Falmouth, Belfast, Dublin, Cork, Lough, or Glasgow.

XCVII. And he it further enacted, That the Person entering such Wine, and claiming the Drawback for the same, shall state to the Entry and declare on the Debenture the Name of the Officer for whom the said Wine is intended, and of the Ship in which he serves; and such Wine shall be delivered into the Charge of the Officers of the Customs at the Port of Shipment, to be received in the King's Warehouse until the same shall be shipped under their Care; and such Officers having certified upon the Debenture the Receipt of the Wine into their Charge, the Debenture shall be copied and passed, and be delivered to the Person entitled to receive the same.

XCVIII. And he it further enacted, That if any such Officer shall leave the Service or be removed to another Ship, it shall be lawful for the Officers of the Customs at any of the Ports before mentioned to permit the Transfer of any such Wine from one Officer to another, as Part of his Property, whether on board the same Ship or another, or the Transshipment from one Ship to another for the same Officer, or the re-landing and warehousing for future Reshipment; and it shall also be lawful for the Officers of Customs at any Port to receive back the Duties for any of such Wine, and deliver the same for Home Use. Provided always, that if any of such Wine be not laden on board the Ship for which the same was intended, or be unladed from such Ship without Permission of the proper Officer of the Customs, the same shall be forfeited.

XCIX. And whereas it is expedient to make Provisions for supplying the Crews of His Majesty's Ships of War with Tobacco for their Use without Payment of any Duty; be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Purser of any of His Majesty's Ships of War in actual Service to enter and ship at the Ports of Rochester, Portsmouth, or Plymouth, in the Proportions hereinafter mentioned, any Tobacco there warehoused in his Name or transferred into his Name, for the Use of the Ship in which he shall serve; provided such Purser shall deliver to the Collector or Controller of such Port a Certificate from the Captain of such Ship, stating the Name of the Purser and the Number of Men belonging to the Ship, and shall also give Bond, with One sufficient Surety, in Tenable the Duties payable on the Tobacco, that no Part thereof shall be re-landed in the United Kingdom without Leave of the Officers of the Customs, or be landed in either of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man.

C. And he it further enacted, That if any Purser shall be removed from one Ship to another, it shall be lawful for the Collector and Controller of the Port where such Ships shall be to permit the Transshipment of the Remains of any such Tobacco for the Use of such other Ship, upon due Entry of such Tobacco by such Purser, within four the Time when and the Port at which such Tobacco was first shipped; and if any such Ship shall be paid off, it shall be lawful for the Collector and Controller of any Port where such Ship shall be paid off to permit the Remains of any such Tobacco to be landed, and to be entered by the Purser of such Ship, either for Payment of Duties, or to be warehoused for the Term of Six Months, for the Supply of some other such Ship, in like Manner as any Tobacco may be warehoused and supplied at either of the Ports before mentioned, or for Payment of all Duties within such Six Months: Provided always, that all Tobacco warehoused for the Purpose of so supplying His Majesty's Ships of War shall be subject to the Provisions of the Act made for the warehousing of Tobacco generally, so far as the same are applicable, and are not expressly altered by any of the Provisions herein particularly made.

CI. And he it further enacted, That no greater Quantity of such Tobacco shall be allowed to any Ship of War than Two Tons by the Lower Month for each of the Crew of such Ship, nor shall any greater Quantity be shipped at any One Time than sufficient to serve the Crew of such Ship for Six Months after such Rate of Allowance; and the Collector and Controller of the Port at or from which any such Tobacco shall be supplied to any such Ship, or landed from any such Ship, or transferred from One such Ship to another, shall transmit a particular Account thereof to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, in order that a general Account may be kept of all the Quantities supplied to and consumed on board each of such Ships under the Allowances before granted.

CH. And he it further enacted, That no Goods shall be put off from any Wharf, Quay, or other Place, or shall be waterborne in order to be exported, but only on Days not being Sabbaths or Holidays, and on the Daylight; (that is to say,) from the First Day of September until the last Day of March beyond Sun-rising and Sun-setting, and from the last Day of March until the First Day of September between the Hours of Seven of the Clock in the Morning and Four of the Clock in the Afternoon; nor shall any such Goods be then put off or waterborne for Exportation unless in the Presence or with the Authority

Printed by J. G. S. at the Office of the Stationer, near St. Dunstons Church, in Fleet Street, by His Majesty's some Wharf, Quay, or Place appointed by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs for the shipping of such Goods by Suffrage.

CIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Goods liable to Forfeiture for being shipped for Exportation shall be shipped and exported without Discovery by the Officers of the Customs, the Person or Persons who shall have caused such Goods to be exported shall forfeit Double the Value of such Goods.

CIV. And be it further enacted, That the several Sorts of Goods enumerated or described in the Table following (denominated "A Table of Prohibitions and Restrictions Outwards") shall be either absolutely prohibited to be exported from the United Kingdom, or shall be exported only under the Restrictions mentioned in such Table, according to the several Sorts of such Goods and respectively set forth therein; (that is to say.)

A TABLE OF PROHIBITIONS AND RESTRICTIONS OUTWARDS.

A LIST OF WHICH THINGS MAY BE PROHIBITED TO BE EXPORTED BY PROCLAMATION OR ORDER IN COUNCIL.

Arms, Ammunition, and Gunpowder.

Alcohol, Pot and Pearl.

Military Stores and Naval Stores, and any Articles (except Copper) which His Majesty shall judge capable of being converted into or made useful in increasing the Quantity of Military or Naval Stores.

Provisions, or any Sort of Victual which may be used as Food by Man.

Forfeiture.

And if any Goods shall be exported, or be waterborne to be exported, from the United Kingdom, contrary to any of the Prohibitions or Restrictions mentioned in such Table in respect of such Goods, the same shall be forfeited.

General

Regulations.

All Trade by Sea from one Part of the United Kingdom to another Coastwise.

CV. And whereas it is necessary to make Regulations for the Coasting Trade of the United Kingdom and of the Isle of Man, and that the Officers of the Customs should have Cognizance of all Ships carrying any Goods Coastwise from one Part of the United Kingdom or of the Isle of Man to another of the same, and of all Goods so carried, in order that such Trade may be confined to British Ships, and that all Duties levied Coastwise may be duly collected, and that the Laws for regulating the Importation and Exportation of Goods from and to Parts beyond the Seas may not be evaded; be it therefore enacted, That all Trade by Sea from any one Part of the United Kingdom to any other Part thereof, or from one Part of the Isle of Man to another thereof, shall be deemed to be a Coasting Trade, and all Ships wholly employed therein shall be deemed to be Coasting Ships; and that no Part of the United Kingdom, however situated with regard to any other Part thereof, shall be deemed in Law, with reference to each other, to be Parts beyond the Seas in any Matter relating to the Trade or Navigation or Revenue of this Realm.

Imports of Machinery to register when shall be deemed and regulated by Sea under this Act.

CVI. And whereas some Parts of the Coast of the United Kingdom may be so situated with regard to other neighbouring Parts thereof that Doubts may arise in some Cases whether the Passage between them by Water shall be deemed to be a Passage by Sea within the Meaning of this Act: and that in other Cases, although such Passage be by Sea, it may be unnecessary for the Purpose of this Act or of any Act relating to the Customs, to subject Ships passing between such Places to the Restraints of Coast Regulations; be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to determine and direct in what Cases the Trade by Water from any Place on the Coast of the United Kingdom to another of the same shall or shall not be deemed a Trade by Sea within the Meaning of this Act or of any Act relating to the Customs.

Coasting Ship used and to carrying Voyages.

CVII. And be it further enacted, That no Goods shall be carried in any Coasting Ship except such as shall be laden to be so carried at some Port or Place in the United Kingdom, or at some Port or Place in the Isle of Man respectively; and that no Goods shall be laden on board any Ship to be carried Coastwise until all Goods brought in such Ship from Parts beyond the Seas shall have been unladen; and that if any Goods shall be taken into or put out of any Coasting Ship at Sea or over the Sea, or if any Coasting Ship shall touch at any Place over the Sea, or deviate from her Voyage, unless forced by unavoidable Circumstances, or if the Master of any Coasting Ship which shall have touched at any Place over the Sea shall not declare the same in Writing under his Hand to the Collector or Controller at the Port in the United Kingdom or in the Isle of Man where such Ship shall afterwards first arrive, the Master of such Ship shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

Penalty on Offenders.

Before Goods be laden or unladen, Names of Inhabitants or of Arrival to be given and proper Documents to issue.

CVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Goods shall be laden on board any Ship in any Port or Place in the United Kingdom or in the Isle of Man to be carried Coastwise, nor having been brought Coastwise shall be unladen in any such Port or Place from any Ship, until due Notice in Writing, signed by the Master, shall have been given to the Collector or Controller, by the Master, Owner, Wharfinger, or Agent of such Ship, of the Intention to laden Goods on board the same to be so carried, or of the Arrival of such Ship with Goods so brought, as the Case may be, nor until proper Documents shall have been granted as hereinafter directed for the lading or for the unloading of such Goods; and such Goods shall not be laden or unladen except at such Taxes and Places, and in such Manner, and by such Persons, and under the Care of such Officers, as is and are hereinafter directed; and all Goods laden to be so carried, or brought to be so unladen, contrary hereto, shall be forfeited.

Particulars in Notice.

Notice to be kept by Collector, for the Information of all Parties interested; and every such Notice for the unloading of any Ship or Vessel shall be delivered within Twenty-four Hours after the Arrival of such Ship or Vessel, under a Penalty of Twenty Pounds, to be paid by the Master of such Ship or Vessel; and to every such Notice for the lading of any Ship or Vessel shall be added the last Voyage on which such Ship or Vessel shall have arrived at such Port; and of each Voyage shall have been from Parts beyond the Seas there shall be produced with such Notice a Certificate from the proper Officer of the Discharge of all Goods, if any, brought in such Ship, and of the due Clearance of such Ship or Vessel towards of such Voyage.

Penalty on Offenders.

Penalty on Offenders.

CIX. And be it further enacted, That in such Notice shall be stated the Name and Tonnage of the Ship, and the Name of the Port to which she belongs, and the Name of the Master, and the Name of the Port to which she is bound or from which she has arrived, and the Name or Description of the Wharf or Place at which her Lading is to be taken or discharged, as the Case may be; and such Notice shall be signed by the Master, Owner, Wharfinger, or Agent of such Ship, and shall be covered in a Book to be kept by the Collector, for the Information of all Parties interested; and every such Notice for the unloading of any Ship or Vessel shall be delivered within Twenty-four Hours after the Arrival of such Ship or Vessel, under a Penalty of Twenty Pounds, to be paid by the Master of such Ship or Vessel; and to every such Notice for the lading of any Ship or Vessel shall be added the last Voyage on which such Ship or Vessel shall have arrived at such Port; and of each Voyage shall have been from Parts beyond the Seas there shall be produced with such Notice a Certificate from the proper Officer of the Discharge of all Goods, if any, brought in such Ship, and of the due Clearance of such Ship or Vessel towards of such Voyage.

CX. And be it further enacted, That upon the Arrival of any Coasting Ship at any Port in Great Britain from abroad, that any Part or Parts thereof shall be liable to the Charge of such Ship shall within Twenty-four Hours after such Arrival attend and deliver such Notice, signed by him, to the Collector or Controller; and if such Ship shall have on board any Goods subject on Arrival to any Duty of Excise, or any Goods which had been imported from Ports beyond the Seas, the Particulars of such Goods, with the Marks and Numbers of the Packages containing the same, shall be set forth in such Notice; and if there shall be no such Goods on board, then it shall be declared in such Notice that no such Goods are on board; and the Master shall also answer any Questions relating to the Voyage as shall be demanded of him by the Collector or Controller; and every Master who shall fail in due Time to deliver such Notice, and truly to answer such Questions, shall forfeit the sum of One hundred Pounds.

CXL And be it further enacted, That when due Notice shall have been given to the Collector or Controller at the Port of lading of the Intention to land Goods on board any Coasting Ship, such Collector or Controller shall grant a general Allowance for the lading of Goods (without specifying the same) on board such Ship, at the Wharf or Place which shall be expressed in such Allowance; and such Allowance shall be a sufficient Authority for the lading of any Sort of Goods, except such, if any, as shall be expressly excepted therein: Provided always, that before any Allowance be granted for any Goods prohibited to be exported, or subject to any Export Duty other than any of reference Duty, the Master or Owner of any such Ship, or the Skipper of such Goods, shall give Bond, with One sufficient Surety, in Tender the Value of the Goods, that the same shall be landed at the Port for which such Allowance is required, or shall be otherwise accounted for to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs.

CXLI And be it further enacted, That the Master of every Coasting Ship shall keep or cause to be kept a Cargo Book of the same, stating the Names of the Ship and of the Master, and of the Port to which she belongs, and of the Port to which bound on each Voyage; and in which Book shall be entered, at the Port of lading, an Account of all Goods taken on board such Ship, stating the Descriptions of the Packages, and the Quantities and Descriptions of the Goods therein, and the Quantities and Descriptions of any Goods stowed loose, and the Names of the respective Shippers and Consignees, as far as any of such Particulars shall be known to him; and in which Book, at the Port of Discharge, shall be noted the respective Days upon which any of such Goods be delivered out of such Ship, and also the respective Tons of Departure from the Port of lading, and of Arrival at any Port of unloading; and such Master shall produce such Book for the Inspection of the Coast-writer or other proper Officer, so often as the same shall be demanded, and who shall be at liberty to make any Note or Remark therein; and if such Master shall fail correctly to keep such Book, or to produce the same, or if at any Time there be found on board such Ship any Goods not entered in the Cargo Book as laden, or any Goods noted as delivered, or if at any Time it be found that any Goods entered as laden, or any Goods not noted as delivered, be not on board, the Master of such Ship shall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds; and if, upon Examination at the Port of lading, any Package entered in the Cargo Book as containing any Foreign Goods shall be found not to contain such Goods, such Package, with its Contents, shall be forfeited; and if at the Port of Discharge any Package shall be found to contain any Foreign Goods which are not entered in such Book, such Goods shall be forfeited.

CXLII And be it further enacted, That before any Coasting Ship shall depart from the Port of lading, an Account, together with a Duplicate of the same, all fairly written, and signed by the Master, shall be delivered to the Collector or Controller; and on each Account shall be set forth such Particulars as are required to be entered in the Cargo Book of all Foreign Goods, and of all Goods subject to Export Duty (other than any of reference Duty), and of all Corn, Grain, Meat, Flour, or Malt, laden on board, and generally, whether any other British Goods or no other British Goods be laden on board, as the Case may be, or whether such Ship be wholly laden with British Goods not being of any of the Descriptions before mentioned, as the Case may be; and the Collector or Controller shall select and retain one of such Accounts, and shall return the other, dated and signed by him, and noting the Clearance of the Ship thereon; and such Account shall be the Clearance of the Ship for the Voyage, and the Transcript of the Goods expressed therein; and if any such Account be false, or shall not correspond with the Cargo Book, the Master shall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

CXLIII And be it further enacted, That before any Goods be unladen from any Coasting Ship at the Port of Discharge, the Master, Owner, Wharfinger, or Agent of such Ship shall deliver the Transcript to the Collector or Controller of such Port, who shall thereupon grant an Order for the unloading of such Ship at the Wharf or Place specified in such Order: Provided always, that if any of the Goods on board such Ship be subject to any Duty of Customs or Excise payable on Arrival (otherwise at such Port, the Master, Owner, Wharfinger, or Agent of such Ship, or the Consignor of such Goods, shall also deliver to the Collector or Controller a Bill of the Entry of the Particulars of such Goods, expressed in Words at Length, together with a Copy thereof in which all Tuns and Numbers may be expressed in Figures, and shall pay down all Duties of Customs, or produce a Permit in respect of all Duties of Excise, which shall be due and payable on any of such Goods, as the Case may be; and thereupon the Collector and Controller shall grant an Order for the lading of such Goods, in the Presence or by the Authority of the Coast-writer.

CXLIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Collector and Controller, in the Cases herein-after mentioned, to grant for any Coasting Ship a general Transcript, so necessary in Force for any Time not exceeding One Year from the Date thereof, for the lading of any Goods, (except such Goods, if any, which shall be expressly excepted therefrom) both for Her Majesty's the Ship in which the Goods shall be laden, and for the unloading of the Goods at the Place of Discharge; (that is to say.)

For any Ship regularly trading between Places in the River Severn Eastward of the Malver;

For any Ship regularly trading between Places in the River Humber;

For any Ship regularly trading between Places in the Firth of Forth;

For any Ship regularly trading between Places to be named in the Transire, and carrying only Meats, Linn, Chalk, Street, Gravel, Sand, or any Earth, not being Fatless Earth:

Provided always, that such Transire shall be written in the Cargo Book here-before required to be kept by the Masters of Coasting Ships; provided also, that if the Collector and Controller shall in any Time revoke such Transire, and Notice thereof shall be given to the Master or Owner of the Ship, or shall be given to any of the Crew when on board the Ship, or shall be entered in the Cargo Book, by any Officer of the Customs, such Transire shall become void, and shall be delivered up by the Master or Owner to the Collector or Controller.

CXVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful in any Case, and in all legal Times, for the Coast-writer, and also for the Landing-writer, and for the Searcher, and for any other proper Officer of the Customs, to go on board any Coasting Ship in any Port or Place in the United Kingdom or in the Isle of Man, or at any Period of her Voyage, and directly to search such Ship, and to examine all Goods on board, and all Goods being laden or unladen, and to demand all Documents which ought to be on board such Ship.

CXVII. And be it further enacted, That no Goods shall be unshipped from any Ship arriving Coastwise in the United Kingdom or in the Isle of Man, and also that no Goods shall be shipped, or waterborne to be shipped, in the United Kingdom, or in the Isle of Man, to be carried Coastwise, but only on Days not being Sundays or Holydays, and in the Daytime, (that is to say,) from the first Day of September until the last Day of March between Sun-rising and Sun-setting, and from the last Day of March until the first Day of September between the Hours of Seven of the Clock in the Morning and Four of the Clock in the Afternoon; nor shall any such Goods be so unshipped, shipped, or waterborne unless in the Presence or with the Authority of the proper Officer of the Customs, nor unless at Places which shall be appointed or approved by the proper Officer of the Customs.

CXVIII. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Goods which may be prohibited to be exported by Proclamation or by Order in Council under the Authority of this Act shall be so prohibited, it shall be lawful in such Proclamation or Order in Council to prohibit or restrict the carrying of such Goods Coastwise; and if any such Goods shall be carried Coastwise, or shall be shipped or waterborne to be carried Coastwise, contrary to any such Prohibition or Restriction, the same shall be forfeited.

CXIX. And in order to avoid the frequent Use of numerous Terms and Expressions in this Act, and in other Acts relating to the Customs, and to prevent any Misconstruction of the Terms and Expressions used therein; be it further enacted, That whenever the several Terms or Expressions following shall occur in this Act, or in any other Act relating to the Customs or to Trade and Navigation, the same shall be construed respectively in the Manner here-after directed; (that is to say,) that the Term "Ship" shall be construed to mean Ship or Vessel generally, unless such Term shall be used to distinguish a Ship from Schoops, Brigantines, and other Classes of Vessels; that the Term "Master" of any Ship shall be construed to mean the Person having or taking the Charge or Command of such Ship; that the Term "Owners" and the Term "Owner" of any Ship shall be construed alike to mean One Owner, if there be only One, and any or all the Owners, if there be more than One; that the Term "Mast" of any Ship shall be construed to mean the Mast or Mast in Command of such Ship to the Mast thereof; that the Term "Seaman" shall be construed to mean either Seaman, Mariner, Sailor, or Landman, being one of the Crew of any Ship; that the Term "British Possession" shall be construed to mean Colony, Plantation, Island, Territory, or Settlement belonging to His Majesty; that the Term "His Majesty" shall be construed to mean His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors; that the Term "East India Company" shall be construed to mean the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies; that the Term "Letters of the East India Company's Charter" shall be construed to mean all Places and Seas Eastward of the Cape of Good Hope to the Straits of Magellan; that the Terms "Collector and Controller" shall be construed to mean the Collector and Controller of the Customs of the Port mentioned in the Statute; that wherever mention is made of any public Office, the Officer mentioned shall be deemed to be such Officer for the Time being; that the Term "Warehouse" shall be construed to mean any Place, whether House, Shed, Yard, Timber Pond, or other Place in which Goods entered to be warehoused upon Importation, may be lodged, kept, and secured without Payment of Duty, or although prohibited to be used in the United Kingdom; that the Term "King's Warehouse" shall be construed to mean any Place provided by the Crown for lodging Goods therein for Security of the Customs.

CXX. And be it further enacted, That the Island of Malta and its Dependencies shall be deemed to be in Europe.

CXXI. And be it further enacted, That all Duties, Bounties, and Drawbacks of Customs shall be paid and received in every Part of the United Kingdom and of the Isle of Man in British Currency, and according to Imperial Weights and Measures, and that in all Cases where such Duties, Bounties, and Drawbacks are imposed and allowed according to any specific Quantity or any specific Value, the same shall be deemed to apply to the same Proportion to any other given Quantity or Value; and all such Duties, Bounties, and Drawbacks shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs.

CXXII. And be it further enacted, That all Bonds relating to the Customs required to be given in respect of Goods or Ships shall be taken by the Collector and Comptroller for the Use of His Majesty; and after the Expiration of Three Years from the Date thereof, or from the Time, if any, limited therein for the Performance of the Condition thereof, every such Bond upon which no Prosecution or Suit shall have been commenced shall be void, and may be cancelled and destroyed.

CXXIII. And whereas it is expedient that the Mode of ascertaining the Strengths and Quantities of Foreign Spirits imported into the United Kingdom should at all Times be exactly similar to the Mode so practised for ascertaining the Strengths and Quantities of Spirits made within the United Kingdom; be it therefore enacted, That the same Instruments, and the same Tables and Scales of Graduation, and the same Rules and Methods, as the Officers of Excise shall by any Law in Force for the Time being be directed to use, adopt, and employ in trying and ascertaining the Strengths and Quantities of Spirits made within the United Kingdom, for the Purpose of computing and collecting the Duties of Excise payable thereon, shall be used, adopted, and employed by the Officers of the Customs in trying and ascertaining the Strengths and Quantities of Spirits imported into the United Kingdom, for the Purpose of computing and collecting the Duties of Customs payable thereon.

CXXIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Officers of the Customs to take such Samples of any Goods as shall be necessary for ascertaining the Amount of any Duties payable on the same; and all such Samples shall be disposed of and accounted for in such Manner as the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs shall direct.

CXXV. And be it further enacted, That if upon the first levying or repealing of any Duty, or upon the first granting or repealing of any Drawback or Bounty, or upon the first permitting or prohibiting of any Importation or Exportation, whether Inwards, Outwards, or Casuarine, in the United Kingdom or in the Isle of Man, it shall become necessary to determine the precise Time at which an Importation or Exportation of any Goods made and completed shall be deemed to have had effect, such Time, in respect of Importation, shall be deemed to be the Time at which the Ship reporting such Goods had actually come within the Limits of the Port at which such Ship shall in due Course be reported, and such Goods be discharged; and that such Time, in respect of Exportation, shall be deemed to be the Time at which the Goods had been shipped on board the Ship in which they had been exported; and that if such Question shall arise upon the Arrival or Departure of any Ship, in respect of any Charge or Allowance upon such Ship, exclusive of any Cargo, the Time of such Arrival shall be deemed to be the Time at which the Report of such Ship shall have been or ought to have been made; and the Time of such Departure shall be deemed to be the Time of the last Clearance of such Ship with the Collector and Comptroller for the Voyage upon which she had departed.

CXXVI. And be it further enacted, That although any Duty of Customs shall have been overpaid, or although after any Duty of Customs shall have been charged and paid it shall appear or be judicially established that the same had been charged under an erroneous Construction of the Law, it shall not be lawful to return any such Overcharge after the Expiration of Three Years from the Date of such Payment.

CXXVII. And be it further enacted, That the Tonnage or Burthen of every British Ship within the Meaning of this Act shall be the Tonnage set forth in the Certificate of Registry of such Ship, and that the Tonnage or Burthen of every other Ship shall, for the Purposes of this Act, be ascertained in the same Manner as the Tonnage of British Ships is ascertained.

CXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Officers of Customs at any Port under British Dominion where there shall be a Collector and Comptroller of the Customs to refuse to admit any Person to do any Act at such Port as Master of any British Ship, unless his Name shall be inserted in or have been intimated upon the Certificate of Registry of such Ship as being the Master thereof, or until his Name shall have been so intimated by such Collector and Comptroller.

CXXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall counterfeit or falsify, or wilfully use when counterfeited or falsified, any Entry, Warrant, Choke, or Transfer, or other Document for the Loading, lading, unloading, reporting, or clearing of any Ship or Vessel, or for the loading or shipping of any Goods, Stores, Baggage, or Article whatever, or shall by any false Statement procure any Writing or Document to be made for any of such Purposes, every Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds: Provided always, that this Penalty shall not attach to any particular Offence for which any other Penalty shall be expressly imposed by any Law in Force for the Time being.

CXXX. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Person shall make any Application to any Officer of the Customs to transact any Business on Behalf of any other Person, it shall be lawful for such Officer to require of the Person so applying to produce a written Authority from the Person on whose Behalf such Application shall be made, and in default of the Production of such Authority to refuse to transact such Business.

CXXXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Declaration required to be made by this Act or by any other Act relating to the Customs (except Declarations to the Value of Goods) be untrue in any Particular, or if any Person required by this Act or by any other Act relating to the Customs to answer Questions put to him by the Officers of the Customs, making certain Matters, shall not truly answer such Questions, his Person, and the Goods, and the Ship, shall be liable to be seized, and and above any other Penalty to which he may become subject, forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

CXXXII. And be it further enacted, That all Goods, and all Ships, Vessels, and Boats, which by this Act or any Act at any Time in force relating to the Customs shall be declared to be forfeited, shall and may be seized by any Officer of the Customs; and such Forfeiture of any Ship, Vessel, or Boat shall be deemed to include the Guns, Tackle, Apparel, and Furniture of the same; and such Forfeiture of any Goods shall be deemed to include the proper Package in which the same are contained.

CXXXIII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Goods, Ships, Vessels, or Boats shall be seized as forfeited, or detained as under-valued, by virtue of any Act of Parliament relating to the Customs, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs to order the same to be restored in such Manner and on such Terms and Conditions as they shall think fit to direct; and if the Proprietor of the same shall accept the Terms and Conditions prescribed by the said Commissioners, he shall not have or maintain any Action for Incompleteness or Damage on account of such Seizure or Detention; and the Person making such Seizure shall not proceed in any Manner for Contumacious.

CXXXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Ship shall have become liable to Forfeiture on account of any Goods laden therein or unladen therefrom, or if the Master of any Ship shall have become liable to any Penalty on account of any Goods laden in such Ship or unladen therefrom, and such Goods shall be small in Quantity or of trifling Value, and it shall be made appear to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs that such Goods had been laden or unladen contrary to the Intention of the Owners of such Ship, or without the Privy of the Master thereof, as the Case may be, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to remit such Forfeiture, and also to remit or mitigate such Penalty, as they shall see reason to acquit such Master of all Blame in respect of such Offence, or more or less to attribute the Commission of such Offence to Neglect of Duty on his Part as Master of such Ship; and every Forfeiture and every Penalty or Part thereof, so remitted, shall be null and void, and no Suit or Action shall be brought or maintained by any Person whatever on account thereof.

CXXXV. And be it further enacted, That if any Ship coming up or departing out of any Port in the United Kingdom or in the Isle of Man shall not bring to or the proper Stations in such Port appointed by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs for the boarding or landing of Officers of the Customs, the Master of such Ship shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

CXXXVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, and for the Collector and Controller of any Port under their Directions, to station Officers on board any Ship while within the Limits of any Port in the United Kingdom or in the Isle of Man, and the Master of every Ship on board of which any Officer so stationed shall provide every such Officer sufficient Room under the Deck, in some Part of the Forecastle or Stowage, for his Bed or Hammock, and in case of Neglect or Refusal so to do shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

CXXXVII. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Goods shall be taken in and secured in any of the King's Warehouses in the United Kingdom or in the Isle of Man, for Security of the Duties thereon, or to prevent the same from coming into Home Use, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs to charge and demand and receive Warehouse Rent for such Goods for all such Time as the same shall remain in such Warehouse, at the same Rate as may be payable for like Goods when warehoused in any Warehouse in which such Goods may be warehoused without Payment of Duty: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, by Warrant or Order under their Hands respectively, from Time to Time to fix the Amount of Rent which shall be payable for any Goods secured in any of the King's Warehouses as aforesaid.

CXXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That in case such Goods shall not be duly cleared from the King's Warehouse within Three Calendar Months, (or sooner, if they be of a perishable Nature), it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs to cause such Goods to be publicly sold by Auction, for Home Use or for Exportation, as the Case may be; and the Produce of such Sale shall be applied towards the Payment of the Duties, if sold for Home Use, and of the Warehouse Rent and all other Charges; and the Overplus (if any) shall be paid to the Person authorized to receive the same: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to cause any of such Goods to be destroyed as account be sold for a Sum sufficient to pay such Duties and Charges, if sold for Home Use, or sufficient to pay such Charges, if sold for Exportation: Provided also, that if such Goods shall have been loaded by the Officers of the Customs, and the Freight of the same shall not have been paid, the Produce of such Sale shall be first applied to the Payment of such Freight.

CXXXIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by His Commission out of the Court of Exchequer, from Time to Time to appoint any Port, Haven, or Creek in the United Kingdom or in the Isle of Man, and to set out the Limits thereof, and to appoint the proper Places within the same to be legal Quays for the lading and unloading of Goods, and to declare that any Place which had been set out as a legal Quay by such Authority shall be no longer a legal Quay, and to appoint any new Place within any Port to be a legal Quay for the lading and unloading of Goods: Provided always, that all Ports, Havens, and Creeks, and the respective Limits thereof, and all legal Quays, appointed and set out and existing as such at the Commencement of this Act under any Law till then ment is hereto particularly directed; and that all the Provisions of it shall extend to any Law in force or hereafter to be made relating to the Customs.

II. And be it further enacted, That if any Vessel not being square-rigged, or any Boat, either belonging to the whole or in part to His Majesty's Subjects, or having Half the Persons on Board Subjects of His Majesty, shall be found or discovered to have been within One hundred Leagues of the Coast of the United Kingdom; or if any Vessel either belonging in the whole or in part to His Majesty's Subjects, or having Half the Persons on Board Subjects of His Majesty, or any Foreign Vessel not being square-rigged, or any Foreign Boat, in which there shall be One or more Subjects of His Majesty, shall be found or discovered to have been within Four Leagues of that Part of the United Kingdom which is between the North Foreland on the Coast of East, and Steady Head on the Coast of Sussex, or within Eight Leagues of any other Part of the Coast of the United Kingdom; or if any Foreign Vessel or Boat shall be found or discovered to have been within one League of the Coast of the United Kingdom; or if any Vessel or Boat shall be found or discovered to have been within One League of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man respectively, or within any Bay, Harbour, River, or Creek of or belonging to any one of the said Islands; any such Vessel or Boat, so found or discovered, having on board or in any Manner attached thereto, or having laid on board, or in any Manner attached thereto, or conveying or having conveyed in any Manner, any Spirits not being in a Cask or Package containing Forty Gallons at the least, or any Tea exceeding Six Pounds Weight in the whole, or any Tobacco or Snuff not being in a Cask or Package containing Four hundred and fifty Pounds Weight at the least, or being packed separately in any Manner within any Cask or Package, or any Carriage or other Articles adapted and prepared for stowing or stinking small Casks or any Casks or other Vessels whatsoever of less Size or Content than Forty Gallons, of the Description used for the smuggling of Spirits, then and in every such Case the said Spirits, Tea, Tobacco, or Snuff, together with the Casks or Packages containing the same, and the Carriage or other Articles, Casks, and other Vessels of the Description aforesaid, and also the Vessel or Boat, shall be forfeited.

III. And be it further enacted, That if any Vessel or Boat whatsoever shall arrive, or shall be found or discovered to have been within any Port, Harbour, River, or Creek of the United Kingdom, not being driven thither by Storm of Weather or other unavoidable Accident, having on board or in any Manner attached thereto, or having laid on board or in any Manner attached thereto, or conveying or having conveyed in any Manner, within any such Port, Harbour, River, or Creek, any Spirits not being in a Cask or Package containing Forty Gallons at the least, or any Tobacco or Snuff not being in a Cask or Package containing Four hundred and fifty Pounds Weight at the least, or being packed separately in any Manner within any Cask or Package, every such Vessel or Boat, together with such Spirits or Tobacco or Snuff, shall be forfeited: Provided always, that if it shall be made appear to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs that the said Spirits, Tobacco, or Snuff were on board without the Knowledge or Privy of the Owner or Master of such Vessel or Boat, and without any wilful Neglect or Want of reasonable Care on their or either of their Behalfes, that then and in such Case the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby authorized and required to deliver up the said Vessel or Boat to the Owner or Master of the same.

IV. And be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend to render any Vessel liable to Forfeiture on account of any Tobacco or Snuff from the East Indies being in Packages of One hundred Pounds Weight each at the least, or on account of any Tobacco made up in Balls, being the Produce of and imported from the State of Colombia, and in Packages containing Three hundred and twenty Pounds Weight each at the least, or on account of any Tobacco of the Dominions of the Turkish Empire which may be separated or divided in any Manner within the outward Passage, provided such Package be a Hogshead, Cask, Chest, or Case containing Four hundred and fifty Pounds Weight Net at the least, or on account of any Box or of and from the British Plantations in Casks containing Twenty Gallons at the least, or on account of any Spirits, Tea, or Tobacco really intended for the Consumption of the Seamen and Passengers on board during their Voyage, and not being more in Quantity than is necessary for that Purpose, or to render any square-rigged Vessel liable to Forfeiture on account of any Tea, or of any Spirits in Glass Bottles, being really Part of the Cargo of such Ship, and included in the Manifest of such Ship, or to render any Vessel liable to Forfeiture if really bound from one Foreign Port to another Foreign Port, and pursuing such Voyage, Wind and Weather permitting.

V. And be it further enacted, That when any Vessel or Boat belonging in the whole or in part to His Majesty's Subjects, or having One Half of the Persons on Board Subjects of His Majesty, shall be found within One hundred Leagues of the Coast of the Kingdom, and shall not bring to upon Signal made by any Vessel or Boat in His Majesty's Service, or in the Service of the Revenue, hoisting the proper Pendant and Ensign, in order to bring such Vessel or Boat to, and thereupon Chase shall be given, if any Person or Persons on board such Vessel or Boat so chased shall, during the Chase or before such Vessel or Boat shall bring to, throw overboard any Part of the Lading of such Vessel or Boat, or shall stave or destroy any Part of such Lading, to prevent Seizure thereof, then and in such Case the said Vessel or Boat shall be forfeited; and all Persons escaping from such Vessels or Boats, or from any Foreign Vessel or Boat, during any Chase made thereof by any Vessel or Boat in His Majesty's Service or in the Service of the Revenue, shall be deemed and taken to be Subjects of His Majesty, unless it shall be proved to the contrary.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if any Vessel or Boat whatsoever shall be found, within the Limits of any Part of the United Kingdom with a Cargo on board, and such Vessel or Boat shall afterwards be

Vessels, or Boats, with a Cargo, found light) or in Belfast, and the Master is unable to give a due Account of the Port or Place within the United Kingdom where such Vessel or Boat shall have legally discharged her Cargo, such Vessel or Boat shall be forfeited.

VII. And be it further enacted, That no Vessel or Boat belonging wholly or in part to His Majesty's Subjects shall sail from Germany, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man without a Clearance, whether in Ballast or having a Cargo; and if with a Cargo, the Master shall give Bond to His Majesty, in Double the Value of the Vessel or Boat and of the Cargo, for duly landing the same at the Port for which the Vessel clears; and every such Vessel or Boat not having such Clearance, or which, having a Clearance for a Cargo, shall be found light or with any Part of the Cargo discharged before Delivery thereof at the Port specified in the Clearance, (unless through Necessity or for Preservation of the Vessel or Boat, to be proved to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs,) shall be forfeited.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Vessel or Boat liable to Seizure or Examination under any Act or Law for the Prevention of Smuggling shall not bring to or be required so to do, on being chased by any Vessel or Boat in His Majesty's Navy having the proper Pendant and Ensign of His Majesty's Ships hoisted, or by any Vessel or Boat duly employed for the Prevention of Smuggling, having a proper Pendant and Ensign hoisted, it shall be lawful for the Captain, Master, or other Person having the Charge or Command of such Vessel or Boat in His Majesty's Navy, or employed as aforesaid (first causing a Gun to be fired as a Signal), to fire at or into such Vessel or Boat; and such Captain, Master, or other Person acting in his Aid or Assistance, or by his Direction, shall be and he is hereby indemnified and discharged from any Indemnity, Pardon, Actien, or other Proceeding for so doing.

IX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall from and after the passing of this Act wear, carry, or hold in or on board any Vessel or Boat whatever belonging to any of His Majesty's Subjects, whether the same be Merchant or otherwise, without particular Warrant for so doing from His Majesty, or His High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Great Britain, His Majesty's Jack, commonly called the Union Jack, or any Pendant, Ensign, or Colours usually worn by His Majesty's Ships, or any Flag, Jack, Pendant, Ensign, or Colours resembling those of His Majesty, or those used on board His Majesty's Ships, or any other Ensign or Colours than the Ensign or Colours by any Proclamation of His Majesty now in force or hereafter to be issued prescribed to be worn, then and in every such Case the Master or other Person having the Charge or Command thereof, or the Owner or Owners being on board the same, and every other Person so offending, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds; and that it shall be lawful for any Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Navy on Full Pay, or for any Officer or Officers of Customs or Excise, to enter on board any such Vessel or Boat, and to seize any such Flag, Jack, Pendant, Ensign, or Colours, and the same shall thereupon be forfeited.

X. And be it further enacted, That all Vessels and Boats made use of in the Removal, Carriage, or Conveyance of any Goods liable to Forfeiture under this or any other Act relating to the Revenue of Customs shall be forfeited.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the Owner of every Vessel belonging in the whole or in part to any of His Majesty's Subjects shall paint or cause to be painted upon the Outside of the Stern of every Boat belonging to such Vessel the Name of such Vessel, and the Port or Place to which she belongs, and the Master's Name within-side the Transom, in White or Yellow Roman Letters, not less than Two Inches in Length, on a Black Ground, on pain of the Forfeiture of such Boat not so marked, wherever the same shall be found.

XII. And be it further enacted, That the Owner of every Boat not belonging to any Vessel shall paint or cause to be painted upon the Stern of such Boat, in White or Yellow Roman Letters of Two Inches in Length, on a Black Ground, the Name of the Owner or Owners of the Boat, and the Port or Place to which she belongs, on pain of the Forfeiture of such Boat not so marked, wherever the same shall be found.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the Owner or Owners of every Vessel or Boat employed on the Coast of the United Kingdom in piloting or taking shall paint or use every such Vessel or Boat, or cause the same to be painted or tarred, entirely Black, except the Name or other Description now required by Law to be painted on such Vessel or Boat; and every such Vessel or Boat found not so painted or tarred, and every Boat so painted as to resemble any Boat usually employed for the Prevention of Smuggling or in any other Employment in His Majesty's Service, shall be forfeited: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to prevent any distinguishing Mark from being placed on any such Vessel or Boat, or to be otherwise painted if the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs shall think proper to allow the same, and which shall be so expressed in the License of the said Vessel or Boat.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That all Vessels and Boats belonging in the whole or in part to His Majesty's Subjects, having false Bulbheads, false Bows, double Sides or Bottoms, or any secret or disguised Place whatsoever in the Construction of the said Vessel or Boat adapted for the Purpose of concealing Goods, or having any Hole, Pipe, or other Device in or about the Vessel or Boat adapted for the Purpose of raising Goods, shall be forfeited, with all the Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle, and Apparel, belonging to such Vessel or Boat; and that all Foreign Vessels or Boats, not being registered, coming to or arriving at any Port of the United Kingdom, having on board any Goods liable to the Payment of Duties, or prohibited to be imported into the United Kingdom, concealed in false Bulbheads, heads, false Beams, Joist Sides or Bottoms, or any secret or disguised Place whatsoever in the Construction of the said Vessel or Boat, shall be forfeited.

XV. And be it further enacted, That if any Goods which are subject to any Duty or Restriction in respect of Importation, or which are prohibited to be imported into the United Kingdom, shall be found concealed in any Manner on board any Vessel, or shall be found, either before or after landing, to have been concealed in any Manner, that then and in such Case all such Goods, and all other Goods which shall be packed with them, shall be forfeited.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That all Vessels belonging in the whole or in part to His Majesty's Subjects, not being square-rigged or propelled by Steam, and all Vessels belonging as aforesaid, a Letter propelled by Steam or otherwise, being of less Burthen than Two hundred Tons, or which the Length is to the Breadth in a greater Proportion than Three Feet Six Inches to One Foot, and all such last-mentioned Vessels carrying Arms for Resistance, and all Vessels of more than Two hundred Tons Burthen, belonging as aforesaid, armed with more than Two Carriage Guns of a Calibre exceeding Four Pounds, and with more than Two Muskets for every Ten Men, and all Boats belonging as aforesaid, which shall be found within One hundred Leagues of the Coast of the United Kingdom, shall be forfeited, unless the Owners thereof shall have obtained a Licence from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in the Manner therein after directed.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That every Vessel or Boat belonging in the whole or in part to His Majesty's Subjects, or whereof One Half of the Persons on board shall be Subjects of His Majesty, (not being a Luggers, and at the Time fitted and rigged as such,) which shall be navigated by a greater Number of Men (Officers and Boys included) than in the following Proportions; (that is to say,) of Thirty Tons or under, and above Five Tons, Four Men; if of Sixty Tons or under, and above Thirty Tons, Five Men; if of Eighty Tons or under, and above Sixty Tons, Six Men; if of One hundred Tons or under, and above Eighty Tons, Seven Men; and above that Tonnage, One Man for every Fifteen Tons of such additional Tonnage; or if a Luggers, then in the following Proportions; (that is to say,) if of Thirty Tons or under, Eight Men; if of Fifty Tons or under and above Thirty Tons, Nine Men; if of Sixty Tons or under, and above Fifty Tons, Ten Men; if of Eighty Tons or under, and above Sixty Tons, Eleven Men; if of One hundred Tons or under, and above Eighty Tons, Twelve Men; and if above One hundred Tons, One Man for every Ten Tons of such additional Tonnage, which shall be found within One hundred Leagues of the Coast of the United Kingdom, shall be forfeited, unless such Vessel, Boat, or Luggers shall be especially licensed for that Purpose by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That every Licence granted by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs for any Vessel or Boat requiring Licence under this Act shall contain the proper Description of such Vessel or Boat, the Name or Names of the Owner or Owners, with his or their Place or Places of Abode, and the Manner and the Limits in which the same is to be employed, and, if armed, the Numbers and Description of Arms, and the Quantity of Ammunition, together with any other Particulars which the said Commissioners may require and direct; and that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs to restrict the granting of a Licence for any Vessel or Boat in any Way that they may deem expedient for the Security of the Revenue.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That before any such Licence shall be issued or delivered, or shall have effect for the Use of such Vessel or Boat, the Owner or Owners of every such Vessel or Boat shall give Security by Bond in the single Value of such Vessel or Boat, with Condition as follows; (that is to say,) that the Vessel or Boat shall not be employed in the Importation, landing, or removing of any prohibited or unlicensed Goods, contrary to the true Intend and Meaning of this Act or any other Act relating to the Revenue of Customs or Excise, nor in the Exportation of any Goods which are or may be prohibited to be exported, nor in the re-landing of any Goods contrary to Law, nor shall receive or take on board or be found at Sea or in Port with any Goods subject to Forfeiture, nor shall do any Act contrary to this Act, or any Act hereafter to be made relating to the Revenue of Customs or Excise, or for the Protection of the Trade and Commerce of the United Kingdom, nor shall be employed otherwise than mentioned in the Licence and within the Limits therein mentioned; and in case of Loss, breaking up, or Disposal of the Vessel or Boat, that the Licence shall be delivered, within Six Months from the Date of such Loss, breaking up, or Disposal of such Vessel or Boat, to the Collector or principal Officer of Customs at the Port to which such Vessel or Boat shall belong; and that no such Bond given in respect of any Boat shall be liable to any Stamp Duty.

XX. And be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall authorize the requiring any Bond in any higher Sum than One thousand Pounds, although the single Value of the Vessel or Boat, for which such Licence is to be issued may be more than One thousand Pounds.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That all Bonds given by Persons under the Age of Twenty-one Years, in pursuance of the Directions herein contained, shall be void and effectual to all Intents and Purposes, any thing in any Act, or any Law or Custom, to the contrary, in anywise notwithstanding.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That when any Vessel or Boat shall be found or discovered to have been used or employed in any Manner or in any Limits other than such as shall be specified in the Licence hereby required, or if such Licence shall not be on board such Vessel or Boat, or shall not at any Time be produced and delivered for Examination to any Officer or Officers of the Army, Navy, or Marines duly employed for the Prevention of Smuggling, and on Full Pay, or any Officer of Customs or Excise, demanding the same, that then and in every such Case such Vessel or Boat, and all the Goods laden on board, shall be forfeited.

XXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be deemed or taken to extend to any Vessel, Boat, or Luggie belonging to any of the Royal Family, or being in the Service of the Navy, Yachtclub, Ordnance, Customs, Excise, or Post Office, nor to any Whale Boat or Boat solely employed in the Fisheries, nor to any Boat belonging to any square-rigged Vessel in the Merchant Service, nor to any Life Boat or Tug Boat used in towing Vessels belonging to licensed Pilots, nor to any Boat used solely in Rivers or inland Navigations, nor to any Boat solely used in fishing on the Coasts of the North and West Highlands of Scotland, nor to any Boats so used in the Coast of Ireland.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall counterfeit, reuse, alter, or falsify, or cause to be counterfeited, created, altered, or falsified, any License so to be granted as aforesaid, or shall knowingly make use of any License so counterfeited, reused, altered, or falsified, such Person or Persons shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That no Bond given in pursuance of any Vessel or Boat under the said Act for the Prevention of Smuggling shall be cancelled until the Space of Twelve Months after the License for which such Bond had been entered into shall have been delivered up to the proper Officer of the Customs, and such Bond shall remain in full Force and Effect for Twelve Months after the delivering up of the License as aforesaid.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That all Licenses for any Vessels or Boats granted in pursuance of any Act relating to the Customs shall continue valid for all the Purposes for which such Licenses were required, and all Bonds given in pursuance of any such Act shall continue valid and may be enforced, any thing herein contained notwithstanding.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That all the Provisions herein contained relating to the Seizing of Vessels and Boats shall extend to the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Goods liable to the Payment of Duties shall be unshipped from any Vessel or Boat in the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man (Customs or other Duties not being first paid or secured), or if any prohibited Goods whatsoever shall be imported into any Port of the United Kingdom or of the Isle of Man, or if any Goods whatsoever which shall have been warehoused or otherwise secured in the United Kingdom, either for Home Consumption or Exportation, shall be clandestinely or illegally removed from or out of any Warehouse or Place of Security, that then and in such Case all such Goods as aforesaid shall be forfeited, together with all Horses and other Animals, and all Carriages and other Things, made use of in the Removal of such Goods.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That all Spirits or Tobacco which shall be found removing without a legal Permit for the same shall be deemed to be Spirits or Tobacco respectively liable to and unshipped without Payment of Duty, unless the Party in whose Possession the same shall be found or seized shall prove to the contrary.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That all Goods the Importation of which is in any Way restricted, which are of a Description admissible to Duty, and which shall be found and seized in the United Kingdom under any Law relating to the Customs or Excise, shall for the Purpose of proceeding for the Forfeiture of them, or for any Penalty incurred in respect of them, be described in any Information exhibited on account of such Forfeiture or Penalty as Goods liable to and unshipped without Payment of Duty.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Goods which are prohibited to be exported shall be put on board any Vessel or Boat with Intent to be laden or shipped for Exportation, or shall be brought to any Quay, Wharf, or other Place in the United Kingdom in order to be put on board any Vessel or Boat for the Purpose of being exported, or if any Goods which are prohibited to be exported shall be found in any Package produced to the Officer or Officers of the Customs or containing Goods not so prohibited, that then and in every such Case, not only all such prohibited Goods, but also all other Goods packed therewith, shall be forfeited.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That all Vessels and Boats, and all Goods whatsoever, liable to Forfeiture under this or any other Act relating to the Revenue of Customs, shall and may be seized in any Place, either upon Land or Water, by any Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Army, Navy, or Marines, duly employed for the Prevention of Smuggling, and on Full Pay, or by any Officer or Officers of Customs or Excise, or by any Person having Authority to seize from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs or Excise; and all Vessels, Boats, and Goods so seized shall, as soon as conveniently may be, be delivered into the Care of the proper Officer appointed to receive the same.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise, or any Officer or Officers of the Army, Navy, or Marines, duly employed for the Prevention of Smuggling, on Full Pay, or any other Person or Persons whatsoever duly employed for the Prevention of Smuggling, shall make any collusive Seizure, or deliver up, or make any Agreement to deliver up or not to seize, any Vessel or Boat or any Goods liable to Forfeiture, or shall take any Bribe, Gratuity, Recompense, or Reward for the Neglect or Nonperformance of his Duty, every such Officer or other Person shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, and be rendered incapable of serving His Majesty in any Office whatever, either Civil or Military; and every Person who shall give or offer, or promise to give or procure to be given, any Bribe, Recompense, or Reward in, or shall make any collusive Agreement with, any such Officer or Person as aforesaid, to induce him in any Way to neglect his Duty, as to do, conceal, or commit in any Act whereby any of the Provisions of any Act of Parliament relating to the Revenue of Customs may be evaded, shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Officer or Officers of the Army, Navy, or Marines, duly employed for the Prevention of Smuggling, and an Full Pay, or for any Officer or Officers of Customs, producing his or their Warrant or Deputation (if required), to go on board any Vessel which shall be within the Limits of any of the Ports of this Kingdom, and to manœuvre and to search the Cabin and all other Parts of such Vessel for prohibited and uncustomed Goods, and to remain on board such Vessel during the whole Time that the same shall continue within the Limits of such Port, and also to search any Person or Persons either on board or who shall have landed from any Vessel, provided such Officer or Officers shall have good Reason to suppose that such Person or Persons hath or have any uncustomed or prohibited Goods secreted about his, her, or their Person or Persons: and if any Person shall obstruct any such Officer or Officers in going or remaining on board, or in entering or searching such Vessel or Person, every such Person shall forfeit and lose the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That before any Person shall be searched by any such Officer or Officers as aforesaid it shall be lawful for such Person to require such Officer or Officers to take him or her before any Justice of the Peace, or before the Collector, Comptroller, or other superior Officer of the Customs, who shall determine whether there is reasonable Ground to suppose that such Person has any uncustomed or prohibited Goods about his or her Person, and if it shall appear to such Justice, Collector, Comptroller, or other superior Officer of Customs, that there is reasonable Ground to suppose that such Person has any uncustomed or prohibited Goods about his or her Person, that then such Justice, Collector, Comptroller, or other superior Officer of Customs shall direct such Person to be searched in such Manner as he shall think fit; but if it shall appear to such Justice, Collector, Comptroller, or other superior Officer of Customs that there is not reasonable Ground to suppose that such Person has any uncustomed or prohibited Goods about his or her Person, that then such Justice, Collector, Comptroller, or other superior Officer of Customs shall forthwith discharge such Person, who shall not in such Case be liable to be searched: and every such Officer or Officers as aforesaid is and are hereby authorized and required to take such Person, upon Demand, before any such Justice, Collector, Comptroller, or other superior Officer of Customs, detaining him or her in the meantime: Provided always, that no Person being a Female shall be searched by any other Person than a Female duly authorized for that Purpose by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any such Officer or Officers shall not take such Person with reasonable Dispatch before such Justice, Collector, Comptroller, or other superior Officer of Customs, when so required, or shall require any Person to be searched by him, not having reasonable Ground to suppose that such Person has any uncustomed or prohibited Goods about his or her Person, that such Officer shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Ten Pounds.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Passenger or other Person on board any Vessel or Boat shall, upon being questioned by any Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Customs, whether he or she has any Foreign Goods upon his or her Person, or in his or her Possession, deny the same, and any such Goods shall, after such Denial, be discovered upon his or her Person, or in his or her Possession, such Goods shall be forfeited, and such Person shall forfeit Treble the Value of such Goods.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Officer or Officers of Customs, or Person acting under the Direction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, having a Writ of Assistance under the Seal of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer, to take a Constable, Headborough, or other public Officer inhabiting near the Place, and in the Daytime to enter into and search any House, Shop, Cellar, Warehouse, Room, or other Place, and in case of Resistance to break open Doors, Chests, Trunks, and other Packages, there to seize and from thence to bring any uncustomed or prohibited Goods, and to put and secure the same in the Custom House Warehouse in the Port next to the Place from whence such Goods shall be so taken as aforesaid: Provided always, that for the Purposes of this Act any such Constable, Headborough, or other public Officer, duly sworn as such, may act as well within the Limits of any Parish, Ville, or other Place for which he shall be so sworn as within such Limits.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That all Writs of Assistance so issued from the Court of Exchequer as aforesaid shall continue and be in force during the whole of the Reign in which such Writ shall have been granted, and for ten Months from the Conclusion of each Reign.

XL. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Officer of Customs or Excise, or other Person acting in his or their Aid or Assistance, or duly employed for the Prevention of Smuggling, upon reasonable Suspicion, to stop and examine any Cart, Waggon, or other Means of Conveyance, for the Purpose of ascertaining whether any smuggled Goods are contained therein: and if no such Goods shall be found, then and in such Case the Officer or other Person so stopping and examining such Cart, Waggon, or other Conveyance, having had probable Cause to suspect that such Cart, Waggon, or other Conveyance had smuggled Goods contained therein, shall not, on account of such Stoppage and Search, be liable to any Prosecution or Action at Law on account thereof; and all Persons driving or conducting such Cart, Waggon, or other Conveyance, refusing to stop when required so to do in the King's Name, shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That if any Goods subject or liable to Forfeiture under this or any other Act relating to the Customs shall be stopped or taken by any Police Officer or other Person acting by virtue of any Act of Parliament, or otherwise duly authorized, such Goods shall be carried to the Custom House Warehouse next to the Place where the Goods were stopped or taken, and there delivered to the proper Officer appointed to receive the same, within Forty-eight Hours after the said Goods were stopped and taken.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That if any such Goods shall be stopped or taken by such Police Officer or Magistrate that the same have been feloniously stolen, it shall be lawful for the said Officer to carry the same to the Police Office to which the Offender is taken, there to remain until and in order to be produced at the Trial of the said Offender; and in such Case the Officer is required to give Notice in Writing to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs of his having so detained the said Goods, with the Particulars of the same; and immediately after the Trial all such Goods are to be conveyed and deposited in the Custom House Warehouse as aforesaid, to be proceeded against according to Law; and in case any Police Officer making Detention of any such Goods shall neglect to convey the same to such Warehouse, or to give the Notice of having stopped the same as before described, such Officer shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, for the Time being, or for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs or Excise, by any Order made for that Purpose under their Hands, to direct any Vessel, Boat, Goods, or Commodities whenever seized as aforesaid under this or any Act relating to the Customs or Excise, or to the Trade or Navigation of the United Kingdom, or to any of His Majesty's Possessions Abroad, to be delivered to the Proprietor or Proprietors, whether Commissioners shall have taken place or not, upon such Terms and Conditions as they may deem expedient, and which shall be mentioned in the said Order; and it shall be also lawful for the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury and the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs or Excise to mitigate or remit any Penalty or Fine which shall have been incurred, or any Part of such Penalty or Fine incurred under any such Act as last aforesaid: Provided always, that no Person shall be entitled to the Benefit of any Order for Delivery or Mitigation unless the Terms and Conditions expressed in the said Order are fully and effectually complied with.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall, either in the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man, assist or be otherwise concerned in the unshipping of any Goods which are prohibited to be imported into the United Kingdom or into the Isle of Man, or the Duties for which have not been paid or secured, or who shall knowingly harbour, keep, or conceal, or shall knowingly permit or suffer to be harboured, kept, or concealed, any Goods which shall have been illegally unshipped without Payment of Duties, or which shall have been illegally removed, without Payment of the same, from any Warehouse or Place of Security in which they may have been deposited, or any Goods prohibited to be imported or to be used or consumed in the United Kingdom or in the Isle of Man, and every Person, either in the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man, to whose Hands and Possessions any such unimported or prohibited Goods shall knowingly come, or who shall assist or be in anywise concerned in the illegal Removal of any Goods from any Warehouse or Place of Security in which they shall have been deposited as aforesaid, shall forfeit either the Treble Value thereof, or the Penalty of One hundred Pounds, at the Election of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs.

XLV. And be it further enacted and declared, That in all Cases where any Penalty the Amount of which is at any Time to be determined by the Value of any Goods is directed to be used for under any Law now in force or hereafter to be made for the Prevention of Smuggling, or relating to the Revenue of Customs or Excise such Value shall be deemed and taken to be according to the Rate and Price which Goods of the like Sort or Description and of the best Quality bear at such Time, and upon which the Duties due upon Importation have been paid.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That every Person who by way of Insurance or otherwise shall undertake or agree to deliver any Goods to be imported from beyond the Seas into any Port or Place in the United Kingdom without paying the Duties due on such Importation, or any prohibited Goods, or who in pursuance of such Insurance or otherwise shall deliver or cause to be delivered any unimported or prohibited Goods, and every Asser or Abettor of such Person, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, over and above any other Penalty to which by Law he may be liable; and every Person who shall agree to pay any Money for the Insurance or Conveyance of such Goods, or shall receive or take such Goods into his Custody or Possession, or suffer the same to be so received or taken, shall also forfeit Five hundred Pounds, over and above any Penalty to which by Law he may be liable on account of such Goods.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall offer for Sale any Goods under Pretence that the same are prohibited, or have been unshipped and run on shore without Payment of Duties, that then and in such Case all such Goods (although not liable to any Duties or prohibited) shall be forfeited, and the Person or Persons, and every of them, offering the same for Sale shall forfeit the Treble Value of such Goods, or the Penalty of One hundred Pounds, at the Election of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That every Person, being a Subject of His Majesty, who shall be found or discovered to have been on board any Vessel or Boat liable to Forfeiture under this or any other Act relating to the Customs for being found or discovered to have been within any of the Dismissed Ports, or Places in this Act mentioned, from or in the United Kingdom, or from or in the Isle of Man, having on board or in any Manner attached thereto, or having had on board or in any Manner attached thereto, or conveyed or carried on board or on any Vessel, such Goods as, if they were subject to such Forfeiture

And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to award to any Officer or other Person detaining any Person liable to Detention under this or any other Act relating to the Revenue of Customs, to be paid upon the Conviction of such Person, any Reward they may think fit to direct, not exceeding the Sum of Twenty Pounds for each Person.

LXVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, and they are hereby authorized, to order the following Reward to be paid to any Officer or Officers or Persons as aforesaid by whose Means any pecuniary Penalty or Composition is recovered; (that is to say,) One Third Part of the Penalty or Sum recovered, except in Seizures of Silk Goods, in which Case the Officers may receive One Half the Penalty or Sum recovered.

LXVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, and they are hereby authorized, to order to be paid, in respect of any Seizure made under this or any Act relating to the Customs or to Trade and Navigation, to the Person or Persons making the same, the following Rewards; (that is to say,)

In the Case of Seizures of Spirits or Tobacco:—

If all the Parties concerned in the Act which occasions the Seizure, being above the Age of Sixteen Years, are detained and convicted, the whole Value thereof, such Value to be fixed and settled by the Lords of the Treasury, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, as aforesaid after directed:

If Two or more of such Parties, not being the whole, are so detained and convicted, Seven Eighths of such Value;

If One such Party, not being the whole of them, but being a Seafaring Man, is so detained and convicted, Three Fourths of such Value;

If One such Party, not being the whole of them, is detained and convicted, and the Vessel or Means of Conveyance is so seized and condemned, Three Fourths of such Value;

If One such Party, not being the whole of them, nor being a Seafaring Man, is so detained and convicted, Five Eighths of such Value;

If the Vessel or Means of Conveyance is seized and condemned without any Person being detained, One Third of such Value;

If all the Goods are seized, and all the Parties concerned as aforesaid are subsequently convicted in consequence of such Seizure and by the Execution of the Seizure, One Half of such Value;

If the Goods only are seized, One Eighth, or such other Part as the Commissioners of the Customs shall think proper, not exceeding One Fourth of such Value:

In the Case of Seizures of other Goods, not Silks:—

If the Vessel or other Means of Conveyance is so seized and condemned, or if any Person is prosecuted to Conviction on account of the same, One Half of the Produce, exclusive of the Duties;

If the Goods only, One Fourth of such Produce:

In the Case of damaged Tobacco, Snuff, or other Goods destroyed, such Reward as the Lords of the Treasury or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs may think proper to direct, not exceeding a Moiety of the Duty payable on such Goods in case the same had been sold for Home Consumption;

In the Case of Seizures of Salt Goods, the whole Value of such Goods, exclusive of the Duty thereon;

In the Case of Seizures of Vessels and Boats:—

If sold, a Moiety of the Produce;

If taken into the Public Service or broken up, a Moiety of the Value;

In the Case of Seizures of Cattle and Carriages:—

In all Cases, Three Fourths of the Produce of the Sale.

LXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Value of Spirits and Tobacco seized as aforesaid shall in all Cases be deemed and taken to be such as the Lords of the Treasury or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs may think fit to fix the same at per Gallon or per Pound Weight, for the Purpose of awarding the said Officer as aforesaid; and that all the before-mentioned Rewards shall be paid subject to a Deduction of Ten Pence per Cwt. on account of Law Charges and other Expenses.

LXIX. And be it further enacted, That every such Reward, or Part or Share of any such Seizure or of the Value thereof, as shall be payable to any Officer or Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, Petty Officers, Seamen, or Privates of His Majesty's Army, Navy, or Marines, or acting under the Orders of the Lord High Admiral or Commissioners of the Admiralty, shall be divided and distributed in such Proportions, and according to such Rules, Regulations, and Orders, as His Majesty shall, by His Order or Order in Council, or by His Royal Proclamation in that Behalf, be pleased to direct and appoint.

LXX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs or Excise respectively, and they are hereby authorized, in case of any Seizure of Vessels, Boats, or Goods, or of the Apprehension of any Person, under this or any other Act relating to the Customs, to direct the Distribution of the Seizure's Share of such Vessels, Boats, or Goods, or of any Penalties or Rewards that may be recovered on account of any Seizure, in such Manner as to enable any Officer or Officers or other Person or Persons through whose Information or Means such Seizure shall have been made, or Person recovered, or Party apprehended, and who may by them be deemed to be so entitled, to participate in such Proportions as the said Commissioners shall respectively deem expedient.

LXXI. And be it further enacted, That upon Proof being made to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs or Excise that any Officer or Officers or Person or Persons as aforesaid shall have acted collusively or negligently in the making of any Seizure, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to direct that the Whole or any Part of the Proportions of such Seizure be applied to the Use of His Majesty.

LXXII. And be it further enacted, That no Person or Persons whatsoever, being a Subject or Subjects of His Majesty, other than an Officer or Officers of the Navy, Customs, or Excise, or some Person or Persons authorized in that Behalf, shall intermeddle with or take up any Spirit, being in Casks of less Content than Forty Gallons, which may be found floating upon or sunk in the Sea within One hundred Leagues of the United Kingdom; and that if any Spirit shall be so intermeddled with or taken up, the same shall be forfeited, together with any Vessel or Boat in which they are found.

LXXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall discover any Spirit, being in Casks of less Content than Forty Gallons, which may be found floating upon or sunk in the Sea, and shall give Information to any Officer of the Customs, or other Person or Persons duly authorized to make Seizure of such Spirit, so that Seizure shall be made of the same, the Person or Persons giving such Information shall be entitled to and shall receive such Reward as the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs may deem it expedient to direct.

LXXIV. And be it further enacted, That for the necessary Subsistence of any poor Person confined in the United Kingdom or in the Isle of Man, under or by virtue of any Warrant or other Process for the Breach of any Duties or Penalties, either upon Bond or otherwise, under this or any other Act relating to the Customs or Excise, and for under or by virtue of any Order of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs or Excise, a stall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners respectively to cause an Allowance, not exceeding the Sum of Seven-pence Halfpenny and not less than Four-pence Halfpenny per Day, to be made to any such poor Person, out of any Money in their Hands arising from the Duties of Customs or Excise, as the Case may require.

LXXV. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures incurred or imposed by this or any other Act relating to the Customs, or to Trade or Navigation, shall and may be sued for, prosecuted, recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plea, or Information in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or at Balaio, or at Edinburg, or in the Royal Courts of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, in the Name of His Majesty's Attorney General, or of the Lord Advocate of Scotland, or in the Name or Names of some Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Customs, or by Information before any Two or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace in the United Kingdom, or before any Governor, Deputy Governor, or Deputee in the Isle of Man.

LXXVI. And be it further enacted, That all Vessels, Boats, and Goods which shall have been or shall be lawfully seized as forfeited under any Law relating to the Customs, and which shall have been or shall hereafter be ordered to be prosecuted by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, shall be deemed and be taken to be condemned, and may be sold in the Manner directed by Law in respect to Vessels, Boats, and Goods so seized and condemned by Breach of any Law relating to the Customs, either the Person from whom such Vessels, Boats, and Goods shall have been seized, or the Owner of them, or some Person authorized by him, shall, within One Calendar Month from the Day of seizing the same, give Notice in Writing, if in London to the Person seizing the same, or to the Secretary or Solicitor for the Customs, and if elsewhere to the Person among the same or to the Collector and Comptroller or other Chief Officer of the Customs at the nearest Port, that he claims the Vessel, Boat, or Goods, or intends to claim them.

LXXVII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Offence shall be committed upon the High Seas against this or any other Act relating to the Customs, or any Penalty or Forfeiture shall be incurred upon the High Seas for any Breach of such Act, such Offence shall, for the Purpose of Prosecution, be deemed and taken to have been committed, and such Penalties and Forfeitures to have been incurred, at the Place or Land in the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man into which the Person committing such Offence or incurring such Penalty or Forfeiture shall be taken, brought, or carried, or in which such Person shall be found; and in case such Place or Land is situated within any City, Borough, Liberty, Division, Franchise, or Town Corporate, as well any Justice of the Peace for such City, Borough, Liberty, Division, Franchise, or Town Corporate, as any Justice of the Peace of the County within which such City, Borough, Liberty, Division, Franchise, or Town Corporate is situated, shall have Jurisdiction to hear and determine all Cases of Offences against such Act so committed upon the High Seas, any Charter or Act of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that where any Offence shall be committed in any Place upon the Water not being within any County of the United Kingdom, or where any Doubt arises as to the same being within any County, such Offence shall, for the Purpose of this Act, be deemed and taken to be an Offence committed upon the High Seas.

LXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That upon the exhibiting any Information before any Justice of the Peace for any Offence against this or any Act relating to the Customs or to Trade or Navigation, for which Offence the Party charged is not liable to be detained in manner herein-before mentioned, such Justice is hereby required to issue a Summons for the Appearance of the Party against whom such Information is exhibited before Two Justices of the Peace; and such Summons, directed to such Party, being left either at his or her last known Place of Residence or on board any Ship or Vessel to which such Party may belong, shall be deemed to have been sufficiently served.

LXXIX. And be it further enacted, That upon the Appearance or Default of any Party so summoned, it shall be lawful for any Two Justices of the Peace to proceed to the Examination of the Matter contained in such Information, and upon due Proof thereof, either upon the Confession of such Party or upon the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, to commit such Party to the Penalty or Penalties due for by such Information; and in case of Nonpayment thereof, such Justice, or One of them, or some other Justices or Justice of the Peace, are hereby authorized and required, by Warrant under Hand and Seal, to commit such Party to any of His Majesty's Goals within their or his Jurisdiction, there to remain until the Penalty or Penalties shall be paid.

LXXX. And be it further enacted, That such Warrant shall and may be executed in any Port of the United Kingdom.

LXXXI. And be it further enacted, That where any Party shall or may be convicted before any Two or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace as aforesaid in any Penalty or Penalties incurred as aforesaid, except as is herein-after provided, it shall and may be lawful for the said Justice, in Cases where upon Consideration of the Circumstances they shall deem it expedient so to do, to mitigate the Payment of the said Penalty or Penalties, so as the Sum to be paid by such Party be not less than One Fourth of the Amount of the Penalty in which such Party shall have been convicted.

LXXXII. And be it further enacted, That where any Person shall have been so committed by any Justice or Justice of the Peace to any Prison for Nonpayment of any Penalty less than One hundred Pounds the Gaoler or Keeper of such Prison is hereby authorized and required to discharge such Person at the End of Six Calendar Months from the Commencement of such Imprisonment.

LXXXIII. And be it further enacted and declared, That where any Party so convicted before Two Justices of the Peace shall be a married Woman, such Party shall be liable to be committed to Prison in manner herein-before mentioned, notwithstanding her Coverture.

LXXXIV. And be it further enacted, That when any Information shall have been exhibited before any Justice of the Peace for the Forfeiture of any Goods whatsoever seized under this or any Act relating to the Customs, it shall be lawful for the said Justice, and he is hereby authorized and required, to summon the Party to whom such Goods belonged, or from whom they were seized, to appear before any Two Justices of the Peace; and such Summons, directed to such Party, being left either at his or her last known Place of Residence or on board any Ship to which such Party may belong, shall be deemed to have been sufficiently served; and upon law, law, or their Appearance or Default, any Two Justices may proceed to the Examination of the Matter, and, upon due Proof that the said Goods are liable to Forfeiture under this or any Act relating to the Customs, may condemn the said Goods.

LXXXV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Two or more Justices of the Peace before whom any Person liable to be detained, and who shall have been detained, for any Offence against this or any other Act relating to the Customs, shall be brought, either on the Confession of such Person of such Offence, or on Proof thereof upon the Oaths of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, to commit such Person of any such Offence; and every such Person so convicted as aforesaid shall, immediately upon such Conviction, pay into the Hands of such Justice, for the Use of His Majesty, the Penalty of One Hundred Pounds, to be paid by such Person to the several Officers of which shall be so convicted as aforesaid; or in default thereof the said Justice shall and they are hereby respectively authorized and required, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to commit such Person so convicted as aforesaid, and making such Default as aforesaid, to any Gaol or Prison, there to remain until such Penalty shall be paid; provided that if the Person convicted of any such Offence or Offences shall be a Seafaring Man, and fit and able to serve His Majesty in His Naval Service, and shall not prove that he is not a Subject of His Majesty, it shall and may be lawful for any such Justice, and they are hereby required, in lieu of such Penalty, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to order any Officer of the Army, Navy, or Marine, duly employed for the Prevention of Smuggling, and on full Pay, or any Officer of Customs or Excise, to carry or convey, or cause to be carried or conveyed, such Person on board of any of His Majesty's Ships, in order to his serving His Majesty in His Naval Service for the Term of Five Years; and if such Person shall at any Time within that Period by any Means escape or desert from such Custody or Service respectively, he shall be liable at any Time or Times afterwards to be again arrested and detained by any Officer of the Customs, or any other Person, and delivered over as aforesaid to complete his Service of Five Years; provided also, that if it shall be made to appear to any such Justice that convenient Arrangement cannot be made at the Time of the Conviction of the said Party for immediately carrying or conveying such Seafaring Man so convicted as aforesaid on board any of His Majesty's Ships, in order to serve His Majesty, it shall and may be lawful for any such Justice to commit any such Seafaring Man so convicted as aforesaid to any Prison or Gaol, there to remain in safe Custody for any Period not exceeding One Month, in order that Time may be given to make Arrangements for so conveying such Seafaring Man on board any of His Majesty's Ships as aforesaid; provided also, that the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, shall have full Power and Authority to treat or mitigate any such Penalty, Forfeiture, or Service as aforesaid, whether the Parties shall be Seafaring Men or otherwise.

LXXXV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall be proceeded against under this or any other Act relating to the Customs or Excise, and the Information exhibited against such Person shall charge him as being a Seafaring Man, and fit and able to serve His Majesty in His Naval Service, and it shall appear to the Justice before whom such Person is brought that he is guilty of the Offence with which he is charged, but that he is not fit for His Majesty's Naval Service, that then and in such Case it shall be lawful for such Justice, and they are hereby required, to amend such Information accordingly, and to commit such Person in the Penalty of One hundred Pounds, as if proceeded against as being a Seafaring Man or fit for His Majesty's Naval Service.

LXXXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person so convicted as a Seafaring Man, and carried on board any of His Majesty's Ships of War, shall on Examination by any Surgeon or Surgeons of His Majesty's Navy, within One Month after being so carried on board, be deemed to be unfit, and shall be refused so that Account to be received into His Majesty's Service, such Person shall, as soon as convenient, be conveyed before any Justice of the Peace, and upon Proof that he has been refused to be received on board any of His Majesty's Ships as unfit for His Majesty's Service, such Justice shall and he is hereby authorized and required to call upon the said Person to pay the Penalty of One hundred Pounds, without hearing any Evidence other than such Proof as last aforesaid; and in default of immediate Payment of the same into the Hands of the said Justice, for the Use of His Majesty, to commit the said Person to any Gaol or Prison, there to remain until such Penalty shall be paid: Provided always, that no Person so convicted as aforesaid, and ordered to serve on board any of His Majesty's Ships, shall be sent away from the United Kingdom on board of any such Ship in a less Time than One Month from the Date of such Conviction.

LXXXVII. And be it further enacted, That where any Offence against this or any other Act relating to the Customs shall be committed in any City, Borough, Liberty, Division, Franchise, or Town Corporate, as well as any Justice of the said City, Borough, Liberty, Division, Franchise, or Town Corporate, as any Justice of any County in which such City, Borough, Liberty, Division, Franchise, or Town Corporate is situated, shall have Jurisdiction to hear and determine upon the same.

LXXXIX. And be it further enacted, That where the Attendance of Two Magistrates having Jurisdiction in the County where the Offence is committed cannot be conveniently obtained, it shall be lawful for a Magistrate of any adjoining County, with One Magistrate of the County in which the Offence was committed, to hear and determine any Information exhibited before them, and to have the same Powers and Authorities in all respects, as if any Proceeding had under this or any other Act relating to the Customs, as if they were both Magistrates for the County in which the Offence was committed.

XI. And be it further enacted, That no Writ of Certiorari shall issue from His Majesty's Court of King's Bench to remove any Proceedings before any Justice or Justice of the Peace under any Act for the Prevention of Smuggling or relating to the Customs, nor shall any Writ of Habeas Corpus issue to bring up the Body of any Person who shall have been convicted before any Justice or Justice of the Peace under any such Act, unless the Party against whom such Proceeding shall have been directed, or who shall have been so convicted, or his Attorney or Agent, shall state in an Affidavit in Writing, to be duly sworn, the Grounds of Objection to such Proceedings or Conviction, and that upon the Return to such Writ of Certiorari or Habeas Corpus an Objection shall be taken or considered other than such as shall have been stated in such Affidavit; and that it shall be lawful for any Justice or Justice of the Peace, and they are hereby required, to amend any Information, Conviction, or Warrant of Commitment for any Offence under any such Act at any Time, whether before or after Conviction.

XCI. And be it further enacted, That all Informations before Justices of the Peace for any Offences committed against this or any other Act relating to the Customs, and all Commissions for such Offences, and Warrants of Justices of the Peace founded upon such Commissions, shall be drawn respectively in the Form or to the Effect in the Schedule to this Act annexed.

XCII. Provided always, and be it declared and enacted, That every Information for any Penalty or Forfeiture, and every Citation or Warrant of Commitment for any Penalty, shall be deemed valid and sufficient in which the Offence for which such Penalty shall have been inflicted, or the Cause of such Forfeiture, is set forth in the Words of this Act.

XCIII. And be it further enacted, That all the Powers vested in any Justices or Justice of the Peace by virtue of this Act shall be and the same are hereby vested in and may be exercised, in the Isle of Man, by any Governor, Deputy Governor, or Deemster of the Isle of Man, so far as regards Offences committed against or Penalties or Forfeitures incurred by this or any other Act relating to the Customs.

XCIV. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures which may be recovered before any Justices of the Peace under this or any other Act relating to the Customs or Excise, or any Proceedings by Order of the Commissioners of Customs, shall be paid to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, and on any Prosecution by Order of the Commissioners of Excise shall be paid to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Excise, or to the Person appointed by them respectively to receive the same; and such Penalties and Forfeitures shall be applied by the said Commissioners respectively in such Manner as the Law directs, anything contained in an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, intitled An Act for the more effectual Administration of the Office of a Justice of the Peace in and near the Metropolis, and for the more effectual Prevention of Depredations on the River Thames and its Tributaries, for seven Years, or any other Act now in force or hereafter to be made, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

XCV. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Penalty shall be used for as aforesaid by Information against any Person in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or at Dublin, or at Edinburgh, a Copy may thereupon issue in the first Process, specifying the Amount of the Penalty due and for what Person against whom such Copy shall issue shall be obliged to give sufficient Bail or Security, by natural-born Subjects or Deemsters, to the Person or Persons to whom such Copy shall be directed, to appear in the Court out of which such Copy shall issue at the Day of the Return of such Writ, to answer such Suit and Prosecution, and shall likewise at the Time of such appearing give sufficient Bail or Security, by such Persons as aforesaid, in the said Court, to answer and pay all the Forfeitures and Penalties incurred for such Offences or Offences in case he, she, or they shall be convicted thereof, or to yield his, her, or their Body or Bodies to Prison.

XCVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person against whom a Copy shall issue out of any of His Majesty's Courts of Record as aforesaid shall be convicted upon such Copy, and taken to Prison for Want of sufficient Bail, a Copy of the Information exhibited against such Person shall be served upon him or her in Goal, or delivered to the Gaoler, Keeper, or Tolerary of the Prison in which such Person shall be confined; and if such Person shall neglect or refuse to appear or plead to the said Information for the Space of Twenty Days, Judgment shall be entered by Default; and in case Judgment shall be obtained against any such Person or Persons by Default, Verdict, or otherwise, and such Person or Persons shall not pay the Sum recovered against him, her, or them for his, her, or their Offence, Execution shall be thereupon arrested and issued, not only against the Body or Bodies of the Person or Persons so in Prison as aforesaid, but against all the Real and Personal Estates of such Person or Persons, for such Sum or Sums of Money as so aforesaid recovered against him, her, or them.

XCVII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Person arrested and imprisoned by virtue of any Writ of Capias as aforesaid shall make Affidavit before the Judge or Judges of the Court where the Information shall be brought, or before any other Person authorised to take Affidavits in such Court, that he or she is not worth, over and above his or her Wearing Apparel, the Sum of Five Pounds, (which said Affidavit the said Judge or Judges of such Court, and such Person so commissioned, is and are hereby authorized and required so to take,) and such Person shall thereupon petition such Court to defend himself or herself against such Informations in form process, that then the Judge or Judges of such Court shall, according to their Discretion, admit such Person to defend himself or himself against such Information in the same Manner and with the same Privileges as the Judges of such Court are by Law directed and authorized to admit poor Subjects to commence Actions for the Recovery of their Rights; and for this End and Purpose it shall be lawful for the Judges of such Courts to assign Counsel learned in the Law, and to appoint an Attorney and Clerk of such Court, to advise and carry on any legal Defence that such Person can make against such Action or Information, and which said Counsel, Attorney, and Clerk, so assigned and appointed, is and are hereby required to give his and their Advice and Assistance to such Person, and to do their Duties, without Fee or Reward.

XCVIII. And be it further enacted, That where any Writ of Capias or other Process shall issue out of any Court, directed to any Sheriff, Mayor, Bailiff, or other Person having the Execution of Process in any County, City, or Liberty, against any Person who shall be guilty of any Offence whatsoever against this or any Act relating to the Customs, every such Sheriff, Mayor, or Bailiff, and other Person having Execution of Process as aforesaid, and their and every of them Under Sheriff, Deputee, and other Persons acting for them in the said Office and Offices respectively, shall and are hereby required and required, upon the Request or Application of the Solicitor for the Customs, (such Request to be in Writing, and indorsed upon the Back of the said Process, and signed by such Solicitor, with his Name, and and Addition of Solicitor for the Customs,) to grant a special Warrant or Warrants, to such Person or Persons as shall be named in them by such Solicitor, for the apprehending such Offender or Offenders; or in default thereof every such Sheriff, Mayor, Bailiff, Under Sheriff, and other Person acting in the said Office or Offices respectively shall be subject and liable to such Process of Contempt, Fine, Amercement, Imprisonment, and Forfeiture as they or any of them are now by any Law, Custom, or Usage liable to in case of refusing or neglecting to execute the like Process where the Defendant might have been taken thereupon in the common and usual Method of proceeding.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That all and every such Sheriff, Mayor, Bailiff, Under Sheriff, and other Person so granting or making out such special Warrant as aforesaid, shall be and they are hereby sworn harmless and indemnified against His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and against all and every other Person or Persons whatsoever, if and from all Exceptions of any Person or Persons who shall or may be taken by virtue of any such Warrant as aforesaid, which shall or may happen from the Time of making such Offender or Offenders till he, she, or they shall be committed to the proper Gaol or Prison, or offered and tendered to the Gaol-keeper or other Person having Charge of such Gaol or Prison, (who is hereby enjoined and required to receive every such Person or Persons so apprehended as aforesaid, and give a Receipt for his, her, or their Body or Bodies,) and of and from all Actions, Prosecutions, Process of Contempt, and other Proceedings for or by reason of such Escape, any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

C. And be it further enacted, That no Claim shall be permitted to be entered in, and no Appearance shall be permitted to be entered in, any Information filed for the Forfeiture of any Vessel, Boat, or Goods seized for any Cause of Forfeiture, and returned into any of His Majesty's Courts of Record in the United Kingdom, unless such Claim or Appearance is entered in the true and real Name or Names of the Owner or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors, of such Vessel, Boat, or Goods, describing the Place of Residence and the Business or Profession of such Person or Persons; and if such Person or Persons shall reside at London, Edinburgh, or Dublin, or within the Liberties thereof, Oath shall be made by him, her, or them before One of the Judges of the Court into which the said Vessel, Boat, or Goods are returned, or in which such Information is filed, that the said Vessel, Boat, or Goods was or were really and truly the Property of him, her, or them at the Time of such Seizure; but if such Person or Persons shall not be resident in London, Edinburgh, or Dublin, or the Liberties thereof, then and in such Case Oath shall be made in like Manner by the Agent or Attorney or Solicitor by whom such Claim or Appearance shall be entered, that he has full Power and legal Authority and Directions from such Owner or Proprietor to enter such Claim or Appearance, and that to the best of his Knowledge and Belief such Vessel, Boat, or Goods were, at the Time of the Seizure thereof, bona fide and truly the real Property of the Person or Persons in whose Name or Names such Claim or Appearance is entered; and on Failure thereof, the Vessel, Boat, or Goods shall be absolutely condemned, and Judgment shall be entered thereon by Default, according to the usual Method of Proceedings of the Court, in the same Manner as if no Claim or Appearance had been entered thereon; and every Person who shall be convicted of making or taking a false Oath to any of the Facts herein-before directed or required to be sworn shall be deemed guilty of Perjury, and shall be liable to the Fine and Imprisonment to which Persons are liable for wilful and corrupt Perjury.

CI. And be it further enacted, That upon the Entry of any Claim to any Boat or Vessel, or to any Goods, seized for any Cause of Forfeiture, or of any Appearance in any Information filed for such Forfeiture, the Person or Persons who shall enter the Claim or Appearance to the Owner or Proprietor thereof (in case such Claimant shall reside in the United Kingdom) shall be bound, with Two other sufficient Sureties, in the Penalty of One hundred Pounds, to answer and pay the Costs occasioned by such Claim or Appearance; and if such Owner or Proprietor shall not reside in the United Kingdom, then and in such Case the Attorney or Solicitor by whose Direction such Claim or Appearance shall be entered shall in like Manner be bound, with Two other sufficient Sureties, in the like Penalty, to answer and pay the Costs occasioned by such Claim or Appearance.

CI. And be it further enacted, That in case any Information or Suit shall be commenced or brought to Trial on account of the Seizure of any Vessel, Boat, or Goods, Merchandise, or Commodities whatsoever, or any Horses or other Animals, or any Carriage, seized as forfeited by this or any Act relating to the Customs, wherein a Verdict shall be found for the Claimant thereof, and it shall appear to the Judge or Court before whom the same shall have been tried that there was a probable Cause of Seizure, such Judge or Court shall certify in the Record that there was such probable Cause, and in such Case the Person who made such Seizure shall not be liable to any Action, Indemnity, or other Suit or Prosecution on account of such Seizure; and in case any Action, Indemnity, or other Suit or Prosecution shall be commenced and brought to Trial against any Person or Persons whatsoever on account of any such Seizure as aforesaid, wherein a Verdict shall be given against the Defendant or Defendants, if the Court or Judge before whom such Information or Suit shall have been tried shall have certified in the said Record that there was a probable Cause for such Seizure, then the Plaintiff, besides the Things demanded, or the Value thereof, shall not be entitled to receive Two-pence Damages, nor to any Costs of Suit, nor shall the Defendant in such Prosecution be fined above One Shilling.

CI. And be it further enacted, That no Writ shall be sued out against, nor a Copy of any Process served upon any Officer of the Army, Navy, Marines, Customs, or Excise, or against any Person acting under the Direction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, for any thing done in the Execution of or by reason of his Office, until One Calendar Month next after Notice in Writing shall have been delivered to him at left at his usual Place of Abode, by the Attorney or Agent for the Party who intends to sue out such Writ or Process as aforesaid, in which Notice shall be clearly and explicitly contained the Cause of Action, the Name and Place of Abode of the Person who is to bring such Action, and the Name and Place of Abode of the Attorney or Agent; and that a Fee of Twenty Shillings shall be paid for the preparing or serving of every such Notice, and no more.

CIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Plaintiff in any Cause where an Action shall be grounded on any such Act done by the Defendant shall be permitted to produce any Evidence of the Cause of such Action, except such as shall be contained in the Notice to be given as aforesaid, or shall receive any Verdict against such Officer or Person, unless he shall prove on the Trial of such Action that such Notice was given, and in default of such Proof, the Defendant in such Action shall receive a Verdict and Costs as aforesaid.

CV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any such Officer or other Person to whom such Notice shall have been given as aforesaid, at any Time within One Calendar Month after such Notice shall have been given, to tender Amends to the Party complaining, or to his, her, or their Agent or Attorney, and in case the same is not accepted or plead such Tender is bar to any Action to be brought against him grounded on such Writ or Process, together with the Fine of Not Guilty, and other Pleas, with Leave of the Court; and if, upon Issue joined thereon, the Jury shall find the Amends as tendered to have been sufficient, that then they shall give a Verdict for the Defendant; and in such Case, or in case the Plaintiff shall become assessed, or default his, her, or their Action, or in case Judgment shall be given for such Defendant upon Demurrer, then such Defendant shall be entitled to the like Costs as he would have been entitled to in case he had pleaded the General Issue only: but if, upon Issue joined, the Jury shall find that no Amends were tendered, or that the same were not sufficient, or shall find against the Defendant in such other Plea or Pleas, then they shall give a Verdict for the Plaintiff, and such Damages as they shall think proper, together with his, her, or their Costs of Suit.

Neglecting to tender Amends, may pay Money into Court.

CVI. And be it further enacted, That in case such Officer or other Person as aforesaid shall neglect to tender any Amends, or shall have tendered insufficient Amends, before the Action brought, it shall and may be lawful for him, by Leave of the Court where such Action shall be brought, at any Time before the Trial of the said Action, to pay into Court such Sum of Money as he shall see fit, whereupon such Proceedings, Orders, and Judgments shall be had, made, and given in and by such Court as in other Actions where the Defendant is allowed to pay Money into Court.

Action to be commenced within Six Months next after Cause of Action has arisen.

CVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit shall be brought or commenced as aforesaid, such Action or Suit shall be brought or commenced within Six Months next after the Cause of Action shall have arisen, and not afterwards, and shall be laid and tried in the County or Place where the Facts were committed, and not in any other County or Place, and the Defendant or Defendants shall and may plead the General Issue, and give the special Matter in Evidence, at any Trial had thereupon; and if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become assessed, or default his, her, or their Action or Suit, or if, upon a Verdict or Demurrer, Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall or may receive Treble Costs, and have such Remedy for the same as any Defendant or Defendants can or may have in other Cases where Costs are given by Law.

Judges of the King's Bench may issue Warrants for apprehending Offenders prosecuted by Indictment or Informations.

CVIII. And be it further enacted, That wherever any Person shall be charged with any Offence against this or any Act relating to the Customs, or for which he or she may be prosecuted by Indictment or Information in His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, and the same shall be made appear to any Judge of the same Court, by Affidavit or by Certificate of an Information or Indictment being filed against such Person in the said Court for such Offence, it shall and may be lawful for such Judge to issue his Warrant under his Hand and Seal, and thereby to cause such Person to be apprehended, and brought before him or some other Judge of the same Court, or before some one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, in order to his or her being bound to the King's Majesty, with Two sufficient Sureties, in such Sum as in the said Warrant shall be expressed, with Condition to appear in the said Court at the Time mentioned in such Warrant, and to answer to all and singular Indictments or Informations for any such Offence; and in case any such Person shall neglect or refuse to become bound as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for such Judge or Justice respectively to commit such Person to the Common Gaol of the County, City, or Place where the Offence shall have been committed, or where he or she shall have been apprehended, there to remain until he or she shall become bound as aforesaid, or shall be discharged by Order of the Court in Term Time, or of One of the Judges of the said Court in Vacation; and the Recognizance to be thereupon taken shall be returned and filed in the said Court, and shall continue in force until such Person shall have been acquitted of such Offence, or in Case of Conviction shall have received Judgment for the same, unless sooner ordered by the Court to be discharged, and that where any Person, either by virtue of such Warrant of Commitment aforesaid, or by virtue of any Writ of Capias ad respondentiam issued out of the said Court, a new detained or shall hereafter be committed to and detained in any Gaol for Want of Bail, it shall be lawful for the Prosecutor of such Indictment or Information to cause a Copy thereof to be delivered to such Person, or to the Gaoler, Keeper, or Turnkey of the Gaol wherein such Person is or shall be so detained, with a Notice therein indorsed, that unless such Person shall, within Eight Days from the Time of such Delivery of a Copy of the Indictment or Information as aforesaid, cause an Appearance and also a Plea or Demurrer to be entered in the said Court to such Indictment or Information, as Appearance and the Plea of Not Guilty will be entered thereto in the Name of such Person; and in case he or she shall thereafter, for the Space of Eight Days after the Delivery of a Copy of such Indictment or Information as aforesaid, Neglecting to give Bail, may be committed to Gaol.

Indictment or Informations may be served by the Gaoler, and if Offender neglect to appear, &c., the Prisoner may enter Plea of Not Guilty.

neglect to cause an Appearance and also a Plea of Demurrer to be entered in the said Court to such Indictment or Information, it shall be lawful for the Prosecutor of such Indictment or Information, upon Affidavit being made and filed in the Court of the Delivery of a Copy of such Indictment or Information, with such Notice indorsed thereon as aforesaid, to such Person, or to such Justice, Keeper, Turnkey, or in the Case may be, which Affidavit may be made before any Judge or Commissioner of the said Court authorized to take Affidavits in the said Court, to cause an Appearance and the Plea of Not Guilty to be entered in the said Court to such Indictment or Information, for such Person; and such Proceedings shall be had thereupon as if the Defendant in such Indictment or Information appeared and pleaded Not Guilty, according to the usual Course of the said Court; and that if upon Trial of such Indictment or Information any Defendant so committed and detained as aforesaid shall be acquitted of all the Offences therein charged upon him or her, it shall be lawful for the Judge before whom such Trial shall be had, although he may not be one of the Judges of the said Court of King's Bench, to order that such Defendant shall be forthwith discharged out of Custody as to his or her Commitment as aforesaid, and such Defendant shall be thereupon discharged accordingly.

CIX. And be it further enacted, That where any Person shall be arrested by virtue of a Warrant issued as aforesaid, and shall enter into a Recognizance, and appear in the said Court at the Return of the said Recognizance, but shall not afterwards plead to the Information or Indictment, it shall and may be lawful for the Prosecutor of such Information or Indictment to cause a Copy thereof to be delivered to such Person, or to his or her Attorney or Agent, or to be left in his or her last Place of Abode, with a Notice thereon indorsed, that unless such Person shall, within Eight Days from the Time of such Delivery of a Copy of the Information or Indictment as aforesaid, cause a Plea to be entered in the said Court to such Information or Indictment, that the Prosecutor of such Information or Indictment will enter a Plea of Not Guilty on his or her Behalf; and that upon Affidavit being made and filed in the Court of the Delivery of a Copy of such Information or Indictment, with such Notice indorsed thereon, as aforesaid, to such Person, or to his or her Attorney or Agent, or at his or her last Place of Abode, as the Case may be, it shall be lawful for the Prosecutor of such Information or Indictment to cause the Plea of Not Guilty to be entered in the said Court to such Information or Indictment for such Person, and such Proceedings shall be had thereupon as if the Defendant in such Information or Indictment had pleaded accordingly to the usual Course of the said Court.

CX. And for the Purpose of enabling the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, and their Successors, to ascertain and collect the Amount of the Duties payable to them upon the several Articles hereinafter mentioned, imported Consignee into the Port of London; be it enacted, That if all or any of the Goods of the Description hereinafter mentioned, (that is to say) Firkins of Butter, Tons of Cheese, Fish, Eggs, Salt, Fruit, Hops, stables, and Oysters, brought Consignee into the Port of the said City, and which are liable to the said Duties, shall be landed or unshipped at or in the said Port before a proper Certificate of the Payment of the said Duties shall have been obtained, such Goods shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of His Majesty's Customs empowered to seize any Goods landed without due Entry thereof; and such Forfeiture may be sued for, prosecuted, and recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plea, or Information in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, in the Name of the Chamberlains of the said City, on Behalf of the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens.

CXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall be arrested by a Writ of Capias ad respondendum issuing out of any of His Majesty's Courts of Record, or out of any of the Superior Courts of Record of either of the Counties Palatine, at the Suit of the King's Majesty, His Heirs, and Successors, and the Sheriff or other Officer shall take Bail from such Person, the Sheriff or other Officer, or the Requester and Costs of the Prosecutor, shall assign to the King's Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, the Bail Bond taken from such Person by indorsing the same, and attesting it under his Hand and Seal, in the Presence of Two or more credible Witnesses, which may be done without any Stamp, provided the Assignment so indorsed be duly stamped before any Suit be commenced thereupon, and if such Bail Bond be forfeited, such Process shall thereupon issue as on Bonds originally made to the King's Majesty, His Heirs and Successors; and the Court in which such Bail Bond is put in Suit may, by Rule or Order of the same Court, give such Relief to the Defendant or Defendants as is agreeable to Justice and Reason.

CXII. And be it further enacted, That no Indictment shall be preferred or Suit commenced for the Recovery of any Penalty, or Forfeiture under this or any other Act relating to the Customs or Excise (except in the Cases of Persons detained and carried before One or more Justices in pursuance of this Act) unless such Suit shall be commenced in the Name of His Majesty's Attorney General, or in the Name of the Lord Advocate of Scotland, or unless such Indictment shall be preferred under the Direction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs or Excise, or unless such Suit shall be commenced in the Name of some Officer of Customs or Excise, under the Direction of the said Commissioners respectively.

CXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Prosecution whatever shall be commenced for the Recovery of any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture incurred under this or any other Act relating to the Customs or Excise, it shall be lawful for His Majesty's Attorney General, or for the Lord Advocate of Scotland, if it be satisfied that such Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture was recovered without any Intention of Fraud, or that it is inexpedient to proceed in the said Prosecution, to stop all further Proceedings by entering a Nolle prosequi, or otherwise, on such Information, as well with respect to the Share of such Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture to which any Officer or Officers may be entitled, as to the King's Share thereof.

CXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Goods shall be seized for Nonpayment of Duties, or any other Cause of Forfeiture, and any Disputa shall arise whether the Customs, Excise, or Inland Duties have been paid for the same, or the same have been lawfully imported, or concerning the Place from whence such Goods were brought, then and in such Case the Proof thereof shall be on the Owner or Claimer of such Goods, and not on the Officer who shall seize and stop the same.

CXV. And be it further enacted, That no Justice of the Peace, who is a Collector or Comptroller, or otherwise concerned with the Collection of the Customs or Excise, shall take Cognizance of any Matter relating to the summary Conviction of Persons offending against this or any other Act relating to the Customs.

CXVI. And be it further enacted, That in case of any Information or Proceedings had under this or any other Act relating to the Customs, the Arrestment that the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs or Excise have directed or allowed such Information or Proceedings to be instituted, or that any Vessel is Foreign, or belonging wholly or in part to His Majesty's Subjects, or that any Person detained or seized on board any Vessel or Boat liable to Seizure is or is not a Subject of His Majesty, or that any Person detained is or is not a Seafaring Man, or fit and able to serve His Majesty in His Naval Service, or that any Person is an Officer of the Customs, and where the Offence is committed in any Port in the United Kingdom, the naming of such Port in any Information or Proceeding, shall be sufficient, without Proof as to such Fact or Facts, unless the Defectum in such Case shall prove to the contrary.

CXVII. And be it further enacted, That all Persons employed for the Prevention of Smuggling under the Direction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, or of any Officer or Officers in the Service of the Customs, shall be deemed and taken to be duly employed for the Prevention of Smuggling; and the Arrestment, in any Information or Suit, that such Party was so duly employed shall be sufficient Proof thereof, unless the Defendant in such Information or Suit shall prove to the contrary.

CXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if upon any Trial a Question shall arise whether any Person is an Officer of the Army, Navy, or Marines, being duly employed for the Prevention of Smuggling, and on Full Pay, or an Officer of Customs or Excise, Evidence of his having acted as such shall be deemed sufficient, and such Person shall not be required to produce his Commission or Deposition, unless sufficient Proof shall be given to the contrary; and every such Officer, and any Person acting in his Aid or Assistance, shall be deemed a competent Witness upon the Trial of any Suit or Information on account of any Seizure or Forfeiture as aforesaid, notwithstanding such Officer or other Person may be entitled to the Whole or any Part of such Seizure or Penalty, or to any Reward upon the Conviction of the Party charged in such Suit or Information.

CXIX. And be it further enacted, That upon the Trial of any Issue, or upon any Judicial Hearing or Investigation touching any Penalty or Forfeiture under any Law or Laws relating to the Customs or Excise, or to the Law of Navigation, where it may be necessary to give Proof of any Order issued by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs or Excise respectively, the Letter or Instructions which shall have been officially received by the Officer of Customs or Excise at the Place or District where such Penalty or Forfeiture shall have been incurred, or shall be alleged to have been incurred, for his Government, and in which such Order is mentioned or referred to, and under which said Instructions he shall have acted as such Officer, shall be admitted and taken as sufficient Evidence and Proof of such Order to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

CXX. And be it further enacted, That all Suits, Indictments, or Informations exhibited for any Offence against this or any other Act relating to the Customs in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in Dublin, or in Edinburgh, or in the Royal Courts of Chancery, Exchequer, Admiralty, Fleet, or Mars, shall and may be had, brought, moved, or exhibited within Three Years next after the Date of the Offence committed, and shall and may be exhibited before any One or more Justices of the Peace within Six Months next after the Date of the Offence committed.

CXXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where any Person shall have been detained for any Offence against this or any other Act relating to the Customs, and shall have made his Escape from Custody, an Information may be exhibited before One or more Justices of the Peace against such Person, for such Offence, at any Time afterwards, although more than Six Months shall have expired.

CXXII. And be it further enacted, That any Indictment or Information for any Offence against this or any other Act relating to the Customs shall and may be inquired of, returned, tried, and determined in any County of England where the Offence is committed in England, and in any County in Scotland where the Offence is committed in Scotland, and in any County in Ireland where the Offence is committed in Ireland, in such Manner and Form as if the Offence had been committed in the said County where the said Indictment or Information shall be tried.

CXXIII. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, varied, or repealed by any Act to be passed in the present Session of Parliament.

CAP. LIV.

An Act for the Encouragement of British Shipping and Navigation. [20th August 1833.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Sixth Year of the Reiga of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled An Act for the Encouragement of British Shipping and Navigation, whereby the Laws for the Encouragement of British Shipping and Navigation were consolidated and amended;
 And whereas since the passing of the said Act divers Acts for the further Amendment of the Law have been found necessary, and it will be of advantage to the Trade and Commerce of the Country that the said Acts should be consolidated into one Act: he it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in the present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That this Act shall commence upon the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, except where any other Commencement is herein particularly directed.

II. And be it further enacted, That the several Sorts of Goods herein-after enumerated, being the Produce of Europe; (that is to say,) Masts, Timber, Boards, Tar, Tallow, Hemp, Flax, Currants, Raisins, Figs, Peaches, Olive Oil, Corn or Grain, Wine, Beards, Tobacco, Wood, Shinar, Madlers, Madler Roots, Barilla, Brimstone, Bark of Oak, Cork, Oranges, Lemons, Linseed, Rape Seed, and Clover Seed, shall not be imported into the United Kingdom to be used therein, except in British Ships, or in Ships of the Country of which the Goods are the Produce, or in Ships of the Country from which the Goods are imported.

III. And be it further enacted, That Goods the Produce of Asia, Africa, or America, shall not be imported from Europe into the United Kingdom, to be used therein, except the Goods herein-after mentioned; (that is to say,)

Goods, the Produce of the Dominions of the Emperor of Morocco, which may be imported from Places in Europe within the Straits of Gibraltar;

Goods, the Produce of Asia or Africa, which (having been brought into Places in Europe within the Straits of Gibraltar, from or through Places in Asia or Africa within those Straits, and not by Way of the Atlantic Ocean) may be imported from Places in Europe within the Straits of Gibraltar; Goods, the Produce of Places within the Limits of the East India Company's Charter, which (having been imported from those Places into Gibraltar or Malta in British Ships) may be imported from Gibraltar or Malta;

Goods taken by way of Reprizal by British Ships:

Balbas, Diamonds, Pearls, Rubies, Emeralds, and other Jewels or precious Stones.

IV. And be it further enacted, That Goods, the Produce of Asia, Africa, or America, shall not be imported into the United Kingdom, to be used therein, in Foreign Ships, unless they be the Ships of the Country in Asia, Africa, or America, of which the Goods are the Produce, and from which they are imported, except the Goods herein-after mentioned. (that is to say,)

Goods, the Produce of the Dominions of the Grand Seignior, in Asia or Africa, which may be imported from his Dominions in Europe, in Ships of his Dominions;

Raw Silk and Mohair Yarn, the Produce of Asia, which may be imported from the Dominions of the Grand Seignior in the Levant Seas, in Ships of his Dominions; Balbas.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all manufactured Goods shall be deemed to be the Produce of the Country of which they are the Manufacture.

VI. And be it further enacted, That no Goods shall be imported into the United Kingdom from the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, except in British Ships.

VII. And be it further enacted, That no Goods shall be exported from the United Kingdom to any British Island, unless by the University of Southampton Library Digitisation Project.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That no Goods shall be carried Coastwise from one Part of the United Kingdom to another, except in British Ships.

IX. And be it further enacted, That no Goods shall be carried from any of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, to any other of such Islands, nor from one Part of any of such Islands to another Part of the same Island, except in British Ships.

X. And be it further enacted, That no Goods shall be carried from any British Possession in Asia, Africa, or America, to any other of such Possessions, nor from one Part of any of such Possessions to another Part of the same, except in British Ships.

XI. And be it further enacted, That no Goods shall be imported into any British Possession in Asia, Africa, or America, in any Foreign Ships, unless they be Ships of the Country of which the Goods are the Produce, and from which the Goods are imported.

XII. And be it further enacted, That no Ship shall be admitted to be a British Ship unless duly registered and navigated as such; and that every British registered Ship (so long as the Registry of such Ship shall be in force, or the Certificate of such Registry retained for the Use of such Ship) shall be navigated during the Whole of every Voyage (whether with a Cargo or in Ballast), in every Part of the World by a Master who is a British Subject, and by a Crew, whereof Three Fourths at least are British Seamen; and if such Ship be employed in a coasting Voyage from one Part of the United Kingdom to another, or in a Voyage between the United Kingdom and the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, or from one of the said Islands to another of them, or from one Part of either of them to another of the same, or be employed in fishing on the Coasts of the United Kingdom or of any of the said Islands, then the Whole of the Crew shall be British Seamen.

XIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all British-built Boats or Vessels under Fifteen Tons Burthen, wholly owned and navigated by British Subjects, although not registered as British Ships, shall be admitted to be British Vessels, in all Navigation in the Rivers and upon the Coasts of the United Kingdom, or of the British Possessions Abroad, and not proceeding over Sea, except within the Limits of the respective Colonial Governments within which the managing Owners of such Vessels respectively reside; and that all British-built Boats or Vessels wholly owned and navigated by British Subjects, not exceeding the Burthen of Twenty Tons, and not having a Wheel or a Board Deck, and being employed solely in fishing on the Banks and Shores of Newfoundland, and of the Parts adjacent, or on the Banks and Shores of the Provinces of Canada, Nova Scotia, or New Brunswick, adjacent to the Gulf of Saint Lawrence, or on the North of Cape Canso, or of the Islands within the same, or in trading Coastwise within the said Limits, shall be admitted to be British Boats or Vessels, although not registered, so long as such Boats or Vessels shall be solely so employed.

XIV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That all Ships built in the British Settlements at Honduras, and owned and navigated as British Ships, shall be entitled to the Privileges of British registered Ships in all direct Trade between the United Kingdom or the British Possessions in America and the said Settlements; provided the Master shall produce a Certificate under the Hand of the Superintendent of those Settlements, that satisfactory Proof has been made before him that such Ship (describing the same) was built in the said Settlements, and is wholly owned by British Subjects; provided also, that the Time of the Clearance of such Ship from the said Settlements for every Voyage shall be endorsed upon such Certificate by such Superintendent.

XV. And be it further enacted, That no Ship shall be admitted to be a Ship of any particular Country, unless she be of the Built of such Country; or have been made Prize of War to such Country; or have been forfeited to such Country under any Law of the same, made for the Prevention of the Slave Trade, and condemned as such Prize or Forfeiture by a competent Court of such Country; or be British Built (not having been a Prize of War from British Subjects to any other Foreign Country); nor unless she be navigated by a Master who is a Subject of such Foreign Country, and by a Crew of whom Three Fourths at least are Subjects of such Country, nor unless she be wholly owned by Subjects of such Country usually residing therein, or under the Dominion thereof: Provided always, that the Country of every Ship shall be deemed to include all Places which are under the same Dominion as the Place in which such Ship belongs.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That no Person shall be qualified to be a Master of a British Ship, or to be a British Seaman within the Meaning of the Act, except the natural-born Subjects of His Majesty, or Persons naturalized by any Act of Parliament, or made Denizens by Letters of Denization, or except Persons who have become British Subjects by virtue of Conquest or Cession of some newly acquired Country, and who shall have taken the Oath of Allegiance to His Majesty, or the Oath of Fidelity required by the Treaty or Capitulation by which such newly acquired Country came into His Majesty's Possession; or Persons who shall have served on board any of His Majesty's Ships of War in Time of War for the Space of Three Years: Provided always, that the Names of Places within the Limits of the East India Company's Charter, although under British Dominion, shall not, upon the Ground of being such Natives, be deemed to be British Seamen: Provided always, that every Ship (except Ships required to be wholly navigated by British Seamen) which shall be navigated by One British Seaman, if a British Ship, or One Seaman of the Country of such Ship, if a Foreign Ship, for every Twenty Tons of the Burthen of such Ship, shall be deemed to be duly navigated, although the Number of other Seamen shall exceed One Fourth of the whole Crew: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to repeat or alter the Provisions of an Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, for consolidating and amending the Laws then in force with respect to Trade from and to Places within the Limits of the East India Company's Charter.

XVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by His Royal Proclamation during War, to declare that Foreigners, having served Two Years on board any of His Majesty's Ships of War in Time of such War, shall be British Seamen within the Meaning of this Act.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That no British registered Ship shall be suffered to depart any Port in the United Kingdom, or any British Possession in any Part of the World (whether with a Cargo or in Ballast), unless duly navigated: Provided always, that any British Ships, trading between Places in America, may be navigated by British Negroes: and that Ships trading Eastward of the Cape of Good Hope within the Limits of the East India Company's Charter may be navigated by Lascars, or other Natives of Countries within those Limits.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That if any British registered Ship shall at any Time have, on Part of the Crew in any Part of the World, any Foreign Seaman not allowed by Law, the Master or Owners of such Ship shall for every such Foreign Seaman forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds: Provided always, that if a due Proportion of British Seamen cannot be procured in any Foreign Port, or in any Place within the Limits of the East India Company's Charter, for the Navigation of any British Ship; or if such Proportion be destroyed during the Voyage by any unavoidable Circumstance, and the Master of such Ship shall produce a Certificate of such Facts under the Hand of any British Consul, or of Two known British Merchants, if there be no Consul at the Place where such Facts may be ascertained, or from the British Governor of any Place within the Limits of the East India Company's Charter; or, in the Want of such Certificate, shall make Proof of the Truth of such Facts to the Satisfaction of the Collector and Controller of the Customs of any British Port, or of any Person authorized in any other Part of the World to inquire into the Navigation of such Ship, the same shall be deemed to be duly navigated.

XX. And be it further enacted, That if His Majesty shall, at any Time by His Royal Proclamation, declare that the Proportion of British Seamen necessary in the due Navigation of British Ships shall be less than the Proportion required by this Act, every British Ship navigated with the Proportion of British Seamen required by such Proclamation shall be deemed to be duly navigated, so long as such Proclamation shall remain in force.

XXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That Goods of any Sort or the Produce of any Place, not otherwise prohibited than by the Law of Navigation herein-before contained, may be imported into the United Kingdom from any Place in a British Ship, and from any Place not being a British Possession in a Foreign Ship of any Country, and hencever navigated, to be warehoused for Exportation only, under the Provisions of any Law in force for the Time being, made for the warehousing of Goods without Payment of Duty upon the First Entry thereof.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Goods be imported, exported, or carried Consignee, contrary to the Law of Navigation, all such Goods shall be forfeited, and the Master of such Ship shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures incurred under this Act shall be sued for, prosecuted, recovered, and disposed of, or shall be mitigated or restored, in like Manner as any Penalty or Forfeiture can be sued for, prosecuted, recovered, and disposed of, or may be mitigated or restored, under an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament for the Prevention of Smuggling.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, varied, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

C A P. LV.

An Act for the registering of British Vessels.

[28th August 1833.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled An Act for the registering of British Vessels, whereby the Laws in relation to the Registration of British Vessels were consolidated and amended: And whereas since the passing of the said Act divers Acts for the further Amendment of the Law have been found necessary, and it will be of Advantage to the Trade and Commerce of the Country that the said Acts should be consolidated into One Act: be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That this Act shall commence upon the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, except where any other Commencement is therein particularly directed.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Persons authorized and required to make such Registry and grant such Certificates shall be the several Persons hereinafter mentioned and described; (that is to say.)

In United Kingdom and Isle of Man.
In Guernsey, &c.

The Collector and Controller of His Majesty's Customs in any Part in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and in the Isle of Man respectively, in respect of Ships or Vessels to be there registered:

In Colonies in Asia, Africa, and America

The principal Officers of His Majesty's Customs in the Island of Guernsey or Jersey, together with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Commander in Chief of those Islands respectively, in respect of Ships or Vessels to be there registered:

In Territories of E. I. Company

The Collector and Controller of His Majesty's Customs of any Part in the British Possessions in Asia, Africa, and America, or the Collector of any such Part at which no Appointment of a Controller has been made, in respect of Ships or Vessels to be there registered:

In other Places within the Limits of the Charter

The Collector of Duties at any Part in the Territories under the Government of the East India Company, within the Limits of the Charter of the said Company, or any other Part of the Rank in the said Company's Service of Senior Merchant, or of Six Years standing in the said Service, being respectively appointed to act in the Execution of this Act by any of the Governments of the said Company, in respect of Ships or Vessels to be there registered:

In Malta, Gibraltar, &c.

The Collector of Duties at any British Possession within the said Limits, and not under the Government of the said Company, and at which a Custom House is not established, together with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Commander in Chief of such Possession, in respect of Ships or Vessels to be there registered:

In Malta, Gibraltar, &c. Licences as to Vessels registered at Malta, Gibraltar, or Heligoland.

The Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Commander in Chief of Malta, Gibraltar, Heligoland, and Cape of Good Hope respectively, in respect of Ships or Vessels to be there registered:

Provided always, that no Ship or Vessel be registered as Heligoland, except such as is wholly of the Built of that Place, and that Ships or Vessels, after having been registered at Malta, Gibraltar, or Heligoland, shall not be registered elsewhere; and that Ships or Vessels registered at Malta, Gibraltar, or Heligoland shall not be entitled to the Privileges and Advantages of British Ships in any Trade between the said United Kingdom and any of the British Possessions in America: Provided also, that whenever in and by this Act it is directed, or provided that any Act, Matter, or Thing, shall and may be done or performed by, to, or with any Collector and Controller of His Majesty's Customs, the same shall or may be done or performed by, to, or with the several Persons respectively herein-before authorized and required to make Registry, and to grant Certificates of Registry as aforesaid, and according as the same Act, Matter, or Thing is to be done or performed at the said several and respective Places, and within the Jurisdiction of the said several Persons respectively: provided also, that wherever in and by this Act it is directed or provided that any Act, Matter, or Thing shall or may be done or performed by, to, or with the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, the same shall or may be done or performed by, to, or with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Commander in Chief of any Place where any Ship or Vessel may be registered under the Authority of this Act, so far as such Act, Matter, or Thing can be applicable to the registering of any Ship or Vessel at such Place.

IV. And he it further enacted, That in case any Ship or Vessel shall not being duly registered, and not having obtained such Certificate of Registry as aforesaid, shall exercise any of the Privileges of a British Ship, the same shall be subject to Forfeiture, and also all the Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle, and Apparel to the same Ship or Vessel belonging, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Customs: Provided always, that nothing in this Act shall extend or be construed to extend to affect the Privileges of any Ship or Vessel which shall prior to the Commencement of this Act have been registered by virtue of an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled An Act for the registering of British Vessels.

V. And he it further enacted, That no Ship or Vessel shall be registered, or having been registered shall be deemed to be duly registered, by virtue of this Act, except such as are wholly of the Built of the said United Kingdom, or of the Isle of Man, or of the Islands of Guernsey or Jersey, or of some of the Colonies, Plantations, Islands, or Territories in Asia, Africa, or America, or of Malta, Gibraltar, or Newfoundland, which belong to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, at the Time of the building of such Ships or Vessels, or such Ships or Vessels as shall have been condemned in any Court of Admiralty as Prize of War, or such Ships or Vessels as shall have been condemned in any competent Court as forfeited for the Breach of the Laws made for the Prohibition of the Slave Trade, and which shall wholly belong and continue wholly to belong to His Majesty's Subjects duly entitled to be Owners of Ships or Vessels registered by virtue of this Act.

VI. And he it further enacted, That no Mediterranean Pass shall be used for the Use of any Ship, whether a Ship belonging to Malta or Gibraltar, except such as do be duly registered at those Places respectively, or such as, not being entitled to be so registered, shall have wholly belonged, before the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, and shall have continued wholly in being, to Persons actually residing at those Places respectively, as Inhabitants thereof, and entitled to be Owners of British Ships there registered, or who, not being so entitled, shall have so resided upwards of Fifteen Years prior to the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven.

VII. And he it further enacted, That no Ship or Vessel shall continue to enjoy the Privileges of a British Ship after the same shall have been repaired in a Foreign Country, if such Repairs shall exceed the Sum of Twenty Shillings for every Ton of the Burthen of the said Ship or Vessel, unless such Repairs shall have been necessary by reason of extraordinary Damages sustained by such Ship or Vessel during her Absence from His Majesty's Dominions, to enable her to perform the Voyage in which she shall have been engaged, and to return to some Port or Place in the said Dominions; and whenever any Ship or Vessel which has been so repaired in a Foreign Country shall arrive at any Port in His Majesty's Dominions as a British-registered Ship or Vessel, the Master or other Person having the Command or Charge of the same shall, upon the first Entry thereof, report to the Collector and Controller of His Majesty's Customs at such Port that such Ship or Vessel has been so repaired, under Penalty of Twenty Shillings for every Ton of the Burthen of such Ship or Vessel, according to the Admeasurement thereof; and if it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs that such Ship or Vessel was seaworthy at the Time when she last departed from any Port or Place in His Majesty's Dominions, and that no greater quantity of such Repairs have been done to the said Vessel than was necessary as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, upon a full Consideration of all the Circumstances, to direct the Collector and Controller of the Port where such Ship or Vessel shall have arrived, or where she shall then be, to certify on the Certificate of the Registry of such Ship or Vessel that it has been proved to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs that the Privileges of the said Ship or Vessel have not been forfeited, notwithstanding the Repairs which have been done to the same in a Foreign Country.

VIII. And he it further enacted, That if any Ship or Vessel registered under the Authority of this or any other Act shall be deemed or declared to be stranded or wrecked, and incapable of being recovered, or required to the Advantage of the Owners thereof, and shall for such Reasons be sold by Order or Decree of any competent Court for the Benefit of the Owners of such Ship or Vessel or other Persons interested therein, the same shall be taken and deemed to be a Ship or Vessel lost or broken up to all Intents and Purposes within the Meaning of this Act, and shall ever again be entitled to the Privileges of a British-Built Ship for any Purposes of Trade or Navigation.

IX. And he it further enacted, That no British Ship or Vessel which has been or shall hereafter be captured by and become Prize to an Enemy or sold to Foreigners shall again be entitled to the Privileges of a British Ship: Provided always, that nothing contained in this Act shall extend to prevent the registering of any Ship or Vessel whose or which shall afterwards be condemned in any Court of of Collectors and Controllers, by whom to be received.

Persons of Commissioners of Customs in United Kingdom given to Governor, &c. Aforesaid.

Ships meeting Privileges before Registry to be forfeited, but not to affect Vessels registered under previous Act.

What Ships are registered to be registered.

Declaration to be made by subscribing Owners previous to Registry.

Properties of Owners who Admiralty as Prize of War, or in any competent Court, for Breach of Laws made for the Protection of the Slave Trade.

X. And be it further enacted, That no such Registry shall hereafter be made, or Certificate thereof granted, by any Person or Persons herein-before authorized to make such Registry and grant such Certificate, in any other Port or Place than the Port or Place to which such Ship or Vessel shall properly belong, except so far as relates to such Ships or Vessels as shall be condemned as Prizes in any of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, or Alderney, which Ships or Vessels shall be registered in manner herein-after directed; but that all and every Registry and Certificate made and granted in any Port or Place to which any such Ship or Vessel does not properly belong shall be utterly null and void to all Intents and Purposes, unless the Officers aforesaid shall be specially authorized and empowered to make such Registry and grant such Certificate in any other Port by an Order in Writing under the Hands of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, which Order the said Commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to issue if they shall see fit, and at every Port where Registry shall be made in pursuance of this Act a Book shall be kept by the Collector and Controller, in which all the Particulars contained in the Form of the Certificate of the Registry herein-before directed to be used shall be duly entered; and every Registry shall be numbered in progression, beginning such progressive Numeration at the Commencement of each and every Year; and such Collector and Controller shall forthwith, and within one Month at the farthest, transmit to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs a true and exact Copy, together with the Number, of every Certificate which shall be by them so granted.

XI. And be it further enacted, That every Ship or Vessel shall be deemed to belong to some Port or near to which some or one of the Owners, who shall make and subscribe the Declaration required by this Act before Registry be made, shall reside, and whenever such Owner or Owners shall have transferred all his or their Shares or Stakes in such Ship or Vessel, the same shall be registered at some other Port which shall be in the same Part of the United Kingdom, or the same Colony, Plantation, Island, or Territory as the said Port shall be in: Provided always, that if the Owner or Owners of such Ship or Vessel cannot be sufficient Tons comply with the Requisites of this Act, so that Registry may be made before it shall be necessary for such Ship or Vessel to sail or depart upon another Voyage, it shall be lawful for the Collector and Controller of the Port where such Ship or Vessel may then be to certify upon the Back of the existing Certificate of Registry of such Ship or Vessel, that the same is to remain in force for the Voyage upon which the said Ship or Vessel is then about to sail or depart: Provided also, that if any Ship or Vessel shall be built in any of the Colonies, Plantations, Islands, or Territories in Asia, Africa, or America, to His Majesty belonging, for Owners residing in the United Kingdom, and the Master of such Ship or Vessel, or the Agent for the Owner or Owners thereof, shall have produced to the Collector and Controller of the Port at or near to which such Ship or Vessel was built, the Certificate of the Builder required by this Act, and shall have made and subscribed a Declaration before such Collector and Controller of the Names and Descriptions of the principal Owners of such Ship or Vessel, and that also to the identical Ship or Vessel mentioned in such Certificate of the Builder, and that no Forrainger, to the best of his Knowledge and Belief, has any Interest therein; the Collector and Controller of such Port shall cause such Ship or Vessel to be surveyed and measured in like Manner as is directed for the Purpose of registering any Ship or Vessel, and shall give the Master of such Ship or Vessel a Certificate under their Hands and Seals, purporting to be under the Authority of this Act, and stating when and where and by whom such Ship or Vessel was built, the Description, Tonnage, and other Particulars required on Registry of any Ship or Vessel, and such Certificate shall have all the force and virtue of a Certificate of Registry under this Act, during the Term of Two Years, unless such Ship shall sooner arrive at some Place in the United Kingdom; and such Collector and Controller shall transmit a Copy of such Certificate to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs.

XII. And be it further enacted, That no Person who has taken the Oath of Allegiance to any Foreign State, except under the Terms of some Capitulation, unless he shall afterwards become a Denizen or naturalized Subject of the United Kingdom by His Majesty's Letters Patent or by Act of Parliament, nor any Person usually residing in any Country not under the Dominion of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, unless he be a Member of some British Factory, or Agent for or Partner in any House or Copartnership actually carrying on Trade in Great Britain or Ireland, shall be entitled to be the Owner in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, of any Ship or Vessel required and authorized to be registered by virtue of this Act: save and except that it shall be lawful for any Person who was a Member of the Company of Merchants trading to the Levant Sea, at the Time of its Dissolution, and who was a Resident at any of the Factories of the said Company, to continue to hold any Share or Shares in any British-registered Ship of which at the Time of such Dissolution he was an Owner or Part Owner, although such Person shall continue to reside at any of the Places where such Factories had existed prior to the Dissolution of the said Company.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That no Registry shall hereafter be made or Certificate granted until the following Declaration be made and subscribed, before the Person or Persons herein-before authorized to make such Registry and grant such Certificate respectively, by the Owner of such Ship or Vessel, if such Ship or Vessel is owned by or belongs to One Person only, or in case there shall be Two joint Owners, then by both of such joint Owners if both shall be resident within Twenty Miles of the Port or Place where such Registry is required, or by One of such Owners if One or both of them shall be resident at a greater Distance from such Port or Place, or if the Master of such Ship or Vessel greater shall exceed Two, then by the greater Part of the Number of such Owners or Proprietors if the greater Number of them shall be resident within Twenty Miles of such Port or Place as aforesaid, and in any Case exceeding Three of such Owners or Proprietors, unless a greater Number shall be desirous to join in making and subscribing the said Declaration, or by One of such Owners if all, or all except One, shall be resident at a greater Distance :

shall subscribe and take the Declaration.

I. A. B. of [Place of Residence and Occupation] do truly declare, That the Ship or Vessel [Name] of [Part or Place], whereof [Master's Name] is at present Master, being [Kind of Boat, Barken, or cutter, as described in the Certificate of the surveying Officer], was [taken and where built, or, if Built or captured, Capture and Condemnation as such], and that I the said A. B. [and the other Owners, Names, and Occupations, if any, and where they respectively reside, visiteth, Town, Place, or Parish, and County, or, if Member of and resident in any Factory in Foreign Parts, or in any Foreign Town or City, being an Agent for or Partner in any House or Copartnership actually carrying on Trade in Great Britain or Ireland, the Name of such Factory, Foreign Town, or City, and the Names of such House or Copartnership] am [or are] sole Owner [or Owners] of the said Vessel, and that no other Person or Persons whosoever hath or have any Right, Title, Interest, Share, or Property therein or thereto; and that I the said A. B. [and the said other Owners, if any] am [or are] truly and bond fide a Subject [or Subjects] of Great Britain; and that I the said A. B. have not [nor have any of the other Owners, to the best of my Knowledge and Belief] taken the Oath of Allegiance to any Foreign State whatever [except under the Terms of some Capitulation, describing the Particulars thereof], or that since my taking [or his or their taking] the Oath of Allegiance to [naming the Foreign State respectively in which he or any of the said Owners shall have taken the same] I have [or he or they hath or have] become a Denizen [or Denizens, or naturalized Subject or Subjects, as the Case may be] of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland by His Majesty's Letters Patent or by an Act of Parliament [naming the Title when such Letters of Denization have been granted respectively, or the Year or Years in which such Act or Acts for Naturalization have passed respectively]; and that no Foreigner, directly or indirectly, hath any Share or Part Interest in the said Ship or Vessel.

Form of Declaration.

Provided always, that if it shall become necessary to register any Ship or Vessel belonging to any Corporate Body in the United Kingdom, the following Declaration, in lieu of the Declaration herein before directed, shall be taken and subscribed by the Secretary or other proper Officer of such Corporate Body, (that is to say,)

I. A. B. Secretary or Officer of [Name of Company or Corporation] do truly declare, That the Ship or Vessel [Name] of [Part] whereof [Master's Name] is at present Master, being [Kind of Boat, Barken, or cutter, as described in the Certificate of the surveying Officer], was [taken and where built, or, if Built or captured, Capture and Condemnation as such], and that the same hath wholly and truly belong to [Name of Company or Corporation].

XIV. And be it further enacted, That in case the required Number of joint Owners or Proprietors of any Ship or Vessel shall not personally attend to make and subscribe the Declaration herein-before directed to be made and subscribed, then and in such Case such Owner or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors, as shall personally attend and make and subscribe the Declaration aforesaid, shall further declare that the Part Owner or Part Owners of such Ship or Vessel then absent is or are not resident within Twenty Miles of such Port or Place, and hath or have not, to the best of his or their Knowledge or Belief, wilfully absented himself or themselves in order to avoid the making the Declaration herein-before directed to be made and subscribed, or is or are prevented by Illness from attending to make and subscribe the said Declaration.

Addition to Declaration in case the required Number of Owners do not attend.

XV. And in order to enable the Collector and Controller of His Majesty's Customs to grant a Certificate truly and accurately describing every Ship or Vessel to be registered in pursuance of this Act, and also to enable all other Officers of His Majesty's Customs, on due Examination, to discover whether any such Ship or Vessel is the same with that for which a Certificate is alleged to have been granted; be it enacted, That previous to the registering or granting of any Certificate of Registry as aforesaid some One or more Persons or Persons appointed by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs (taking to his or their Assistance, if he or they shall judge it necessary, One or more Persons or Persons skilled in the building and Admeasurement of Ships) shall go on board of every such Ship or Vessel to it to be registered, and shall strictly and accurately examine and admeasure every such Ship or Vessel as to all and every Particular contained in the Form of the Certificate herein-before directed, in the Presence of the Master, or of any other Person who shall be appointed for that Purpose on the Part of the Owner or Owners, or in his or their Absence by the said Master; and shall deliver a true and just Account in Writing of all such Particulars of the Hull, Description, and Admeasurement of every such Ship or Vessel as are specified in the Form of the Certificate above recited to the Collector and Controller authorized as aforesaid to make such Registry and grant such Certificate of Registry; and the said Master or other Person standing on the Part of the Owner or Owners is hereby required to sign his Name also to the Certificate of such surveying or examining Officer, in Testimony of the Truth thereof; provided such Master or other Person shall consent and agree to the several Particulars as forth and described therein.

Vessel to be surveyed previous to Registry.

Certificate of Survey to be given.

Owner or Master consenting therein.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That for the Purpose of ascertaining the Tonnage of Ships or Vessels the Rule for Admeasurement shall be as follows; (that is to say,) the Length shall be taken on

to ascertain

a straight Line along the Ribbet of the Keel, from the Back of the Main Stern-post to a perpendicular Line from the fore Part of the Main Stern under the Bowsprit, from which subtracting Three Fifths of the Breadth, the Remainder shall be entered the just Length of the Keel to find the Tonnage; and the Breadth shall be taken from the Outside of the outside Plank in the broadest Part of the Ship, whether that shall be above or below the Main Wale, exclusive of all Manner of Doubling Planks that may be wrought upon the Sides of the Ship; then multiplying the Length of the Keel by the Breadth so taken, and that Product by Half the Breadth, and dividing the whole by Ninety-four, the Quotient shall be deemed the true Contents of the Tonnage.

Mode of ascertaining Tonnage when Vessels are short.

XVII. And whereas it would in some Cases endanger Ships or Vessels to cause them to be lard on Stern; he it therefore enacted, That in Cases where it may be necessary to ascertain the Tonnage of any Ship or Vessel when short, according to the foregoing Rule, the following Method shall be observed; (that is to say,) drop a Plum Line over the Stern of the Ship, and measure the Distance between such Line and the after Part of the Stern-post at the Lead Water-mark, then measure from the Top of the Plum Line, in a parallel Oblique with the Water, to a perpendicular Point immediately over the Lead Water-mark at the fore Part of the Main Stern, subtracting from such Measurement the above Distance, the Remainder will be the Ship's Extreme, from which it is to be deducted Three Inches for every Foot of the Lead Draught of Water for the Rake shaft, also Three Fifths of the Ship's Breadth for the Rake forward, the Remainder shall be entered the just Length of the Keel to find the Tonnage; and the Breadth shall be taken from Outside to Outside of the Plank in the broadest Part of the Ship, whether that shall be above or below the Main Wale, exclusive of all Manner of Shunting or Doubling that may be wrought on the Side of the Ship; then multiplying the Length of the Keel for Tonnage by the Breadth so taken, and that Product by half the Breadth, and dividing by Ninety-four, the Quotient shall be deemed the true Contents of the Tonnage.

Large Boats or Barges Vessels to be deducted.

XVIII. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That in each of the several Rules herein-before prescribed, when used for the Purpose of ascertaining the Tonnage of any Ship or Vessel propelled by Steam, the Length of the Engine Room shall be deducted from the whole Length of such Ship or Vessel, and the Remainder shall, for such Purpose, be deemed the whole Length of the same.

Boatage when so ascertained to be over after deducting the Tonnage.

XIX. And he it further enacted, That whenever the Tonnage of any Ship or Vessel shall have been ascertained according to the Rule herein prescribed (except in the Case of Ships or Vessels which have been advertised afloat), such Account of Tonnage shall ever after be deemed the Tonnage of such Ship or Vessel, and shall be registered in every subsequent Registry of such Ship or Vessel, unless it shall happen that any Alteration has been made in the Form and Burthen of such Ship or Vessel, or it shall be discovered that the Tonnage of such Ship or Vessel had been erroneously taken and computed.

given at the Time of Registry.

XX. And he it further enacted, That at the Time of the obtaining of the Certificate of Registry or aforesaid sufficient Security by Bond shall be given to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by the Master and each of the Owners as shall personally attend, as is herein-before required, such Security to be approved of and taken by the Persons or Persons herein-before authorized to make such Registry and grant such Certificate of Registry at the Port or Place in which such Certificate shall be granted, in the Freedom following; (that is to say,) if such Ship or Vessel shall be a decked Vessel, or be above the Burthen of Fifteen Tons and not exceeding Fifty Tons, then in the Penalty of One hundred Pounds; if exceeding the Burthen of Fifty Tons and not exceeding One hundred Tons, then in the Penalty of Three hundred Pounds; if exceeding the Burthen of One hundred Tons and not exceeding Two hundred Tons, then in the Penalty of Five hundred Pounds; if exceeding the Burthen of Two hundred Tons and not exceeding Three hundred Tons, then in the Penalty of Eight hundred Pounds; and if exceeding the Burthen of Three hundred Tons, then in the Penalty of One thousand Pounds; and the Condition of every such Bond shall be, that such Certificate shall not be sold, lent, or otherwise disposed of to any Person or Persons whatsoever, and that the same shall be solely made use of for the Service of the Ship or Vessel for which it is granted; and that in case such Ship or Vessel shall be lost, or taken by the Enemy, burnt, or broken up, or otherwise prevented from returning to the Port to which she belongs, or shall on any Account have lost and forfeited the Privileges of a British Ship, or shall have been seized and legally condemned for illicit Trading, or shall have been taken in Execution for Debt and sold by due Process of Law, or shall have been sold to the Crown, or shall under any Circumstances have been registered at some other Certificate, if preserved, shall be delivered up, within One Month after the Arrival of the Master to any Port or Place in His Majesty's Dominions to the Collector and Controller of some Port in Great Britain, or of the Isle of Man, or of the British Plantations, or to the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor or Commander in Chief for the Time being of the Islands of Guernsey or Jersey; and that if any Foreigner, or any Person or Persons for the Use and Benefit of any Foreigner, shall purchase or otherwise become entitled to the Whole or to any Port or Share of or any Interest in such Ship or Vessel, and the same shall be within the Limits of any Port of Great Britain, or of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, or Man, or of the British Colonies, Plantations, Islands, or Territories aforesaid, then and in such Case the Certificate of Registry shall, within Seven Days after such Purchase or Transfer of Property in such Ship or Vessel, be delivered up to the Person or Persons herein-before authorized to make Registry and grant Certificate of Registry at such Port or Place respectively as aforesaid; and if such Ship or Vessel shall be in any Foreign Port when such Purchase or Transfer of Property shall take place, then that the Certificate shall be delivered up to the British Consul or other Chief British Officer resident at or nearest to such Foreign Port; or if such Ship or Vessel shall delivered up to the British Consul or other Chief British Officer at the Foreign Port or Place in or at which the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel shall first arrive after such Purchase or Transfer of Property at Sea, immediately after his Arrival at such Foreign Port; but if such Master or other Person who had the Command thereof at the Time of such Purchase or Transfer of Property at Sea shall not arrive at a Foreign Port, but shall arrive at some Port of Great Britain, or of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, or Man, or of His Majesty's said Colonies, Plantations, Islands, or Territories, then that the Certificate shall be delivered up, in manner aforesaid, within Fourteen Days after the Arrival of such Ship or Vessel, or of the Person who had the Command thereof in any Port of Great Britain, or of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, or Man, or of any of His Majesty's said Colonies, Plantations, Islands, or Territories: Provided always, that if it shall happen that at the Time of Registry of any Ship or Vessel the same shall be at any other Port than the Port to which she belongs, so that the Master of such Ship or Vessel cannot attend at the Port of Registry to join with the Owner or Owners in such Bond as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for him to give a separate Bond, to the like Effect, at the Port where such Ship or Vessel may then be, and the Collector and Controller of such other Port shall transmit such Bond to the Collector and Controller of the Port where such Ship or Vessel is to be registered, and such Bond, and the Bond also given by the Owner or Owners, shall together be of the same Effect against the Master and Owner or Owners, or either of them, as if they had bound themselves jointly and severally in One Bond.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That when and so often as the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of any Ship or Vessel registered in manner herein-before directed shall be changed, the Master or Owner of such Ship or Vessel shall deliver to the Person or Persons herein-before authorized to make such Registry and grant such Certificates of Registry at the Port where such Change shall take place the Certificate of Registry belonging to such Ship or Vessel, who shall thereupon indorse and subscribe a Memorandum of such Change, and shall forthwith give Notice of the same to the proper Officer of the Port or Place where such Ship or Vessel was last registered pursuant to this Act, who shall likewise make a Memorandum of the same in the Book of Registers which is hereby directed and required to be kept, and shall forthwith give Notice thereof to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs: Provided always, that before the Name of such new Master shall be indorsed on the Certificate of Registry he shall be required to give and shall give a Bond in the like Penalties and under the same Conditions as are contained in the Bond herein-before required to be given at the Time of Registry of any Ship or Vessel.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That all Bonds required by this Act shall be liable to the same Duties of Stamps as Bonds given for or in respect of the Duties of Customs are or shall be liable to under any Act for the Time being in force for granting Duties of Stamps.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person whatsoever shall at any Time have possession of and wilfully detain any Certificate of Registry granted under this or any other Act, which ought to be delivered up to be cancelled according to any of the Conditions of the Bond herein-before required to be given upon the Registry of any Ship or Vessel, such Person is hereby required and enjoined to deliver up such Certificate of Registry in manner directed by the Conditions of such Bond in the respective Cases and under the respective Penalties therein provided.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Owner or Owners of any Ship or Vessel to give any Name to such Ship or Vessel other than that by which she was first registered in pursuance of this or any other Act; and that the Owner or Owners of all and every Ship or Vessel which shall be so registered shall, before such Ship or Vessel, after such Registry, shall begin to take in any Cargo, paint or cease to be painted, in White or Yellow Letters, of a Length of not less than Four Inches, upon a Black Ground, on some conspicuous Part of the Stern, the Name by which such Ship or Vessel shall have been registered pursuant to this Act, and the Port to which she belongs, in a distinct and legible Manner, and shall so keep and preserve the same; and that if such Owner or Owners or Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel shall permit such Ship or Vessel to begin to take in any Cargo before the Name of such Ship or Vessel has been so painted as aforesaid, or shall wilfully alter, erase, obliterate, or in anywise hide or conceal, or cease or prevent or permit the same to be done (unless in the Case of square-rigged Vessels in Time of War), or shall in any written or printed Paper, or other Document, describe such Ship or Vessel by any Name other than that by which she was first registered pursuant to this Act, or shall verbally describe, or cease or prevent or permit such Ship or Vessel to be described, by any other Name to any Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Revenue in the due Execution of his or their Duty, then and in every such Case such Owner or Owners or Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel shall forfeit the sum of One hundred Pounds.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That all and every Person and Persons who shall apply for a Certificate of the Registry of any Ship or Vessel shall and they are hereby required to produce to the Person or Persons authorized to grant such Certificate a true and full Account, under the Hand of the Builder of such Ship or Vessel, of the proper Dimension, and of the Time when and the Place where such Ship or Vessel was built, and also an exact Account of the Tonnage of such Ship or Vessel, together with the Name of the first Purchaser or Purchasers thereof (which Account such Builder is hereby directed and required to give under his Hand on the same being demanded by such Person or Persons so applying for a Certificate as aforesaid), and shall also make and subscribe a Declaration before the Builder's Certificate of Particulars of Ship.

Declaration to be made thereon.

Person or Persons here-before authorized to grant such Certificate that the Ship or Vessel for which such Certificate is required is the same with that which is so described by the Builder as aforesaid.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That if the Certificate of Registry of any Ship or Vessel shall be lost or mislaid, so that the same cannot be found or obtained for the Use of such Ship or Vessel when needed, and Proof thereof shall be made to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, such Commissioners shall and may permit such Ship or Vessel to be registered de novo, and a Certificate thereof to be granted: Provided always, that if such Ship or Vessel be absent and far distant from the Port to which she belongs, or by reason of the Absence of the Owner or Owners, or of any other Impediment, Registry of the same cannot then be made in sufficient Time, such Commissioners shall and may grant a Licence for the present Use of such Ship or Vessel, which Licence shall for the Time and to the Extent specified therein, and no longer, be of the same force and virtue as a Certificate of Registry granted under this Act: Provided always, that before such Registry de novo be made the Owner or Owners and Master shall give Bond to the Commissioners aforesaid in such Sum as to them shall seem fit, with a Condition that if the Certificate of Registry shall at any Time afterwards be found and the same shall be forthwith delivered to the proper Officers of His Majesty's Customs to be cancelled, and that no illegal Use has been or shall be made thereof with his or their Privy or Knowledge; and further, that before any such Licence shall be granted as aforesaid, the Master of such Ship or Vessel shall also make and subscribe a Declaration that the same has been registered as a British Ship, naming the Port where and the Time when such Registry was made, and all the Particulars contained in the Certificate thereof, to the best of his Knowledge and Belief, and shall also give such Bond and with the same Condition as is before mentioned: Provided also, that before any such Licence shall be granted, such Ship or Vessel shall be surveyed in like Manner as if a Registry de novo were about to be made thereof; and the Certificate of such Survey shall be preserved by the Collector and Controller of the Port to which such Ship or Vessel shall belong; and in virtue thereof it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners and they are hereby required to permit such Ship or Vessel to be registered after her Departure, whenever the Owner or Owners shall personally attend to take and subscribe the Declaration required by this Act before Registry be made, and shall also comply with all other Requisites of the Act, except so far as relates to the Bond to be given by the Master of such Ship or Vessel; which Certificate of Registry the said Commissioners shall and may transmit to the Collector and Controller of any other Port, to be by them given to the Master of such Ship or Vessel, upon his giving such Bond, and delivering up the Licence which had been granted for the three percent Use of such Ship or Vessel.

XXVII. And whereas it is not proper that any Person under any Pretence whatsoever should detain the Certificate of Registry of any Ship or Vessel, or hold the same for any Purpose other than the lawful Use and Navigation of the Ship or Vessel for which it was granted; be it therefore enacted, That in case any Person shall have received or obtained by any Means or for any Purpose whatever the Certificate of the Registry of any Ship or Vessel (whether such Person shall claim to be the Master or to be the Owner or one of the Owners of such Ship or Vessel, or not,) shall wilfully detain and refuse to deliver up the same to the proper Officers of His Majesty's Customs, for the Purpose of such Ship or Vessel, as Occasion shall require, or to the Person or Persons having the actual Command, Possession, and Management of such Ship or Vessel as the commandable and reputed Master, or as the commandable and reputed Owner or Owners thereof, it may and shall be lawful to and for any such last-mentioned Person to make Complaint on Oath of such Detainer and Refusal to any Justice of the Peace residing near to the Place where such Detainer and Refusal shall be in Great Britain or Ireland, or to any Member of the Supreme Court of Justice or any Justice of the Peace in the Islands of Jersey, Guernsey, or Man, or in any Colony, Plantation, Island, or Territory to His Majesty belonging in Asia, Africa, or America, or in Mexico, Gibraltar, or the Kingdoms, where such Detainer and Refusal shall be in any of the Places last mentioned; and on such Complaint the said Justice or other Magistrate shall and is hereby required, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to cause the Person so complained against to be brought before him to be examined touching such Detainer and Refusal; and if it shall appear to the said Justice or other Magistrate, on Examination of such Person or otherwise, that the said Certificate of Registry is not lost or mislaid, but is wilfully detained by the said Person, such Person shall be thereof convicted, and shall forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds, and on failure of Payment thereof he shall be committed to the Common Gaol, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for such Time as the said Justice or other Magistrate shall in his Discretion deem proper, not being less than Three Months nor more than Twelve Months; and the said Justice or other Magistrate shall and be is hereby required to certify the aforesaid Detainer, Refusal, and Conviction to the Person or Persons who granted such Certificate of Registry for such Ship or Vessel, who shall, as the Terms and Conditions of Law being complied with, make Registry of such Ship or Vessel de novo, and grant a Certificate thereof conformably to Law, notifying on the Back of such Certificate the Ground upon which the Ship or Vessel was so registered de novo; and if the Person who shall have detained and refused to deliver up such Certificate of Registry as aforesaid, or shall be verily believed to have detained the same, shall have absconded, so that the said Warrant of the Justice or other Magistrate cannot be executed upon him, and Proof thereof shall be made to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to permit such Ship or Vessel to be registered de novo, or otherwise, in their Discretion, to grant a Licence for the present Use of such Ship or Vessel in like Manner as is here-before provided in the Case wherein the Certificate of Registry is lost or mislaid.

If Person detaining Certificate have absconded, Ship may be registered de novo and Certificate.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Ship or Vessel, after she shall have been registered pursuant to the Directions of this Act, shall in any Manner whatsoever be altered so as not to correspond with all the Particulars contained in the Certificate of her Registry, in such Case such Ship or Vessel shall be registered de novo, in manner hereinafter required, as soon as she returns to the Port to which she belongs, or to any other Port which shall be in the same Part of the United Kingdom, or in the same Colony, Plantation, Island, or Territory, as the said Port shall be in, on Failure whereof such Ship or Vessel shall to all Intents and Purposes be considered and deemed and taken to be a Ship or Vessel not duly registered.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That the Owner or Owners of all such Ships and Vessels as shall be taken by any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War, or by any private or other Ship or Vessel, and condemned as lawful Prize in any Court of Admiralty, or of such Ships or Vessels as shall be condemned in any competent Court as forfeited for Breach of the Laws for the Prevention of the Slave Trade, shall, for the Purpose of registering any such Ship or Vessel, produce to the Collector and Comptroller of His Majesty's Customs a Certificate of the Condemnation of such Ship or Vessel, under the Hand and Seal of the Judge of the Court in which such Ship or Vessel shall have been condemned (which Certificate such Judge is hereby authorized and required to grant), and also a true and exact Account in Writing of all the Particulars contained in the Certificate herein before set forth, to be made and subscribed by One or more skilful Persons or Persons to be appointed by the Court then and there to survey such Ship or Vessel, and shall also make and subscribe a Declaration before the Collector and Comptroller that such Ship or Vessel is the same Vessel which is mentioned in the Certificate of the Judge aforesaid.

XXX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Ship or Vessel which shall be taken and condemned as Prize or Forfeiture as aforesaid shall be registered to the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, or Man, although belonging to His Majesty's Subjects residing in those Islands, or in some one or other of them; but the same shall be registered either at Southampton, Weymouth, Exeter, Plymouth, Portsmouth, Liverpool, or Whitehaven, by the Collector and Comptroller at such Ports respectively, who are hereby authorized and required to register such Ship or Vessel, and to grant a Certificate thereof in the Form and under the Regulations and Restrictions in this Act contained.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That when and so often as the Property in any Ship or Vessel, or any Part thereof, belonging to any of His Majesty's Subjects, shall, after Registry thereof, be sold to any other or others of His Majesty's Subjects, the same shall be transferred by Bill of Sale or other Instrument in Writing, consisting a Recital of the Certificate of Registry of such Ship or Vessel, or the principal Contents thereof, otherwise such Transfer shall not be valid or effectual for any Purpose whatever, either in Law or in Equity: Provided always, that no Bill of Sale shall be deemed void by reason of any Error in such Recital, or by the Recital of any former Certificate of Registry instead of the existing Certificate, provided the Identity of the Ship or Vessel intended in the Recital be effectually proved thereby.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That the Property in every Ship or Vessel of which there are more than one Owner shall be taken and considered to be divided into Sixty-four equal Parts or Shares, and the Proportion held by each Owner shall be described in the Registry as being a certain Number of Sixty-fourth Parts or Shares; and that no Person shall be entitled to be registered as an Owner of any Ship or Vessel in respect of any Proportion of such Ship or Vessel which shall not be an integral Sixty-fourth Part or Share of the same; and upon the first Registry of any Ship or Vessel the Owner or Owners who shall take and subscribe the Declaration required by this Act before Registry be made shall also declare the Number of such Parts or Shares then held by each Owner, and the same shall be so registered accordingly: Provided always, that if at any Time happens that the Property of any Owner or Owners of any Ship or Vessel cannot be reduced by Division into any Number of integral Sixty-fourth Parts or Shares, it shall and may be lawful for the Owner or Owners of such fractional Parts as shall be over and above such Number of integral Sixty-fourth Parts or Shares into which such Property in any Ship or Vessel may be reduced by Division to transfer the same one to another, or jointly to any new Owner, by Memorandum upon their respective Bills of Sale, or by fresh Bill of Sale, without such Transfer being liable to any Stamp Duty: Provided also, that the Right of any Owner or Owners to any such fractional Parts shall not be affected by reason of the same not having been registered: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for any Number of such Owners, named and described in such Registry, being Partners in any House or Copartnership actually carrying on Trade in any Part of His Majesty's Dominions, to hold any Ship or Vessel, or any Share or Shares of any Ship or Vessel, in the Name of such House or Copartnership, as joint Owners thereof, without distinguishing the proportionate Interest of each of such Owners, and that such Ship or Vessel or the Share or Shares thereof so held in Copartnership shall be deemed and taken to be Partnership Property to all Intents and Purposes, and shall be governed by the same Rules, both in Law and Equity, as relate to and govern all other Partnership Property in any other Goods, Chattels, and Effects whatsoever.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That no greater Number than Thirty-two Persons shall be entitled to be legal Owners at one and the same Time of any Ship or Vessel, or Tenants in common, or to be registered as such: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall affect the equitable Title of Minors, Heirs, Legatees, Executors, or others, exceeding that Number, duly represented by or holding from any of the Persons within the said Number, registered as legal Owners of any Share or Shares of Provided also, that if it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of the Majesty's Customs that any Number of Persons have associated themselves as a Joint Stock Company, for the Purpose of owning any Ship or Vessel, or any Number of Ships or Vessels, as the Joint Property of such Company, and that such Company have duly elected or appointed any Number, not less than Three, of the Members of the same to be Trustees of the Property in such Ship or Vessel or Ships or Vessels so owned by such Company, it shall be lawful for such Trustees or any Three of them, with the Permission of such Commissioners, to make and subscribe the Declaration required by this Act before Registry be made, except that instead of stating therein the Names and Descriptions of the other Owners, they shall state the Name and Description of the Company to which such Ship or Vessel or Ships or Vessels shall in such Manner belong.

Treaties may apply to have Registry made.

Bills of Sale not allowed and produced to Officers of Customs, and entered in the Book of Registry or in a sub-Registry.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That no Bill of Sale or other Instrument in Writing shall be valid and effectual to pass the Property in any Ship or Vessel, or in any Share thereof, or for any other Purpose, until such Bill of Sale or other Instrument in Writing shall have been produced to the Collector and Controller of the Port at which such Ship or Vessel is already registered, or to the Collector and Controller of any other Port at which she is about to be registered de novo, as the Case may be, nor until such Collector and Controller respectively shall have entered in the Book of such sub Registry, in the one Case, or in the Book of such Registry de novo, after all the Requisites of Law for such Registry de novo shall have been duly complied with, in the other Case, (and which they are respectively hereby required to do upon the Production of the Bill of Sale or other Instrument for that Purpose,) the Name, Residence, and Description of the Vendor or Mortgagee, or of such Vendor or Mortgagee, if more than One, the Number of Shares transferred, the Name, Residence, and Description of the Purchaser or Mortgagee, or of such Purchaser or Mortgagee, if more than One, and the Date of the Bill of Sale or other Instrument, and of the Production of it; and further, if such Ship or Vessel is not about to be registered de novo, the Collector and Controller of the Port where such Ship is registered shall and they are hereby required to indorse the aforesaid Particulars of such Bill of Sale or other Instrument on the Certificate of Registry of the said Ship or Vessel, when the same shall be produced to them for that Purpose, in manner and to the Effect following: rationem,

Form of Indorsement.

1. Custom House [Port and Date], Name, Residence, and Description of Vendor or Mortgagee] has transferred by [Bill of Sale or other Instrument] dated [Date, Number of Shares] to [Name, Residence, and Description of Purchaser or Mortgagee].
2. A. B. Collector.
3. C. D. Controller.

Notice to Commissioners.

And forthwith to give Notice thereof to the Commissioners of Customs; and in case the Collector and Controller shall be desired so to do, and the Bill of Sale or other Instrument shall be produced to them for that Purpose, then the said Collector and Controller are hereby required to certify, by Indorsement upon the Bill of Sale or other Instruments, that the Particulars before mentioned have here so entered in the Book of Registry, and indorsed upon the Certificate of Registry as aforesaid.

Entry of Bill of Sale to be valid, except in certain Cases.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That when and so soon as the Particulars of any Bill of Sale or other Instrument by which any Ship or Vessel, or any Share or Shares thereof, shall be transferred, shall have been so entered in the Book of Registry as aforesaid, the said Bill of Sale or other Instrument shall be valid and effectual to pass the Property thereby intended to be transferred as against all and every Person and Person whatsoever, and to all Intests and Purposes, except as against such subsequent Purchasers and Mortgagees who shall first procure the Indorsement to be made upon the Certificate of Registry of such Ship or Vessel in manner herein after mentioned.

When a Bill of Sale has been entered for any Share, Thirty Days shall be allowed for indorsing the Certificate of Registry before any other Bill of Sale for the same shall be entered.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That when and after the Particulars of any Bill of Sale or other Instrument by which any Ship or Vessel, or any Share or Shares thereof, shall be transferred, shall have been so entered in the Book of Registry as aforesaid, the Collector and Controller shall not enter in the Book of Registry the Particulars of any other Bill of Sale or Instrument purporting to be a Transfer by the same Vendor or Mortgagee or Vendors or Mortgagees of the same Ship or Vessel, Share or Shares thereof, to any other Person or Persons, unless Thirty Days shall elapse from the Day on which the Particulars of the former Bill of Sale or other Instrument were entered in the Book of Registry; or in case the Ship or Vessel was about from the Port to which the belonged at the Time when the Particulars of such former Bill of Sale or other Instrument were entered in the Book of Registry, then unless Thirty Days shall have elapsed from the Day on which the Ship or Vessel arrived at the Port to which the same belonged; and in case the Particulars of Two or more such Bills of Sale or other Instruments as aforesaid shall on any Time have been entered in the Book of Registry of the said Ship or Vessel, the Collector and Controller shall not enter in the Book of Registry the Particulars of any other Bill of Sale or other Instrument as aforesaid unless Thirty Days shall in like Manner have elapsed from the Day on which the Particulars of the last of such Bill of Sale or other Instrument were entered in the Books of Registry, or from the Day on which the Ship or Vessel arrived at the Port to which the belonged, in case of her Absence as aforesaid; and in every Case where there shall at any Time happen to be Two or more Transfers by the same Owner or Owners of the same Property in any Ship or Vessel covered in the Book of Registry as aforesaid, the Collector and Controller are hereby required to indorse upon the Certificate of Registry of such Ship or Vessel the Particulars of that Bill of Sale or other Instrument under which the Person or Persons claim or claim Property who shall produce the Certificate of Registry for that Purpose within Thirty Days next after the Entry of the said Bill of Sale or other Instruments in the Book of Registry as aforesaid, or within Thirty Days next after the Return of the said Ship or Vessel to the Port to which she belongs, in case of her Absence at the Time of such Entry as aforesaid; and in case no Person or Persons shall produce the Certificate of Registry within either of the said Spaces of Thirty Days, then it shall be lawful for the Collector and Controller, and they are hereby required, to indorse upon the Certificate of Registry the Particulars of the Bill of Sale or other Instrument to such Person or Persons as shall first produce the Certificate of Registry for that Purpose, it being the true Intent and Meaning of this Act that the several Purchasers and Mortgagees of such Ship or Vessel, Share or Shares thereof, when more than One appear to claim the same Property, or to claim Security on the same Property, in the same Rank and Degree, shall have Priority one over the other, not according to the respective Times when the Particulars of the Bill of Sale or other Instrument by which such Property was transferred to them were entered in the Book of Registry as aforesaid, but according to the Time when the Indorsement is made upon the Certificate of Registry as aforesaid: Provided always, that if the Certificate of Registry shall be lost or mislaid, or shall be detained by any Person whatsoever, so that the Indorsement cannot in due Time be made thereon, and Proof thereof shall be made by the Purchaser or Mortgagee, or his known Agent, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to grant such further Time as to them shall appear necessary for the Recovery of the Certificate of Registry, or for the Registry de novo of the said Ship or Vessel under the Provisions of this Act, and thereupon the Collector and Controller shall make a Memorandum in the Book of Registers of the further Time so granted, and during such Time no other Bill of Sale shall be entered for the Transfer of the same Ship or Vessel, or the same Share or Shares thereof, or for giving the same Security thereon.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That if the Certificate of Registry of such Ship or Vessel shall be produced to the Collector and Controller of any Port where she may then be, after any such Bill of Sale shall have been recorded at the Port to which she belongs, together with such Bill of Sale, containing a Notification of such Record, signed by the Collector and Controller of such Port as before directed, it shall be lawful for the Collector and Controller of such other Port to indorse on such Certificate of Registry (being required so to do) the Transfer mentioned in such Bill of Sale, and such Collector and Controller shall give Notice thereof to the Collector and Controller of the Port to which such Ship or Vessel belongs, who shall record the same in like Manner as if they had made such Indorsement themselves, but inserting the Name of the Port at which such Indorsement was made: Provided always, that the Collector and Controller of such other Port shall first give Notice to the Collector and Controller of the Port to which such Ship or Vessel belongs of such Request made to them to indorse the Certificate of Registry, and the Collector and Controller of the Port to which such Ship or Vessel belongs shall thereupon send Information to the Collector and Controller of such other Port, whether any and what other Bill or Bills of Sale have been recorded in the Book of the Registry of such Ship or Vessel; and the Collector and Controller of such other Port having such Information shall proceed in manner directed by this Act in all respects to the indorsing of the Certificate of Registry as they would do if such Port were the Port to which such Vessel belonged.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if it shall become necessary to register any Ship or Vessel de novo, and any Share or Shares of such Ship or Vessel shall have been sold since she was last registered, and the Transfer of such Share or Shares shall not have been recorded and indorsed in manner herein-before directed, the Bill of Sale thereof shall be produced to the Collector and Controller of His Majesty's Customs, who see to make Registry of such Ship or Vessel, otherwise such Sale shall not be noticed in such Registry de novo, except as herein-after excepted: Provided always, that upon the future Production of such Bill of Sale, and of the existing Certificate of Registry, such Transfer shall and may be recorded and indorsed as well after such Registry de novo as before.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That if upon any Change of Property in any Ship or Vessel the Owner or Owners shall desire to have the same registered de novo, although not required by this Act, and the Owner or proper Number of Owners shall attend at the Custom House at the Port to which such Ship or Vessel belongs for that Purpose, it shall be lawful for the Collector and Controller of His Majesty's Customs at such Port to make Registry de novo of such Ship or Vessel at the same Port, and to grant a Certificate thereof, the several Requisites herein-before in this Act mentioned and directed being first duly observed and complied with.

XI. And whereas great Inconvenience hath arisen from the Registering Officers being stirred with Seditious papers tending to bring with them and produce, on Trials in Courts of Law relative to the Ownership of Vessels, or otherwise, the Oaths or Declarations required to be taken by the Owners thereof prior to the registering thereof, and the Books of Registry, or Copies or Extracts therefrom: And whereas it would tend much to the Dispatch of Business if the Attendance of such Registering Officers with the same upon such Trials were dispensed with: be it therefore enacted, That the Collector and Controller of His Majesty's Customs at any Port or Place, and the Person or Persons acting for them respectively, shall, upon every reasonable Request by any Person or Persons whatsoever, produce and exhibit for his, her, or their Inspection and Examination any Oath or Declaration sworn or made by any such Owner or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors, and also any Register or Entry in any Book or Books of Registry required by this Act to be made or kept relative to any Ship or Vessel, and shall, upon every reasonable Request by any Person or Persons whatsoever, permit him, her, or them to take a Copy or Copies of an Oath or Oaths thereof respectively; and that the Copy and Copies of any such Oath or Declaration, Register or Entry, shall, upon being proved to be a true Copy or Copies

Notice of the Property Indorsed in this Act.

Provision to own Certificate to be made.

Bills of Sale to be produced after Entry in other Ports than those to which Vessels belong, and Transfers indorsed on Certificate of Registry.

Notice to be given to Officers at the Port of Registry.

If upon Registry de novo any Bill of Sale shall not have been recorded, it shall then be produced.

Upon Change of Property Registry de novo may be granted if desired.

Copies of Declarations, &c. and of Extracts from Books of Registry, admitted in Evidence.

thereof respectively, be allowed and received as Evidence upon every Trial at Law, without the Production of the Original or Originals, and without the Testimony or Attendance of any Collector or Controller, or other Person or Persons acting for them respectively, in all Cases, as fully and to all Intents and Purposes as such Original or Originals, if produced by any Collector or Collectors, Controller or Controllers, or other Person or Persons acting for them, could or might legally be admitted or received in Evidence.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That if the Ship or Vessel, or the Share or Shares of any Owner thereof who may be out of the Kingdom, shall be sold in his Absence by his known Agent or Correspondent, under his Directions either expressed or implied, and acting for his Interest in that Behalf, and such Agent or Correspondent who shall have executed a Bill of Sale to the Purchaser of the whole of such Ship or Vessel, or of any Share or Shares thereof, shall not have received a legal Power to execute the same, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, upon Application made to them, and Proof to their Satisfaction of the fair Dealings of the Parties, to permit such Transfer to be registered, if Registry do seem necessary, or to be recorded and indorsed, as the Case may be, in manner directed by this Act, as if such legal Power had been produced; and also if it shall happen that any Bill of Sale cannot be produced, or if, by reason of Distance of Time, or the Absence or Death of Parties concerned, it cannot be proved that a Bill of Sale for any Share or Shares in any Ship or Vessel had been executed, and Registry do seem of such Ship or Vessel shall have become necessary, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, upon Proof to their Satisfaction of the fair Dealings of the Parties, to permit such Ship or Vessel to be registered do seem in like Manner as if a Bill of Sale for the Transfer of such Share or Shares had been produced: Provided always, that in any of the Cases herein mentioned good and sufficient Security shall be given to produce a legal Power or Bill of Sale within a reasonable Time, or to abide the future Claim of the absent Owner, his Heirs and Successors, as the Case may be; and at the future Request of the Party whose Property has been so transferred, without the Production of a Bill of Sale from him or from his lawful Attorney, such Bond shall be available for the Protection of his Interest, in addition to any Powers or Rights which he may have in Law or Equity against the Ship or Vessel, or against the Parties concerned, until he shall have received full Indemnity for any Loss or Injury sustained by him.

Transfer by way of Mortgage.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That when any Transfer of any Ship or Vessel, or of any Share or Shares thereof, shall be made only as a Security for the Payment of a Debt or Debts, either by way of Mortgage, or of Assignment to a Trustee or Trustees for the Purpose of selling the same for the Payment of any Debt or Debts, then and in every such Case the Collector and Controller of the Port where the Ship or Vessel is registered shall, in the Entry in the Book of Registry, and also in the Indorsement on the Certificate of Registry, in manner herein-before directed, state and express that such Transfer was made only as a Security for the Payment of a Debt or Debts, or by way of Mortgage, or to that Effect; and the Person or Persons to whom such Transfer shall be made, or any other Person or Persons claiming under him or them as a Mortgagee or Mortgagees, or a Trustee or Trustees only, shall not by reason thereof be deemed to be the Owner or Owners of such Ship or Vessel, Share or Shares thereof, nor shall the Person or Persons making such Transfer be deemed by reason thereof to have ceased to be an Owner or Owners of such Ship or Vessel, any more than if no such Transfer had been made, except so far as may be necessary for the Purpose of rendering the Ship or Vessel, Share or Shares so transferred, available by Sale or otherwise for the Payment of the Debt or Debts for securing the Payment of which such Transfer shall have been made.

ruptcy of Mort-
gagors &c

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That when any Transfer of any Ship or Vessel, or of any Share or Shares thereof, shall have been made as a Security for the Payment of any Debt or Debts, either by way of Mortgage or of Assignment as aforesaid, and such Transfer shall have been duly expressed according to the Provisions of this Act, the Right or Interest of the Mortgagee or other Assignee as aforesaid shall not be in any Manner affected by any Act or Acts of Bankruptcy committed by such Mortgagee or Assignee, Mortgagees or Assignees, after the Time when such Mortgage or Assignment shall have been so registered as aforesaid, notwithstanding such Mortgagee or Assignee, Mortgagees or Assignees, at the Time he or they shall be become bankrupt as aforesaid, shall have in him or their Possession, Order, and Disposition, and shall be the reputed Owner or Owners of the said Ship or Vessel, or the Share or Shares thereof, so by him or them mortgaged or assigned as aforesaid, but that such Mortgage or Assignment shall take place of and be preferred to any Right, Claim, or Interest which may belong to the Assignee or Assignees of such Bankrupt or Bankrupts in such Ship or Vessel, Share or Shares thereof, any Law or Statute to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

In Cases of Calamity, &c. a special Proceeding may be made.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Commander in Chief of any of His Majesty's Colonies, Plantations, Islands, or Territories, and they are hereby respectively authorized and required, if any Suit, Information, Label, or other Proceedings or Proceeding of any Nature or Kind whatsoever shall have been commenced or shall hereafter be commenced in any Court whatever in any of the said Colonies, Plantations, Islands, or Territories respectively, touching the Force and Effect of any Register granted to any Ship or Vessel, upon a Representation made to any such Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Commander in Chief to cause all Proceedings therein to be stayed, if he shall see just Cause so to do, until His Majesty's Pleasure shall be known and certified to him by His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Majesty's Privy Council,

Out of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to be laid before His Majesty in Council, an authenticated Copy of the Proceedings in every such Case, together with his Reasons for causing the same to be stayed, and such Documents (properly verified) as he may judge necessary for the Information of His Majesty.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall falsely make Declaration in any of the Matters herein-before required to be verified by Declaration, or if any Person or Persons shall counterfeit, erase, alter, or falsify any Certificate or other Instrument in Writing required or directed to be obtained, granted, or produced by this Act, or shall knowingly or wilfully make use of any Certificate or other Instrument so counterfeit, erased, altered, or falsified, or shall wilfully grant such Certificate or other Instrument in Writing, knowing it to be false, such Person or Persons shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That all the Penalties and Forfeitures inflicted and incurred by this Act shall and may be used for, prosecuted, recovered, and disposed of in such Manner, and by such Ways, Means, and Methods, as any Penalties or Forfeitures inflicted or which may be incurred for any Offences committed against any Law relating to the Customs may now legally be used for, prosecuted, recovered, and disposed of; and that the Officer or Officers concerned in seizures or Prosecutions under this Act shall be entitled to and receive the same Share of the Produce arising from such Seizures as in the Case of Seizures for unlawful Importation, and to such Share of the Produce arising from any pecuniary Fine or Penalty for any Offence against this Act as any Officer or Officers is or are now by any Law or Regulation entitled to upon Prosecutions for pecuniary Penalties.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, varied, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

C A P. LVI.

An Act for granting Duties of Customs.

[1833 August 1833.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled An Act for granting Duties of Customs, whereby the several Duties of Customs were consolidated in One Act: And whereas since the passing of the said Act divers Acts altering the said Duties have been passed, and it will be of advantage to the Trade and Commerce of the Country that the said several Duties should be consolidated in One Act: Be it therefore enacted by His Majesty's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That this Act shall commence upon the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, except where any other Commencement is herein particularly directed.

II. And be it further enacted, That in lieu and instead of all other Duties of Customs (except the Duties upon Corn, Grain, Hides, or Hides), there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, upon Goods, Wares, and Merchandize imported into or exported from the United Kingdom, the several Duties of Customs, and there shall be also of the several Drawbacks, as the same are respectively enacted, described, and set forth in Figures in the Tables to this Act annexed, and denominated respectively "Table of Duties of Customs Inwards" and "Table of Duties of Customs Outwards."

III. And be it further enacted, That the Amount of Drawbacks granted, allowed, and made payable upon Goods, Wares, and Merchandize exported from or used or consumed in Great Britain or Ireland, wether or by virtue of any Act or Acts in force in Great Britain or Ireland on or immediately before the said First Day of September, shall remain and continue payable with respect to such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize as, having paid the Duties imposed upon the Importation thereof by any Act or Acts in force on or immediately before the said First Day of September, shall from and after the said First Day of September be exported from or be so used or consumed in Great Britain or Ireland respectively.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Duties and Drawbacks by this Act imposed and allowed shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, and shall be assessed, raised, levied, collected, paid, and recovered, and allowed, and applied or appropriated, under the Provisions of an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intitled An Act for the general Regulation of the Customs.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, by His Order in Council, from Time to Time to order and direct that there shall be levied and collected any additional Duty, not exceeding One Fifth of the Amount of any existing Duty, upon all or any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of any Country which shall levy higher or other Duties upon any Article the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of any of His Majesty's Dominions than upon the like Article the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of any other Foreign Country: and in like Manner to impose such additional Duty upon all or any Goods when imported in the Ships of any Country which shall levy higher or other Duties upon any Goods when imported in British Ships than when imported in the National Ships of such Country, or which shall levy higher or other Tonnage or Port or other Duties upon British Ships than upon such National Ships, or which shall not place the Commerce or Navigation of this Kingdom upon the Footing of the Treaty of 1806, as Persons making false Declaration, or falsifying any Document.

New Penalties are to be imposed.

and Officers Elated.

An Act to alter this Statute.

Commencement of Act.

Duties and Drawbacks specified in the Tables annexed to be paid instead of all others.

Goods being paid Duties imposed by former Acts to be entitled to Drawbacks.

Duties to be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs of Great Britain.

Reciprocal Duties to be levied on Foreign Merchandise, &c.

most favored Nation in the Ports of such Country; and either to prohibit the Importation of any manufactured Article the Produce of such Country in the event of the Export of the raw Material of which such Article is wholly or in part made being prohibited from such Country to the British Dominions, or to impose an additional Duty, not exceeding One Fifth as aforesaid, upon such manufactured Article; and also to impose such additional Duty in the event of such raw Material being subject to any Duty upon being exported from the said Country to any of His Majesty's Dominions; and all Duties imposed by any such Order shall be deemed to be Duties imposed by this Act.

In which the and Exemption of Foreign Rice or Paddy.

VI. And be it further enacted, That upon the Exportation from the United Kingdom of any Foreign Rice or Paddy which shall have been cleared therein, and which shall have paid the Duties payable on the Importation thereof under this Act, there shall be allowed and paid for every Hundred Weight thereof a Drawback equal in Amount to the Duty paid on every Four Bushels of the rough Rice or Paddy from which the same shall have been cleared.

Conditions on which such Drawback is paid.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That such Drawback upon Rice so exported shall be paid and allowed only upon such Rice as shall be deposited for the Purpose of Exportation, within One Calendar Month from the Day on which the Duty thereon had been paid, in some Warehouse (in which Rice may be warehoused on Importation without Payment of Duty), and shall there remain secured until duly shipped to be exported from such Warehouse: Provided also, that the Exporter of such Rice shall make Oath before the Collector or Controller that the Rice so warehoused for Exportation was cleared from the rough Rice or Paddy upon which the Duties had been so paid.

Warehousing of Goods.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Importer of any Goods subject to any Duties of Customs to warehouse such Goods upon the first Entry thereof, under the Laws in force for the warehousing of Goods, without Payment of Duty upon such first Entry; and that all Goods which shall have been so warehoused before the Commencement of any such Duties, and shall remain so warehoused after the Commencement of the same, shall become liable to such Duties in lieu of all former Duties.

Cape of Good Hope as Limits of Charter, Mauritius or West India.

IX. And be it further enacted, That for the Purposes of this Act the Cape of Good Hope and the Territories and Dependencies thereof shall be deemed to be within the Limits of the East India Company's Charter; and the Island of Mauritius shall be deemed to be one of His Majesty's Sugar Colonies, and placed upon the same Footing in all respects as His Majesty's Islands in the West Indies.

Produce of Islands of Charter to be imported
Gibraltar.

X. And be it further enacted, That all Goods the Produce of Places within the Limits of the East India Company's Charter, having been imported into Malta or Gibraltar from those Places in British Ships, shall, upon subsequent Importation into the United Kingdom direct from Malta or Gibraltar, be liable to the same Duties as the like Goods would respectively be liable to if imported direct from some Place within the Limits of the said Charter.

An Account of the Amount of hereditary Revenues of the Crown to be kept separate.

XI. And whereas by the Consolidation of the different Branches of the Public Revenue, and of the several Duties payable on the Importation or Exportation of Goods, Wares, and Merchandises, and the Appropriation thereof, as directed by the several Acts in force in England, the hereditary and temporary Revenues of the Crown of Subsidies of Tonnage and Passage, and of other Duties upon Goods, Wares, and Merchandises, arising in England, are not now kept distinct and separate at the several Offices, but have become blended with other Duties of Customs and Tonnage, both in the Collection and Appropriation thereof: And whereas it is expedient that Provision should be made for ascertaining the several Amount of what such hereditary Revenues would have produced in case the same had not been so consolidated, and that an Account should hereafter be kept of such several Amount: be it therefore enacted That from and after the said First Day of September the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, shall cause to be prepared and kept an Account of what such hereditary Revenue arising in England would have amounted to in case the same had not been so consolidated and collected with other Duties of Customs and Tonnage in the Collection and Appropriation thereof; in such Manner and Form as shall appear to the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury (as the Thing being best adapted to ascertain such Amount); which Account the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners for the Time being are hereby required to make out or cause to be made out and laid before Parliament, together with the Public Accounts directed to be laid before Parliament, pursuant to the Provision of the several Acts for directing Public Accounts to be laid annually before Parliament.

Not to affect the hereditary Revenues in Scotland.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to affect or alter the hereditary Revenues of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in Scotland, or other Revenues there granted to His late Majesty King George the Second during His Life, and reserved to His present Majesty during His Life by an Act passed in the First Year of His present Majesty's Reign, but the same, and the Civil Establishment payable out of the same shall continue to be paid in like Manner as heretofore, any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

G A P. LVII.

An Act for the Warehousing of Goods.

[28th August 1833.]

4 G. 4. c. 112.

Commissioners of Act.

Treasury to appoint warehousing Ports.

Commissioners to appoint Warehouses, and require Bond.

Warehouses of special Security by Appointment.

of special Security without Appointment.

Bonds given previous to Act to continue in force.

Commissioners to provide Warehouses for Tobacco, and Treasury to fix Bond.

Power to re-warehouse Appointments.

Publication of Appointments in Gazette.

Warehouses in which general Bond, if willing; or Depositor give particular Bond.

Sale of Goods in Warehouses by Proprietor to be valid, although they be made there.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled An Act for the Warehousing of Goods, whereby the Laws of Customs in relation to the warehousing of Goods were consolidated and amended: And whereas since the passing of the said Act divers Acts for the further Amendment of the Law have been found necessary, and it will be of advantage to the Trade and Commerce of the Country that the said Acts should be consolidated into one Act; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That this Act shall commence upon the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, except where any other Commencement is herein particularly directed.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury by their Warrant from Time to Time to appoint the Ports in the United Kingdom which shall be warehousing Ports for the Purposes of this Act; and that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, subject to the Authority and Directions of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, by their Order from Time to Time to appoint in what Warehouses or Places of special Security, or of ordinary Security, as the Case may require, in such Ports, and in what different Parts or Divisions of such Warehouses or Places, and in what Manner any Goods, and what Sorts of Goods, may and may only be warehoused and kept and secured without Payment of any Duty upon the first Entry thereof, or for Exportation, only, in Cases wherein the same may be prohibited to be imported for Home Use; and also in such Order to direct in what Cases (if any) Security by Bond, in manner herein-after provided, shall be required in respect of any Warehouse so appointed by them.

III. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Warehouse shall have been approved of by the said Commissioners, as being a Warehouse of special Security, it shall be stated in their Order of Appointment that such Warehouse is appointed as a Warehouse of special Security: Provided always, that all Warehouses connected with Wharfs for the landing of the Goods to be lodged therein, and enclosed together with such Wharfs within Walls, such as are or shall be required by any Act for the constructing of such Warehouses and Wharfs, and being appointed to be legal Quays, shall without any Order of the Commissioners of the Customs be Warehouses for the Purposes of this Act, for all Goods landed at such Wharfs or Quays at any Port appointed by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to be a warehousing Port as aforesaid, and all such Warehouses shall be Warehouses of special Security.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all Appointments of Warehouses for the warehousing of Goods made under the Authority of any other Act in force at the Time of the Commencement of this Act shall continue in force as if the same had been made under the Authority of this Act, and all Bonds given in respect of any Goods warehoused or entered to be warehoused under any Act in force at the Time of the Commencement of this Act shall continue in force for the Purposes of this Act.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs shall, out of the Moneys arising from the Duties of Customs, provide from Time to Time the Warehouses for the warehousing of Tobacco at the Ports into which Tobacco may be legally imported: Provided always, that for every Hogshead, Chest, or Case of Tobacco so warehoused the Importer or Proprietor thereof shall pay, as and for Warehouse Rent, such Sum or Sums, not exceeding any Sum payable under any Act in force at the Time of the Commencement of this Act, and at such Periods and in such Manner as the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall from Time to Time by their Warrant appoint and direct; and all such Sums shall be paid, received, and appropriated as Duties of Customs.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury by their Warrant, and for the said Commissioners of the Customs by their Order, from Time to Time to revoke any former Warrant or any former Order, or to make any Alteration in or Addition to any former Warrant or any former Order made by them as aforesaid respectively.

VII. And be it further enacted, That every Notice made by the said Commissioners of the Customs in respect of Warehouses of special Security, as well those of original Appointment as those of Revocation, Alteration, or Addition, shall be published in the London Gazette for such as shall be appointed in Great Britain, and in the Dublin Gazette for such as shall be appointed in Ireland.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That before any Goods shall be entered to be warehoused in any Warehouse in respect of which Security by Bond shall be required as aforesaid, the Proprietor or Occupier of such Warehouse, if he be willing, shall give general Security by Bond, with Two sufficient Sureties, for the Payment of the full Duties of Importation on all such Goods as shall at any Time be warehoused therein, or for the due Exportation thereof; and if such Proprietor or Occupier be not willing to give such general Security, the different Importers of the separate Quantities of Goods shall upon each Importation, give such Security in respect of the particular Goods imported by them respectively before such Goods shall be entered to be warehoused.

IX. And be it further enacted, That if any Goods lodged in any Warehouse shall be the Property of the Occupier of such Warehouse, and shall be bona fide sold by him, and upon such Sale there shall have been a written Agreement, signed by the Parties, or a written Contract of Sale made, executed, and delivered by a Broker or other Person legally authorized for or on behalf of the Parties respectively, and the Receipt of the Price stipulated in the said Agreement or Contract shall have been actually paid or secured to be paid by the Purchaser, every such Sale shall be valid, although such Goods shall remain in such Warehouse; provided that a Transfer of such Goods, according to such Sale, shall have been entered in a Book to be kept for that Purpose by the Officer of the Customs having the Charge of such Warehouse, who is hereby required to keep such Book, and to enter such Transfers, with the Dates thereof, upon Application of the Owners of the Goods, and to produce such Book upon Demand made.

X. And be it further enacted, That all Goods warehoused shall be stored in such Manner as that any Access may be had to every Package and Parcel of the same; and if the Occupier of the Warehouse shall omit so to store the same he shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds; and if any Goods shall be taken out of any Warehouse without due Entry of the same with the proper Officers of the Customs, the Occupier of the Warehouse shall be liable to the Payment of the Duties due thereon.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if any Goods warehoused shall be fraudulently concealed, or removed from the Warehouse, the same shall be forfeited; and if any Importer or Proprietor of any Goods warehoused, or any Person in his Employ, shall by any Contrivance fraudulently open the Warehouse or gain Access to the Goods, except in the Presence of the proper Officer acting in the Execution of his Duty, such Importer or Proprietor shall forfeit and pay for every such Offence the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

XII. And be it further enacted, That within One Month after any Tobacco shall have been warehoused, and upon the Entry and landing of any other Goods to be warehoused, the proper Officer of the Customs shall take a particular Account of the same, and shall mark the Customs on each Package, and shall mark the Word "Prohibited" on such Packages as contain Goods prohibited to be imported for Home Use, and that all Goods shall be warehoused and kept in the Packages in which they shall have been imported, and no Alteration shall be made in the Packages or the packing of any Goods in the Warehouse, except in the Cases herein-after provided.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That all Goods entered to be warehoused, or to be re-warehoused, shall be carried to the Warehouse under the Care or with the Authority or Permission of the proper Officer of the Customs, and in such Manner, and by such Persons, and by such Roads or Ways, and within such Spaces of Time, as the proper Officer of the Customs shall authorize, permit, or direct; and all such Goods not so carried shall be forfeited.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That all Goods which have been so warehoused shall be duly cleared, either for Exportation or for Home Use, within Three Years, and all surplus Stores of Ships within One Year, from the Day of the first Entry thereof (unless further Time be given by the Commissioners of the Majesty's Treasury); and if any such Goods be not so cleared it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs to cause the same to be sold, and the Proceeds shall be applied to the Payment of Warehouse Rent and other Charges, and the Overplus, if any, shall be paid to the Proprietor; and such Goods, when sold, shall be held subject to all the Conditions to which they were subject previous to such Sale, except that a further Time of Three Months from the Date of the Sale shall be allowed to the Purchaser for the clearing of such Goods from the Warehouse; and if the Goods so sold shall not be duly cleared from the Warehouse within such Three Months, the same shall be forfeited. Provided always, that if the Goods so to be disposed of shall have been reported by the East India Company, or shall be of the Description called "Picco Goods," imported from Places within the Limits of their Charter into the Port of London, the same shall, at the Request of the Commissioners of Customs, be duly exposed to Sale by the said Company at their next ensuing Sale, and shall be then sold for the highest Price which shall be then publicly offered for the same.

XV. And be it further enacted, That if any Goods entered to be warehoused, or entered to be delivered from the Warehouse, shall be lost or destroyed by any unavoidable Accident, either on Shipboard or in the landing or shipping of the same, or in the receiving into or delivering from the Warehouse, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs to remit or return the Duties payable or paid on the Quantity of such Goods so lost or destroyed.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That no Goods which have been so warehoused shall be taken or delivered from the Warehouse, except upon due Entry, and under Care of the proper Officers for Exportation, or upon due Entry and Payment of the full Duties payable thereon for Home Use, if they be such Goods as may be used in the United Kingdom; and except Goods delivered into the Charge of the Searchers to be shipped as Stores, and which shall and may be so shipped without Entry or Payment of any Duty for any Ship of the Burthen of Seventy Tons at least, bound upon a Voyage to Foreign Parts, the probable Duration of which out and Home will not be less than Forty Days; Provided always, that such Stores shall be duly borne upon the Ship's Vettinging Bill, and shall be shipped in such Quantities and subject to such Directions and Regulations as the Commissioners of Customs shall direct and appoint.

XVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That any Run of the British Plantations may be delivered into the Charge of the Searchers, to be shipped as Stores for any Ship without Entry or Payment of any Duty, and any surplus Stores of any Ship may be delivered into the Charge of the Searchers, to be re-shipped as Stores for the same Ship, or for the same Master in another Ship, without Entry or Payment of any Duty, such Run and such surplus Stores being duly borne upon the Vettinging Bills of such Ships respectively; and if the Ship for the future Use of which any surplus Stores have been warehoused shall be broken up or sold, such Stores may be then delivered for Transfer of such Goods to be entered in a Book.

Runs for Stores and surplus Stores may be shipped without Entry, if borne on Vettinging Bill.

as entered for private Use.

the Use of any other Ship belonging to the same Owners, or may be entered for Payment of Duty, and delivered for the private Use of such Owners, or any of them, or of the Master or Purser of such Ship.

Duties to be paid on original Quantities, except in certain Cases.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That upon the Entry of any such Goods to be cleared from the Warehouse, if the same be for Home Use, the Person entering such Goods upwards shall deliver a Bill of the Entry and Duplicate thereof in like Manner as is directed by Law in the Case of Goods entered to be landed, as far as the same is applicable, and at the same Time shall pay down to the proper Officer of the Customs the full Duties of Customs payable thereon, and not being less in Amount than according to the Account of the Quantity first taken of the respective Packages or Parcels of the Goods in such Entry at the Examination thereof at the Time of the first Entry and landing of the same, without any Abatement on account of any Deficiency, except as by this Act is otherwise provided; and that if the Entry be for Exportation or for Removal to any other Warehouse, and any of the Packages or Parcels of the Goods be deficient of the respective Quantities of the same, according to the Account first taken as aforesaid, a like Entry upwards shall also be passed in respect of the Quantities so deficient, and the full Duties shall be paid on the Amount thereof before such Packages or Parcels of Goods shall be delivered or taken for Exportation or Removal, except as by this Act is otherwise provided; and if any Goods as deficient in Quantity shall be such as are charged to pay Duty according to the Value thereof, such Value shall be estimated at the Price for which the like Sorts of Goods of the best Quality shall have been last or lately sold, either at any Sale of the East India Company or in any other Market, as the Case may be.

If the Exportation or Removal, Duties on Deficiencies to be paid.

How Values estimated.

Duties on Tobacco, Sugar, and Spirits to be charged on Quantities delivered, except in certain Cases.

XIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Duties payable upon Tobacco, Sugar, and Spirits respectively, when taken out of Warehouse for Home Use, shall be charged upon the Quantities ascertained by the Weight, Measure, or Strength of the same actually delivered: save and except that if the Sugar shall not be in a Warehouse of special Security, no greater Abatement on account of Deficiency of the Quantity first ascertained as aforesaid shall be made than shall be after the Rate of Three per Centum of such Quantity for the first Three Months, and One per Centum for every subsequent Month during which such Sugar shall have been warehoused; and also save and except, that if the Spirits (being any other Spirits than Rum of the British Plantations) shall not be in a Warehouse of special Security, no greater Abatement on account of Deficiency of the Quantity or Strength first ascertained as aforesaid shall be made than shall be after the several Rates of Allowances following: (that is to say,)

|  |                |
|--|----------------|
| For every Hundred Gallons, Hydrometer Proof, (without)                 |                |
| For any Time not exceeding Six Months                                  | One Gallon:    |
| For any Time exceeding Six Months and not exceeding Twelve Months      | Two Gallons:   |
| For any Time exceeding Twelve Months and not exceeding Eighteen Months | Three Gallons: |
| For any Time exceeding Eighteen Months and not exceeding Two Years     | Four Gallons:  |
| For any Time exceeding Two Years                                       | Five Gallons:  |

No Abatement for Leakage.

Provided always, that no Abatement shall be made in respect of any Deficiency in Quantity of any Spirit ascertained either by Leakage or Accident, and not by general Evaporation, in whatever Warehouse the same may be, except as by this Act is otherwise specially provided.

Importer may enter Goods for Home Use or for Exportation, although not warehoused.

XX. And be it further enacted, That if after any Goods shall have been duly entered and landed to be warehoused, and before the same shall have been actually deposited in the Warehouse, the Importer shall further enter the same or any Part thereof for Home Use or for Exportation as from the Warehouse, the Goods so entered shall be considered as actually and constructively warehoused, although not actually deposited in the Warehouse, and shall and may be delivered and taken for Home Use or for Exportation, as the Case may be.

Goods may be removed to other Ports to be re-warehoused.

XXI. And whereas it is expedient to make Regulations for the Removal of warehoused Goods from one warehousing Port to another, and from one Warehouse to another in the same Port: be it therefore enacted, That any Goods which have been warehoused at some Port in the United Kingdom may be removed by Sea or Inland Carriage to any other Port in the same, in which the like Goods may be warehoused upon Importation to be re-warehoused at such other Port, and again as often as may be required to any other such Port, to be there re-warehoused, subject to the Regulations herein-after mentioned: (that is to say,) Twelve Hours Notice in Writing of the Intention to remove such Goods shall be given to the Warehouse Officer, specifying the particular Goods intended to be removed, and the Marks, Numbers, and Descriptions of the Packages in which the same are contained, in what Ship exported, when and by whom entered upwards to be warehoused, and if subsequently re-warehoused when and by whom re-warehoused, and to what Port the same are to be removed, and thereupon the Warehouse Officer shall take a particular Account of such Goods, and shall mark the Contents on every Package in preparation for the delivering of the same for the Purpose of such Removal, and previous to the Delivery thereof may cause the proper Seals of Office to be affixed thereto: Provided always, that Tobacco, the Produce of the British Possessions in America or of the United States of America, and purchased for the Use of His Majesty's Navy, may be removed by the Purser of any Ship of War in actual Service to the Ports of Rochester, Portsmouth, or Plymouth, to be there re-warehoused, in Name of such Purser, on such Warehouse as shall be approved for that Purpose by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs.

and no Notice given, Offences to prepare for Removal, under Seals of Office.

Tobacco for Use of Navy may be removed to certain Ports.

Entry of Goods for Removal.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That before such Goods shall be delivered to be removed that Entry of the same shall be made, and a proper Bill of such Entry, with Duplicate thereof, be delivered to the Collector or Controller, containing the before-mentioned Particulars, and an exact Account of the Quantity of the different Sorts of Goods; and such Bill of the Entry, signed by the Collector and Controller, shall be the Warrant for the Removal of such Goods; and an Account of such Goods, containing all such Particulars, shall be transmitted by the proper Officers of the Port of Removal to the proper Officers of the Port of Destination; and upon the Arrival of such Goods at the Port of Destination the Entry of the same to be re-warehoused shall in like Manner be made with the Collector and Controller at such Port, containing all the Particulars and Accounts before mentioned, together with the Name of the Port from which such Goods have been removed, and the Description and Situation of the Warehouse in which they are to be warehoused; and the Bill of such Entry, signed by such Collector and Controller, shall be the Warrant to the Landing Officer and the Warehouse Officer to admit such Goods to be there re-warehoused, under such Examination as is made of the like Goods when first warehoused upon Importation from Ports beyond the Seas; and the Particulars to be contained in such Notice and in such Entries shall be written and arranged in such Form and Manner as the Collector and Controller shall require; and the Officers at the Port of Arrival shall transmit to the Officers at the Port of Removal an Account of the Goods as arrived, according as they shall upon Examination prove to be, and the Warehouse Officers at the Port of Removal shall certify such Arrival in their Books.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That the Persons removing such Goods shall at the Time of entering the same give Bond, with One sufficient Surety, for the due Arrival and re-warehousing of such Goods within a reasonable Time (with reference to the Distance between the respective Ports, to be fixed by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs), which Bond may be taken by the Collector and Controller either of the Port of Removal or of the Port of Destination, as shall best suit the Residence for Convenience of the Persons interested in the Removal of such Goods; and if such Bond shall have been given at the Port of Destination, a Certificate thereof under the Hands of the Collector and Controller of such Port shall, at the Time of entering such Goods, be produced to the Collector or Controller of the Port of Removal.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That such Bond shall not be discharged unless such Goods shall have been duly re-warehoused at the Port of Destination within the Time allowed for such Removal, or shall have been otherwise accounted for to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, nor until the full Duties due upon any Deficiency of such Goods shall have been paid, nor until fresh Security shall have been given in respect of such Goods in manner hereinafter provided, unless such Goods shall have been lodged in some Warehouse in respect of which general Security shall have been given by the Proprietor or Occupier thereof, or in some Warehouse in respect of which no Security is required.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That such Goods when as re-warehoused may be entered and shipped for Exportation, or carried and delivered for Home Use, as the like Goods may be when first warehoused upon Importation, and the Time which such Goods shall be allowed to remain re-warehoused at such Port shall be reckoned from the Day when the same were first entered to be re-warehoused.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That if upon the Arrival of such Goods at the Port of Destination the Parties shall be desirous forthwith to export the same, or to pay Duty thereon for Home Use, without actually lodging the same in the Warehouse for which they have been entered and explained to be re-warehoused, it shall be lawful for the Officers of the Customs at such Port, after all the Formalities of entering and examining such Goods for re-warehousing have been duly performed (except the actual Labour of carrying and lodging the same in the Warehouse), to consider the same as virtually or constructively re-warehoused, and to permit the same to be entered and shipped for Exportation, or to be carried and delivered for Home Use, upon Payment of the Duties due thereon in like Manner as if such Goods had been actually so carried and lodged in such Warehouse; and the Account taken for the re-warehousing of such Goods may serve to the Account for delivering the same as if from the Warehouse, either for Shipment or for Payment of Duties, or the Case may be; and all Goods so exported, or for which the Duties have been so paid, shall be deemed to have been duly cleared from the Warehouse.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That any Goods which have been warehoused in some Warehouse at the Port of London may, with the Permission of the Commissioners of Customs first obtained, be removed to any other Warehouse in the said Port in which the like Goods may be warehoused on Importation; and any Goods which have been warehoused in some Warehouse in any other Port, with the Permission of the Collector and Controller of such Port first obtained, be removed to any other Warehouse in the same Port in which the like Goods may be warehoused on Importation, under such general Regulations as the Commissioners of the Customs shall direct.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That all Goods which shall have been removed from one Warehouse for or to another, whether in the same Port or in a different Port, and all Proprietors of such Goods, shall be held subject in all respects to all the Conditions to which they would have been held subject if such Goods had remained in the Warehouse where the same had been originally warehoused.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Goods shall have been warehoused in any Warehouse in respect of which general Security by Bond, as herein-before provided, shall not have been given by the Proprietor or Occupier of such Warehouse, and particular Security, as in such Case is required, shall have been given by the Importer of such Goods in respect of the same, and such Goods shall have been sold or disposed of, so that the original Bondholder shall be no longer interested in or have housed in Warehouses under the Authority of this Act, by or through any wilful Misconduct of any Officer or Officers of Customs or Excise, such Officer or Officers shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor, and shall upon Conviction suffer such Punishment as may be inflicted by Law in Cases of Misdemeanor; and if such Officer shall be so prosecuted to Conviction by the Inspector, Comptroller, or Proprietor of the Goods or Merchandise so embossed, wasted, spoiled, or destroyed, then and in such Case no Duty of Customs or Excise shall be payable for or in respect of such Goods or Merchandise so embossed, wasted, spoiled, or destroyed, and no Proprietor or Seowner shall take place of any Goods and Merchandise so warehoused in respect of any Deficiency caused by such Embossment, Waste, Spoil, or Destruction, and the Damage sustained by such Embossment, Waste, Spoil, or Destruction of such Goods or Merchandise shall be repaid and made good to such Inspector, Comptroller, or Proprietor by the Commissioners of Customs or Excise, under such Orders, Regulations, and Directions as shall be for this Purpose made and given by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury or any Three of them.

On Entry into Warehouse Bond for duty shipping and landing shall be given

XLII. And whereas it is expedient to make Regulations for the exporting of such Goods to Parts beyond the Seas as have been imported into the United Kingdom from Parts beyond the Seas, and warehoused without Payment of any Duty on the Importation thereof, or notwithstanding that the same may be prohibited to be used in the United Kingdom: be it therefore enacted, That upon the Entry outwards of any Goods to be exported from the Warehouse to Parts beyond the Seas, and before Cocker be granted, the Person in whose Name the same be entered shall give Security by Bond in Double the Value of such Goods, with One sufficient Surety, that such Goods shall be duly shipped and exported, and shall be landed at the Place for which they be entered outwards, or otherwise accounted for in the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs.

Bond for Beef and Pork, entered from Warehouse.

XLIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That upon the Entry outwards of any salted Beef or salted Pork to be exported from the Warehouse to Parts beyond the Seas, and before Cocker be granted, the Person in whose Name the same be entered shall give Security by Bond in Treble the Value of the Goods, with Two sufficient Sureties, of whom the Master of the exporting Ship shall be One, that such Beef or Pork shall be duly shipped and exported, and that no Part thereof shall be consumed on board such Ship, and that the same shall be landed at the Place for which it be entered outwards; and that a Certificate of such landing shall be produced within a reasonable Time, according to the Voyage, to be fixed by the Commissioners of the Customs, and mentioned in the Bond, such Certificate to be signed by the Officers of the Customs or other British Officer, if the Goods be landed at a Place in the British Dominions, or by the British Consul, if the Goods be landed at a Place not in the British Dominions, or that such Goods shall be otherwise accounted for to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners; and such Master shall make and sign a Declaration that such Beef or Pork is to be laden on board such Ship as Merchandise to be carried to and landed at Parts beyond the Seas, and not as Stores for the said Ship; and if such Ship shall not have so board at the Time of Clearance outwards a reasonable Supply or Stock of Beef or Pork according to the intended Voyage before upon the Visiting Bill, the Master of such Ship shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Beef and Pork exported from Warehouse not to be used as Stores.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That no Goods shall be exported from the Warehouse to the Isle of Man, except such Goods as may be imported into the said Island with License of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, and in virtue of any such License first obtained.

Removal as to the Isle of Man.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That all Goods taken from the Warehouse for Removal or for Exportation shall be removed or shall be carried to be shipped, under the Care or with the Authority or Permission of the proper Officer of the Customs, and in such Manner, and by such Persons, and within such Spaces of Time, and by such Roads or Ways as the proper Officer of the Customs shall authorize, permit, or direct; and all such Goods not so removed or carried shall be forfeited.

Goods removed from Warehouse for Shipments under Care of Officers.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Person to export any Goods so warehoused, nor to enter for Exportation to Parts beyond the Seas any Goods so warehoused, on any Ship which shall not be of the Burthen of Seveny Tons or upwards.

Ships for re-puting warehoused Goods.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That all Goods or Merchandise which shall be landed in Docks, and lodged in the Custody of the Proprietors of the said Docks, under the Provisions of this Act, not being Goods seized as forfeited to His Majesty, shall, when so landed, continue and be subject or liable to such and the same Claim for Freight in favour of the Master and Owner or Owners of the respective Ships or Vessels, or of any other Person or Persons interested in the Freight of the same, then or out of which such Goods or Merchandise shall be so landed, as such Goods, Wares, or Merchandise respectively were subject and liable to whilst the same were on board such Ships or Vessels, and before the landing thereof; and the Directors and Proprietors of any such Docks or in which any such Goods or Merchandise may be landed and lodged as aforesaid, or their Servants or Agents, or any of them, shall and may, and they are hereby authorized, empowered, and required, upon due Notice to that Effect given to them by such Master or Masters, Owner or Owners, or other Persons as aforesaid, to detain and keep such Goods and Merchandise, not being seized as forfeited to His Majesty, in the Warehouse belonging to the said Docks as aforesaid, until the respective Freight to which the same shall be subject and liable as aforesaid shall be duly paid or satisfied, together with the Rates and Charges to which the same shall have been subject and liable, or until a Deposit shall have been made by the Owner or Owners, or Consignor of such Goods or Merchandise, equal in Amount to the Claim or Demands made by the Master, Owner or Owners of the respective Ships or Vessels, or other Persons as aforesaid, for or in respect of such Goods or Merchandise; which

Goods landed in Docks liable to Claims for Freight as before landing

Deposit the said Duties or Proportions of such Duties, or their Agents respectively, are hereby authorized and directed to receive and hold in Trust until the Claim or Demand for Freight upon such Goods shall have been satisfied: upon Proof of which, and Demand made by the Person or Persons, their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, by whom the said Deposit shall have been made, and the Rates and Charges due upon the said Goods being first paid, the said Deposit shall be returned to him or them by the said Directors or Proprietors, or their Agents on their Behalf, with whom the said Deposit shall have been made as aforesaid.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, varied, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in the present Session of Parliament.

Act may be altered this Session.

An Act to grant certain Bounties and Allowances of Customs

[25th August 1833.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled An Act to grant certain Bounties and Allowances of Customs, whereby the Laws of Customs in relation to Bounties and Allowances of Customs were consolidated and amended: And whereas since the passing of the said Act divers Acts for the further Amendment of the Law have been passed necessary; and it will be of advantage to the Trade and Commerce of the Country that the said Acts should be consolidated into One Act: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That this Act shall commence upon the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and thirty three, except where any other Commencement is herein particularly directed.

C. 4. 137

Commencement of Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That so long as the Duties which are now made due and payable upon the Importation of Sugar until the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and thirty-four shall be continued, there shall be allowed upon the Exportation of Refined Sugar made in the United Kingdom the several Bounties set forth in the Table hereinafter contained; (that is to say,)

III. And be it further enacted, That the Exporter of any Goods in respect of which any Bounty is claimed under this Act, or the Person in whose Name the same are entered Outwards, shall at the Time of Entry and before Cocker be granted, give Security by Bond in Double the Value of the Goods, with One sufficient Surety, that the same shall be duly exported to the Place for which they are entered, or be otherwise accounted for to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of the Customs, and shall not be re-landed in the United Kingdom, or landed in the Ile of Man, unless expressly ordered to be re-ported thereto.

Bond to be given for duties Exportation

IV. And be it further enacted, That no Bounty shall be given upon the Exportation of any Refined Sugar called Candy, unless it be properly refined and manufactured, and free from Dirt and Scum, and packed in Packages, each of which shall contain Half a Hundred Weight of such Candy at the least.

Candy in Packages of Half Cwt.

V. And be it further enacted, That if any Sugar in Lumps or Leaves is to be powdered, crushed, or broken before the same be exported, for the Bounty payable thereon, such Lumps or Leaves shall, after due Entry thereof, be lodged in some Warehouse provided by the Exporter and approved by the Commissioners of the Customs for such Purpose, to be then first examined by the Officers of Customs with or such Lumps or Leaves, as if for immediate Shipment; and afterwards to be thus powdered, crushed, or broken, and packed for Exportation, in the Presence of such Officers and at the Expense of the Exporter; and such Sugar shall be kept in such Warehouse, and be removed from thence for Shipment, and be shipped under the Care and in the Charge of the Seaman, in order that the Shipment and Exportation thereof may be duly certified by them upon the Declaration, according to the Quality ascertained by them of the same while in such Lumps or Leaves.

Sugar weighed for Exportation

VI. And be it further enacted, That the different Sorts of such Sugar shall be kept apart from each other in such Manner and in such distinct Rooms or Divisions of such Warehouse as shall be directed and appointed by the Commissioners of the Customs, and of any Sort of such Sugar shall be found in any Part of such Warehouse appointed for the keeping of Sugar of a Sort superior in Quality thereto, the same shall be forfeited; and if any Sort of such Sugar shall be brought to such Warehouse to be powdered, crushed, or broken, which shall be of a Quality inferior to the Sort of Sugar expressed in the Duty for the same, such Ship shall be forfeited.

Different Sorts of crushed Sugar to be kept separate.

Commission of Sugar Refiners

How Sample Leaves shall be made.

Sugar entered not equal to the Standard shall be forfeited.

Drawbacks upon Exports of Silk Goods.

VII. And be it further enacted, That there shall be provided by and at the Expence of the Commission of Sugar Refiners in London, and in like Manner by and at the Expence of the Commission of Merchants in Dublin, as many Leaves of Double Refined Sugar, prepared in manner herein after directed, as the Commissioners of Customs shall think necessary; which Leaves, when approved of by the said Commissioners, shall be deemed and taken to be Standard Samples; one of which Leaves shall be lodged with the said Commissions respectively, and one other with such Person or Persons as the said Commissioners shall direct, for the Purpose of comparing therewith Double Refined Sugar, or Sugar equal in Quality to Double Refined Sugar, entered for Exportation for the Bounty; and fresh Standard Samples shall in like Manner be again furnished by such Commissions respectively, and in like Manner lodged, whenever it may be deemed expedient by the said Commissioners: Provided always, that no Leaf of Sugar shall be deemed to be a proper Sample Leaf of Double Refined Sugar as aforesaid if it be of greater Weight than Fourteen Pounds, nor unless it be a Leaf complete and whole, nor unless the same shall have been made by a distinct Second Process of Refinement from a Quantity of Single Refined Sugar, every Part of which had first been perfectly clarified and duly refined, and had been made into Leaves or Loaves which were of a uniform Whiteness throughout, and had been thoroughly dried in the Stove.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Sugar which shall be entered in order to obtain the Bounty on Double Refined Sugar, or Sugar equal in Quality to Double Refined Sugar, shall, on Examination by the proper Officer, be found to be of a Quality not equal to such Standard Sample, all Sugar so entered shall be forfeited and may be sold.

IX. And be it further enacted, That upon the Exportation of Silk Goods there shall be allowed the several Drawbacks of the Duties payable on the Importation of Thrown Silks set forth in the Table herein-after contained: (that is to say.)

DRAWBACKS ON THE EXPORTATION OF SILK GOODS MANUFACTURED IN THE UNITED KINGDOM:

| For every Pound of Stuffs or Ribbons of silk and Worsted mixed, whereof One Half at least shall be Silk, and being of the Value of Two Shillings and Four-pence at least  | 0 0 7   |

To whom only Drawbacks shall be allowed.

Drawbacks to be allowed,
if Silks are shipped within Two Years.

Drawback on Timber used in Mines.

Amount to be paid by Timber used in Mines.

Drawbacks to be made to the Profit of such Account.

X. And be it further enacted, That such Drawbacks shall be allowed only in respect of Exportations to be made by the Persons in whose Name the Amount of Duties to be drawn back had been paid, or to be made by any Holder of any written Order signed by any such Person transferring the Right of making such Exportations and of receiving such Drawbacks thereupon.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the said Drawbacks shall be allowed although the manufactured Silks in respect of which the same shall be claimed shall not have been made of the Thrown Silks in respect of which the Amount of Duties to be drawn back had been paid, and whether such Amount of Duties shall have been received under the Authority of this Act or of any former Act: Provided always, that the said Drawbacks shall not be allowed unless such manufactured Silks be shipped for Exportation within Two Years after the Payment of such Duties.

XII. And be it further enacted, That for and in respect of all Deals and Timber herein-after described, being of the Growth of Norway and imported direct from thence, and used in the Mines of Tin, Lead, or Copper in the Counties of Devon or Cornwall, or in Ireland, and on which the Duties of Customs shall have been paid, there shall be allowed and paid the several Drawbacks herein-after mentioned: (that is to say,) on any such Deals being above Seven Inches in Width, Eight Feet in Length and not above Ten Feet in Length, and not exceeding One Inch and a Half in Thickness, for every One hundred and twenty the Sum of Four Pounds One Shilling and Three-pence; and on any such Timber being Five Inches Square and not exceeding Ten Inches square, for every Load containing Fifty Cubic Feet the Sum of Two Pounds Five Shillings and Three-pence.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the several Drawbacks hereby allowed for and in respect of such Deals and such Timber so used shall be paid to the Owner of any such Mine, under the following Regulations: (that is to say,) the Purser, Agent, or Captain of any such Mine, intending to claim the Drawback under this Act, shall enter or cause to be entered in a Book to be kept for that Purpose an Account of the Quantity of such Deals and Timber used and employed in such Mine, stating of what such Deals and Timber were purchased, and at what Port the same were staved by the Vendor to have been imported, and when in each Year he shall deliver on Account thereof to the Collector or Comptroller of the Customs of the Port where the Duty upon such Deals and Timber shall have been staved to have been paid, and shall make and subscribe a Declaration before him to the Truth of such Account, and shall, if required by such Collector or Comptroller, produce the Copy Book of such Mine.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the Person or his Agent who shall have supplied the said Deals and Timber shall make and subscribe a Declaration before the Collector or Comptroller to the Truth of his Account for the same, and, referring to the Importation thereof and Payment of Duties thereon, shall certify and declare that such Deals and Timber were supplied according to such Declaration and Declaration and Timber for which the Duties of Customs had been so paid; and thereupon the Collector and Comptroller, being satisfied that such Deals and Timber were supplied for the Use of such Mine, and that the full Duties of Customs had been paid thereon, a Debiture shall be issued for the Payment of the Drawback allowed by this Act: Provided always, that no Debiture for any such Drawback shall be paid after the Expiration of Three Years from the Day on which the Duty on any of the Deals or Timber mentioned in such Debiture had been paid.

XV. And be it further enacted, That if the Purser, Agent, or Captain of such Mine shall deliver any false Account of the Quantity of Deals or Timber used and employed, with an Intent to defraud His Majesty, such Purser, Agent, or Captain shall, on being convicted of any such Offence, for the First Offence forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, and for every Second or further Offence the Sum of Four hundred Pounds, to be paid for within Three Months after the Delivery of the Account.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, varied, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

And if any Goods shall be imported into any Port or Place in any of the said Possessions contrary hereto, such Goods shall be forfeited.

III. Provided always, That if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the Provisions of this Act to any Port or Place not enumerated in the said Table, He shall be lawful for His Majesty His Privy

His Majesty
may appoint other Ports to

in Council, to extend the Provisions of this Act to such Port or Ports; and from and after the Day mentioned in such Order in Council all the Privileges and Advantages of this Act, and all the Provisions, Penalties, and Prohibitions therein contained, (subject nevertheless to the Limitations and Restrictions herein-after provided,) shall extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to any such Port or Ports respectively, as fully as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said Table at the Time of passing this Act: Provided also, that nothing herein-before contained shall extend to prohibit the Importation or Exportation of Goods into or from any Ports or Places in Newfoundland or Labrador in British Ships.

His Majesty may appoint Ports for limited Purposes.

IV. And whereas there are in the said Possessions many Places situated in Rivers and in Bays at which it may be necessary to establish Ports for particular and limited Purposes only; be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, in any Order in Council made for the Appointment of any Free Port, to limit and confine such Appointments respectively to any and such Purposes only as shall be expressed in such Order.

Privileges granted to Foreign Ships if equal to the Ships of those Countries which, having Colonial Possessions, shall grant the like Privileges to British Ships, &c.

V. And whereas by the Law of Navigation Foreign Ships are permitted to import into any of the British Possessions Abroad, from the Countries to which they belong, Goods the Produce of those Countries, and to export Goods from such Possessions to be carried to any Foreign Country wherever: And whereas it is expedient that such Privileges should be subject to certain Conditions; be it therefore enacted, That the Privileges thereby granted to Foreign Ships shall be limited to the Ships of those Countries which, having Colonial Possessions, shall grant the like Privileges of trading with those Possessions to British Ships, or which, not having Colonial Possessions, shall place the Commerce and Navigation of this Country, and of its Possessions Abroad, upon the Footing of the most favoured Nation, unless His Majesty by His Order in Council shall in any Case deem it expedient to grant the whole or any of such Privileges to the Ships of any Foreign Country, although the Conditions aforesaid shall not in all respects be fulfilled by such Foreign Country: Provided always, that no Foreign Country shall be deemed to have fulfilled the before-mentioned Conditions, or to be entitled to the Privileges aforesaid, unless and until His Majesty shall, by some Order or Orders to be by His Majesty by the Advice of His Privy Council, have declared that such Foreign Country hath so fulfilled the said Conditions and is entitled to the said Privileges: Provided also, that every Order in Council in force at the Time of the Commencement of this Act whereby Declaration is made of the Countries which are entitled in whole or in part to the Privileges of the Law of Navigation herein-before referred to and recited shall continue in force as effectually as if the same had been afterwards made under the Authority of this Act.

This Act not to take effect till the 1st of June, 1834, and 5 G. 4. c. 11. for regulating the Trade of Foreign Ships.

VI. And be it further enacted, That nothing contained in this Act, or any other Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, shall extend to repeal or in any way alter or affect an Act passed in the fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act to authorize His Majesty, under certain Circumstances, to regulate the Duties and Drawbacks on Goods imported or exported in Foreign Vessels, and to exempt certain Foreign Goods from Payment, nor to repeal or in any way alter or affect an Act passed in the fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, among other Things, to amend the last-mentioned Act; and that all Trade and Intercourse between the British Possessions and all Foreign Countries shall be subject to the Powers granted to His Majesty by those Acts.

Goods prohibited or restricted to be imported into Colonies.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the several Sorts of Goods enumerated or described in the Table following, denominatid "A Table of Prohibitions and Restrictions," are hereby prohibited to be imported or brought, either by Sea or by Land Carriage or Navigation, into the British Possessions in America, or shall be so imported or brought only under the Restrictions mentioned in such Table, according as the several Sorts of such Goods are set forth therein; (that is to say,)

DUTIES.

And if any of the Goods herein-before mentioned shall be imported through the United Kingdom, (having been warehoused therein, and exported from the Warehouse, or the Duties thereon, if there paid, having been drawn back,) the Treaty Part of the Duties herein expressed shall be remitted in respect of such Goods.

X. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act or in any other passed in the present Session of Parliament shall extend to repeal or abrogate, or in any way to alter or affect an Act passed in the Eighth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intitled *An Act for removing all Doubts and Apprehensions concerning Taxation by the Parliament of Great Britain in any of the Colonies, Provinces, and Plantations in North America and the West Indies, and for requiring so much of an Act made in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty or imposed a Duty on Tea imported from Great Britain into any Colony or Plantation in America, as relates thereto; nor to repeal or in any way alter or affect any Act now in force which was passed prior to the last-mentioned Act, and by which any Duties in any of the British Possessions in America were granted and still continue payable to the Crown; nor to repeal or in any way alter or affect an Act passed in the Thirty-first Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intitled *An Act to repeal various Parts of an Act passed in the Fourteenth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled 'An Act for making more effectual Provisions for the Government of Quebec in North America, and to make further Provisions for the Government of the said Province.'

XI. And be it further enacted, That the Duties imposed by any of the Acts herein-before mentioned or referred to, passed prior to the said Act of the Eighth Year of His Majesty's Reign, shall be received, accounted for, and applied for the Purposes of those Acts: Provided always, that no greater Proportion of the Duties imposed by this Act, except as herein-before excepted, shall be charged upon any Article which is subject also to Duty under any of the said Acts, or subject also to Duty under any Colonial Law, than the Amount, if any, by which the Duty charged by this Act shall exceed such other Duty or Duties: Provided nevertheless, that the full Amount of the Duties mentioned in this Act, whether on account of such former Acts, or on account of such Colonial Law, or on account of the Act, shall be levied and recovered and removed under the Regulations and by the Means and Powers of this Act.

XII. And be it further enacted, That all Sums of Money granted or imposed by this Act, either as Duties, Penalties, or Forfeitures, in the British Possessions in America, shall be deemed and are hereby declared to be Sterling Money of Great Britain, and shall be collected, recovered, and paid to the Amount of the Value which such several Sums bear in Great Britain; and that such Moneys may be received and taken according to the Provisions and Value of Five Shillings and Sixpence the Ounce in Silver; and that all Duties shall be paid and received in every Part of the British Possessions in America according to British Weights and Measures in use on the Sixth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty five; and that in all Cases where such Duties are imposed according to any specific Quantity or any specific Value, the same shall be deemed to apply in the same Proportion to any greater or less Quantity or Value; and that all such Duties shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the Produce of the Duties so received by the Means and Powers of this Act, except such Duties as are payable to His Majesty under any Act passed prior to the Eighteenth Year of His Majesty King George the Third as aforesaid, shall be paid by the Collector of the Customs into the Hands of the Treasurer or Receiver General of the Colony, or other proper Officer authorized to receive the same in the Colony in which the same shall be levied, to be applied to such Uses as shall be directed by the local Legislatures of such Colonies respectively; and that the Produce of such Duties so received as aforesaid in the Colonies which have an local Legislature shall be applied in such Manner as shall be directed by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

XIV. And whereas in some of His Majesty's Possessions Abroad certain Duties of Tonnage are, by Acts of the local Legislatures of such Possessions, made payable in respect of or are levied upon British Vessels, to which Duties the like Vessels built within such Possessions, or owned by Persons resident there, are not subject; be it further enacted, That there shall be levied and paid at the several British Possessions Abroad upon all Vessels built in any such Possession, or owned by any Persons or Persons there resident, other than Coasting or Dragooning Vessels employed in coasting or dragooning, all such and the like Duties of Tonnage and Shipping Duties, as shall be payable in any British Possession upon the like British Vessels built in other Parts of His Majesty's Dominions, or owned by Persons not resident in such Possessions.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Goods shall be stated in such Certificates of Clearance of any Ship from any British Possession in America to be the Produce of such Possession unless such Goods shall have been expressly stated as to be in the Entry Outwards of the same; and that all Goods not expressly stated in such Certificates of Clearance to be the Produce of the British Possessions in America shall at the Place of Importation in any other such Possession, or in the United Kingdom, be deemed to be Foreign Produce.

XIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That whenever any Ship shall be cleared out from any Port in Newfoundland, or in any other Part of His Majesty's Dominions, for the Fishery on the Banks or Coasts of Newfoundland or Labrador, or the Dependencies thereof, without having on board any Article of Traffic (except only such Provisions, Nets, Tackle, and other Things as are usually employed in and about the said Fishery, and for the Landing and carrying on of the same) the Master of any such Ship shall be entitled to demand from the Collector or other principal Officer of the Customs at such Port a Certificate under his Hand that such Ship hath been specially cleared out for the Newfoundland Fishery; and such Certificate shall be in Force for the Fishing Season for the Year in which the same may be granted, and no longer; and upon the first Arrival in any Port in the said Colony of Newfoundland, or its Dependencies, of any Ship having on board any such Certificate as aforesaid, a Report thereof shall be made by the Master of such Ship to the principal Officer of the Customs at such Port, and all Ships having such Certificate which has been so reported on board, being actually engaged in the said Fishery, or in any other Fishery, or in any other Trade, or put on board any other Ships engaged in the said Fishery any Salt, Oil, Salt, Provisions or other Necessary for the Use and Purpose thereof, shall be exempt from all Obligations to make an Entry at or obtain any Clearance from any Custom House at New/foundland upon Arrival at or Departure from any of the Ports or Harbours of the said Colony or its Dependencies during the Continuance of the Fishing Season for which such Certificate may have been granted; and previously to obtaining a Clearance at the End of such Season for any other Voyage at any of such Ports, the Master of such Ship shall deliver up the before-mentioned Certificate to the principal Officer of the Customs of such Port: Provided always, that in case any such Ship shall have on board, during the Time the same may be engaged in the said Fishery, any Goods or Merchandises whatsoever other than Fish, Seals, Oil made of Fish or Seals, Salt, Provisions, and other Things, being the Produce of or usually employed in the said Fishery, such Ship shall forfeit the said Fishing Certificate, and shall thenceforth become and be subject and liable to all such and the same Rules, Restrictions, and Regulations as Ships in general are subject or liable to.

XX. And be it further enacted, That no Goods shall be laden, or waterborne to be laden, on board any Ship, or vessel from any Ship, in any of the British Possessions in America, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, or Sark, until due Entry shall have been made of such Goods, and Warrant granted for the lading or unlading of the same; and that no Goods shall be so laden or waterborne, or so unladen, except at some Place at which an Officer of the Customs is appointed to attend the lading and unlading of Goods, or at some Place for which a Licence shall be granted by the Collector and Controller for the lading and unlading of such Goods; and that no Goods shall be so laden or unladen except in the Presence or with the Permission in Writing of the proper Officer: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs to make and appoint such other Regulations for the carrying Coastwise of any Goods, or for the removing of any Goods for Shipment, as in them shall appear expedient; and that all Goods laden, waterborne, or unladen contrary to the Regulations of this Act, or contrary to any Regulations so made and appointed, shall be forfeited.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That the Person entering any such Goods shall deliver to the Collector or Controller, or other proper Officer, a Bill of the Entry thereof, truly written in Words at Length, containing the Name of the Exporter or Importer, and of the Ship, and of the Master, and of the Place to or from which laded, and of the Place within the Port where the Goods are to be laden or unladen, and the Particulars of the Quality and Quantity of the Goods, and the Packages containing the same, and the Marks and Numbers on the Packages, and setting forth whether such Goods be the Produce of the British Possessions in America or not: and such Person shall at the same Time pay down all Duties due upon the Goods; and the Collector and Controller, or other proper Officer, shall thereupon grant their Warrant for the lading or unlading of such Goods.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That if the Importer of any Goods shall make and subscribe a Declaration before the Collector or Controller, or other proper Officer, that he cannot, for Want of full Information, make perfect Entry thereof, it shall be lawful for the Collector and Controller to make an Entry by Bill of Sight for the Packages or Parcels of such Goods by the best Description which can be given, and to grant a Warrant thereupon, in order that the same may be landed and secured to the Satisfaction of the Officer of the Customs, and at the Expense of the Importer, and may be seen and examined by such Importer in the Presence of the proper Officers: and within Three Days after the Goods shall have been so landed the Importer shall make a perfect Entry thereof, and pay down all Duties due thereon; and in default of such Entry such Goods shall be taken to the King's Warehouse, and if the Importer shall not, within One Month after such landing, make perfect Entry of such Goods, and pay the Duties due thereon, together with Charges of Removal and Warehouse Rent, such Goods shall be sold for the Purpose thereof, and the Proceeds, if any, shall be paid to the Proprietor of the Goods.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where the Duties imposed by this Act upon the Importation of Articles into His Majesty's Possessions in America are changed, and according to the Weight, Tare, Gauge, or Measure, but according to the Value thereof, such Value shall be ascertained by the Declaration of the Importer of such Articles, or his known Agent, in Manner and Form following; (that is to say,)

A. B. do hereby declare, That the Articles mentioned in the Entry, and contained in the Packages, [here specifying the several Packages, and describing the several Marks and Numbers, as the Case may be.] are of the Value of _____ Witness my Hand the _____ Day of _____
 A. B.
 The above Declaration, signed the _____ Day of _____ in the Presence of C. D.
 Collector [or other principal Officer].

Which Declaration shall be written on the Bill of Entry of such Articles, and shall be subscribed with the Hand of the Importer thereof, or his known Agent, in the Presence of the Collector or other principal Officer of the Customs at the Port of Importation; provided that if upon View and Examination of such Articles by the proper Officer of the Customs shall appear to him that the said Articles are not valued according to the true Price or Value thereof, and according to the true Tare and Mowring of this Act, then and in such Case the Importer or his known Agent shall be required to declare on Oath before the Collector or Controller what is the Invoice Price of such Articles, and that he verily believes such Invoice Price is the current Value of the Articles in the Place from whence the said Articles were imported; and such Invoice Price, with the Addition of Ten Pence per Centum thereon, shall be deemed to be the Value of the Articles, in lieu of the Value so declared by the Importer or his known Agent, and upon which the Duties imposed by this Act shall be charged and paid; provided, that, should the Invoice Price to the Collector and Controller, or other proper Officers, that such Articles have been invoiced below the real and true Value thereof, at the Place from whence the same were imported, or if the Invoice Price is not known, the Articles shall in such Case be examined by Two competent Persons, to be nominated and appointed by the Governor or Commander-in-Chief of the Colony, Plantation, or Island into which the said Articles are imported, and such Persons shall declare on Oath before the Collector or Controller, or other proper Officers, what is the true and real Value of such Articles in such Colony, Plantation, or Island; and the Value so declared on the Oath of such Persons shall be deemed to be the true and real Value of such Articles, and upon which the Duties imposed by this Act shall be charged and paid.

If Importer re-
such Duty, the Goods may be sold.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That if the Importer of such Articles shall refuse to pay the Duties hereby imposed thereon, it shall and may be lawful for the Collector or other chief Officer of the Customs where such Articles shall be imported, and he is hereby respectively required, to take and secure the same, with the Cases or other Package thereof, and to cause the same to be publicly sold within the Space of Twenty Days or the most after such Refusal made, and at such Time and Place as such Officer shall, by Four or more Days public Notice, appoint for that Purpose; which Articles shall be sold to the best Bidder; and the Money arising from the Sale thereof shall be applied in the first place in Payment of the said Duties, together with the Charges that shall have been occasioned by the said Sale, and the Overplus, if any, shall be paid to such Importer or Proprietor, or any other Person authorized to receive the same.

Respecting the Entry of Goods and and Payment of Duties.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That every Importer of any Goods shall, within Twenty Days after the Arrival of the importing Ship, make due Entry inwards of such Goods, and land the same; and in default of such Entry and Landing it shall be lawful for the Officers of the Customs to convey such Goods to the King's Warehouse; and if the Duties due upon such Goods be not paid within Three Months after such Twenty Days shall have expired, together with all Charges of Removal and Warehouse Rent, the same shall be sold, and the Produce thereof shall be applied first to the Payment of Freight and Charges, next of Duties, and the Overplus, if any, shall be paid to the Proprietor of the Goods.

Cockets, &c.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That no Goods shall be imported into any British Possession as being imported from the United Kingdom, or from any other British Possession (if any Advantage attach to such Destination), unless such Goods appear upon the Cockets or other proper Documents for the same to have been duly cleared Onwards at the Port of Exportation in the United Kingdom, or in such other British Possession, nor unless the Ground upon which such Advantage be claimed be stated in such Cocket or Document.

Goods im-
be deemed of the Growth of,
United Kingdom.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That no Goods shall, upon Importation into any of the British Possessions in America, be deemed to be of the Growth, Production, or Manufacture of the United Kingdom, or of any British Possession in America, unless imported from the United Kingdom, or from some British Possession in America.

Entry not to be called if Goods be not properly described in it.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Entry nor any Warrant for the landing of any Goods, or for the taking of any Goods out of any Warehouse, shall be deemed valid unless the Particulars of the Goods and Packages in such Entry shall correspond with the Particulars of the Goods and Packages purporting to be the same in the Report of the Ship, or in the Certificate or other Document, where any is required, by which the Importation or Entry of such Goods is authorized, nor unless the Goods shall have been properly described in such Entry by the Descriptions and with the Characters and Circumstances according to which such Goods are charged with Duty or may be imported; and any Goods taken or delivered out of any Ship or out of any Warehouse by virtue of any Entry or Warrant not corresponding or agreeing in all such Respects, or not properly describing the same, shall be deemed to be Goods landed or taken without due Entry thereof, and shall be forfeited.

Certificates of Production for Sugar, Coffee,
Cocoa, or Spices.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That before any Sugar, Coffee, Cocoa, or Spices shall be shipped for Exportation in any British Possession in America or in the Island of Mauritius, as being the Produce of such Possession or of such Island, the Proprietor of the Estate on which such Goods were produced, or his known Agent, shall make and sign an Affidavit in Writing before the Collector or Controller at the Port of Exportation, or before One of His Majesty's Justice of the Peace, or other Officer duly authorized to administer such Oath, residing in or near the Place where such Estate is situated, declaring that such Goods are the Produce of such Estate; and such Affidavit shall set forth the Name of the Estate, and the Description and Quantity of the Goods, and the Packages containing the same, with the Marks and Numbers thereon, and the Name of the Person to whose Charge the Place of Shipment they are to be sent; and if any Justice of the Peace or other Officer aforesaid shall subscribe his Name to any Writing purporting to be such Affidavit, unless the Person purporting to make such Affidavit shall actually appear before him and he swear to the Truth of the same, such Justice of the Peace or Officer aforesaid shall forfeit and pay for any such Offence the Sum of Fifty Pounds, and the Person entering and shipping such Goods shall deliver such Affidavit to the Collector or Controller or other proper Officer, and shall make and subscribe a Declaration before him that the Goods which are to be shipped by virtue of such Entry are the same as are mentioned in such Affidavit; and the Master of the Ship in which such Goods shall be laden shall, before Clearance, make and subscribe a Declaration before the Collector or Controller that the Goods shipped by virtue of such Entry are the same as are mentioned and intended in such Affidavit, to the best of his Knowledge and Belief; and thereupon the Collector and Controller, or other proper Officer, shall sign and give to the Master a Certificate of Production, stating that Proof has been made in manner aforesaid in favor of the said Goods, and that the same are the same as are mentioned and intended in such Affidavit, to the best of his Knowledge and Belief; and thereupon the Collector and Controller, or other proper Officer, shall sign and give to the Master a Certificate of Production, stating that Proof has been made in manner aforesaid in favor of the said Goods, and that the same see the Produce of such British Possession or of such Island, and setting forth in such Certificate the Name of the Exporter and of the exporting Ship, and of the Master thereof, and the Destination of the Goods, and if any Sugar, Coffee, Cocoa, or Spice be imported into any British Possession in America, as being the Produce of some other such Possession or of such Island, without such Certificate of Production, the same shall be forfeited.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That before any Sugar, Coffee, Cocoa, or Spice shall be shipped for Exportation in any British Possession in America, as being the Produce of some other such Possession, the Person exporting the same shall in the Entry Outwards state the Place of the Production, and refer to the Entry Inwards and landing of such Goods, and shall make and subscribe a Declaration before the Collector or Controller to the Identity of the same; and thereupon, if such Goods shall have been duly imported with a Certificate of Production within Twelve Months prior to the shipping for Exportation, the Collector and Controller shall sign and give to the Master a Certificate of Production founded upon and referring to the Certificate of Production under which such Goods had been so imported, and containing the like Particulars, together with the Date of such Importation.

XXXI. And whereas it is expedient to make Regulation respecting the Inland Trade of the British Possessions in America: be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful to bring or import by Land or by Inland Navigation into any of the British Possessions in America from any adjoining Foreign Country any Goods which might be lawfully imported by Sea into such Possession from such Country, and so to bring or import such Goods in the Vessels, Boats, or Carriages of such Country, as well as in British Vessels, Boats, or Carriages.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That no Vessel or Boat shall be admitted to be a British Vessel or Boat on any of the Inland Waters or Lakes in America except such as shall have been built at some Place within the British Dominions, and shall be wholly owned by British Subjects, and shall not have been repaired at any Foreign Place to a greater Extent than to the Proportion of Ten Shillings for every Ton of such Vessel or Boat as any One Time: Provided always, that nothing herein-before contained shall extend to prevent the Employment of any Vessel or Boat as a British Vessel or Boat on such Inland Waters or Lakes which shall have wholly belonged to British Subjects before the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, and which shall not have been since that Day repaired as aforesaid in any Foreign Place.

XXXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful so to bring or import any Goods except into some Port or Place of Entry at which a Custom House now is or hereafter may be lawfully established: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person administering the Government of any of the said Possessions respectively, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Executive Council thereof for the Time being, if any Executive Council be there established, from Time to Time to diminish or increase, by Proclamation, the Number of Ports or Places of Entry which are or hereafter may be appointed in such Province for the Entry of Goods brought or imported as aforesaid.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That the Duties imposed by this Act shall be ascertained, levied, and recovered for and upon all Goods so brought or imported in the same Manner, and by the same Means, and under the same Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties, and Particulars, as the Duties on the like Goods imported by Sea may and can be ascertained, levied, or recovered, as far as the same are applicable; and if any Goods shall be brought or imported contrary hereto, or if any Goods so brought or imported shall be removed from the Station or Place appointed for the Examination of such Goods by the Officers of the Customs before all Duties payable thereon shall have been paid or satisfied, such Goods shall be forfeited, together with the Vessel, Boat, or Carriage, and the Horses or other Cattle, in or by which such Goods shall have been so imported or brought, or so removed.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That the same Tonnage Duties shall be paid upon all Vessels or Boats of the United States of America importing any Goods into either of the Provinces of Upper or Lower Canada as are or may be for the Time being payable in the United States of America on British Vessels or Boats entering the Harbours of the State from whence such Goods shall have been imported.

XXXVI. And whereas it is expedient to constitute and appoint some of the free Ports and other Ports in America to be free warehousing Ports or to be warehousing Ports for all or any of the Goods which may be legally imported into the said Ports respectively, and it is also expedient to empower His Majesty to constitute and appoint from Time to Time any other Ports in any of the said British Possessions in America to be in like Manner warehousing Ports for such Goods as may be legally imported into such Ports respectively; and it is therefore necessary to make Regulations for the appointing of proper Warehouses at such Ports, and for the lodging and securing of Goods therein; be it therefore enacted, That the several Ports herein-after mentioned, (that is to say,)

*Philadelphia in Barbadoes, Quebec in Canada,
Smyrna in Cape Breton,
Boston in Demerara, shall be Free Warehouses Ports for all the Purposes of this Act; and that Kingston and Montreal in the Canadas, and shall be Warehousing Ports for the warehousing of Goods brought by Land or by Inland Navigation, or imported in Ballast Ships; and that it shall be lawful for the several Collectors and Controllers of the said Ports respectively, by Notice in Writing under their Hands, to appoint from Time to Time such Warehouses at such Ports respectively as shall be approved of by them for the free warehousing and securing of Goods therein for the Purposes of this Act, and also in such Notice to declare what Sort of Goods may be so warehoused, and also by like Notice to revoke or alter any such Appointment or Declaration: Provided always, that every such Notice shall be transmitted to the Governor of the Place, and shall be published in such Manner as he shall direct.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Importer of any such Goods into the said Ports to warehouse the same in the Warehouse to be appointed, without Payment of any Duty on the first Entry thereof, subject nevertheless to the Rate, Regulations, Restrictions, and Conditions herein-after contained.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That upon the Arrival of any Goods at any frontier Port in the Canadas, such Goods may be entered, with the proper Officer of the Customs at such Port, to be warehoused at some warehousing Port in the Canadas, and may be delivered by such Officer to be passed on to such warehousing Port, under Bond, to the Satisfaction of such Officer, for the due Arrival and warehousing of such Goods at such Port.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That all Goods so warehoused shall be stored in such Parts or Divisions of the Warehouse and in such Manner as the Collector and Controller shall direct; and that the Warehouse shall be locked and secured in such Manner, and shall be opened and visited only at such Times, and in the Presence of such Officers, and under such Rules and Regulations, as the Collector and Controller shall direct; and that all such Goods shall, after being landed upon Importation, be carried to the Warehouse, or shall, after being taken out of the Warehouse for Exportation, be carried to be shipped, under such Rules and Regulations as the Collector and Controller shall direct.

XL. And be it further enacted, That upon the Entry of any Goods to be warehoused the Importer of such Goods, instead of paying down the Duties due thereon, shall give Bond with Two sufficient Sureties, to be approved of by the Collector or Controller, in Treble the Duties payable on such Goods, with Conditions for the safe depositing of such Goods in the Warehouse mentioned in such Entry, and for the Payment of all Duties due upon such Goods, or for the Exportation thereof, according to the first Account taken of such Goods upon the landing of the same; and with further Conditions, that no Part thereof shall be taken out of such Warehouse and cleared from thence upon due Entry and Payment of Duty, or upon due Entry for Exportation; and with further Conditions, that the Whole of such Goods shall be so cleared from such Warehouse, and the Duties, upon any Deficiency of the Quantity according to such first Account, shall be paid, within Two Years from the Date of the first Entry thereof; and if after such Bond shall have been given the Goods or any Part thereof shall be sold or disposed of, so that the original Bonders shall be no longer interested in or have any Control over the same, it shall be lawful for the Collector and Controller to admit fresh Security to be given by the Bond of the new Proprietor or other Person having Control over such Goods, with his sufficient Sureties, and to cancel the Bond given by the original Bonders of such Goods, or to consent to his to the Extent of the fresh Security so given.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That if any Goods which have been entered to be warehoused shall not be duly carried and deposited in the Warehouse, or shall afterwards be taken out of the Warehouse without due Entry and Clearance, or having been entered and cleared for Exportation from the Warehouse shall not be duly carried and shipped, or shall afterwards be re-landed except with Permission of the proper Officer of the Customs, such Goods shall be forfeited.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That upon the Entry and Landing of any Goods to be warehoused the proper Officer of the Customs shall take a particular Account of the same, and shall mark the Contents on each Package, and shall enter the same in a Book to be kept for that Purpose; and no Goods which have been so warehoused shall be taken or delivered from the Warehouse except upon due Entry, and under Care of the proper Officers for Exportation, or upon due Entry and Payment of Duty for Home Use; and whenever the Whole of the Goods warehoused under any Entry shall be cleared from the Warehouse, or whenever further Time shall be granted for any such Goods to remain warehoused, an Account shall be made out of the Quantity upon which the Duties have been paid, and of the Quantity exported, and of the Quantity (to be then accounted) of the Goods still remaining in the Warehouse as the Case may be, deducting from the Whole the Quantity contained in any whole Packages (if any) which may have been abandoned for the Duties; and if upon such Account there shall in either Case appear to be any Deficiency of the original Quantity, the Duty payable upon the Amount of such Deficiency shall then be paid.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That Goods warehoused at any warehousing Port in any of the British Possessions in America, being first duly entered, may be delivered, under the Authority of the proper Officer of the Customs, without Payment of Duty, except for any Deficiency thereof, for the Purpose of Removal to another warehousing Port in the same Possession, under Bond, to the Satisfaction of such Officer, for the due Arrival and re-warehousing of such Goods at such other Port.

Goods warehoused may be delivered for Removal without Payment of Duty.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That all Goods which have been so warehoused or re-warehoused shall be duly cleared, either for Exportation or for Home Consumption, within Two Years from the Day of first Entry for the warehousing thereof; and if any such Goods be not so cleared, it shall be lawful for the Collector and Controller to cause the same to be sold, and the Produce shall be applied, first to the Payment of the Duties, next of Warehouse Rent and other Charges, and the Overplus (if any) shall be paid to the Proprietor: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Collector and Controller to grant further Time for any such Goods to remain warehoused, if they shall see fit so to do.

All Goods to be cleared within Two Years, or more.

Further Time.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That upon the Entry Outwards of any Goods to be exported from the Warehouse, the Person entering the same shall give Security by Bond in Treble the Duties of Importation on the Quantity of such Goods, with Two sufficient Sureties, to be approved by the Collector or Controller, that the same shall be landed at the Place for which they be entered Outwards, or be otherwise accounted for to the Satisfaction of the Collector and Controller.

Bond on Entry for Exportation.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, from Time to Time to appoint any Part in His Majesty's Possessions in America to be a free warehousing Port for all or any of the Purposes of this Act; and every such Port so appointed by His Majesty shall be, for all the Purposes expressed in such Order, a free warehousing Port under this Act, as if appointed by the same.

Power to appoint other Ports.

XLIX. And whereas it is expedient that all Duties and Regulations relating to Importation and Exportation into and from His Majesty's Islands in the West Indies, should be extended to the Island of Mauritius; be it therefore enacted, That all Goods, Wares, and Merchandise, the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of the Island of Mauritius, and all Goods, Wares, and Merchandise which having been imported into the said Island of Mauritius shall be imported from thence into any Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or into any Possessions of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, shall be liable, upon such Importation into the United Kingdom or into any such Possessions respectively, to the Payment of the same Duties, and shall be subject to the same Regulations as the like Goods, Wares, and Merchandise being of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of His Majesty's Islands in the West Indies, or having been imported into and exported from any of the said Islands, and imported from the same into the said United Kingdom or into any such Possessions respectively, would in such Importation be liable to the Payment of or would be subject unto, and that upon the Exportation of any Goods, Wares, or Merchandise from the United Kingdom to the Island of Mauritius such Goods, Wares, or Merchandise shall be liable to the same Duties and shall be entitled to the like Drawbacks respectively as would or might by Law be charged or allowed upon the like Goods from the United Kingdom to any of His Majesty's Islands in the West Indies; and that all Goods, Wares, and Merchandise which shall be imported into or exported from the said Island of Mauritius from or to any Place whatsoever, other than the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, shall upon such Importation or Exportation respectively be liable to the Payment of the same Duties, and shall be subject to the same Regulations, so far as any such Regulations can or may be applied, as the like Goods, Wares, and Merchandise, so far as any such Regulations can or may be subject to upon Importation or Exportation into or from any of His Majesty's Islands in the West Indies; and that all Ships and Vessels whatever which shall arrive at or depart from the said Island of Mauritius shall be liable to the Payment of the same Duties and shall be subject to the same Regulations as such Ships or Vessels would be liable to the Payment of or would be subject to if arriving at or departing from any of His Majesty's Islands in the West Indies.

Goods from Mauritius liable to same Duties and Regulations as West India Goods.

L. And be it further enacted, That in all Trade with the British Possessions in America, the Cape of Good Hope, and the Territories and Dependencies thereof, shall be deemed to be within the Limits of the East India Company's Charter.

inble to a Duty of Ten Shillings per Ton, and no more; and in case Seizure be made of any Articles so imported, upon the Ground that they are not such Supplies, or are for the Purpose of Trade, the Proof to the contrary shall lie on the Dutch Proprietor importing the same, and not on the seizing Officer; Provided always, that if sufficient Security be Bond be given in Court to abide the Decision of the Commissioners of Customs upon such seizure, the Goods so seized shall be admitted to Entry and released.

LII. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for such Dutch Proprietors to export the Produce of their Estates in the United Kingdom, or to any of His Majesty's Sugar Colonies in America, except under the Conditions hereinafter provided.

LIII. And be it further enacted, That all Subjects of His Majesty the King of the Netherlands resident in His said Majesty's European Dominions who were at the Date of the Signature of the Convention between His late Majesty King George the Third and the King of the Netherlands, dated the Twelfth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, Proprietors of Estates in the said Colonies, and all Subjects of His said Majesty who may hereafter become possessed of Estates then belonging to Dutch Proprietors therein, and all such Proprietors as being their resident in the said Colonies, and being Natives of His said Majesty's Dominions in the Netherlands, may have declared, within Three Months after the Publication of the aforesaid Convention in the said Colonies, that they wish to continue to be considered as such, and all Subjects of His said Majesty the King of the Netherlands who may be the Holders of Mortgages of Estates in the said Colonies made prior to the Date of the Convention, and who may under their Mortgage Bonds have the Right of exporting from the said Colonies to the Netherlands the Produce of such Estates, shall be deemed Dutch Proprietors under the Provisions of this Act, provided that whereas both Dutch and British Subjects have Mortgages upon the same Property in the said Colonies, the Produce to be assigned to the different Mortgagees shall be in proportion to the Debts respectively due to them.

LIV. And whereas it is expedient to permit any of such Persons, at their Option, to relinquish such Character of Dutch Proprietors: be it therefore enacted, That if any such Person shall make and sign a Declaration in Writing, attested by Two credible Witnesses, setting forth that he is desirous and has elected not to be deemed to be a Dutch Proprietor within the Meaning of the said Act in respect of any such Estate or Mortgage to be mentioned and named in such Declaration, and shall cause such Declaration to be delivered to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, such Person shall thenceforth be no longer nor again deemed a Dutch Proprietor within the Meaning of the said Act in respect of the Estate or Mortgage so mentioned in such Declaration aforesaid, and such Declaration shall have effect in respect of any Goods the Produce of any such Estate of which such Person so far as relates to those Goods was a Dutch Proprietor, although such Goods may have been exported from the Colony before the delivering of such Declaration as aforesaid.

LV. And be it further enacted, That no British Merchant Ship or Vessel shall visit any Place in the Island of Jamaica in any Place in the Island of Saint Domingo, nor from any Place in the Island of Saint Domingo to any Place in the Island of Jamaica, under the Penalty of the Forfeiture of each Ship or Vessel, together with her Cargo; and that no Foreign Ship or Vessel which shall have come from, or shall in the Course of her Voyage have touched at, any such Place in the Island of Saint Domingo, shall come into any Port or Harbour in the Island of Jamaica; and if any such Ship or Vessel, having come into any such Port or Harbour, shall continue there for Forty-eight Hours after Notice shall have been given by the Officer of the Customs to depart thereon, such Ship or Vessel shall be forfeited; and if any Person shall be landed in the Island of Jamaica from on board any Ship or Vessel which shall have come from or touched at the Island of Saint Domingo, except in case of urgent Necessity, or unless License shall have been given by the Governor of Jamaica to land such Person, such Ship shall be forfeited, together with her Cargo.

LVI. And be it further enacted, That all Laws, Bye Laws, Orders, or Customs at this Time or which hereafter shall be in practice, or endeavoured or pretended to be in force or practice, in any of the British Possessions in America, which are in any way repugnant to this Act, or to any Act of Parliament made or hereafter to be made in the United Kingdom, so far as such Act shall relate to and mention the said Possessions, are and shall be null and void to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

LVII. Provided always, and be it enacted and declared, That no Exemption from Duty in any of the British Possessions Abroad, contained in any Act of Parliament, does or shall extend to any Duty not imposed by Act of Parliament, unless and so far only as any Duty not so imposed is or shall be expressly mentioned in such Exemption.

LVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Officers of Customs to go on board any ship in any Port in any British Possession in America, and to runnages and search all Parts of such Ship for prohibited and uncustomed Goods, and also to go on board any Ship hovering within One League of any of the Coasts thereof, and in either Case freely to stay on board such Ship so long as she shall remain in such Port or within such Distance: and if any such Ship be boarded elsewhere, and shall continue so hovering for the Space of Twenty-four Hours after the Master shall have been required to depart, it shall be lawful for the Officer of the Customs to bring such Ship into Port, and to search and examine her Cargo, and to examine the Master upon Oath touching the Cargo and Voyage; and if there be any Goods on board prohibited to be exported into such Possession, such Ship and her Cargo shall be forfeited; and if the Master shall not truly answer the Questions which shall be demanded of him in such Examination, he shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

LIX. And be it further enacted, That all Vessels, Boats, Carriages, and Cattle made use of in the Removal of any Goods liable to Forfeiture under this Act shall be forfeited, and every Person who shall assist or be otherwise concerned in the unshipping, loading, or Removal, or in the harbouring of such Goods, or into whose Hands or Possession the same shall knowingly come, shall forfeit the Treble Value thereof, or the Penalty of One hundred Pounds, at the Election of the Officers of the Customs; and the Assessor in any Information or Label to be exhibited for the Recovery of such Penalty, that the Officer proceeding has elected to sue for the Sum mentioned in the Information, shall be deemed sufficient Proof of such Election, without any other or further Evidence of such Fact.

LX. And be it further enacted, That all Goods, and all Ships, Vessels, and Boats, and all Carriages, and all Cattle, liable to Forfeiture under the Act, shall and may be seized and secured by any Officer of the Customs or Navy, or by any Person employed for that Purpose by or with the Concurrence of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs; and every Person who shall in any way hinder, oppose, molest, or obstruct any Officer of the Customs or Navy, or any Person so employed as aforesaid, in the Exercise of his Office, or any Person acting in his Aid or Assistance, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

LXI. And be it further enacted, That, under Authority of a Writ of Assistance granted by the Superior or Supreme Court of Justice or Court of Vice Admiralty having Jurisdiction in the Place (who are hereby authorized and required to grant such Writ of Assistance upon Application made to them for that Purpose by the principal Officers of His Majesty's Customs, it shall be lawful for any Officer of the Customs, acting with him a Peace Officer, to enter any Building or other Place in the Kingdom, and to search for and seize and secure any Goods liable to Forfeiture under this Act, and, in case of Necessity, to break open any Doors and any Chests or other Packages for that Purpose; and such Writ of Assistance, when issued, shall be deemed to be in force during the whole of the Reign in which the same shall have been granted, and for Twelve Months from the Conclusion of such Reign.

LXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall by Force or Violence assault, resist, oppose, molest, hinder, or obstruct any Officer of the Customs or Navy, or other Person employed as aforesaid, in the Exercise of his Office, or any Person acting in his Aid or Assistance, such Person being thereof convicted shall be adjudged a Felon, and shall be proceeded against as such, and punished at the Discretion of the Court before whom such Person shall be tried.

LXIII. And be it further enacted, That all Things which shall be seized as being liable to Forfeiture under the Act, or under any Act made for the Prevention of Smuggling, or relating to the Revenue of the Customs, or to Trade or Navigation, shall be taken forthwith and delivered into the Custody of the Collector and Controller of the Customs at the Custom House next to the Place where the same were seized, who shall secure the same by such Means and in such Manner as shall be provided and directed by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs; and after Comprehension thereof the Collector and Controller shall cause the same to be sold by public Auction to the best Bidder: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Customs to direct in what Manner the Produce of such Sale shall be applied, or, in case of such Sale, to direct that any of such Things shall be destroyed, or that they be reserved for the public Service.

LXIV. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures which may have been heretofore or may be hereafter incurred under this or any other Act relating to the Customs or to Trade or Navigation shall and may be prosecuted, sued for, and recovered in any Court of Record or of Vice Admiralty having Jurisdiction in the Colony or Plantation where the Cause of Prosecution arises, and in Cases where those shall happen to be in such Courts, then in any Court of Record or of Vice Admiralty having Jurisdiction in some British Colony or Plantation near to that where the Cause of Prosecution arises: provided that in Cases where a Seizure is made in any other Colony than that where the Forfeiture occurs, such Seizure may be prosecuted in any Court of Record or of Vice Admiralty having Jurisdiction either in the Colony or Plantation where the Forfeiture occurs, or in the Colony or Plantation where the Seizure is made, at the Election of the Seizer or Prosecutor; and in Cases where there shall happen to be no such Courts in either of the last-mentioned Colonies or Plantations, then in the Court of Record or of Vice Admiralty having Jurisdiction in some British Colony or Plantation near to that where the Forfeiture occurs or to that where the Seizure is made, at the Election of the Seizer or Prosecutor.

LXV. And be it further enacted, That if any Goods or any Ship or Vessel shall be seized as forfeited under this Act, or any Act heretofore to be made, and detained in any of the British Possessions or Colonies, it shall be lawful for the Judge or Judges of any Court having Jurisdiction to try and determine such Seizures, with the Consent of the Collector and Controller of the Customs, to order the Delivery thereof on Security by Bond, with Two sufficient Sureties, to be first approved by such Collector and Controller, to answer Double the Value of the same in case of Contumaciousness; and such Bond shall be taken to the Use of His Majesty in the Name of the Collector of the Customs in whose Custody the Goods or the Ship or Vessel may be lodged, and such Bond shall be delivered and kept in the joint Custody of such Collector and his Controller, and in case the Goods or the Ship or Vessel shall be condemned, the Value thereof shall be paid into the Hands of such Collector, who shall thereupon, with the Consent or Privy of his Controller, cancel such Bond.

LXVI. And be it further enacted, That no Suit shall be commenced for the Recovery of any Penalty or Forfeiture under this Act except in the Name of some superior Officer of the Customs or Navy, or other Person employed under this Act, or in the Name of His Majesty's Attorney or Solicitor General, or Forfeiture of Vessels, Carriages, &c. occurring Goods liable to Forfeiture.

Goods, Vessels, &c. liable to Forfeiture may be seized by Officers.

Writ of Assistance may be issued for and to secure Goods liable to Forfeiture.

Obstruction of Officers by Force.

Goods seized to be secured at the next Custom House, and sold by Auction.

Jurisdiction for Prosecution of Penalties and Forfeitures.

Bail may be given for Goods or Ships seized.

Suits to be commenced in Name of Officers.

Issues of Customs, &c.

for the Place where such Suit shall be commenced; and if a Question shall arise, whether any Person is an Officer of the Customs or Navy, or such other Person as aforesaid, such oral Evidence may be given of such Fact, and shall be deemed legal and sufficient Evidence.

Owner prohibits to be an Party.

LXVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Goods shall be seized for Nonpayment of Duties, or any other Cause of Forfeiture, and any Dispute shall arise whether the Duties have been paid for the same, or the same have been lawfully imported, or lawfully taken or exported, the Proof thereof shall be on the Owner or Claimer of such Goods, and not on the Officer who shall seize and stop the same.

Claims to Things seized to be entered in Name of the Owner.

LXVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Claim to any Thing seized under this Act, and returned into any of His Majesty's Courts for Adjudication, shall be admitted, unless such Claim be entered in the Name of the Owner, with his Residence and Occupation, nor unless Oath to the Property in such Thing be made by the Owner, or by his Attorney or Agent by whom such Claim shall be covered, to the best of his Knowledge and Belief; and every Person making a false Oath thereto shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor, and shall be liable to the Fines and Penalties to which Persons are liable for a Misdemeanor.

No Person allowed to enter Claim for any Thing seized, unless Security first given.

LXIX. And be it further enacted, That no Person shall be admitted to enter a Claim to any Thing seized in pursuance of this Act, and prosecuted in any of the British Possessions in America, until sufficient Security shall have been given in the Court where such Seizure is prosecuted, in a Penalty not exceeding Forty Pounds, to answer and pay the Costs occasioned by such Claim, and in default of giving such Security, such Things shall be adjudged to be forfeited, and shall be condemned.

A Month's Notice of Action to be given in Office.

LXX. And be it further enacted, That no Writ shall be sued out against, nor a Copy of any Process served upon, any Officer of the Customs or Navy, or other Person as aforesaid, for any thing done in the Execution of his Office, until One Calendar Month after Notice in Writing shall have been delivered to him, or left at his usual Place of Abode, by the Attorney or Agent to the Party who intends to sue out such Writ or Process, in which Notice shall be clearly and explicitly contained the Cause of the Action, the Name and Place of Abode of the Person who is to bring such Action, and the Name and Place of Abode of the Attorney or Agent; and no Evidence of the Cause of such Action shall be produced except as aforesaid shall be contained in such Notice; and no Verdict shall be given for the Plaintiff unless he shall prove on the Trial that such Notice was given; and in default of such Proof the Defendant shall receive in such Action a Verdict and Costs.

Actions to be brought within Three Months of the Cause of them.

LXXI. And be it further enacted, That every such Action shall be brought within Three Calendar Months after the Cause thereof, and shall be laid and tried in the Place or District where the Facts were committed; and the Defendant may plead the General Issue and give the special Matter in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff shall become nonsuited, or shall discontinue the Action, or if upon a Verdict of Demurrer Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff, the Defendant shall receive Treble Costs, and have such Recovery for the same as any Defendant can have in other Cases where Costs are given by Law.

Judge may certify probable Cause of Seizure.

LXXII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Information or Suit shall be brought on Trial on account of any Seizure made under this Act, and a Verdict shall be found for the Claimant thereof, and the Judge or Court before whom the Cause shall have been tried shall certify on the Record that there was probable Cause of Seizure, the Claimant shall not be entitled to any Costs of Suit, nor shall the Person who made such Seizure be liable to any Action, indictment, or other Suit or Prosecution on account of such Seizure; and if any Action, Indictment, or other Suit or Prosecution shall be brought on Trial against any Person on account of such Seizure, where a Verdict shall be given against the Defendant, the Plaintiff, besides the Thing seized, or the Value thereof, shall not be entitled to more than Two-pence Damages, nor to any Costs of Suit, nor shall the Defendant in such Prosecution be fined more than One Shilling.

Officer may tender Amends.

LXXIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for such Officer, within One Calendar Month after such Notice, to tender Amends to the Party complainant, or his Agent, and to plead such Tender in Bar to any Action, together with other Pleas; and if the Jury shall find the Amends sufficient, they shall give a Verdict for the Defendant; and in such Case, or in case the Plaintiff shall become nonsuited, or shall discontinue his Action, or Judgment shall be given for the Defendant upon Demurrer, then such Defendant shall be entitled to the like Costs as he would have been entitled to in case he had pleaded the General Issue only: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for such Defendant, by Leave of the Court where such Action shall be brought, at any Time before Issue joined, to pay Money into Court as in other Actions.

Judge may certify probable Cause of Action.

LXXIV. And be it further enacted, That in any such Action, if the Judge or Court before whom such Action shall be tried shall certify upon the Record that the Defendant or Defendants in such Action acted upon probable Cause, then the Plaintiff in such Action shall not be entitled to more than Two-pence Damages, nor to any Costs of Suit.

Recovery and Application of Penalties.

LXXV. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures recovered in any of the British Possessions in America under this Act, or under any Act made for the Prevention of Smuggling, or relating to the Revenue of Customs, or to Trade or Navigation, shall be paid into the Hands of the Collector or Controller of the Port or Place in the British Possessions in America where the same shall have been recovered, and shall be divided, paid, and applied as follows, (that is to say) after deducting the Charges of Prosecution from the Proceeds thereof, One Third Part of the net Proceed shall be paid into the Hands of the Collector of His Majesty's Customs at the Port or Place where such Penalties or For-in-Chief of the said Colony or Plantation, and the other Third Part to the Person who shall seize, inform, and sue for the same; excepting such Seizures as shall be made at Sea by the Commanders or Officers of His Majesty's Ships of War, fully authorized to make Seizures, One Moiety of which Seizures, and of the Penalties and Forfeitures recovered thereon, first deducting the Charges of Prosecution from the gross Produce thereof, shall be paid as aforesaid to the Collector of His Majesty's Customs, to and for the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to him or them who shall seize, inform, and sue for the same, any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding: subject nevertheless to such Distribution of the Produce of the Seizures so made at Sea, as well with regard to the Moiety herein-before granted to His Majesty as with regard to the other Moiety given to the Seizer or Prosecutor, as His Majesty shall think fit to order and direct by any Order or Orders of Council, or by any Proclamation or Proclamations to be made for that Purpose.

LXXVI. And be it further enacted, That all Actions or Suits for the Recovery of any of the Penalties or Forfeitures imposed by this Act may be commenced or prosecuted at any Time within Three Years after the Offence committed by reason whereof such Penalty or Forfeiture shall be incurred, any Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

LXXVII. And be it further enacted, That no Appeal shall be prosecuted from any Decree or Sentence of any of His Majesty's Courts in America touching any Penalty or Forfeiture imposed by this Act, or by any Act made for the Prevention of Smuggling, or relating to the Revenue of Customs, or to Trade and Navigation, unless the Inhibition shall be applied for and doctored within Twelve Months from the Time when such Decree or Sentence was pronounced.

LXXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in any Case in which Proceedings shall have been or shall hereafter be instituted in any Court of Vice Admiralty or other competent Court in any of His Majesty's Possessions Abroad against any Ship, Vessel, Boat, Goods, or Effects, for the Recovery of any Penalty or Forfeiture under any Act for the Prevention of Smuggling, or relating to the Revenue of Customs, or to the Trade or Navigation of the United Kingdom or of any of His Majesty's Possessions Abroad, the Execution of any Sentence or Decree respecting such Ship, Vessel, Boat, Goods, or Effects to the Crewmen thereof, which shall be pronounced by the said Vice Admiralty Court in which such Proceedings shall have been had, shall not be suspended by reason of any Appeal which shall be prayed and allowed from such Sentence, provided that the Party or Parties appellants shall give sufficient Security, in the approval of by the Court, to render and deliver the Ship, Vessel, Boat, Goods, or Effects concerning which such Sentence or Decree shall be pronounced, or the full Value thereof, to be accretized either by Agreement between the Parties, or in case the said Parties cannot agree, then by Appointment under the Authority of the said Court, to the Appellant or Appellants in case the Sentence or Decree to appealed from shall be reversed, and such Ship, Vessel, Boat, Goods, or Effects be ultimately condemned.

LXXIX. And be it further enacted, That all Persons authorized to make Seizures under an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act to amend and consolidate the Laws relating to the Abolition of the Slave Trade, shall, in making and prosecuting any such Seizures, have the Benefit of all the Provisions granted to Persons authorized to make Seizures under this Act.

LXXX. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures created by the said Act passed in the Fifth Year of His late Majesty, whether pecuniary or specific, shall (except in Cases specially provided for by the said Act) go and belong to such Persons as are authorized by that Act to make Seizures, in such Shores, and shall and may be used for and prosecuted, tried, recovered, distributed, and applied in such and the like Manner, and by the same Ways and Means, and subject to the same Rules and Directions, as any Penalties and Forfeitures incurred in Great Britain and in the several Possessions in America respectively now go and belong to, and may be used, prosecuted, tried, recovered, and distributed respectively, in Great Britain or in the said Possessions, under and by virtue of this Act.

LXXXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders in Council to be issued from Time to Time, to give such Directions and make such Regulations touching the Trade and Commerce to and from any several Possessions as or in any Part of the Continent of Europe, or within the Mediterranean Sea, or in Africa, or within the Limits of the East India Company's Charter (excepting the Possessions of the said Company), as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary, any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and if any Goods shall be imported or exported in any Manner contrary to any such Order of His Majesty in Council, the same shall be forfeited, together with the Ship importing or exporting the same.

LXXXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the East India Company, during the Continuance of their exclusive Privileges of Trade (a), to trade in and export from any Place within the Limits of their Charter any Goods for the Purpose of being carried to some of His Majesty's Possessions in America, and so to carry and to import the same into any of such Possessions, and also to carry Return Carriage from such Possessions to any Place within the Limits of their Charter, or to the United Kingdom; and that it shall be lawful for any of His Majesty's Subjects, with the License in Writing granted by or under the Authority of the said Company, to trade in and export from any of the Dominions of the Emperor of China any Goods, and to trade in and export from any Place within the Limits of the said Company's Charter any Tea, for the Purpose of being carried to some of His Majesty's Possessions in America, and also so to carry and to import the same into any of such Possessions.

Limitation of Suits.

Limitation of Appeals.

Security to abide an Appeal from Decree of Vice Admiralty Court.

Persons authorized to make Seizures under 24 G. 3. c. 24, to have the Benefit of this Act.

Application of Penalties under 24 G. 3. c. 24.

The King may regulate the Trade of several Colonies.

East India Company may carry Goods from India to Colonies.

Private Persons may trade in China or in Tea, for the Benefit of the Company of the Colonies.

Certificate of

E. India Sugar.

LXXXIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person, being the Shipper of any Sugar the Produce of some British Possession within the Limits of the East India Company's Charter, to be exported from any Place in such Possession, to go before the Collector or Controller or other chief Officer of the Customs at such Place, or if there be no such Officer of the Customs, to go before the principal Officer of such Place, or the Judge or Commercial Resident of the District, and make and sign an Affidavit before him that such Sugar was really and lawfully the Produce of such British Possession, to the best of his Knowledge and Belief; and such Officer, Judge, or Resident is hereby authorized and required to administer such Affidavit, and to grant a Certificate thereof, setting forth in such Certificate the Name of the Ship in which the Sugar is to be exported, and the Destination of the same.

Ships built
January 1834 owned British ships within certain Limits.

LXXXIV. And be it further enacted, That all Ships built at any Place within the Limits of the East India Company's Charter prior to the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, and which then were and have continued ever since to be solely the Property of His Majesty's Subjects, shall be deemed to be British Ships for all the Purposes of Trade within the said Limits, including the Cape of Good Hope, any thing in this Act, or in any other Act or Acts passed in the present Session of Parliament, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Certificate of Production of Cape Wine.

LXXXV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Shipper of any Wine the Produce of the Cape of Good Hope or of its Dependencies, which is to be exported from thence to go before the chief Officer of the Customs, and make and sign an Affidavit before him that such Wine was really and lawfully the Produce of the Cape of Good Hope or of its Dependencies; and such Officer is hereby authorized and required to administer such Affidavit, and to grant a Certificate thereof, setting forth in such Certificate the Name of the Ship in which the Wine is to be exported, and the Destination of the same.

Certificate of Production of Goods in Garnsey, &c.

LXXXVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person who is about to export from any of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, or Sark to the United Kingdom, or to any of the British Possessions in America, any Goods of the Growth or Produce of any of those Islands, or any Goods manufactured from Materials which were the Growth or Produce thereof, or of the United Kingdom, to go before any Magistrate of the Island from which the Goods are to be exported, and make and sign before him a Declaration that such Goods, describing the same, are of such Growth or Produce, or of such Manufacture, and such Magistrate shall administer and sign such Declaration; and thereupon the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Commander-in-Chief of the Island from which the Goods are to be exported shall, upon the Delivery to him of such Declaration, grant a Certificate under his Hand of the Proof contained in such Declaration, stating the Ship or Vessel and the Port to which, in the United Kingdom or in any such Possession, the Goods are to be exported, and such Certificate shall be the proper Document to be produced at such Ports respectively in proof that the Goods mentioned therein are of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of such Islands respectively.

Tea may not be imported into Guernsey,
&c. except from United Kingdom.

LXXXVII. And be it further enacted, That during the Continuance of the exclusive Right of Trade now enjoyed by the East India Company it shall not be lawful to import into any of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, or Sark, any Tea, except from the United Kingdom, and if any Tea shall be brought into any of such Islands from any other Place than from the United Kingdom, or not having been duly entered and cleared in the United Kingdom to be exported to such Island, the same shall be forfeited.

Guernsey, &c.
Tonnage of Ships and Boats at Port for Spirits.

LXXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Brandy, Geneva, or other Spirits (except Rum of the British Possessions) shall be imported into or exported from the Islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, or Sark, or either of them, or removed from any one to any other of the said Islands, or otherwise from any one Part to any other Part of either of the said Islands, or shall be shipped in order to be so removed or carried, or shall be waterborne for the Purpose of being so shipped at any Ship, Vessel, or Boat of less Burthen than One hundred Tons (except when imported from the United Kingdom on Ships of the Burthen of Seventy Tons at least), nor in any Cask or Package of less Size or Content than Forty Gallons, (except when in Bottles, and carried in a Square-rigged Ship,) nor any Tobacco or Snuff in any Ship, Vessel, or Boat of less Burthen than One hundred Tons (except when imported from the United Kingdom in Ships of the Burthen of Seventy Tons at least), nor in any Cask or Package containing less than Four hundred and fifty Pounds Weight, save and except any such Spirits or loose Tobacco as shall be for the Use of the Seamen belonging to and on board any such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, not exceeding Two Gallons of the former, and Five Pounds Weight of the latter, for each Seaman, and also except such manufactured Tobacco or Snuff as shall have been duly exported as Manufactures from Great Britain or Ireland, or paid of Duties of all such Foreign Brandy, Geneva, or other Spirits, Tobacco, or Snuff respectively, together with the Casks or Packages containing the same, and also of every such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, together with all the Guns, Pistols, and Ammunition, Tackle and Apparel thereof.

Not to exceed in Tonnage of Ten Tons excepting Boats of Sark, having Licences
as to do.

LXXXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to subject to Duties or Senses, under any of the Provisions of this Act, any Boat not exceeding the Burthen of Ten Tons for having on board at any one Time any Foreign Spirits of the Quantity of Ten Gallons or under, in Casks or Packages of less Size or Content than Forty Gallons, or any Tobacco, Snuff, or Tea, not exceeding Fifty Pounds Weight of each, for the Supply of the said Island of Sark, such Boat having a Licence from the proper Officer of Customs at either of the Islands of Guernsey or Jersey for the Purpose of being employed in carrying Commodities for the Supply of the said Island of Sark, which Licence such Officer of Customs is hereby required to grant without taking any Fee or Reward for the same: Provided always, that every such Boat having on board at any one

Time any greater Quantity of Spirits than Ten Gallons, or any greater Quantity of Tobacco or Snuff than Fifty Pounds Weight of each of the said Articles, unless such greater Quantity of Spirits, Tobacco, or Snuff shall be in Casks or Packages of the Size, Content, or Weight herein-before required, or having on board at any one Time any greater Quantity of Tea than Fifty Pounds Weight, shall be forfeited.

XC. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall be found or discovered to have been on board any Vessel or Boat liable to Forfeiture under any Act relating to the Revenue of Customs, for being found within One League of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, or Sark, having on board or in any Manner attached or affixed thereto, or conveying or having conveyed, in any Manner, such Goods or other Things as subject such Vessel or Boat to Forfeiture, or who shall be found or discovered to have been on board any Vessel or Boat from which any Part of the Cargo shall have been thrown overboard during Chase, or seized or destroyed, shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XCI. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Person to re-export from any of His Majesty's Possessions Abroad to any Foreign Place any Coals the Produce of the United Kingdom, except upon Payment of the Duty to which such Coals would be liable upon Exportation from the United Kingdom to such Foreign Place; and that no such Coals shall be shipped at any of such Possessions, to be exported to any British Place, until the Repurser or the Master of the exporting Vessel shall have given Bond, with One sufficient Surety, to Double the Value of the Coals, that such Coals shall not be landed at any Foreign Place.

XCI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall, in any of His Majesty's Possessions Abroad, counterfeit or falsify, or wilfully use when counterfeited or falsified, any Letter, Warrant, Cuckoo, Transcript, or other Document for the raising, issuing, entering, returning, or clearing any Ship or Vessel, or for the landing, shipping, or removing of any Goods, Stores, Baggage, or Articles whatsoever, or shall by any false Statement procure any Writing or Document to be made for any such Purpose, or shall falsely make any Oath or Affirmation required by any Act for regulating the Trade of the British Possessions Abroad, or shall forge or counterfeit a Certificate of the said Oath or Affirmation, or shall publish such Certificate knowing the same to be so forged or counterfeited, every Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds; and such Penalty shall and may be prosecuted, and for, and recovered in like Manner and by such Ways and Means as any Penalty may be prosecuted, and for, and recovered under the Provisions and Directions of the said last-mentioned Act.

XCI. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, varied, or repealed by any Act to be passed in the present Session of Parliament.

CAP. LX.

An Act for regulating the Trade of the Isle of Man.

[10th August 1833.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled An Act for regulating the Trade of the Isle of Man, whereby the Laws of Customs, in relation to the Trade of the Isle of Man, were consolidated and amended: And whereas since the passing of the said Act divers Acts for the further Amendment of the Law have been found necessary; and it will be of advantage to the Trade and Commerce of the Country that the said Acts should be consolidated into One Act; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That this Act shall commence upon the first Day of September One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, except where any other Commencement is herein particularly directed.

II. And be it further enacted, That there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, the several Duties of Customs as the same are respectively set forth in Figures in the Table herein-after contained, denominated "Table of Duties," upon Importation into the Isle of Man of the several Goods, Wares and Merchandises, according to the Quantity or Value thereof specified in such Table, and so in proportion for any greater or less Quantity or Value of the same; (that is to say.)

And such additional Quantities of any of such several Sorts of Goods as the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury shall from Time to Time, under any special Circumstances of Necessity, direct, from such Ports respectively;

Subject to the Rules following; (that is to say,)

(1.) All such Goods to be imported into the Port of Douglas, and by His Majesty's Subjects, and in British Ships or Vessels of the Burthen of Fifty Tons or upwards:

(2.) Such Tobacco to be shipped only in Ports in England where Tobacco is allowed to be imported and warehoused without Payment of Duty:

(3.) Such Wine to be so imported only in Casks or Packages containing not less than a Hogshead each, or in Cases containing not less than Three Dozen repeated Quart Bottles or Six Dozen repeated Pint Bottles each:

(4.) Such Brandy and Geneva to be imported only in Casks containing One hundred Gallons each, at least:

(5.) Such Brandy and Geneva not to be of greater or higher Degree of Strength than that of One to Nine over Hydrometer Proof:

(6.) Such Goods, when exported from Great Britain, may be so exported from the Warehouse in which they may have been received without Payment of Duty:

(7.) If the Duties of Importation have been paid in the United Kingdom on such Goods, a full Drawback of such Duties shall be allowed on the Exportation:

(8.) Upon the Exportation from Liverpool of such refined Sugar, the same Bounty shall be allowed as could be allowable on Exportation to Foreign Parts:

(9.) Upon Exportation from the United Kingdom of any such Goods from the Warehouse, or for Drawback, or for Bounty, as much of the Form of the Bond, or of the Declaration, or of any other Document, required in the Case of Exportation of such Goods generally to Foreign Parts, as is intended to prevent the landing of the same in the Isle of Man, shall be omitted:

(10.) No Drawback or Bounty to be allowed, nor Export Bond executed, until a Certificate of the due landing of the Goods at the Port of Douglas be produced from the Collector and Controller of the Customs at that Port:

(11.) If any Goods be laden at any Foreign Port or Place, the Species and Quantity of such Goods, with the Marks, Numbers, and Designations of the Casks or Packages containing the same, shall be entered on the License, and signed by the British Consul at the Port of lading, or if there be no British Consul, by Two known British Merchants:

(12.) Upon Importation into the Port of Douglas of any such Goods, the License for the same shall be delivered up to the Collector or Controller of that Port.

V. And he it further enacted, That every Application for License to import any of the Goods aforesaid into the Isle of Man shall be made in Writing, and delivered, between the Fifth Day of May and the Fifth Day of July in each Year, to the Collector or Controller of the Port of Douglas in the said Isle, and such Application shall specify the Date thereof, and the Name, Residence, and Occupation of the Person applying, and the Description and Quantity of each Article for which such License is required, and of each Application with such Particulars shall be entered in a Book to be kept at the Custom House at the Port of Douglas, and to be there open for public Inspection during the Hours of Business; and on the Fifth Day of July in each Year such Book shall be closed; and within Fourteen Days thereafter the Collector and Controller shall make out and sign a true Copy of such Entries, specifying the Applicants resident and the Applicants not resident in the said Isle, and deliver or transmit such Copy to the Governor or Lieutenant Governor of the said Isle for the Time being.

VI. And he it further enacted, That within Fourteen Days after the Receipt of such Copy the Governor or Lieutenant Governor of the said Isle shall affix the whole Quantity of such Article, in the said place, among the Applicants resident in the said Island; in case the whole Quantity of any Article shall not have been applied for by Residents, then shall affix the Quantity not so applied for among the non-resident Applicants, in such Proportions in all Cases as he shall judge most fair and equitable; and shall cause a Report thereon to be drawn up in Writing, and sign and transmit the same to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall cause a Duplicate of such Report or signed to be transmitted to the Commissioners of Customs.

VII. And he it further enacted, That upon the Receipt of such Duplicate Report the Commissioners of Customs shall grant Licenses, to continue in force for any Period until the Fifth Day of July, then next ensuing, for the Importation into the Isle of Man of the Quantities of such Goods as are allowed by Law to be so imported, with their License, according to the Allowments in such Report, and dividing the whole Parties allotted to any one Applicant into several Licenses, as they shall be desired and required; and such Licenses shall be directed to the said Collector and Controller of Customs, and
